GENEALOGY OF
DAVID BROWDER, OF VIRGINIA AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

As far back as the line of descent recorded below can be traced, Richard Browder and Henry Cousins stand as the joint heads and remote ancestors.

As no records are available as to the date of birth, marriage and death of either, nothing is certainly known in either of these lines of facts in the history of the two families. Both lived and died in Virginia, but the nativity of Richard Browder, while not certainly known, is supposed to have been Virginia, and Henry Cousins is said to have been a native of England. Richard Browder, according to traditional report, married a Miss Thompson, and as a result of this marriage, a relationship is said to exist between the descendants of Richard Browder and the Thompson family of central Kentucky.

The issues of this marriage, so far as known, were David, Littleberry, William and Mary Browder. There may have been other children, but if so the fact is not known.

Henry Cousins married a Miss Thompson also whose Christian name is not known. Eight children were the issues of this marriage, viz.: Mary, Rebecca, Eliza, Ann, Jane and Henry, and the names of two daughters are unknown. Mary married David Browder and their descendants now reside in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Missouri and Illinois.

Rebecca married Judson Worsham and their descendants now reside chiefly in Virginia.

Eliza married Thomas Chambers, and their descendants now reside chiefly in Alabama and Virginia.

Ann married Richard Ferguson, and their descendants now reside chiefly in Virginia.

Of the two daughters whose full names are not known, one married Hazlewood and the other married Pritchett--the descendants of the former now residing, so far as known, in Kentucky, and of the other in Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. Jane was never married.

The descendants of Henry Cousins now residing chiefly in Virginia have the family names of Cousins, Worsham, Robertson, Chambers, Ferguson, Williamson and Pritchett, with other connections resulting from marriages into these families.

It may be said that in both of these lines of descent strong and fixed traits of character have been conveyed from one generation to another. Almost universally the generations in these two lines of lineal succession have been of eminent respectability and many members of these families have had prominent standing in society.

As stated elsewhere the issues of the marriage of Richard Browder, one of the joint heads of the generations contained in this record, so far as known were David, Littleberry, William and Mary. There may have been others, but if so they are not known.

Littleberry married and raised a family of four children, viz.: David, Mary, Thomas and Winnefred, whose descendants now reside in Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Kansas, and Iowa so far as is known.

Mary, daughter of Richard Browder, married Mr. Pentecost and resided and died in Virginia without issue.

Nothing is known of the history or descendants of William, son of Richard Browder. It is probable that some of the Browders residing in Ohio, Tennessee, Alabama, North Carolina and western Kentucky may have descended from him, but there are no available means for establishing this as a fact.

David Browder, son of Richard Browder, married Mary Pegram, who died shortly after marriage, leaving one child--a daughter--who married Anthony Sydnor and this is the fact which connects the Browder and Sydnor families.

David Browder's second marriage was with Mary Cousins, as heretofore stated, and there are no authentic records as to the date of birth, marriage or death of either. It is certain that both were born, resided and died in Virginia. So far as is known, six children were the issues of this marriage, viz.: Richard, William Cousins, Robert, Ann W., Almeda and Jane. These descendants all married in Virginia except Robert and Jane, all emigrated to Kentucky at an early day, settling first in Green County and finally in Logan County, where their descendants were reared and now mostly reside.

While it may not be fully correct, it is as nearly so as it can be made in the absence of much necessary and authentic record. The leading and essential facts I am satisfied are correct, while some of the minor details may not be fully so.

THOMAS E. BROWDER

Olmstead, Ky., November 27, 1901.

THE SYDNOR BRANCH OF THE FAMILY

The above record, as traced by my cousin, Thomas E. Browder, embraces the descendants of our grandfather and mother, David and Mary Cousins Browder, only as it incidentally refers to his first marriage with Mary Pegram and the marriage of their only child and daughter, Mary Browder, to Anthony Sydnor of Virginia. The following is the best outline record that can be gotten in time for this publication, but in the larger work that will embrace a record of the entire Browder family in this country, information to be embodied in which I am collecting as rapidly as possible, I shall endeavor to get a fuller and more complete record as to dates, etc., of the descendants of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor. There were born to them seven children-- five boys and two girls, as follows: Joseph, David B., Edward, Martha, Sarah Ann, Thomas A., and Baker Sydnor.

Joseph Sydnor, son of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in Virginia in 1801, and moved with the Browder and Sydnor families to Kentucky in 1820, and settled with them in Green County, where he married and died in early life. The names of his wife and children are not known, and they are also dead.

