No. 1.

THE REV. HUGH ADAMS AND FAMILY.

John Adams of Boston, cordwainer, and Avis his wife sold house and land in Boston to Abraham Blish, 19 January, 1690. See Suffolk Deeds, XV, 122.

John Adams and Avis his wife mortgaged house and land in Boston, 21 June, 1693. The mortgage was cancelled 23 February, 1693/4.

This is all that I have been able to learn concerning this John Adams. It was once thought that he was son of Alexander and Mary (Coffin) Adams of Boston, but in the division of the estate of Alexander Adams, 1684, Samuel Adams is called his "only son". See Suffolk Deeds, XIII, 222.

Where John Adams came from and whither he went is a mystery. The fact that one of his sons lived in Nova Scotia suggests that as possibly the place of his early residence. The fact that his wife Avis died in Charleston, S. C. may indicate that John Adams went there.

His children were:

JOHN, a Councillor in Nova Scotia; married Hannah ———. Children recorded in Boston: Abigail, born 6 October, 1691; John, b. 4 November, 1693; Avis, b. 6 February, 1694.

HUGH, b. 7 May, 1676; m. Susanna Winborn.

MATHEW; m. Katherine Bligden, 17 November, 1715. He was a bookseller in Boston. He had a son, Rev. John Adams, who succeeded the Rev. Hugh Adams in the pastorate at Durham.

JANE, b. 24 December, 1686; m. 20 July, 1713, Joseph Harding at Chatham, Mass.

ANN, b. 20 February, 1688; m. 13 February, 1706, William Flay, (2) 23 September, 1714, William Ings of Boston.

Hugh Adams graduated at Harvard College in 1697. The next year he went to Charleston, S. C., where he was pastor or assistant pastor of a church, and remained there till 1706. In a letter he states that "our precious godly mother Avis Adams departed this life October 6th last" (1699). This was at Charleston. See Mass. Hist. Coll. VI, 5th Series, p. 12.

He says that he was ordained at Braintree, Mass., 10 September, 1707. (N. E. Reg. XXIII, 297.) He was dismissed 22 August, 1710. He preached at Chatham, Mass., 1711-1715. In 1716 he preached for a short time at Georgetown, Maine, on Arrowsic Island, where he was visited by the Jesuit priest of the Norridgewocks, the famous Sebastian Ralle, whom he healed of a tumor and of pain in his shoulders. The cure was effected in three days and without charge. It seems from this that Hugh Adams was something of a physician as well as preacher. See Proceedings of the Mass. Hist. Society, III, 326.

He commenced preaching at Oyster River, now Durham, N. H., in 1717 and was duly installed there 26 March, 1718. He was dismissed by Council from this pastorate 23 January, 1739. He died in Durham, in 1750, aged 74 years.

He was a good man, an able preacher, a faithful pastor, but so eccentric and opinionated that he made many opponents wherever he went. Some of his church sought to get rid of him, and some stood by him to the end. He had difficulty about collecting his salary, and this was the cause of some petitions of his published in the New Hampshire State Papers. It is said that there is an unpublished Autobiography of his in the State Archives, but I have been unable to find it. He was fond of allegorical interpretation of the Bible, and his imagination saw his opponents described in many an odd passage.

He married Susanna Winborn, probably daughter of the Rev. John and Elizabeth (Hart) Winborn, and granddaughter of William Winborn, who signed the Exeter Combination in 1639 and was "Clerk of the Writs" in Exeter in 1643. William Winborn and his wife Elizabeth lived in Boston, 1644-1662. He was chosen Town Clerk of Manchester, Mass., in 1686, where his son John was preaching. William Winborn of Malden and his son John with wife Elizabeth sold land in Malden in 1687. See Middlesex Deeds, VIII, 219. This son John was born in Boston 21 of 7th month, 1638 and married, 11 September, 1667, in Malden, Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Hart of Watertown, Lynn, and Reading. She was born 11 December, 1651. Her father's will names daughter Elizabeth Wenborne. Rev. John Winborn was minister of the church at Manchester, Mass., from 1667 to 1686. The town records show that he left Manchester between 1690 and 1693. He is said to have died in 1707. See Hist. of Essex County, II, 1283. No record of his family has been found. He may have gone to South Carolina, and in that State only the name Winborn is found in the census of 1790.

Under date of 1 May, 1726, Rev. Hugh Adams records the admission to church of "Lydia Winborn, the maiden daughter of my wife's brother." This brother was Ebenezer Winborn of Boston, who married, 11 May, 1706, Lydia Prince, born 1685, daughter of Joseph Prince of Hull, Mass., who married, 7 December, 1670, Joanna, daughter of Secretary Nathaniel Morton of Plymouth, Mass. Ebenezer Winborn was a watchman in the south end of Boston from 1723 till 1758. He may have married (2) Elizabeth Gwinn, 24 October, 1744. He evidently had the following children, Prince, who married, 30 November, 1743, Mary Rogers and was living in 1786; Elizabeth, who married, 29 October, 1739; Bozoun Allen; Susanna, who married, 11 July, 1734, Andrew Coffin; Joanna, who married, 29 December, 1736, Nicholas Foster; and Lydia born 13 February, 1706/7 in Boston, who was living in 1739. The records of Suffolk, Middlesex, and Plymouth Counties say nothing more about anybody named Winborn. The name seems to have been extinct for more than a century in New England, but, as has been suggested, descendants may be found in South Carolina. The inference seems almost necessary that Susanna Winborn, wife of Rev. Hugh Adams, was daughter of Rev. John Winborn. Under date of April 6, 1718, Rev. Hugh Adams records the admission to the church of Durham of "Susanna Adams, my wife. She was a member of the church in Carolina."

His church records, as published in the N. E. Register, show the following children of the Rev. Hugh Adams. Perhaps there were others.

Children:

SAMUEL. See below.

ELIZABETH, b. 5 May, 1713, in Chatham, Mass.

WINBORN, b. 19 April, 1716, in Boston; probably died young.

JOHN, b. 13 January, 1718, at Durham; probably m. in Boston, 23 December, 1741, Anna Parker.

AVIS, b. 11 April, 1723; m. William Odiorne.

JOSEPH, b. 22 April, 1735.

June 2, 1743, Hugh and Susanna Adams sold to their son,

Samuel Adams, physician, for fifty pounds, "all y^e remainder part of my Homestead Lot or Tract of Land, lying and being in Durham nigh y^e fialls meeting house w^{ch} s^d Land I bo^t part of Jam^s Burnham & part of Doct Crosby, butting & bounding as followeth, by Land I sold to my son Jn^o on y^e South by land of Sam^l Smith Esq on y^e East by River on y^e North & West by y^e Highway or Landing Place so called, on w^{ch} my s^d son Sam^l has built a House & Barn," etc. Witnessed by Joseph Drew and Elizabeth Drew. See N. H. Province Deeds, XXVIII, 143.

Oct. 3, 1754, John Adams of Boston, merchant, and wife Anne sold to Joseph Drew of Durham land in Durham adjoining that of Samuel Adams, near the meeting house. See N. H. Province Deeds.

Dr. Samuel Adams of Durham married (1) Phebe ———. His father records, under date of 11 March, 1721/2, "Then was received my son, Samuel Adams, to own his baptismal covenant and to be under the discipline of our Church after his standing propounded 3 Sabbaths." There were admitted to the church in Durham, 7 April, 1728, "Samuel Adams, my Son, and Phebe Adams his wife." The tombstone of "Phebe Adams the wife of Doct^r Samuel Adams" may be seen back of the house in which they lived in Durham, showing simply that she died in 1743. If any reader can tell her name before marriage, it will be esteemed a great favor by the writer of this. Samuel Adams married (2), before 1747, Rebecca, daughter of Joseph Hall, Jr., and Mary his wife of Exeter, N. H. She was descended from Governors Dudley and Winthrop of Massachusetts, and through the Dudley family her ancestry has been traced back to King Alfred the Great, and William the Conqueror.

There are many references to Dr. Samuel Adams in the N. H. State Papers, showing that he dealt extensively in land and had a wide medical practice. He died in 1762. Rebecca, widow of Samuel Adams, sold, 19 December, 1764, to John Sullivan, for £2300, "three acres of land near the meeting house in Durham, with buildings thereon." See N. H. Province Deeds, LXXIV, 360. This was Gen. John Sullivan of the Revolutionary Army. The house is still standing and in good condition. The deed cited above, as well as the price of sale here given, shows that the house was built by Dr. Samuel Adams, and it must have been one of the finest houses in Durham at that time. Here probably Rev. Hugh Adams lived in his old age with his son and was spared the poverty and suffering that some have imagined him to have passed through. It is a large two-story house built around a high chimney, with an extension of one-story for kitchen and shed. It is beautifully situated, and the monument close by marks the site of the meeting house where Rev. Hugh Adams officiated twenty-two years. The old slave-quarters of Gen. Sullivan are still to be seen.

The will of Dr. Samuel Adams, dated 22 June, 1762, and probated 28 July, 1762, names wife Rebecca, son Winburn, children Phebe Drew, Sarah Sweat, Mary Adams, and Josiah Adams. The inventory of his estate shows £6861-11-6.

His children by first marriage were:

SAMUEL, b. 19 August, 1728; d. 26 August, 1728.

PEBE, bapt. 31 August, 1728; m. (Francis?) Drew.

WINBORN, b. ———; m. Sarah Bartlett. He was Lieut.-Col. in the Revolution and was killed in the battle of Stillwater, 17 September, 1777. For descendants see History of Exeter, N. H.

SARAH; m. Dr. Stephen Swett, 8 August, 1756.

Children by second marriage:

MARY; m. Dr. John Marstes of Exeter. He m. (2) Elizabeth Shute. JOSIAH; m. 21 February, 1772, Nancy Hill, of Kittery. He died, 1810, in Newmarket.

JOHN, bapt. 24 October, 1749; not named in will; probably d. young.

REBECCA, bapt. 26 September, 1756; probably died young.

July 26, 1771, John Marstes and Mary his wife sold to Nathaniel Rogers "the whole of what we claim as heirs to the widow Rebecca Adams late of Newmarket," about eight acres. Josiah Adams owned land adjoining. See N. H. Province Deeds, XCVI, 514.

