William Borden.

While not of the Speer family blood, mention may well be made here of William Borden who was one of the most outstanding Christian Students in America in the first decade of the twentieth century. He was appointed to service for the Christian Church in Egypt and enroute to the field was seized with an attack of spinal meningitis and died on shipboard in the Mediterranean sea. His sister, the talented authoress, Mary Borden of Chicago M. Brigadier General Edward Louis Spears who was military representative for the British government at Paris during the World War. Retired, from the British army, he is now M.P., within his lifetime having changed the spelling of his name from Spiera to Spears, because, as he wrote me, there was a tendency to pronounce it "Spiera". The death of William Borden was a major loss to the Student Volunteer Movement of America and the world.

We have here to do with the Spier-Speer line. These Spier folks were living in Amsterdam, Holland and came, thoroughly Hollandized, with early pilgrims on "The Good Ship Faith" in December 1659. The immigrant Spier was Hendrick Janse^s Spier(s) who was born in Holland and M. Madeline Hansen, migrating as above. ~~He~~ He died before many years and his widow married Aertsen van der Bilt. It is believed by many, and I so give it here, that he had a brother Tunia Jansen (S) pier. His name is spelled both Spier and Pier. The name Tunia Spier is spoken quickly or carelessly would sound like Tunia Pier. He was not able to write his name on his will so no help is to be had from that source.

Family code "BRAIN"

Introductory.

This illustrious Spear line is probably the most numerous family of the name in America. They begin when George Speere came from Yarmouth, England in 1642 to Braintree, Mass. He was a Baptist deacon in the days when it was heroic to adhere to that faith. A contemporary of Roger Williams, he and his family dared to espouse the not too popular sect. From 1642 to 1814 they continued faithful to that church as is evidenced by the fact that in the Baptist church records of Shutesbury, Mass we find the following "These are to certify that the names that are set to this certificate belong to the Baptist Society of Shutesbury and support the Baptist Order in this place-

Shutesbury Dec. 13th 1814" and among the signers are

Stephen Spear	Joseph Spear	Elisha Spear
Winsor Spear	Lot Spear	Calvin Spear
Moses Spear	Eliphalet Spear	Stephen Spear Jr.

From this family came a long line of ministers.

Was a minister (Baptist) in Provincetown, his will probated Jan 28 1745 and dated 5-29-1727, says Samuel Spear of Cape Cod to Wife Thankful one moiety in farm at Braintree Called Hough's Neck. The other moiety to my brethren and sisters, William, John, Benoni, Mehitable, Dorothy, Hannah, and Mary to the inhabitants of Cape Cod for the use of the ministry there". Because they are related to the Speer family we include here two accounts of two notable Ewing men. It came about in this way, that James Patterson, the Indian trader, married Susan Howard and by her had, among others, Mary, who M. James Speer one of the immigrant Speer brothers. Then James Patterson died and his widow, Mrs Susan (Howard) Patterson, M. Thomas Ewing, one of the immigrant Ewing brothers from Scotland. Thomas Ewing had two brothers Alexander and Robert. The son of this Alexander was Rev. John Ewing b 7-22-1732; d 9-8-1802; a Presbyterian minister. He M. Hannah Sergeant of Newark, Del. In 1759 he became pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, Pa. In 1779 he was made Provost of the new University of Pennsylvania. He d. at Norristown, Montgomery Co., Pa. The son of the other brother, Robert Ewing, was Rev. Finis Ewing, b 7-10-1773; d 7-4-1841. He was the chief founder of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, being the last of the 12 children of Robert and Mary (Baker) Ewing. He was b. in Bedford Co., Va. His boyhood was spent near Nashville, Tenn. whither the family had moved. M. in 1793, Peggy, dau of Gen William Davidson. Next year they settled in Kentucky near Russellville. He was a prosperous farmer. In the Cumberland revival of 1800 the Presbyteries of Transylvania and Cumberland licensed and ordained some men not up to educational requirements. Ewing was one of them. They adopted the Westminster confession of faith with exceptions about Predestinarianism which did not fit evangelistic work. The Kentucky Synod and later the General Assembly disapproved and in 1810 Ewing and two others founded the Presbytery of Cumberland. He preached in Kentucky and Tennessee. Ex. Became a separate church in 1814. Was the pastor at Lebanon church, Christian Co., Ky. In 1820 he moved to central Missouri. Founded a church at New Lebanon, Mo. In his home he trained ministers. Became anti-slavery advocate and was a pioneer in the Temperance movement. In 1836 he was pastor at Lexington, Mo and supported himself there by being Registrar of the Land Office. He was long affectionately known as "Father Ewing" by the Cumberland Presbyterians.

