Corpo Santo Altar Wine

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—This wine is made under the supervision of the Irish Dominican Fathers, at their Vineyards, Lumiar, Lisbon. Every possible precaution is taken by the Fathers to insure that the Wine conforms in the strictest possible degree with the Canonical Laws, and it is therefore, important to note that

- 1—At no time has the process of fermentation been retarded or stopped by artificial or unnatural means.
- 2—It is free from added spirits.
- 3—It is, therefore, the fully fermented pure juice of the grape and dry in quality.

The DOMINICAL OR SUNDAY LETTER for any year is that one of the first seven letters of the Alphabet which stands opposite the first Sunday of the year, when the first letter of the Alphabet is placed opposite the first day of the year, the second letter opposite the second day, and so on. It is obvious that if these seven letters be repeated in order opposite the remaining days of the year, the same letter which stood opposite the first Sunday will stand opposite every succeeding Sunday. Hence the use of the Dominical Letter in the Calendar is to indicate the days of the month on which the Sundays will fall in the different years.

Leap years have two Dominical Letters, one of which indicates the Sundays during the months of January and February; the other during the remaining months.

The Dominical Letters for the present year are D and C.

The GOLDEN NUMBER of a given year is the number which indicates the place of that year in the lunar cycle. This cycle is a period of nineteen years, and is called the LUNAR CYCLE because in every nineteenth year the different lunar phases—new moon, full moon, etc.—happen on the same days of the month, though about one hour and a half earlier in the day. It is also called the METONIC CYCLE, from the name of its discoverer, Meton, an Athenian astronomer, who published his discovery at the Olympic games celebrated in the year 432 B.C. The first year of the Christian era is regarded as the second year of the current lunar cycle; hence we have the following rule for finding the Golden Number of any given year:—Add 1 to the date of the year, and divide the sum by 19; the remainder is the Golden Number. If there is no remainder, the Golden Number is 19. The Golden Number for the present year found by this rule is 2. For

$$1920 + 1 \div 19 = 101\frac{2}{19}$$

The EPACT of any year is the number which represents in days the age of the moon on the 1st January of that year. One lunar month according to the Ecclesiastical Calendar contains  $29\frac{1}{2}$  days. Twelve lunar months, therefore, contain 354 days. Hence if the first day of a lunar month coincides with the 1st January of a particular year, that moon's age on the next 1st January (supposing the year to be a common one) will be  $365 - 354$ , or 11 days. This number, 11, is then the Epact of that second year. For the third year of this series the Epact will be 2 ( $365 - 354$ ), or 22; for the fourth year, 3 ( $365 - 354$ ), or 33. But when the Epact is equal to or exceeds 30, a month is introduced or intercalated, and the Epact of the year is the remainder after deducting 30. For the fourth year of the above series, therefore, the Epact will be 3, instead of 33.

To find the day of the week corresponding to a given day of a given month in a given year from 1850 till 1950 inclusive:—Find first the year in question, in the table on the left: the letter which stands at the head of the column in which the year is found is the Dominical Letter of that year. Proceed now to the table on the right; find the month about which you are inquiring, in the column headed “months;” and opposite this month look for the letter which you have found to be the Dominical Letter for the given year. Look next to the figures at the top of the column in which this letter is contained, and you will there find the days in that month, which are Sundays, and by reckoning backward or forward, the day of the week corresponding with the given date is found.

Example.—On what day of the week did the Feast of St. Patrick (March 17) fall in the year 1855, and on what day of the week will it fall in the years 1900 and 1949? From the columns on the left-hand we find the Dominical Letters for the years mentioned to be G, C, and B, respectively. In the columns on the right-hand we find opposite March, G in the fourth, C in the seventh, and B in the sixth. Hence, in the year 1855, the Sundays in March fell on the 4th, 11th, 18th, and 25th, and consequently the 17th, the Feast of St. Patrick, fell on Saturday. In 1909 the Sundays of March will fall on the 7th, 14th, 21st, and 28th, and in 1949, on the 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th. In the former year, then, St. Patrick's Day will fall on Wednesday, and in the latter on Thursday.

In the months of January and February in a leap year the proper line of Dominical Letters must be taken, as indicated in the table.

The day of the month corresponding to a given day of the week in any year can also be found from the same tables.

Find the Dominical Letter for the given year; then the dates of the Sundays for the given month in that year, from the second table.

Having found the date of the preceding Sunday, we have only to reckon forward to the given week-day.

Example.—To find the number of days from the 15th June to the 15th March following. Find June in the first column, and then in a line with that under March, is 273 days. If it were from the 15th June to the 25th March, it would be 10 days more or 283 days; but if from the 15th June to the 5th March, it would be 10 days less, or 263 days. In leap years, when the last day of February is included between the two dates, there will be one day more than by the table.

The INDICTION or CYCLE OF INDICTION is a period of 15 years. It has no connection with any ecclesiastical feasts or religious observances, and was first employed, it is believed, by Constantine the Great. The Indiction continued to be employed for centuries by Popes and Emperors as a convenient method of reckoning time and of expressing dates. The point of departure of the Indictions was fixed by Pope Gregory VII. (1073-1085) to be the first day of the year 313 A.D. Reckoning backwards we find that the year 1 A.D. was the fourth year of the current Indiction. Hence to find the place of any year of the Christian Era in the current Cycle of Indiction we have but to add 3 to the date of the year in question and divide the sum by 15. The present year is, therefore, the third of the current Indiction. For

$$1920 + 3 \div 15 = 128\frac{3}{5}.$$

PLENARY INDULGENCES.

Granted to the Faithful of this country on condition of their making a good Confession and Communion and fulfilling the usual conditions on the Feasts of

The Circumcision.

The Epiphany.

Purification of the B. V. Mary, or the Sunday following.

St. Patrick, or any of the seven following days.

Annunciation of the B. V. Mary.

Assumption of the B. V. Mary.

Easter Sunday.

Ascension.

Pentecost.

Corpus Christi.

Trinity Sunday, or any of the seven following days.

Ss. Peter and Paul, or any day within the Octave.

Nativity of the B. V. Mary, or on the Sunday following.

Immaculate Conception of the B. V. Mary, or on the Sunday following.

All Saints.

Christmas Day.

Titular of the Church.

Also on the First Sunday of the Month.

On the First Friday of each Month a Plenary Indulgence is granted to those who after Confession and Communion meditate for some time on the infinite goodness of the Sacred Heart. (S. C. Ind. September 7, 1897).

DAYS OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE.

On the following days Flesh-meat is forbidden, and only one meal, with a collation, is allowed to those who are bound to fast.

Ember Days.

Ash Wednesday and the Fridays and Saturdays of Lent.

Eve of Christmas.

„ Pentecost.

„ Assumption of the B.V.M.

„ All Saints.

In Ireland, Bishops may transfer the abstinence from Saturday to Wednesday during Lent. (S. Congr. Conc., 24th January, 1918).

In Ireland, flesh-meat is allowed at the principal meal on the Saturdays of Quarter Tense (outside of Lent) and on Vigils, which immediately precede or follow a Friday or other day of abstinence (Indult of Congr. of Council, 31st July, 1912).

On Holy Saturday, the obligation of Fast and Abstinence ceases at mid-day.

All the week-days of Lent, except those mentioned above, are days of Fast without Abstinence.

All Fridays are days of Abstinence. If a Holiday of Obligation falls on a day of Abstinence or Fast, outside of Lent, the obligation of Abstinence or Fast is removed.

On St. Patrick's Day the obligation of Fast and Abstinence is also removed (Congr. Conc. 13 May, 1919).

EMBER DAYS.

The Ember Days or Quarter Tense are three days in each quarter of the year which are set apart by the Church for fasting and special supplication.

The Ember Days are always the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday—

(a) Next after the 1st Sunday of Lent for the Spring Quarter.

(b) Next after Whit Sunday for the Summer Quarter.

(c) Next after the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (14th Sept.) for the Autumn Quarter.

(d) Next after the Third Sunday of Advent for the Winter Quarter.

The dates of the Ember Days in the current year are as follows :—

SPRING.

Wednesday, 25th February.

Friday, 27th February.

Saturday, 28th February.

SUMMER.

Wednesday, 26th May.

Friday, 28th May.

Saturday, 29th May.

AUTUMN.

Wednesday, 15th September.

Friday, 17th September.

Saturday, 18th September.

WINTER.

Wednesday, 15th December.

Friday, 17th December.

Saturday, 18th December.

ROGATION DAYS.

The Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next before the Feast of the Ascension are called Rogation Days; that is, days of special prayer to God for pardon of sin, for protection against pestilence, for peace, for the preservation of the fruits of the earth, and other grave necessities. The Rogation Days will occur this year on Monday, 10th May.

Tuesday, 11th May.

Wednesday, 12th May.

CENSUS OF IRELAND, 1911.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

4,390,219 Persons (2,192,048 Males, and 2,198,171 Females) were returned as constituting the population of Ireland on the night of Sunday, the 2nd of April—thus showing a decrease since 1901 of 68,556 persons, or 1.5 per cent.

There was during the decade an increase of 9,215 persons, or 0.8 per cent., in the Province of Leinster ; a decrease of 40,63, or 3.8 per cent. in the Province of Munster ; of 1,130, or 0.1 per cent., in the Province of Ulster ; and of 35,948, or 5.6 per cent., in the Province of Connaught.

3,242,670 persons returned themselves as Catholics, this number being 65,991 under the number so returned in 1901 ; 576,611 were returned under the head of " Protestant Episcopalians," being a decrease of 4,478, compared with the number tabulated under that head in 1901 ; 440,525 were returned as Presbyterians, being a decrease of 2,751, compared with 1901 ; the number of Methodists returned on the present occasion amounts to 62,382, being an increase of 356 on the number returned on the Census Forms in 1901.

Of the total Population in 1911, 73.86 per cent. were returned as Catholics ; 13.13 per cent. as Protestant Episcopalians ; 10.04 per cent. as Presbyterians ; 1.42 per cent. as Methodists.

The highest county percentage of persons who could speak Irish in the Province of Leinster is that for the county of Louth—5.9 per cent. of the population. The percentage for Kilkenny was 4.4; for Dublin City 3.9; for Meath 3.8; for Westmeath 3.5; for Dublin County 3.4; King's County 3.4; Carlow 2.8; Wexford 2.8; Queen's County 2.6; Kildare 2.5; Longford 2.1, and Wicklow 1.7.

In the Province of Munster there are two counties, in 1911, in which the proportion of the population who could speak Irish was under 20 per cent., viz., Limerick and Tipperary, in the former of which the percentage was 10.4, and in the latter 6.6.

With the exception of Donegal there is not in any county in Ulster which had, in 1911, 20 per cent. of its population able to speak Irish, the nearest approaches being the counties of Monaghan, Derry City, Cavan, Fermanagh, Armagh, Derry County, and Belfast City, in which the percentages were respectively 7.6, 5.3, 4.7, 3.3, 2.5, 2.3, 2.1, and 2.0. In Antrim County 1.4 and in Down 1.2 per cent. could speak Irish.

There are two counties in the Province of Connaught in which not 20 per cent. of the population could speak Irish, viz., Leitrim and Roscommon, in which the percentages were 6.2 and 10.8 respectively.

The following statement shows the counties in which over 20 per cent. of the population in 1901 and in 1911 were returned as able to speak the Irish language:—

| Province  | County    | Number1901 | PercentagetoPopulation1901 | Number1891 | PercentagetoPopulation1891 |

| Ulster    | Donegal   | 60,677         | 34.9                                   | 59,313         | 35.2                                   |
| Munster   | Cork      | 97,979         | 29.8                                   | 77,205         | 23.8                                   |
| Connaught | Sligo     | 17,570         | 20.9                                   | 15,927         | 20.1                                   |

From the foregoing statement it will be seen that in eight of the thirty-two counties over 20 per cent. of the population in 1901 and 1911 could speak the Irish language; four of those counties are situate in Munster, three in Connaught and one in Ulster.

EMIGRATION.

LAST WILL OR TESTAMENT.

It is important that all who have property to bequeath, or instructions to give for the Catholic education of their children, should make their wills while their health and faculties are unimpaired. Instead of trusting in printed forms and directions, it is always better to obtain the help of an experienced lawyer. A will must be written in ink, on paper or parchment. It must be signed at the end by the testator, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and he should, after signing it, take it in his hands and say: "I acknowledge this to be my last will and testament, and request you to witness it." The witnesses (who must be parties not interested in the will) will then sign in the presence of the testator, and of each other, writing fully and clearly their name, surname, residence and trade or profession, etc. It is not absolutely necessary for the witnesses to know the contents of a will. Obliterations and alterations should be avoided, and when they are necessary should be signed by the testator and witnesses.

1. The colour of the Vestments for each day is indicated by the initial letter of the colour printed on the right hand margin: thus B=Black ; G=Green ; R=Red ; V=Violet, and W=White. An asterisk placed after the letter indicates that a Private Requiem Mass is allowed by the Rubrics.

2. The ✠ indicates the Holidays of Obligation.

3. " (A) " indicates the solemn feasts, on which the Office is read from the Proper, or Common of Saints ; the Psalms of Lauds, Small Hours and Complin, being taken from Sunday.

Irish Manufactures

CLERY'S have always stocked goods of Irish Make, and at the foundation of the Irish industrial movement this firm came to the front as the largest centre for native manufacture.

In the Clerical Outfitting Department we can give complete outfits in Irish-made garments, with one or two absolutely unavoidable exceptions.

No goods are sold by us under any misleading statement of their origin. "Irish Goods" bought from us are as Irish as they can be.

In this, as in all other respects we maintain our reputation for straightforward dealing with all our customers and their requirements.

THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE,
 BISHOP OF ROME, AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST.
 SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES,
 SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH,
 PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY,
 ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF THE TEMPORAL DOMINIONS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH.

---

BENEDICT XV.
 SUPREME PONTIFF,
 NOW GLORIOUSLY REIGNING.
 GIACOMO DELLA CHIESÀ.

The two hundred and sixtieth Pope, was born at Pegli, diocese of Genoa, November 21, 1854; appointed Archbishop of Bologna, December 16, 1907; proclaimed Cardinal, May 15, 1914; elected Pope, September 3, and crowned September 6, 1914. His Holiness retains the Abbacy of Subiaco; the Prefectship of the Roman and Universal Inquisition, and of the Consistorial Congregation; the Presidency of the Pontifical Commission for the re-union of the separated Churches; the Protectorship of the Church and Chapter of SS. Celsus and Julianus, of the Greek Monastery of Grottaferrata, of the Benedictine, Dominican and Franciscan Orders, and of the Archconfraternity of the Via Crucis.

The Supreme Pontiff is assisted in the government of the Church by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several sacred congregations of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and Prelates.

THE CARDINALS.

The Sacred College of Cardinals consists, when it is complete, of seventy members:—Six Cardinal Bishops, fifty Cardinal Priests, and fourteen Cardinal Deacons. The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the supreme council or senate of the Church. They are the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor. The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are Ostia, Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinals of the second and third order take their titles from some of the oldest churches in the City of Rome. The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon, First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

The above Summary of Patriarchal, Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Residential Sees amounts in all to 1,085. But in this list we do not include districts governed by Prefects Apostolic and Apostolic Vicars, who exercise episcopal functions and jurisdiction under the Propaganda.

THE ROMAN CONGREGATIONS AND TRIBUNALS.

I.

CONGREGATIONS.

1. THE CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE.

This Congregation, over which the Pope himself presides, guards the teaching of faith and morals. It judges of heresy and of other crimes which lead to a suspicion of heresy.

Although there is a special Congregation for the discipline of the Sacraments, the Holy Office retains power to decide questions connected with dogmatic teaching on the Sacraments, as also questions which concern the Pauline Privilege and the matrimonial impediments of disparitas cultus and mixta religio.

To it belongs the examination of books, which was formerly assigned to the Congregation of the Index.

Secretary—Cardinal Merry del Val.

Office—Palazzo del S. Offizio.

2. THE CONSISTORIAL CONGREGATION.

This Congregation has the duty of preparing the agenda for Consistories, and (in places not subject to the Congregation of the Propaganda), of establishing new dioceses and chapters; dividing dioceses; appointing Bishops, Apostolic Administrators, Coadjutor and Auxiliary Bishops; instituting canonical inquiries regarding those to be appointed and ascertaining their knowledge.

It has charge of all matters relating to the government of the several dioceses (not subject to the Congregation of the Propaganda). It looks after the fulfilment of the obligations of Ordinaries; takes cognisance of the written reports of Bishops on the state of their dioceses; orders the Apostolic Visitations, examines what has been done in them, and after a special report to the Pope, prescribes whatever may seem necessary or opportune.

Secretary—Cardinal De Lai.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

3. THE CONGREGATION ON THE DISCIPLINE OF THE SACRAMENTS.

To this Congregation is assigned all legislation regarding the Discipline of the Seven Sacraments, without prejudice to the authority of the Holy Office as above defined, and of the Congregation of Rites in regard to the ceremonies to be observed in connection with the Sacraments. If any of these questions require judicial process they are handed over to the Tribunal of the Rota.

Prefect—Cardinal Giustini.

Secretary—Mgr. Luigi Capotosti.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria.

4. THE CONGREGATION OF THE COUNCIL.

This Congregation has charge of the discipline of the secular clergy and the faithful generally. It watches over the observance of the precepts of the Church, such as fasts (except the Eucharistic fasts), abstinence, tithes, the observance of feasts, with power to dispense when it thinks right; controls all matters relating to parish priests and canons, also all things affecting pious associations, pious legacies, honoraria for Masses, benefices or offices, ecclesiastical property, funds, and other matters of the same kind.

To this Congregation belong all matters connected with the celebration and recognition of Councils, and with meetings and conferences of Bishops.

Prefect—

Secretary—Mgr. Joseph Mori.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria.

5. THE CONGREGATION FOR THE AFFAIRS OF RELIGIOUS.

This Congregation decides all matters which relate to the affairs of Religious of both sexes, whether bound by solemn or simple vows, of those who without vows lead a common life after the manner of Religious, and of secular third orders, whether the question arises between Religious themselves or regards others besides.

Prefect—Cardinal Scapinelli.

Secretary—D. Mauro Serafini.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria.

6. THE CONGREGATION OF PROPAGANDA.

The jurisdiction of this Congregation extends to all places which have no regularly constituted hierarchy, and to some countries which though they possess a hierarchy, are still regarded as missionary countries.

This Congregation has authority over all matters which affect Religious considered as missionaries, but all questions concerning Religious as such must be submitted to the decision of the Congregation for the Affairs of Religious.

To the Congregation of Propaganda are now united the Congregation for the Affairs of Oriental Rites, and the Commission for the Union of the Dissident Churches.

Prefect—Cardinal Van Rossum.

Secretary—Mgr. Camillo Laurenti.

Office—Palazzo della Propaganda.

7. THE CONGREGATION OF SACRED RITES.

This Congregation has the right of examining and regulating all matters which proximately concern the rites and ceremonies of the Latin Church. It watches over the diligent observance of the sacred ceremonies in the celebration of Mass, in the administration of the Sacraments, in the performance of the Divine Offices, and all other things connected with public worship in the Latin Church; grants dispensations, bestows insignia and privileges of honour relating to sacred rites, and prevents the introduction of abuses in these matters.

It deals with all matters relating in any way to the beatification and canonization of Saints or to Sacred Relics.

Prefect—Cardinal Vico.

Secretary—Mgr. A. Verde.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria.

8. THE CEREMONIAL CONGREGATION.

This Congregation regulates the ceremonies to be observed in the Pontifical Chapel and Court, and the sacred functions performed by Cardinals outside the Pontifical Chapel; also settles questions of precedence of Cardinals and of Ambassadors sent by various countries to the Holy See.

Prefect—Cardinal Vannutelli.

Secretary—Mgr. Nicholas Canali.

9. THE CONGREGATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

This Congregation considers only such questions as are submitted to it by the Pope through the Cardinal Secretary of State, and especially questions connected with civil law and concordats entered into with different States.

Secretary—Mgr. Cerretti, Archb. of Corinth.

Office—Palazzo Apostolico Vaticano.

10. THE CONGREGATION OF SEMINARIES AND UNIVERSITIES.

To this Congregation is committed the regulation of Seminaries and Universities or Faculties which depend on the authority of the Church, including those which are conducted by members of religious societies. It examines and approves new institutions, grants the power of conferring degrees, and may itself confer degrees on men distinguished for special learning.

Prefect—Cardinal Bisleti.

Secretary—Mgr. J. Sinibaldi, Bishop of Tiberias.

Office—Palazzo della Cancelleria.

11. THE CONGREGATION FOR THE EASTERN CHURCH.

To this Congregation are assigned all matters which concern the Eastern Church, except such as are reserved for the Holy Office.

II.

TRIBUNALS.

1. THE SACRED PENITENTIARIA.

The jurisdiction of this tribunal is limited to those things which regard the forum internum, non-sacramental as well as sacramental. Hence, while matrimonial dispensations of the forum externum are assigned to the Congregation for the Discipline of the Sacraments, this Tribunal grants for the forum internum favours, absolutions, dispensations, commutations, sanations, and condonations. It decides all matters relating to Indulgences, except dogmatic questions, which are reserved to the Holy Office.

Penitentiary Major—Cardinal Giorgi.

Office—Palazzo del S. Offizio.

2. THE SACRED ROMAN ROTA.

To this Tribunal are referred all contentious cases, not major ones, which come before the Holy See.

Dean—Mgr. Sebastianelli.

Office—Palazzo della Dataria.

3. THE APOSTOLIC SEGNETURA.

This Tribunal, which is composed of six Cardinals, has the right, when appealed to, of quashing sentences pronounced by the Rota.

Prefect—Cardinal Lega.

Secretary—Mgr. Evaristo Lucidi.

Office—Palazzo della Dataria.

Irish Ecclesiastical Register.

---

IRELAND is divided, ecclesiastically, into four Provinces, named after the four Archiepiscopal Sees—Armagh, Dublin, Cashel and Tuam—which are not coincident with the civil Provinces, in which they are respectively situated. The Province of Armagh, containing the Primatial See of All Ireland, embraces, besides the civil Province of Ulster, the whole or portions of the counties of Louth, Meath, Westmeath, King's and Longford, in Leinster; of Leitrim, Sligo and Roscommon in Connaught; the Province of Dublin, under the Primate of Ireland, contains a portion only of the civil Province of Leinster, embracing the whole or portions of the counties of Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, Queen's, Wexford, Carlow, King's and Kilkenny; the Province of Cashel is mainly coincident with the civil Province of Munster; whilst the Province of Tuam is smaller than the civil Province of Connaught, and includes the whole or portions of the counties of Galway, Mayo, Sligo, Roscommon, Clare and King's.