The Dr. Stephen Swett above named was my great-grandfather. He was born in that part of Exeter which is now Newmarket, 3 January, 1733/4, son of Moses⁴ and Hannah (Swett) Swett (Stephen,³ Capt. Benjamin,² John¹ of Newbury). He practiced medicine in Pembroke and Epsom, N. H., and in Gorham and Windham, Maine. He was Surgeon in Col. Edmund Phinney's 31st Regt. of Foot, serving at Cambridge, Mass. He had fourteen children. He died in Otisfield, Maine, 6 January, 1807. His wife died in the same town, 3 May, 1808.

It is hoped that this contribution may stimulate others to furnish information concerning the ancestors and descendants of the Rev. Hugh Adams.

NOTICE.

In this number, we commence the First Congregational Church Records of Concord, N. H., which will be continued in each number of this magazine for the next three years or more. The Marriages will commence in the next number, and will run from 1730 to 1867, 137 years; the Baptisms from 1730 to 1905, 175 years; the Deaths, complete list, from 1825 to 1867, 42 years, scattering list, from 1730 to 1825; and an alphabetical List of Members, about 2,200 in all, giving birth date of each, when possible, with place; names of parents; marriage, or marriages if more than one, with names; date of admission to membership, and if by letter from what church, and if a dismission, to what church with date of letter; date and place of death, and place of burial. No other church in New Hampshire has ever attempted to publish such a full and complete record as this will be. The work will run through the magazine first, and then the pages will be made over and a reprint taken in book form. One hundred copies of the work, which will be in at least two volumes with good index, have been ordered for the church; these we understand will not be for sale or private distribution to members. All persons and libraries wishing the work should order immediately. We cannot now estimate as to price, but it will be made as low as possible. Only enough copies will be printed to supply those who may subscribe within the next three months. Address all subscriptions to C. W. Tibbetts, Dover, N. H.

ORGANIZATION AND PASTORS.

BY JOHN C. THORNE.

The First Congregational Church in Concord known also as "The First Church of Christ" was organized November 18, 1730.

At the session of the "General Court of the Province of Massachusetts Bay," assembled at Boston in May, 1721, a petition was presented for a tract of land "situated on the river Merrymake at the lower end of Penny-Cook," to contain about eight miles square. This petition, which was renewed from time to time, was not allowed until January 17, 1725/6, when the government of Massachusetts appropriated a tract of land seven miles square for the "Plantation of Penny-Cook," now Concord.

At a meeting of the "intended settlers," held in Andover, Mass., February 8, 1726, it was voted "That a block house twenty-five feet in breadth, by forty feet in length, be built at Penny-Cook for the security of the settlers." This log house was located at what is now the northwest corner of Main and Chapel Streets, and served for some quarter of a century as a meeting-house, schoolhouse, garrison and town hall. This site is now marked by a granite tablet appropriately inscribed. It was completed early in the year 1727, and was probably the first permanent building erected in town. In the fall of this year, the first family, that of Captain Ebenezer Eastman, moved into the place from Haverhill, Mass.

On March 6, 1727, a committee was "empowered to agree with a minister to preach at Penny-Cook the year ensuing, to begin the service from the fifteenth of May next." This committee was directed not to assure the gentleman more than £100 per annum for his services.

Rev. Enoch Coffin, one of the original proprietors in the town, was engaged as the first preacher, and his formal labors began May 15, 1727. He attended to his duties for one year and a few weeks, when death put an end to his labors. Again consulting the records we read, that at a meeting of the proprietors held at Bradford, Mass., March 12, 1729, it was voted: "That the sum of four pounds be allowed and paid unto the heirs of the Reverend Enoch Coffin, deceased, for his preaching and performing divine service at Penny-Cook, in full discharge." He was Concord's first preacher, but not her first settled minister.

Rev. Enoch Coffin was born in Newbury, Mass., February 7, 1695/6, and was son of Hon. Nathaniel and Sarah (Dole) Coffin of that town. He was a graduate of Harvard College in 1714, and died August 7, 1728, at the early age of thirty-two years. We cherish his memory as one of the religious pioneers of his time, and Concord owes him honor and reverence for his faith and works within her borders.

Rev. Bezaleel Toppan, one of the proprietors of the plantation, was next "employed to preach and perform divine service" at Penny-Cook. He was son of Rev. Christopher and Sarah (Angier) Toppan of Newbury, Mass., and was born March 7, 1705. His term of office in the ministry at Penny-Cook appears to have been short for in October 1730 the settlers resolved to establish a permanant ministry. He removed to Salem, Mass., where he became pastor of the church there.

Rev. Timothy Walker was "called to be minister of the town of Penny-Cook," October 14, 1730. He was born in Woburn, Mass., July 27, 1705.

A council met November 18, 1730, and organized here a church of nine members, and the Rev. Timothy Walker was ordained and installed its pastor. The following persons constituted the church: Rev. Timothy Walker, Pastor, John Merrill, Deacon, Samuel Burbank, Jeremiah Stickney, William Barker, Mrs. Martha Barker, David Barker, Aaron Stevens and John Russ. The sermon was by Rev. John Barnard of Andover, Mass.; text, Prov. 9: 1-3; the charge to the pastor, by Rev. Samuel Phillips, also of Andover; and the right hand of fellowship, by Rev. John Brown, of Haverhill, Mass. Thus and then this "Church of Christ," often so called in the early days, was established. This title has a new significance to-day, when we are seeking to make denominational lines less apparent and Christ's Church stronger. The church was orthodox and stable in its faith, and during the long ministry of Mr. Walker—fifty-two years—it was united and prosperous, and this condition has characterized its life during its history of the past one hundred and seventy-eight years. Strong in the confidence and affection of the people, Mr. Walker always and actively opposed anything which threatened division in the church or the town.

Rev. Timothy Walker, A. M., was a graduate of Harvard College, in the class of 1725. His salary, at settlement, was £100, to increase forty shillings per annum till it reached £120; also use of parsonage. He died suddenly on Sabbath morning, September 1, 1782, aged 77 years, deeply mourned by the people he had so faithfully served and led, and between whom and himself the mutual attachment had remained strong to the last.

The deep impress of this early ministry has never been effaced, and the influence of Mr. Walker, to a large degree, decided the moral tone and habits of the town. For more than half a century he directed the thought, and was the religious teacher of the early settlers; and his clear convictions, his bold utterances, and his firm adherence to practical principles, made him a wise leader. He served the town as well as the church. His wise counsel and prompt and judicious action in relation to every matter of public interest were of great benefit to the people, and gave him a wide and acknowledged influence. Three times he visited England, as agent for the town, to confirm its endangered rights, and was enabled by his personal influence and wisdom to make secure forever the claims and privileges of the settlers. His influence will be acknowledged, and his name remembered with gratitude by future generations.

Rev. Israel Evans was called, September 1, 1788, by both the church and town, to settle as their minister. He accepted, and was installed as pastor July 1, 1789. His ministry continued for eight years and during this time he served as chaplain of the Great and General Court for some five years, also at the session of the Constitutional Convention for two years, 1791-2.

Mr. Evans was a trustee of Dartmouth College from 1793 until 1807, the date of his death. By his will he left a fund for the establishment in this college of the "Evans Professorship of Oratory and Belles Lettres," which has been combined with others and is still known as the "Evans' foundation." Said Dr. Samuel C. Bartlett, ex-president of Dartmouth, in an address, March 20, 1895, "This bequest was the chief accession of productive funds during Dr. John Wheelock's administration of thirty-eight years." It amounts at present to $12,666.66.

The town in its corporate capacity had provided for the maintenance of the minister, but had failed to vote a very liberal sum, and Mr. Evans found difficulty in obtaining even the small amount due him from year to year, so on April 21, 1797, he expressed his "intention of resigning to the town their pulpit and of finishing his work of the ministry in this place on the first of July next." Holding to this decision, his resignation was accepted, and he was regularly dismissed by an ecclesiastical council on July 5, 1797. He continued to reside in town until his death, March 9, 1807.

Rev. Israel Evans was of Welsh descent, born in Tredyffrin, Great Valley, Chester County, Pennsylvania, in the year 1747. His father was Rev. Samuel Evans, a graduate of Yale College, 1739; his grandfather was Rev. David Evans, Jr., a graduate of Yale College, 1713, and his great-grandfather was Rev. David Evans, who emigrated from Wales to Pennsylvania in 1701. Israel Evans graduated at "Nassau Hall" now Princeton University, in the class of 1772, receiving the degree of A. M., in 1775. He was licensed to preach by the first presbytery of Philadelphia in 1775, and ordained as chaplain in the American army in 1776. Chaplain Evans enjoyed the great distinction of being the only one holding that office who remained continuously throughout the long seven years' struggle for independence, until peace was declared in 1783. "Probably no chaplain in the Revolution," says Headley, the historian, "followed its fortunes so steadily from its commencement to its close, sharing all its perils and hardships, or who stood as prominently in history as a representative chaplain, and who with a clear head, a strong mind and a patriotic zeal, assisted in sustaining the cause of the colonies, as the Rev. Israel Evans." He was known as "Washington's chaplain." Among his many addresses which has come down to us, was one which he delivered before the French and American armies at the surrender of the British forces under General Cornwallis at Yorktown. This was given on invitation of General Washington, who ordered "Divine service to be held at the head of the regiments on account of this particular interposition of Providence in their behalf." Chaplain Evans chose for his text I Samuel 7: 12, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." This discourse is full of patriotic zeal and inspiration. He gives great praise to God for His mercy, and abundant tribute to the brave men who endured so much and conquered so gloriously. Thus, for seven long and laborious years, did our patriotic chaplain serve in the Continental army, marching with her soldiers from the heights of Quebec to the complete and final overthrow of the British power in this country on the plains of Yorktown.

Rev. Asa McFarland was chosen by the church as successor to Rev. Mr. Evans the town concurring in the choice, he was installed March 7, 1798. The growth of the church during the pastorate of Dr. McFarland was gratifying. His ministry continued twenty-seven years and closed March 23, 1825. Dr. McFarland was the last minister provided for by the town, his successors being supported by the society.

Rev. Asa McFarland, D. D., was born in Worcester, Mass., April 19, 1769. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1793, and was for two years tutor in the college. In later years, 1809-22 he was a trustee. During the whole of his pastorate, he was clerk of the ecclesiastical convention of the state. He was chaplain of the state prison for three years and a half, preaching there once each Sunday. He was also president of the New Hampshire Missionary Society in its early years. The degree of Doctor of Divinity came to him from Yale College.