While these men are not of Speer blood they are so closely related and intermarried with the Speer family as to make their inclusion here one of interest to their kinspeople.

In either form this laconic motto is very fitting for the pioneering spirit of the Speer families. The immigrant ancestor, with whom we here begin, was Moses Speer who came from Co. Antrim, Ireland in 1680 to Virginia.

He joined the Old Baptist Church in 1822 but later on went with Mr. Campbell in "The Reformation" movement....he was a preacher for 32 yrs. His wife, nee Phebe Sheppard, was b. 1801 the dau of James Sheppard. Her mother was a Martin of Virginian parentage. She d. 1838. She was a very religious woman, domestic and pushing. She was for three years a member of the Old Baptist Church but ultimately went with her husband in "The Reformation" which began as a separate organization about the year 1827.". So we find this good man having been a minister in two denominational groups.

3. REV. WILLIAM SHEPPARD SPEER

His line is:: 1. Moses 2. Moses 3. Aaron 4. Aaron
5. Rev. Joshua Kennerly 6. Rev. William Sheppard Speer, b Oct 1822, he M.(1) Mary Ann Nance b 1823 at Pulaski, Tenn., dau of Col. Joseph and Elanor (Black) Nance. She d. 5-12-1862 at Williamsport, Tenn. They had three sons and a daughter as follows:: Charles A. b 12-19-1845; Alex. C. b 5-1-1847; Henry Clay, b 12-22-1849 d Aug 1936 and Mary Phebe b 5-3-1851. Rev. William S. Speer M.(2) but data does not give her name. They had one son, Jacob C. Speer. Rev. William S. Speer was a personal friend of Alexander Campbell and traveled widely preaching in the "Reformation" and organizing churches in Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Kansas. He was also a personal friend of President A. Lincoln and was active in political life. In one of the collection of Lincoln's letters is one addressed to him, evidently in reply to one from Mr. Speer in which he asked Lincoln to make more drastic Anti-slavery pronouncements. Lincoln wrote, "If they cannot understand what I have said they will not believe though one come from the dead." Rev. Wm. S. Speer was appointed by Lincoln as U.S. Consul to the Island of Zanzibar during the time of the Civil War. On that trip he took with him his son, Alex C. Speer who died a very aged man in Benton, Arkansas in 1938. After he returned from Zanzibar, Mr. Speer directed most of his attention to the Teaching field, repudiated much of his former work in the Reformation. He was the author of several books having to do with the religious field. He was a politician, traveler, preacher, teacher, author. He died and is buried in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The author of this sketch has in his possession some of the personal correspondence of this unusual man.

4. Henry Clay Speer

Henry Clay Speer was a son of the above, Rev. Wm. S. Speer. According to a personal letter in the possession of this author it is known that he began life as a Christian preacher. However he was well educated for his day and very soon found his place in the educational field. He came to Kansas and was principal of the Eudora Schools, S.E. of Lawrence, later Principal at Junction City, Kansas. From there he was elected as State Superintendent of Public Instruction. His picture is on the walls of the office of the State Supt. of Schools in the Capitol building in Topeka. When a very old man he walked into that office one day and said "It's been a half century since I left the office and I just dropped in to see how things were going". After his term of office he became interested in school bonds and began the brokerage business. In the financial crisis of 1893 he lost his entire fortune and ruined some Topeka and Kansas City banks. But with characteristic honesty and high ideals he began all over again, repaid all his old debts and founded the firm of H.C. Speer & Sons, brokers, which still does business in Chicago under the direction of his son, William Walter "Paul" Speer. He was b. 12-22-1849 d. 9-2-1936 in Redlands, California. He m. Mary Cordelia Dallas, dau of Dr. Dallas of Baldwin, Kansas. She d. 1936. They had three children: Henry Dallas; William Walter "Paul" and Edna, now Mrs. Dow of Redlands, California, at whose home Mr. Speer died in 1936.