The Province of Armagh includes the Diocese of Armagh, with the Dioceses of Meath, Ardagh, Clogher, Derry, Down and Connor, Dro-more, Kilmore, and Raphoe, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses.

The Province of Dublin includes the Diocese of Dublin with the Dioceses of Ferns, Kildare and Leighlin, and Ossory, as Suffragan Sees; total, four Dioceses.

The Province of Cashel includes the Diocese of Cashel, with the Diocese of Emly attached, the Dioceses of Cork, Cloyne, Killaloe, Kerry, Kilfenora, Limerick, Ross, Waterford and Lismore, as Suffragan Sees; total nine Dioceses. The Diocese of Kilfenora is assigned to the Bishop of Galway as its Apostolic Administrator.

The Province of Tuam includes the Diocese of Tuam, with the Dioceses of Achonry, Clonfert, Elphin, Galway and Kilmacduagh, and Killala, as Suffragan Sees; total, six Dioceses.

There are thus four Provinces, each presided over by an Archbishop, and twenty-four Suffragan Sees, or a total of twenty-eight Dioceses in Ireland.

Clergy Lists.—In every case the Diocesan Clergy List has been revised by the Bishop or his Secretary, and this is a guarantee, so far as can be secured, of the accuracy of the information supplied.

Chapters.—In many of the Dioceses the Chapters have been revived and organised, the members of which, together with the principal Dignitaries of the Diocese, will be found under the heading of the respective Sees.

Parishes and Benefices.—The number of civil or legal Parishes in Ireland is 2,428, and the number of Catholic Parishes or Benefices marked by territorial jurisdiction, 1,115, so that the civil and the Catholic ecclesiastical Parishes are rarely coterminous. Catholics have the deepest interest in adhering to the primitive designation and orthography of the several territorial divisions, Diocesan and Parochial, of the Irish Church, as a classified analysis of the derivation, origin and history of such designations would form a vast and most important body of evidence testifying to the intimate connection which subsists between the faith of the people and the very topography of the kingdom.

Public Institutions.—All Public Institutions in each Diocese, having Catholic Chaplains attached, as Workhouses, Lunatic Asylums, County, City, and Government Prisons, Military Barracks, etc., are published.

Regular Clergy.—The usual Diocesan Returns of the Regular Clergy will be found under each Diocese. Moreover all the Communities of each Order in Ireland or of Irish branches abroad are set forth under the heading "List of the Regular Clergy."

Religious Communities of Men and of Women.—Diocesan and other Returns are published of these Orders, with such information respecting them as may be expected in a Registry.

Educational Institutions.—These are fully considered under each Diocese, and are also indicated in a special section devoted to the position of Catholic Education in Ireland.

Charitable Institutions.—Orphanages, Asylums, Refuges, Hospitals, Reformatories, Industrial Schools, etc., will be found under the respective Dioceses in which they exist.

Obituary.—Diocesan Returns, obtained from the Bishops themselves, give an authentic list of the Clergy, etc., who died within the past year.

State and Progress of Religion.—Summaries, under various heads, supplied by the Bishops, or prepared from their Returns, are given, indicating the state of Religion in the Diocese. We also give the Catholic and non-Catholic population of each Diocese for the years 1881, 1891, 1901, and 1911.

APOSTOLIC PROCESS OF THE IRISH MARTYRS.

THE CAUSE : THE COURT.

Litteræ Remissoriales et Compulsoriales, dated 30th March, 1916, and addressed by the S. Congregation of Rites to the Archbishop of Dublin, instructed his Grace to proceed with the Apostolic Process in the above Cause, initiated by him in its first, or diocesan, stage in 1904, and granting him special faculties and dispensations for that purpose.

Owing to the Easter Rising of 1916, these official letters did not reach Ireland until the end of May. Preparations were at once begun, officials designated, documents printed and circulated, and the Vice-Postulator invited the Irish Bishops and Irish Provincials of Religious Orders to nominate witnesses. These received over twelve months to prepare their voluminous historical evidence.

The first formal Session of the Process, at which the Court was constituted, was held on 5th June, 1917. The first Session for the receiving of evidence did not take place until 15th October following.

Investigation has to be made into the claims of 260 individuals or groups of those who, it is claimed, died for the Faith in Ireland between 1537 and 1714. They are composed of 5 Archbishops, 10 Bishops (including a Cistercian, 3 Franciscans, and a Dominican), 37 Secular Priests, 1 Premonstratensian, 12 Cistercians, 42 Dominicans, 74 Franciscans, 10 Augustinians, 3 Carmelites, 2 Trinitarians, 5 Jesuits, and 2 Capuchins, not including their unnamed companions in martyrdom. The list is completed by 51 laymen and 6 women. Many of these loomed large in the history of the Ireland of their day—ecclesiastics, such as Primates Creagh and Magauran, Terence Albert O'Brien of Emly, Malachy O'Queely of Tuam, Peter Talbot of Dublin, Heber McMahon of Clogher,—laymen, such as Sir Phelim O'Neill and Geoffrey Baron. Many phases of Irish History have to be critically examined—the foreign relations of the Ireland of the great O'Neill, the hitherto obscure Baltinglass “conspiracy,” the History of the Confederation of Kilkenny, the Censures of Rinuccini, the history of the Remonstrance and “Popish Plot.”

The evidence on 122 individuals (in 93 groups) belonging to the Periods 1537–1603, 1603–1625, has been completed. These embrace nearly half the entire groups in point of numbers. Already the translation of Process I. (Period 1537–1603) is completed.

Selected research workers are working abroad, and have obtained new and important evidence in favour of the Cause.

Sessions are held and all business transacted at Holy Cross College, Clonliffe. The following are the chief executive officials:—

Judex Delegatus: His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin.

The Ven. the Archdeacon of Glendalough, P.P.

Fidei Sub Promotores: Right Rev. Mgr. O'Donnell, D.D., P.P., V.G.; Rev. Patrick Walsh, M.A.;
Rev. John McGuinness, C.M.

Notarii Actuarii: Rev. M. J. Curran, Rev. Patrick Dunne, D.Ph.; Rev. Thomas O'Donnell, B.A.

Notarii Adiuncti: Rev. Eugene McSweeney, B.A.;
Rev. John Redmond, B.A.; Rev. Patrick O'Flynn, B.A.

Postulator: The Rector, Irish College, Rome.

Vice-Postulator: Rev. M. H. MacInerny, O.P., Tallaght.

All communications should be addressed to the Vice-Postulator, or to Rev. M. J. Curran, Holy Cross College, Clonliffe.

REFORMATORIES.

St. Kevin's Reformatory (for Boys), Glencree, Co. Wicklow (opened in 1859); in charge of the Oblate Fathers. Superior, Rev. J. McD. Moran, O.M.I. Rev. E. Hunt, Rev. James Hughes, O.M.I.

Reformatory (for Girls), attached to High Park Convent, Drumcondra, containing 39 inmates under detention.

INSTITUTIONS, SOCIETIES, AND SODALITIES IN THE DIOCESE.

Association for the Propagation of the Faith, 22 Parliament Street, Founded 1838. President, His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin. Treasurers, His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin, The Venerable the Archdeacon of Glendalough, P.P. Hon. Secretary, The Ven. Archdeacon Gorman, P.P. Secretary, Rev. J. J. Kennedy, B.A.

Society of the B.V.M., Queen of Charity, Strand Street (Little).—Under the care of the Sisters of the Holy Faith.

Ladies' Association of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, Metropolitan Parish. Founded 1850. Director, Very Rev. R. F. Bowden, Adm. The Ladies of Charity visit and relieve the sick poor in their homes. Council Rooms : 46 Eccles Street.

Working Girls' Host I, Hanbury Lane, corner of Thomas Court, off Thomas Street. The object of the Hostel, which was founded in 1915, is to supply supper, bed and breakfast at nominal charges to working girls and domestic servants, President, Sir Joseph A. Glynn; Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Catherine Brindley; Hon. Secretaries, Messrs. William A. Ryan, B.L., and J. J. O'Shea.

Catholic Truth Society of Ireland, 24 Upper O'Connell Street. Founded in 1899, under the patronage of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland. Its principal objects are:—(1) To disseminate among Catholics cheap devotional literature; (2). To assist the uneducated poor to a better knowledge of their religion; and (3). To combat the pernicious influence of infidel and immoral publications, which are continually finding their way into the country, by the circulation of good, cheap and popular Catholic books. Its annual output averages 600,000 pamphlets and several thousand larger publications. Owing to the enormous increase in the cost of production the work of the Society is largely dependent on voluntary subscriptions, and new subscribers must help if the work is to be increased and extended.

His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV., has been pleased to mark his appreciation of the aims and objects of the Society by graciously bestowing many Spiritual Blessings on all Members, Subscribers and Helpers.

Subscribers are enrolled on the payment of 5s. or upwards per year, and Associates on payment of 2s. 6d. annually. Life Membership Fee is Five Pounds. Subscriptions can be forwarded at any time to either of the Secretaries at above address. President, His Grace Most Rev. John M. Harty, D.D., Archbishop of Cashel; Vice-Presidents, Right Rev. Mgr. Dunne, P.P., V.G.; Sir Joseph A. Glynn, Sir John Robert O'Connell, M.A.; Hon. Secretary, Joseph M. Flood, Esq., B.L. Organizing Secretary, F. O'Reilly.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, 23 Upper Sackville Street. (O'CONNELL STREET).

Council for All Ireland—President, Sir Joseph A. Glynn. Hon. Sec. Thomas A. Murphy.

Council for Dublin City—President, M. R. Lalor. Hon. Sec., J. D. Rush.

The Society was established in Dublin for the Visitation and Relief of the Poor in their Homes by the Members. Branches, numbering over 240, with over 1,000 Active Members and over 1,100 Honorary Members, exist in various cities and towns in Ireland. The Organisation is maintained by voluntary contributions. The following are the principal Special Works in Dublin.

Orphanage for Boys, Glasnevin—In this Institution, which is under the immediate charge of the Christian Brothers, on an average 150 orphan boys are maintained and educated at the Society's expense.

St. Vincent's Home—This house provides a Home at very moderate charges for ex-pupils of the Orphanage engaged in business in Dublin.

Free Night Shelter for Catholic Men, Back Lane—This special work, formerly carried on at 7 Great Strand Street, was removed during 1915, to a building specially constructed for the purpose in Back Lane. ♦The Shelter provides homeless Catholic men with beds and supper entirely free of charge. Every effort is made to find employment for the men. The new building has accommodation for 200 beds.

Catholic Seamen's Institute, 4 Sir John Rogerson's Quay.—This Institute aims at supplying Catholic seamen visiting the Port of Dublin with a centre for social intercourse and recreation. The members of the Committee in charge visit the vessels in Port every Sunday morning and interview the Catholics aboard.

The City Labour Yard, 5-7 Vicar Street.—This special work, near the Augustinian Church, Thomas Street, aims at providing employment for men who are disabled and unfit to compete in the outside labour market. More employment could be given if resources would permit.

Secretariat for the Poor, 46 Middle Abbey Street.—The members in charge of the Secretariat place their services at the disposal of the poor in matters of special difficulty, which cannot be so effectively dealt with by the Conferences. Poor persons desiring to secure the benefits of the various forms of State Aid (old age pensions, National Insurance, etc.), or needing advice in regard to tracing missing relatives, claims to property, etc., receive every possible assistance from the Secretariat.

Catholic Discharged Male Prisoners' Aid Society, 46 Middle Abbey Street.—The Committee in charge visit the Mountjoy Prison every Thursday, and interview prisoners in need of assistance on discharge. Some were supplied with tools, clothing, or stock for dealing. Others are sent to work, or to friends. Families of prisoners are also assisted, in certain cases.

Ozanam House, 53 Mountjoy Square.—A centre of social and spiritual work among the poor. Eleven Conferences of the Society meet here and share in several Special Works, including Penny Banks, a Secretariat for the Poor, a Workroom and Employment Bureau for Poor Women.

Myra House, 100 Francis Street.—Headquarters for three Conferences of the Society, and several special works:—Penny Banks, Coal Fund, Secretariat for the Poor, a Boys' Club, an Employment Bureau, etc. Conferences are attached to nearly all the City and Suburban Churches, and at Arklow, Athy, Balbriggan, Ballymore-Eustace, Blackrock (3), Bray, Castleknock, Dalkey, Glasthule, Kingstown, Monkstown, Sandymount and Skerries.

In addition to the ordinary Conferences, there are in the city several Boys' Clubs, Coal Funds, Penny Banks, and various other Special Works. Further information regarding any branch of the Society can be had from the Honorary Secretary, Council of Ireland, 23 Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin.

RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES IN THE DIOCESE.

SISTERS OF MERCY.

Sisters of Mercy, Immaculate Conception, Skibbereen—Superioress, Mrs. M. Canice Butler. Community, 29. Chaplains, Parochial Clergy. 340 children attend the Convent National School. Classes in Domestic Economy for adults have been established in connection with the Cork County Committee of Technical Instruction.

The Sisters have charge of Workhouse Hospital and Schools.

Sisters of Mercy of the Sacred Heart, Clonakilty—Superioress, Mrs. M. Josephine Binchy. Community, 36. Under the care of the Sisters is a National School, attended by 300 children; also an Industrial School, certified in 1869 for 130 children. The Sisters have charge of the Workhouse Hospital. Chaplains, Parochial Clergy. Classes in Domestic Economy similar to those in Skibbereen Convent are at work.

Convent of the Sacred Heart, Sisters of Mercy, Mount St. Michael, Rosscarbery, Co. Cork—Superioress, Mrs. M. Fachtna M'Carthy. Community, 15. Chaplains, Parochial Clergy. There is a beautiful Convent and very fine Schools on an eminence commanding a view of the surrounding country and Ross Bay. The situation is charming and the climate very healthful. 250 pupils attend the Schools. An Industrial Department is in operation, in which instruction is given in plain and ornamental needlework, dressmaking, and underclothing, lace-making, cookery, and laundry work. Attached to the Schools is a small workroom, in which poor girls are employed at embroidery and lace, and make good wages. All the Schools are conducted under the Board of National Education.

Skibbereen University and Intermediate School—Principal, Daniel Duggan, Esq., B.A.

Societies of St. Vincent de Paul at Skibbereen, Clonakilty.

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

(Institutum Fratrum Christianorum de Hibernia.)

The Institute of the Christian Brothers of Ireland, founded in 1802 by the revered Edmond Ignatius Rice, was formally approved and confirmed in 1820 by a Brief of the Sovereign Pontiff Pope Pius VII. of happy memory.

Since that time it has received many special marks of favour from succeeding Popes, and from the present reigning Pontiff, Benedict XV.

The main object of the Brothers, after their own sanctification, is the Christian education of youth, to which, after due preparation, they entirely and irrevocably devote themselves.

The most suitable age for postulants to enter the Novitiate is between 16 and 25; those seeking admission must possess the talents necessary to prosecute the course of studies prescribed by the Institute for its members.

The Juniorate is at Baldoyle, Co. Dublin, where boys between the ages of fourteen and sixteen, who seek admission to the Institute, are received and educated preparatory to their entering the Novitiate and Training College at St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin.

Candidates anxious to join the Congregation may obtain further particulars by applying to the Christian Brothers, St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin, where the Superior-General, Rev. Brother J. C. Whitty, and his Assistants, Rev. Brothers P. J. Hennessy, H. B. O'Hagan, E. C. Barron and S. H. Butler, reside.

PRESENTATION BROTHERS.

The Institute of the Presentation Brothers was founded in the year 1802 by Edmond Ignatius Rice. It continued a Diocesan Congregation until 1889, when the government of the Institute was placed in the hands of a Superior-General and Council. Pope Leo XIII., by a Brief dated 1889, formally approved of the new Constitution, and in 1899 the Order was finally confirmed by the same Holy Pontiff.

The Christian education of youth constitutes the chief end of the Institute after the sanctification of its own members.

The Novitiate House and Training College are at Mount St. Joseph, Cork. Postulants who possess the necessary qualifications, in regard to health, character and education, can go through their full course of training there.

The most suitable age to enter the Novitiate is between 16 and 25. There is, however, a Juniorate attached to the Novitiate, into which aspirants to the Order are admitted at about 14 years of age, and educated until such time as they are qualified to join the Order and enter the Novitiate. Exceptions are also made in the case of very suitable candidates whose ages exceed 25.

Further particulars may be obtained by applying to the Presentation Brothers, Mount St. Joseph, Cork, where the Superior-General, Rev. Bro. T. A. Rahilly, and his Assistants, Rev. Brothers E. J. Connolly, E. P. Curtin, C. B. O'Donoghue, and J. B. Murphy, reside.

BROTHERS OF ST. PATRICK.

The Congregation of the Brothers of St. Patrick or Patrician Brothers was founded at Tullow, Co. Carlow, in 1808, by the Right Rev. Daniel Delany, D.D., Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin.

It was formally approved by Decree of the late Pope Leo XIII. on the 6th Jan., 1888, and confirmed by Decree of 8th Sept., 1893.

The special end of the members of this Congregation, after their own sanctification, is the Christian Education of youth.

Postulants are admitted between the ages of 15 and 25 years. It is of the first importance that the applicants for admission should belong to good religious families of irreproachable character, and that they should have a fixed determination to devote themselves to the service of God in the Congregation. Talented native Irish speakers are specially desirable, and will be admitted on easy terms.

The Novitiate and the House of Students are in Tullow, where the Superior-General, Rev. Brother Boniface O'Carroll, and his Assistants, Rev. Brothers L. Slattery, S. Slattery, B.A., S. Bergin, A. Keogh.

Applications should be made to the Rev. Br. Superior-General, St. Patrick's Monastery, Tullow, Co. Carlow.

THE BROTHERS OF THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS.

The Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools is a religious congregation whose members devote themselves to the Christian education of youth.

This Society was founded at Rheims by St. John Baptist De La Salle about the year 1680, and was formally approved in 1725 by Pope Benedict XIII., who issued to them the Bull "In Apostolicæ dignitatis solio."

The Congregation has since spread throughout the Christian world and counts hundreds of Houses and thousands of Brothers in Europe, Asia, Africa, America and Australia.

The establishments conducted by the Brothers comprise Primary, Secondary, Technical, Industrial and Agricultural Schools, Colleges, Orphanages and Training Colleges for Teachers.

The Institute is governed by a Superior General and twelve Brothers Assistants who habitually reside in Paris.

The Novitiate for Ireland is at De La Salle Retreat, Castletown, Queen's Co., where boys and young men are admitted for training. It consists of a Junior Department where boys under sixteen receive an education suitable to their age and are gradually prepared for the religious life; 2nd: A Senior Department where young men over sixteen are trained to the customs and practices of the Institute. Then there is the Scholasticate where the young Brothers are directly prepared for the teaching profession to which they mean to devote their lives. These studies are usually completed by a two years' course in the Brothers' well-known Government Training College at Waterford.

Candidates anxious to join the Institute should apply for particulars to the Rev. Brother Benedict, Provincial; or to Rev. Brother Anselm, De La Salle Retreat, Castletown, Mountrath, Queen's Co.

The Irish District or Province, which is still comparatively young, includes the following Houses with their respective Superiors and approximate number of pupils in each school:—

FRANCISCAN BROTHERS.

The Institute of the Franciscan Brothers, or Brothers of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis, after the interruptions of the Penal times, commenced to revive in Ireland in the early days of the nineteenth century, and several Monasteries of the Order were established in the Archdiocese of Tuam.

In 1830, by a Rescript of Pope Pius VIII., the Brothers were transferred from the jurisdiction of the Provincial of the Friars Minor to that of the Archbishop of Tuam. Later on they extended into other dioceses in this country, and also to Brooklyn and Loreto in the United States of America.

By a Rescript dated February 5th, 1918, His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. has united all the Franciscan Brothers in Ireland under one Superior-General.

After the sanctification of its own members, the principal end of the Institute is the Christian education of youth.

Young men and boys from fifteen years upwards, and possessing the necessary qualifications as regards health, talents, character, etc., are admitted as Postulants to the Order. Boys of fourteen years are admitted to the juniorate as scholastics until they reach fifteen. Postulants are also admitted as Brothers for farm and domestic work.

Applications for admission should be made to the Superior-General, Franciscan Monastery, Mountbellew; or to the Superior, Franciscan Novitiate, Annaghdown, Galway.

Brothers who enter the Order in Ireland are not obliged to go abroad.

Philip II., King of Spain, founded the College, with a yearly endowment, in 1592. The first Superior was the saintly Father Thomas White. Archbishop Florence Conroy and Father Luke Wadding were amongst the early students. In comparatively modern times four future archbishops and two bishops studied, at the same time, in the halls of this College—Dr. Curtis, Armagh; Dr. Murray, Dublin; Dr. Laffen, Cashel; Dr. Kelly, Tuam; Dr. Marum, of Ossory; and Dr. Kernon, of Clogher.

The College itself is one of the most beautiful buildings in Spain, where monuments of architectural beauty abound. In 1906 all the students' rooms were remodelled and furnished on modern lines.

Most of the classes are conducted at the Pontifical University.

Sacred Scripture, Sacred Liturgy, Pastoral Theology, Sacred Eloquence, Declamation, Spanish, Irish, English, French, Music and a Supplementary Class in Moral Theology are taught in the College.

The "Free Places" are available only for students for the Irish Mission. Students for other missions must pay the usual pension.

Irish Ecclesiastical Events

For the Year 1919.

DECEMBER, 1918.

DECEMBER 3.—At a conference held between Mr. Dillon and Professor M'Neill at the Mansion House, Dublin, on questions concerning the Ulster Nationalist seats, which are threatened by three-cornered contests, it was decided, in accordance with the suggestion of the Ulster Bishops, that the eight seats—South Fermanagh, Derry City, South Down, North-West Tyrone, North-East Tyrone, East Donegal, South Armagh, and East Down—should be equally divided between Sinn Féin and the Nationalist Party. On the question of the allocation of the seats the conference failed to agree, and it was decided to refer the matter to Cardinal Logue and that the full influence of the conference should be used to support his decision.

DECEMBER 8.—The solemn consecration of Right Rev. Thomas Broderick, Titular Bishop of Pednelissus, and first Vicar Apostolic of Western Nigeria, took place to-day in the Cathedral, Killarney, his Lordship Most Rev. Dr. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Kerry, being the consecrating prelate, and Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan, Bishop of Cork, and Most Rev. Dr. Hallinan, Bishop of Limerick, assistant prelates. Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne, was also present. There was a large gathering of clergy in the Choir.

