PROCEEDINGS

IN

ANNUAL MEETING HELD MARCH 17, 1917.

The Annual Meeting was held in the Society's House, 707 East Franklin Street on March 17th, at 4 P. M., with President W. Gordon McCabe in the chair.

The first business was the reading of President McCabe's Annual Report as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE VIRGINIA

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE VIRGINIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY:

I have the honor to submit the following report comprising a summary of the varied activities of the Society and presenting a detailed statement of its finances, membership and property for the year ending November 30th, 1916—which report has been duly examined, verified and unanimously approved by your Executive Committee.

Though there is little of paramount moment, apart from the solid achievement of the Society in its recognized field, to claim special attention, it is gratifying to report that the year has been, from every point of view, a prosperous one, and that, at the end of its eighty-fourth year, our organization is as full of high aspiration and of lusty vigor as in the "May-morn of its youth," while it is far better equipped than ever before in its history for the successful prosecution of its ever-broadening aims.

Our collections have been excellent, owing to the drastic purging from our rolls of persistent delinquents, while, in spite of the sad inroads of death, our membership has grown to 766, an increase of 9 over last year.

Though we have had no bequests or subscriptions to swell our "Permanent Fund," we have yet made a substantial addition to it through the economical and sagacious management of the Society's current revenues.

That our finances continue in a thoroughly sound and satisfactory condition is evidenced by the subjoined report of our efficient Treasurer, which, having been duly audited, is here presented in full:

TREASURER'S REPORT:

I herewith submit my report for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1916, and of the Permanent Fund at this present date:

Balance in Bank December 1, 1915.....	$369.74
---------------------------------------	----------

Receipts.

To Permanent Fund.....	1,350.00
Job Printing.....	27.00
Books, Stationery and Binding.....	108.48
Sundry Bills.....	320.98	5,358.51
Balance in Bank November 30, 1916.....		513.78
		$5,872.29

PROCEEDINGS.

Permanent Fund.

Twenty-five (25) shares stock Citizens Bank of Norfolk, paying 10%, estimated value.....	$5,000.00
Real estate mortgage 6%.....	1,000.00
Real estate mortgage 6%.....	1,000.00
Real estate mortgage 6%.....	4,500.00
Savings Deposit 3%.....	1,650.00
	$13,150.00

In accordance with an order of the Executive Committee, the Treasurer presents the following tabulated statement, showing the sources from which the Permanent Fund is derived. What is termed the "Society's Fund" comprises the amount the Committee has been able to save from year to year out of the ordinary revenues of the Society.

The Virginia Sturdivant McCabe Fund, given by the President of the Society in loving memory of his grand-daughter, Virginia Sturdivant McCabe, born February 1, 1906, died August 11, 1909.....	$ 500.00
The Jane Pleasants Harrison Osborne McCabe Fund, given by the President of the Society in loving memory of his wife, Jane Pleasants Harrison Osborne McCabe, who died November 22, 1912.....	500.00
Daughters of the American Revolution Fund.....	100.00
Byam K. Stevens Fund.....	650.00
Edward Wilson James Fund.....	4,500.00
Society's Fund.....	6,900.00
	$13,150.00

Omitting the $1000.00 entered from the Savings Account to be reinvested, our total receipts for the last fiscal year were $302.15 greater than those of the year before. The collection of annual dues exceeds the former year by $158.05; Life Membership fees were $200.00 greater; and the sale of magazines increased $48.51. Our routine expenses, as might have been expected, have been higher than during the year before, but, in spite of this, we have had a balance at the end of the year larger by $141.04 than that of the preceding year, and have added $550.00 to the Permanent Fund, entirely from the ordinary revenues of the Society.

The condition of our finances during the year would have been gratifying at any time, but it is especially so during an era of very high prices.

I regret to state that one source of addition to the Permanent Fund has ceased. For a number of years, a part of our lot, on the alley, has been rented at $150.00 a year and this amount was always placed in the Fund. The renter has given the notice required in his contract and after the first quarter of 1917 he will cease to use that part of the lot.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT A. LANCASTER, Jr.,
Treasurer.

Commissioner of Education, Department of Universities and Schools, Paris (France), American Bar Association, Virginia Bar Association, Carnegie Institute, Smithsonian Institution, Bunker Hill Monument Association, National Society D. A. R., Hispanic Society of America, U. S. National Museum, Industrial Department C. & O. R. R. Co., Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Universities of Toronto, of California and of North Carolina.

A large number of newspapers and periodicals have been bound, while our "binders" containing valuable pamphlets now number 371, an addition of 20 during the year. The total number of these pamphlets is now approximately 4000.

The book-shelves authorized last year are already well-nigh filled, but we have been materially helped during the year in the matter of shelf-room by the gift of three large bookcases, two of these presented by Dr. McGuire Newton and one by Mr. William G. Stanard.

During 1916, a beginning was made of a card-catalogue of the whole library, designed for the convenience of readers and students who frequent our "Society House". To this end, we bought a case of twelve drawers (which can be added to as needed) and have begun the systematic purchasing of "catalogue-cards" from the Library of Congress; at the same time adding typewritten cards for such printed titles as that Library was unable to furnish. We have now 1163 cards filed, but, as these cover but five cases out of the nine in the front reading-room (on our first floor), it is obvious that the preparation of this minute general catalogue cannot, with our present clerical force, be finished for some time yet. It is expected, however, that all of the books in this front reading-room (which comprise the volumes most consulted by students) will be catalogued during the present winter. It is pertinent to state, in this connection, that we already have a manuscript card-catalogue of every item in our "Collections", but this is accessible to readers only by express permission of the Librarian. The rapidity with which the general card-cataloguing can be completed is, of course, dependent on the amount the Society can spare for the purpose from its current revenue.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS.

1. A crimson silk book-mark used for years by General Robert E. Lee in the Prayer-book from which he read morning prayers daily.

After the death of his wife at Lexington (Nov. 6th, 1873), this book-mark was given by their youngest daughter, Mildred.

to her cousin, Mrs. Annie Lee Harrison, of Leesburg, Virginia, who now generously presents it (through the President) to the Virginia Historical Society.

An accompanying autograph letter from Miss Mildred Lee to Mrs. Harrison amply attests the authenticity of this precious relic, which, it is needless to say, will always be reverently guarded by the Society as one of its most cherished possessions.

2. A portrait of our former Corresponding Secretary, Philip Alexander Bruce, LL.D.—presented by that distinguished historian, in response to an express request preferred by the Executive Committee.

3. A manuscript "Note-Book" kept by John Mason at Williamsburg, Va., and other places, during 1818, containing, in addition to his "notes," addresses delivered before the literary societies of William and Mary College and other items of rare interest—presented by Randolph Hurry, esq., of New York City.

4. Beads from Indian graves in the old "Nottoway Burying Ground"—presented by Dr. W. B. Barham, Newsom, Va.

5. A piece of bunting alleged to be a part of General Robert E. Lee's "Head-Quarter flag," and also a "token" (very much like an English penny in appearance), which bears the inscription, "54th Virginia Regiment"—presented by Mrs. J. Paul Nolting, Plainfield, N. J.

