THE VIRGINIA TODDS

Robert Todd came over in the Hopewell in 1622 and settled in Virginia. He had a son, Thomas William, that we know of.

Capt. Thomas Todd brought over, in 1669, his family, John, Robert, Averella, Ann, Frances and Johanna.

Capt. Thomas Todd brought over, at various times, other Todds. This was before and after he settled permanently. (See list).

Captain Thomas Todd and Ann Gorsuch, of Toddsbury, Ware parish, Gloucester County, Va., and Baltimore County, Md., where he settled in 1669. Burgess for Baltimore County, 1674-75, died at sea in 1676. Children: Thomas, John, Robert, Joanna, Ann, Frances and Averilla.

(2) Thomas married and had (3) Anne, (4) Thomas, Jr., (5) ———, (6) William, (7) Philip, (8) Frances, born 1707; Frances born 1692, died 1703, Christopher.

(4) Thomas, Jr., married Elizabeth and had Thomas and Robert.

(3) Anne, born 1692, died 1729; married Mordecai Cooke, of Waretown, of Gloucester; Christopher, of Toddsbury, born 1690, died 1743, married Elizabeth and had (10) Thomas, born 1724, died 1794, and Lucy, born 1724, died 1794, married Edward Tabb.

Thomas, of Baltimore County, married Elizabeth and had (12) Thomas, of Todds Neck, Baltimore County, Md.; died 1739; married Eleanor Dorsey and had Robert, of Showan, Baltimore County, Md., also Robert.

(5) Richard married and had Bernard and William.

(6) William married Martha Vicaris (of King and Queen Co., Va., 1736), and had (13) Thomas, (14) Richard, (15) Dorothy, (16) Betty.

(13) Thomas married Betty Waring, daughter of Col. Thomas Waring, of Essex County, Va., and had (17) William (living in King and Queen Co., 1772, had then only daughter), (22) Henry (a member of Del. for King and Queen, in 1784).

(14) Richard married Elizabeth Richards and had William, of Pittsylvania County, Va., Sheriff, 1786, (19) Thomas, born in King and Queen, 1735, died in Kentucky, 1826, Justice of United Supreme Court, and (20) Bernard, member of Del. Charlotte County, 1787-1791.

(8) Frances, born 1707, died 1753, married Robert North, of Maryland.

Thomas Todd, Sr., patented land in Elizabeth City Co., in 1647, and in Gloucester, in 1664 (Land Books of Virginia).

The will of Captain Thomas Todd, of North parish, Patapsco River, Md., dated 1675, proved May 30, 1677, makes his son Thomas sole executor, gives wife Anne four hundred pounds sterling, and in the hands of Alderman Richard Booth, in London, one hundred seventy pounds sterling in the hands.

Of Mr. Robert Gorsuch and also a parcel of land in Old England, also in the possession of Robert Gorsuch, legacies to his four daughters by name, to his brother Christopher, money and 700 acres on Chester River.

There is filed with the will a copy of a letter from Thomas Todd, Sr., dated April 1, 1676. He was then on board the ship Virginia, bound for England, and was very rich. It is addressed: "There for my son Thomas Todd, at his house on North River (Gloucester) with all speed." This Capt. Todd did not bring his family over till 1669, but it is probable he was in Virginia as early as 1640.

Robert Todd, who is mentioned in the records of York County, Virginia, in 1642, and who bought land in Gloucester in 1652. His eldest son, William Todd, patented 500 acres in Gloucester in 1666.

Thomas Todd epitaph at Toddsbury is printed in the William and Mary Quarterly, 3, 116. See also Hening V, 395, 7-153-8-631. There is recorded in Maryland, December 12, 1683, a division between Charles Gorsuch and Thomas Todd, of Gloucester, of a tract of land purchased by said Gorsuch and Capt. Thomas Todd, deceased, father of said Thomas Todd, of Gloucester.