The new Bishop was born at Kilflynn, Co. Kerry, in 1882, and was educated at Wilton College, Cork, and the Lyons Seminary of the Society of African Missions. He was ordained priest in 1906, and has had much experience as a missionary on the Gold Coast and elsewhere. He was appointed to a post at the Seminary, Blackrock Road, Cork, on its opening in September, 1902, became Superior of the Institution in 1911, and last month was nominated to his episcopal charge in Nigeria.

DECEMBER 11.—The death occurred in Clonmel, of the Right Rev. Monsignor Flavin, P.P., V.F., at the age of 90. A native of Ring, he had completed 60 years in the priesthood. He ministered as Curate in Ballyneale, Dungarvan, Ardfinan, and Clonmel, and prior to being appointed P.P. of SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Clonmel, was parish priest of St. Mary's; while in charge of the latter parish he was appointed a Canon. In 1906 he was raised to the Archdeaconate, and in 1916, was appointed a Domestic Prelate to the Pope. As a memorial to his energy, he leaves behind him one of the most beautiful churches in the South of Ireland.

DECEMBER 17.—Father Patrick Fidelis Kavanagh, O.F.M., the historian of '98, passed away at the Franciscan Friary, Wexford, to-day.

The venerable Franciscan, who had passed his 80th year, was found in a kneeling posture in his room, and evidently had been engaged in prayer when the end came.

Born in March, 1834, at Wexford, he was educated at the Christian Schools and St. Peter's College, Wexford, and pursued his theological studies at St. Isidore's, Rome, where he was ordained in 1856. He began his missionary career in Wexford, and afterwards visited North and South America, and Australia on two occasions.

Father Kavanagh spent some years in Waterford, Galway, Carrick-on-Suir, and Cork. He was well-known as a lecturer, preacher, and litterateur. Amongst many national works, in poetry and prose, his History of the Insurrection of '98 is perhaps the best known, and it gained him a widespread reputation as patriot and scholar.

His grandfather, Jeremiah Kavanagh, was a prominent figure in the rebellion, as was also his maternal grand-uncle, Father Michael Murphy, killed in battle at Arklow.

JANUARY, 1919.

JANUARY 3.—In a letter read in the Churches of Cork diocese, Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan alluded to the danger of conscription as past, and appealed that the money subscribed in the diocese to the Anti-Conscription Fund should be placed at his disposal for a building fund for the erection of a Cathedral.

He asked subscribers to perpetuate the memory of the National opposition to conscription by associating their money with the principal monument in the diocese—a work which the faithful must undertake some day. With the development of the City, the want of a new Cathedral would be felt.

"In estimating the cost, no one will think," the Bishop states "of less than £200,000. It is a large sum. The Anti-Conscription money in city and county parishes reached an important sum. The subscribers will not miss the money they parted with last spring, and I ask them not to break the sum collected, but to leave it to me to be regarded as their first subscription towards the Cathedral." He proposed to have a special memorial of the subscription in the Cathedral and he would reinvest a portion of the interest of the money for this special purpose, to have an offering for the celebration of a High Mass once each year for ever in the old Cathedral for the present, and in the new Cathedral when it was built, for the subscribers and their families, living or dead.

JANUARY 25.—The Right Rev. Monsignor Miles MacManus, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Dublin, and Parish Priest of St. Catherine's, Meath Street, died to-day, aged 92. He was born in Dublin in 1827, made his ecclesiastical studies in Maynooth, was successively curate in the Parish of St Nicholas, Francis Street, Parish Priest of Celbridge (1853–1864), and for the last 45 years, Parish Priest of St. Catherine's, Meath Street.

Not long since he established a burse for the advancement of Biblical Greek in Clonliffe College. He was a diligent student of Greek literature to the very end of his days, and the Greek Testament was to him his daily bread.

Few in recent times have passed from out of the ranks of the Dublin Clergy followed by such reverent and widespread regret as Monsignor McManus.

His rich intellectual gifts, his deep and varied scholarship, his many accomplishments, and his refined and elevating tastes, made for him an easy way and a welcome to every cultured section of the whole civic community; while his genial good nature, his bright spirits, and his wide human sympathies endeared him to all.

JANUARY 29.—To-day was celebrated the centenary of the foundation of the Convent of the Irish Sisters of Charity, St. Mary's, Stanhope Street, Dublin. In this Convent, Mary Aikenhead, the foundress of the Irish Sisters of Charity, lived from 1819 to 1831, the twelve eventful years when the Congregation was being moulded into shape.

The Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea, presided to-day at the sacred ceremonies in the Convent Chapel. Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor. The preacher was the Very Rev. Canon Burke, P.P., Aughrim Street, who announced that the Holy Father had sent his apostolic blessing to all who took part in the ceremonies. In the course of his sermon, the Canon traced the history of the Convent, which may be claimed to be the mother-house of the Order.

A large number of priests were present in the Choir.

FEBRUARY, 1919.

FEBRUARY 7.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue, in formally opening the new premises of the Catholic Club, Armagh, said he hoped the new club would be a source of comfort, fellow-feeling, charity and union among the Catholic young men of the City of Armagh.

An attempt was being made by their enemies at the present time to interfere in the matter of education, and if that attempt succeeded it would be disastrous to Catholic interests. Education required to be most carefully watched, so that no inroads should be made on it.

FEBRUARY 15.—The Irish Catholic, commenting on a recent decision of the Master of the Rolls regarding the custody of a child, says:—"His fellow-Catholics will find it difficult to understand the grounds upon which the Master of the Rolls, the Right Hon. Charles O'Connor, arrived at the decision he gave in a case heard by him within the last few days in Dublin. This case was one for the custody of a child, seven years of age, whose father is unknown and whose mother is dead. Her natural grandmother, a charwoman in Athy, sought to recover the child from a Mr. and Mrs. Strong, Dublin, who are rearing her as a Protestant, and who have no bond of kinship with her whatsoever, but who took in her mother soon after the birth of the child in question. Though born a Catholic, the mother, when with the Strong's, became a Protestant, and had her child—baptized originally a Catholic—baptized anew as a Protestant. On her heath-bed, however, she saw a priest, and expressed to him her wish that her child should be reared a Catholic. To carry out this wish, the natural grandmother applied for custody of the child but this she has been refused by the Catholic Master of the Rolls on the purely material ground that the child is better off with the Strong's, who are shopkeepers in Dublin, than she would be with the poor charwoman grandmother in Athy."

The Irish Catholic appeals for funds to carry the case to the Court of Appeal.

FEBRUARY 14.—The Venerable Archdeacon Charles Stuart, P.P., V.G., died to-day at Roscrea.

The late Archdeacon was born in O'Connellloe, Co. Clare, and was educated in Killaloe Classical School, whence he proceeded to Maynooth, where he was ordained by the Most Rev. Dr. Power in December, 1870. His first mission was at Kilmihil, Co. Clare, and thence he was transferred as C.C. to Miltown-Malbay, Roscrea, and Birr. While in Birr he fell into ill-health, and became Chaplain to Count O'Byrne, Roscrea, and spent many years in France. Returning to Ireland, and still in delicate health, he was appointed Chaplain to the Sacred Heart Convent, Roscrea, from which he was transferred as P.P. of Roscrea, and V.G. of the diocese of Killaloe in 1901. He was appointed Archdeacon in the summer of 1906. For some years he has not been able to attend to parochial work.

FEBRUARY 18.—The Oblate Fathers and the Catholic community have sustained a great loss by the death of the Very Rev. Joseph McSherry, O.M.I., Superior at Inchicore, Dublin, which took place to-day.

Father McSherry was born at Charlemont, Co. Armagh, in 1863, and was one of a family which produced a Bishop, a priest, an Oblate Scholastic Brother, and four nuns. His brother, Most Rev. Dr. MacSherry, is Bishop of Port Elizabeth, South Africa. The deceased was ordained in 1887. For nine years he was Superior of Holy Cross Liverpool, during which period he renovated the schools in Fontenoy Street at a cost of £3,500, installed electric light in the Church and Presbytery, and had a scheme of decoration carried out in the Church which greatly enhanced the beauty of its striking interior. He was appointed Provincial in 1904, and held that responsible office until 1910, since when he had laboured at Inchicore.

FEBRUARY 22.—A two days' Irish Race Convention was opened in Philadelphia, U.S.A., to-day. There were about 5,000 delegates in attendance, representing Irish-American organisations all over the country, and including many Church dignitaries and clergymen.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, who was received enthusiastically, moved a resolution calling upon President Wilson and Congress to urge the Peace Conference to grant the right of self-determination to Ireland.

The resolution declared that the Convention which was speaking for many millions of Americans, urged the Peace Conference to apply "the great doctrine of national self-determination, and to recognise the right of the people of Ireland to select without interference from any other people the form of Government under which in future they shall live. Ireland bases her claim on the principle that Governments derive their power from the consent of the governed."

The resolution then recalled Ireland's struggles for national existence, and declared that permanent peace will not be established until Ireland has been granted the right of self-determination. It appealed to Great Britain to realise that justice for Ireland, which she has so long denied, with grievous loss to Ireland, but also great loss to herself, will now remove from her path the bitterest hostility which she has to encounter all over the world, and will convince mankind of the sincerity of her declaration when she says that she believes in liberty and justice for others as well as for herself.

The resolution added that if the League of Nations is to be created, all features infringing traditional American policies, including the Monroe doctrine, should be eliminated. The resolution was passed unanimously.

In support of the movement in favour of Irish freedom, the Convention was able to guarantee a sum of £250,000. Only £200,000 had been appealed for.

FEBRUARY 23.—A General Collection was made on Sunday in all the Catholic Churches of Ireland for the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred in connection with the Beatification of Irish Martyrs.

The first object to which the proceeds will be devoted is to meet the cost of the solemn ceremony of the Beatification of the Venerable Oliver Plunkett, and in the second place the funds are required to defray the expenses of the Apostolic Process now being held, by the authority of the Holy See, in the Ecclesiastical Court of Dublin for the Beatification of the Servants of God, Dermot O'Hurley, Archbishop of Cashel; Cornelius O'Devany, O.S.F., Bishop of Down and Connor; Terence Albert O'Brien, O.P., Bishop of Emly, and 255 others, reputed martyrs for the Faith.

The Collection was ordered by the Bishops of Ireland at their last meeting.

MARCH, 1919.

MARCH 2.—The Irish Bishops in their Lenten Pastorals protest forcibly against the misgovernment of which the country is the victim. One after the other they remark on the contrast between the language of British Ministers during the war about small nations and the Government's actual policy in Ireland. "We are not ruled," says

Cardinal Logue, "by the ordinary law, but are subject to a drastic military code under which actions otherwise harmless or trivial become grave offences and are pitilessly punished." "Our people," declares the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, "are now shut out by law from the employment of methods of seeking redress regarded as constitutional in the past. It would be unreasonable and indeed impossible to expect that they can long rest content with such a state of things." A number of the Bishops write with indignation of the calumny and oppression which are Ireland's reward for the heroic deeds of her sons in the war and express the conviction that there can be no lasting peace unless her rights are granted. Cardinal Logue, having condemned the attacks of revolutionary Socialists on the Church and the Schools, turns to the consideration of the relations between Capital and Labour. He dwells on the need of a better understanding between the employer and the worker, and indicates how it might be brought about. His Eminence believes that there would be much less trouble and fewer strikes if a system of co-operation were devised either in the form of partnership or participation in profits, by which the worker would be given a beneficial interest in the work.

The threatened secularisation of the primary schools, in Belfast as a beginning, is dealt with in the Lenten Pastorals of the Northern Hierarchy in terms which admit of no doubt as to resistance.

"A movement, which has long been hatching, to secularise our schools, has," says Cardinal Logue, "recently come to light. This is necessarily a cause of grave anxiety to Catholics. At first it was proposed for the city of Belfast; now it is for the Ulster counties; next it will probably be claimed for all Ireland, if it be not a move in the game of partition. If the Schools are removed from religious control, deprived of religious instruction and a religious atmosphere, it will portend a gloomy future for the little ones. . . . This, therefore, is a move which should be resisted, and please God shall be resisted by every legitimate means at our disposal."

Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor, declares that the Catholics of Belfast are ready to provide one-third of the cost of new Schools wherever they are needed if the State provides the other two-thirds. It was, however, proposed to tax the citizens on the same basis as poor rate. The new Schools would be mixed ones, where the teachers might be of any or no religion, and they would be particularly dangerous in Belfast, where religious bigotry is not yet dead.

He takes it that loyal Catholics will not avail of the new Schools for which they are proposed to be taxed—"a downright injustice," he says, "which we must be prepared to resist."

It was announced by the Most Rev. Dr. Browne, in his Pastoral, that the Cathedral of Cloyne, now completed, would be consecrated next August, and he re-told its history since the building was first conceived by Most Rev. Dr. Keane, in 1860.

In the first ten years the Queenstown fund reached £15,000, and when Dr. Keane died in 1874 the expenditure amounted to over £20,486. Most Rev. Dr. M'Carthy then took up the work energetically during his 19 years' episcopacy, and the Cathedral was opened for public service in June, 1879. Up to 1892 the whole outlay exceeded £100,000. Dr. McCarthy got £15,000 from the Clergy, £30,000 from the laity of the diocese, £14,000 from Irishmen abroad, £7,000 from other Irish dioceses, £8,600 from legacies, and £8,000 as a result of a further appeal to the diocese.

Dr. Browne then related his share in the work, which involved a further cost from 1895 to 1901 of £36,961, and finally the completion of the tower and spire for £19,660, half of which was contributed by the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese, and half by the laity, the outlay since 1895 being over £83,000; which was secured in the same way as before—£7,628 from the U.S., £12,555 from bequests and donations, £3,277 from outside Irish dioceses, and the balance from the diocesan clergy and laity.

MARCH 12.—Right Rev. Monsignor Fahey, D.D., V.G., of Galway and Kilmacduagh and P.P. of Gort, passed away to-day. He was educated at Maynooth, ordained in 1867, and appointed a Domestic Prelate in 1905, and a Fellow of the R.S.A.I. in 1910. In addition to being the writer of articles in the Irish Ecclesiastical Record and other periodicals, Monsignor Fahey was the author of "A History of the Diocese of Kilmacduagh."

MARCH 23.—Meetings of protest against the treatment of Sinn Féin prisoners in Belfast Gaol were held to-day outside the Catholic Churches throughout Ireland. The meetings adopted a common resolution which demanded the immediate release of the prisoners.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin, speaking at a meeting held outside the Pro-Cathedral in that City, said that he felt it was a solemn duty to attend that meeting and to take whatever risk—and there were now risks to everyone who assembled in the streets of Dublin—might attach to it. He was almost afraid to let himself go on the subject of the sights that he had seen and the treatment that had been inflicted upon his fellow-countrymen, not only in Belfast, but in every gaol in Ireland at the present day.

MARCH 29.—Right Rev. Monsignor Dean Byrne, P.P., V.G., Dungannon, who passed away to-day in his 78th year, as the result of a pneumonia attack, was for several decades a distinguished figure in the northern priesthood.

A member of an old Tyrone family, he was ordained in 1864, and after a period as Curate in Cookstown, was transferred to Armagh as Administrator, being afterwards (1872) appointed P.P., Donaghmore, then returning to Cookstown as Canon and P.P., and finally becoming P.P. of Dungannon, and Dean in 1882. His labours in the latter parish were marked by great enterprise. He had the beautiful spire placed on St. Patrick's Church, erected the fine high altar, and installed the Organ; was responsible for the building of a Convent and National Schools for the town, and for the establishment of St. Patrick's Academy, which is controlled by the Catholic Education Board, of which he was Chairman. His interest in education was intense, and he lost no opportunity of urging its importance in all branches. The completion of new schools throughout the district was a further evidence of his practical zeal. He was a Commissioner of Education (Endowed Schools), and for many years acted as Chairman of that Board. He was raised to the dignity of Domestic Prelate in 1891.

As a total abstainer, Monsignor Byrne gave the strongest support to every phase of the temperance movement. His work in social affairs was far-reaching, and bore fruit in various directions for the welfare of his people and the Armagh archdiocese generally. He took little part in politics, but he had decided views on the national claims, and he presided at the Convention which, about 22 years ago, founded the People's Rights Association and the Daily Nation. With wide knowledge and sound judgment he combined a dignity and authority that deeply impressed all who were associated with him in any public task.

It is of interest to recall that a grand-uncle of the late Monsignor Byrne, who bore the same name, and who died a century ago, was a Doctor of the Sorbonne, Paris, and President of the Irish College, Nantes, and had to leave France at the outbreak of the Revolution. He came to Ireland, and became the third President of Maynooth College, subsequently filling the office of Dean of Armagh.

APRIL, 1919.

APRIL 7.—The Rev. E. P. Meehan, C.M., President Castleknock College, died to-day in a private nursing home, Dublin, after a short illness.

Father Meehan, who was a son of the late Mr. P. A. Meehan, M.P., Maryboro', was one of the most prominent members of the Vincentian Order. He was associated with Castleknock College almost during his whole career. He entered as a student at 11 years of age, and after his ordination received the appointment of Dean of the College. In 1916 he was promoted to the Presidency of his Alma Mater. Father Meehan's administration at Castleknock was distinguished by remarkable success, and he maintained the highest traditions of the College. For an interval of a few years the deceased was engaged in missionary work in Scotland. He achieved considerable distinction as a preacher, and was indefatigable in all his spiritual administrations. In recent years, Father Meehan delivered a number of interesting public lectures on social questions in Dublin. His paper at the Catholic Truth Society in 1917 attracted widespread attention, and on that occasion his Eminence Cardinal Logue paid an eloquent tribute to Father Meehan's work.

Father Meehan was in his thirty-eighth year, and his untimely death terminates a most promising career.

APRIL 20.—The triptych presented to St. Patrick's Church, Donegall Street, Belfast, by Sir John Lavery, A.R.A., whose native parish it is, was unveiled on Easter Sunday by the Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor, in presence of a large and representative congregation. The triptych depicts the apparition of the Blessed Virgin to Saints Patrick and Brigid, against a background of lakes and mountains, and, with a frame-work by Sir Edwin Lutyens, it forms an altar piece of rare beauty.

In connection with the unveiling ceremony, Pontifical High Mass was celebrated at 12 o'clock, and an appropriate sermon was preached by Very Rev. Denis O'Keeffe, Queen's University.

APRIL 20.—The death has taken place at St. Paul's Retreat, Mount Argus, Ireland, of Father Arthur Devine, C.P., in the 70th year of his age and the 53rd year of his religious profession. Father Devine, who was ordained in Dublin some 47 years ago, spent the greater part of his priestly life in England and Scotland. To make the teaching of God and His Church better known was the ideal he had set before him, and besides his forty-five years of teaching, and preaching, and confessional work, the number of books—"The Creed Explained," "The Commandments Explained," "The Sacraments Explained," "The Law of Christian Marriage," "The Ordinary of the Mass," "Frequent and Daily Communion," a "Manual of Ascetical Theology," a "Manual of Mystical Theology," "History of the Passion," "Pentecostal Sermons," etc.—which he wrote, attest how successfully he carried out this ideal. For the past twelve years he had been Professor of Theology at Mount Argus. He took a great interest in the Irish Language revival, preached several sermons in Irish, and instituted a course of Sunday instructions for Irish speakers at Mount Argus some years ago.

MAY, 1919.

MAY 18.—In St. Colman's Cathedral, Queenstown, the congregation were informed by Rev. Father Aloysius, a member of the Carmelite Community, at present conducting a mission there, that on that day their distinguished Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Browne, was celebrating the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood. Prayers were asked that his Lordship might be spared for many years yet in which to exercise his wise spiritual rule over the diocese of Cloyne.

MAY 20.—At a recent meeting of the Clerical Managers of the Diocese of Kerry, presided over by the Very Rev. D. O'Leary, P.P., V.G., Dean of Kerry, the following resolution was passed in reference to the revised scheme for administering the funds of the Reid Bequest :—

"In reference to part 'C' of the scheme for the administration of the Reid Bequest, according to which Exhibitions awarded to Kerry teachers shall be tenable only in Dublin University, we desire to say that we can on no account sanction our Catholic teachers entering Trinity College for lectures or degrees, and we protest against an arrangement which, in whatever quarter made, excludes our teachers from a share in a substantial portion of the Bequest. As Catholics have a conscientious objection to pursuing their studies in Trinity College, and as the provisions of Part 'C' are therefore illusory for them, we suggest that the proposed Exhibitions should be made available for them in the National University."

JUNE, 1919.

JUNE 3.—Overruling a decision which had been treated as binding for generations, the House of Lords allowed the appeal of Cardinal Bourne and Rev. Terence Donnelly S.J., and decided that bequests in the will of Edward Egan, an Irishman who lived in London, for Masses were valid. The Lord Chancellor said a consideration of authorities had led him to the following conclusions—(1) That at common law Masses for the dead were not illegal, but, on the contrary, that dispositions of property to be devoted to procuring Masses to be said or sung were recognised both by common law and statute; (2) that at the date of the passing of I. Edward the Sixth, c. 14, no Act or legal provision made Masses illegal; (3) that I. Edward the Sixth, c. 14, did not itself make Masses illegal, or provide that property might not thereafter be given for Masses; (4) that as a result of the Act of Uniformity Masses became illegal; (5) that neither contemporaneous exposition, or statute of I. Edward the Sixth, c. 14, nor any doctrine closely related to it in point of date, placed upon it the construction adopted in West v. Shuttleworth.

(6) That the substratum of the decision which held such uses and trusts invalid perished as a consequence of the passing of the Catholic Relief Act, and, therefore, their Lordships might give free play to the principle cessante ratione legis cessat lex ipsa: (7) that the current of decisions which held that such uses and trusts were ipso facto superstitious and void began with West v. Shuttleworth, and was due to a misunderstanding of the old cases. If his view was well-founded, citizens of the country had for generations mistakenly held themselves precluded from making these dispositions. He could not conceive that it was his function as a judge of the Supreme Appellate Court of this country to perpetuate error in a matter of this kind. And the view which he held of the law corresponded with the law of Ireland, of the Dominions, and of the United States on that important point. Lords Atkinson, Buckmaster, and Parmoor concurred. Lord Wrenbury dissented.

JUNE 5.—It is announced from Rome that the Holy Father has appointed the Very Rev. Thomas Canon O'Doherty, B.D., Dean of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, to be Bishop of Clonfert, in succession to the Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, Archbishop of Tuam.

