Certain Warehouseman being in doubt as to how and where to have his circulars addressed, wrote to six different to refer him to the right quarter. Imagine his surprise, on opening their replies, to find that five of them recommended Wilson & Compy. Sy Jamaica Street, and four of them added a special recommendation; two for punctuality and accuracy, one for speed, and one "for the remarkable way in which they interpret your instructions, and carry them out to the very letter, no matter how complicated." "PREFERRED" DEWSPAPERS.

HE Newspapers published in the United Kingdom number 224. Of course, even the most liberal Advertiser would find it difficult to deal with all of these, so we have adopted the plan of preparing Lists of preferred Papers, or those only we can best recommend. There may be local reasons for inducing special Advertisers to patronise particular Newspapers but even then our seventeen years experience enables us to pick ant the Newspaper, the Class, or the District most renumerative to the Advertiser.

Note. We do not allure Advertisers with "long lists" of so-called "cheap" papers of no circulation or influence—sometimes not even in existence, except as the duplicate of another differing—only in title—All the Papers on our Lists are selected as being representative having a good circulation, and are in every case the best.

WE own and control various Lists and combinations of Newspapers, Magazines, &c., for which we solicit and receive Advertisements in the capacity of principals, and not as brokers or agents.

THE following paragraphs are copied from a work recently published in London, entitled "GLASGOW OF TO-DAY: Historical, Statistical, and Biographical."

Mr. Alexander Riley, Merchant Tailor, Shirt Manufacturer, Hosier, Glover, and Foreign Outfitter, 42 Gordon Street.

"This house was founded in 1868, and removed to the present address from Argyle Street, in 1886. The premises now occupied consist of a handsome shop comprising showrooms and well-appointed and spacinus workrooms. The whole depôt has a fine street frontage. The total staff employed in all the departments numbers about forty hands. The stock, which is very large, is composed entirely of gentlemen's clothing, dress shirts, and hosiery of the very best and finest quality. In the former department the leading specialities are trousers, business suits, tress suits, and overcoats; in the latter 'hygienic hosiery.' All the hygienic goods are made specially for this house in the well-known town of Hawick.

"Mr. Riley manufactures the 'Corona' shirt, which is pronounced by competent authorities to be the latest and most perfect form of dress shirt. . .

"This house took the lead some years ago in bringing about the cash system for high-class clothing, which it has steadily maintained ever since. The trade extends all over Glasgow and the surrounding districts, and is particularly well established among the aristocracy and the upper strata of society generally. It is well known among his patrons that whatever Mr. Riley undertakes will be done well, and his prestige in the commercial world at large is such as entitles him to the respect of all his trade colleagues in the city."

PREFACE.

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-three years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the Second City of the Empire, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs (see page 31), as ascertained by the Census taken on 5th April, 1891, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1890-91, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1891. At pages 74 to 97 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number at the end its registration district. In the large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, great care as usual has been taken in showing the various new streets that have been formed since last issue. Rutherglen, Burnside, Cathkin Park and Braes, Cathcart (Old and New), and Pollokshaws, are now also included, and the various underground railway stations are marked by an asterisk. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, together with the members of Parliament for the Burgh or Division in which they are placed, viz.—Bearsden, Bishopbriggs, Bothwell, Cambuslang, Cathcart, Lenzie, Maryhill, Millerston, Milngavie, Pollokshaws, Rutherglen, Shettleston, Tollcross, and Uddingston, and will be found following the City Directory proper. The population of these places as taken at the Census of 1891, is also shown, as far as could be ascertained at the date of going to press. The other suburban districts are now incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

GUARANTEES AGAINST FRAUD AND EMBEZZLEMENT.

Employers can receive absolute security for any loss they may sustain through the dishonesty of their Employés.

Every proposal is considered by the Directors on its own merits, and the previous character, length of service, and personal circumstances of the Proposer, together with the nature of the check employed, are regarded in determining the premium required.

The Rates of Premium also vary according to the duties to be performed and the degrees of responsibility to be involved.

COLLECTIVE BONDS.

By means of these Employers are now enabled to guarantee in one Policy the fidelity of their entire Staff for an individual sum upon each Employé, varying in amount according to the responsibility of his position; thus obviating the necessity for procuring numerous individual Policies, and reducing the trouble involved to a minimum. Alterations in the Staff can be covered, and the amount of guarantee increased by endorsement on the Policy.

Rates for risks may be ascertained on application to the General Manager, or any of the Agents of the Company.

The Premiums are reduced by Bonus Allowance on Renewal.

The Bonds of this Company are free from all unnecessary conditions and restrictions, and constitute the most satisfactory and undoubted security procurable.

INVESTMENT GUARANTEE DEPARTMENT.

The Debenture Bonds of first-class Trading, Industrial and other Companies, and the Deposit accounts of successful Colonial and Foreign Banks have long been regarded as occupying a leading position among sound investments.

It frequently happens, however, that Investments of this class are depreciated by reason of circumstances which it is beyond the power of the most careful and experienced Investor to foresee.

The Directors of this Company are prepared to consider proposals from individual Investors, or from Companies, for guaranteeing the principal and interest of Funds invested in these Debentures and Bank Deposits.

The rate of premium is based upon the nature of the investment as well as upon the security it offers, and will vary from 2/6 to 10/- per cent.

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.— Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lien thereof, being assets of a decased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory. notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lien thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts .- For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.-(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks .- Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country .- See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage. - If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and honses, and also fen-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore he to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death, Modes in which Duty may be Paid .- When deceased domiciled in Scotland .- In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property sitnated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117 and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom .- In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.