Dr. McFarland possessed a vigorous and active mind, was discriminating and sound in judgment, wise and diligent in action. His personal character and position secured to him a wide and lasting influence in the town and throughout the state. Eighteen discourses, delivered on public occasions, were published. In consequence of failing health, he resigned his office as pastor in March, 1825. He died in Concord, Sabbath morning, February 18, 1827, in the fifty-eighth year of his age.

The council which dismissed Dr. McFarland, March 23,

1825, installed as pastor his successor, Rev. Nathaniel Bouton. The spirit of the Most High early rested on his ministry, and many seasons of revival blessed it. Bible classes and Sabbath schools were organized in different parts of the town, and the faithful labors of the pastor in these, and in the large assembly of the people gathered in a single place of worship, were attended with great success. In connection with the meeting of the General Association of New Hampshire, held with this church in 1831, a deep work of grace began, and more than a hundred were added to the church as the result. Large accessions were received in the years 1834, 1836, 1842 and 1843. During the forty-two years of this ministry, 772 members were added to the church, and 629 adults and infants were baptized. Three colonies were dismissed and organized into other churches, and the real increase of the church in strength and influence was very great. Churches of other denominations were also organized in town, yet this continued harmonious in action and steadfast in faith. This ministry was characterized by unity, stability and growth. Dr. Bouton resigned his pastorate, of marked and continued success, at the forty-second anniversary of his settlement, March 23, 1867, and was dismissed by council, September 12, 1867.

Rev. Nathaniel Bouton, D. D., was a native of Norwalk, Conn., and graduated at Yale College in 1821, and at Andover Theological Seminary in 1824. He was not only a faithful minister of Christ, but a citizen of valued and acknowledged influence, during a period of the great growth and prosperity of Concord; and bore for a generation an active part in questions of reform and public weal, both at home and abroad. A friend of learning and its institutions, he was elected a trustee of Dartmouth College in 1840. In the ecclesiastical bodies of the state, and in the benevolent organizations of the land, he was active and respected; was a corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and a trustee of other charitable societies. In 1856 he published the History of Concord, and also, during his ministry, many sermons, historical and biographical. August 31, 1866, Dr. Bouton was appointed state historian, in which office he compiled ten volumes of provincial and state papers, which were published by the state. After nearly eleven years of labor in this office, he resigned. He enjoyed rest for a short season, and, at the request of his children, wrote an autobiography. His life work was done. Soon his strength began to fail, and, after an almost painless illness, he calmly died, full of years, honored and beloved by all who knew him, June 6, 1878, at the age of seventy-nine years.

Four Pastorates covered one hundred and thirty-seven years, and the four pastors died here, and their forms were laid away by loving hands, among the treasured dust of the absent flock.

Rev. Franklin Deming Ayer, D. D., born in St. Johnsbury, Vt., December 19, 1832, a graduate of Dartmouth College in 1856 and of Andover Theological Seminary in 1859, was installed by the council which dismissed Dr. Bouton, September 12, 1867. The sermon was by Rev. Eden B. Foster, D. D., of Lowell, Mass.; installing prayer, by Rev. J. M. R. Eaton, of Henniker; charge to the pastor, by Rev. P. B. Day, D. D., of Hollis; fellowship of the churches, by Rev. W. R. Jewett, of Penacook; address to the people, by Rev. W. T. Savage, D. D., of Franklin.

For three decades, Dr. Ayer maintained the honored traditions of this historic pulpit. He was beloved by his people, esteemed by his fellow citizens and honored throughout the state. From 1871 until 1880, he was secretary of the General Association of New Hampshire. In 1881, he was elected a corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He was trustee of the New Hampshire Home Missionary Society, New Hampshire Bible Society, and Ministers' and Widows' Charitable Fund, also vice-president of the American Congregational Union. As an officer of religious societies, and as a trustee of benevolent institutions, he devoted himself untiringly to the service of men. In civic life, he was trustee of the Concord City Library, and of the New Hampshire Asylum for the Insane. He was twice abroad, first as delegate from the state to the International Prison Congress, which convened in London, July 4, 1872; second, as a delegate from the National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States, of which society he was a trustee, to the International Council, holding its session in London, July, 1891, traveling somewhat extensively in Europe on both occasions. The honorary degree of D. D. was conferred upon him by Dartmouth College in 1887.

With the devotion which characterized his entire ministry, Dr. Ayer tendered his resignation, to take effect on the thirtieth anniversary of his installation. He said: "In taking this step, I obey the imperative call for rest and relief which a body, never strong lays upon me. I also realize that there is urgent and aggressive work open to you as a church, which ought to be done, and which I am unable fully to attempt, but in which a younger and stronger pastor might lead you."

The retiring pastor was made Pastor Emeritus. His home is now in Philadelphia, but he is still living in Concord, living in the hearts of a grateful people to whom in the joys and sorrows of thirty years he was a good minister of Jesus Christ.

Rev. George Harlow Reed was born in Worcester, Mass., March 24, 1858, in whose schools he began his studies, which were continued in Phillips Exeter Academy, Boston University and Bangor Theological Seminary. After a pastorate of four years in the Winslow Congregational Church, Taunton, Mass., and nearly seven years in the North Church, Haverhill, Mass., Mr. Reed was installed as our pastor, June 30, 1898. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Churchill, D. D., of Andover Seminary. The prayer of installation was offered by Rev. Franklin D. Ayer, D. D., Pastor Emeritus; the charge to the pastor, by Rev. Arthur Little, D. D., of Boston; the right hand of fellowship, by Rev. H. P. Dewey, D. D., of Concord; the charge to the people, by Rev. Burton W. Lockhart, D. D., of Manchester.

For nine years, Mr. Reed has labored in the spirit of his predecessors, and the church is united and prosperous.

On the sixteenth day of June, 1906, the devoted wife of our present minister was suddenly called to the higher service and holier fellowship of Heaven. Mrs. Reed was the daughter of Dr. Asahel Sumner Deane and Mrs. Virginia Deane, of Taunton, Mass.

She was an ideal minister's wife. Her speech was as choice silver. She could adapt herself to all, because she had consecrated herself to Christ; the most diffident felt at ease in her presence; our leaders sought her counsel; the little children loved her. She was full of animation, resourceful and winsome. The gracious influence of her beautiful life will continue to be an inspiration to this church for many years to come.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH RECORDS, CONCORD, N. H.

1730—1905.

[Complete diaries by Rev. Timothy Walker for three years only are now known to exist. The years were 1746, 1764 and 1780; besides these there are several fragmentary leaves of other year's diaries. Complete returns of marriages by Rev. Timothy Walker were made to the town clerk for two years, from February 13, 1776 to March 3, 1778. In the Church Records there are marriages from August 28, 1732 to March 22, 1737; so that practically we have only ten years of marriages by Rev. Timothy Walker out of a pastorate of fifty-two years; less than one fifth of the actual number.]

MARRIAGES BY REV. TIMOTHY WALKER.

At a meeting of the First Congregational Church, Concord, N. H., held on Friday evening, February 26, 1909, in their chapel; on motion of Dea. John C. Thorne, it was voted: "That the records of marriages, baptisms and deaths by Rev. Timothy Walker found in his diary; and that the records of marriages by Rev. Timothy Walker and by Rev. Israel Evans contained in the Concord, N. H. city records be copied and the same be and hereby are made a part of the records of the First Congregational Church of Concord, N. H." A true copy of record. Attest:

NEWMARKET TOWN RECORDS.

[Newmarket was set off from Exeter and incorporated as a parish Dec. 15, 1727. Granted town privileges Aug. 26, 1737. The boundary line was extended Dec. 28, 1805; this act was repealed June 17, 1807. The North line was established June 19, 1818. South Newmarket was set off and incorporated June 27, 1849. A small tract of land was severed from South Newmarket and annexed Dec. 17, 1852. A portion of Durham was annexed July 2, 1870. A small tract of land was set off and annexed to South Newmarket Sept. 14, 1883.

The vital records contained in the first volume of the town records of Newmarket were copied years ago by Miss S. W. Cheswell, later the copy was donated to the editor; since then the town has had the first volume copied by Miss Helen C. Bennett. The editor recently went to Newmarket to verify the Cheswell copy from the original, but the original had either been loaned out or mislaid and was not to be found. The two copies were compared and found to agree in everything except one name which has been properly designated. The records taken from all the other volumes were copied and verified by the editor from the original.]

NOTE AND CLIPPING.

PIRACY.

Few persons of the present day are aware how general was piracy two centuries ago. The following extract from "The Boston News-Letter," August 21, 1721, shows that in early times pirate ships, carrying many guns and heavily manned, sailed the high seas and pursued their unlawful calling. The "Mary" was taken somewhere in the Sargasso Sea, off the coast of Africa.

SAMUEL A. GREEN.

"These are to certify all Persons concerned that on the 7th Day of May last, William Russel Master of the Ship Mary of Charlestown, in his Voyage from Madera to Surranam in the Lat. 22 Deg. and 27 N. and Long. 25 and 27 W. from London was taken by a Pirate Ship upwards of 50 Guns, Commanded by Capt. Roberts, about 300 Men, who robb'd him of part of his Cargo, and Forced away from him two of his Men, against his and their own consent, viz. Thomas Russel born in Lexintown near Charlestown and the other Thomas Winchol born in Portsmouth, New-Hampshire in New England."

QUERIES.

97. GILMAN.—Jemima Gilman of Falmouth (now Westbrook), Me., married in 1785, Zachariah Small (John). In 1804, she with brothers Ebenezer, John and Edward then of Bolton, Lower Canada, and sister Phebe wife of Paul Leighton, sold land in Westbrook, which their grandfather Edward Gilman bought of Edward Gilman of Exeter, N. H.

Can any one give the names of Jemima's parents or connect the two Edward Gilmans?

(Miss) Emma Gould,

95 Emery Street, Portland, Me.

98. CHASE.—Charles Chase married Hepzibah Carr and had 1. Carr, born 12 August, 1729; 2. Charles, born 28 February, 1732. What became of these two brothers; were they married and what issue did they have?

Abraham Chase married Ruth Morse and had Ezra, born about 1724. What became of this Ezra and was he married and what children did he leave?

Abraham Chase married Ruth Colby and had Parker, born 16 February, 1754. Was this Parker ever married, if so to whom and what issue did he leave?

David Chase married Sarah Emery and had 1. Joshua, born 21 October, 1733; 2. Simeon, born about 1739, married Hannah Johnson. Did this Joshua marry, and what children did he and his brother Simeon have?

