I further bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth A. Bass I devise the state and estate being of land and disposing mind and memory fortunately make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made I do give bequeath and devise unto my son Dr. Jesse Bass a long life of happiness and all of my interest in and to my estate or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Walton in Ga and the same I want and have it held to the same long part of the old Mrs. Wundapes home place and all that portion thereof which I now tenantly occupy and possess also one horse and buggy to be valued at one hundred dollars also one Cow and calf to be valued at and worth twenty dollars also three sheep to be valued at and worth six dollars also I will and direct that my executor hereinafter named shall turn over and give to my dear wife in cash the sum of three hundred dollars which they are duly requested to do at an early date as practicable after their qualification all of this I give and bequeath to my dear wife L. C. Bass especially in lieu of dower I also desire or direct that the same being given her as her full and whole share in my said estate it being my will and desire that she shall have no further interest in my estate either in the real or personal property there in action or agency 2nd I Direct and will that the balance of my property of every kind be disposed of as follows by my executors I will and bequeath to my first children to wit Dr. J. Bass, J. L. Bass, W. H. Bass Mrs. M. C. Shows, Mrs. M. J. Bates and Mrs.

Victoria [illegible] and to my female daughter Mary Lucinda the only child of my daughter Sara Lucinda formerly deceased and all of the balance of my property not herein before bequeathed consisting of all of my real and personal property and chose in action the lands and tenements to be taken by my said six children and my said female child and if it can be done equally to all of said children and said female child the same be divided out and parcelled between them in kind with a deed thereof giving to each of said children and said grand child an equal portion thereof but that if they cannot agree upon an equal and fair division thereof with a deed the same that then said Executors shall sell the same and divide the proceeds thereof equally among my said six children and my said grand child I do not desire that they shall undertake to divide the personal property in kind but it is my will that it shall be sold as early and practicable by my said executors and the proceeds thereof divided equally among my said children and female child as well and designed that my notes and accounts and other evidences of debt be collected and the proceeds thereof divided and distributed