The Bishop-elect is Canon Theologian of the Diocese of Elphin. He is a native of Co. Roscommon, and is comparatively a young man. He was educated at Summerhill College, Sligo, and afterwards at Maynooth. Shortly after his ordination he was appointed to the professorial staff of the Diocesan College in Sligo, a position he held until his appointment as Dean at Maynooth in 1910.

JUNE 6.—The Senate of the United States passed by a majority of 59, a resolution requesting that the Irish people should have a hearing before the Peace Conference.

The resolution, which was proposed by Senator Borah, was finally passed after revision by the Foreign Relations Committee and the incorporation of an amendment proposed by Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, which declared that the Senate expressed its sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a Government of their own choice.

The House of Representatives adopted a similar resolution last session, and, although the two resolutions have no connection, the whole of Congress is now on record as favouring a hearing for the Irish.

The resolution was vigorously supported by Senator Lodge, Republican leader and Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate, who took the line that, although the Peace Conference should have started out to make peace with Germany, and not to arrange the affairs of the whole world, it had taken upon itself to go into the internal affairs of many nations. It was only fair, therefore, he said, that it should go into the Irish question.

The resolution of the Senate, which was carried by 60 votes to 1, was as follows:—

“Resolved, that the Senate of the U.S. earnestly requests the American Peace Commission at Versailles to endeavour to secure for E. De Valera, Arthur Griffith, and Count George Noble Plunkett, a hearing before the said Peace Conference in order that they may present the cause of Ireland.

“Resolved, further, that the Senate of the U.S. express its sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of its own choice.”

JUNE 20.—A decision which was given in the Irish Court of Appeal concerning the religion of a child has caused much surprise in Ireland. The Judges were the Lord Chancellor, Lord Justice Ronan, and Lord Justice O'Connor.

The case was that of Josephine Connor, an infant. The child of Mary Connor, now deceased, she was baptized as a Catholic. Her mother subsequently went to lodge with Arthur F. Strong and Margaret Strong, his wife, Dublin, and after a period of seven years was publicly received into the Protestant Episcopal Church. It was alleged that during her last illness the mother expressed the anxious desire that Mr. and Mrs. Strong should adopt the child and bring her up as a Protestant, but on her death-bed she asked for a priest, and when he arrived told him she had never been a sincere Protestant, received the last Sacraments at his hands, and begged him to see that the child was brought up as a Catholic. After her death, Ellen Connor, of Higgins Lane, Athy, the grandmother of the child, claimed custody of her, but the Master of the Rolls decided that the child should be left with Mr. and Mrs. Strong. The case was then brought before the Court of Appeal.

The majority of the Court, Lord Justice O'Connor dissenting, upheld the decision of the Master of the Rolls with costs, and, on the application of Mr. Leech, K.C., Mr. and Mrs. Strong were appointed guardians of the infant, whose age is now eight years.

JUNE '24.—At a meeting of the Irish Bishops held to-day in Maynooth College, the Rev. Michael Canon Sheehan, D.D., D.Ph., was appointed Vice-President of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, the position having been vacated by the appointment of the Very Rev. James Canon MacCaffrey, Ph.D., S.T.L., as President.

The Rev. Paul Walsh, M.A., was appointed Professor of Ecclesiastical History.

The Trustees of the College gratefully accepted the donation of £500 given by the Very Rev. Canon D'Alton, author of "The History of Ireland," for the encouragement of Irish historical studies in the College.

Their Lordships issued a statement protesting against the present method of governing Ireland, which they describe as "the rule of the sword, provocative of disorder and chronic rebellion." (See "Record of Documents.")

JUNE 25.—The celebrations at the Dominican Convent, Cabra, of the Bicentenary of the foundation of the Dominican Nuns in the Archdiocese of Dublin, and of the Centenary in Cabra, opened on Wednesday, 25th of June. The presence of his Eminence Cardinal Logue and of a large number of the Irish Bishops gave a special interest to the function. His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. conveyed a special mark of paternal interest in the function by an autograph letter and by a telegram of congratulation. An autograph letter and telegram were also received from the General of the Order.

The function opened at 11 o'clock, his Eminence Cardinal Logue presiding. A Solemn Pontifical High Mass of Thanksgiving was sung by the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe.

The following Bishops were present:—

His Eminence Cardinal Logue, Archbishop of Armagh; Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Bishop of Galway; Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe; Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor; Most Rev. Dr. Naughton, Bishop of Killala; Most Rev. Dr. Morrisroe, Bishop of Achonry; Most Rev. Dr. Mulhern, Bishop of Dromore; Most Rev. Dr. O'Doherty, Bishop-elect of Clonfert.

Very Rev. V. McCarthy, President, St. Vincent's College, Castleknock, at the close of an eloquent sermon said:

"To-day the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ is offered to the Father from a chalice that has been in the possession of the Dominican Nuns through all their wanderings, a relic of their exile in Spain, bearing date 1682. To-day we unite in our thanksgiving for the past a humble petition for future favours. We ask God to continue to bless the works of this noble institution that has already done so much for our faith and Fatherland."

The ceremonies closed in the evening with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, and the Papal Blessing was given.

The celebrations were continued on the 26th and 27th.

JULY, 1919.

JULY 15.—A great shock has been caused to the members of his Order and to his numerous priestly and secular friends by the sad news of the death, which occurred on Tuesday morning, within three hours after the celebration of Mass by him, of the Rev. T. A. Pembroke, C.S.Sp., St. Mary's, Rathmines. He had just set out from Dublin on a much-needed holiday when the summons came. Born at Castleisland, Co. Kerry, in 1864, he was educated at Rockwell College, and during his student days here he entered the Congregation of the Holy Ghost. After his ordination he taught at St. Mary's College, Rathmines, becoming in succession Dean of Studies in Blackrock College, and Superior of Rockwell College. Later he was called to devote himself to the missionary works of his congregation. His last great enterprise in the cause of the evangelisation of the Dark Continent was the bringing into existence of "The Missionary Record of the Holy Ghost Fathers in Africa," the first number of which he had the gratification of seeing issued some weeks before his death.

JULY 20.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue has received, through the Belgian Legation in London, from His Majesty the King of the Belgians, the diploma creating him "Grand Officier de l'Ordre de la Couronne," together with the insignia of the Order. It is specially stated that this distinction has been conferred on his Eminence in recognition of the kindness shown to the Belgians in this country during the war.

JULY 26.—The Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, Archbishop of Tuam, and a large number of priests and laity took part in the annual pilgrimage to Croagh Patrick to-day. Masses were celebrated at the Oratory on the hill-top from 6 a.m. to noon. The Rev. E. Maguire, D.D., of the Chinese Mission (late of All Hallows College), preached a sermon in English, and the Rev. Patrick O'Connell, B.D., of the Chinese Mission, the sermon in Irish.

The Archbishop of Tuam has received a rescript from Rome granting an indulgence of seven years and seven quarantines to those who visit the Oratory on Croagh Patrick and pray for the intentions of the Pope. His Holiness declared the altars in the Oratory privileged altars.

AUGUST, 1919.

AUGUST 1.—News has been received by the Provincial of the Irish Capuchins that the investigation held by the Sacred Congregation of Rites in Rome into the Causes of Father Fiacre Tobin, a native of Kilkenny (who died in 1656), and Father John Baptist Dowdall, an Ulsterman (who died in 1710), has been satisfactorily concluded.

The names of these Capuchins were omitted from the list presented to his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin for investigation in the Ordinary or Informative Process opened by him in December, 1903, and concluded in 1904. In response, however, to a petition from the Provincial of the Capuchins in Ireland, the Archbishop on June 4th, 1917, instituted a distinct process to investigate their Causes. The evidence thus collected was sent to Rome, and after full consideration, has now been pronounced sufficient to establish a prima-facie case in favour of their claims to be called Martyrs.

AUGUST 12.—To-day, the Cathedral of St. Colman, Queenstown, was solemnly consecrated by the Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne. The ceremonies were private, the public celebration being fixed for Sunday, August, 24th.

AUGUST 19.—Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne, celebrated the 25th anniversary of his consecration as Bishop. The only public ceremony was the celebration by his Lordship of a special Mass for the children in the Cathedral, Queenstown. At the conclusion of Mass, his Lordship addressed the children and expressed gratification at having a special children's service.

Subsequently Mr. S. Moynihan, J.P., C.U.D.C., and Mr. Campbell, J.P., H.C. (Town Clerk), waited on his Lordship at the Bishop's House, and congratulated him on behalf of the townspeople. He also received many telegrams and messages of felicitation.

AUGUST 24.—To-day, the public ceremonies in celebration of the consecration of St. Colman's Cathedral took place in Queenstown.

All the thoroughfares and houses were gay with bunting, the streets were spanned with inscriptions of an appropriate character, and from the lofty tower of the Cathedral the Papal flag was flying. For the first time the bells and chimes rang out on Sunday. Mr. A. Wannecherts, Official Carilloner, Bruges, travelled to Queenstown specially to give peal recitals.

At the ceremonies, in addition to his Eminence Cardinal Logue, there were present two archbishops, 28 other Church dignitaries, and 180 priests.

The prelates and clergy robed at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, and marched in procession to the Cathedral, where the solemn ceremonies commenced at 12 o'clock.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided at High Mass, which was celebrated by Most Rev. Dr. Harty, Archbishop of Cashel.

Besides the above and the Bishop of Cloyne, the other prelates present were :— His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, Archbishop of Tuam ; Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh ; Most Rev. Dr. Ward, Bishop of Brentwood ; Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan, Bishop of Cork ; Most Rev. Dr. M'Kenna, Bishop of Clogher ; Most Rev. Dr. Mulhern, Bishop of Dromore ; Most Rev. Dr. M'Rory, Bishop of Down and Connor ; Most Rev. Dr. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Kerry ; Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe ; Most Rev. Dr. Hallinan, Bishop of Limerick ; Most Rev. Dr. Keatinge, Bishop of Metellopolis, Chaplain-General to the British Forces ; Most Rev. Dr. Cotter, Bishop of Portsmouth ; Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe ; Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross ; Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, Bishop of Waterford.

The Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, Archbishop of Tuam, preached the sermon. His Grace, on ascending the pulpit, read the following telegram to Most Rev. Dr. Browne from His Holiness the Pope :—

“ROME.

“The Holy Father, on the auspicious occasion of your episcopal silver jubilee and solemn consecration of the Diocesan Cathedral, rejoicing in the work accomplished, wishes you long and fruitful life, and most cordially imparts the Apostolic Benediction to you, his Eminence, Bishops, priests, and people.

“CARDINAL GASPARRI.”

His Grace also tendered to Most Rev. Dr. Browne, in the name of the distinguished assembly, their sincere congratulations on that auspicious occasion, on which the celebration by him of his silver jubilee in the episcopate synchronised with the consecration of that magnificent temple.

In the evening, all the houses of the beautifully-situated town were brilliantly illuminated.

Amongst the presentations received by the Bishop of Cloyne in celebration of his Jubilee, and on the consecration of Queenstown Cathedral, was an episcopal flagon and basin of Celtic design in solid silver, heavily gilt. Both articles are in-set with twelve richly enamelled discs—four in the flagon, and eight in the basin—secured with old Irish Torc mount. It was presented to the Most Rev. Dr. Browne by the Archbishop and Bishops of the province of Cashel. The centre of the basin bears the Latin inscription and the Diocesan Arms of Cloyne. They are entirely hard-hammered and chased throughout.

AUGUST 24.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue, replying to an address presented to him by the people of Queenstown, said that Queenstown was the very gate of Ireland, and the outlet and inlet to the communication of Ireland with foreign countries. They were doing their best to make that inlet and outlet beautiful and agreeable, but they were thwarted at every point.

In proof of this he referred to the artifices used some years ago to deprive their magnificent harbour of the privilege it had of receiving foreign ships coming there, especially the American liners. That was a specimen of the rule to which they were subjected in Ireland. Since he began to pay any attention to politics, he found that Ireland was governed in the interests of a small handful of people of the North-East of Ireland. That was at the root of all troubles they had in Ireland. If the Irish people had been treated honestly and openly and got fair play, they would have none of the troubles in the country which they had at the present day.

AUGUST 27.—The Right Rev. Monsignor Michael O’Riordan, D.D., Ph.D., D.C.L., Rector of the Irish College in Rome, died in Rome to-day, after a long illness.

Monsignor O’Riordan was born in County Limerick in 1857, and was educated at the Irish College, the Propaganda, and the Gregorian University, Rome. He was ordained priest in 1883, and spent the subsequent four years in the Diocese of Westminster. He then became a professor at St. Munchin’s College, Limerick, and later was attached to the parish of St. Michael’s in the same City.

He was in charge of religious sodalities and temperance societies for some years, and was President of the Catholic Literary Institute, which, under his guidance, became a flourishing institution.

In 1905 he was appointed Rector of the Irish College, Rome, in succession to the late Monsignor Murphy. He was named Protonotary Apostolic by the late Pontiff, and was appointed a Consultor of the Sacred Congregation in 1915. He was also Postulator in connection with the Cause of Irish Martyrs. His University distinctions include an honorary Doctorate of Philosophy of Louvain.

His name will long be remembered in connection with several scholarly works which he published. These include: "A Criticism of Draper's History of the Conflict between Religion and Science"; a "Reply to Dr. Starkie's Criticisms of the Managers of Irish National Schools"; "Catholicity and Progress in Ireland." and "Life of St. Columbanus." He was also a frequent contributor to American, English, Italian, and Irish Reviews.

In a letter to the Mayor of Limerick, in reply to a message of condolence from the Limerick Corporation, the Bishop of Limerick pays the following tribute to the dead Monsignor:—The regret at the death of Monsignor O'Riordan will reach far beyond the boundary of this diocese, of which he was a native, and on which his distinguished career has shed such unfailing lustre. The news will be received with sorrow by the Hierarchy, clergy, and people of Ireland, and by our exiled Catholic brethren all the world over, amongst whom his name as a powerful controversial writer in defence of Catholic Ireland has become a household word. As Rector of the Irish College, Rome, he has raised that venerable institution to a prestige which rarely, if ever, it attained before. Under his capable and prudent care the cause of the Irish Church and Irish Nation has been well safeguarded at the Court of Rome, and we all felt quite secure on that most important point in these critical times.

AUGUST 31.—At Blackrock, near Dundalk, his Eminence Cardinal Logue laid the foundation stone of a new memorial Church which is being erected in honour of Blessed Oliver Plunkett. The foundation stone was taken from the ruins of Oliver Plunkett's little chapel at Ballybarrack Hill. The sermon on the occasion was preached by Rev. A. MacArdle, S.J., Rector of St. Francis Xavier's, Gardiner Street, Dublin.

SEPTEMBER, 1919.

SEPTEMBER 10.—The Second Triennial Congress of the Catholic Total Abstinence Federation of Ireland was opened on Monday, the 8th September, in the Mansion House, Dublin, when the Most Rev. Dr. Harty, Archbishop of Cashel, held a reception of delegates. On Tuesday morning High Mass was celebrated for the Congress in the Pro-Cathedral, Marlborough Street. The sermon was preached by the Most Rev. Dr. Codd, Bishop of Ferns. In the afternoon the first session of the Congress was held in the Mansion House. After the address of the President (Rev. Dr. Coffey, Maynooth College), a paper in Irish, by Professor John MacNeill, T.D., entitled "An Biotaille in nErinn fado" (Strong drink in Ireland long ago) was read. In the evening a great public meeting was held in the Round Room of the Mansion House. At the meetings of the Congress on Wednesday, the 10th, papers were read on "Our Attitude towards Prohibition and Local Option," by Rev. Dr. Dinneen, Charleville; on "Women and Total Abstinence," by Miss Mahon; on "Temperance and Trade Unionism," by Mr. J. P. Dunne (Dublin); and on "The Supposed Nutritive and Medicinal Properties of Alcohol," by Dr. D. T. Barry, University College, Cork. Interesting discussions took place on all the papers read.

SEPTEMBER 14.—The consecration of the Most Rev. Dr. Thomas O'Doherty, the new Bishop of Clonfert, took place on Sunday at Loughrea. The streets of the town were profusely decorated with flags, banners and arches, and the population signalled the auspicious occasion by general rejoicing. The Cathedral was thronged. The consecrating prelate was the Most Rev. Dr. Gilmartin, Archbishop of Tuam (Dr. O'Doherty's predecessor in the See), assisted by the Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Bishop of Galway, and the Most Rev. Dr. Morrisroe, Bishop of Achonry. The other members of the Hierarchy present were the Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh; the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe; the Most Rev. Dr. Naughton, Bishop of Killala; the Most Rev. Dr. Coyne, Bishop of Elphin; the Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor; and the Most Rev. Dr. Hallinan, Bishop of Limerick.

The Rev. Dr. Beecher, M.A., D.D., Maynooth College, preached the sermon.

SEPTEMBER 20.—Very Rev. P. J. Lally, P.P., died suddenly at the Gresham Hotel, Dublin, on Sunday night. A native of Galway, he received his clerical training in Maynooth. He ministered at Carraroe, Oughterard, and College House, Galway, and subsequently was appointed Adm. of St. Joseph's.

As a mark of his personal esteem the late Dr. MacEvilly, before he passed to the Archbishopric of Tuam, applied to the Pope to have Father Lally created parish priest, and during the year, pending the appointment of Dr. Carr, Vice-President of Maynooth, as his successor, the P.P. of St. Joseph's acted as Vicar Capitular. Another achievement of the late Father Lally was the inauguration of the City Technical Institute, of which he was the first Chairman.

The remains were brought to Galway and interred after Requiem Mass at St. Joseph's, on Wednesday.

SEPTEMBER 26.—Right Rev. Monsignor Cunningham, P.P., V.G., died at his residence, St. Laurence's, Tynagh, on Saturday night. He was 41 years ordained, his first mission being Portumna. Subsequently he ministered in Loughrea, Killenadema, and for the past 16 years was parish priest of Tynagh, and Vicar-General of Clonfert. Three years ago he received the dignity of a Domestic Prelate to the Pope. On three occasions that the See of Clonfert was vacant he was appointed Vicar Capitular.

OCTOBER, 1919.

OCTOBER 12.—On Sunday, the official opening of the academic year at University College, Dublin, was observed with the celebration of the Red Mass in the Catholic University Church, St. Stephen's Green.

The celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Michael Hickey, D.D., Ph.D., Dean of Residence (Holy Cross College, Clonliffe); deacon, Rev. James Doyle, B.A., Holy Cross College, Clonliffe; sub-deacon, the Rev. John Flaherty, B.A., All Hallows College, Drumcondra. The President, Governing Body, and Professors of the College attended, as well as a large number of the students. There were also present—The Most Rev. Dr. MacRory, Bishop of Down and Connor; the Right Rev. Monsignor Fitzpatrick, Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, Right Rev. Monsignor Dunne, Very Rev. Canon Downing, and the Lord Mayor of Dublin.

After the First Gospel, the Rev. Patrick J. Walsh, M.A., Dean of Residence, announced the annual Retreat for the students.

The Most Rev. Dr. MacRory preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

OCTOBER 23.—The Annual Conference of the Catholic Truth Society of Ireland was opened on Wednesday, October 22nd, in the Mansion House, Dublin, His Eminence Cardinal Logue presiding. The inaugural address was delivered by Lord Killanin, his subject being: "The Beautiful: Its Quest and Significance."

The Conference programme included the following contributions: Paper in Irish dealing with the propagation of the Faith by means of literature in Irish, Very Rev. Dr. Wall; "Private Property under Co-operative Commonwealth," Very Rev. Dr. Flood; "Vigilance Society," Very Rev. Father Paul, O.S.F.C.; "The Interior Decoration of Churches," Mr. J. J. Bodkin, B.L.; "St. Brigid and her Teachings to the Women of Erin," Mrs. Maher; "The Potentialities of Catholic Young Men's Societies," Mr. P. J. Daniel; Address to Children, Rev. D. Tierney, C.S.S.R.

A full report of the proceedings is published in the Catholic Truth Society Annual.

NOVEMBER, 1919.

NOVEMBER 8.—Most Rev. Dr. Hallinan, Bishop of Limerick, in a letter to the Press, calls attention to a recent Congress in Rome of the Italian Catholic Women's Union, the delegates of which had an audience with the Pope. In reply to an address from them, his Holiness dwelt particularly on one of the great evils of the time—the immodest fashions in women's dress.

His Lordship (Dr. Hallinan) says the fashion evil is widespread and general, affecting every grade and class of society. "It is to be found even in the house of God, and it is painful to observe, too, that our Irish Irelander women and girls, who profess their abhorrence of the anglicisation which is going on in our midst, fall victims to it themselves."

His Lordship directs special attention to the appeal of his Holiness to men—fathers, husbands, and brothers to lend a helping and encouraging hand to the crusade of the Catholic Women's Union against the fashion evil.

NOVEMBER 11.—Very Rev. Dean O'Connor, P.P., V.G., Dean of Clogher, died to-day at his parochial residence, Carrickmacross.

The late Dean, who was a native of Carduff, Carrickmacross, was one of the strong priests in the Irish Church, and throughout his life had been one of the staunchest supporters of the National movement. In his young days he took an active part in the tenant right agitation, and in every phase of the National struggle in the Northern province since he has been a foremost figure. As a priest, Dean O'Connor enjoyed the confidence and affection of all, and his voice and assistance were always at the service of the poor and oppressed.

NOVEMBER 16.—The Right Rev. Monsignor O'Farrell, P.P., V.G., Ardagh, has died after a long illness.

Born in Legan, Co. Longford, in black '47, he studied in St. Mel's College, Longford, afterwards passing to Maynooth, where he graduated with distinction. He was ordained in 1872. The early part of his ministry was spent in Granard, Banagher, and Athlone. He was President of St. Mel's College for ten years, and afterwards for a quarter of a century was P.P. of Ardagh, the mother parish of the diocese. He collected funds and built the tower and spire of the beautiful new Church, and also provided graceful marble altar rails, pulpit and organ. Fine, well-equipped schools and a presbytery completed his task.

A strenuous worker for the material interests of his flock, he took a leading part in the successful negotiation for the transfer of the Ardagh estate to the tenantry. His unremitting labours soon attracted the appreciative attention of the Bishop, and honours followed in quick succession. He was made Canon, Vicar-General, Archdeacon, and finally raised to the dignity of Domestic Prelate.