Isaac Chase married Hannah Berry and had Elisha, born about 1729; to whom was this Elisha married? I would like full facts of all his children.

Abner Chase married Elizabeth Whittier and had Ensign, born 13 March, 1737/8. What became of him and did he marry, if so, did he leave any issue? Full names desired.

Enoch Chase married Judith Colby and had 1. Humphrey, bapt. 23 July, 1732; 2. Thomas, bapt. 23 January, 1736/7, married Phebe Hill and said to have had only one son; 3. Frances or Francis, (not certain which,) bapt. 9 March, 1739. Were Humphrey and Francis married, if so, to whom and what issue did they have, and what was the name of the child, or children of Thomas?

Daniel Chase married Sarah March, and had Joshua, born 9 November, 1711; was Joshua married, and if so, to whom and what children?

Stephen Chase married Sarah Hale, and had 1. Henry, born 1725, married 1st, Rebecca ———, five children; married 2d, widow Mary Hardy, three children; 2. Stephen, born 24 August, 1728; married 1st, ——— Lunt, two children; married 2d, Katherine Gould, seven children; 3. Bradford, born 27 November, 1733; 4. Enoch, born 2 February, 1735; 5. John, born 16 May, 1740; 6. Benjamin, born about 1742. What became of this Bradford, Enoch, John and Benjamin, and were they married, if so, to whom and what issue did each have; also what were the maiden names of the two wives of Henry, the names of their children, the Christian name of this Miss Lunt and the names of her children?

Moses Chase, born 31 May, 1738, son of Stephen and Sarah (Hale) Chase, married Elizabeth ———, seven children. He is said to have removed to Washington, N. H.; the surname of his wife and names of his children are wanted.

Joseph Chase married Mary Morse, and had a son Amos, born 5 July, 1740; did Amos marry, if so, to whom and what issue, if any?

Charles Chase married Mary Calef, and had Amos, born 2 April, 1801, Kingston, N. H. What were the full names of the brothers, sisters and children of this Charles?

Calvin Chase married Abigail Stone in 1810. What were the names of his parents and grandparents; also of his brothers and sisters?

Paine Wingate Chase was born in 1793, in Litchfield, N. H., and died in 1826, at Hampton, N. H.; the full names of his parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters are desired.

Moses Chase died in Rochester, Vt., leaving at least 1. Simeon; 2. Abner, married 1st, Susan Slade; married 2d, Hannah Slade. What were the full names of the parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters and all the children of this Moses Chase.

NO. 3.

RICHARD HUSSEY AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

The name of Hussey is an ancient one both in England and in Ireland. According to Burke, both these families claim a descent from Hubert de Hussey, who was connected by marriage with William the Conqueror, and came over to England with that monarch. In 1316 Sir Hugh Hussey went from England to Ireland and became founder of a line by which the name is still preserved among the landed gentry there. So much for Burke, whose authority, it is only fair to add, is not considered of as much importance as it once was. I may say, however, that the name of Hussey is quite common among late Irish immigrants.

The name of RICHARD¹ HUSSEY appears in Dover, N. H. tax list for 1690. The most trustworthy tradition concerning him appears to be that he was an English weaver who came to this country about the time of his appearance in Dover. His parentage is unknown. His wife's name was Jane.

June 20, 1696, "Richard Hussey of Dover, weaver," conveyed to "Leonard Weeks of Portsm^o, ffarmer," for fifty pounds, all his interest in "thirty acres of upland, lying and adjoining to y^e Great Bay in y^e Town of Dover Bounded on the North East Side By W^m ffurbers & on y^e South East Side by Thomas Willey, of s^d Town of Dover, with all y^e Marsh & Marsh Land adjoining thereunto Except three acres formerly Disposed of or Given Tho^s Kenney by Deed with all y^e flatts belonging to s^d Marsh." This deed was also signed by Jane Hussey, and was witnessed by Henry Penny and Moses Gilman, Sen^r. It was acknowledged on the same day at "Portsm^o" before "Peter Coffin of y^e Councell." (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 13: 20.)

February 25, 1710, "Richard Huzsey of Dover" conveyed for thirteen pounds to Benjamin Waymouth of Dover, "One Messuag or tract of Land being a Grant to me the said Richard Huzsey by the Town of Dover, Situate Lying and being att a Garrison Called Sligo In the Town and Province above Said Containing by estimation thirty acres, be it More or Less Butted and Bounded as followeth, Eastward with the land of the above Said Benjamin Waymouth, Northward with y^e Land of Joseph Roberts Southwards with the Lott that is called Cowells and upon the Commons at the head." In this deed "Jane Huzsey" releases "all her right of Dowrie and power of thirds," but did not sign. The witnesses are Benj^a Pierce, Renold Jenkins and Abraham Morrell. It was acknowledged January 7, 1717, before James Davis, Justice of the Peace. (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 11: 405.)

July 5, 1743, two of his sons, Job² and Joseph², deeded to Thomas Wallingford of Somersworth a parcel of upland and swamp ground in Somersworth, near the Great Falls, which they describe as part of a fifty acre grant made to their father "Richard Hussey of Dover Late Dec^d" in 1694. It began "at a Pitch Pine Tree Marked R H standing on y^e North Side of a brook Thence Running North 45 West one hundred Rodds to a Small White Oak Tree Marked R H In Sight of a Marsh Called Peters Marsh Thenc No Forty five East Eighty Rodds to y^e Land belonging to the Heirs of Jn^o Hanson Deceast, Then South 45 East on Said Land and Partly on Commons to a Pitch Pine Marked R H one hundred Rods then Soth 45 West Eighty Rods to the First Bounds or as Shall or may more at Large Appear on Dover Town Book." (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 33: 285.)

Nov. 6, 1729, there is a deed from Robert and Soloman Pike, sons of Rev. John Pike, to Richard Hussey and others of a sixty acre Pike Grant "near Newtown in Dover." (See N. H. Prov. Deeds, 16: 592.) From a subsequent conveyance I judge the grantee to have been the son Richard², and the absence of Jr. may indicate that the elder Richard, had died before that date. At any rate, he does not appear to have been living Aug. 21, 1733, when the younger Richard was appointed administrator of his mother Jane's estate. This appointment also furnishes the only indication we have of the time of Jane's death.

The children of Richard and Jane Hussey as recorded in Dover records were:

RICHARD, (2) born October 26, 1691.

JOB, b. December 25, 1693.

ROBERT, b. November 28, 1695.

MARY, b. June 1, 1697.

JOSEPH, b. June 23, 1699.

ELIZABETH, b. October 28, 1701.

ELEANOR, b. April 23, 1705.

ABIGAIL, b. April 25, 1707.

JANE, b. June 27, 1708.

WILLIAM, b. March 24, 1711.

MARGARET, b. February 28, 1712.

BENJAMIN, b. April 1, 1718.

Of Eleanor, Abigail, Margaret and Benjamin I have no further record. Of the others I will proceed to give such information as I have collected.

RICHARD² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born in Dover, October 26, 1691, married in Newington, N. H., May 16, 1716, Hannah, widow of Lieut. Zachariah Field. She was the daughter of Robert and Ann (Thompson) (Hodgdon) Evans of Dover, and was born June 21, 1690. She married Zachariah Field January 12, 1709/10, and bore to him two sons, Daniel and Zachariah. There are six recorded deeds of Richard² Hussey, and in them he is called a carpenter or a housewright. The earliest, dated April 18, 1734, is a joint deed with his wife Hannah, and conveys to "our son Daniel ffield" all of their interest in "y^e Estate of Zach^a ffield late of s^a Dover Dec^a & y^e former Husband of y^e s^a Hannah Hussey." (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 20: 75.) January 8, 1753, he conveyed to his son, Richard, Jr., his homestead in Dover, consisting of "Sixty or seventy acres," and bounded northerly by the highway from Dover Neck to Cochecho, easterly by Lieut. Stephen Roberts' land, southerly by land of Col. Wallingford and of Capt. Mason, and westerly by Bickford's land. March 13, 1754, Richard, Jr. deeded the same premises to Thomas Wallingford, and March 5, 1757, Wallingford reconveyed to him the land which he had "purchased of Richard Huzzey then Junr." (See N. H. Prov. Deeds, 42: 53; 50: 485.) It would appear, therefore, that Richard, Sr. had died between the dates of these two deeds.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Hussey and her sons Richard and Reuben removed to Lebanon, Maine. Richard sold his homestead in Dover, the same which he had purchased of his father, to Moses Roberts August 31, 1765. In the deed he is described as of Dover, and his removal to Lebanon was probably soon after. "Widow Hussey" is mentioned several times by Rev. Isaac Hasey, the first Lebanon minister, in his diary, and he records her death as occurring January 31, 1773.

The children of Richard and Hannah Hussey were:

HANNAH, born February 23, 1717.

MARY, b. February 14, 1719.

RICHARD, b. August 12, 1722.

REUBEN, b. ———.

JOB² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born December 25, 1693, second son of Richard and Jane Hussey, was a "husbandman" and lived in Somersworth, N. H., but I find no evidence of his owning land there except the deed, already referred to, of land which had been his father's. His deeds show quite extensive holdings of real estate in Rochester. He married, 1st, Margery, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Tibbetts, born January 18, 1700/1, died before February 13, 1745/6; 2d, Anna ———. His will, dated September 10, 1761, was proved July 9, 1777. It mentions his wife Anna, his sons Robert and John, his daughters Margery Hussey and Mary Varney, and his grandsons Job, son of Robert Hussey, and Benjamin Varney, son of his daughter Mary. From the record of the marriage of his daughter Margery to Samuel Gould, December 23, 1761, it appears that she was by the second wife. The other three children are supposed to have been by the first marriage.

Children:

ROBERT, resided at Dover, N. H.

JOHN, moved to Damariscotta, Me.

MARY, married a Varney.

MARGERY, married Samuel Gould.

ROBERT² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born Nov. 28, 1695, was the third child of Richard and Jane Hussey. My information concerning him is mostly from Wyman's Genealogies and Estates of Charlestown, Mass. He removed to that town, and married there, May 8, 1729, Elizabeth, eighth child of Elias and Abigail (Long) Stone, who was born September 19, 1798. Administration on Robert Hussey's estate was granted to his son-in-law, Thomas Harris, May 17, 1762. Already in 1761, Elizabeth and her husband had given a deed to R. Foster which she signed as the only heir of Robert Hussey, indicating the early extinction of this Hussey line.

