INTRODUCTION.

THE Register of Burgesses and Guild-Brethren of the City of Edinburgh is contained in a number of MS. volumes, carefully preserved in the Town Clerk's fire-proof safe in the City Chambers.

After 30th May 1666 the entries of apprentices are contained in the scroll volumes, along with those of burgesses and guild-brethren. The roll of these is being issued separately.

Of these volumes Nos. 1 to 8 have been used in compiling the roll which follows, beginning at 17th May 1487, and ending in Vol. 8 at 31st December 1700.

The very early entries are taken from the minutes or records of the Town Council. The scroll volumes, whose contents have not been entered in the official volumes, or have been lost with them, are very badly and hastily written, and in many cases the names, christian and, more particularly, family, are very difficult to decipher, the rather that no rule of spelling has been observed, and the attempts at a phonetic rendering are bewildering. The Celtic names are really dreadful.

The earliest entries, being in ancient script, and also in Latin abounding in contractions, offered obstacles which would, it is to be feared, have wrecked the undertaking, but for the help, so graciously given, chiefly by Mr. John Jarvis, Session-Clerk of the City Churches, by Mr. Henry M. Paton of H.M. Register House, and by Miss Marguerite Wood, Keeper of the Burgh Records, to all of whom I tender my very grateful thanks.

CHARLES B. BOOG WATSON.

7 March 1660.—Sir James Stanfield of New Milns, in East Lothian, and his son Philip. Sir James, a Yorkshire man by birth, is said to have been a colonel on the Parliamentary side in the Civil War. He came to Scotland, after the battle of Dunbar, 1650, and having acquired certain lands on the south bank of the Tyne, a mile east of Haddington, he set up a cloth manufactory, named New Milns. Later he was knighted by Charles II., and his cloth industry was encouraged in 1681 by James, Duke of Albany and York, later James VII.

He also acquired property in Edinburgh, both in Blackfriars Wynd, and in what is now called World's End Close, where Sir Wm. Bruce of Balcaskie disposed part of his property to him, whence the close at one time bore the name of Stanfield's Cl. He also owned the ground in Leith whereon the glass work was built later.

He was made a burges and guild-brother of Edinburgh 7th March 1660, being then secretary to General Major Thomas Morgan, gratis, and £5 voted to him, for his good service done to the town.

On 2 July 1679 Mr. Philip Stanfield, fiar of New Milne, was made burges and guild-brother of the burgh, gratis. He must have been Sir James' elder and most unsatisfactory son, who was married, and lived in his father's house.

On the 28 November the body of Sir James was found among the ice in a pool in the river. It was secretly buried by his son, as that of a suicide.

But the Lord Advocate, hearing of the case, gave orders for the exhumation and examination of the corpse. This was carried out, and the surgeons performed the autopsy, in the course of which they made an incision in the neck of the deceased. When Philip, at the request of the surgeons, lifted the head of his dead father, to help in replacing the body in the coffin, the blood suddenly showed on the linen swathing, and Philip, horror-struck, dropped his burden, and fell back in a faint. In due course he was arrested, and tried before the High Court of Justiciary in February 1688, and found guilty. Sir George Mackenzie assisting the Lord Advocate in the prosecution. He was hanged at the Market Cross, and his body was vated in chains at the Gallow Lee, between Edinburgh and Leith, and finally disappeared.

The New Milns property was sold, on the winding up of the cloth company, to the notorious Colonel Francis Charteris, who changed its name to Amisfield, after that of his family seat in Nithsdale. (See "Twelve Scots Trials," by Wm. Roughhead, W.S., and "Sir Richard" in Sir Walter Scott's "Minstrelsy of the Scottish Borders.")

7 March 1660.—The Council appointed the following to be made burgesses and gild-brethren gratis:—

Generall Major Thomas Morgan.

(Signed) Robert Douglas.”

23 Feb. 1670. (C.)—“The council, having ordained that men volunteering to serve in the militia, be admitted burgesses gratis, in respect they receive no pay or outreik (outrig or outfit) instructs the dean of gild and his council “to adinit and receive such officers of the militia Regement of this burgh that have right to be Burges and Gild-brother by their wives or as prentises, to be Burgesses and Gild-brethren of this burgh and to dispens with the Dewes.”

21 Sept. 1670.—Privilege granted to the Dean of Gild of the admission of one burgess and gild-brother, in best form, freely (gratis) yearly.

8 Jan. 1673.—“The quhillk day compered Mr. Jacob Jamart, merchant in Burduix, and acts and obleiss himself that he sall at no tyme hereafter directly nor indirectly use any unfree tredings (tradings) by wyne or any uther comodities under the pane of ane hundereth punds Scots money.”

15 Oct. 1673.—“The same day Thomas Sandielands, deacone of the wrights, and Andrew Hamiltoun, deacone of the maissons, produced a protest against Andrew Cassie his being a member of the gild counsell, which being Read the Councill Appoynted the same to be recorded in the Register of acts and decreets, & thereupon they took instruments. Lykas Andrew Cassie sclaitter, protested in ane contrair & gave in ane answer therto in wryt which is also appoynted to be Recorded ut supra.”

26 March 1674.—“Thomas Sandelands deacone of the wrights protested that Andrew Cassy might not sit as a member of the dean of gild council, seeing he was not gild-brother till he was elected upon the gild council and that he has not been three years upon the Toun Council conforme to the constitution of the gildry and does not reside within Edinburgh. Lykas said Andrew Cassie protested in the contrair and that he might sit as a member of the guild council seeing he was a gild-brother before he sat thereon and was elected be the toun counsell and has sittine heir as a member sine his electione and thereupon both parties took instruments. Lykas D. Cunnyngname adhered thereto in name of the trades.”

29 April 1674.—Robert Mill deane of the maissones protested that Andrew Cassie might not sitt in the gild counsell because he was not lawfully elected not being three years upon the gild (? town) counsell, conforme to the sett, and that he was not one of the fourteen treds and thereupon took instruments.

22 July 1674.—“The which day compeared Alexr., Mathieson and John Steuart, wrights, burgesses of Edinburgh, indwellers in Leith, who hes been fyned this day be the Toun counsell for buying bargans of Timber and Retailling the same at Leith albeit they be not Residenters in Edr. Therefore they oblige themselves that they sall at no time coming buy any bargaines of timber or other merchd. goods and sell or Retaill the same unless they have their actuall Residence at Edr. and that under the Tincell of their liberty as burgesses and payt. of the respective penaltys contained in the acts of counsell maid thereanent it being allways provyded that they have liberty to mak use of timber for their allowed imployments as wrights allenarly.

“(Signed) Alexr. Mathieson.
John Stewart.”

