November Term 1805

Polly Field is bound to Spence one year beginning on Christmas to be taught all or any such sciences Spence shall think fit to teach her, the said Polly Field and Spence bind themselves in the penal sum of Twenty dollars to be of the money comes or ought for said service.

Ord. the heirs and lands in Guilford County of Jesse Stroud be for the house to be sold and my dy Robert Field to have out money dollars out of the price for said lands and the remaining part to be equally divided among my five surviving children Lewis Stroud Jane Stroud, Rebecca Stroud and Tabitha Newman and if there be any one of the movers and heirs of said movers be more or less divided as above mentioned. Item. I give to my beloved son William Field the sixth part I have his in containing five hundred and twenty five acres of land part of the old survey and part of the new at his mother Lydia Field's decease and my accumulation at my decease.

Item I give to my beloved son Samuel Field, Robert Field & William Field all my movies, bill, books, notes and book accounts to be equally divided amongst the men kind three except the wearing I give to their mother I give Field.

Item I give to Polly Lewis, Samuel Field, Robert Field Jane Stroud, Rebecca Newman and Tabitha Newman and William Field my Children all the household furniture, plantation tools, waggon, wagon gears chairs, plows, ploughs and all other conveniences to be divided to mention at their mother Lydia Field's marriage or decease except what is there mentioned

November Term 1805

Then belonging to their Mother Lydia Field Witnesses to constitute and appoint my beloved son William Field and Hugh Stroud and Thomas Newman my only and sole executors of this my last will & testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written Signed sealed published pronounced and declared and declared to be William Field his my last will and testament in presence of us the subscribers Hugh Stroud
Thomas Newman
William Field
Richard Richardson
Robert Field November Term 1805 The foregoing last will & testament of William Field deceased was duly proved in open Court by Richard Richardson & Robert Field & ordered the record

Test

Wm Forbes Clk

Copy given