The children of Robert and Elizabeth (Stone) Hussey were:

ROBERT, born Nov. 15, 1731; died Dec. 1731.

ROBERT, b. February 4, 1732-3; he was captain of the schooner "Abigail" about 1755.

RICHARD, b. April 18, 1735.

BENJAMIN, bapt. July 10, 1737.

ELIZABETH, bapt. July 10, 1737; married Thomas Harris, Feb. 24, 1761, and had children:

Thomas, bapt. Mar. 25, 1764.

Elizabeth, bapt. November 15, 1767.

MARY² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born June 1, 1697, the fourth child of Richard and Jane Hussey, married Benjamin Varney as early as 1720. He died in 1732. (Ham's Dover, N. H. Marriages.)

JOSEPH² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born June 23, 1699, the fifth child of Richard and Jane Hussey, was described in deeds as of Somersworth, and as a "husbandman". He married, 1st Sarah Jane, daughter Samuel and Sarah Canney of Dover. She died before 1735. He married 2d, near 1736, Elizabeth (Robinson) Tibbetts, daughter of Timothy and Mary (Roberts) Robinson and widow of Henry Tibbetts. Her mother was daughter of John and Abigail (Nutter) Roberts, and Abigail was the daughter of Hatevil and Anne Nutter. March 22, 1726/7, he purchased, jointly with James Guppe, of Samuel and John Shackford of Portsmouth, a tract of land "known by the name of Cochecho Point". (See N. H. Prov. Deeds, 17: 506. Landmarks in Ancient Dover says that Hussey's Brook, "the first brook that empties into Newichawannock river above Cochecho Point", was named for him.

Joseph was a Friend, but I think not during the period of his first marriage; for the births of his first five children, unlike those of the other seven, are not recorded in the Friend's Records. His will, dated January 2, 1762, mentions his wife Elizabeth and all of his children, except the first Samuel. His daughters Jane, Sarah and Lydia are named as Jane Otis, Sarah Perkins and Lydia Hodgdon. He died February 8, 1762. His wife Elizabeth died in Somersworth May 3, 1773. His children were:

JOSEPH, born.

JANE, married an Otis.

SARAH, m. a Perkins.

LYDIA, m. a Hodgdon.

SAMUEL, died young.

DANIEL, b. 4, 9 mo. 1738.

ELIZABETH, b. 20, 10 mo. 1740.

SAMUEL, b. 12, 10 mo. 1742.

PHEBE, b. 12, 11 mo. 1744.

ANNA, b. 5, 3 mo. 1747.

SUSANNA, b. 28, 1 mo. 1750,

HANNAH, b. 1, 3 mo. 1753.

ELIZABETH² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born October 28, 1701, the sixth child of Richard and Jane Hussey, married Joseph Farnham August 31, 1720. I have no further record.

JANE² HUSSEY (*Richard*¹), born June 27, 1708, the ninth child of Richard and Jane Hussey, next claims our attention; and in her case we come across some facts which give a flavor of personality, if not of romance, to our record. August 27, 1733, her brother Richard, as administrator of their mother's estate, made complaint to the Probate Court at Portsmouth that some household goods of the deceased had been taken from the house, and that he suspected "his Sister Jane Hussey, Sam^l Stiles of Summersworth & W^m Stiles of Rochester to be Guilty of Carrying them away". William Stiles had no part in the subsequent proceedings, but the constable's return of September 10 states that he has cited "Samuel Stiles & his wife to appear". The wife, of course, was Jane Hussey. "Eliza Varnum & Joseph Varnum", probably Jane's sister Elizabeth and husband, were summoned as witnesses. At the hearing, the date of which does not appear, "Jane Stiles own'd she took a feather bed & Coverlid a Bolster & One Pillow, & two old Puter pots, & one bible, & one blanket". It is to be hoped that these articles did not constitute her entire bridal outfit. As the result of the proceedings, Jane was ordered to show the things to the appraisers when demanded, and her husband to pay the charges of court. (See N. H. Prov. Deeds, 12: 77.)

Samuel, son of William and Deborah Stiles, of Somersworth, was born August 10, 1710. Samuel Stiles of Somersworth, June 9, 1733, deeded to James Kielle of Dover, "Tailor", all his right in all the common lands in Dover. (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 19: 269.) It is only conjectural, but highly probable, that each of these Samuels was identical with Jane's husband.

By her first husband Jane had a son Samuel. About 1736 she married Edmund Layn of Dover, trader. They had two children, Edmund and John Hussey Layn. Jane Layn and her three children, Samuel Styles, Edmund and John Hussey Layn, were baptized by Rev. Jonathan Cushing, minister of First Church, Dover, March 7, 1742. Dover Historical Collections, 1: 148. In the citation just made the record is printed with a comma between "Sam^l" and "Styles", thus making it appear that there were four children by the name of Layn. After examining the original, I am convinced that the mark, instead of being a comma, was intended to be placed under the final superior letter of "Sam^l." The mistake was a very natural one. A guardian to "Sam^l Styles a minor upwards of fourteen years of age," was appointed July 27, 1750. Her children were:

SAMUEL STILES, bapt. March 7, 1742.

EDMUND LAYN, bapt. March, 7, 1742.

JOHN HUSSEY LAYN, born December 22, 1739.

WILLIAM² HUSSEY (Richard¹), born March 24, 1711, the tenth child of Richard and Jane Hussey is called in his deeds a "taylor", and in his will a "husbandman". He married, near 1730, Hannah, born November 21, 1707, daughter of Timothy and Mary (Roberts) Robinson, a sister of his brother Joseph's wife. The marriage was "out of Friends orders", but he was or became a Friend.

July 6, 1734, he purchased of Elisha Clark three acres "on the Southwesterly Side of the road that Leads from Cochecho Meeting house to Cloutmans butted and bounded as Followeth the South East side to Sam^l Tibbetts fence, the South west Side to Mr. Cushings fence and on the North West to the Commons and on the North East to the afores^d Road". (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 32: 626.)

April 26, 1738, he appears to have sold the above to Jonathan Cushing, and it is then described as "adjoining unto the North East end of the parsonage Land in the great Swamp on Dover Neck", (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 27: 194.)

May 6, 1738, he bought of Hatevil Hall "Ten Acres being the Land allowed and assigned to s^d Hatevil Hall by y^e s^d Town of Dover in y^e s^d Common or undivided Land and is to be layd out in the first Division of s^d Commons in my Proper Turn According to the votes of s^d Town." Thomas Laighton of Dover made a similar conveyance to him July 15, 1738. (N. H. Prov. Deeds, 32: 628, 632.)

He died January 22, 1778. His will, dated 27, 7th month, 1777, mentions his wife Hannah and all of his children.

His children were:

PAUL, born 1730.

MERCY, died November 3, 1814.

WILLIAM, b. 2, 7 mo. 1739.

MARY; married Ebenezer Frye.

ABIGAIL, b. 15, 7 mo. 1744.

TIMOTHY, b. 1748.

STEPHEN, b. 21, 1 mo. 1750.

IN MEMORIAM.

HON. NOAH TEBBETTS.

Life is but a breath; at best a span. A few days of sunshine and of shadow, of pleasure and of pain, and man at the behest of that grim specter that alone can draw aside futurity's veil surrenders his material heritage and crosses over to that unseen shore which marks the boundary of infinitude. Neither rank nor power nor station may nullify that stern decree. The prince and the peasant, the rich man in his splendor and the beggar in his rags, alike must answer that dread summons. The buoyancy of youth and sturdy strength of middle life, as well as the tottering temple of age are but equal subjects of that mysterious will which controls the destinies of us all.

Instinct with vigorous health and in sympathetic touch with all of life's most important activities, although nearing the milestone which marks man's allotted span, Hon. Noah Tebbetts, after a brief illness of angina pectoris, passed away at his home in Brooklyn, New York, at thirty minutes past one o'clock in the morning, Monday, May 31, 1909. His death, occurring as it did on Memorial Day, was a pathetic yet singularly appropriate commentary upon a life crowded with patriotic endeavor, with loyalty to country, and an unfaltering devotion to "Old Glory" which he followed through many long months of civic strife. On the day he joined the silent hosts that hold eternal bivouac beyond the "cerulean wall" he was to have presided over the memorial exercises planned to take place at the tomb of General Grant.

Mr. Tebbetts was born at Rochester, New Hampshire, September 11, 1844, son of Judge Noah and Mary Esther (Woodman) Tebbetts. He was a descendant, in the eighth generation, from Henry Tibbetts, the emigrant. His line is as follows. Henry¹ Tibbetts was born in 1596; he, with wife Elizabeth and two children, the eldest named Jeremiah, born in 1631, sailed from London, England, in the ship "James", July 13, 1635. He settled at Dover, N. H., was a farmer and shoe maker. His son Jeremiah² Tibbetts resided at Dover, was a farmer and for several years was the keeper of the prison, which at that time was located in Dover; he being the first prison keeper in New Hampshire. Jeremiah² Tibbetts married Mary, daughter of Thomas Canney of Dover, and they had twelve children, one of whom was named Henry³. Henry³ Tibbetts lived at Dover; he married the widow Joyce Otis, and they had a son Edward⁴, born Feb. 2, 1702, who usually wrote his name Tebbets, which spelling has been generally adopted by his descendants. Edward⁴ Tebbets moved to Rochester, N. H., and was prominent in the affairs of that town. His second wife was named Mary, surname unknown; they had a son born February 6, 1737, named Henry⁵. Henry⁵ Tebbets resided at Rochester; he married, Sept. 15, 1767, Mary Bickford, who was ten years his junior. Their third son born June 12, 1772, was named James⁶. He was the village blacksmith at Rochester and became prominent in the local politics of that town. He married first, in 1798, Mary Nutter, by whom he had a son Noah⁷, born December 26, 1802. Noah⁷ Tebbets graduated from Bowdoin College in 1822. He was admitted to the bar in 1825, and in 1843 was appointed Circuit Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, New Hampshire. Judge Tebbets⁷ married at Rochester, June 3, 1828, Mary Esther Woodman, daughter of Jeremiah Hall and Sarah (Chase) Woodman of Rochester; she was born January 12, 1808. Judge Noah Tebbets while holding a term of court at Gilford, in August, 1844, was suddenly attacked with typhoid fever. He adjourned court August 30 and returned home and died September 9, 1844; he was buried September 11, on the same day that his youngest son Noah⁸, the subject of this sketch, was born.