Her Epitaph (3-Ann) at Wareham. See William and Mary Quarterly, 2-224 (4 Thomas). His will, dated January 11, 1714-16, was proved in Baltimore Co., Md., June 11, 1715, and in Essex County, Virginia (where he had an estate), on September 23, 1715. His widow, Elizabeth, presented it for probate. He styles himself Thomas Todd, the younger, of Baltimore County, Maryland, divides his estate between his sons Thomas and Robert, and in case of failure of their heirs it is to revert to his brothers, William Philip and Christopher Todd.

"I will that the tract of land I live on in Virginia be held of (by) him that my father shall give his dwelling plantation to, in the same right that my father gives the plantation to me, on condition that my father gives what personal estate he has in Maryland over and above one equal part of his estate elsewhere, to me and my heirs, to son Thomas all rings, sword plate, books and surveying instruments, to brother William, and Martha, his wife, rings, remainder of his estate to his wife and children. His father to be guardian of his two sons, Thomas and Robert, appoints Richard Colgate and James Phillips executors in Maryland and Brother William Todd and Jonathan Hide executors in Virginia. There is also recorded in Essex a power of attorney, dated 1715, from Thomas Todd, of Gloucester, to Robert Beverly, to act in his behalf as executor of his son, Thomas Todd, of Baltimore County, deceased.

TODD FAMILY OF VIRGINIA

(8) The North family Bible contains the following entries of Robert North, son of Thomas and Ellen North, of the parish of Whittington, in the County of Lancashire, in Great Britain, was married to Frances Todd, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Todd, of the Colony of Virginia, the second day of July, Anno Domini 1729; Frances North, wife of Robert North, departed this life July 25th, about 9 o'clock, 1745.

Mrs. Frances Todd was buried at St. Thomas, Md., where her tomb remains, with the following inscription: "Here lyeth the body of Frances North, wife of Robert North, who departed this life July 25, 1745, in the 26th year of her age."

(9) Henning 5-395, Epitaph of Toddsbury, see William and Mary Quarterly 3-116.

A copy from the entry in the old Todd Bible (now lost) gives difference in date and states that his wife Elizabeth was born April 25, 1701, and died November, 1764.

(10) His epitaph at Toddsbury is as follows: Thomas Todd, son of Christopher and Elizabeth Todd, born November, 1724, departed this life 18th of February, 1794. He was probably the Thomas Todd who was a member of the House of Delegates, 1791.

(11) Epitaph William and Mary Quarterly 3-119.

(12) His will, December 3, 1736, was recorded at Annapolis, April 2, 1738, devises to his three daughters, Elizabeth, Eleanor and Frances, a tract of land called Showan Hunting Grounds, to his youngest daughter Mary he devises Todds Industry in Patapsco Neck and also a tract called Wills Neck and all my land where Thomas Jones now lives, known by the name of Cuckold's Point, and my land at the island, called Todds Island, personal estate, to his son Thomas and four daughters.

An old record shows that he married Eleanor Dorsey, who married (2) William Lynch. Her will was proved 1760 and she left by her first-marriage (1) Thomas, (2) Elizabeth, married John Cromwell; (3) Eleanor, married John Ensor; (4) Frances, married George Ristean; (5) Mary, married Worthington.

(13) Henning 7-484-5-396-8-57—Col Thomas Waring, of Essex, in his will, dated 1748, and proved 1754, names his daughter, Betty Todd, and appoints Thomas Todd as executor. It appears from a deed, dated 1744, and recorded in Essex, that Betty, daughter of Thomas Waring, was then the wife of Thomas Todd, of King and Queen.

(14) Henning 8-57.

(15) Thomas Edmundson, of Essex, in his will, dated 1757, says that his late wife, Dorothy, was the daughter of Col. William Todd, who left her a tract of land in Orange County.

(17) Henning 7-484-8-632.

(19) Statement by members of the family and published accounts.

