This day February 22nd 1831

I Samuel Wolff do make the following memorandum of what I have given and do intend to give to my children out of this common mass which shall belong to them respectively as their own property 1 My Daughter Rhoda has received one bed & furniture & one bureau & one settee, one spinning wheel and one cow & calf and one set of silver tea spoons.
2 Nancy shall have two beds & furniture & one bureau and trunk which she now claims also one saddle and one cow & calf 3 Elizabeth, Malinda & Elizabeth shall be allowed each with one bed & furniture equally as good as the rest and each of them one bureau & the purchase out of the produce of my plantation which is now in hand & to each shall have one cow & calf & one saddle.
Lands at to my sons William & Samuel the labour they have done on the land where they now live on shall in no case be charged to them, it is therefore agreed and therefore shall not be valued with the land.
6 Jacob shall have a certain mare (named Lion) also one and one cow & calf 6 Hunter with the stock of sheep to remain undivided for the benefit of the remaining family