6. Engraved portrait of General Robert E. Lee—presented by Misses Jane S. and E. L. Stanard, Richmond, Virginia.

7. A photograph of President Jefferson Davis, taken in Richmond in 1867, when he came to this city, a "prisoner of state," to stand trial under indictment for "treason"—a trial which the U. S. Government, conscious of its flimsy "case," put off from time to time, until in 1869 the prosecution was dropped, and the final entry made "case dismissed"—presented by Robert B. Munford, Jr., esq., of Richmond, Va.

8. Photograph of the tomb of Lawrence Washington, Wheeling, W. Va.—presented by Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, Richmond, Va.

9. Manuscript Roster of the Thirteenth Virginia Infantry, Army of Northern Virginia—presented by William H. Lyne, esq., Orange, Va.

10. Engraved portrait of General T. J. ("Stonewall") Jackson—presented by Arthur L. Stevens, esq., New York City.

11. A large collection of MS. notes from Virginia County Records, consisting of completed genealogies and of genealogical data, transcribed by the late Captain Wilson Miles Cary, a trained genealogist—presented, on behalf of his heirs, by his nephew, Fairfax Harrison, esq., of "Belvoir House," Fauquier County, Va. (These notes, arranged in two large volumes and in three "files," under the general title of "The Cary Papers," have been carefully indexed).

12. A most interesting collection of letters, autographs, manuscripts and pamphlets—bequeathed to the Society by the late Miss Kate Mason Rowland, of Richmond, Virginia, a member of this Society. (These have also been placed in "files" and indexed).

13. "Speed's Map of Virginia and Maryland," together with an engraved portrait of John Gilmer Speed of Kentucky, cartographer, engineer and journalist—presented (both framed) by Gilmer S. Adams, esq., Louisville, Ky.

PUBLICATIONS.

1. Volume XXIV of our Magazine was published during the year, steadily maintaining the high position won for it by its accomplished Editor, who has consistently adhered to his established purpose of printing (save in very rare instances) only first-hand documents relating to Virginia history.

2. The "Minutes of the Council and General Court" (1622-1629), transcribed from the originals (bound in 2 volumes) in the Library of Congress. It will be remembered that the late Lothrop Withington, of London, an accomplished antiquarian and genealogist, undertook years ago, at his own instance and without one penny of compensation, to transcribe for the Society these venerable records, and that he continued to perform this "labor of love" up to May 1915, when he sailed for England on the ill-starred "Lusitania" and met his tragic fate at the hands of German miscreants. The untimely death of this staunch and generous friend rendered it imperative that prompt provision should be made for securing transcripts of the second volume of these rare MSS. To that end, our Corresponding Secretary, by direction of the President, went at once to Washington, and, through the courteous permission of Dr. Putnam, head of the Congressional Library, caused "photostatic" copies to be made of the originals.

As all of you will readily allow who have glanced over these originals, they are well-nigh undecipherable by any one not a trained expert, because of the crabbed hand-writing and bewildering abbreviations of the different scribes employed in the task. Fortunately, our Secretary is such an expert, and he has not only successfully deciphered these "photostatic" reproductions, but has immensely enhanced the inherent value of the records by a wealth of apposite annotations, for which all historical students must feel grateful.

We cannot refrain from emphasizing yet once again the superlative value of these "Minutes." They constitute, most probably, the oldest records in America that originated in the Colonies, and we do not hesitate to declare that, so far as is known to us, no document whatever dealing with our early Colonial history possesses a more solid and illumining value.

Already, as is known to you, we have printed in full the transcriptions of the first volume, and, when those comprising the second shall have been completed in our pages, and the whole shall be presented in book form, there can be little doubt that historical students everywhere will welcome it as an unrivalled "human document," portraying with homely simplicity, yet dramatic vividness, almost every phase of the intimate social and industrial life of the Virginia Colonists in the Seventeenth century.

3. Through the kindness of the Rev. William J. Hinkie, Ph. D., D. D., of the "Auburn (N. Y.) Theological Seminary," we were enabled to publish in three numbers of our Magazine the very striking "Report of the Journey of Francis Louis Michel from Berne, Switzerland, to Virginia (Oct. 23, 1701—Dec. 1, 1702)." This "Report" translated (from the original in the "City Library" of Berne) by Dr. Hinkie and carefully annotated by that erudite scholar ("Part II" containing additional annotations by our Editor) appeared for the first time in English guise in our pages, and must have afforded keen pleasure to a wide circle of readers.

There is not, indeed, a page of it that Virginians would not be the poorer for missing.

Though Michel was not skilful in the limner's art (as is evidenced by the original sketches accompanying his narrative), he unquestionably wielded a facile and flowing pen, and many of his lively pages remind us constantly of delightful "Master Pepys."

Especially vivid and picturesque is his description of the ceremonies, in turn stately, solemn and jocund, on the occasion of the official proclamation in Williamsburg by his Excellency, Governor Francis Nicholson, of the death of "His Glorious Majesty," King William III, and of the accession of "good Queen Anne." These ceremonies took place in the college grounds of "William and Mary" (so named for the deceased King and his spouse, both munificent patrons of that ancient foundation) and occurred on May 18th, 1702.

As a becoming setting for the reading of the proclamations, the Governor had called out the military contingents of the six neighboring counties, and these troops to the number of 2000, infantry, cavalry, and dragoons, together with two batteries of field artillery, were drawn up in front of the college, forming three sides of a great square, the fourth side being filled in by the imposing front of the college itself. As part of the stately pageant, there is also a great number of the neighboring gentry, mounted and armed, and sixty stalwart Indian warriors serving as escort to two of their queens, who appear in all their barbaric finery of beads and feathers. The college windows are packed, tier on tier, with "dames of high degree," and on the balconies of each story are ranged the musicians, who play "very movingly and mournfully," says the chronicler, as the troops move into position. A great concourse of humbler folk, all afoot, fill up the view beyond. When the ranks are settled and all is ready, the high constable appears bearing the sceptre, and then come picked soldiers, all in mourning, escorting the royal standards—sceptre and standards alike draped in crape. "Then followed the Governor in black, as also his white horse, whose harness was draped with black." There is a hush, and Mr. Secretary announces the death of their King. This finished, the Governor takes command, and the troops, wheeling into column, march slowly, with arms reversed and the band playing a martial dirge, to an immense tent erected inside the college grounds, where the bishop (as the narrative dubs the clergyman) "delivered a touching oration, which caused many to shed tears." This memorial service ended, presto! "Le roi est mort! vive le roi!" The troops march back to a lively tune, while the Governor, who has slipped away for a few minutes, reappears almost immediately in a resplendent uniform of blue and gold, mounted on a richly caparisoned steed, the standards are uncased and flung to the breeze, and Queen Anne is proclaimed by Mr. Secretary amid tumultuous cheering and flinging of loyal caps into the air. The arms were then stacked, and His Excellency, now all smiles, ordered the gentry folk present to be "entertained right royally," while the humbler sort "each received a glass of rum or brandy with sugar." Twice that day was Queen Anne proclaimed at other points in the little town (with more "rum and sugar," we may be sure) and at night the Governor gave a great feast to the leading gentry, and to the officers of the "four war-ships" that fetched to him the orders for the proclamation, at which loyal toasts were drunk in "Rhenish" and "Canary," and cannon thundered, while bugles and hautboys and violins played inspiring airs. After dinner there was a grand display of fireworks in front of the college (crowded to suffocation with the higher gentry, men and women), which the colonials considered magnificent, but which the Swiss traveler, with great self-complacency, declares were "not worth while seeing," affording "little diversion for one who has seen much more than these."