(20) The Maryland records show that she was a sister of Charles Richard Lovelace and Robert Gorsuch, who settled in the eastern shore of Maryland. The Quaker records of West Maryland show that Charles Gorsuch, son of John and Anne Gorsuch, of the Kingdom of England, deceased, married, in 1690, Ann Hawkins, of Maryland. The visitation of London, 1653, shows that Rev. John Gorsuch, rector of Walkham, Hertfordshire, married in 1628, Anne, daughter of Sir William Lovelace, and had issue in 1633 (1) Daniel, aged 4; (2) John, (3) William, (4) Catherine; others born later. In the county court of Lancasyer, Va., April 7, 1657, Richard, Robert and Charles Gorsuch, sons and co-heirs of John Gorsuch, Professor in Divinity, petitioned the court that Francis Maryson, Esq., might be their guardian; Charles Gorsuch, aged 14, chose his brother Robert as guardian. There can be no doubt that this Rev. John Gorsuch was the rector of Walkham who perhaps had been evided by Parliament.

On January 13, 1676-77, Mrs. Anne Todd made a deed of her property to her brother, Charles Gorsuch, trustee. In 1669 Charles and Levelace Gorsuch confirm the title of certain lands granted to Levelace in 1661.

THE TODDS OF KING AND QUEEN

Harry I. Todd had a large grant of land direct from the crown. In the eighth volume of Hennings Statutes, page 631, may be found an act of the general assembly, of date February 1772, docking the entail of the estate of William Todd, gentleman. It recites that one Thomas Todd, formerly of the County of Gloucester, gentleman, was, in his lifetime, seized of a considerable estate in land, and among others a large and valuable tract lying in the Mattsapruy River, in the county of King and Queen, and of another tract, containing about one thousand acres, lying in the Dragon's Swamp, in the parish of St. Stephens, in the said County of King and Queen.

In the deed, dated 16th March, 1709, this Thomas Todd granted to his son William Todd and the heirs of his body begotten of Martha Vicaris, his intended wife, five hundred acres, part of his said tract on the Mattsapruy River, and by his will of date the 4th of March, 1723, the same Thomas Todd bequeathed the tract on the Dragon's Swamp to his sons Philip and Richard Todd.

By the death of Philip and Richard, and without male heirs, the whole of this estate became vested in the above William Todd, son of Thomas. From this William Todd, the elder, it descended to his grandson, by Martha Vicaris, William Todd, of King and Queen, whose right therein was vested in George Brooks, William Lyne, Gregory Baylor, John Taylor, Corbin and Richard Tunstall, as trustees, to be sold and the proceeds reinvested as directed.

From an account on page 57 of the same volume of Henning it is ascertained that the above William Todd, the elder, died in 1736, leaving daughters Dorothy and Betty; grandsons William Gordon and Richard Barbour and sons Richard and Thomas Todd.

He left a very large estate in the parish of St. Thomas, Orange County, as well as considerable possessions in King and Queen.

A large and valuable plot of this property he bequeathed to his oldest son, Richard Todd, who was the father of the above William Todd, grandson of William, the elder, in whom the entail <http://stores.ebay.com/Ancestry-Found> docked in the first statute above mentioned had vested.

This Richard Todd's wife was Elizabeth Richards, a woman of great energy and good intellect. William Todd, whose entail was docked in 1772, was their eldest son, and the noted Judge, Thomas Todd, of Kentucky, their youngest. The latter is stated by Collins to have been born in King and Queen County in 1765. His father died when he was a child; his excellent mother soon followed to the grave. Thus orphaned at an early age, by his guardian he was afforded opportunities for obtaining a good English education and the foundation of one in the classics.

