Copy of the last will & testament of David Hickman - made & dec.d was filed and proven this 6th day of April 1874

In the name of God Amen & David Hickman of the County of Hawkins, and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do therefore make ordain publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, that is to say. First I will and bequeath, to Stephen Barber, all the interest I have in the farm I now live on to make to make him safe for all debts and liabilities.

Second, I want my bay mare and mules sold to be exposed to public sale on a credit of six months, and the proceeds to be divided between my wife Fanny and my daughter Matilda as follows, to wit: To my wife one fourth of the proceeds, and to my daughter Matilda three fourths of the proceeds of the above named property, to be paid to them in several instalments, as their necessities require, by my Executor.

Third, I give to my daughter Matilda my ~~fall~~ leaf table and my safe and my Clock, also all the rest of my home property.

I give to my wife Fanny Hickman.

Fourth, I want my Bees, Sheep, Hogs, and farming implements to sell on the above named terms, - and the proceeds to be appropriated to my funeral expenses,

Fifthly I appoint E. H. Harris my lawful Executor of this my last will and testament, to carry up all my expenses, In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, this the 7th day of March in the year of our Lord 1874,

Witness A. Harris, Thomas A. Harris, John Price,

Copy of the last will & testament of C. Waterberry dec.d, was filed and proven April Term 1874 of the County Court

In the name of God Amen, - I, Calvin Waterberry being of sound disposing mind and memory, yet knowing that life is uncertain, and that I cannot owing to my age and condition in life, live as great a while longer, and also being anxious that I should make some disposition of what little worldly effects I may possess to the end that my beloved wife may have as little trouble in winding up the same as possible, and with as little expense, I therefore do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills that may at any time heretofore have been made by me made,

First, Acknowledging God as the one only living and true God, the God of my Fathers, and the Author of my being. He who has been the guide of my life and who will support, in death, to him I commit my soul, believing and trusting in the merits of Jesus Blessed Redeemer in whose Service my life has been spent.

Secondly. After my decease, I direct all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid.

Third. I give and bequeath to my son James H. Waterberry, my Gold watch and chain and direct my Executrix, to deliver over to him the same, as soon as convenient after my death. I also direct that my sewing machine, all my Silver Spoons, Forks and Knives, and my Clothing, also the Silver head of my Cane

Fourthly, I direct that the Rev. John Bachman, to whom I am indebted in a small sum, if he prefers to do so, select by purchase from library such books, as he desires, I also direct that D. Fugate H. Vance, who has waited upon me in my sickness, as my Physicians make such selections as he may desire out of said library, and the residue of said Library after these selections are made, I direct divided equally between my brother