Mr. Tebbetts enlisted in Co. I, Fifteenth N. H. Volunteer Infantry, October 20, 1862, and was mustered in two days later as a corporal. He served in the Department of the Gulf under General Banks, participating in the fighting around New Orleans and in the siege and battle of Port Hudson. On May 27, 1863, he was placed on guard over regimental property nearly two miles to the rear, but learning that there was to be a charge he left his post in care of another and reached the front just in time to take part in the assault, saying, "If there is going to be a battle I am going to have a hand in it."

Lieut. Col. Henry W. Blair, afterwards United States senator from New Hampshire, in a letter to Tebbetts some years after the war, wrote as follows: "We made several charges, as you know, on that bloody day, and the column was so cut up that all regimental organization was lost, and everybody went ahead who wanted to. After one of our rushes I looked back for the column and the whole thing was down, dead, wounded or slid off into the ravine for protection. This happened several times, and after breathing, we would rally and push ahead a piece further. In this way we got, some of us, close up, but fell outside the breastworks for all that. At this particular time, when I looked back for the boys, there was only just one left standing in sight, and that was you—great, tall, seventeen-year-old boy, as you were, six feet two or three inches high—standing on top of a log, firing away at Port Hudson all alone. The log was on top of the bank, and you were on top of the log, just as straight as a 'rake tail,' putting down the rebellion just as fast as you could. I shall never forget that sight as long as I live."

In August, 1863, he was mustered out of service, but reenlisted in Co. I, Fifth N. H. Volunteer Infantry, and fought with his regiment through the bloody scenes preceding and attending the fall of Petersburg. He was present at the surrender of Appomattox.

At the close of the war Mr. Tebbetts took up the study of law, and following a course at Harvard Law School was admitted to the New Hampshire bar in 1867. He early became an active participant in the political affairs of his native State, and for three years was a member of the Republican State Committee. In 1870 he was appointed Bank Commissioner, which position he filled with marked ability. During his residence in Rochester he served as Master of Humane Lodge, No. 21, Free and Accepted Masons, and as Commander of Post No. 22, Grand Army of the Republic.

In 1872 Mr. Tebbetts moved to Brooklyn, New York, where he maintained an uninterrupted residence until his death. Upon his arrival in Brooklyn he entered into partnership with his wife's uncle, David Winslow, Esq., which partnership continued for nearly a decade, when Mr. Winslow retired from the firm. Mr. Tebbetts was a man of rare discernment, sterling integrity, fearless in the cause of right and justice, and his remarkable grasp of even the most intricate problems in his profession won for him enviable rank among the leading jurists of his time. Public spirited, progressive, and a natural leader of men, he soon became a conspicuous figure in the political life of our nation's first metropolis, and in 1897 received the nomination for the Assembly. He was endorsed for the position by the Citizens' Union and the National Democrats as well as by the Republicans, and although residing in a practically impregnable Democratic stronghold he was defeated by only a few votes. Later, however, he led his party to victory, serving as a member of the Board of Aldermen in 1902 and 1903. Mr. Tebbetts joined U. S. Grant Post, No. 327, at its organization, and in 1888 was unanimously elected its Commander; he also served as judge advocate for the Department of New York, and had the distinction of representing the Post at many State and National encampments. He was one of the Guard of Honor over the remains of the late General U. S. Grant from Mt. McGregor to Riverside Park.

He married, October 27, 1869, Emeline Frances, daughter of Orrin and Emeline (Winslow) Whipple, of Newton, Mass., a descendant of Governor Winslow who came over in the Mayflower. She was born at Newton, Mass., Feb. 4, 1844, and died at their home in Brooklyn, October 30, 1904, aged 60 years. She was a woman of culture and refinement, prominent in church and philanthropic circles, and beloved by all who knew her. No children survive this union.

Mr. Tebbetts was affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in addition to his connection with the organizations previously mentioned he took an active interest in the New Hampshire Genealogical Society, with which he became associated March 16, 1904.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday evening, June 2, at 8 o'clock, at the headquarters of U. S. Grant Post, and were very impressive, interment taking place at Newton, Massachusetts.

The record of his foibles and frailties, if any he had, was written in the shifting sands that glisten on the shores of time, and have been effectually effaced by the ever-recurring billows of the ocean of eternity; but the grand qualities of the man—and they were many—will long be treasured up in kindly remembrance, an enduring tribute of the high appreciation and regard in which he was held by all who knew him.

One sister, Mrs. Sarah C. Peavey, of Rochester, New Hampshire, survives him.

FRED E. QUIMBY,
Necrologist, New Hampshire Genealogical Society.

BOOK NOTICES.

GILES BADGER AND HIS DESCENDANTS—FIRST FOUR GENERATIONS AND A PORTION OF THE FIFTH, SIXTH AND SEVENTH GENERATIONS. By John Cogswell Badger. Press of the John B. Clark Company, Manchester, N. H., 1909. Paper, 8vo., pp. 64. One Illustration.

The above work contains practically a complete record of the first four generations of the descendants of Giles Badger of Newbury, Mass., 1635, together with an incomplete record of the remaining generations of his descendants. It contains a large mass of data collected from original sources and arranged with great care by the compiler, invaluable to the genealogist and especially so to the different members of the Badger family. A great many of the descendants of Giles Badger early drifted up into New Hampshire and it has become one of the old families of this state. All persons interested in the Badger family should purchase a copy of this work, and no library should be without it. Price $1.00 per copy. Address:

John C. Badger,

A PORTER PEDIGREE. By Miss Juliet Porter, Worcester, Mass. Privately printed, 1907. 8vo., pp. 161. Price, Cloth, $1.75; Paper, $1.25.

This book is divided into two parts. Part One is devoted to a record of the different lines of ancestry of Lieut. Samuel and Martha (Perley) Porter, of Chester, N. H. Lieut. Samuel Porter was born May 8, 1746, and died in 1833, being of the sixth generation in descent from John Porter, of Hingham, 1637, and Salem, Mass., 1643. Martha Perley, the wife of Lieut. Samuel Porter, was of the fifth generation from Allen Perley of Ipswich, Mass., born about 1608, the ancestor of the Perley family in America. The record of each line is very complete, giving the whole family record of each ancestor together with wills, deeds and other valuable genealogical and historical data. Part One has seventeen pages devoted to the first and second meetings of the descendants of John Porter of Salem, Mass.

Part Two is a genealogy of the descendants of Lieut. Samuel Porter, Chester, N. H., above mentioned. An attempt is made to follow out the descendants in the female lines. The scope of the book is rather novel, but it contains much valuable information and should be placed in all New England libraries, while the different members of the Porter and Perley families should liberally subscribe for the work, and then they will not half repay Miss Porter for the labor and expense she has been to in preparing the work. Address all subscriptions for the book to Miss Juliet Porter,

37 Dean St., Station A, Worcester, Mass.

QUERIES.

99. FLAGG.—James Flagg of Moultonborough, N. H., according to the records, served on the quota of Sandwich in Scammell's regiment and lost his life at Bemis Heights, 24 Sept., 1777.

Any information desired concerning himself or family. Was he James Flagg, Jr. of Upton who, as family tradition has it, fell in the Revolution, and whose descendants removed to Maine?

Chas. A. Flagg,

Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

100. DARLING.—About 1827 Stephen Darling, son of John and Phebe (Roberts) Darling, married, perhaps in Kennebunk, Me. Nancy (——) Fisk, a widow. Who were her parents, where and when was she born? They first lived in Hampstead, N. H., then removed to Groton, Vt., where their first child was born August 16, 1828.

John Darling, born Salisbury, Mass., Dec. 21, 1683, married Mary Page; published November 6, 1708. They had several children: Abigail, born October 4, 1709, married Benjamin Sweat, February 20, 1729. I would like to know where they were married, his birthday and place, parents and his children by Abigail, also date of deaths.

Judith, daughter of John and Mary (Page) Darling, born June 14, 1714, married Benjamin Cilley March 4, 1736. Same as above wanted of this family.

Naomi Darling, born July 12, 1719, married Jacob Flanders July 7, 1741; where? Wanted their children.

Onesiphorus Darling, born January 12, 1721, married Elizabeth Norton, November 17, 1748; where? Wanted her birth, names of parents and children.

Philip Darling was born August 29, 1724. Who did he marry?

Mary Darling was born December 8, 1725. Who did she marry? The above were all children of John and Mary (Page) Darling. The father bought land in Kingston, N. H., 1727, and the children perhaps all married there.

Who were the parents of Hon. George W. Darling, born Malone, N. Y., 1847; died Whitefield, N. H., March 20, 1909. Obituary in Granite State Monthly Magazine.

Delia H. Honey,

Albany, Vermont.

101. BADGER.—Samuel Badger married Eliza Gardner of Nantucket, about 1780 or 1790, probably at Nantucket. Their daughter Sarah was born June 10, 1792 and died Oct. 25, 1875. The birth and death dates of Samuel Badger with place of residence are wanted, also his full ancestry.

William C. Dornin, Jr.,

55 West 33d Street, New York, N. Y.

102. HANSON.—Who were the parents of Richard Hanson and Reuben Hanson? The above Richard was born in 1750, in Dover, N. H., and died there Aug. 21, 1840. Reuben Hanson was born in 1767. By the U. S. Census of 1790 for New Hampshire, both were residents of Middleton; by the same census, Richard, son of Silas Hanson was of Dover. For second wife, Richard married Susannah, daughter of Isaac Hanson of Pine Hill, Dover. They lived in Middleton, now Brookfield.

Dr. R. J. P. Goodwin,

Malden, Mass.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

95. STANYAN.—Ichabod Canney (Kenney), son of Richard and Deborah (Stokes) Canney married in Hampton, N. H., Oct. 19, 1729 Susanna Stanyan. She was the daughter of James and Ann Stanyan. James, born in Hampton, June 26, 1667 was the son of John and Mary (Bradbury) Stanyan. John was born near Boston, July 16, 1642; married December 15, 1663 Mary Bradbury of Salisbury, Mass., (b. 17 March, 1642, d. 27 September, 1718). John was selectman 1699, deputy to General Court 1705 and was one of the builders of the Friends meeting house at Hampton, 1701. John was son of Anthony Stanyan, the emigrant, born in England in 1611, was a glover by trade, came to America in the ship "The Planter", 1635. He settled near Boston but soon moved to Exeter, N. H. He took oath of freeman 17 April, 1644; was town clerk of Exeter, 1647; and moved to Hampton, 1648. He was Deputy to Gen. Court from Hampton, 1654; was Councilor in Gov. Cranfield's cabinet, 1684. He married first Mary ———, second Jan. 1, 1665 Ann Partridge, widow of William Partridge of Salisbury.

