LAWRENCE COUNTY POLL TAX PAYERS IN 1822

(This list is copied from an old clipping from either the Bedford Daily Mail or the Bedford Daily Times before 1935, since the owner of the tax list book, Robert N. Palmer, died in 1935.)

"There is a general impression among Lawrence county people that this county was sparsely settled at the time of the removal of the court house from Palestine to Bedford in 1825; but that is a mistake. The Census of 1820 showed Lawrence County to have 4,116 inhabitants within its borders, which was a lot of people for those days. It is true that the village of Palestine never had over 600 population, if it ever had that much; and it was a long time before Bedford, the new county seat, could show 1,000. Folks lived in log cabins on the forest-encircled farms.

"Robert N. Palmer" owns a tax list book, compiled by Moses Fell, the second County Sheriff, in 1822-25, while the court house was still at Palestine. It shows 986 poll tax payers in Lawrence county, and the leaf bearing the names beginning with the letters X, Y, and Z is lost, which would probably raise the number to about 1,000. This list is printed below and should be preserved by those of our readers whose historically minded, as it gives the names of the early settlers of the community:

Missing from book

Copied and contributed by Mrs. Bernice S. Martin, 601 R Street, Bedford, Indiana 47421.

*"Robert N. Palmer, owner of the original Poll Tax Book, was an eminent attorney for many years, dean of the Lawrence County Bar at the time of his passing, charter member of the library board, and the most unique character of the city for many years.

"Mr. Palmer lived to the ripe old age of 84 years, passing away Feb. 18, 1935."
___ From Museum Notes in Bedford Daily Mail, June 3, 1939.

NOTES

This list of Lawrence County Poll Tax Payers in 1822 has been copied as it appears in the newspaper clipping, though some errors are obvious. Some may be typographical, but others are evidently due to the original copyist's unfamiliarity with old-time cursive writing. One example is the name "Joep", which should have been "Jesse". In some of the old county books, a small "s", especially the first of a "double" letter, is made long - perhaps a carry over from the olatype printed "s" which resembled "f". Thus this letter followed by an "s" of the other style sometimes resembles "p".

I have several times found the name Butler spelled Boteler as here, and other names are spelled as they no doubt were pronounced locally.

Note that names are not in alphabetical order beyond the first letter.

FOREWORD

Lawrence County, Indiana, is fortunate in having most of its records intact from the date of its organization in 1818. However, Marriage Record Book "A" is a copy of an earlier volume (or volumes) which cannot be found. The copying has been very carelessly done in old-time script, and many errors have been detected by the committee. In some cases the committee has been able to decipher otherwise illegible names from personal knowledge of the family of one or the other of the parties to marriages; in other cases, the committee has been able to suggest through parenthetical insertions the correct spelling of names which have obviously been spelled as pronounced locally. Another type of error that frequently occurs is that of giving one set of names for the license, and another for the marriage return. This has seemed to be due to the original copyist carelessly carrying over a name from a previous record. These cases are noted by the committee as they occur in this volume. No doubt the original volume also contained many of the same errors noted in the copy. As far as possible, the original spelling has been preserved in the index in order to conform to the volume as it now exists.

Since it is not possible at this time to copy the entire volume of Book "A", the Genealogical Records Committee felt that this early part through 1830 should be made available to interested persons.

Bernice Sallee Martin
(Mrs. Frank E.)

FOREWORD

Lawrence County, Indiana, Marriage Record Book "A" covers the period from August 1818 to April 1836. The records from 1818 through 1830 were copied by the John Wallace Chapter and filed in 1956. This volume for the period 1831 - 1836 completes Book "A".

As explained in the Foreword to the first volume, there are obvious errors in Book "A" which is a copy of an earlier volume, now lost. Names have been copied and indexed as found, but the committee has indicated questionable or alternate spellings where it was felt that errors were made.

In cases where no marriage return was made by minister or Justice of the Peace, the date of the licence has been given and marked as such.

Many of the names appearing in this and the earlier volume submitted by the John Wallace Chapter are also to be found in the Bible Records and Wills filed by the Chapter.

FOREWORD

Lawrence County Marriage Record Book "A" covers the period from April 1838 through 1842. Since it is not possible at this time to copy the entire volume of Book "B", the Genealogical Records Committee felt that this first part should be made available to interested persons.

As in the earlier volumes compiled by the committee, there are many instances of incorrect spelling of names, but it was thought best to copy all as given. The correct spelling has been suggested in some cases by the committee, but the index has been made to conform to the spelling that appears in Book "B".

The Genealogical Records Committee is indebted to Mrs. Mary W. Edwards, Treasurer of the John Wallace Chapter, for the typing of this complete manuscript.