For the whole of two days, the gay little capital was en fête, everybody, gentle and simple, in high good humor, including the Indians, though 'tis sad to add that the elder of the two Indian Queens got very, very, drunk and "lay on the ground like an unreasonable brute," says the narrative, while the younger one, "timid and shy," came in to the Governor and his guests as they sat over their wine at his roaring "stag dinner" and "danced so wonderfully, yea, barbarously, that every one was astonished and laughed"; and dear king William was as clean forgot as if he had never come out of Holland to rule over the English, and, no doubt, Queen Anne continued to be "proclaimed" many, many times (of course, unofficially, but with the usual accompaniments of "rum and sugar"), and if there were the inmemorial headaches of "next morning," they find no mention in the brisk pages of this very frank chronicler.

A brave episode bravely told.

Quite apart from the narrative itself, the pen-and-ink sketches accompanying it (though crude from an artistic point of view, as we have hinted) must prove of great interest to antiquarians, as many of the buildings depicted (e. g., the first college building of "William and Mary," as it was in 1702, before it was destroyed by fire (1705), the original "Old Bruton Church" and others) have long since disappeared. In addition, there is a map of the "Entrance to Chesapeake Bay," drawn by Michel and a few of his rather grotesque, yet effective, sketches of the Indians and their homes.

4. Mr. David I. Bushnell, Jr. (a member of the Society and widely known as an expert in Indian history in the "Bureau of American Ethnology") has contributed two more instalments of his valuable series, entitled "The Virginia Frontier in History, 1778." The first instalment describes the "Events Leading to the Treaty of Fort Pitt," and contains a large number of letters (never before in print) from the chief actors in the "preliminary negotiations," transcribed by Mr. Bushnell from the originals in the Library of Congress; while the second deals with the treaty itself and presents to us for the first time full transcriptions of the speeches made by the chiefs of the "Delawares" and by the Commissioners of the Government in the grave "pow-wows," which resulted in formulating "a treaty of peace and friendship" at Fort Pitt, September 17th, 1778. The speeches on both sides are intensely interesting and it is a wonder that they have never been published before. From a photograph of a portion of the original treaty, kindly sent to us by Mr. Bushnell, we were able to reproduce facsimiles of the signatures of the Commissioners and of the witnesses, also of the "marks" the American Medical Association. The American Medical Association is the largest and most influential organization in the United States, representing the interests of the medical profession. It is a non-profit organization, and its primary purpose is to advance the health of the public through the promotion of the highest standards of medical practice. The American Medical Association is a member of the World Medical Association, and it is also a member of the International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry.

of the three "Delaware" chiefs, as they appear in the official copy of the treaty. Among the signatures are those of General MacIntosh and Colonel Brodhead and of such stout Virginia "Indian fighters" as "the Honorable Andrew Lewis, the Honorable Thomas Lewis," Colonel Crawford, who was captured four years afterwards by the Indians and burned at the stake, and Colonel John Gibson, who survived the perils of war full forty years, and died at a ripe age in the second decade of the last century.

These instalments, like the previous ones, are admirably annotated throughout and we venture to reiterate the hope, expressed in our last Report, that, when completed, the whole series shall be presented in book form as constituting a solid contribution to the early history of the commonwealth.

5. "The Council Papers" (1698-1702), transcribed by our own copyist from the long-forgotten manuscript volume (so entitled) in the Virginia State Library, instalments of which we have continued to publish since 1913 to the increasing delight of our readers, is now nearing conclusion with the printing in full of the elaborate "Reports of Col. William Byrd (the First), Auditor General of Virginia," in which not only the determined economic student, but the general reader as well, will find much that is of interest and of value.

We may be allowed to pause a moment here and note that the January (1916) instalment of these "Papers" contains a letter (November, ye 11th, 1702) written by the "English Commissioners of Trade" to "His Excellency Francis Nicholson, "Governor General of Her Majesty's Collonye and Dominion of Virginia," inclosing Queen Anne's Proclamation, "directing a Publick Thanksgiving for the Present Great Successes of Her Majesty's Arms by Sea and land" (i. e., in the "War of the Spanish Succession") "throughout England and all her Plantacons in America." This letter is signed by "Yo'r very loving Friends" and it is a delightful surprise to find among the signatures the name of "Mat Pryor—not "Matthew," but simply "Mat," as he was familiarly called by his intimates—the boon-companion of Harley and Bolingbroke and Pope and Swift, the last of whom seems to have been fonder of him than of any other member of that wondrous literary coterie—not even excepting the “Papist lad,” Alexander, Pope, whom the great gloomy Dean “applauded” and “petted and taught mischief,” as Thackeray neatly puts it.

William III, whose Secretary he had been in Flanders, put him into the Commissionship with which we are here concerned, and Anne, on her accession, retained him in the place.

But with her death, at which time he was English Ambassador at Paris, came a sudden end to all his ambitions, and he was promptly dismissed from all his posts.

Thackeray, whose charming lecture on Prior is familiar to you all, is, however, mistaken when he says that “Mat” “lived under a cloud ever after and disappeared in Essex.” An avowed, nay, ardent, disciple of Horace (whose poems he knew by heart, and always carried in his pocket wherever the fates might take him), he practiced, when misfortunes came thick and fast, the serene philosophy that his Epicurean master had inculcated in his haunting cadences. To paraphrase the Roman bard a trifle, he praised Fortune while she remained, but when she shook her swift wings, he resigned with manly fortitude what she had given and looked the world in the face with unshaken front. He straightway issued a corrected edition of his poems, which brought him in the extraordinary sum of 4000 guineas and my Lord Harley (now become Earl of Oxford) having munificently presented him with £4000 more, he purchased the fine estate of “Down Hall” in Essex and there lived and died “like a gentleman.”

No doubt, to many this will all seem an irrelevant discursus, but we think that there are few Virginians, “to the manner born,” who will not feel a thrill, however slight, of nameless delight at the thought that there exists such an interesting link as this letter between our “Old Dominion” and the famous “Queen Anne” man-of-letters, whom the poet Gay apostrophized as “Prior, beloved of every Muse,” and whose verses Thackeray declares to be “among the easiest, the richest, the most charmingly humorous of English lyrical poems.”

6. The series of “Abstracts,” made by the late W. N. Sainsbury, of valuable MS. documents in the British “Public Records Office" dealing with Virginia matters in the seventeenth century, as well as the "Complete Transcripts" of many of these highly important papers (copied for the Virginia State Library and catalogued there under the title of the "De Jarnette," "Winder," and "McDonald" Papers) has run throughout the year. These latest instalments cover the years 1678-79 and contain much matter of genuine historical import to students of the distracted conditions existing in Virginia during the years immediately subsequent to the suppression, or, rather, the collapse, of "Bacon's Rebellion," caused by the untimely death of its glorious young leader. Had he lived, the history of Virginia, from 1676 on, would assuredly have been far different. At any rate, one feels sure that Virginia would, at least, have escaped the distresses and exactions that came upon her under the governorship of Bacon's cousin, Lord Culpeper, who proved himself as grasping and as corrupt as did any "Carpet-Bag Governor" in the South, during the infamous days of "Reconstruction."