NOVEMBER 20.—In support of the movement for clean performances in theatres and all other places of amusement, a great demonstration was held on the night of Thursday, the 20th November, in the Mansion House, Dublin. It was organised by the Irish Vigilance Association, to whose call members of various Catholic and National organisations responded, including the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association, Father Mathew Total Abstinence Society, Central Council United Confraternities, students of the National University, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Irish National Foresters, Catholic Truth Society, Catholic Y.M.S., Christian Brothers' Past Pupils Union, Cuman na mBan, Gaelic League, Sinn Féin organisations, Irish Volunteers, Trade Union bodies, and Irish Transport and General Workers' Union.

The Lord Mayor, who presided, said the Vigilance Association was composed of laymen and clerics, and the men connected with it sought no material benefits. They appealed to the people to help them to destroy the insidious working at present on foot in the attempt to kill their religion and nationality. When the madness at present going over the world ceased, it would, please God, be found that Ireland would loom faithful to her God.

Mr. T. J. Deering read a letter from Cardinal Logue, in which his Eminence approved of the project to establish a branch of the Vigilance Association in all the principal towns, and promising every help and encouragement to the movement.

Speeches were delivered by Very Rev. Father Paul, O.S.F.C.; Seaghan O'Tuama (Secretary of the Gaelic League); Mr. T. P. O'Donohue, A.O.H.; Father Costello, C.C.; Mr. T. Farren (President, Trade Union Congress); Mr. Moran, T.C.; Very Rev. J. S. Sheehy, C.M.; and Professor W. Magennis, M.A.

DECEMBER, 1919.

DECEMBER 9.—The Standing Committee of the Irish Bishops, at a meeting held to-day at which his Eminence Cardinal Logue presided, adopted a statement on Mr. Macpherson's proposed Irish Education Bill, in which they declare that the only Education Department the vast majority of the Irish People will tolerate is one set up by its own Parliament.

The Bill is examined in detail, and their Lordships emphasise the Government's defiance of Irish opinion in the manner in which it is proposed to constitute the new Department that is to have the education of the youth of Ireland at its mercy.

"It means Irish education in foreign fetters," they say, and add that the Irish ratepayer is asked to come to the relief of the Treasury while the British Government is making this experiment on the Irish people. (See Record of Documents.)

RECORD OF DOCUMENTS, 1919.

STATEMENTS ISSUED BY THE IRISH BISHOPS.

I.

IRISH EDUCATION.

The following statement was issued by the Standing Committee of the Irish Hierarchy after a meeting held in Dublin on April 29th, 1919, presided over by Cardinal Logue :—

The co-ordination of the different branches of education on lines of true progress would commend our cordial support, but to discontinue the semi-independent Boards, whatever their defects may be, for the purpose of placing education in Ireland under the control of a Minister, responsible not to Irish, but to British, public opinion, would be an altogether retrograde proceeding, at variance no less with Irish feeling and Irish National rights than with Irish educational interests.

In view of the very heavy over-taxation to which Ireland continues to be subjected, our people need to examine closely every proposition to relieve the Treasury, by transferring a share of the increased burthen for education to the shoulders of the Irish ratepayer.

We have the fullest sympathy with any sound proposal to improve the position of the teachers in secondary schools, but there is no justification in the present conditions of the financial relations between the two countries for putting any part of the provision for salaries or pensions on the rates.

As regards primary education, the local contribution required to secure building grants has been cheerfully provided in every part of the country, with the exception of one city or corner. Even there the Catholics, who belong to the poorer section of the community, have done their part.

In these circumstances it would be altogether unfair to put into the hands of those who have not worked the system, but instead, have indulged in ill-formed criticism of others, the power of taxing over again their poorer neighbours, who have already taxed themselves voluntarily in obedience to the system which the law has sanctioned.

Ireland as a whole has the fullest right to have her claim for self-determination duly allowed, but, unfortunately, at this great juncture in the world's affairs, the trend of Government measures, since the new Parliament assembled, has been to transfer the control of Irish services, old and new, from Dublin to London.

II.

POLITICAL SITUATION IN IRELAND.

At a meeting of the Irish Bishops held in Maynooth College on June 24th, 1919, the following statement was adopted and published :—

No body of Irishmen can be more profoundly interested than the Irish Bishops in any scheme that would satisfy the legitimate aspirations of Ireland, and bring peace and contentment to her people.

The existing method of Government cannot last. It substitutes government by constraint with all its evils, for government by consent with all its blessings.

At this fateful stage in the history of the human family, Congress in the United States of America, where our people always received a warm welcome, and soon learned to appreciate the advantages of the liberty denied to them at home, finds an unredressed wrong in Ireland that calls to it to speak out in the hearing of the world.

As for us, we have the evils of military rule exhibited at our doors. In this ancient, civilising nation the people are not permitted to rule themselves through men of their own choice. The work is done for them by some stranger without any knowledge of the country.

It is the rule of the sword, utterly unsuited to a civilised nation, and supremely provocative of disorder and chronic rebellion. The acts of violence, which we have to deplore, and they are few, spring from this cause, and from this cause alone. For mere trifles, for what in any free country would be the rights of all men, Irish people have been sent to gaol under savage sentences.

Moreover, at the present time an enormous sum is raised here annually by over-taxation without any attempt being made, beyond empty promises, to promote suitable schemes of reconstruction and development in Ireland. Money is being poured out as water across the Channel. But if we ask back a little of the huge overcharge paid out of this country, to put life into our starved systems of education, the cry comes from the Castle that the remedy is to add to the rates.

Every day the air is charged with rumours about unsettling such parts of the public administration as, after years of agitation, have been brought somewhat into harmony with popular wishes; and our rulers latterly have been engaged in the apparently congenial task of transferring both the powers that were exercised by an unrepresentative authority and those that were to be entrusted to a representative Irish body, from the capital of Ireland to the capital of England.

In the interests of peace and order, of morality and of nationality, this aggressive domination should stop once for all. So long as it lasts, our faithful people should not allow any provocation to move them to overstep the law of God. They have an inspiring example to guide them. When Belgium lay prostrate under the heel of oppression, the Belgians in like trials listened to the counsels of Cardinal Mercier, and they have their reward. It shall be so, please God, with our people also.

Ireland is a distinct and ancient Nation, and it is vain to hope that things will go well for Ireland or for England until Ireland's rights are duly recognised. She is fully entitled to a government that will be the free choice of all her people. Her right is to be the mistress of her own destiny. With the deepest affection for all her inhabitants of every persuasion, and in pursuance of the duties of our high trust in the interests of peace and religion, we desire to state with all the earnestness we can command that now is the time for doing justice to Ireland as a Nation.

With that feeling in our minds we cannot conclude this statement of our intense sympathy with our people without declaring our profound gratitude for the priceless service to Ireland and to civilisation rendered by the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Hierarchy, clergy and people of every denomination in America, in so nobly espousing the cause of Ireland at this turning point in her history.

Appeal for Syrian Catholics.

In response to an appeal made on their behalf by the Holy Father, we think it our duty to commend to the charity of our people the needs of our suffering fellow-Catholics in Palestine and Syria. Owing to the war, large numbers of them have been reduced to a state of extreme want, so much so that many have perished of famine and the survivors are still in a most pitiable condition.

Owing to the frequent calls made recently on our people, we do not find ourselves in a position to order a general collection, but if charitably disposed persons are willing to come to their aid, contributions may be sent to the Bishop of each diocese, who will forward them to the proper quarter.

III.

At a Meeting of the Irish Bishops, held in Maynooth College on October 21st, 1919, the following statements were issued:—

PIOUS UNION OF CLERGY FOR MISSIONS.

The great and blessed work of spreading the light of the Holy Catholic Faith among pagan peoples has been very much hampered and obstructed by the recent world-war. The number of the Gospel labourers has been sadly reduced, and the material resources supplied by the charity of the faithful have all but disappeared in many Catholic countries.

In these difficulties the Holy See has asked the Irish Bishops to lend their aid by introducing into Ireland an Association which already exists in many countries—viz., Pia Unio Cleri pro Missionibus. The Bishops most cordially respond to this invitation and have resolved to establish the “Pia Unio” in Ireland as a National Association with branches in all the dioceses. A Committee is appointed to adapt the constitution and rules of the “Pia Unio” to Irish conditions, and to publish them in due time.

The object of the “Pia Unio” is to impress on the minds of the faithful the greatness and importance of the work of the Missions to unbelievers, and the Divine desire to promote them, and thus stir up Catholic zeal, so that numerous labourers may be forthcoming to the Vineyard, and the resources to carry on the good work may abound.

The Bishops appeal to the clergy and laity to prepare to make this movement the success the Holy Father expects from Ireland.

A NATIONAL NOVENA.

We direct that a Novena similar to the one held last year be celebrated this year also to obtain the protection of God through the intercession of the Irish Saints, the Novena to take place on the nine days preceding the 6th November, the feast of all the Irish Saints.

The devotions are to consist of Rosary and Benediction, and the prayer to the Irish Saints.

IV.

EDUCATION BILL.

The Standing Committee of the Irish Bishops, at a meeting held in Dublin on December 9th, 1919, issued the following statement on Mr. Macpherson's proposed Education Bill :—

After religion and its immediate requirements no interest of the people so deeply concerns their pastors as does the interest of education. In itself and in its bearing on religion, education holds a foremost place of importance in public affairs.

A people not suitably educated has little chance of rising to its due standard in work and worth ; and there can be no proper training of the young except when education and religion walk hand in hand. If education of the right kind be the most honoured support religion can have, on the other side the history of these terrible years sheds a lurid light on the poor service education can render to tortured humanity when men climb to power by trampling underfoot the principles of religion.

The education authority of a country needs to have knowledge of and sympathy with the wants of the people. Among the various branches of public administration it is its place to be remarkable for ensuring freedom and conciliating confidence.

Education itself, if anything in the land, should be a native plant of native culture, not an exotic to please the eye or fancy of some stranger. It should be a growth from within, not an importation from without. Its bloom and fragrance and fruit should be racy of the soil.

So it was in Ireland when our schools were famous ; so it has not been in Ireland since England took upon herself to say what kind of schooling, if any, we must have.

First, our schools were overthrown and it was a crime to educate.

Then we were given a system of national education that little accorded at the start with our principles or with the views of other religious denominations in Ireland. It has been worked, however, and moulded in the course of 80 years by constant effort into some semblance of the national requirement in primary education. With all our differences, it was freed from strife on the score of religion, and the main cause of complaint under it in recent years arose, not from anything in Ireland, but from the inadequacy of Treasury grants to remunerate the teachers and provide the buildings that were needed. Whatever about the way the appointments to it are made, the National Board is composed of Irishmen who know Ireland ; and it has real power. The same holds in their different measures for the Intermediate Board, established 40 years ago, and for the Technical Instruction Board, which came 20 years later.

But now, in defiance of Irish opinion, these semi-independent Irish Boards are to be swept away and replaced by a British Department at the instigation of an intolerant minority in one angle of the country, who demand that others should be taxed with them to do what they, like their poorer neighbours, should long ago have done voluntarily for themselves.

Two members of the new Department, as British Ministers, come into office and go out with the Government of the day. The third is named by the Lord Lieutenant, who is himself an appointment of Party Government at Westminster.

The permanent member, even if he desired it, is quite powerless to oppose his colleagues in administration or the Treasury in financial adjustments. The Local Education Committees, which are directed controlled, and managed in half their numbers by this new Department, are required to demand the levy of various rates, for the discharge of the functions assigned to them, that open up the prospect of very heavy additional taxation throughout Ireland, apart altogether from the rate under the Medical Treatment of Children Act. The Advisory Council has no real power. All the powers and duties of the three Boards pass to the new Department, which may be manned without an Irishman or a Catholic upon it.

Strange as it may appear to democratic feeling, in a country three-fourths Catholic it was considered quite good enough for us by the ruling power if we were half and half on the existing Boards. Recently, two Commissions were appointed to report on certain educational matters, with a Protestant majority on each. Now we have the prospect of a Department to control Irish Education with no particular educational strength, unless it be that its members, so far as they are known, are neither Catholics nor Irishmen.

The penal days were supposed to have passed. But this is the Department that is to control the books and curriculum of the schools, to regulate the positions and salaries of the teachers, and have its way, perhaps, on the managerial question. It means Irish education in foreign fetters; and at a time when the over-taxation of Ireland has risen higher than ever before, the Irish ratepayer is asked to come to the relief of the Treasury while the British Government is making this experiment on the Irish people.

Improvements in education should go on constantly. They are greatly needed in Ireland, owing mainly to incompetence and unwillingness of the British Government to attend to them. The remuneration and pensions of Primary teachers, and even more still, the salaries and position of Intermediate teachers, need to be raised without delay to a much higher level. Though charitable organisations do much for afflicted children, public help for their training in suitable institutions would be very desirable. Similarly, while not a little is being done to provide an educational ladder for specially gifted children, a good deal more is required if they are all to be brought under the training that is best for them in the circumstances of the times.

Such reforms as are needed could best be carried out under the auspices of native government. But, even as things are, they could be effected in substance without any great legislative effort.

With all the talk about co-ordination, the co-ordinating power conferred in the 1899 Act has not been over-worked of late; and now the Committee, whose function it is under that Act to co-ordinate the educational administration of the different Boards, is to be scrapped on the plea, of all others, that the Committee is only advisory, and therefore of little use, whereas the criticism one used to hear, tending in the opposite direction, was that the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction, having a membership of three out of five, was unduly preponderant on the Committee.

As for the proper remuneration of the teachers in primary and secondary schools, which is the really urgent question, the solution becomes an easy matter if the findings of the Royal Commission on the Financial Relations are applied up-to-date, as in honour and honesty they ought to be, and a proper share of the overtaxation made available for the pressing wants of education in Ireland. But the needs of the teachers should not be utilised to foist on the country an utterly unsuitable education authority, as is proposed in this strange Bill.

We, therefore, deem it our imperative duty to condemn in the strongest manner the proposal which purports to set up a Department of Education for Ireland, consisting of the Chief Secretary as President, the Vice-President of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Education as Vice-President, and a permanent member, whose name the authors of the Bill have not seen fit to disclose. This proposal is obviously the pivot on which the whole Bill essentially depends. Whether one considers the personnel of the proposed Department, the enormous power over the education of the Irish people with which it is to be vested, or the means by which it is sought to blind the people to the real intentions of the authors of the Bill, it would be difficult to conceive anything more preposterous than this proposal; gravely propounded by the Government at a time when it professes to be about to impose on the people a measure of self-government which many Ministers have declared to be more than generous.

If the Government be sincere in their profession, what do they mean by forestalling their generous measure of Home Rule by the introduction of an Education Bill which, as they know in their heart, any Irish Parliament with a particle of independence or self-respect would tear to tatters at the first opportunity? If the subsidiary provisions of the Bill were as satisfactory as the essence of it is unsatisfactory, it would still be impossible to put up with a Bill which is so reactionary as to hand over the fortunes of Irish Education to the hands of three men, of whom one is unknown and the other two utterly wanting in any qualification of an educational character. It may be said that the permanent member would make up for the glaring deficiencies of his colleagues, but it has to be remembered that it is either the President or the Vice-President who will have to answer in Parliament for the administration of the Department, and it is only when the permanent member's views coincide with theirs that they will undertake to defend the administration. Educationalists had fondly hoped that they had seen the last of the appointments of mere political party hacks to the important post of Minister of Education; but here we are confronted with an attempt to foist two of this class into the first Department of Education which the British Parliament has seen fit to set up for Ireland.

The only Department which the vast majority of the Irish people will tolerate is one which shall be set up by its own Parliament, and over which shall preside as Minister of Education a man who shall be acknowledged as the highest educational authority in the land.

Until that day comes and that man appears, the people of this country will set their faces against the appointment of any Minister or combination of Ministers who, as foreigners, are absolutely unfit to guide the intellectual destinies of Ireland.

No time should be lost by the ratepayers and public bodies of the country in trying to weigh the overwhelming burthen of foreign origin which the Bill would impose upon them. It is right to recall that in October, 1916, and in April, 1919, the Bishops published words of warning to put our people on their guard against the very dangers with which they are now confronted.

V.

EDUCATION BILL.

At a meeting of the Irish Bishops held in Maynooth College on January 27th, 1920, the following resolutions regarding the Education Bill were adopted:—

(1) We endorse the statement issued by our Standing Committee in condemnation of the Education Bill, which is the most denationalising scheme since the Act of Union, and we recommend that statement to the earnest study of our people. Last Easter the principle of the Bill was rejected by anticipation in a resolution, published by the Standing Committee. We direct that both documents be re-published and read in the Churches together with the statement now issued.

(2) Until Ireland is governed by her own Parliament, we shall resist by every means in our power any attempt to abolish the Boards of Primary, Intermediate, and Technical Education.

(3) The Bill is an attempt on the part of the British Government to grip the mind of the people of Ireland and form it according to its own wishes. We are convinced that the enactment of the measure would deprive the Bishops and Clergy of such control of the schools as is necessary for that religious training of the young which Leo XIII. declared to be a chief part of the care of souls.

(4) In any case, should the Government force this Bill on Ireland, and set up an Education Department controlled by British Ministers, no matter what their religion may be, it will be our duty to issue instructions to Catholic parents in reference to the education of their children in such a deplorable crisis.

(5) As indirect taxation takes as much from the poor man as from the rich, and as the income per head in Ireland is not nearly a half of what it is in Great Britain, the system of identical indirect taxation results in draining an altogether excessive amount of revenue year by year from Ireland, and this evil is greatly aggravated when such a service as education, in which, if anywhere, compensation might be expected to manifest itself, is starved instead, despite constant protest.

It is, moreover, a gross and intolerable abuse of public power to endeavour to make the just remuneration of our teachers depend on the passing of a Bill that is framed in defiance of the will of our people, and is utterly repugnant to the interests of Ireland, whether educational, national, or religious.

(6) We have intense sympathy with the teachers in the grievances to which they are unjustly subject, and we shall do everything in our power to help in securing fair treatment for the excellent body of instructors, primary, secondary, and technical, on whose services the public welfare so much depends. We think the country should combine to insist on justice to the teachers, apart from the national indignity of a Bill like this and the intolerable burden on rates it imposes, in addition to the enormous pile of over-taxation.

POLITICAL SITUATION IN IRELAND.

The following pronouncement on the political situation in Ireland was also made by the Irish Bishops, January 27, 1920 :—

The principle of disregarding national feeling and national rights, and of carrying everything with the high hand above the heads of the people, has, we are sorry to say, become a general rule of government in Ireland, and has brought about the dreadful confusion and disorder from which the country unhappily suffers, and which we view with deep distress. The legitimate demand of Ireland that she should be accorded what is now the acknowledged right of every civilised nation, and for the establishment of which as a world principle the late war was waged, at least ostensibly, at the cost of so much suffering and misery—the right, namely, to choose her own government—has not only been denied to her, but every organ for the expression of her national life has been ruthlessly suppressed, and her people subjected to an iron rule of oppression as cruel and unjust as it is ill-advised and out of date. The result is what might have been easily foreseen—violent collisions and retaliations between exasperated sections of the people and the forces of oppression, growing ever more serious and eventuating too often in the most sorrowful tragedies on both sides.

And while the Government is thus occupied almost exclusively in the odious work of political repression, and the police diverted from their proper functions as the guardians of civil order, the lives and property of peaceable citizens are left unprotected, and a free opportunity afforded to the wicked for the perpetration of robbery and murder, forms of crime hitherto rare in Ireland. We have already, with a deep sense of responsibility, published our united protest against this unhappy state of things. We once more renew our appeal, if, indeed, it is now possible to make our voices heard above the din of the prevailing confusion. We would represent to the advocates of military rule in Ireland that government by force, which was never right, is to-day wholly obsolete, and cannot hope to prevail for long against the democratic spirit now animating the world.

We have, therefore, to declare that the one true way of terminating our historic troubles and establish friendly relations between England and Ireland to the advantage of both countries, is to allow an undivided

Ireland to choose her own form of government. And, meanwhile, we appeal to our own people to exercise patience under the terrible provocation to which they are subjected, to remember the law of God, to combine amongst themselves for the prevention of crime, to restrain the promptings of revenge, and abstain from deeds of bloodshed and outrage calculated to bring on themselves and their country shame and the anger of Heaven.

THE IRISH CAPUCHIN MARTYRS.

Introduction of the Cause of Father Fiacre Tobin, O.S.F.C., of Kilkenny, and Father John Baptist Dowdall, O.S.F.C., of Ulster.

On the 19th September, 1919, his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin received letters from the Sacred Congregation of Rites, containing (1) the Decree (23rd July, 1919), introducing the Cause of the two Irish Capuchins, who, it is claimed, died for the Faith; (2) the Decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites (13th August, 1919), joining the Capuchin Cause to the general Cause of the 258 Irish Servants of God, introduced on 12th February, 1915; (3) the Articles put forward by the Capuchin Postulator-General to be established by witnesses; (4) the sealed Interrogatoria of the Promotor Fidei (the Devil's Advocate), on which every witness will be examined, and which must be kept secret during the Process.

These documents mark the formal beginning of the Apostolic Process of these two Servants of God, and any further steps taken in their Cause must be taken by delegation of the Holy See, or with its consent.

The Informative Process of these two Servants of God began before his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin on 28th May, 1917. The first session for taking evidence was held on 4th June, and the whole Process, already translated into Latin in Dublin, was in the hands of the Sacred Congregation on 6th November, 1917.

Now, two years after the opening of the Informative Process, the Commission for the opening of the Apostolic Process has been signed, and it must deeply gratify the Irish Capuchin Fathers and their Postulator-General, Father Raphael of Vallesfinaria, that within a period of time which must nearly constitute a record, these two Irish Capuchins have been given their rightful place amongst their fellow-sufferers for the Faith.

As Father Fiacre Tobin died in 1656, his cause will come under Process and Period IV. of the General Process of the Irish Martyrs, whilst the cause of Father John Baptist Dowdall, who died in 1710, falls under Process and Period V.

The leading facts of their lives are set forth in the documents received from Rome (see also Cardinal Moran's "Persecutions of Irish Catholics," pages 133-140, and 386-387). Quite recently, Father Angelus, O.S.F.C., found at Troyes the Profession Book which records the professions of these two Capuchins. It shows that Father Dowdall was a native of Glaspistol, Co. Louth, near Termonfeckin and Clogher Head.

BEATIFICATIONIS SEU DECLARATIONIS MARTYRII
. SERVORUM DEI

FIACRII TOBIN A KILKENNIA

ET

IOANNIS BAPTISTAE DOWDALL AB ULTONIA

ORDINIS MINORUM S. FRANCISCI CAPUCCINORUM

IN HIBERNIA PRO FIDE, UTI FERTUR, INTEREMPTORUM.