30 Sept. 1674.—“No court this day in respect of ane meiting of the Toun Council in relatione to the electione of the magistratts proceding upon the King's Maj. letters & the secret (privy) counsellis order thereanent discharging any new election and continuing the present magistratts till the King's Ma'tie declare his farther pleasure.” (This continued till 13 Aug. 1675.)

28 July 1675.—“No council this day in respect of the fast for the great drouth.”

1 Sept. 1675.—“The same day the counsell upon petition given in be John Monro prentice to the deceist Hew Monro, bower, burgess of Edr., mentioning that albeit he was bund prentice to the said Hew upon the (blank) day of Novr. 1669 and that he was obliged to book him in the Deane of Gild his book yet he had omitted swa to doe and therfor craves the counsell to caus book him of this date therfor (that) he might get his friedom. The counsell finding the supplicant's desyre most Reasonable and that he sall not suffer prejudice by his master's neglect did therfor ordaine the said prentice to be booked of this dait & declares this booking to be als sufficient as he had been booked at the dait of the petitioner's indenters.”

17 Oct. 1677.—“No council in respect of the deceise of the Dean of Gild Boyd.”

(John Boyd died in office ten days after his election as Dean of Gild. James Dick succeeded him.)

18 May 1681.—The council ordains that the fleshers that frequent the land-market be admitted burgesses for 100 merks each, besides the poor box money.

8 Feb. 1682. (C.)—“The which day the council appoynts the dean of gild and his counsell to admit and receive such stablers of this burgh whoe desyres to enter burges to be burgesses for payment each of them in ane hundred merks Scots in satisfaction of the dewes.”

(Burgesses made and prentises bound on Wednesdays.)

13 June 1683.—[Liberty to a woman.] The Dean of Gild and Council grants liberty to Agnes Alisone, shopkeeper in the Exchange, to keep a chop and to buy and sell all sort of ware in use to be sold and bought all the days of her life at least so long as she remains unmarried.

16 July 1684. (C.)—The Lord Chancellor and thirty nine Drummonds made burgesses and gild-brothers by act of council.

7 Jan. 1685. (C.)—The Council ordains that all such Bishops as are not already burgesses and gild-brothers shall be made so gratis.

14 Sept. 1687. (C.)—The council appoints the Principall and whole professors and regents of the College to be made burgesses and gild-brethren gratis.

8 June 1688. (C.)—Wm. Penman, son to deceased Robert Penman, burgess and gild-brother, and (blank) Glen, son to James Glen, stationer, burgess and gildbrother, had right to be admitted burgesses and gild-brethren, but omitted to enter. Their sons, however, elected to be educated and entertained in Heriot's Hospital, are to be admitted thereto.

25 Oct. 1689. (C.)—The act of 1674 revived, namely, that no "gratis" burgess shall have right to book 'prentices or get admission for his bairns to Heriot's Hospital.

19 Aug. 1691. (C.)—In view of the prejudice caused by the non-residence of so many burgesses and gild-brethren, the council revives all acts thereanent and appoints that all burgesses and gild-brethren who do not reside in the city for eight months in the year shall be reckoned as unfreemen during their actual non-residence.

28 April 1693. (C.)—The council ordains that fees received for burgesship shall be applied to buying of arms for the town magazine.

27 July 1694. (C.)—Elizh. Corse, relict of Andrew Miller, mason, B., late deacon of the masons, craves that the £33 : 16s. Scots paid by her husband for entry as gild-brother (made necessary by his admission to the dean of gild court) may be repaid, and his entry be deleted. Council grant her £24 Scots, with deletion of entry as craved.

5 April 1695. (C.)—(Blank), William, servitor to Mr. Francis Montgomerie, made B. and G. gratis.

19 July 1695. (C.)—The council ordains that all "gratis" burgesses made hereafter shall swear and take the burgess oath in presence of Dean of Gild and his court.

6 Nov. 1695. (C.)—The council ordains that Wm. Murray, presently prisoner in the Tolbooth, as a spreader of false news, having lately spread letters containing false news received from London correspondent, shall have his burgess ticket cancelled and himself banished after his release from prison.

3 Jan. 1696. (C.)—The council appoints burgess and gild-brother tickets to be given out by the clerk to twenty-two persons as servants of the commissioner.

7 Sept. 1698. (C.)—Peter Chazelon, furrier, took the oath of allegiance, being a French Protestant refugee ; made burgess gratis 1 July 1696 and gild-brother 22 May 1700, having married Jean, daughter to umquhyle Patricke Grahame, skinner. On 30 Sept. 1696, one hundred and fifty-six pounds Scots was paid to him, being a reasonable charge for furring the Lord Provost's gown.

27 March 1700. (C.)—"The same day upon report of the dean of gild that in the accounts of incidents of the Thesaurer's depursements there was found considerable soumes payed to the clerks for burgesses and gild tickets given be the council gratis, which expence might be saved to the town and payed be the pairties. Therefore the Councill in all tyme comeing appoint the pairties who receive the freedome of burgesses and gild-brethren from the Councill gratis to pay the clerk's dues as others doe pay, excepting allwayes such noblemen and gentilmén as the councill shall think fitt to complement with the freedome of this city."

In the early admissions of burgesses payments of duty were sometimes "by composition." In some cases spices and wine, a banquet in fact, were furnished, and accepted.

Burgesses were often admitted by the provost, or a bailie, or the treasurer, apart from the Dean of Guild Court.

When thus admitted by a bailie, it was by him as a bailie "et ea ratione." This was corrected later.

A master often is admitted burgess in order to be able to take an apprentice.

The date, between brackets, in the entry of admission of a craftsman as B. or G. by right of his apprenticeship, is that of his entering his master's service.

When a letter is given in brackets in a name, as in "Caldwell(s)," it indicates that both forms ("Caldwell" and "Caldwells") are found.

A good many entries appear twice, under different dates.

If "gratis" be not mentioned, the burgess paid for his burgessship.

Dates.—It must be remembered that under the Old Style the year ended 24 March.

Thus 1 Jan. 1500 (o.s.) succeeds 31 Dec. 1500, and should be written 1 Jan. 1500-1.

The New Style was adopted 1st Jan. 1600.

There are very few addresses or residences given, e.g. "John Adamson for-nent the crose." 12 Jan. 1570-1

John Hamilton, "dwelland in Williamson's Close," 14 Jan. 1567-8.

Residence.—When a man was made a burgess of Edinburgh it was necessary for him to reside within the burgh. Instances occur frequently of indwellers in Leith, who, on being made burgesses, are required to remove and find residence in Edinburgh, under the pain of tinsell (loss) of their freedom, e.g. Francis Aird and Rob. Dowglas, 27 Oct. 1669. Patrick Crichtoun, mt. was forced to leave the Canongate and reside in Edinburgh 17 March 1648.