It is pertinent to note here that the Sainsbury's "Abstracts" contain one-third more matter than is comprised in the stately volumes published by the "Public Records Office," while the more important papers are for the first time presented in full in our Magazine. The Society may well feel proud of this achievement in the domain of historical study.

7. "The Pittsylvania County Tithables, 1767," contributed by Mrs. M. E. Clement (a loyal member of the Society) has been concluded. We can only reiterate here our regret that we have not similar lists (giving the number of acres of land owned by each resident in the county, together with the names of the "tithables") for all the counties in the commonwealth. Such lists would enable close students of comparative economics to solve more than one vexed problem that confronts us.

8. The publication of the "Letters of William Byrd" (the First), which we promised in our last Annual Report, began in our July number. These letters, our readers will agree, not only throw much light on the conduct of trade between Virginia and the Mother Country, but afford intimate information touching social and industrial life in the Colony. They have been copiously annotated by our Editor, and, quite apart from their economic value, not a few of them will prove amusing reading to even the idlest "skimmer."

9. Among the miscellaneous papers worthy of special mention, that have appeared in our Magazine during the year, may be noted: (1) "The Will of Colonel John Baylor of 'Newmarket,' Caroline County, Virginia" (proved May 16th, 1772), which gives one a very vivid notion of the vast possessions and varied interests of a rich Virginia planter of the time. He was County Lieutenant of Orange, where he held immense estates and was a member of the House of Burgesses for Caroline, where he owned still broader acres. Educated in England at "Putney Grammar School" and at Caius College, Cambridge (as his son John was after him), he was a keen reader, possessed a fine library, and could read his Virgil or Horace "with his feet on a fender." But he was keener still as a "gentleman racer" and breeder of "blooded stock," (as was the term in those days), not a few of his horses being imported direct from England. His "racing stud," as the Will shows, could boast such famous "blooded horses" as "Fearnought," "Ballad Stella," "Godolphin," "Sprightly," "Sober John" and many other names familiar to our grandsires versed in "thoroughbred" pedigrees. At his death, over one hundred of these thoroughbreds were sold by his Executors, and it is sad to have to add that this almost feudal land-owner, who practiced a most unbounded hospitality and who every year rode in state to the meeting of the "Burgesses" yonder in Williamsburg in his "charriot and four," left his great estate so involved that many of his generous bequests proved of little worth.

His splendid estate of "Newmarket," however, happily remains to this day in the possession of his direct descendants, who worthily maintain the high traditions of an honored name.

(2) "Abstract of a Chancery Suit: President and Masters of the College of William and Mary vs. Frewen," kindly transcribed for the Society from the records of the English High Court of Chancery by Leo Culleton, esq., of London, a well-known antiquarian. This so-called "Abstract" is really a full transcript of the "Bill of Complaint" brought by the President and Masters of William and Mary College vs: Laton Frewen, Gent., praying the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal to compel the said Frewen to carry out his agreement to purchase from the "Complainants" the "Capitall Messuage" known as "Brafterton Hall," Yorkshire, which property had been originally bought by the Executors of the Honorable Robert Boyle (the famous scientist and theologian) and turned over to the College, which was the chief beneficiary under Boyle's will. The purchase had proved unsatisfactory to the College authorities, so far as income was concerned, for this amounted to only £270 per annum, out of which had to be deducted cost of repairs and an annual charge of £90 or one-third of the whole income, which was to be devoted to the instruction in the Christian religion of ye natives (i. e. Indians) of New England. The College, therefore, offered to sell the property to this Yorkshire gentleman, who closed with the offer. but, the Complaint alleges, "now flyes of his said Agree't."

They pray the Court to compel him to stand by his bargain.

It is easy for even a layman, reading between the lines of what "honest Jack Falstaff" would call the "damnable iterations" of the archaic legal phraseology, to see that the whole proceeding is really what is commonly known as a "friendly suit in Chancery," to the end that the Court might decree "clear title" to the purchaser.

Frewen practically says in his "Answer," "Soe as this Honourable Court will decree a good conveyance of the fee symple of the said Messuage, freed from the former charityes," I stand ready to pay down the money.

This is not the place to go into the details of the case, but this "Complaint" clears up one point (meticulous, if you like), which seems to have been very generally misapprehended. It has been repeatedly and authoritatively stated in print that the whole of the £90 yearly charges on the income from the "Brafterton" estate was to be paid over to "The President and Fellowes of Harvard College in Cambridge in New England," and by implication, at least, that it was to be devoted to the support of that foundation. This is a mistake, which a careful reading of what is known as "The Transfer of the College of William and Mary" to trustees in Virginia, would have obviated.

The whole £90 was to be paid over to the "Company for Propagating the Gospel in New England and ye parts adjacent in America." The "Company" was to expend directly one moiety of this amount for the salaries of two ministers, who should instruct "ye natives" in those parts in the Christian religion. The other moiety (£45), the "Company" was to remit annually to the President and Fellows of Harvard College for the same purpose.

Curiously enough, while a reference to the "Transfer" would have corrected the mistake as to the annual sum that Harvard was to receive and disburse, a significant error in the printed text of that "Transfer" (if Mr. Culleton's transcription from the Chancery Records is accurate, as we feel sure it is) accounts for the implication that her moiety was to be devoted to Christian instruction of the Indians as students in the College.

The "Transfer" (as printed) reads, "for the salary of two other ministers to teach the said natives. in or near the College, the Christian religion." The "Complaint of the President and Masters of the College of William and Mary vs: Frewen," reads, "for the sallary of two other preaching ministers to teach ye said natives in or near ye said Collonyes in the Christian Religion." No doubt, it practically amounted to the same thing, so far as the purpose of the bequest and the actual expenditure of the whole £90 were concerned, but it is the special province of Historical Societies to "keep the record straight," in things small as well as great.

(3) "Abstracts of Lists of Wills and Administrations from British Probate Courts" ("Compiled and presented" by the late Lothrop Withington and by Leo Culleton, esq., of London) have appeared in each number of our Magazine under their usual title of "Virginia Gleanings in England." On Mr. Withington's tragic death (to which we have already alluded in this Report), his fellow antiquarian, Mr. Leo Culleton of London, generously volunteered to take up his friend's unfinished task, thus enabling us to continue without interruption the series which we began as far back as January 1903.

These wills, every one of which, we may say here, we read with unflinching interest, reveal so suggestively the surroundings and daily activities of the Virginia Colonists and of their forebears in England, that it would require but small power of imagination to reproduce from them a very vivid picture of the little world in which the testators lived and moved and had their being—even, at times, to discern their personal characteristics, their ambitions and disappointments.

To the many readers, who have, no doubt, enjoyed these intimate contributions as much as we have, it must prove welcome news that Mr. Culleton has promised to continue the series.

(4) "Extracts from King William County (Va.) Records" were contributed by our indefatigable friend, Mr. William B. Cridlin of this city, whose skill as a transcriber fully matches his antiquarian enthusiasm. These records have had everything to happen to them but an earthquake. Especially have they been grievously damaged by a succession of fires, but, after the last fire, the Clerk of the County Court, with a zeal that cannot be too highly commended, gathered up the torn and charred fragments, placed them carefully in their appropriate places and caused the whole (comprising several large volumes) to be substantially bound. When Mr. Cridlin shall have completed these "Abstracts," he will have performed a service signally useful to historical students and most creditable to himself.