Invicto agmini biseentum quinquaginta septem Servorum Dei, de quorum martyrii fama causa Dublinensis die 12 februarii anno 1915 introducta fuit, accenseri non potuerunt duo sacerdotes e Franciscali Familia Capuccinorum, nempe FIACRIUS TOBIN A KILKENNIA et IOANNES BAPTISTA DOWDALL AB ULTONIA, quia in Actis illorum Processualibus nec testes de his rogati fuerunt, nec documenta exhibita, praesertim ob repentinam Postulatoris Dublinensis mortem. Verum huiusmodi mora praesenti Causae potius favere quam nocere visa est, siquidem novae Inquisitioni et disceptationi parata et strata apparuit via, prioris causae vestigia sectando.

Recentior insuper Processus in eadem curia Dublinensi confectus, et Sacrae Rituum Congregationi traditus, complet primum, et testimonia ac documenta continet, quae ad duos praedictos Dei Servos eorumque martyrii famam referuntur. P. FIACRIUS TOBIN, furente persecutione Kromwelliana, anno 1656, et P. IOANNES BAPTISTA DOWDALL, Anna regnante, anno 1710, pro fide, uti asseritur, occubuerunt. De utroque Servo Dei, prouti mos est, aliquid innuere libet.

FIACRIUS TOBIN, Kilkenniae natus, adolescens in Ordine Capuccinorum cooptatus, Carolopoli [Charleville], in Gallia, ubi idem Ordo coenobium habebat, missionibus catholicis Hiberniae augendis destinatum, sedulam navavit operam studiis philosophicis ac theologicis.

Iussu superiorum anno 1646 in patriam suam reversus, Spiritu Dei plenus et sana doctrina instructus, fidem catholicam bonosque mores apud Hibernas gentes propagavit. Anno 1650 deditione urbis Kilkenniae peracta in potestatem Cromwelli, aufugientibus ceteris de clero, ipse cum suo converso et altero sodali e Fratribus Minoribus, intrepidus ibi remansit, ut catholicis verbo et opere prodesset, sacramenta ministraret et aegrotis, praesertim lue grassante, inserviret. Quinque post menses ab haereticis captus et in carcerem coniectus, dum supremum supplicium expectabat, gratiam apud custodem carceris adeo invenit ut Missam celebrare sacrumque ministerium catholicis praestare potuerit. Quin imo, instantibus proceribus, Praefectus civitatis eum libertate donavit intra fines tantum urbis.

Vertente anno 1653, promulgata lege expulsionis universi cleri ab Hibernia, ipse eandem sortem subire illamque insulam relinquere coactus, Galliam adivit. Sed eo vix appulit, assentiente Commissario generali missionis Hiberniae, in hanc Insulam regressus est. Illic per biennium apostolicos labores in Dei gloriam et salutem animarum impendit. Ineunte anno 1656, in quadam agresti via ab altero ex iis, qui, promisso praemio illecti et religionis odio agitati, sacerdotes catholicos inquirebant ad perniciem comprehensus et ligatus, ad Hewsonium, Dublini Praefectum, rapitur.

A iudicibus in tribunali sedentibus interrogatus aperte et ingenue fatetur se esse sacerdotem ex Ordine Capuccinorum, suamque fidei professionem christiana libertate profert: 'Rediisse—dicit—in Hiberniam, ut sanguine suo testimonium fidei catholicae perhiberet, nullamque ab eis, tot iam martyrum cruore pollutis, misericordiam expectare; unum sibi esse in votis, ut lege, etsi iniquissima, agerent ipsi, quo sibi vitam daretur in agone profundere.' Ne eius ad mortem damnatio magis in fide confirmaret catholicos, iidem iudices capitalem sententiam cum durissimo exilio in Insulas Barbados commutarunt; et donec propitia se offerret occasio ad ea loca navigandi, Servum Dei ligatum in carcerem mittunt, eumque custodibus tradunt saevitiis exeruciandum.

Post mensem eductus est navique impositus, etsi febris laboraret. A portu Dublini solvunt navigantes, qui biduo post, exorta tempestate, in portum Waterfordiensem se recipiunt, ibique, perdurantibus ventis itineri adversis, consistere debent.

Quaenam fuerit per id temporis conditio Servi Dei describitur in epistola a P. Bernardino, Commissario Ordinis Capuccinorum, e loco Montis Sancti missa sub die 20 iulii 1656 ad Sacram Congregationem de Propaganda Fide: 'In navi—ibi legitur—velut in carcere catenis onustus, rebus omnibus expoliatus, detinetur Servus Dei FIACRIUS, eique, inter rigidiores hyemis inclementias, duri asseres erant febricitanti corpusculo, cervical lignum, putris et purulenta aqua potus, pisa semicocta et pauca reliquum nutrimentum.' Cunctas hasce aerumnas pro Christo patienter toleratas, sequuta est mors P. FIACRII, quam idem Commissarius ita evenisse narrat: 'Ex navi et illa haereticorum catenis migravit in caelum, haud dubium, martyr, saltem caritatis et voluntatis, die 6 martii anni 1656.'

Cum hac relatione Commissarii concordant Acta Processus Dublinensis, Bullarium Ordinis Capuccinorum et Historia persecutionum Hibernarum, edita a cl. me. Cardinali Moran.

Alter heros, pari laude dignus, P. IOANNES BAPTISTA DOWDALL, ex Ultonia oriundus, genere et censu clarus, mundi oblectamenti divitiisque spretis, pro Christi amore et imitatione Ordinem Capuccinorum amplexatus est. In missionibus Hibernis quadraginta et amplius annos adlaboravit. De eo adhuc vivente P. Andreas Nugentius, missionis Praefectus, anno 1708, ad S. Congregationem de Propaganda Fide scribebat: 'Venerabilis Pater IOANNES BAPTISTA DOWDALL, octogenarius vir, animarum zelo accensus ac missionarii muneri totus addictus a quadraginta annis, mirum quam insignes proventus retulerit. Multos haereticos ad fidem perduxit, permultis regni proceribus orthodoxis sacramenta administrat, omnibus ob morum gravitatem gratissimus existens.'

Sub Anna regnante, anno 1702-1714, acrior exarsit persecutio in catholicos, maxime in sacerdotes et religiosos, praesertim si eos professione protestantes ad catholicam fidem reduxissent. Tunc enim capitalis poena erat indicta per specialem legem, anno secundo reginae Annae latam, cui nomen et finis erat: 'Actus ad praeveniendum ulterius Papismi incrementum' [An Act to prevent the further growth of Popery]. Sed strenuus missionarius, Apostolico suo ministerio intentus, absque metu et tremore omnem operam adhibuit ad conversionem hominum salutariter promovendam, ideoque a Cardinali Moran meruit appellari: 'Insignis prae multitudine haereticorum quos reduxit in sinum Ecclesiae Catholicae.'

Hac de causa, pluries ab haereticis comprehensus et toties in tetrum carcerem reclusus, diras pro Christo sustinuit inedias. Ob conversionem ab eo factam illustris matronae, instigantibus huius consanguineis, Servus Dei in ergastulum Londinense translatus est, ibique fame et frigore consumptus, inter diros et acerbos ergastuli dolores, et impias in Deum nocentium voces per genus novum martyrii vitam emisit, vitamque invenit aeternam martyrii laurea decoratam Londini, in Anglia, anno 1710. Ita Annales Capuccinorum Hiberniae, conscripti a P. Bonaventura Donnely, Capuccinorum Hiberniae Definitor, anno 1741; necnon Cardinalis Moran in citato opere De persecutivne catholicorum Hibernorum: Fr. Ioannes Baptista Dowdall, Ultoniensis et Bullarium Ordinis Capuccinorum.

Haec et alia, ex actis Processualibus et documentis authenticis deprompta, Sacrae Rituum Congregationi tamquam valida argumenta subiecta sunt ad probandam martyrii famam, quam ambo Servi Dei inde ab obitu consequuti sunt, eo quod carceres, exilia, aerumnae illos in mortem, ex communi opinione, adduxerunt. Itaque eiusmodi fama martyrii in dies magis inclarescente et vigente, super qua Processus Informativus Dublini confectus est, quum omnia, servato iuris ordine, parata, sint ut ad ulteriora procedatur, instante Rmo P. Raphaelae a Vallefinaria, Ordinis Minorum Capuccinorum Postulatorem Generali, attentisque litteris postulatoriis in priori Causa Dublinensi iam exhibitis, novisque hos viros Dei Famulos respicientibus, Emus et Rmus Dñs Cardinalis Vincentius Vannutelli, Episcopus Ostiensis et Praenestinus, Sacri Collegii Decanus et huius Causae Ponens seu Relator, in Ordinarii Sacrorum Rituum Congregationis comitiis ad Vaticanas aedes coactis, sequens dubium discutiendum proposuit: An sit signanda Commissio Introductionis Causae in Casu et ad effectum de quo agitur?

Et Emi ac Rmi Patres sacris tuendis ritibus praepositi, post relationem eiusdem Emi Cardinalis Ponentis, audito voce et scripto R.P.D. Angelo Mariani, Fidei Promotore Generali, omnibus sedulo perpensis rescribendum censuerunt: Affirmative seu signandam esse Commissionem introductionis Causae, si Sanctissimo placuerit, die 22 iulii 1919.

Quibus omnibus Sanctissimo Domino nostro BENEDICTO Papae XV per infrascriptum Cardinalem Sacrae Rituum Congregationi Praefectum relatis, Sanctitas Sua rescriptum Sacrae eiusdem Congregationis ratum habens, propria manu signare dignata est Commissionem Introductionis Causae *Dublinen Beatificationis seu Declarationis Martyrii Servorum Dei FIACRII TOBIN A KILKENNIA et IOANNIS BAPTISTAE DOWDALL AB ULTONIA, Ordinis Minorum S. FIACRII TOBIN ET JOANNIS BAPTISTAE DOWDALL,

ORD. MIN. S. FRANCISCI CAPUCCINORUM

IN HIBERNIA

PRO FIDE, UTI FERTUR, INTERFECTORUM.

Resoluto feliciter dubio, editoque Decreto de Causa ineunda Servorum Dei Fiacrii Tobin et Joannis Baptistae Dowdall ex Ordine Minorum Capuccinorum in Hibernia, Rmus. P. Raphael a Vallefnaria ejusdem Ordinis Postulator Generalis Sanctissimum Dominum Nostrum BENEDICTUM PAPAM XV supplicibus votis deprecatus est, ut Causa horum Servorum adjungatur alteri Causae Dublinensi anno 1915 iam introductae, ac proinde hi duo Servi Dei Tobin et Dowdall aliis omnibus superioris Causae additi, simul cum illis per ulteriorem et unicam Inquisitionem de eorum martyrio, causa martyrii, signis ac miraculis conjungantur, propositis etiam pro his binis Dei famulis interrogatoriis de cultu numquam iisdem exhibito.

Sanctitas porro Sua, referente infrascripto Cardinali Sacrae Rituum Congregationi Praefecto, attentis expositis peculiaribus adjunctis, benigne annuere juxta preces dignatus est. Contrariis non obstantibus quibuscumque. Die 13 Augusti 1919.

BEATIFICATIONIS SEU DECLARATIONIS MARTYRII
SERVORUM DEI

FIACRII TOBIN A KILKENNIA

ET

JOANNIS BAPTISTAE DOWDALL AB ULTONIA

ORDINIS MINORUM S. FRANCISCI CAPUCCINORUM, IN HIBERNIA
PRO FIDE, UTI FERTUR, INTEREMPTORUM.

Positiones et Articulos infrascriptos dat, facit, exhibet atque producit P. Raphael a Vallefnaria, Postulator Generalis O.M.Capuccinorum ad docendum de præfatorum Dei Servorum martyrio in specie, et petit illas sive illos in Curia recipi et admitti simulque testes super iis vel super aliquo ex illis inducendos examinari, et documenta ad rem facientia ex archivis educi, recognosci et in acta compulsari juxta legitimas formulas, non se tamen adstringens ad onus superfluae probationis, de quo etc., non solum etc.

Itaque ponit et probare vult et intendit :—

DE P. FIACRIO TOBIN.

1°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod Dei Servus P. Fiacrius Tobin Kilkenniae ortus, adolescens inter Capuccinos cooptatus, in civitate Carolopoli in Gallia studiis operam dedit. Anno 1646 ex illa urbe in qua Ordo Capuccinorum coenobium habebat ad Hibernicas missiones alendas, in patriam suam missus est, ubi fidem catholicam et morum probitatem verbo et opere in eo populo mirabiliter promovit.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, sive ex fama publica illa didicerint, sive ex documentis quae precise indicabunt.

2°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod anno 1650 cum civitas Kilkennia dedita est Kromwellio cumque clerus universus inde aufugisset, ipse ibi remansit ut ministerium suum praeberet catholicis et peste, quae tunc saeviebat, affectis inserviret. Post aliquot menses capitur ab haereticis et in carcerem conjicitur, ex quo, sub fidem praestantium e civitate Catholicorum, dimissus, tamen inter pericula perrexit apostolicum ministerium impavidus exercere.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

3°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod anno 1653 ne catholicis qui pro se fidem suam interposuerant ultio immineret ab haereticis, cum lata lex est qua clerus universus tota Hibernia ejiciebatur, venit in Galliam. Quo vix appulit, litteras misit ad Commissarium Generalem Missionis Hibernicae veniam petens eo redeundi optime sciens se morti, ab illa lege indictae, si denuo caperetur, fore occurrurum.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

4°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod, accepta venia revertendi in Hiberniam, eo statim remeavit Fiacrius ubi in persecutione Cromwelliana truculentissima strenuum et perutilem laborem posuit per tres fer exinde annos, illud tantum aliquantulum aegro ferens quod cogeretur pecunia uti et saecularem habitum gestare.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

5°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod cum per agros et suburbana loca saepe ministerium suum catholicis praeberet, conspectus ab altero ex iis Anglicanis equitibus qui proposito praemio Sacerdotes catholicos ubique inquirebant, et cognitus quis esset, comprehensus est ab eodem et omnibus suis rebus spoliatus, ligatusque raptus est ad Hewsonium Dublini praefectum, a quo et a Iudicum caetu interrogatus professionem suae fidei suique ecclesiastici muneris apertissimam edidit.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

6°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod latam in eum capitalem sententiam, prouti iniquissimae leges ferebant, commutarunt Iudices in servitutem perpetuo serviendum in insulis Barbados sub Anglo haeretico domino, tum ut illi lentiolem infligerent mortem praesenti celerique duriolem, tum ne ejus martyrio sanguinis catholici magis in fide confirmarentur.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

7°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod Dei Servus dum occasio adesset navigandi ad eas insulas in quas erat deportandus, interim in carcerem conjectus est in quo aliquod tempus permansit saevissime habitus, ut erat mos cum catholicis fidei confessoribus, tum etiam quia illa erat conditio carcerum illius et secuti etiam temporis, ut vinculis detenti atrociter vexarentur omni saevitiei genere, ut facillime et fore necessario morbos contraherent et brevi vitam amitterent.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

8°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod Dei Servus morbo affectus eductus est ex carcere et navi impositus ut deportaretur ad locum sui exilii suaeque perpetuae servitutis. Cum autem navis ex portu Dublini solvisset, post biduum navigationis foeda coorta tempestate coacta est in portum Waterfordiae sese recipere.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

9°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod contrariis semper flantibus ventis coguntur consistere in illo portu, dum Dei Servus in eo fluctuante carcere vinculis oneratus et habitus uti mancipium, crudelissima ratione tractatus ab haeticis nullo modo poterat curationem aliquam morbo adhibere cum pro lectulo tabulas haberet, in cibum pisa pauca et semicocta, in potum aquam saepe purulentam, neque subsidium aliquod afferre catholici poterant quia ab haeticis inhumane pellebantur.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

10°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod Dei Servus in illa tam atroci rerum conditione totam hyemem ejus anni pertransiit sperans se in loco etiam sui exilii et servitutis aliquam, uti posset, daturum operam ministerio suo sicuti missionarium et bonum Christi militem. Interim admirabile exhibebat constantiae exemplum inter illas immanitates quae post quintum captivitatis mensem ejus mortis causae fuerunt in illa ipsa navi, vel probabilius in carcere Waterfordiae quo in vitae extremis fuisset translatus.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

DE P. JOANNE BAPTISTA DOWDALL.

11°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod P. Joannes Baptista Dowdall Ultoniae anno 1626 ortus ex catholicis ac divitibus parentibus cuncta pro Christo reliquit se pauperem faciens inter Capuccinos. Sacerdotio consecratus in Missionibus Hibernicis incredibili animarum studio adlaboravit tum inter catholicos quos in fide confirmabat, tum inter haereticos quorum multos inter pericula et persecutiones ad veram fidei professionem adduxit.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

12°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod hisce de causis saepe ab haereticis captus et in tetrum carcerem coniectus acerrimas pertulit saevitias, inedia afflictus, paedore carcerum et omni necessariarum rerum inopia, quae minime valuerunt ardentem ejus zelum vel minimum extenuare.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

13°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod ad extremam usque aetatem in hisce gravissimis laboribus et certaminibus perstitit donec cum annum ageret circiter octuagesimum quartum, ob conversionem cujusdam nobilis Calvinianae matronae captus postremo et in Londinense ergastulum coniectus anno 1710, ob ejus carceris miserias et immanitates quas in ipsum exasperavit praecipuum haeticorum odium et ipsi tam longaeva aetas lethales efficiebat, fame et frigore, erat enim hyems, confectus mense Februario e vita decessit.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

14°. Qualiter veritas fuit et est quod horumce Dei Servorum coevi qui res ab iisdem gestas, eorumque mortem scriptis tradiderunt auctores fide dignissimi eorum invictam fortitudinem et constantiam extollunt, eosque depraedicant uti veros Christi martyres ex quo clare significatur eandem fuisse famam inter illos ad quos eorum martyrii notitia pervenit, uti nunc est praecipue in Ordine Capuccinorum.—Sicuti declarabunt testes, etc.

Hos pro nunc, salvo jure alios si opus fuerit addendi articulos, de quo, etc.

His Grace the Archbishop, anxious to extend the blessings of the Devotion of the Most Holy Eucharist as widely as possible through the Diocese, will receive with pleasure applications from Priests, Heads of Religious Institutions, and others in charge of Chapels and Oratories, for the appointment of days for the Devotion of the Forty Hours. Furthermore, in order that the attention of the devout faithful may by every means be turned towards this great Devotion to the Most Holy Sacrament, and to the opportunities offered for practising it, His Grace directs that the List be placed in the Porch, or some other conspicuous position in all Churches, where it may be seen by the people, and that it be hung, suitably framed, in the Reception or Waiting Rooms of all Colleges, Convents, and Religious Institutions.

In order that persons wishing to visit the Blessed Sacrament during the Forty Hours' Exposition may not be disappointed, the Parish Priests, Administrators, and Heads of Religious Institutions are requested to observe accurately the order set down in the foregoing List.

ST. COLUMBAN'S COLLEGE, the ecclesiastical seminary of the Maynooth Mission to China, was formally opened on February 7th, 1918. At present it accommodates 40 students, as well as the teaching and official staff of the Society. Unfortunately, for want of accommodation, it has to close its doors against large numbers of young men who would make excellent missionary priests. The Rector has received no fewer than 280 applications for admission to the College. A large building will be wanted immediately to cope with the requirements of the Mission.

Blackrock College, DUBLIN. C.S.Sp.,

By its brilliant record of well-maintained success in the Intermediate, the University, the Civil Service, Blackrock College has now for over 40 years held a foremost place among all the Colleges of Ireland, and has shown that it affords the highest educational advantages, and prepares its students successfully for all liberal careers. Every year numerous and striking successes are obtained. The many distinguished positions worthily filled by past students of Blackrock up to the highest rank in the Professions, in the Indian and the Home Service, and in various other spheres of life, amply attest the excellence of the teaching and formation which they all received.

The College stands on a site unrivalled for health, beauty and convenience, and commands every attraction of both land and sea. The grounds and buildings are beautiful, extensive, commodious and splendidly equipped in every department. The Libraries and the Science Laboratories are well furnished, and fitted up with all requirements. There is every facility for all indoor and outdoor games; and at three minutes' walk from their playground the students can bathe with perfect safety in Dublin Bay.

Blackrock is easily accessible to parents and pupils from all parts. Tram and train pass continually by the College gate on the way to Dublin and Kingstown, only three miles off; and both these ports are connected with Great Britain by a splendid service of steamers, running to and fro several times each day.

Boys are admitted from an early age, and receive a sound, thorough, and complete education. Students from abroad find everything to suit their requirements. Every care is taken of all, both the youngest and the oldest. Day Pupils receive the same teaching and attention as Boarders. The perfect all-round training, both religious and secular, of each and every student, is the constant aim and endeavour of the President and all his staff.

The University and Civil Service College, in a building quite apart, successfully prepares young men for the National University, the Civil Service in all its branches, the Professions, and all liberal careers. Each student has his private room, and can enjoy every educational and social advantage at a safe distance from the dangers of city life.

The average number of students is over 300.

St. Kieran's College, is a beautiful, spacious Gothic building erected on an elevated site in the midst of extensive grounds. The situation is exceedingly salubrious, and the health record of the students has always been eminently satisfactory.

In the Ecclesiastical Department, Candidates for the Sacred Ministry are educated for the Home and Foreign Missions, and several Burses are available every year for both classes of Students.

The Lay Students are prepared for the Intermediate, University, Civil Service, and other Public Examinations; and their zeal is stimulated by Monthly Revisions, and by the public distribution of marks and premiums.

Parents are earnestly requested to send their children at an early age, as success in Intermediate Course cannot otherwise be hoped for. Special arrangements have been made to provide for the wants of the younger boys.

Great care is bestowed upon the training of the Students in Elocution, and the services of a distinguished Elocutionist have been secured.

While the Moral and religious training of the Students hold first place in the hearts of the Superiors, great attention is paid to the fostering of orderly and gentlemanly habits, to the dietary, and to the sanitary arrangements of the College.

St. John's College is a spacious building, of elegant architectural design, erected on an eminence overlooking the City of Waterford. The situation is in the highest degree healthful. The air, tempered by the sea-breeze, is fresh and bracing. The grounds, extending over five-and-twenty acres, are adorned with magnificent Forest trees of great variety and beauty; and all the arrangements of the Institution are adapted with exquisite care for the purpose of collegiate life.

The Kitchen and Refectory arrangements are under the charge of a Community of Sisters. Every room in the building is heated during the cold weather by a system of hot water pipes. The sanitary arrangements are perfect; and baths with hot and cold water laid on, are available for the use of the students.