Annie K. Seavey,

Dover, N. H.

3. PITMAN.—The parents of Mary Pitman, who married Richard Shortridge, of Portsmouth, N. H., about 1756, were Benjamin and Susanna (Mead) Pitman, of Portsmouth. He was keeper of the Colonial prison and died while in office, in 1753. His wife, who was daughter of Joseph Mead of the same city, died a few months after her husband. On January 25, 1754, Elizabeth Pitman, next of kin, renounced her right of administration of estate of her son, Benjamin Pitman, deceased, in favor of Joseph Mead, "whose Daughter the said Benjamin married who is also Deceased."—ED.

VOL. VI.

DOVER, N. H., OCTOBER, 1909.

No. 4.

THOMAS DOWNES OF DOVER, N. H., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

1. THOMAS¹ DOWNES, a shoemaker, was born February 2, 1611/12 and died January 21, 1698/9, under which date Pike says in his Diary: "Thomas Downes, senior, died after one months sickness, wanting only twelve days of eighty-seven years old." Thomas was of Boston 1652 where he witnessed the will of George Burden. The town of Dover granted him land at Cochecho in 1656 and he was taxed there in 1657. In 1675 he bought ten acres of the town and he was one of the petitioners to remain a part of Massachusetts in 1677. In 1670, Thomas sold Jediah Andrews of Salisbury "my late dwelling house and lot" on east side of the neck, bounded east by Fore river, south by Mr. Rayner's land, north and west by the common. In 1687 he sold Thomas Hanson fifty acres granted by the town in 1656 at Cochecho near Mr. Rayner's. Thomas was constable in 1666. His wife was Katharine who died December 23, 1702, under which date Pike says: "Old sister Downs died with illness, age and suffering."

Children:

- i. REBECCA,² born April 22, 1652 at Boston.
2. ii. THOMAS,² b. March 17, 1653-4 at Boston.
- iii. ELIZABETH,² b. Nov. 17, 1663 at Dover.
- iv. MARY;² m. Nov. 25, 1686 at Dover, John Cook and had
 - i. Rebecca;³ m. 1, John Drew; m. 2, Samuel Starbird.
 - ii. John,³ b. May 5, 1692.
 - iii. Peter.³

2. THOMAS² (*Thomas*¹), was a sergeant and constable in 1706; and was killed by the Indians at Kittery in 1711. Warrant of appraisal of his estate was granted Lieut. Tristram Heard and Capt. John Tuttle April 20, 1711; administration was granted his son Gershom April 14, 1711. He married first, before 1680 Martha ———; second, Mary, daughter of Nathan and Martha (Everett) Lord, who was killed by Indians at Dover July 26, 1696. His third wife was Abigail (Roberts) Hall, widow of John Hall and daughter of Sergt. John and Abigail (Nutter) Roberts, whom he married October 24, 1698. All his children except Gershom were by his second wife.

Children:

3. i. GERSHOM,³ born January 10, 1680.
4. ii. THOMAS.³
- iii. MARTHA,³ b. 1691; m. 1, John Mackelroy; m. 2, Philip Stackpole; d. at Dover, Sept. 24, 1792, aged 101 years.
5. iv. EBENEZER.³
6. v. SAMUEL.³
7. vi. WILLIAM.³

An apparently complete list of heirs of Thomas¹ is comprised in a deed of 1734 conveying ten acres purchased of town on west side of Cochecho river. Apparently Thomas² was the only son to carry on the name. The heirs were: Gershom, Thomas, Ebenezer, Samuel, and William Downs, John Cook, John Mackelroy and Samuel Starbord all of Dover, and Martha the wife of J. Mackelroy and Rebecca the wife of S. Starbord, who conveyed land of Thomas Downs grandfather of above Downses and of Martha Mackelroy and Rebecca Starbord.

3. GERSHOM³ (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, husbandman, baptized August 17, 1718; admitted to 1st church August 31, 1718; died 1750; married 1st, December 24, 1707 Sarah, daughter of John Hall of Dover, deceased; married 2d, before 1736 Elizabeth (Tibbetts) Dam, born March 10, 1697, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Tibbetts and widow of Pomfret Dam. She married 3d, Richard Goodwin.

Children:

8. i. GERSHOM,⁴ born February 15, 1708, bapt. Nov. 29, 1719.
- ii. MARTHA,⁴ b. Oct. 14, 1711, bapt. Nov. 29, 1719; probably dead in 1750, as she was not mentioned in her father's will.
9. iii. THOMAS,⁴ b. Feb. 17, 1713-4; bapt. Nov. 29, 1719.
- iv. REBECCA,⁴ bapt. Nov. 29, 1719; m. James Wilmot and was lately deceased in 1750; she had a child:
 - i. Sarah,⁵ who probably m. Jonathan Bickford, May 26, 1757 at Dover.
10. v. JOHN,⁴ bapt. Nov. 29, 1719.
11. vi. RICHARD,⁴ bapt. June 21, 1724.
- vii. SARAH,⁴ bapt. August 18, 1728.
- viii. JOSEPH,⁴ } both bapt. in private Jan. 21, 1737; probably PAUL,⁴ } dead in 1750; not in father's will.

The will of Gershom³ is dated April 4 and was proved June 27, 1750. It names wife Elizabeth; grandchildren Gershom, Aaron, Abigail, Moses, Elizabeth, James, children of Gershom deceased; sons Thomas, John and Richard; daughter Sarah; granddaughter Sarah Wilmot of daughter Rebecca Wilmot lately deceased. The homestead was given to sons John and Richard. His inventory amounted to £4361. He held one third of a right in Rochester, with brothers, Thomas and Ebenezer holding the rest.

4. THOMAS³ (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, yeoman, contributes one acre for settlement of minister 1730 and owned a pew; surveyor of highways 1715; held a share in Rochester in common with brothers Gershom and Ebenezer and in 1744 conveyed the whole share to Edward Rawlings; died 1749, when his estate was administered both in New Hampshire and in Maine (then Massachusetts); inventory in Maine £2271, in New Hampshire over £9000. He married Sarah, daughter of John and Mary (Heard) Ham of Dover. (Portsmouth records give Thomas Downs married Elizabeth Ham June 8, 1710).

Children:

- i. MARY,⁴ born Feb. 22, 1710-11; m. Samuel Dam and was dead in 1750. She had children:
 - i. Sarah,⁵ who m. Amos Howard.
 - ii. Samuel.
 - iii. Pomfret.
- ii. SARAH,⁴ b. Nov. 25, 1712; m. Daniel Ham, and was dead in 1750; left issue.
- iii. ELIZABETH,⁴ b. July 25, 1714; m. John Garland; children:
 - i. Lydia,⁵ m. John Wallingford, Jr.
 - ii. Daniel.⁵

5. EBENEZER³ (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth; Lebanon, 1754; Arundel, 1758; housewright, yeoman; bought land at Arundel, 1755. His wife as shown by deeds 1737-1755 was Elizabeth. Ebenezer was a Quaker and was taken by the Indians in 1724 and grossly insulted and abused for refusing to dance for their diversion, but the Quaker records, so generous in some respects, ungratefully refuse to give us any mention of him. "The Boston News Letter" in 1725 says that he returned from captivity "having a wife and five children at Pascataqua".

Children:

12. i. EBENEZER,⁴

6. SAMUEL³ (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, husbandman, died 1755. Will dated March 24, proved May 30, 1755 mentions wife Judith, and sister Martha wife of Philip Stackpole. He married Judith who was alive as his widow in 1779 and left no issue.

7. WILLIAM³ (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, husbandman; administration granted Samuel⁴ Downs August 28, 1754; inventory £2934, 7, 4, shows property at Berwick. He married May 3, 1721 at Dover, Mary,³ daughter of Joseph² (William¹) Pitman. One third of his real estate was given his widow. The remaining two thirds was left undivided among his six children, only five of whom are surely found.

Children:

13. i. SAMUEL,⁴ b. December 18, 1721; bapt. July 31, 1726.

14. ii. WILLIAM,⁴ b. January 18, 1723; bapt. July 31, 1726.

iii. PHEBE,⁴ bapt. July 31, 1726.

15. iv. THOMAS,⁴ bapt. February 23, 1729.

16. v. DANIEL,⁴

vi. ———,⁴

8. GERSHOM⁴ (Gershom,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Rochester, New Hampshire, husbandman; killed by Indians at Rochester June 27, 1746; married Margaret ——— who married 2d, September 17, 1749 Joseph Walker. An account of Joseph Walker and his wife Margaret in 1758 shows that they administered estate of Gershom and kept minors, Elizabeth for 6 months, James for 6 years 3 months, Gershom 16 months.

Children:

17. i. AARON,⁵

ii. ABIGAIL,⁵ b. 1732, d. May 7, 1790, aged 58; probably m. James Rollins.

18. iii. MOSES,⁵ bapt. September 9, 1739.

iv. ELIZABETH,⁵ bapt. December 13, 1741; m. Henry Allard of Rochester.

19. v. GERSHOM,⁵ bapt. March 6, 1742-3.

vi. JAMES,⁵ bapt. November 23, 1746.

9. THOMAS⁴ (Gershom,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Berwick, yeoman; married 1st, Mercy⁴ Downs (*Thomas*³), who died in 1750, when Thomas became guardian of their four children. He married 2d, Judith ——— by whom he had three children.

Children:

- i. MARTHA,⁵ m. May 11, 1758 at Berwick, Daniel Tibbetts.
- 20. ii. THOMAS.⁵
- 21. iii. JOSHUA.⁵
- iv. PAUL,⁵ died young.
- 22. v. PAUL,⁵ bapt. May 1, 1761, at North Parish church, (of Thomas and Judith).
- 23. vi. EBENEZER,⁵ bapt. November 11, 1762.
- vii. BETSEY,⁵ bapt. February 9, 1767.

10. JOHN⁴ (Gershom,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth; Ichabod Rawlings administrator had power to sell real estate June 29, 1757; married Abigail ———. His children were all in Waterborough and Lyman, Maine in 1786.

Children:

- 24. i. PHINEAS.⁵
- 25. ii. REUBEN.⁵
- iii. ESTHER,⁵ of Coxhall, 1786.