(5). "Extracts from the Virginia Gazette, 1752 and 1755," transcribed from the rare issues of that paper now on file in the "New York Public Library," and courteously contributed by Mr. Austin P. Scott, comprise many amusing "items," though they deal chiefly with crimes and criminals. It must not be inferred from these "extracts" that crime was more rife, or criminals more numerous, in Virginia than in the other colonies. The explanation of the almost exclusive tenor of the excerpts lies in the fact that Mr. Scott has been making a special study of criminology in the Colonies and naturally transcribed, in chief measure, the "items" directly bearing on his subject. Though the majority of the extracts read like a chapter out of the "Newgate Calendar," a few of them deal with less sinister happenings.

(6). The Departments of "Notes and Queries," "Book-Reviews" and "Genealogy" have been maintained at their usual high level. As regards the last named, it may be permissible for us to report what we deemed worthy of special mention in our last Report—that a large proportion of our present membership is, in its origin, directly traceable to the very attractive manner in which this department has been conducted.

To select one instance out of several, the genealogy of the Fleming family (which we began in 1915 and which is not yet completed) is no mere arid record of births, marriages and deaths, but rather a delightful history of a great Virginia family, which constantly reminds one of such charming books as Dr. Augustus Jessopp's, "One Generation of a Norfolk House," or John Russell's "The Haigs of Bcmerside."

It not only contains much matter of solid value relating to our Colonial and Revolutionary history, but in it are included numbers of graphic letters, ranging in content, as Mr. Pope would say, "from grave to gay, from lively to severe"—some dealing with public matters and military activities during the Revolution, while others (to us far the most delightful) are given up exclusively to intimate family affairs. Especially noteworthy among the latter are letters from Thomas Jefferson (then a law-student in Williamsburg under George Wythe) to his college-mate, William Fleming (destined in the coming years to be Judge, first of the General Court, and, later on, of the Superior Court of Appeals), full of delicious philosophising about matrimony, in which he gives his absent friend ("Dear Will") all the latest gossip touching the bewitching belles and "pretty sparks" of the lively little town. Jefferson himself was just then revelling in a very "luxury of woe" because that brilliant young creature, Rebecca Burwell (whom he apostrophized as "Belinda" and for whom he played his most ravishing airs on his beloved violin) had, to his consternation, suddenly "changed her mind" and given her hand to his rival gallant, young Mr. Jacquelin Ambler.

Very touching, too, is the letter written by Mary Fleming (under date of April 16th, 1777) to her uncle, Captain Charles Fleming of the 7th Virginia Regiment, regarding the death of her brother, Captain John Fleming, who, after nearly two years of gallant service in the Continental Army, had fallen but a few months before at "Princeton," while leading his regiment with such conspicuous valor as drew special praise from Washington himself.

The writer of this exquisite letter and her younger sister, Susanna Fleming, were primae inter primas among the reigning "toasts" of the brilliant society that at the time gathered in Williamsburg during the sessions of the "Assembly," and suitors they had in plenty. Very charming they must, indeed, have been according to some very vivacious stanzas reprinted here from a contemporary poem entitled "The Belles of Williamsburg" (whether written by St. George Tucker or the witty Dr. McClurg is a mooted point), in which the enraptured bard extols in faultless numbers the respective attractions of these aristocratic paragons. In these stanzas, Mary Fleming, according to the fashion of the time, is celebrated under the name of "Myrtilla," while the younger sister claims our homage as "Sylvia."

Whoever the poet may have been, the verses are worthy a place in any anthology of sparkling "vers-de-société," and neither Praed nor Mr. Austen Dobson might disdain to have signed them.

As we have already stated, the book-notices have been uniformly of a high degree of merit, but there is one to which we are impelled to draw especial attention, lest by any chance it may have been overlooked by some of our readers. It is a review in our January (1916) number of a volume entitled "George Washington, Farmer: Being an Account of His Home Life and Agricultural Pursuits."

The author is Prof. Paul Leland Haworth, who has won no little distinction by various historical monographs. The reviewer (as all readers of the article must have instantly divined) is our accomplished Corresponding Secretary and Editor. The reviewer does not by any means approach his task after the manner of that truculent critic, "Mr. Bludyer," whom Thackeray has immortalized in "Pendennis," nor would his innate modesty ever allow him to assume the airy omniscience of "master Pen" himself, who, as we all remember, stood ready at twenty-four hours' notice to review the "Encyclopaedia" for the "Pall Mall Gazette." On the contrary, he pronounces the book, on the whole, as a very valuable and interesting work. He gives the author full credit for painstaking study of the vast mass of printed material bearing on Washington's home-life and agricultural activities. But, when Dr. Haworth, leaving the beaten path of the subjects indicated in his title, essays to discuss, with a certain air of "cocksureness," conditions in general existing in Virginia at the time, the hand of the reviewer, who "knows his subject" as few men do, falls heavy upon him. What he has to say will not be pleasant reading to Dr. Haworth, but it may "prove a blessing in disguise," as we are told most of the disagreeable things in life really are.

The author quotes Martha Washington (p. 49) as saying that she "remembered a time when there was only one coach in Virginia." Whereupon, our amiable reviewer sweetly remarks, "If she said this, she was at the time in a state of mental debility of which there is no other record."

Then follows an array of evidence from wills, appraisements and such like records touching the number of coaches in the colony long before Martha Washington was old enough to remember anything—evidence that has been accessible for years in the pages of our Magazine and of the "William and Mary Quarterly," which must convince every reader that it would have been well for Dr. Haworth to have gone to the records instead of accepting without investigation such loose and (most probably) apocryphal statements.

So, in regard to the author's ignorance as to the breeding of "blooded" horses in Virginia and the extent of sheep-raising among Colonial planters. One would have thought that a historical student of Dr. Haworth's repute would, at least, have consulted Dr. Philip Alexander Bruce's monumental "Economic History of Virginia in the Seventeenth Century" (which is certainly accessible in almost all libraries) before writing on such subjects. Had he done so, he would have been spared these mortifying blemishes in an otherwise admirable book.

"The blessing in disguise" (which we have so feelingly alluded to above) may turn out to be that the "new school" of historical writers (to which Prof. Haworth belongs) may, hereafter, turn to an earnest study of Dr. Bruce's volumes and of the transcripts from original records printed in the pages of our Magazine and in those of the William and Mary Quarterly, before they venture to write with an ex cathedra air concerning conditions, social, commercial and agricultural, in our "Old Dominion" during the Colonial period.

We make no apology for giving this extended summary of the contents of our Magazine for 1916, because we are satisfied that many of our members, immersed in business or hard driven by professional demands upon their time, are scarcely conscious of the many "good things," by turns delightful and of grave import, that are contained within the gray covers of each quarterly issue.

Our Editor's programme for 1917, subject, of course, to some minor alterations, is as follows:

The "Minutes of the Council and General Court," the "Sainsbury Abstracts," the "Complete Transcripts," the "Letters of William Byrd," the "Virginia Gleanings," and the "Extracts from King William County (Va.) Records," will run continuously throughout the whole year.

The "Council Papers" (1698-1702) will be finished early in the year.