By the embarrassments of his guardian he was, while still a boy, thrown upon his own resources. For a short time, during the closing days of the Revolution, he was in the army. Invited to become an inmate of the family of his relative, Harry Innes, then residing in Bedford County, he became acquainted with the art of surveying and obtained the proficiency as a clerk and those methodical habits and attention to details, which proved the foundation of future eminence. Collins asserts that he came first to Kentucky, with the family of Harry Innes, in 1786. McClurg, who was not apt to have erred in such a matter, that he was at Danville in 1784, and was chosen and acted as clerk of the first convention held at that place in that year, of the convention of delegates from the militia companies called by General Ben Logan, which was the forerunner of all the others. From that time he was clerk of all the succeeding conventions, until the establishment of the State in 1792. He represented Kentucky in the Virginia legislature before the separation. In 1792 he was one of the electors of the Senate. He was the first clerk of the federal court in the district, and upon its establishment of the court of appeals, under the second constitution of 1799, he was appointed its first clerk. In 1801 he was appointed judge of the court of appeals, and in 1806 its chief justice. When the seventh United States Circuit District was formed he was appointed by Mr. Jefferson an associate justice of the United States Supreme Court, which office he held until his death in 1826. Judge Thomas Todd was an amiable, generous man, of kind heart and popular manner.

That he was a man of talent and ability, and of good professional attainments is sufficiently evidenced by the acceptable manner in which he discharged the duties imposed by those high trusts.

His abilities commanded the respect, while his personal qualities won the friendship of John Marshall.

His wife was Elizabeth Harris, a niece of William Stewart, who fell fighting at the Blue Licks. She was the mother of his sons, Colonel Charles S., born January 22, 1791, married Letitia Shelby, June 16, 1816, died May 16, 1871; and John H. Todd, born June 12, 1795, married Marion Knox Innes on October 30, 1817, died August 31, 1824, and of his daughters, the first, Elizabeth Richards, born November 18, 1792, wife of the late John H. Hanna and Mrs. Anna Marion, born May 29, 1801. The first of these, a man of imposing manners and distinguished presence, was Harry Innes Todd, born May 26, 1789, died November 29, 1812, unmarried; the confidential aide of General Harrison, by whom he was appointed. Millicent never married, died at age of eighteen. Minister to Russia, he married a daughter of Governor Shelby, and their son Thomas commanded a company in the war with Mexico.

Judge Todd married, secondly, Lucy Payne, a sister of Mrs. Madison; their mother was one of the talented Minstons. This second wife was, when she married Judge Todd, the widow of Major George Steptoe Washington, the youngest son of Colonel Samuel Washington (brother of the President) by his fourth wife. By this second marriage, Judge Todd was the father of James Madison Todd, of Frankfort. John H. Todd married Maria Knox Innes. The other son of Judge Todd, by his first wife, an amiable, sensible and fine-looking man, represented Franklin and Owen in the legislature in 1820-21-22-23. His wife was his kinswoman, the beautiful daughter of Judge Harry Innes.

They had three children, Harry I. Todd, born September 16, 1818, married Jane Ballinger David, August 30, 1839; Catherine Lucy, born June 20, 1824, who married General Thomas L. Crittenden, October 19, 1842, died March 13, 1895; and Elizabeth Ann, born May 8, 1820, married March 29, 1842, died May 15, 1893.

After the death of John H. Todd his widow became the second wife of Hon. John J. Crittenden. Thomas Todd, born January 15, 1822, died October —. 1823. The beauty of her face, the grace and charm of her person and manners were but the external reflection of the loveliness of her mind and character.

THE HISTORIC GRAVES OF MARYLAND

Thomas J. Todd died March 26, 1843, aged 38.

Bernard Todd died September 13, 1816, in his fiftieth year.

George W. Todd died February 7, 1830, in his twentieth year.

On the Patapsco Neck, about twelve miles from Baltimore, in the neighborhood of North Point, are many places with traditions of early occupancy. Near Edger Place is a Todd Homestead, with its well-kept graveyard.

Thomas Todd and wife Elizabeth Bernard had Thomas, who went to Maryland; Richard, Philip and Christopher. Anne, who married Cooke; Lucy, who married, first, O'Brien, second, John Baylor; Elizabeth, who married, first, a Scotchman, Seaton, second, Colonel Augustine Moore; another daughter married North.

Colonel Moore and Elizabeth Todd and (1) Elizabeth, who married, first, Lloyd, second, Colonel James Macon.