An applicant for burgessship could choose one qualification therefor, rather than another—probably preferring the cheaper. Thus a man eligible as 'prentis to an employer, or as guidson to a burgess, would choose the latter qualification.

Not infrequently a group of one trade entered as burgesses at one time—a bunch of tailors, hatmakers, or fleshers, while on special occasions, such as banquets, or the honouring of a special family, as many as a hundred might be admitted burgesses and gild-brethren, gratis. Such burgesses, however, as a rule, enjoyed the privilege personally, without the right to transmit it to their bairns.

Moses Mosias, a Jew, was allowed to trade in the town, with a promise, for his encouragement, that if he become a Christian, he shall be admitted burgess, gratis (M.T.C. 14 Dec. 1698.)

NOTES ON THE GUILD REGISTER, EXPLANATIONS, GLOSSARY, ETC.

GUILD REGISTER.

Vol. 1. Size 11 in. $\times$ 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Marked 24 May 1487 to 8 Jan. 1579, but the first entry is 17 May 1487, the last 12 Feb. 1579-80.¹ The folios, as indicated by pencil notes at the beginning of the volume, are badly arranged. This must be noted in making search for entries.

There is a blank between Jan. 1500-1 and 30 March 1508; also between 24 May 1509 and 27 Sept. 1520.

The folios are numbered.

The earlier entries are in Latin. (See 15 March 1560-1.)

The volume closes with "τελος."

Vol. 2. Size 11 in. $\times$ 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The folios are not numbered.

It begins with several "Acts," and contains entries of burgesses and guild-brethren from 13 April 1580 to 25 Dec. 1616.

Vol. 3. 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. $\times$ 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The folios are not numbered.

It contains entries from 1 Jan. 1617-18 to 18 Feb. 1669-70. A massive volume, bound in wooden boards, covered with leather, having brass corners and studs, with two brass-hinged bands, formerly fitted with hasps suiting the two locks for which two keys were required. On the fly leaf is written: "The lokkit guild buik of the burgh of Edinburgh, Maid be David Aikenheid, deyne of gild² of the said burgh, the fourt year of his office. Conteyning all the burgesses and gild brether admittit and resavit efter this present day the first day of Januar one thousand six hundrethe and sevintene years."

It is beautifully written.

Vol. 4. Size 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. $\times$ 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The folios are not numbered.

It begins with the prayer to be used at the meeting of the court, the oaths to be taken by burgesses and gild-brethren respectively, and the scale of fees for booking of 'prentices, and admission of burgesses and guild-brethren; then entries from 24 Feb. 1669-70 to Dec. 1676, and at the end jottings of fees paid.

Vol. 5. Size 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. $\times$ 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The folios are not numbered.

It begins with the form of prayer, and the oaths to be taken; then entries from 3 Jan. 1677 to 13 Sept. 1691, and at the end jottings of fees paid.

Vol. 6. Size 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. $\times$ 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. The folios are not numbered.

It begins with the form of prayer, then entries from 10 Oct. 1691 to 14 April 1697, and ends with jottings of fees paid.

Vol. 7. Size 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. $\times$ 8 in. The folios are not numbered.

It contains entries from 5 Jan. 1687 to 12 March 1695 and is beautifully written, but less than half the volume has been written up; the remainder is blank.

Vol. 8. Size 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. $\times$ 6 in. The folios are not numbered.

It contains entries from 21 April 1697 to 4 June 1703, beginning with four pages of entries of loans from the guild funds, and jottings at the end of fees paid.

Vols. 4, 5, 6 and 8 are evidently scroll entries of burgesses, guild-brethren and 'prentices. These have been only partly written up in the court books. Vols. 1, 2, 3 and 7, which are very carefully written, contain no entries of 'prentice bookings.

² And afterwards more than once provost.

NOTES ON BURGESS ROLL, 1701-1760.

The dates quoted in the Burgess Roll of the admission of a burgess or guild brother by the Town Council are frequently incorrect, and sometimes cannot be traced. A number of those admitted by the Council were never admitted by the Dean of Guild and his court; their names are not on the register, and consequently do not appear in the MS. Index. Occasionally a burgess is admitted by the Guild Court by an act of Council passed some time after! Nor was admission by the Town Council promptly followed by that of the Guild Council—we find, for instance, Wm. Lumsdain was admitted by the Town Council 5 Sept. 1744—and only six years later, 12 Oct. 1750, did the Guild Council admit him. John Russel, writer to the signet, admitted by the Town Council 5 Aug. 1741, became B. and G. only on 15 Sept. 1749, after eight years' delay, while Dr. Robert Hay waited for nearly ten years, from 28 May 1740 to 10 Jan. 1750, ere he became a "freeman."

But the apprentices were far more dilatory.

Robert Thomson, skinner, entered p. 18 July 1711, burgess 18 Feb. 1747.

John Somervail, wright, entered p. 3 Mar. 1797, burgess 11 Feb. 1736.

Robert Young, wright, entered p. 25 Oct. 1682, burgess 19 Sept. 1722.

Robert Tod, wright, entered p. 18 July and 22 Aug. 1705, burgess 7 Mar. 1750.

Evidently there was no advantage to be gained by early admission.

The same may be noticed in the case of guild brethren, entering sometimes long after admission as burgesses.

It is quite evident that despite all the care taken in entering apprentices, burgesses and guild brethren, omissions have occurred. We find men admitted burgesses as apprentices who are not entered in the apprentice roll; or others entered by right of a father burgess, whom we seek in vain in the burgess roll.

Occasionally the Council passed a second act admitting some one as B. and G., apparently forgetting that this had been done already.

Admission as a burgess and guild brother without payment of dues—"gratis"—was in many cases purely complimentary, and conferred no rights or privileges, unless particularly specified.

In some cases it was granted "for good service done," such as the admission of Wm. Blair, gratis, "for good service done at the late fire in the head of the West Bow (29 Sept. 1710)

In at least one case the widow of a burgess and guild brother seems to have conferred the right of admission on her second husband. See Thomas Esplaine, 30 Aug. 1710.

Note.—The form of the entry in the Minutes of Town Council differs occasionally so far from that in the Burgess Roll as to make it worth while to note both. Where no "right of admission" is mentioned, the admission is by payment as exigible from an "unfreeman."

The paucity of cutlers within the city may be gauged by the entry of Robert Boog, 26 Apr. 1748, when there was "no quorum of their craft within the city," and the Town Council had to assume the responsibility.

Chairmasters seem to have been admitted invariably on payment of the dues as unfreemen. They served no apprenticeship, and, curiously enough, seem to have had no right by parentage or marriage.

