Proved Mar 1, 1869.

Hawkins County } I, Polly Clagit do hereby make & publish Summons } this as my last will & testament hereby revoking all former wills made by me first it is my wish and direct that all my just debts be paid, first I give and bequeath to my daughter Margaret Ellen all my lands obtained from the estate of my father Michael Carter deed the divided part & with the undivided part of my daughter shall have the widows lien of her own body, then I give and bequeath all my lands to my husband Michael Clagit with all the balance of my estate owned by me.

Given under my hand this 18th day June 1868

Test Polly Clagit

Andrew Carter.
John A. Spangler.

Copy The last will & testament of Polly Clagit
The last will and testament of Polly Clagit
I Polly Clagit of the County of Hawkins and State of Tennessee being in perfect health but of sound disposing mind and memory do make and declare the following to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all wills heretofore by me made.
First My will and I so direct that my executor hereinafter named out of the first money that may come into his hands after my debts to have a decent burial and pay my just debts.
Secondly I give and bequeath to my son John A. Spangler the plantation on which he now lives, and which was purchased from Geo W. Gamble and it is my will and direct that my said son John A. Shall have also the farming utensils the two horse wagon, the black smith tools, the home loom the three head of Cattle, the two bedsteads the setting leaf table, the home made kitchen furniture which I gave him heretofore and which he has been in possession of. It also my will and direct that my said son John Shall have my Clock, for and during his natural life and after his death the said Clock shall belong to my Grand son Wm A. Spangler son of said John and Polly his wife.
Thirdly It my will and direct and I do bequeath to my Grand son Wm A. Spangler my plantation known as the Polly Gamble farm the same on which Thomas Stephens lives, adjoining Samuel Wells David Shanks and others containing this day 80 acres more or less the proceeds thereof to be disposed of as hereinafter directed, until my said Grand son Wm A. Spangler shall have attained the age of twenty one years, and when he shall have attained the age of twenty one years then in that case he shall have full possession of the same.
Fourthly It my will and direct that all my Grand Children now living to wit: Robert D. John W. William A. George W. Calvin P. and Dennis A. Spangler Children of my son John A. & Polly, shall have all of the rents and profits of said Polly Gamble farm or if that shall not be sufficient out of any other monies that may come into the hands of my executor, one hundred dollars each to assist in paying their school Education.
Fifthly I give and bequeath to my said Grand son Wm A. Spangler half the Wearing apparel, Bureau, Table & Chairs and furniture and all the residue of my home made furniture is to be equally divided between my other four Grandsons of the said John A. & Polly Spangler share & share alike and it is my express desire and I do will and direct that none of my said Grandchildren shall have any of my said Grandfather's property until they shall arrive at the age of twenty one years then and not before the executor shall have a right to sell and dispose of the property