(2) Augustine.

(3) Lucy, who married John Robinson.

(4) Bernard, married Anne Batherine Spotswood.

(5) Thomas.

Elizabeth Pollard married Bernard Todd. They had five sons and two daughters.

John, son of John Todd and Mary Williams, born August 7, 1775.

Elizabeth Todd was the daughter of Thomas Todd.

Gent, of Gloucester County, and his wife, said to have been Elizabeth Bernard, daughter of William Bernard, and widow Lucy Burwil, maiden name Hickerson. She married Colonel Augustine Moore as his second wife. She was the widow of Henry Seaton.

Cornelius Todd married Mary Jones, December 17, 1739.

John Cooke married Anne Todd, daughter of Captain Thomas Todd and Elizabeth.

Todd: Several of the name appear early in the Seventeenth Century. Robert is mentioned in the York records in 1642, and bought land in Gloucester in 1652. In 1666 there is a grant of land in Gloucester to William Todd, son and heir of Robert Todd, deceased.

Thomas Todd patented land in Elizabeth City in 1647, and in Gloucester in 1664.

Branch of the family was long resident in Gloucester and King and Queen. The history of Baltimore County, Md., states that a Major Thomas Todd came from Virginia, patented land at North Point in 1664 and left a son, Thomas.

Sarah, a Todd wife of Levi Todd, maiden name Ashby, daughter of Nathaniel Ashby.

There is a tomb at Toddbury as worn as to be undecipherable. It is supposed to be the father of Captain Thomas Todd, Sr.

Toddbury is now occupied by the North family, having passed out of the Todd family, to which it belonged for generations. The building upon the place is of brick. The house is not large, but beautifully paneled within, and dispensed a princely hospitality. The scenery of the North River is exquisite, every half mile or so some handsome residence decorates the shore. Newstead, Toddbury, Exchange, Elmington, Dunham Masse, Green Plains, Auburn, Isleham, etc.

Dr. Oscar Knight married Eller Todd, of Nottoway, and had one daughter, who married a Mr. De Campe, of New Jersey.

N. B. There is a record of a Robert Todd, baptized October 4, 1602, of Danby, in Calvary Church, Yorkshire, England, parish register; also a Robert Todd, of Hull, baptized July 26, 1597. If the latter is the Robert who came to Virginia in 1622 he could have been the father of Christopher, of New Haven, Conn.

WHEREAS:

Thomas Todd, late of the County of Gloucester, gentleman, was in his lifetime seized in fee of and in divers large tracts of land, and, among others, one of certain tract or parcel of land in the said County, situated lying and being near the North River bridge, containing six hundred acres, with the appurtenances and being so thereof seized did make his last will and testament in writing bearing date of 4th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two.

Names grandson, Bernard Todd, son of Richard Todd, also William, grandson of Richard Todd; names son William, son Philip, son Christopher.

STATE OF MARYLAND

Land Commissioner's Office, Charles A. Smith, Commissioner.

Annapolis, January 11, 1910.

Mr. John R. Whitcraft,

Merchantville, N. J.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 9th inst. is to hand, and beg to say that we have run the indexes for deeds, etc., covering some years before and after the period you state (1676-7), but fail to find any deed from Mrs. Anne Todd to Charles Gorsuch, trustee. This deed may be in the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, or the Court that has the custody of the old County Provincial Records.

There must have been some relation existing between Charles Gorsuch and James Todd on account of the following entry:

Nich's Fitzsimmons and wife, and James Tod; agent, Charles Garsuch.—High Court of Chancery. Spa. and Injunct. Bill to be filed in 15 days, viz: by ye 25 inst. (Oct., 1695). Liber P. C. No. 2, folio 318.

Nich's Fitzsimmon and James Tod; agent, Charles Gorsuch.—High Court of Chancery. This cause agreed. Liber P. C. No. 2, folio 339.

This is all we are able to give you concerning your inquiry.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS A. SMITH,

Commissioner of the Land Office.