19 Mar. 1701.—Act discharging unfree traders to keep shops, cellars, etc. for selling wares, drink; also prohibiting burgesses to keep more shops or cellars than one, contrary to law; offenders' shops to be shut and themselves amerced at the discretion of Dean of Gild and Council.

11 Apr. 1701.—“The same day the Council taking to their serious consideration the great prejudice the old burgesses and their children and these that have served their ‘prenticeship or have bought their freedom in this cittie doe daylie sustaine by gratis burgesses who oft times doe make moyen with one or other of the Council to get a gratis burges tickett upon designe either to get a place or to get their children put in Heriott’s Hospitall or themselves into the Trinity Hospitall or both—which does much prejudice, etc.” No gratis burges ticket shall henceforth entitle to these privileges.

21 May 1701.—All gratis burgesses must compear before the Dean of Gild and his Council and take the oaths before extracting of the burges ticketts.

27 June 1701.—Act of Council in favour of the freemen burgesses.

The following acts were exhibited, and appointed to be intimate yearly by tuck of drum, against abuses committed by unfree persons in the land mercat and elsewhere, viz. :—Act of

8 May 1607 ;

16 July 1647 ;

17 Oct. 1656 ;

14 Feb. 1688,

forbidding hawking at private houses except on the market day, viz. Wednesday, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., between the Weigh-house and the Luckenbooths. None allowed to sit down in front of the stands but must take stands for themselves. No retailers (hucksters) allowed, only makers of what they sell. No one allowed to keep unsold goods within the town. The bailie of the Butter Mercat empowered to put this into effect.

25 Feb. 1702.—John Kerbie admitted burges—“hattmaker ; full rights granted on payment of dues of apprentice in respect of his singular airt in making of hatts and weaving,” by act of C.

M.T.C., 18 Mar. 1702.—“The same day the Council prohibits and discharges the Incorporation of the Baikers and other Incorporations of this city in all tyme coming to communicat the freedom of the trade to any in the head of the Cannogate or any other place within this burgh but to such who are burgesses, and appoynts the several corporations to cause record thir presents in their respective books and return ane extract of the same to the Council.”

30 June 1702.—“The same day the Lord Dean of Gild and his Council in obedience to the Act of the Lords of her Maj. Privie Council anent the takeing the oath of alleadgeance and subscriyveing the same with the assurance to her Maj., did accordingly take and subscriyve the same.”

26 June 1702.—“Anthony Leureux, french hatter, gives in a petition shewing that he, being admitted ane freeman in the Incorporation of the Hatt-makers, upon a gratis burges tickett, from the Council, upon the account of his singular art in making of hatts : and having as a freeman applied to the Dean of Gild and his Council for booking ane apprentice, they refused the same, in respect of his gratis burges tickett, and therefor craving the Council to ordaine his apprentice to be received and booked seeing he payed ane valuable consideration to the Incorporation of the Hattmakers. Which being considered be the Council, they appoynt the Dean of Gild and his Council to admit and receive the petitioner to be burges of this burgh for payment of the dues of ane apprentice in respect he served his apprenticeship to ane hattmaker, and his master neglected to book him.” (The ‘prentice in question was David, s. to John Leurie, cupper in France, who entered as ‘prentice the same day, 15 July.) (15 July 1702.)

7 Aug. 1702.—Thomas Halkston and Robert Anderson, maltmen, to be censured and punished by the Dean of Gild and his court for exercising the imployment of maltmen and brewers in Leith, being neither burgesses nor having licenses for that effect.

24 Sept. 1703.—Gratis burgess tickets to continue only five years—owing to rejudice to traders.

12 Apr. 1704.—Chamberlain, and successors in office, ordained to pay the clerks servants for writing burges tickets:—

Where names and titles are gilded in capitals,	-	-	£3 : 10/-
Where names and titles are not gilded in capitals,	-	-	40/-
Burgesses, valid for five years,	-	-	20/-

9 Jan. 1705.—“Patrick Wilkie and Archibald Hamilton, merchants in Leith, be thir presents binds and oblidges them and each of them while they live or reseid in Leith that they shall not hereafter deall in forraigne trade under the penalty of fyve hundred merks Scots to be payde be each of them in caise of failyie attour being oblidged imediately thereafter to come and reseid at Edr.”

28 Sept. 1705.—The Dean of Gild and his Council grants libertie and lincence to Mrs. Marie Edwards and Mrs. Alice Murray, housekeeper to the Dutches douger of Argyle, to keep publick shops within the citie and to sell therein all maner of merchant ware in use to be sold be burgesses and gild brethren, and that during their being unmarried, conforme to an act of Councill of the dait of thir presents.”

Note.—6 Sept. 1706.—John Jeffrey, combmaker, allowed to trade and merchandise within the good town all the days of his life.

7 Jan. 1708.—“The Councill grants liberty and lincence to Alexr. Pringle, flesher, and his spouse to trade during all the days of their life as an (sic) burges, and that for payment of three pound sterling.”

8 Sept. 1708.—“The same day the Councill authorised and appointed John Mirrie, present deacon conveener, to sell an burges and guild brother ticket to the best advantage to any person he thinks fitt. The price whereof to be applied by him for the behooff of the Trads Maiden Hospitall, and the Councill declared the person's admission to be as valid and effectual to him as if he had payed the same composition to the Dean of Guild.”

22 Sept. 1708.—“Richard Watkins, merchant, compeiring is mad burges of this burgh and gave his oath, etc. and payed to the Dean of Gild fourty two pounds scottis money in satisfaction of the dewes conforme to ane act of the toun council of the date of thir presents.”

29 July 1752.—Benjamin Ramage, p. to Adam Watkins, H.M. Printer and Stationer for Scotland, B. In the privately printed “Reminiscences” (p. xxxv) of Charles Cowan of Logan House, ex-M.P., speaking of the paper mills at Valleyfield, Penicuik, he says, “they were occasionally possessed and wrought by the King's printer of the day. There is a tradition in the parish that a King's printer, named Watkins, about the middle of last (i.e. 18th) century met with a very appalling death. He had been a very godless man, and one Sunday he had been walking with a friend towards Pennicuik House during the hours of divine service, when a storm of thunder and lightning suddenly set in; he blasphemously defied the power of the Almighty, and was immediately struck down dead. It created a great sensation in the congregation, who were informed of the death by the officiating minister before the close of the service.”

4 May 1709.—Chamberlain appointed to pay to Mr. John James Caesar, an German minister Calvinist and of the Presbyterian persuasion, the sum of twenty pound sterling for a help to the upholding of the German congregation and meeting of the said persuasion at London.