The main object of St. John's College is the Ecclesiastical Education of Candidates for the Ministry of the Altar in the United Diocese of Waterford and Lismore; but it receives students from all parts of Ireland, and never fails to provide suitable missions for them, when, by exact observance of rule and successful study, they entitle themselves to recommendation.

For students studying for the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore there are available a number of free scholarships in St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, the Irish College, Rome, the Irish College, Paris, and the College of Irish Nobles, Salamanca. These scholarships are given strictly according to merit; and as the competition for them is confined to students of the junior classes, they are easily within the reach of those who are industrious.

From funds at his disposal the President can henceforth offer to students studying for Missions outside the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore a considerable reduction in the Pension. In the allocation of these funds account will be taken of proficiency in studies, and of general fitness for the ecclesiastical state.

The Pension is (temporarily) £40 per annum, payable half-yearly in advance. There are no extras. No allowance is made for less than three months' absence at a time from the College.

For further particulars apply to the PRESIDENT.

BROTHERS OF THE CARMELITE ORDER.

ESTABLISHED 1834.

This College is situated on an eminence, and is within easy reach of the City by car or train. Its clean bill of health is the best recommendation of the healthfulness of its situation. Extensive and beautifully laid-out recreation grounds afford ample facilities for outdoor exercise.

Students are prepared for the Intermediate and Matriculation Examinations, the Civil Service, and Professional Preliminary Examinations. There are Special Courses—including Shorthand and Typewriting—for students who intend to take up Commercial pursuits. Pupils receive expert tuition in Music—both Vocal and Instrumental—as may be arranged by Parents or Guardians.

Religious training, so important in the formation of character, holds first place in the ideals of the College authorities; and no effort is spared by them in securing for the Pupils entrusted to their care every advantage which experience has shown to be conducive to the proper moral education of youth.

During Recreation, the members of the Community exercise a careful supervision over the pupils, for whom Billiards and other suitable indoor games are provided, whenever the weather does not permit the use of outdoor games. A well-stocked Library affords literary recreation for pupils so inclined.

For terms, and any further information required, apply to the Prior.

Catholic University School,

LOWER LEESON STREET, DUBLIN,

Conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Mary (Marist Fathers), UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF DUBLIN.

THIS Day School, at first located in Harcourt Street, and at the time entitled "Catholic University School," was established in connection with the Catholic University of Ireland. In 1867, on the invitation of His Eminence Paul Cardinal Cullen, Archbishop of Dublin, the Marist Fathers took charge of the Institution, and, retaining the title, transferred the "Catholic University School" to Lower Leeson Street on the Feast of St. Michael (29th September) of that year.

In pursuance of the aim of the Founders of the "Catholic University School," the Marist Fathers endeavour to impart to their pupils a sound Catholic Education, thereby laying a solid foundation for future University studies. No effort, however, is spared to equip youths for Professional and Mercantile careers. For further Particulars apply to Rev. Francis McVicar, S.M., President.

Ushaw College, Durham.

Founded at Douay, 1568. Removed to Crook Hall, 1794.

Settled at Ushaw, 1808.

---

Ushaw is the descendant of Cardinal Allen's Foundation.

Its system of education prepares boys for the priesthood, the law, medicine, and the Army and Navy.

Greater attention is paid to the modern side, and special tuition is given in advanced mathematics and in science, at the request of parents. A course of science is arranged for all boys.

The Staff consists of members of the secular clergy, many of whom are graduates of the English and Continental Universities.

The Examinations of the London University are taken: certificates in which secure exemption (under certain conditions) from the preliminary examinations of the Incorporated Law Society, Royal Institute of British Architects, The Surveyor's Institution, and the Examining Board of the Royal College of Physicians and the Royal College of Surgeons, London, &c., &c.

Boys are also prepared for the Newcastle, Manchester and Liverpool Medical Schools: for Sandhurst, Woolwich, and Indian Cadetships, and also for the Civil Service.

The provision for games is ample, and covers many acres of football fields, cricket grounds, tennis courts, ball places and racket-houses. A lake provides skating in Winter.

Attached to the College is a covered swimming bath 71 feet long by 30 feet wide.

In addition, a well-equipped gymnasium is under the charge of a competent instructor, who devotes special attention to remedial work and the physical development of each boy.

The dormitories are furnished, heated and ventilated on the most modern system. The Junior House serves as a preparatory school for boys from 8 and upwards. The times for study, sleep and play are arranged to suit their years.

No boys are taken from other schools except with the most satisfactory references.

The pension includes ordinary medical attendance, provision of school books and the use of playing ground. Drawing and music are extra.

The College stands on a hill 600 feet above sea level. Its climate is most bracing, and is well suited to delicate boys. The Junior House is screened from the North and East winds, and its play ground is so arranged as to secure the maximum open-air life. A Cadet Corps is established in connexion with the Durham Light Infantry.

ART & INDUSTRY

A in Ireland in these latter years have had so little relation to one another that the tradition of Irish craftsmanship—the marvel of Early Christian times—has been gradually dying out. The lack of artistic feeling even amongst the most skilled workers has contributed in no small degree to the failure of many Irish enterprises. On the other hand, many artists have been forced, by lack of appreciation of their part in Industry, either to exile themselves from Ireland or entirely to forego Art as a life-work. We of the Craftworkers have set before us the ideal of artist and craftsman working side by side; gaining both in theory and practice from their companionship in Industry; owning and controlling their own business; regulating their working hours and rates and sharing in proportion to work done, the profits arising out of the sale of work. Much has been said and written about co-operation as a preventative of labour troubles. We have realised in a few months our little co-operative community, based not on money capital but on that capital which all skilled workers possess, the capacity for productive work. We do not wish to make any superlatives, and so will content ourselves by saying that we have one of the best of the younger school of Irish artists, devoting himself to Painting and Stained Glass work

The Marist Brothers, who have just celebrated the Centenary of the Foundation of their Order, have two Juniorates in the United Kingdom :—

1. ST. PATRICK'S JUNIORATE, Bailieboro', Co. Cavan.

2. THE SACRED HEART JUNIORATE, Dumfries.

Juniors are admitted from 12 years of age.

PIUS X. (in his Brief of February 7th, 1908) :—

“ We are pleased to protect and encourage this Institute by whose care the Mystery of Faith is inculcated and cherished in youth. . . . We earnestly recommend these Juniorates to our Venerable Brothers, the Archbishops and Bishops of the entire world, and We beg the Clergy and Christian families to confide to these Brothers youths whom they will educate as the hope of the Church.”

BENEDICT XV. (in his Brief of December 25th, 1916) :—

“ If a glance be cast over the century just elapsed, We shall see that the Divine Assistance obtained by the all-powerful protection of Mary never failed—wonderful to relate—your Venerable Founder nor his disciples ; so that the prosperity of the Institute, in spite of numerous and great difficulties, has much surpassed all human anticipation. . . . It is then but just that those who wish well to the Church and Civil Society should take part in your joy, and heartily congratulate you as you deserve. This We Ourselves do above any one else, as is becoming, and with Our whole heart. . . . Let it be your duty to continue, as in the past, to merit well of the Church and Civil Society, and to strengthen before God your work of salvation.”

African Missionary Society, Cork.

THE SOCIETY OF AFRICAN MISSIONS was established at the earnest request and with the special blessing of the late Pope Pius IX., and has for its object the education of Missionaries for the dark Continent of Africa. To the Irish Province of the Society is especially entrusted for Evangelisation the great Negro Republic of Liberia, West Africa. The Province comprises the following five Houses :—

1. Junior Classical College, African Missions, Ballinacorney, Co. Mayo,
2. Senior Classical College, African Missions, Wilton, Cork.
3. African Missions Novitiate, Cloughballymore, Kilcolgan, Co. Galway.
4. African Missions Theological Seminary, Blackrock Road, Cork.
5. African Missions, Kinurerry, Westport, Co. Mayo.

For the maintenance of all those Houses, as well as for the opening up and development of our Mission, funds are urgently needed ; the kind assistance of benefactors is very earnestly requested. A sum of £600, properly invested, is sufficient to found a Perpetual Bursar for the education of young Priests for our Missionary work. It is up to those who cannot take an active part in the work to supply the means by which others may be enabled to do so. All Donations and Bequests under Wills should be made payable to—

ST. PATRICK'S REFUGE,

Under the Care of the Sisters of Mercy,

CROFTON ROAD, KINGSTOWN, IRELAND.

A SHARE in your CHARITY is earnestly solicited for this poor Magdalen Asylum, which was founded in Bow Street in the year 1796. The Institution was subsequently transferred to Dominick Street, and in 1857 to Glásthule. Finally the penitents were removed in 1880 to the present spacious building erected for them in Kingstown.

Some of these poor, destitute members of society have grown grey in their persevering efforts to cling, like Magdalen, to the Cross, and never to return to that world which shaded their young days with sorrow. Others are only entering an a career of penance—that dreary way which mercy seeks to brighten—with the bitterness of disappointed hopes, which mercy strives to sweeten, and with the renouncement of those earthly joys, the falsity of which mercy endeavours to pourtray.

This is the good work for which an appeal is now made to those generous hearts ever found ready to aid the suffering.

The Sisters of Mercy would also remind a liberal public that this is by no means a local charity.

Prayers are daily offered for the spiritual and temporal welfare of living benefactors, and for the repose of the souls of deceased benefactors.

A debt of some thousands of pounds, incurred by the erection of the new Refuge, still hangs over the Asylum, and it is to relieve the Sisters of Mercy from part of this heavy responsibility and to aid them in maintaining the poor penitents that your assistance is now asked.

Surely they who contribute according to their means to make the Asylum a comfortable and happy home for these poor penitents, are performing a great act of charity, and may expect a magnificent reward, for “Mercy exalteth itself above Judgment.”

Donations will be gratefully received by his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin; Very Rev. W. J. Murphy, P.P. Kingstown; at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, Baggot Street, Dublin; and at St. Patrick's Refuge, Crofton Road, Kingstown, Ireland, by Sister M. F. Hunt, Superioress.

The Little Sisters of the Poor.

THE Little Sisters of the Poor provide homes for the aged poor of both sexes; feed them, clothe them, and minister to all their wants. They have no funds or income whatever. They support the old people, under their care, by whatever public charity affords them, collecting alms daily from house to house, in money, food, old clothing, or anything that may be offered them.

The Institution was founded in 1840, at St. Servan, in Brittany (France), and has gradually spread over France, Belgium, Switzerland, Ireland, England, Scotland, Spain, Italy, Hungary, Turkey, America, Africa, Asia, and Oceania. The Little Sisters of the Poor have now 310 homes, containing above 46,000 old people, who have thus found a comfortable home for their declining years. Twenty-six of these houses are in the United Kingdom.

The Little Sisters have three houses in Ireland: St. Patrick's House, Kilmainham, Dublin; St. Mary's, Montenotte, Cork; St. Joseph's, Manor Hill, Waterford. St. Patrick's House is also the residence of the Mother Provincial.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Mother Superior of any of the Houses. Bequests to the Little Sisters of the Poor must be in goods, in money, in large or small amounts, or in securities immediately convertible into money.

NAZARETH LODGE (HOME FOR), BOYS

RAVENHILL ROAD, BELFAST.

As the former House proved quite inadequate for the many pressing applications received, the Sisters were obliged to erect a large new Building which cost £10,000.

To clear off this heavy debt the Sisters once more appeal to their kind and generous benefactors, feeling assured that any aid they may render will be abundantly repaid by God.

There are at present 300 Boys in the Home.

Prayers are offered several times daily in Both Homes for the spiritual and temporal welfare of benefactors living and for the repose of the souls of those who are deceased.

Subscriptions and Donations will be gratefully received by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, or by the Superiors of Nazareth House, Ballynafeigh, and Nazareth Lodge, Ravenhill Road, Belfast.

NAZARETH HOUSE, BALLYNAFEIGH, BELFAST.

The Sisters of Nazareth provide a Home for Aged Men and Women, also Orphan and Destitute Children who would otherwise be left helpless on the world.

This Institution is supported by the contributions of the charitable public in money and left-off clothing, collected daily by the Sisters.

The number of Inmates at present is even more than in previous years, and the Sisters are often most reluctantly compelled to refuse admission to cases in every way deserving of charity for want of proper space.

There are now in Nazareth House over 400 Inmates, whose ages range from three to eighty years, so that helpless old age and innocent childhood are alike sheltered and provided for out of limited resources, but which by the aid of Divine Providence have never yet been found to fail.

URSULINE CONVENT, St. Mary's, Waterford.

Established 1816.

The Convent has two schools, quite distinct, each occupying a separate building. In the Boarding School the course of studies is arranged on University lines; the Pupils go in for the Matriculation Examination of the National University, and for those of the Intermediate Board. In St. Anne's High School the Studies and Examinations are the same as for the Boarding School. In both Schools Examinations in Music are held annually.

Careful attention is also given to the useful branches that form part of a girl's education, as well as to the various accomplishments, Music (Organ, Piano, Harp, Violin, Zither, etc., etc.), Singing, Drawing and Painting, Wood Carving, Dancing, Calisthenics, Shorthand, Type-writing, etc., etc.

Classes in Religious Knowledge are held daily in both Schools, and constant care is bestowed upon the Religious, Moral, and Physical Development of the Pupils.

ST. URSULA'S COLLEGE OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE AND HOUSEKEEPING

For Young Ladies who have concluded their literary studies, a New Department, with highly qualified Teachers, was opened in October, 1904.

This College has been specially founded to prepare girls for home life. The Course includes Cookery, Dress-making, Sewing, Laundry, Housewifery, Practical Gardening—everything that will enable a girl to take efficient charge of a home, including care of servants and house management. Students who have completed a year's course at this College will receive a Certificate from the Technical Board of Education, according to the proficiency obtained.

St. Vincent's Asylum, with accommodation for 150 patients, and standing on about 40 acres of ground, occupies an elevated and healthful position at Fairview, within a few minutes' drive of Dublin, and commands views of it and the adjacent country. It is remarkable for the salubrity of the air, evidenced by the general good health of the inmates. The grounds for the recreation of the patients are large and laid out in beautiful style.

The Institution is under the management and care of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who, from previous training, are fully conversant with all modern improvements in the treatment and moral supervision of the insane.

The spiritual wants of the inmates are provided for by the daily attendance of a chaplain.

This Institution having been founded for the reception of female patients of the respectable and educated classes of society, a certain number are admitted at moderate pensions.

Higher class patients, who occupy separate apartments, are received on pensions which vary according to the accommodation required and the advantages afforded, which include carriage drives, special attendants, etc.

A complete system of classification is carried out by the separation of the buildings.

Further particulars can be learned at the Institution or by letter.

Applications for admission must contain all particulars as to the social position of the patient, her age, the character and duration of her malady, etc. Such communication shall be regarded as strictly confidential. All letters are to be addressed as follows :

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Infant Jesus.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

---

The Convent, with its own extensive grounds (about 400 acres), is situated in one of the healthiest and most charming localities in Ireland, within twenty minutes' walk of the Millstreet Railway Station.

The curriculum of the School embraces all the ordinary branches of a thorough English education, Modern Languages, Irish, Latin, Mathematics, and Science, Drawing and Painting, Music, Singing, Plain and Fancy Needlework, Dancing and Swedish Drill. Every facility is afforded for a perfect conversational knowledge of French and Irish.

In a separate building is

The Residential School of Housecraft.

The course of Training in this School comprises :—Practical Instruction in all the different branches of Agricultural and Domestic Science.

Students intending to take this Course must be at least sixteen years of age, and will be supposed to have fairly completed their studies in the Boarding School or elsewhere.

In both Schools the chief object of the Sisters is to give the Pupils under their care that thorough Education and Training which will enable them to fulfil the duties that await them in after life, and render them practical in the management of their homes.

Special attention is paid to the development of character, this being facilitated by the limited number of Pupils in each School.

NURSING SISTERS OF THE SICK POOR.

THE Little Sisters of the Assumption devote themselves exclusively and gratuitously to nursing the Sick Poor in their own homes, both day and night. They take care of the home and of the children, and make themselves practically the servants of the poor and of their families, in order to win them to God.

The Sisters also give Religious Instruction.

The Mother house is in Paris. They have several houses abroad, and three in Ireland. In Dublin they receive a limited number of postulants.

Special Prayers and Holy Communions are offered by the Community, and also the prayers of their Poor, for all Benefactors, and for the intentions commended to them verbally or by letter.

The Little Sisters of the Assumption, not being allowed by the Rule of their Order to undertake any remunerative works, earnestly appeal to the charity of the generous to help them to carry on their beloved work in Ireland.

Subscriptions, donations, and all kinds of clothing for men, women and children, also all articles useful for the Sick, Surgical and Medical Appliances are very earnestly solicited, and will be most gratefully received by

This Institute maintains and educates girls in everything necessary to fit them for Domestic Service, such as Cooking, Washing, Needlework, Housework, etc.

The girls who wish to be instructed in these duties must remain at least two years in training, at the expiration of which time they thoroughly understand their business, and are then provided with good situations and necessary outfit.

As the Orphanage has no Government grant or emoluments from any source, the Bishop, in consideration of the amount of good done, has authorized a Collector to receive Subscriptions towards the support of the Institute.

In addition to the Orphanage and Training Department, the Sisters also receive a limited number of respectable children, whose parents are unable to meet the expenses of a High Class Boarding School.

The Course of Instruction comprises English in all its branches, French, also Plain and Ornamental Needlework.

Pension, £20 per annum. Music is the only extra.

The Pupils are afterwards provided with various positions as Teachers, Governesses, etc., either at home or in foreign countries.

This Establishment is situated about five miles from the town of Maryborough. The extensive grounds attached, and the pure invigorating air of the surrounding hills, render it a most healthy and desirable place for children.

THIS Convent of the Franciscan Nuns of the Perpetual Adoration is a branch of the Seraphic Family of St. Francis of Assisi, and is cloistered and contemplative. The object of the Institute is to offer unceasing praise to the Most Blessed Sacrament Exposed by the chanting of the Divine Office and the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin in choir at the canonical hours, Matins being chanted at midnight ; and to offer also unceasing prayer and reparation by the Perpetual Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which continues hour by hour without intermission both day and night, for all persons and cases recommended to the prayers of the Community, as also for the conversion of sinners, heretics, infidels and Jews.

Side Chapels on to the Sanctuary allow the public to share in the inestimable privilege of the Exposition during the daytime, from Holy Mass at 7 a.m. until Benediction at 6 p.m.

An Association of the Perpetual Adoration for persons in the world, enriched with many indulgences, is attached to this Convent. Persons desiring to become associated can obtain all particulars by applying to the Rev. Mother Abbess.

PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY.

1. There are now in the Homes nearly 800 children.
  2. These children are rescued from poverty, misery, and vice.
  3. This number is but a fraction compared to the number applying for admission.
  4. There is no greater charity than to help those who cannot help themselves.
  5. These poor children cannot help themselves ; they are the most helpless, the most innocent, the most defenceless of all.
  6. Quite two-thirds of the children in our Homes are of Irish parentage or extraction.
  7. Very many of these little ones would have been lost to the Catholic Faith but for the timely intervention of our Society.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED.

There is no assured source of income ; we are entirely dependent upon the generosity of the charitable.

In a brief dated the 17th February, 1906, His Holiness Pius X. says:—

"To each member of the Society, and to all who will support its most excellent work, We, in testimony of Our good will and as a token of heavenly favours, most lovingly grant Our Apostolic Benediction."

St. Winefride's Well, Holywell.

It has pleased God to grant many and Wonderful Cures through the intercession of OUR LADY and ST. WINEFRIDE. Those who desire to obtain a Favour or Cure should make a NOVENA, and get as many as possible to join in it.

The Devotions may consist of—

- 1st—Hearing Mass daily (if possible).
- 2nd—Reciting the Rosary daily ; and also
- 3rd—The Litany of St. Winefride (which is sent with the Water).
- 4th—To approach the Sacraments at least once during the Novena.
- 5th—To have a Mass said at your Parish Church on the last day of the Novena, or some other convenient day.

HOW TO USE THE WATER.

Apply each day, in the Spirit of Faith, a little of the Water externally, or drink a little.

Pray fervently that God may grant the favour you ask for His greater glory, and the honour of His Blessed Mother and St. Winefride.

A Bottle of Water from St. Winefride's Well will be sent immediately on receipt of Postal Order for 1s. 4d., made payable to Fr. RYAN, Holywell, N. Wales.

Stamps should not be sent if a Postal Order can be obtained. The address to which the water is to be forwarded should be written clearly and in full.

As the 1s. 4d. somewhat exceeds the cost entailed in the sending of the water, the surplus is devoted to purposes connected with the Shrine of St. Winefride, the support of the Hospice, &c., and may be considered as a small offering in honour of St. Winefride.

Those who cannot afford this donation will receive the Water on receipt of sufficient to cover the Postage.

If the Water is lost in transit, inform FR. RYAN, and an additional supply will be sent, free of cost.

"St. Winefride, most admirable Virgin, even in this unbelieving generation still miraculous, Pray for us."

ST. WINEFRIDE'S HOSPICE, HOLYWELL.

The HOSPICE is intended to supply poor Pilgrims, and those of slender means, with Board and Lodging during their visit to Holywell. It is in charge of the Sisters of Charity of St. Paul. The ordinary period of stay is a week or ten days, but this time may be extended under certain conditions. Those who can afford it are charged 2s. per day for their Board and Lodging. They are also expected to pay an Entrance Fee of 2s. 6d. Those who cannot afford this are admitted at a lower rate. All, but especially the more needy ones, should bring, if possible, a note of recommendation from their Priest.

Application for admittance should be made to the SUPERIORESS, or to the PARISH PRIEST, Holywell (Fr. RYAN).

The Hospice is a short distance from the Well. The Railway reaches the vicinity of the Well by a branch from Holywell Junction to Holywell Town.

Holywell is between Chester and Rhyl, on the London and North-Western Railway. Travellers from England and Scotland (Liverpool, Manchester, etc.), will generally have to change at Chester. From Ireland (via Holyhead), change usually at Bangor and Rhyl.

A charge of 2d. is made for entrance to the Well, and 2d. more for the use of a towel and bathing gown, but such as cannot afford so much will be given a free bathing ticket on application to FATHER RYAN.

Convent of the Visitation,

ROSELANDS, WALMER.

Under the Patronage of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and of His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

STAFF OF CERTIFICATED TEACHERS.

THE Convent, with its Church and School buildings, is beautifully situated at a short distance from the sea, and is surrounded by extensive grounds. Together with the advantages of a superior English education, the pupils have special opportunities for attaining proficiency in modern languages and accomplishments.