5. REV. JOSHUA KEMMERLEY SPEER (nephew of the man of the same name above.)

His line is: 1. Moses 2. Moses 3. Aaron 4. Aaron 5. James Jones (Rev) see above; 6. Rev Joshua Kemmerley Speer, b. 1-7-1831. m. 1852, Elizabeth Disborgh. They had ten children; Dr. Chester Lee; Minnie Salome; Theresa; Ophelia; Linton; Oscar; Lou G.; Sallie J.; Grace J.; and Lena H. They lived in Indianapolis, Indiana where he was a famous preacher, brilliant debater, and editor of the "Indianapolis Sun". Later he became U.S. State Timber Commissioner of Wisconsin. In 1868 he left the Christian (Disciples) church for Christadelphianism. After a tempestuous experience until 1886 he returned to the Christian Church and resumed preaching but without much change of views. So we record him as a Christian and a Christadelphian minister.

6. REV. JOSHUA SPEER PATTERSON

His line is:: 1. Moses 2. Moses 3. Aaron 4. Aaron 5. Elizabeth Speer M. Aaron James Patterson 6. Lewis Patterson and 7. Rev. Joshua Speer Patterson, who M. He was a Baptist minister in Augusta, Georgia and City Auditor of the same city. Served in the Confederate army in Gen John Morgan's command. See "Sketches of Prominent Georgians" by William S. Speer.

Family code "EW"

The Speer-Ewing family

This line begins with Moses Speer who was said to be a descendant of Henry Speer, an Irish Baron. He married Amelia Ewing who was b 1-7-1774; d Nov 1836. a dau of Andrew and Susannah (Shannon) Ewing. They were married in 1795 in Nashville, Tenn. Andrew Ewing was a son of William Ewing, one of the immigrant brothers from Ireland whose father, Capt. Ewing was in the service of William The Silent and received a sword as a present from William. Moses Speer d 7-11-1840 in Houston Co. Texas. Through the Ewing family he was thus related to the Speer line whose code is "BW" but this author does not yet know whether he was of the same Speer line.

1. REV. G. GARRETT

His line is:: 1. Moses 2. Mary W. Speer b, 1-9-1809, d. 1849, M. 11-18-1832, Rev. G. Garrett. They had children:: Mary Susan; Ann Amelia; Helen J.; William Andrew (1843-61 dep) and Emma F. No data available as to what church he served but their home was probably in Houston Co., Texas.

2. REV. SAMUEL W. SPEER

His line is:: 1. Moses 2. Rev. Samuel W. Speer, i.e. he was a brother of Mary W. Speer, above. He was b. 8-15-1813. M. (1) 1837, Abigail Wilmath. They had a daughter, Abigail. Rev. Samuel W. Speer M. (2). 8-20-1850, Antoinette Bliss, dau of John Bliss of Witherham, Mass. They had John Bliss (dy); Charles Ewing (dy); Harriet who dy at 9 yrs and Samuel Marshall (d at 19 yrs). Rev. Samuel Speer was said to be "a distinguished divine in Kentucky". No data as to what church he served.

Family Code. "YQJ"

In regard to this family the author has to reserve the positive identification of them with another line. In the line from which James and Robert migrated to America in 1789/90 James had a son James in York County Pennsylvania. In the census of 1790 there is listed in Chanceford Township, York County, one James Speers, adding the final s. to the name. The dates are right except that James Speers is said to have been born in 1755 which was too early to have been the son of James and Mary (Patterson) Speer, who could not have been married before 1760, unless they were married in Ireland and James was born before they came. I am inclined to believe that latter to be the fact. If so, it is possible that this family fits into the following family code "BW". I do not make that identification, only point out the possibility. This James Speers of York Co., Pa. was a Revolutionary soldier. So also was the son of James and Mary (Patterson) Speer. The latter was said to be present at the surrender of Cornwallis. We know of at least one minister from the James Speers line. He is:

REV. GEORGE COWLES SMITH

His line is:: 1. James Speers 2. Miss Speers who M. Mr Hatcher. 3. Melinda Hatcher who M. Andrew Fauley. 4. Calvin Buckingham Fauley 5. Lillie Viola Fauley (1867-1914) who M. Rev. George Cowles Smith. Lillie's grandfather, Andrew Fauley b in Virginia, 1808, moved to Fultonham, Muskingum Co., Ohio and was a pioneer resident there. Data is not available as to what church Rev. George Cowles Smith served, probably lived in Muskingum Co., Ohio.