10 Aug. 1709.—“The Councill granted liberty and lincence to Sarah Dalrymple, daughter to Charles Dalrymple of Waterside, to use her trade of jappanning as a burges of this city all the days of her lifetime and her continuing unmarried. Providing always she imploy the freemen of this city for the timber work.”

27 July 1709.—“The Council upon an Presentation from James Lowis of Merchistoun, nearest of kin and heir of lyne to the deceased David M'Call, merchant burges of Edinburgh, nominating and presenting Sir John Sibbald, son to the deceast Sir David Sibbald, late of Rankeelore, to be an member in the Trinity Hospitall at the foot of Leith Wynd during all the days of his life. And considering there was none presented these twenty years bygone by the said James Lewis and that none shall be presented by him for the space of twenty years to come in the terms of the said David M'Call his Mortification to the said Hospitall, Therefore the Councill appointed the present Masters or Treasurers of the said Trinity Hospitall to receive and intertain the said Sir John Sibbald as a member thereof. He always bringing alongst with him an sufficient feather bed and bedding of cloaths and granting an Disposition omnium bonorum in favours of the said Hospitall."

9 Sept. 1709.—"The Councill with the extraordinary deacons in consideration of the great pains and trouble that Baillie Archibald Cockburn, water baillie of Leith, has been at about the ships coming from the East Countrey and Dantzic, did grant to him a burges and guild brother ticket to such a friend as he shall name, dispensing with the dues and for the reasons forsaid declare that the said ticket should be as effectual to him as if he had payed the whole dues in use to be payed by an unfreeman."

14 Sept. 1709.—The Councill appoint the Dean of Guild and his Councill to refund to David Mowat dues paid for B. and G. ticket.

16 Sept. 1709.—"The Councill authorised and impowered Robert Mowbray, present deacon conveyer, to sell an burges and guild brother ticket to the best advantage to any person he thinks fitt, the price whereof to be applyed for the behooff of the Trades and Mary Erskine their Maiden Hospitall."

"The same day the Councill authorised and impowered Baillie George Lind, master of the Maiden Company, to sell an burges and guild brother ticket to the best advantage to any person he thinks fitt, the price whereof to be employed for the behooff of the Merchants and Mary Erskine their Maiden Hospitall."

21 Dec. 1709.—"The Councill authorised and appointed Mr. Alexr. Nisbett, present deacon conveyer, to sell an burges and guild brother ticket to the best advantage to any person he thinks fitt, the price whereof to be applyed by him for the behooff of the Trades and Mary Erskine their Maiden Hospitall."

7 Feb. 1711.—"The Magistrates reported that there being a complaint exhibite before them as justices of her Majesties's peace at the instance of Alexr. Knox, late deacon of the furriers, against Thomas Vint and James M'Culloch, skimmers, burgesses of the Burgh, John Kennedy, apprentice to the deceast John Somervell, skinner, and late servitor to the said Alexr. Knox, and Wm. Baillie, apprentice to the sd. Alexr. for stealing and resetting the sd. Alexr. his goods, and the samen being found proven the Magistrates by their decreit the fifth day of January last recommended that their names be expunged out of the Books of the Dean of Gild Court and Books of the Incorporation of Skinners and Furriers, to the effect they may not have the freedom of the Burgh. Which being considered be the Council they appointed the Dean of Gild and his Councill to call for James Vint and James M'Culloch their burges tickets and cause close up their chopdoors and mark the recalling of their admission in the gild books as also the booking of the sd. prentices, and appointed the Deacons and Masters of the Incorporation of the Skinners and Furriers to expunge the sd. persons' names out of their books."

14 Mar. 1711.—"The court conforme to the Councill's Act 7 Feb. last ordaines the clarkes to score the booking the admission of Thomas Vinte and James M'Culloch, skimmers, burgesses, which was done accordingly."

16 May 1711.—"The same day the Councill authorised and impowered William Livingston, present deacon conveyer, to sell an burges and gild brother ticket to the best advantage to any person he thinks fitt the price whereof to be applyed be him for the behoof of the Trades and Mary Esplin (sic) their Maiden Hospital, and the Councill declared the sd. person his admission to be as valid and sufficient to him as if he had payed the composition to the Dean of Gild for the time being." The same grant made to Bailie Henry Hathorn, master of the Merchant Company.

21 Nov. 1711.—The Dean of Guild represented to the Council that in obedience to their appointment, 7 Feb. last, he caused call for Thomas Vint and James M'Culloch their burgess tickets, and also caused close up their chop doors and mark the recalling of their admissions in the Dean of Gild Books. But since the said Thomas Vint has at his own hand without any licence either of the Council or Dean of Gild Court opened his chop and exercised his employment as formerly, upon which the said Dean of Gild caused close up his chop of new again. Upon which the said Thomas Vint has raised summonds of reduction and improbation and by vertue thereof caused sumond the said Dean of Gild to compear before the Lord of Council and Session, and therefore the Dean of Guild desired the Council might stand by and defend him in what he had done, in the said matter by their appointment. The Council approved of the Dean of Gild's procedure, and appointed their lawyers and agent to be employed to defend him upon the Town's expenses.

28 Apr. 1712.—The Merchant Company complain of evils arising from false and improper designations given to persons admitted as burgesses and guild brethern. The Council ordain that no one be admitted until his claim be openly read and approved by Dean of Guild and his Council, and that his particular business be designed in his burges ticket, and a full record kept.

25 June 1712.—(George Bailie).—The Maiden Hospital was in 1695 founded by the craftsmen of Edinburgh and Mary Erskine, relict of James Hair, druggist, burgess of Edinburgh, she being "the first who projected and destined funds for Maiden Hospitals in the City of Edinburgh." She accordingly bears the Title of the Founder of the Hospital, and it is provided that two of the name of Erskine shall be for ever governours thereof, named in the first instance by herself—these two being (probably as relatives) the notorious Master James Erskine of Grange, Senator of the College of Justice, who marooned his mad wife in St. Kilda, and Master David Erskine, advocate. The governors, by grant from the Town Council, enjoyed the right of nominating one man annually for admission as a burgess gratis.

29 Aug. 1712.—Master of the Merchant Company authorised to sell one burgess and guild brother ticket, the price to be applied for the behoof of the Merchants and Mary Arskin their Maiden Hospital.

29 Aug. 1712.—The deacon convener authorised to sell a burgess and guild brother ticket.

21 Oct. 1713.—Wm. Thomson payed his dues as prentiss to John Donald, poultryman, but his master's burgess ticket not being to show, his booking is delayed till he produce the same. Thereafter booked.

