To the memory of Kansans who paid
the supreme sacrifice during the World War, this volume is affectionately dedicated

WHAT THEY GAVE US.

I realize, of course, that no words are adequate to bring comfort to you when you contemplate the name of your loved one upon this honor roll. You have made a greater contribution to your country's service than most of your fellow citizens, because of your loved one was demanded the supreme sacrifice and to you is left only the incomparable memory.

But what a rich sacrifice it was and what a sacred memory it leaves. I do not think of these boys as dead. To me they will always be alive, because the service they rendered gave a new and living hope to the world of the Better Day for which these men made their supreme gift.

I am inspired when I contemplate the eager courage with which they went forth to lay their lives upon the altar of the cause which their country had adopted as its own. I believe that their supreme gift will live through the ages. No nation may receive the rich sacrifices of human life which have been given to us by these boys and not be better and stronger as the result of these pure gifts. The world could not have won its cause except for the contribution which America made, and America could not have won without these lives, whose memory we hallow.

May God make us worthy as a nation of what they gave to us, and may He impart to us the courage, the unselfish fidelity and the patriotic devotion which led them unafraid into the land of those immortals who have given themselves as willing sacrifices to the cause of human advancement.

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
TOPEKA, KANSAS,
July 20, 1920.

INTRODUCTION.

The following list of Kansas casualties is compiled from records furnished the state of Kansas by the War Department under provisions of the act of Congress approved July 11, 1919. In certain cases incomplete information has been furnished, and in others, owing to present inaccessibility of the records, no records of deceased soldiers have been prepared. It is believed, however, that the state will eventually receive from the War Department a complete list of casualties, and records of deceased soldiers not included in the present publication will be compiled and published as a supplement to the present list.

C. I. MARTIN,
The Adjutant General.

* "Incomplete division brigaded with the French from the time of its arrival in France in the spring of 1918 until the signing of the armistice. Its service in the line was fully as long as that of any of the so-called combat divisions. This is indicated by a comparison of its casualties with those in the other divisions. The division was made up of colored soldiers from National Guard units of various states."

KANSAS CASUALTIES.

Arranged Alphabetically by Soldier's Name.

(Following this list appears a numerically arranged list of names and addresses of the persons given by the soldier as those to be notified in case of emergency. Corresponding numerals precede the name of the soldier and the name of the person to be notified.)

In many cases the relatives and friends of deceased soldiers have been unable to obtain reliable information relative to the circumstances surrounding the death of those dear to them. It is hoped that the publication of the list of relatives and friends will prompt the "buddies" of those who have "gone West" to write to the bereaved relatives and friends, giving them all information possible.)