The "Extracts from the Virginia Gazette" (1752-1755) will be concluded in our January number.

In the same number will be published an article by Mr. David I. Bushnell, Jr., entitled "Daniel Boone at Limestone" (the modern Maysville, Ky.), 1786-1787. This article (illustrated by a fac simile page of Boone's accounts, which he called his "Indian Book") contains documents of great interest, never before published, relating to economic conditions on the frontier of Virginia five years before the "District of Kentucky" was erected into a separate state. Mr. Bushnell makes handsome acknowledgments in this paper to Mr. Earl G. Swem of the Virginia State Library for having "called his attention to items (manuscript accounts in the State archives) once belonging to that most romantic and typical character of frontier life, Daniel Boone." Other contributions of like character have been kindly promised by the same author.

"Letters and Petitions," covering the period immediately preceding, and during, the Revolution, transcribed from the originals in the State Archives (publication of which has been unavoidably suspended for several years) will be resumed during the year.

Other valuable letters from our own manuscript collections will be published.

The Departments of "Book-Reviews," "Notes and Queries" and "Genealogy," will, of course, be continued as usual.

Again we venture to draw the attention of our members to the urgent need of a "General Index" to our Magazine. The year 1917 will see the completion of our XXVth volume, and, while each volume already contains a carefully prepared index, a "General Index" (both "subject" and "name," with minute cross-references) to the whole twenty-five volumes would be an inestimable boon both to the general reader and to historical students. The demand for such an index comes to us from all quarters. But an undertaking of such magnitude is, at present, beyond the means of the Society, and, if this "General Index" is to be printed early in 1918, it can only be done through individual subscriptions. One of the officers of the Society is so impressed with the imperative need of this Index, that he has volunteered to subscribe one hundred dollars towards its preparation and publication. It is hoped that a goodly number of others interested in Virginia history will speedily follow his example.

Written promises of subscriptions (whether of large or small amounts) should be sent to the Corresponding Secretary, 707 E. Franklin St., Richmond, Virginia.

To the whole active staff of the Society, your Committee tenders its grateful acknowledgments for the zeal, fidelity and intelligence with which they have each performed their respective duties. But it is only just (and not one of his collaborators will deem it invidious) that we should emphasize in a special manner the steadily increasing debt of gratitude that we all owe to our Corresponding Secretary, whose erudition, industry and single-minded devotion to the Society have achieved for it the high repute it enjoys today among historical students at home and abroad. This is not merely the opinion of those of us, who work in conjunction with him and enjoy the privilege of his personal friendship, but it is the measured verdict of scholars everywhere, who are competent to appreciate his conspicuous services in the domain of historical investigation.

NECROLOGY.

LIFE MEMBERS.

HON. SETH LOW, New York City.

ANNUAL MEMBERS.

ST. GEORGE TUCKER COALTER BRYAN, Richmond, Virginia.

GEORGE CAMERON, Petersburg, Virginia.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Petersburg, Virginia.

MISS ANNE HARVIE, Richmond, Virginia.

EDWARD LUNSFORD LOMAX, San Francisco, California.

COLONEL JOHN B. PURCELL, Richmond, Virginia.

MISS KATE MASON ROWLAND, Richmond, Virginia.

A. D. SLAUGHTER, Chicago, Illinois.

J. H. SPENCER, Martinsville, Virginia.

RAPHAEL SEMMES, Savannah, Georgia.

MRS. MAURICE THOMPSON, Chicago, Illinois.

"This fell sergeant, Death, is strict in his arrest," and ours is again the sad duty to chronicle an appalling necrology.

Of some of these we can make no adequate record by reason of lack of personal knowledge, holding that conventional eulogy, which never rings true, is repellent to all men and women of deep feeling and delicate sensibilities.

Others of them filled so large a place in the public eye and, in consequence, received at their death such elaborate appreciations of their varied activities that it would seem like painting the lily or gilding refined gold for us to seek to add aught to these sympathetic memorials written by far more competent hands.

To this latter group belongs the Hon. Seth Low of New York City, the only one of our "Life Members," whose name "the sudden hand of death" has stricken from the roll.

For full forty years, he played a great and honorable part in the educational and civic life of the nation—President of a great University, whose affairs he administered with consummate skill and of which he was a most munificent benefactor—chief magistrate of the metropolitan city of our country—delegate to the Hague Conference in 1899—trustee of the "Carnegie Institute"—President of numberless "learned societies" (scientific, sociological, geographical and archaeological)—honored by the leading universities at home and abroad with their highest degrees—recognized as a publicist of the first rank and as an enlightened philanthropist, princely in his benefactions, not only to the various activities of his own ancient communion, but to all civic enterprises dedicated to the betterment of his humbler fellow-citizens—devoting years of unselfish and unremitting labor to each and all of them—what wonder that, when the end came, press and pulpit pronounced eulogies on such a noble and beneficent career that were informed throughout with that note of unaffected grief which conventional sorrow has no skill to counterfeit!

We can only set down here that he was greatly interested in the work of this Society, and it may be allowed us to add that, quite apart from all his splendid civic virtues, he was in private life a most gracious and delightful companion, as some of us still remember who enjoyed the privilege of entertaining him under our own roof-tree, and, in turn, were the recipients of his own cordial hospitality.

Of the "Annual Members," those of us who are citizens of Richmond, and who know almost equally well our sister city of Petersburg, cannot fail to mark with poignant personal sorrow how many of our oldest and dearest friends in each place are included in the dread list.

One of the most lovable of them all was St. George Bryan, a brother of our former President, whose vivid personality and inimitable sweetness of disposition won him affectionate welcome alike among the lofty and the lowly.

He was full of ingenuous "prejudices" (which some of us shared to the full) and of scarcely less delightful eccentricities, which made him irresistibly attractive. His mind was acute and distinctly speculative (save in matters of religion), and, though the greater part of his life was spent in the practical out-door work of his profession, he in some way found time to compass a wide range of reading, and constantly astonished his friends by his keen and enlightened interest in subjects little known to the average man, and by his intimate acquaintance with "many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore," of which they knew scarcely more than the bare title.

In his "hot youth," as Shakespeare hath it, he had worn with honor his country's gray as a private soldier in the "Second Company" of the Richmond Howitzers, in which command he served until he had the ill-luck to be severely wounded in the disastrous battle of "Sailor's Creek," April 6th, 1865, just three days before "the Surrender" at Appomattox. He was carried to "Carysbrook," his father's plantation on "the upper James," where, after his wound had healed, he settled down for several years assisting his father in the management of that historic estate. But life in the country at that time, when the ravages of war had not yet been repaired, was too lonely and monotonous to a man of his restless spirit, and so for a period he entered upon a business life, where he made some money, not much, yet enough to pay his expenses at college, and, though now thirty, he entered in 1873 the scientific side of the University of Virginia. Having fitted himself there by hard study to become a mining engineer, after a brief space, he fared forth to seek his fortunes in the far West—mining and "prospecting" in several states and territories. Many were the stirring scenes in which he took part among the Indians of Nevada or of Idaho, the rough miners of California, and, as he pushed northward, among the natives of Vancouver. These adventures, as well as his war-experiences, he was fond of recounting to his intimates, always modestly and without a shadow of self-exploitation. In addition, he was possessed of a large fund of racy and intimate anecdote (of course, unpublished) of his close kinsmen (John Randolph of Roanoke, St. George Tucker and other "worthies"), whose names are still famous in Virginia annals.