28 Oct. 1713.—Master of Merchant Coy. authorised to sell one B. and G. ticket for behoof of the Merchants and Mary Arskin their Maiden Hospittle.

28 Oct. 1713.—Deaconveener (sic) authorised to sell one B. and G. ticket for behoof of the Trades and Mary Arskin their Hospittle.

4 Nov. 1713.—"John Kay, workman in weigh-house, judicially being accused for buying with a large weight and selling by a lesser, acknowledged the same. Wherefore the Dean of Gild and Council fynes in twenty shilling sterling and he present obliges himself to pay the same on demand and that he shall never commit the like in tyme coming directly or indirectly under the pain of forty pounds Scots. Declares he cannot wryte." (A scrawl seems to indicate an attempt at a guided signature.)

10 June 1715.—The Master and also the Convener of the Merchant Company each allowed to sell one B. and G. ticket.

31 Aug. 1715.—Act discharging burgh tickets to be sold by Magistrates to fleshers, which is injurious to the customs of the House of Muir, also discharging Dean of Gild to book any burgh tickets that shall be sold to fleshers.

9 Nov. 1715.—There is no entry between 28 Sept. and 9 Nov., due probably to the "rising."

24 Feb. 1716.—A great batch, chiefly military men, were made burghesses and guild brethren in ample form. These were evidently concerned with the suppression of the "Rebels" of 1715.

6 June 1716.—Sale of burgh ticket granted to Master of Merchant Coy., for good of Merchants and Mary Erskin their Maiden Hospl.

Also to deacon convener of Trades.

20 June 1716.—Authority to late deacon of chirurgians to sell one burgh and gild brother ticket for behoof of the Trades and Mary Erskin their Maiden Hospital.

7 Sept. 1716.—"The Council upon report of Robert Craig, Dean of Gild, and considering that the eight tickets given to the magistrates yearly being derogative to the credit of the good toun, and prejudiciall to the Dean of Gild and his Court, for preventing whereof it is statut and ordained that from and after Mertemas next the Dean of Gild for the tyme being pay to the Lord Provost two hundred pound yearly and to each of the other Magistrates one hundred pounds Scots yearly in lew of their tickets. And siclyke statut and ordained that from and after the said terme the Council dispose of burges and gild brother tickets at the rate following, viz. : each burges and gild brother ticket not under two hundred merks and each singall burges ticket not under one hundred merks Scots money."

26 Oct. 1716.—Table of dues for the weigh-houses of Edinburgh and Leith. Unfreemen pay twice what burghesses pay.

22 Mar. 1717.—Act of Council, in view of abuses in persons, other than burghesses, keeping shops, etc., that in future any one wishing to be made a burges, and having right thereto, must enter within three years after their minority, or marriage, or expiry of apprenticeship, otherwise they shall lose the right, and also pay twenty pounds Scots for each year they shall so trade.

Farther that no women, other than widows or daughters of burghesses, shall be allowed to keep shops, and this in special view of the fact that so many servants quit service and open shops, causing dearth of servants and unfair competition.

And farther, that no one be eligible for any office, which necessitates guild brotherhood, unless he be already a guild brother.

12 June 1717.—Mr. Wm. Aikman of Cairnie made B. and G., gratis, for painting three framed pictures (duly paid for!) of King George, King William, and Queen Mary.

14 June 1717.—"The Councel grants warrand to their clerk to sign and transmitt to My Lord Provost at London eight burges and gild brother tickets blank in the names and designations to be disposed of by his Lordship to such of the good toun's friends as his Lordship shall think fitt. And recommends to Bailie Hope to writt to his Lordship to keep an list of the persons names and designations in order to be recorded."

16 Oct. 1717.—"Grissell Pillans is impowered to trade within the citty as ane burges and gild brother thereof dureing her single lyfe and virginity for payment of ane hundred merkes Scotts money conforme to ane act of Council of the date of their presents, and the Court declare that in case she shall marry ane husband who hes not right to enter burges and gild brother other ways then by composition that this composition shall be imputed in part payment thereof."

The same day Margaret Nash is admitted on the same footing, "she behaving herself as becomes, and paying taxes and bearing burdens with the other burghesses and gild brethren."

29 Nov. 1717.—“It being moved that Isaac Queen being a Jew was incapable of being invested with the right of burges and gild brother and to enjoy the priviledges consequentiall thereto, yet that for the benefit of the toun he paying a hundred pound he might be endowed durement his life with the priviledge of using and exercising any trade merchandise or employment within this city and libertys thereof, and he being present and payd the sd. hundred pound the motion was approved of and that priviledge granted accordingly.”

16 Oct. 1717.—Walter Kyll or Kyle, mt., who entered 'prentice 19 Oct. 1616, made B. and G. on his paying so much in respect of his setting up a shop before the expiry of his indentures.

16 July 1718.—In consequence of a petition given in by the maltmen and brewers of Leith against unfreemen who have taken up the trade of brewing in Leith, underselling the legitimate brewers, and encouraging smuggling and hidden trade, the Town Council discharge all persons other than burgesses of Edinburgh and incorporate maltsters of Leith to take up or carry on the trade of brewing in Leith, under pain of one hundred merks Scots. A number of unfree brewers in Leith entered burgesses of Edinburgh accordingly.

10 Sept. 1718.—£200 Scots paid to Treasurer of the Merchant Maidens Hospital, and £100 Scots to the deacon convener of Trades, in lieu of compliment of disposal of two and one burges tickets respectively, as was the custom formerly.

17 Sept. 1718.—The Council ordains that the Lord Provost, four bailies, Dean of Guild and Treasurer wear black velvet coats as a garb of distinction during their office, and that the sum of ten pounds stg. be paid to each of the four bailies, Dean of Guild and Treasurer before their quitting office in place of the burges tickets formerly given them and of the one hundred pounds Scots which has been paid to them lately in lieu of these tickets, upon condition that they have worn velvet coats during their term of office as ordained: in case of failure to do so, the ten pounds sterling shall be paid to the Treasurers of the Merchants and Trades Maiden Hospitals in equal portions, power being granted to sue for same in law.

15 Apr. 1719.—The children of poor relations of George Heriot declared by act of Council virtually burgesses and freemen, so that they may be chosen and admitted into his Hospital; propinquity to be proved.

22 July 1719.—“Edinburgh, the twenty-second day of July one thousand seven hundred and nynteen years. The which day the Council appointed the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receive John Law, Lord and Earle of Tankervell, Director Generall of the Royall Bank and Indian Company of the Kingdom of France, to be burges and gild brother be right of John Law of Lauriston, burges and gild brother, his father. Dispensing with the dues.”

22 July 1719.—John Law, Lord and Earl of Tankerville. This is not the Tankerville family of Bennet, at Chillingham, but its namesake in France on the river Seine.