David B. Sydnor, son of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in Virginia, February 18, 1803, married Catherine Hilliard, February 14, 1828, by whom he had eight children, as follows: Washington A. W., David E., Thomas B., Robert A., Mary E., Sarah F., Elizabeth R., and Sophia A. Sydnor.

W. A. W. Sydnor, son of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born October 17, 1831, was married to Mariah Ellen Spillman, March 22, 1855, by whom he had one child, a daughter, Katie Belle Sydnor.

Katie Belle Sydnor, daughter of W. A. W. and Ellen Sydnor, was born June 7, 1860, married James H. Winfree of Hopkinsville, Ky., December 20, 1883. There were born to them two children-- a daughter and a son. Beulah S. Winfree was born July 27, 1888, and Wm. Henry Winfree, was born October 26, 1896.

David E. Sydnor, son of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born November 2, 1832, was married to Piety Greenfield of Todd Co., Ky., February 4, 1857. The issues from this marriage were three sons, Caleb, William and James Sydnor. Caleb lived to be a grown man, but never married. He went to Texas in quest of health and died there about fifteen years ago. William died when about twelve years of age.

James Sydnor, son of David and Piety Sydnor, (date of birth unknown) married Miss Mollie Sun of Texas, and now resides in that state. Date of marriage and names of children unknown.

David E. Sydnor married the second time to Frances Cornelius, November 26, 1863. By this union there were born to them four children, three sons and a daughter--E. Wallace, Leslie A., Robert A., and Laura Sydnor.

E. Wallace Sydnor, son of David E. and Frances Sydnor, was born September 12, 1865, married Sallie B. Browder, daughter of Richard C. and Amanda Browder, November 21, 1894, and one child is the issue from this marriage--a son--W. B. Sydnor, I believe.

Leslie A. Sydnor, son of David E. and Frances Sydnor, was born January, 1867, and is unmarried.

Robert A. Sydnor, son of David E. and Frances Sydnor, was born October 29, 1868, was married December 22, 1891, to Miss Mary Collins.

The issue from this marriage was one child, a girl, whose name is Fannie, I think, the father dying soon after its birth, December 12, 1893.

Laura Sydnor, daughter of David E. and Frances Sydnor, was born July 26, 1870. She married Robert Mason of Morganfield, Ky., May 6, 1891, and now resides in that town. They had three children--Arthur, Allen Waller, and Ruth E. Mason. Arthur Mason was born April 14, 1892, died January 20, 1893. Allen Waller Mason was born January 28, 1894. Ruth E. Mason was born January 8, 1896.

David E. Sydnor married the third time. His wife being Mrs. Bettie Thurston, daughter of Edward and Mary Hughes, whose names appear in the Browder record. David E. Sydnor died some 15 years since, but his wife is still living and resides with her mother in Bowling Green, Ky.

Thomas B. Sydnor, son of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born March 7, 1835, was married to Mary M. Browder, daughter of Robert and Sarah L. Browder, February 11, 1859. There were born to them two children, Robert Harman, born June 1, 1870, and unmarried; and Katie G. Sydnor, born May 20, 1882, and unmarried.

Robert A. Sydnor, son of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born May 13, 1837, and died quite young.

Mary E. Sydnor, daughter of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born April 20, 1839, and was married to William R. Browder, November 24, 1864. There was only one child, Katie H. Browder, born September 13, 1865, and died July 10, 1866.

Sarah F. Sydnor, daughter of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born May 15, 1842, married James F. Johnson of Clarksville, Tenn., May 25, 1869. She lived only a short while after marrying, leaving no children.

Elizabeth R. Sydnor, daughter of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born March 13, 1844, and died in childhood.

Sophia A. Sydnor, daughter of David B. and Catherine Sydnor, was born June 6, 1846, and also died in childhood.

Edward Sydnor, son of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in 1805, date of marriage and to whom married unknown to me. Moved West with his family and nothing is known of them.

Martha Sydnor, daughter of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in 1807; married (date unknown) Paschal Williams of Green Co., Ky. Their children were Archie, Thomas A., David, Woodson, Joseph, and Bettie. We think the children were all married, but have no record of their families.

Sarah Ann Sydnor, daughter of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in 1809. She married John Bailey of Green Co., Ky., and the issues of their marriage were four sons--John, Thomas, Robert, and William. I know nothing of the dates of their birth or marriage; in fact I know not whether any have families, except Thomas J., who married Mollie Hutchings, daughter of Dr. George H. Hutchings, and the record of whose family has already been given in the preceding record of the Browder family.

Thomas A. Sydnor, son of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in 1811; married to Sarah Walthal of Green County, I suppose (date unknown), and there was born to them the following children:

William, Almeda, Anthony and Browder Sydnor. Nothing is known of them by me further than that they reside in Hart County, Ky., or did when I last heard from them.