- 27. v. JOHN.⁵

11. RICHARD⁴ (Gershom,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, removed to Massabesic (Waterborough), 1773; was alive in 1805 when he renewed a deed of home place at Somersworth to Ichabod Rollins; married Patience, daughter of William and Penelope (Trafton) Bracy of York and Biddeford.

Children:

- i. REBECCA,⁵ b. September 26, 1747.
- 28. ii. POMFRET,⁵ b. February 15, 1750.
- 29. iii. PAUL,⁵ b. June 9, 1755.
- iv. CHARITY,⁵ b. July 8, 1759.
- 30. v. MOSES,⁵ b. April 30, 1764.
- 31. vi. RICHARD,⁵ of Waterborough, who sells right in homestead of his grandfather Gershom, in 1800.

12. EBENEZER⁴ (Ebenezer,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, Arundel, laborer; with father conveys all their land in Somersworth to James Pike 1755; 1755 buys land at Arundel; 1756 buys land at Coxhall (Lyman); 1777 with wife Jane both of a place called Number 4, county of Lincoln conveys land at Newington belonging to John Walton, father of Jane. He married Jane, daughter of John Walton of Newington.

13. SAMUEL⁴ (William,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Somersworth, husbandman; 1785 conveys land laid out to father William Downs; will dated December 6, 1794 proved May 3, 1820 mentions wife Anna, sons Phineas and John, daughters Dolly, Nabby, Anna, Judith, also land in Berwick held in common with brother Daniel Downs; inventory $997. This must be the Samuel who died in 1820, aged 100 years mentioned in "Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll. 10, 179." He married February 22, 1746, at Rochester, Anne Canney.

Children:

- 32. i. TIMOTHY,⁵ perhaps died young, not in father's will.
- ii. NABBY.⁵
- iii. ANNA.⁵
- iv. JUDITH.⁵
- 33. v. SAMUEL,⁵ perhaps died young, not in his father's will.
- 34. vi. PHINEAS.⁵
- 35. vii. JONATHAN,⁵ called John in his father's will.

14. WILLIAM⁴ (William,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), of Pine Hill, Berwick, yeoman; will made March 5, 1778 and proved December 18, 1780 mentions eldest son Jedediah, two younger sons Aaron and Moses, wife Mercy, daughter Lydia Austin, son-in-law Nathaniel Austin, daughter-in-law Mercy Downs, grandson Levi son of William, deceased. He married February 22, 1746 at Rochester, Mercy Canney.

Children:

- 36. i. JEDEDIAH,⁵
- 37. ii. AARON.⁵
- 38. iii. MOSES.⁵

GEORGE HUNTRESS OF PORTSMOUTH AND NEWINGTON, N. H., HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

By HENRY WINTHROP HARDON, A. M., LL. B., Late Professor of Law at Columbia University, member of the New York Bar.

GEORGE¹ HUNTRESS was born, doubtless in England, about 1647, for he deposed November 2, 1685 "about 38 years of age" (N. H. Court Papers, 1685-7, 163). He is first mentioned in any New Hampshire record I have found when on May 16, 1676 he gave bail for his wife Mary Huntress (N. H. Court Papers, 1674-7, 381). He died in the summer of 1715, for his will dated June 28, 1715, was proved August 19, 1715 (31 N. H. St. P. 765.)

In 1679 he had lands at Greenland (Thompson's Landmarks 16). In 1696 he was living at Bloody Point, now Newington, where he had a grant June 16, 1699 (7 Reg. 157). He had a further grant of 40 acres there along the river near his house in 1709 (Thompson's Landmarks 86).

He was a soldier in King William's War, 1696 (13 N. H. St. P. 239).

CHILDREN, born probably all at Portsmouth:

I. MARY,² born about 1675, died about 1760; married June 23, 1684, Henry² son of John¹ and Agnes Seward, of Portsmouth, ship-builder, born as early as 1674, died shortly before April 13, 1737, when his will was proved (14 N. H. Prob., 205).

Children, born at Portsmouth:

1. MARY,³ married July 28, 1715 (23 Reg. 272), Jonathan Stoodley, of Portsmouth, born at Lyme, Devonshire, England.
2. JOHN,³ of Portsmouth, boat-builder, born about 1697, died April, 1785, aged 88 (N. H. Gazette April 22, 1785); married November 14, 1723 (24 Reg. 17), Catherine Drew, of Deptford, England.
3. ABIGAIL,³ born about 1700; married December 20, 1722 (24 Reg. 16) Thomas³ Goodwin, son of Daniel,² and grandson of Daniel,¹ of Berwick, Me. (9 Me. Hist. and Gen. Reg. 155).
4. HANNAH,³ born about 1702, bapt. March 3, 1716-7 (4 N. H. Gen. Rec. 101), acknowledged the covenant March 28, 1721-2 (South Church rec.) probably on coming of age; married before 1731 John Pucklinhorn.
5. GEORGE,³ of Portsmouth, boat-builder, born about 1704; died probably in 1758, estate administered 1759 (15 N. H. Prob.

Rec.); married November 15, 1729 (25 Reg. 117) Margaret, daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Poindextre of Portsmouth.

II. GEORGE,² of Portsmouth, born about 1680, died before June 28, 1715; married August 4, 1701, Sarah Morrill (4 N. H. Gen. Rec., 11, Pike's Journal).

Children, born probably at Portsmouth:

1. CHRISTOPHER,³ married Mary ———.
2. ELIZABETH,³ married November 7, 1725, Francis Merrill, of Portsmouth, born at Wenham, Mass. (24 Reg. 358).
3. DEBORAH,³
4. GEORGE,³ of Portsmouth, inn-holder, born about 1704; married June 1, 1726 (24 Reg. 359), Elizabeth³ Seward, (Samuel,² John¹), born about 1705.

III. SAMUEL,² of Newington, born 1687, died April 20, 1758, aged 71 (Thompson's Landmarks 37); married December 20, 1711 (5 N. H. Gen. Rec. 41), Abigail ———.

Children, born at Newington:

1. WILLIAM,³ bapt. September 15, 1717; married March 15, 1747, Susanna Downing.
2. SAMUEL,³ bapt. September 15, 1717; married January 4, 1742 (27 Reg. 13) Mary Coleman of Newington.
3. ABIGAIL,³ bapt. September 15, 1717; married April 22, 1739, Phineas Coleman.
4. GEORGE,³ bapt. November 2, 1718; married May 26, 1743, Mary Ring.
5. SOLOMON,³ bapt. December 11, 1720.
6. ELIZABETH,³ bapt. April 7, 1723; married December 12, 1745, Samuel Fabyan.
7. PAUL,³ bapt. June 4, 1727.
8. JOSEPH,³ bapt. April 28, 1734; m. Dec. 25, 1755 Sobriety Tobey (Queen's Chapel, Portsmouth.)

IV. JOHN,² of Newington, N. H.; married about 1715, Mary ———.

Children, born at Newington:

1. HANNAH,³ bapt. December 9, 1716.
2. JOHN,³ bapt. November 2, 1718.
3. TAMSEN,³ bapt. December 11, 1720; married February 11, 1741, John Parshley.
4. MARY,³ bapt. April 21, 1723; married June 7, 1741, Michael Martin.
5. HEPWORTH,³ bapt. December 13, 1724.
6. JONATHAN,³ bapt. March 19, 1727; married February 5, 1747, Mary Walker.
7. A child, bapt. December 17, 1732.

V. ABIGAIL,² married July 22, 1714, Moses Dam (5 N. H. Gen. Rec. 42). The baptisms above mentioned and most of the marriages are from Newington Church records printed in Vols. 3 and 4 of "N. H. Genealogical Record," where are printed also baptismal records of children of Christopher³ (George²), William³ (Samuel²), Jonathan³ (John²) and some of a later generation.

INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE WALDRON CEMETERY, DOVER, N. H.

[The Waldron Cemetery is one of the oldest in Dover. It is not certain when the first person was buried in this cemetery, but probably as early as 1650. It appears to have been on land originally granted to Major Richard Waldron and was used by the families in the neighborhood. It once covered more than one acre of land, but many years ago from time to time, it was encroached upon for house lots, a church and streets until it is now not more than half its original size. It was here that many of the early settlers of Cochecho were buried; it was here too that scores of others, loved ones of generations ago and some few of later years, were tenderly laid at rest until the cemetery is literally full of graves. But few of the graves were marked with stones having inscriptions, and with those few neglect and the hand of time has rested heavily. Less than a score of inscribed stones are left.—ED.]

LIBRARY OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY.

We are pleased to give notice that a new home has been secured for the library of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society. This library which, during the last six years, has grown from nothing to more than 8,500 books and pamphlets has heretofore been kept in a private house. The Trustees of the Dover Public Library, seeing the present value of this library and the great prospect it has of rapid growth and ever increasing usefulness as a reference library, have generously given the use of one of the large rooms in the Dover Public Library building to the society, as a home for the library. This room has ample shelving for double the number of books at present owned by the society, provided with glass doors and under locks and keys. The Dover Public Library also furnishes heat, lights and clerk hire, free gratis, to run the library for reference purposes, the same as if the books were their own. The society does not part with title to the books and the agreement can be terminated by either side upon ten days notice to the other party. This arrangement is very favourable to the society; on the other hand Dover remains, as heretofore, the headquarters of the society, retaining its valuable library, and stops, for the present anyway, all thought of moving to Concord as a more central location. There can be no question but what Dover is the center of all genealogical interest and research in this state. We believe that within a radius of twenty-five miles from Dover City Hall there are more people interested in genealogy than in all the remainder of New Hampshire. It seems fitting, then, that the New Hampshire Genealogical Society should remain at Dover.

If the present plans and objects of the society are carried out, the near future will find the society in possession of the most valuable connected genealogical records and data in the state. A specialty is made of collecting everything of a genealogical or historical nature pertaining to New Hampshire, and now that the society has such nice and ample accommodations for its library we shall expect every member, and every person interested in New Hampshire genealogy, to help us collect books or contribute, in books or money, for the library. We hope that the accessions to the library during the year 1910 will reach more than one thousand volumes. Our want list will begin again in the next number and be continued from time to time. There is no better way to direct the efforts of those persons interested in securing books for the library than in a want list.

We are especially pleased at the bright prospects apparently ahead of the society and its library. Let all who are interested unite in one continuous effort to make the library first class in every particular, one of which we shall all be proud.

CHARLES W. TIBBETTS, Librarian.