In “Les Ecossais en France” (Francisque-Michel), 1862, Vol. II, p. 423, speaking of this famous John Law, the author states that the Laws of Lauriston are not the direct descendants of the financier. “Cette famille est issue du frère de l’inventeur du système, qui l’avait rejoint en France et fut compris avec lui. La Duchesse de Bourbon fit placer les deux neveux de John Law au service dans les Indes orientales. L’aîné, Jacques François Law, comte de Tancarville, devint chevalier de Saint Louis, etc.” He adds a note on “Tancarville”:—“Cette terre venait, à ce qu’il paraît, de John Law. Dangeau écrit dans son Journal, à la date du 31 août 1718. ‘On dit que le comte d’Evreux a vendu la terre de Tancarville à M. Law, qui lui en donne 650,000 livres et une pension viagère de 6000 francs.’”

In the letterpress of Turner’s “Rivers of France” (published by J. M’Cormick, 147 Strand, London, N.D. Letterpress in both French and English), the note on the front view of the Castle states that "a portion of the building is comparatively new having been built by the celebrated projector, Law, who, immediately after he had bought the property for eight hundred thousand francs, was obliged to fly the kingdom." He died in obscurity and poverty in Venice, his grave is in the church of San Moïse.

22 July 1719.—Sir Archibald Primrose of Dunipace.

In 1661 Sir John Foulis of Ravelston md. Margaret, dr. of Sir Archd. Primrose of Dunipace, half-sister of Archd., 1st Earl of Roseberry.

Their son and heir, George, assumed the name of Primrose on succeeding to the estate of Dunipace, but was evidently known popularly by his patronymic, Foulis, as in this entry.

The Sir Archibald, now made B. and G., was executed at Carlisle, 5 Nov. 1746, for his adherence to the Stewart family in the rising of the '45.

23 Oct. 1734.—Brigadier Moyle to be entertained at his admission as burgess and guild brother of this city.

5 Feb. 1735.—“An honorary burgess ticket to Alexr. Montgomerie, dated 2 Aug. last, was produced by Dean of Gild Simpson, and upon a motion made by him, was cancelled, in respect that there was a misnomination of the person. The person intended by the Marquis of Lothian, late Commissioner to the General Assembly, to have had the foresaid ticket being James Scot, tayler in Edinburgh, and therefore the Dean of Gild and his Council were appointed to admit and receive the said James Scot to be a honorary burgess of this city in common form.”

29 Aug. 1735.—Paid one pound ten shillings stg. for the three trumpeters attending the Duke of Buccleugh being made burgess.

19 Nov. 1735.—The Council considering that as there are several processes now in dependance before the Court of Session whereto the city is a party which may occasion an appeal to the House of Lords, whence it is expedient that counsellors at London, learned in law, ought to be timeously retained by the city. Did therefore resolve that William Murray, Esq., be accordingly retained, and that Provost Lindsay do the same.

2 Feb. 1737.—Owing to the great number of applications for relief from persons only recently admitted as burgesses, the Council resolve that no demands of this nature shall be remitted to the committee of younger date than seven years.

(Minutes of Town Council.) 8 June 1737.—The Hon. Sir John Barnard, one of the members of Parliament for the city of London, B. and G., gratis, for good services. A silver box to be made for the burgess ticket, and to be transmitted to Sir John in London.

19 July 1738.—Committe appointed to revise and examine the rates of upsets and entries of burgesses and gild brethren and report how much the same ought to be increased.

1 Feb. 1740.—“Considering that the Rt. Honble. James, Earle of Murray, has made a present of forty pounds sterling to be distributed towards relief of the poor of this city and Canongate, which Treasurer Shairp has received and wherewith he is to debit himself, therefore (the Council) did appoint the Dean of Gild and his Council to admit and receive the said Earl of Murray and the Honble. Francis and Henry Stewarts, his bretheren german, to be burgesses and gild bretheren of this city in most ample form.”

6 Feb. 1740.—“Reported by the Lord Provost that the Earl of Hopeton and his son Lord Hope have made a present of one hundred pounds sterling to be distributed to the poor of this city as the Magistrates thought proper for their relief in this rigorous season, and that his Lordship had returned the said noble Earl and his son a letter of thanks.” (Both made honorary burgesses and gild brethren.)

6 Feb. 1740.—Charles Hope Weir of Craigiehall. Of the great Hope family, second son of the 1st Earl of Hopetoun, married 26 July 1733 Catharine, only dr. and heir of Sir Wm. Weir of Blackwood, Lanarkshire. Their eldest son, William, took the name of Hope-Vere.

8 Sept. 1742.—Eleanor Aitkinson, spouse to Daniel Forbes, writer, is licentiat to trade within this city dureing her life, she having paid to the Dean of Gild one hundred merks Scots money for her said liberty." (Margin, "Mrs. Forbes, £1:11:14.")

Eccles, doctor of physick, B. and G., although the Dean of Gild had "demurred to make the petitioner burges and gild brother in right of his wife because she dyed some few months before the petitioner's application without authority from the Town Council." Precedent quoted of Mr. Walter Heart, 1 Feb. 1723. This privileged not to be granted to any one hereafter.

8 Feb. 1744.—"The Council enact, statute and ordain that in time coming such as shall neglect to enter in right of their wives during their lifetimes shall not upon their offering to enter afterwards be entitled to any abatement of the ordinary dues in use to be paid by unfreemen." This arose from the case of Thomas Kyd, q.v.

11 Sept. 1745.—The Dean of Gild Council met for the last time before the interruption caused by Prince Charles Edward's capture of the city. David Nevey's is the last name entered as burges and gild brother. The box was opened, and five pounds stg. taken out and entrusted to the Dean of Gild.

The court was constituted anew by the Lords of Council and Session 6 Aug. 1746, as recorded in the Burgess Register, viz. :

6 Aug. 1746.—"At Edinburgh the sixth day of August one thousand seven hundred and forty-six years. The which day in obedience to ane act and warrand of the Right Honble. the Lords of Council and Session, dated the thirty-first day of July last, recorded amongst the minuts of proceedings of the Gild Court nominating and appointing Thomas Allan, Dean of Gild, Hugh Hathorn, old Dean of Gild, and George Gray, merchants, Samuel Neilson and Charles Mack, masons, and James Herriot, wright, to exerce the power and office of Dean of Gild and Councill for the purposes and to the effect therein mentioned.

Sederunt—Thomas Allan, Dean of Gild.
Hugh Hathorn, O.D.G.

