John Champes Will.

In the name of God Amen I John Champ — being sick of body but perfect in mind, do think proper to make this my Last Will and Testament, in — such a manner as to do justice to myself and every Just Creditor I have — As to my body I Consign it to its Mother Earth, my Soul I Commit to the beneficent and merciful God of Heaven and Earth in whom I trust — With Regard to my — Property I would have it Disposed of in the following manner to Wit, the Estate left me by my father to be Sold and that together with what I already have among me I wish to have appropriated to the use of paying my Just Debts, and Should there be any left which I presume there will I wish it to be added to the mass of my Estate, the whole Residue of my Estate after making the above appropriation, I would have remain with my Wife, during her widowhood or untill my youngest Child Artemisia shall arrive to full age, in the event of her marriage I would have the whole of my Estate taken into the possession of the Executors of this my last Will and Testament to be by them kept untill the Arrival to age of my aforesaid youngest Child Artemisia except the Household furniture, which I think is the property of her own Industry, and likewise the Kitchen furniture, provided she does not convert none of my present Estate into such articles, but should she not marry, I would have the whole Estate remain with her as aforesaid untill the arrival to full age of our youngest Child, confidently hoping that she will have each Child liberally well Educated, and when the period of the aforesaid Childs age shall arrive, I wish an equal Distribution made of my Estate among my Wife and each Child, so as that they shall severally have an equal proportion one with another — My Brothers Hol. and Robert Champ I wish to be the Executors of this my last will and Testament and I do hereby nominate and appoint them for that purpose.

furniture

Thomas Simmons's Will —

In the name of God Amen I Thomas Simmons of Caswell County and State of North Carolina Knowing the certainty of Death &c being very weak in body but having my perfect sense and Reason do make this my last will and Testament as touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I dispose of the same as follows. Item to my dear wife Priscilla my plantation with one hundred and fifty acres of land the plantation tools, one third of the stock, one third part of the household furniture, also five negroes to wit Phillis, Fanney, Tom, Rachel and Isbell, for my dear wife to have and to hold her lifetime and at her Death the negroes to be praised and equally divided among our my Children that is to say Martha and Priscilla to have their part paid them in money by the other Legatees who has the Negroes — Item I leave old Lucy, Milly, Dilcey, Young Lucy and Rachel at my Death to be valued and equally divided amongst Daniel, Frances, Martha, Priscilla, Nozah, Sarah and Thomas, and for Martha and Priscilla to have their parts paid them in money by the other legatees. Item I leave my son Alexander one hundred and seventy acres of land lying on the north east corner of my Survey including a spring and part of the cleared land, one negro boy named Sarah, one feather bed & furniture and more named Cato, Lydia, one cow & calf and two chairs, saddle and bridle to be kept in the possession of my wife during her life and if she should not marry, and at her death the boy boy hired and the hire rented for his support, and if he die without heir the land to return to his Brother Thomas, and the rent of his estate to be equally divided amongst all his Sisters and Brothers — Item I give to my son Thomas one hundred and fifty acres of land with the plantation &c upon the Death of my wife, in case he should want I give him liberty to settle and clear not interrupting his mother her lifetime, also one negro boy named Sam, one feather bed & furniture, one cow & calf, two chairs to him and his heirs forever, and I do hereby revoke disannul and make void all other Wills heretofore made by me and pronounce this to be my last Will and Testament, I appoint Thomas Graves and my son Thomas Simmons the Executors of this my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 5th day of October 1794.