Baker Sydnor, son of Anthony and Mary Browder Sydnor, was born in Virginia (as were the rest of his brothers and sisters) in 1813. He never married and died in Russellville, Ky., in 1833 with cholera.

This completes the record of David Browder's descendants by his two wives Mary Pegram and Mary Cousins Browder. That of grandfather's brothers, Rev. Littleberry and William Browder, the only two that are positively known to me, will be embraced in the general history which I am endeavoring to compile of the entire family in this country. Nothing was known to us prior to the getting up of this record, of Uncle William's descendants, but I have information which seems conclusive that the North Carolina Browders, who finally emigrated to Tennessee and settled in Monroe Co., near Sweetwater, are some of his descendants. They are an intelligent and prosperous people and rank high in the communities in which they reside, and like the Browders everywhere I have found them, are the patrons of education and religion, of all that is noblest and best in life.

I feel that we owe a debt of gratitude to Cousin Thomas E. Browder, who got up this family record, and Cousin Jack P. Moore, who incited him to the good work. Their efforts have aroused in me an earnest desire to have a full and as complete history of the entire family as can be obtained, and to that end I have already collected a great deal of very interesting information, and if I can get the cooperation of all the members of our great and honored family, I shall succeed in accomplishing the desired result, God being willing.

This general record will be a surprise to all, as the family is much more numerous than any have suspected. There are several different branches I have found, one or more of which is larger than our own; and if this record could be interspersed (as it should be) with biographical sketches of the prominent men and women of the family, with half tone likenesses of same, it would make a very interesting history not only to those of us who are now living, but to our posterity.

My plan is to get some member of each branch to get up personal sketches and furnish pictures of the prominent members of their particular families, which they wish inserted. This I think would stimulate the interest of all and make a more satisfactory history. I would like to have an expression from those who read this and are interested in the matter as to their willingness to cooperate with me and share the expense of such an undertaking with me. I have not undertaken this work with the purpose of making money out of it, but have been actuated simply and solely by the love I bear my family and the pride I have in its noble history and the desire to transmit it to our children after us. I shall never cease to thank God for our noble parentage. They have left us an imperishable heritage. The heritage of a noble and good name that I prize more highly than all the honors or riches that the world can bestow, and which I had rather bequeath to my children than the wealth of the world.

My highest ambition in life is to be like my noble and saintly father and mother, and have the love and respect and admiration of all who know me in the same degree which they had from all who knew them, and if I can only succeed in impressing myself upon my children and upon the generation in which I live as they impressed themselves upon their children and upon the generation in which they lived, I shall always praise God that he permitted me to live in this world.

DAVID P. BROWDER

Since getting out the little pamphlet--Genealogy of David Browder and Descendants--I have found some earlier history, obtained by my nephew, Rev. R. W. Browder, from his father, Rev. George R. Browder, who got it from our father, Robert Browder. It is as follows:

One ----- Browder, an Englishman, married a Welsh woman, and emigrated to America early in the 18th century, and settled in Virginia, where he lived and died. His name has not been retained in the family. The children of these progenitors of the Browder family were Richard, Joseph, Arthur, George and Nancy, as far as known. Nancy married a Mr. Poole.

Richard Browder married a Miss Mary Thompson, as recorded in the above-mentioned history, and the following children were born to them. Susannah, John, Charles, William, David, Littleberry, Thompson, Mary, Martha, Nancy, and Wilmuth. Susannah married first John Thacker to whom were born three children, Mary, Nancy, and David Thacker. She married the second time George Timmons and the issues of this marriage were Elizabeth, Susan, and Martha Timmons. John Browder, son of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder was killed when a boy by the accidental discharge of a gun. Charles Browder, son of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder, volunteered as a soldier in the Revolutionary War and died of disease in camp about the year 1773.

David Browder's history has already been given in record just completed. Thompson Browder, son of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder, married (to whom unknown) and his children were Benjamin, Elizabeth, Johnathan, and others. Martha Browder, daughter of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder, married a cousin Isham Browder. Their children were Mary and Richard so far as is known.

William C. Browder, son of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder, as related in above record, has left no record that can positively be traced. Littleberry's record is embraced in the above work just published.

Nancy Browder, daughter of Richard and Mary Thompson Browder, married Thomas Williams and bore him six children, Hartwell W., Edward, Lewis, Mary T., Nathan, and Jones Williams. This completes the full history so far as known by my father, Robert Browder, son of David and Mary Cousins Browder.