The late Lady Georgiana Fullerton, when staying with her brother, Lord Granville, at Walmer Castle, used frequently to visit the Church and Convent. Writing to the Tablet, she gave the following appreciation of the education given by the Sisters :—

“Of the merits of St. Francis of Sales’ Daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day they were called ‘the holy Maries,’ and the spirit bequeathed to them by their Holy Founder and their first Mother, St. Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. . . . If parents want for their children bracing sea air . . . . joined to all the other advantages of a good Convent school, they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands.”

The air is most beneficial to delicate girls, and the number of the pupils being limited, individual care is given to each child.

For the last 25 years the School has been a private centre for the Oxford Local Examinations, for which, at the desire of the parents, pupils are very successfully prepared, as also for the Honours Certificate in the Higher Local Examination for women, the London Matriculation, the French Examinations: Brevet Simple and Brevet Supérieur and for the Examinations of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music.

The Piano, Violin, and all accomplishments are taught after the best and most approved methods.

A course of Shorthand (Pitman’s and Dutton’s systems), Book-keeping, and Typewriting, if desired.

The Railway Station is within a short distance of the Convent.

For further particulars apply to the Reverend Mother Superior.

The Archconfraternity of the Guard of Honour of the Sacred Heart having been canonically established by a Brief of Pope Leo XIII. in 1888, and the Convent appointed as the Head Centre for England, Ireland, Scotland and the British Colonies, all information concerning this devotion may be obtained by applying to the above Convent.

Kilmore, Co. Wexford.

THE SISTERS OF ST. JOHN OF GOD desire to call attention to the facilities which are afforded at their Residential School, Kilmore, Co. Wexford, to obtain a complete training in Domestic Science.

The School was erected some years ago on most up-to-date lines. It is three statute miles from Bridgetown Station on the Waterford and Wexford Section of the Great Southern and Western Railway, and about a mile from the Atlantic.

The situation is admittedly ideal; every possible care has been taken to provide for the health and comfort of the students.

The entire building is lighted by means of an acetylene gas plant, and a system of hot-water pipes ensures warmth during the winter, which, however, at Kilmore is extremely mild. The Dormitories have been laid out to secure the maximum amount of light and ventilation. In the Laundry provision has been made for washing, etc.

The curriculum covers a full course of training, viz. :—Cookery, Laundry Work, Hygiene, Needlework—Home Sewing and Dress-making, Household Management, Poultry-keeping, Dairying, Bee-keeping, and Practical Horticulture.

In addition to the services of the Community, a Certified Domestic Economy Instructress devotes her whole time to the training of the students.

The School is recognised by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction.

Students desirous of learning extra subjects, e.g., Music, Shorthand, Typewriting, and Book-keeping shall have every facility to do so.

St. Clare's Orphanage

(Under the care of the Poor Clares),

HAROLD'S CROSS, DUBLIN.

THIS being the first Institution for Orphan Girls founded in Dublin, its claims on general support may be justly urged, especially as the helpless little ones whose cause we plead are particularly unsuited to encounter the difficulties and hardships which beset the young, innocent, and unprotected.

Hundreds of friendless girls, many of whom were once blessed with loving parents and happy homes, have sought a safe asylum in the Orphanage, and therein have received careful training in religious and domestic duties, which, united with a solid, practical education, prepared them to fulfil the duties of their varied positions in life in a truly Christian manner, and with much edification.

The Orphans pray daily for their benefactors, for whom also many masses are offered yearly.

Help is urgently needed for the continuance of the good work. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received by—

THE MOTHER ABBESS.

ASSOCIATION

OF THE

Perpetual Adoration, AND WORK FOR POOR CHURCHES, ALSO FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Under the patronage of His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin.

And the direction of the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, St. Francis Xavier's, Upper Gardiner Street, Dublin.

This Association was founded in Brussels in the year 1848 A.D., and established in Dublin in the year 1861, under the patronage of His Eminence the late Cardinal Cullen, at that time Archbishop of Dublin, in order to promote the glory of our hidden God in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and to provide for Poor Churches the Necessaries of Divine Worship.

The Committee of this Association earnestly request that every Priest desirous of availing himself of the work of this Society, will be so good as to state clearly the circumstances of his parish, and also the requisites which he may stand most in need of for his Church.

The Committee beg that the Priest applying for help will have the goodness to inform them what collection can be made by his parishioners, in order to pay some of the expenses of the Vestments, etc., required, as it is not in their power to supply all gratis—much as they would desire to do so.

The Vestments, Linens, etc., are distributed immediately after the annual exhibition of work, which takes place at the end of May or beginning of June. All applications for Vestments are requested to be sent to the Hon. Sec., before the end of April.

Vestments, etc., remaining over after exhibition, may be purchased at any time.

REV. FATHER J. TUNNEY, S.J., Director,
St. Francis Xavier's, Upper Gardiner St., Dublin.

THE HON. MRS. FITZGERALD, President,
18 Clyde Road, Dublin.

MISS CAMPBELL, Vice-President,
27 Pembroke Road.

MISS O'CONNELL, Hon. Secretary.

The Centre for Ireland of this Association is at Council Room,
St. Francis Xavier's Presbytery, Upper Gardiner Street, Dublin.

St. Saviour's Orphanage,

DENMARK STREET, DUBLIN.

Under the Patronage of His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh,
Archbishop of Dublin, and the Dominican Fathers.

Rev. J. P. DOWLING, O.P., Guardian.

St. Saviour's Orphanage is the oldest in Dublin. It was founded by the Dominican Fathers in 1780, and since that time has provided for hundreds of Orphan Boys. Owing to the slender resources of the Institution, the Guardian has to refuse the application of many deserving children who have lost their parents, and who—were financial matters in a more satisfactory state—would find a home in the Orphanage. The boys receive a sound, moral training; and their education is provided for in St. Saviour's National School, which adjoins. A Matron presides over the household, and one of the Teachers is always in residence.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered on the First Sunday of every month for the deceased benefactors, and for the spiritual and temporal welfare of all subscribers. The Rosary and Litany are recited every night by the orphans for the same intention.

Donations and Bequests will be most gratefully received by the Rev. J. P. Dowling, O.P., Guardian, St. Saviour's Orphanage, or by any of the Clergymen, St. Saviour's Church, Dominick Street, Dublin.

34 RUTLAND SQUARE, DUBLIN,

For Providing Trained Nurses for the Sick Poor in their Own Homes

In affiliation with Queen Victoria Jubilee Institute for Nurses.

Patron: His GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF DUBLIN.

General Committee :

The Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea ; The Lady Mary Murphy, Madam O'Connor, The Venerable Archdeacon Gorman, P.P. ; Mrs. Martin, Miss McDonnell, The Rev. R. Bowden, Adm. ; The Very Rev. Canon Fagan, P.P. ; Mrs. Whyte, Miss K. Martin, Miss Redington Roche, Miss M. Tierney, Miss M. Mansfield, Miss Boland, Miss Edith O'Reilly, Lady O'Connell, Mrs. J. M'Cann, Miss Eva Murphy, Mrs. J. Murphy, Mrs. J. R. Peart. C. O. Martin, Esq., L. A. Teeling, Esq., H. J. Monahan, Esq., Hon. Treas. ; H. J. Synnott, Esq. ; Valentine Irwin, Esq. John R. Peart, Esq., Hon. Sec. Sir Joseph Redmond, Hon. Physician. Miss Daly, Lady Superintendent.
Nurses' Home, 34 Rutland Square, W. Bankers, The Bank of Ireland.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT.

St. Lawrence's Catholic Home has been established for the double purpose of providing a Home in Dublin for Catholic District Nurses for the sick poor of the City, and of training Catholic Nurses for district work in the country.

The Nurses employed by the Home have had full Hospital training, in addition to the special training required for district visiting. They work under the direction of the local doctors, and go to the houses of the sick poor to whom they are sent, and do such work there as the nature of the case may require, thus bringing the benefits of skilled nursing and attendance within the reach of those who are unable to go into Hospitals.

Cases may be sent in by Doctors, Clergy, District Visitors, Sisters of Charity, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and others who are working among the poor, to the Superintendent, at 34 Rutland Square, Dublin, who will at once send a Nurse to attend the case.

The services of the Nurse are given gratis. Those, however, who are not of the very poor, and who have availed of St. Lawrence's Nurses, are invited to contribute towards the funds of the Home. The smallest contributions are thankfully accepted.

Donations and Subscriptions are urgently needed, and gifts of books, surgical and medical appliances, letters for Convalescent homes, etc., will be specially acceptable, and may be sent to the Superintendent, at 34 Rutland Square, Dublin.

Ninety-five districts are now supplied by the Queen Victoria Jubilee Institute with Catholic Nurses who were trained in St. Lawrence's Home, including Achill Island, Agher, Anagry Ardee, Ardmore, Armagh, Arranmore, Athy, Aghrim, Ballina, Ballinallee, Ballycroy, Ballyshannon, Belleek, Bealadangan, Birr, Bray, Buncrana, Cahir, Cahirdaniel, Carlow, Carrick-on-Suir, Carna, Cashel Castlebellingham, Castleknock, Cavan, Clifden, Cappoquin, Castlecomer, Celbridge, Clondalkin, Clonmel, Cork, Dalkey, Derrybeg, Doneraile, Drogheda, Dublin, Dundalk, Dunshaughlin, Foxford, Galway, Geesala, Glencolumbkille, Glencullen, Glengarriff, Grange Con, Hospital, Howth, Kells, Kenmare, Killarney, Kiltimagh, Kilucan, Lismore, Lucan, etc.

The Irish Nuns of Ypres.

The Irish Benedictine Dames of the Royal Abbey of the Immaculate Conception, at Ypres, have, with the cordial approval of His Lordship the BISHOP OF FERNS, opened a Select Boarding-School, similar to that which they directed for so many years in Belgium.

It is their aim to instil into their Pupils a fervent and solid piety, without which true education cannot exist; together with a judicious notion of personal responsibility—at the same time developing the intellectual and moral qualities.

The Course of Studies comprises all the branches of a superior education, with the advantages of a continental training. The system of teaching is adapted to ensure for each Pupil thoroughness in every branch.

Careful attention is given to health, diet and recreation. The neighbourhood is well-known for its beautiful scenery, and the children enjoy a great variety of walks.

In this Institution the Sisters of Charity devote themselves to the care and education of poor unprotected young girls (aged from 11 to 16 years).

The Sisters, well aware that "prevention is better than cure," spare no pains to train these young girls to industrial pursuits, forming them early to habits of order, tidiness and cleanliness.

The children are taught needlework in all its branches in their workrooms, where orders are executed for the best houses in the City. Washing also is taken into the Institution, so as to give the girls a thorough training in Laundry Work. There are at present 100 inmates. They are likewise taught plain cooking, besides the usual elementary branches of education.

As there is no aid from Government for this Institution, and as inexperienced young hands do not bring in nearly sufficient means for their support, the Sisters earnestly appeal to the Charity of the Generous to help them to carry on their work for these poor, unprotected children.

This Hospital is the first and only one in the City exclusively devoted to the practice and treatment of Skin Diseases, and was the first Hospital in Ireland to introduce, in 1901, the Finsin Light Treatment for the cure of Lupus. Senior Students are admitted free to the clinical teaching of the Hospital, which has a large out-patient attendance, with 50 beds for Intern cases.

Classes of instruction in the use of the Finsin Light, Radium X Rays, High Frequency Currents, and Ionic Medication, with Demonstrations on cases already undergoing the treatment will be held at regular intervals during the Winter and Summer Sessions.

Convent of the Sisters of Mercy,

Lower Baggot Street, Dublin.

This Institution is under the care of the Sisters of Mercy, and was founded in 1827 for the education of the poor, visitation of the sick, and protection of distressed women of good character. The attendance in the schools is from 1,000 to 1,300 children daily, many of whom are clothed. There is a Training School attached to the Convent, where talented young girls are prepared for the Training College. Entrance to Training School at Gate Lodge next Adelaide Place.

There is also a "House of Mercy"—founded by Mother Catherine McAuley—for protecting and training about 40 poor, destitute young girls as laundresses and domestic servants, who would otherwise be exposed to the awful dangers and even ruin awaiting them in the world on the threshold of life. With no grant whatever, the doors must be closed to those helpless young creatures if the generosity of the charitable fails in enabling the Sisters to carry out the greatest of all works—the salvation of souls—by shielding the young and innocent from sin and shame.

Alms are urgently implored for this end—so vital and important.

Convent of the Sacred Heart,

FERRYBANK, WATERFORD.

Facing the City of Waterford, on a most charming and salubrious site, this beautiful Convent is ideally situated. The spacious grounds on which the Convent stands afford ample opportunity for the Pupils belonging to the various departments to indulge in healthy and up-to-date games, which form such a necessary feature of a girl's education.

The results of the annual Examinations in Literature, Science, and Art testify sufficiently to the excellence of the education imparted in this well-known Convent. Domestic Economy—that science whose knowledge is so essential to the future happiness of the home—takes a prominent place, and special facilities are provided for instruction in this branch.

In addition to the Boarding School (the Pupils of which number 120), there is a High School where the Curriculum of Studies is the same as that of the Boarding School.

SANDYMOUNT, CO. DUBLIN.

UNDER THE CARE OF THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

---

This Orphanage, originally founded and maintained by working men of the Trinitarian Orphan Society, was confided to Mother Mary Aikenhead, at the foundation of the Irish Sisters of Charity in 1815.

It needs support urgently, as it is crippled by the loss of good Benefactors, and the present crushing prices of all necessities.

The children get a good technical education, and are sent out well-trained to earn a respectable livelihood.

The "Little Flower" League of Love and Kindness, established to aid the Orphanage, is a union of clients of Sœur Thérèse, whose small subscriptions of five shillings annually, help to maintain the Orphans and destitute poor children under the care of the Sisters of Charity.

The Members share in many Masses offered monthly for Benefactors—also in the prayers of the Community and little Orphans, whom they have befriended.

Donations and Bequests will be most gratefully received by—

REV. MOTHER,

The Sisters of Charity, Lakelands, Sandymount, Co. Dublin.

SALESIAN SCHOOL,

Surrey House, Surrey Lane, Battersea, London, S.W. 11.

Directed and Taught by the Salesian Fathers.

The School is situated in a very healthy locality standing in its own grounds, a few minutes' walk from the park and surrounded by a large garden and lawn, beyond which are the class-rooms and a spacious play-ground. Extra play-grounds are allotted by the Parks' Committee for Cricket, Tennis and Football.

The principal object of the School is to provide at a moderate pension, a sound commercial and classical education; at the same time the studies are adapted to give those pupils who may have a vocation for the ecclesiastical state a good ground work for their preliminary studies.

The Curriculum embraces all the usual branches of a sound English education, in which Latin, French, Science, Mathematics are included. The School is a centre for the Oxford Local and The College of Preceptors Examinations.

The moral and religious training of the boys is one of the chief interests of the Don Bosco's Salesians. The instruction in Religious Knowledge is guaranteed by the annual examination on this subject by the Diocesan Inspector.

For particulars apply to—

'Manual of Religious Instruction'

By Rev. P. POWER.

THIS popular catechetical work, specially designed as a supplement to the Maynooth (Butler's) Catechism, is a multum in parvo—containing within its 140 pithy pages a complete summary of Christian Doctrine, arranged for the use of schools. The "Manual" has received highest recommendations of Irish and Colonial Bishops, Clergy and Teachers, but perhaps the best proof of its merit is its circulation, which (without advertisement) is now nearing its three hundredth thousand.

"Father Power's little book is excellent. Perhaps he may allow you to bring out an Australian edition."

✠ PATRICK F. CARDINAL MORAN.

"An admirable School Manual."

✠ THOMAS FENNELLY, Archbishop of Cashel.

"An excellent elucidation of the Small Catechism. The matter is complete for its purpose."

✠ M. KELLY, Archbishop of Acrida.

"It contains a vast amount of information in compressed form and in simple language."

✠ H. HENRY, Bishop of Down and Connor.

"The Missionary priest will find it most useful in preparation of his instructions."

✠ R. OWENS, Bishop of Clogher.

"It is an admirable little work."

✠ JOSEPH HIGGINS, Bishop of Ballarat.

"The most concise Manual in the English language,"

✠ J. DUNNE, Bishop of Wilcannia.

"I have no doubt it will prove very useful to all who are engaged in the Religious Instruction of Children in Primary and Secondary Schools."

✠ P. FOLEY, Bishop of Kildare.

"It will be a source of pleasure to me to recommend it at our next Conference, with a hope that it may be introduced into the Parochial Schools of our Diocese."

✠ JOHN GALLAGHER, Bishop of Goulburn.

From the BISHOP OF MENEVIA.

I have much pleasure in recommending your Altar Candles to the clergy of my diocese. I have dealt with your firm for many years, and I have never had cause to complain of the quality of your goods. I am quite confident that your candles, as regards the amount of beeswax they contain, will be always up to the standard of their guarantee, etc.

From the ARCHBISHOP OF TUAM.

I strongly recommend the candles of this firm, etc.

Letter from HIS EMINENCE CARDINAL LOGUE
which bears further on the suggestion made above.

ARA CORNELI, ARMAGH, February 20, 1903.

Gentlemen,—Any steps you think it well to take for the purpose of supplying our churches with pure wax candles shall have my cordial approval.

I am well aware that the market is glutted with spurious imitations, unsightly and evil smelling, which are unfit even for domestic use, much more for altar purposes.

I am, Gentlemen, yours faithfully,

✠MICHAEL CARD. LOGUE.

Under the Care of the Sisters of Charity.

THIS INSTITUTION, which was the first of its kind founded in Ireland, is sadly in want of Funds owing to the unavoidable additional expenses which had to be incurred this year, 1919.

The Sisters will be most grateful for any help to carry on this work of redeeming charity, and promise a remembrance three times daily in the prayers of the poor Penitents for such Benefactors.

The Catholic Institution for Deaf and Dumb, CABRA.

The Committee of the Catholic Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Cabra, beg to direct the attention of Parents, Guardians, and the Catholic Clergy of Ireland, to the fact that there are many uneducated Catholic Deaf-mutes in Ireland.

If the Committee be favoured with the names and addresses of any uneducated Catholic Deaf and Dumb Children or Adults, immediate steps will be taken to co-operate with any person desirous to obtain admission for them to St. MARY'S or St. JOSEPH'S, Cabra.

Communications on this, or any other subject connected with the welfare of the Deaf and Dumb, may be addressed to the Secretary of the Institution,

MR. JOHN HEALY,
12 North Great George's Street, Dublin.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

"I, ..... devise and bequeath..... to the Treasurers or Treasurer, for the time being, of the Institution known as the Roman Catholic Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, situated at Cabra, near Dublin, upon trust, to apply the same, and every part thereof, for the uses and purposes of the said Institution, and I direct that the receipt of such Treasurers or Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge of this Bequest."

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

By the Rev. Thomas Harper, S.J. Revised and Introduced by the Rev. Joseph Rickaby, S.J. Wrappers, 2s. 6d. net. Cloth, 3s. 6d. net. Postage 2d.

FR. THOMAS HARPER'S ESSAY was first written in 1866, as a rejoinder to Pusey's Eirenicon. Fr. Joseph Rickaby in putting forth the revised edition described the Essay as "still the best exposition of the doctrine to be met with in the English language. Particularly valuable," says Fr. Rickaby, "is the explanation of the difference between the state of pure nature, in which man might have been created and left, and the state of nature elevated by grace, to which man from the first was called, from which he fell in Adam, and to which he is restored in Christ. Whoever does not appreciate that difference is ignorant of the very alphabet of the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception."

FIRST IMPRESSIONS IN AMERICA. With

Photogravure Portrait of Author and other Illustrations. Demy 8vo, cloth, 12s. 6d. net. By post, 13s.

This volume is the outcome of John Ayscough's long-intended and long-promised visit to America which he made in the Spring and Summer of 1919. It gives the impressions he formed as the result of his tour throughout the Union when he delivered numerous lectures upon literary and other subjects. So observant a visitor as John Ayscough could never find himself upon a new Continent without the taking of many and copious notes, and, as a result, the book is rich in material which, from his ever present sense of what is whimsical and humorous, is never dull.

THE FOUNDRESS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 7s. net. By post, 7s. 6d.

"THE FOUNDRESS" is concerned with the present century and the present reign. Like all Ayscough's books this new novel contains, as its pivot, the presentment of one central character—that of the heroine. There are many other characters, male and female, all treated with that subtle comprehension which constitutes the peculiar gift of this writer.

FERNANDO. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 4s. 6d. net. By post 5s. (New Edition.)

John Ayscough strikes a more intimate personal note than usual in this work, which is in effect the autobiography of the author presented in the guise of fiction. It contains the first phase of the author's life up to the time of his conversion and his leaving Oxford. It supplies the demand made by many for the story of Ayscough's adventures on the road to Rome.

THE TIDEWAY. Crown 8vo, cloth, 7s. net. By post 7s. 6d.

John Ayscough is one of the few story tellers who charm the literary critic and rejoice the popular audience alike. Countless thousands have been captivated by his novels in the past, and in "THE TIDEWAY" we have in abundant measure the characteristic and stimulating pictures of life which give to this author his special niche in the temple of present-day fiction.

THE TABLET, founded in 1840, was acquired in 1868 by Cardinal Vaughan, who determined to supply to Catholic readers a paper expressing their own lofty ideals.

Its reputation is established as that of a Catholic weekly with the scholarly authority of a Review as well as the lighter interest of a Newspaper.

In breadth of outlook, in current learning, and in literary merit, THE TABLET provokes comparison with any of its non-Catholic contemporaries "Would that the Church of England had such a paper!" enviously exclaims Mr. Clement Shorter in The Sphere.

"The Irish Catholic,"

(ESTABLISHED 1888.)

Weekly - - Two Pence.

In his Lenten Pastoral, 1913, His Eminence Cardinal Logue, Lord Archbishop of Armagh, Primate of All Ireland, referred in the following terms to the "Irish Catholic":

"I do not mean to depreciate in the least our other excellent Catholic weeklies, if I mention, as an instance, the 'Irish Catholic,' which I know more intimately because I read it regularly. It is a clever exponent of Catholic views and a fearless vindicator of Catholic interests, which it never makes subservient to mere expediency. I should be glad to see it more widely circulated, put, in fact, in the hands of all our people. In it they would find some direction on Catholic claims and Catholic polity, useful information on general subjects, and a mass of matter, either original or judiciously selected, well suited to instruct, interest, and edify."

"The Irish Catholic" has Special Correspondents in Rome and London.