There were two old neighbors in York Co., Pa the one was James Speers, the other James Finley. James Finley had a son James Speers Finley and ~~James Finley~~ James Speers had a son, James Finley Speers. They were so intermarried as that many of their descendants were from both the James Speers and the James Finley families. Into this family Lewis Marchand Speer (from the line we have designated as "JELB") married and the name Finley is often used among his descendants as a Christian name. Lewis Marchand Speer was from the Irish-German-American family. The German-American Speers knew these Irish cousins of theirs and there was much discussion among them as to how some were Irish while others were German. Under the family code "JELB" we have given the tradition which clears up that matter. The Irish Speers often referred to Henry Speers as "German Henry"

The Immigrant Brothers James and Robert Speer and their large family of descendants.

Unlike many other Speer lines, we are able to go back four generations before the American Emigration. We begin with Thomas Speere and Janet his wife who lived at Deserting Hill, Co., Tyrone, Ireland. Thomas d in 1836. His son, John, (1623-1708) lived at Drumbannoway, buried at Ballyclog, Co. Tyrone, Ire. Their son, Robert, (1650-1743) lived at Stewartstown, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. Among other children they had Thomas and Solomon. Thomas had sons James; Robert; Thomas (or Alex.) and John. These brothers, sons of Thomas left their aged father, 81 years of age behind. He lived to be 100 years old. James evidently came to America after he married Mary Patterson. Robert returned after three years and married Agnes (Jane) Stuart and brought her to America. Of the descendants of Thomas we know only that he is reported to have lived in the Susquehanna River valley. John is said to have had a son in the Whiskey Rebellion, yet some of his descendants lived later in Ireland. It is mainly with the descendants of James and Robert that this line has to do. By their generations they have produced the following impressive line of Ministers.

1. REV. WILLIAM SPEER

His line is: 1. Thomas 2. John 3. Robert 4. Thomas 5. James 6. Rev. PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN
(see Dictionary of American Biography p 207)

James Buchanan (April 23rd 1791 to June 1 1868) fifteenth president of the U.S. was born near Mercersburg, Pa. His ancestors- the Buchanans, Russells, Speers, and Pattersons, were all North-Ireland Scottish Presbyterians who emigrated to south-central Pa. His father, James Buchanan, who came to America in 1783, was a successful, hard headed store keeper, who wisely invested in farm lands. His mother, Elizabeth Speer, was a hard-working frontier wife, with a taste for good reading. He had a brother, George W. Buchanan who was Attorney General. James was U.S. minister to Russia 1831. Senator 1837, again 1843. Secretary of State 1844 under Polk. Had a sister who married Elliott Lane. Their daughter was Harriet Lane, charming and in excellent Society. Buchanan was minister to Great Britain under Pierce. He ~~was~~ was made diplomatically popular by Harriet Lane. Elected 1856 with J.C. Breckinridge of Kentucky V.P. Miss Lane was Mistress of the White House. Prince of Wales (Later King Edward VII) visited them in 1860. He said she was the most charming woman to represent America at the British Court. Jefferson Davis of Mississippi was their intimate friend at the White House functions. ~~Macdonald~~ Buchanan advocated receiving Kansas for settlement under the constitution formed at the LeCompton Convention as a pro-slavery state. This broke the Democratic party. He did not run in 1860 but supported Breckinridge. He supported Lincoln as a "Union Democrat".

CORRECTION.

Proof is at hand disproving that the Dorcas Speer (#35 above) is a daughter of these parents. She was from a family who spelled it "Spear" and had the following sisters: Margaret who Mar. Gen. Samuel Smith(for 40 years in Congress); a sister who married one Mr. Cooke; and another Miss Nancy who was UnM and made her home in the William Patterson home.
 This Speer family was a Baltimore Family and not the daughters of #11 Robert and #33 Agnes Stuart. Some of the members of this family have mistakenly given out the data that Elizabeth Patterson Bonaparte was their
