The Kansas Deaf-mute Institute was opened at Baldwin City, in the summer of 1861, by Philip A. Emery, who conducted it as a private school. It continued under his management until the fall of 1864, when it was moved to Topeka. While in Topeka the school was under the management of Joseph Mount. He continued with it until early in 1865, when the school was then moved back to Baldwin. B. R. Nordyke was in charge for a few months. He was soon relieved by Joseph Mount, who remained in charge until the school was adopted by the legislature, in 1868, and located permanently at Olathe.

RAILROAD PROPERTY, COMMISSIONERS TO ASSESS.

By act of 1871, a Board of Railroad Assessors was created, one member to be elected from each judicial district at the general election, for a term of two years. Members were appointed by the governor in March, 1871, to hold office until their successors were qualified. A board was elected in 1871 and in 1873. The law was repealed in 1874, and in 1876 the assessment of railroads was entrusted to the lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor and attorney-general, who still constitute the Board of Railroad Assessors.