George Drummond, Esq., Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh, Robert Montgomery, William Hamilton, John Brown and Andrew Wardrop, baillies of the said city, Thomas Allan, Dean of Gild, and the Gild Council, and hereby is invested with the freedom of this city as a testimony of their grateful sense of the glorious services done by his Royal Highness to his Sacred Majesty and the British Nation in happily crushing the late detestable Rebellion, giving a total overthrow to the rebels in the memorable Battell of Culloden, restoring the publick tranquillity, making way for the free exercise of government in this city, securing the trade liberties and laws of Great Britain, and transmitting to posterity along with the immortal honours of a young hero the invaluable blessings enjoyed under the auspicious reigns of the Protestant Princes of the illustrious House of Hanover,—conform to an act of the Town Council of the date the 3rd day of January last, 1747, and the seal of the city affixt."

1 Apr. 1747.—"Act investing His Royal Highness William, Duke of Cumberland, with the freedom of the city of Edinburgh." ("The Butcher.") (An ominous day !)

21 Mar. 1748. — The Town Council recommended to the Lord Provost to present Mr. Thorntoun of Cattlehall with the freedom of the city, and to entertain him on that occasion at the city's expense.

1 July 1748. — Captains and others of the East India Company's squadron, to be admitted burghesses and gild brethren gratis. Marked E.I.C. in entries.

8 Nov. 1749. — (The Town Council) appointed the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receav George Walker, Esquire, Commodore of the late squadron of private ships of war called the Royall family, to be burges and gild brother of this city in the most ample form.

(From Minutes of Town Council.) — 11 July 1750. — "Anent the petition given in by John M'Hardie, mert., lawfull son procreat betwixt the deceast John M'Hardie, writer in Edinr., and Jean Jollie, his spouse, lawfull daur. to the deceast John Jollie, mert. burges of Edinbr., setting furth that the petitioner's father haveing gone abroad soon after his marriage in order to push his fortune was very suddenly carried off by a feavor before he had any opportunity of returning home. That if the petitioner's farther had settled in this place he had a right by his wife to have entered a burges, that the petitioner intending to carry on business as a mert. he hop't the council notwithstanding his father's ommission would allow him to enter in right of his grandfather and to authorise the Dean of Gild to admit him accordingly, more especially as the petitioner by the mother's side is descended of a very ancient race of burghesses and has also a right to enter by his wife as the petition bears. Which haveing been read in Council the same was remitt to a committee of their number and they to report. Accordingly this Day Baillie Robert Baillie from the said committee reported that they haveing considered the said petition, and altho' the petitioner's father neglected or att least by his sudden death was prevented from entering in right of his wife yett as the petitioner himself has right to enter by his wife, lawfull daur. to Charles M'Hardie, mert. That therefor the Dean of Gild and his Council should be ordered to admitt the petitioner a burges and gild brother in right of his grandfather, by which no manner of loss is sustained by the city as the fees of entering in both cases are the same as the report under the hands of the Committee bears. Which haveing been considered by the Magistrates and Council they with the extra'ry deacons approved of the said report and ordered the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receive the petitioner to be burges and gild brother of this city in the right of John Jollie, mt., his grandfather, dispensing with his father's ommission. Whereanent ane extract of these presents shall be a warrant."

20 Nov. 1751. — "Mr. Sands, City Treasurer, represented that the indentures entered into with James M'Crabie as ane apprentice with the city's cassway layers being now expired, and as the overseer of the city's publick works informs that M'Crabie is pretty much master of his business and that the toun will have occasion for his service farther. That James Pirrie, son to James Pirrie, a souldier in the garrison of Edinbr. Castle, was willing to enter into indentures on the like termes with M'Crabie, wherefor the Treasurer desired the Council's directions in what is above represented. Which being considered they ordered the treasurer to give M'Crabie a declaration with respect to his haveing faithfully served the city during the years of his indentures upon M'Crabie's acknowledging that he is fully satisfied and paid of his wages. Also they agreed to continue M'Crabie in the city's service as a casswaylayer and to give him the ordinary wages during the Council's pleasure. And they authorised the Treasurer to enter into indentures in behalf of the city with the said James Pirrie on the like conditions with M'Crabie."

7 Dec. 1751. — "Appointed the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receive Dougall Young, weaver, to be burges of this city, dispensing with the dues in consideration of his ingenuity in contriving a loom for weaving heron nets."

18 June 1755.—“Mr. David Flint, old Dean of Gild, represented he was well informed that Richard Beckford, esquire, Member of Parliament for the City of Bristol, had been generously pleased to signify that he was to give two hundred pounds Jamaica currency annually for the four ensuing years in order to promote the exportation of linnen made in Scotland from the Port of Leith. Therefore moved the Council that they would be pleased as a mark of their gratitude for this singular favour to the country and to the City of Edinburgh in particular to order a burges ticket, for Mr. Beckford, and to recommend to the city's member when he goes next to Parliament to deliver it himself with the Council's best compliments. Which having been considered by the Magistrates and Council, they appointed the Dean of Gild and his Council to admit and receive the said Richard Beckford a burges and gild brother of this city, dispensing with the Dues for the good services done by him to the interest thereof. Whereanent these presents shall be a warrant.”

18 July 1755.—Philip Yorke, Lord Royston (b. 30 Dec. 1722, d. 20 Jan. 1770), afterwards 2nd Earl of Harwick, and (1770) Lord High Chancellor, was the eldest son of Philip, 1st Earl of Hardwick, by Margaret Cocks.

The entry in the Burgess Roll reads:—18 July 1755.—“The which Day the Right Honble. George Drummond, Esq., Lord Provost [of] the City of Edinburgh, James Stuart, Robert Forrester, George Lind and John Learmonth, baillies of the said city, James Grant, Dean of Gild, and the Gild Council, did and hereby do invest with the freedom of this city Philip, Lord Roystoun, in testimony of their grateful sense of the many eminent services done to Great Britain by The Right Honble. Philip, Earl of Hardwick, Lord Chancellor, and his Lordship's particular attention to the improvement of this part of the United Kingdom, conform to an act of the Town Council of this date.”

(The said act is much more concise.)

Among the “eminent services” were the Earl's presiding at the trial of the Jacobite peers after Culloden, in which capacity he must bear large responsibility for the cruelly vengeful verdicts pronounced and executed. It was due to him that the act was passed in 1748, for disarming the Highlands and making the wearing of the kilt a criminal offence. The abolition of “Hereditary Jurisdictions” in 1746 must, however, be put to his credit.

Note.—2 Feb. 1757.—Gilson, Mr. Cornforth, B. and G., gratis, “for the eminent services done by him to this city by improving the taste of the inhabitants in church music.” He was appointed precentor of the new church 13 Mar. 1757, with £5 above the other precentors, teaching them and the church music schools.
