I Eating P. McDaniel being of sound mind, that I am going in the service of my Country, and knowing uncertain I am will return back again or not I feel it my duty to make some distribution of my property, so that I may avoid all other wills made by me, and do make this my last will 1) I desire that all my just debts be paid as there is some cash why my executors should wait for their money. I desire that my executor herein after named shall sell my Cherokee lands and my lands lying on the other side of Cosaw Creek, known as the Watkins place and any land lying in Jackson County Ga. and apply the proceeds thereof to pay debts, if that does not pay it then let other surplus stuff as my family can best do without.
2) I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary McDaniel all the remainder of my land together with twelve months before and