In his intercourse with his fellow-men he was thoroughly democratic, but he never forgot the "noblesse oblige" of his strain.

The influences that, in chief measure, colored his whole life, whether in act or utterance, were his deep and fervid (though never obtrusive) piety and his unshaken loyalty to what is now-a-days termed the "Lost Cause." As regards the former, it is no whit an exaggeration to declare that from youth to old age his was the unquestioning faith of a little child, and he believed with all the passion of his loyal soul that the Confederate cause was an altogether righteous cause and held steadfastly that it was not good that a righteous cause should perish from the earth. With his strong religious faith, it was "all a mystery" that the result should have been what it was, but no amount of argument could convince him that it was a "Lost Cause," but, always and forever, a cause "strong with the strength of Truth and immortal with the immortality of Right." If ever the famous line of the Roman stoic was applicable to any mortal among men of our generation, it was to him:

"VICTRIX CAUSA DEIS PLACUIT, SED VICTA CATONI."

He will be best remembered for what he really was—one of the best types of the old-fashioned "Tide-Water Virginian," with a real genius for friendship and hospitality, of high and generous courage, saturated with what the outside world calls "provincialism," but what is to us that splendid "provincialism," of his time and of his breed, which makes a man, according to Tennyson's immortal dictum, really "the best cosmopolite."

He never married, but passed the last years of his life contently among his books and in the companionship of his closest kinsmen, who gave him a responsive affection, that made his old age singularly serene and happy.

He died at the home of his nephew, Judge Daniel Grinnan, a member of our Executive Committee, on April 5th, 1916, in the seventy-third year of his age.

Another of our friends, whose familiar face and figure shall long be missed upon our streets, is Col. John B. Purcell, whose quiet humor, frank manners and consistent kindness endeared him to a host of friends here and elsewhere.

His career could not, perhaps, in the strictest sense of the term, be reckoned an eventful one, yet was his long and honorable life so crowded with beneficent activities and so distinguished by solid achievement, that his place is assured among the most sterling of our "Virginia Worthies."

Only in outline may we venture to sketch here the salient features of that busy life, for his commercial and financial achievements, noteworthy as they were, have been recounted elsewhere in detail by his business associates, who naturally, can speak with a degree of authority, touching that side of his career, which we can in no measure pretend to.

Of the personal side of the man alone can we venture to speak here, our warrant for the attempt being an unbroken friendship extending over half a century.

JOHN BARRY PURCELL, son of John Purcell and Martha Webb, his wife, was born in this city, September 17th, 1849. The mother, a woman of high intelligence and lovely disposition, was a daughter of that fine old "sea-dog," Commodore Thomas T. Webb, of the United States Navy, who had made a gallant record for himself in the "War of '12", and, afterwards, in the "Algerian War," and who died in his native Norfolk about eight years prior to the "War between the States."

The father, in many of his traits a typical Irishman (as he was by blood, though not by birth) is still well remembered by our older citizens as a merchant of high integrity, who in his acquisition of fortune never forgot "the Golden Rule"—given to profuse hospitality, distinguished for his public spirit and of such open-handed generosity that, though a devoted Catholic, he gave with equal liberality to all charities, whether Protestant or those of his own ancient communion.

As is the inexorable experience of life, the remembrance of this kindly, high-spirited, father must inevitably, with the passing of years, have first grown dim and then have sunk into oblivion, but for one of his impulsive acts of princely generosity, which shall assuredly keep alive his name so long as shall endure the fame of the "Army of Northern Virginia."

In the beginning of April, 1861, an artillery company was recruited in this city, and offered for instant service to stout old John Letcher, "Virginia's War-Governor." But the state lacked the guns, horses, uniforms and other necessary equipment of a light battery, and could only hold out to the company vague promises for the future. The ardent young recruits were in despair, when the generous and patriotic old merchant stepped into the breach and offered to equip the whole battery in the most thorough fashion out of his own pocket. Great was the joy of the young volunteers, who, by acclaim, named the battery for their munificent patron, chose, at his suggestion, Lindsay Walker as their captain, and gaily marched away, very proud of the fact that "the Purecell" was the first light battery to leave Richmond for "the front."

This battery was destined to win within the next four years an austere glory, which made its name a household word throughout the army and the state. But at what an appalling price!—the price that "the post of honor" ever exacts. Always skillfully handled in the presence of the enemy, it yet lost two hundred and forty-one men killed and wounded in action. Twice were its depleted ranks filled up by large drafts from the recruiting depots, and not a few young volunteers, as they became of military age, flocked to its colors, eager to take service in a command that had won such fame. Of the original one hundred and twenty five cannoneers, who had so blithely entrained for Acquia Creek in April 1861, only five were left when Grant, on May 23rd, 1864, attempted to force the passage of the North Anna at "Jericho Ford." One of the five fell on that glorious field.

In all soberness, it might justly have inscribed on its rent and grimy battle-flag the single word "UBIQUE," for it enjoys the distinction (unique, so far as we know) of having taken part (and most heroic part according to the official reports of Lee, Jackson and A. P. Hill) in every general action delivered by the "Army of Northern Virginia" from the time Lee assumed command at Seven Pines up to the surrender at Appomattox Court-House.

If you will study the Virginia campaigns in the voluminous "War Records," or read the masterly and entrancing history of the artillery of Lee's army, which Colonel Jennings C. Wise has recently published under the title of "The Long Arm of Lee," you will see that this is no mere extravagance of rhetoric.

At "First Manassas," under Lindsay Walker, afterwards Chief of Artillery of A. P. Hill's Corps, the battery rendered efficient service—Walker received his majority and was given a battalion early in '62, and William Johnson Pegram, a lad of nineteen, reserved almost to shyness, of grave, yet gracious, bearing, scion of one of Richmond's oldest families, became its captain.

It was under Pegram that it was destined to win its great renown. Very gentle and courteous he was in private intercourse, but his discipline, like his resolution, was iron, and his men feared him, yet loved him, and obeyed his slightest sign in desperate and critical events like children. They were immensely proud of the battery and their admiration knew no bounds for their young captain's absolute contempt of danger.

As time went on, Pegram became major and battalion-commander—then lieutenant-colonel, and finally in 1864, full colonel of artillery (one of the eight officers of that grade in the whole artillery corps of Lee's army), but he would never let "the Purcell" leave him. To the disastrous end, fraught with so much mournful glory, it remained part of his superb battalion, and when he himself fell amid his blackened guns in the ill-starred battle of "Five Forks" (the last pitched fight of the war) and the news flashed down the lines, scores of these grizzled veterans broke down and sobbed like children.

Such was "the old Purcell," as these rough soldiers fondly called the battery, and we, the surviving few, who, in those brave old days served under Pegram in that famous battalion, careless of whether all this be regarded as an irrelevant excursus, cannot choose but uncover, when the name of "Purcell" is called, and reverently salute the mighty shades of those grimy cannoneers, who fought their guns like men and did not grudge to die for hearth and home and country.

