In the name of God Amen. I Aaron Cox of the State of North Carolina and Pitt County being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament. After paying all of my just. I lend unto my wife the plantation on which I now live. also all of my negroes. Stock of all kinds and all of my other property remaining to her during her natural life for her own and sole use. After her death it is my will and desire for my son Jesse A Cox to have the plantation on which he now lives (and for which I am to pay) to have and to hold him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Hyland Cox the plantation on which I now live after his mothers death to have and to hold to him and his heirs forever.
The remainder of my property which is left to my wife during her life I wish to be equally divided between all of my female children with the exception deduct from the share of Sophia Hardy whatever amount I have or may have to pay for her husband James Hardy and also deduct from Sarah Cox's share whatever amount I may have paid or may hereafter have to pay for her husband Jesse Cox. And the respective shares of Sophia Hardy of record Cox and of Ashley Hardy (wife of Isaac Hardy) I lend unto them and to be managed for their use by my friend W P Blow (whom I hereby make and appoint trustee for that purpose) and on the death of my aforesaid daughters or either of them then I give it to their lawful heirs born of their bodies. And no part of which property is either of their husbands to have the control or management of. I do hereby appoint my wife Sarah Cox executrix to this my last will and testament. And if from a fair valuation of all my property after my wife's death the lands which I have given unto my two sons should not be equal to the shares of my daughters then for them to be made equal by so much of the personal property as will be required.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal.