But, in truth, it is not "irrelevant," for the constant mention of the battery in official despatches, and in the press naturally had a tremendous influence on the little lad, who bore the same name. He was only in his twelfth year, when the war began, but he entreated to be allowed to "go" in some capacity. This was, of course, too absurd to listen to, yet it was fated that, in a measure, he should have his heart's desire before he was fifteen. By dint of persistent pleas, he was allowed in 1863 to enlist in Company G, of Colonel McNerny's regiment of "Forces for Local Defence." This regiment, composed of boys and department clerks, was officially attached to the brigade of heavy artillerymen garrisoning the "Richmond Defences" under command of Brigadier-General Custis Lee, but it was understood that it was only to be called upon for service in case of great emergency. This emergency came at the beginning of March of the next year, when a strong body of veteran horsemen under young Colonel Ulrich Dahlgren essayed to break through the outer defences of the town, release the Federal prisoners at "Belle Isle," burn the city, and put to death Mr. Davis and his cabinet. This was what is known as the "Dahlgren Raid," and to young Purcell's great and lasting delight he took active part in the trenches in repelling the invaders. (The "curious" can read the details of the daring, yet abortive, attempt in Vol. XXXIII of the "War Records").

In May following, he was made first sergeant of his company, which shows that he was even then a good soldier, and a few months later he was detailed as "courier" at the head-quarters of Custis Lee, who had been raised to the rank of Major-General and assigned command of all the outlying troops about the city, including the forces at Drewry's Bluff and Chapin's Farm. Lee took a fancy to the gallant little fellow, who was always ready to carry orders anywhere, and Purcell, in after years, never tired of recounting the many acts of consideration and kindness that he received at the hands of that knightly soldier and gentleman.

While thus serving, it was again his good fortune to take part in several minor "affairs," and it is safe to say that the many honors that came to him in his maturer years were as nothing in his eyes in comparison with the proud reflection that it had been allowed him in early boyhood to "serve the State upon the outer works."

But his active soldiering was now over, for at the end of Dec. '64, having received an appointment to a cadetship at the "Virginia Military Institute," he was ordered to report to the Superintendent of that institution.

As many of the older men here will recall, the renegade Major-General David Hunter, U. S. A., had wantonly destroyed, in the previous June, the academic buildings, library, laboratories and scientific apparatus of the "Institute," and the cadets (boys mostly under military age) were doing duty in the trenches near this city. After the evacuation of Richmond, April 2nd, '65, the corps was disbanded, and it was many, many months before the famous military school could be re-opened, even in rudest fashion, and academic study be resumed.

It is enough to say here that its rehabilitation was accomplished through the persistent energy and devotion of its able Superintendent, General Francis H. Smith, and that young Purcell entered the third class there in January 1866 and graduated, well up in his class, in 1868.

On his graduation he returned to Richmond and began his business career in the long established wholesale drug house of Purcell, Ladd & Company, of which his father and his uncle (Mr. Ladd) were the controlling partners.

From that time on, it may be fairly said, he had an unbroken success. For reasons already intimated, it is not our purpose to dwell upon his business activities.

But it is noteworthy that, though he ever disdained to exploit himself, in everything that claimed his energies and interest he always "arrived," and "at the top."

At the "Institute," he became cadet captain in the corps, and, in after years, was one of the most efficient members of its "Board of Visitors."

He entered the "First Virginia Regiment" in this city as captain, and soon became its colonel. He joined the "Richmond Clearing House," the "Richmond Chamber of Commerce," and the "American Wholesale Druggist Association," and became President of all three.

In 1887, he became a Director in the "First National Bank" of this city (destined to develop into one of the most powerful institutions in the whole South), became Vice-President in 1897, and its President in 1904, holding that position when he died.

Such "honors" are not "accidents," nor can they be explained by the occult influence of "the interests," which is the "blanket" explanation offered by that eminent financier, Mr. William Jennings Bryan, when his best-laid schemes gang aft a-gley.

They come to the man whom his associates instinctively recognize as one fitted above his fellows to compel success.

What is called "public life" had no attractions for him and he steadily refused to be a candidate for political office.

But whenever the "solid men" of Richmond gathered in conference to discuss large public interests or to consider legislation that they deemed imperative for the material and economic welfare of city or state, his counsel was always sought, and invariably he was placed upon the committees to whom was entrusted the task of preparing the proposed legislation and of submitting it to the "Solons" gathered in solemn conclave on "Capitol Hill," whether here or in Washington.

The list of these committees on which he served (far too long to be repeated here) testifies in no mean measure to his unflagging zeal in furthering the financial and commercial upbuilding of community and commonwealth.

He had "an infinite capacity for taking pains," and, when the complex details of some big financial "proposition" had to be unravelled, he would never let go until he had thoroughly mastered the problem.

His knowledge of banking was gained, in chief measure, by practical, every-day, experience, and he probably knew little more of what is called "the science of finance" than the average bank-president.

But his great strength lay in his fine judgment of men, in a certain intuitive sagacity in discerning special ability in those associated with him and in utilizing that ability by assigning its possessors to positions for which they were peculiarly fitted.

When he spoke in public, his utterances were always listened to with marked respect. He stated a case well and had the gift of saying what he meant. However much men might differ with him in opinion, they knew that they would, at least, hear no nonsense. He made no pretense to being what is termed an "orator," but, he spoke without embarrassment and, as we have hinted, with lucid precision. On occasion, when greatly moved by memories of "the Cause" he so ardently loved, he rose to real eloquence, as witness the fine address he delivered at Tappahannock some years ago, when he presented to the county of Essex the handsome tablet given by his wife in memory of her uncle, General Richard Brooke Garnett, who fell at the head of his brigade of Virginians in Pickett's immortal charge at Gettysburg.

In 1872 he married Miss Charlotte Olympia Williamson, daughter of Colonel Thomas M. Williamson, Professor of Engineering at "the Institute."

There are certain relations in life too sacred, as a rule, to be touched upon in public, but, perhaps, it may be allowed us, without unduly offending the sensibilities of those nearest and dearest to him, to say simply that the union was an ideal one in its unclouded happiness.

In the social life of the city, in his clubs and elsewhere, he was a most amusing and delightful companion, for he knew how to play hard as well as work hard, had a great deal of humor and could always "cap" a good story by a better one.

He was a constant reader in many directions and was specially well informed regarding the Confederate war. In simple truth, all matters pertaining to the Confederacy went straight to his heart, and he was ever eager in his support by pen, purse, or utterance of all organizations that had for their object the preservation of the memories and history of that momentous struggle. He was an active member of "Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans," of the "Virginia Division of the Army of Northern Virginia," was on the "Advisory Board" of the "Confederate Museum," in this city, and was especially delighted when elected an "Honorary Member" of the "Pegram Battalion Veteran Association."

In these latter days of strenuous life when the Osler age-limit is the accepted one, he was, no doubt, what the world would reckon an old man, for he had reached the age of sixty-seven, yet, until the last six months of his life, he was so full of initiative and of vitality, that when the unexpected news of his death came, all those who really knew him well felt a great shock as at a life cut off in its prime.

He bore the last few months of his illness with characteristic courage and cheerfulness, and, it is an abiding consolation to his old friends to know that, when the final summons came at Lexington, Virginia (whither he had gone for the summer with his family), on the morning of September 24th, 1916, the end was altogether free of pain.

Doubtless, some of you remember that ours was the sad office to announce at our last "Annual Meeting" the death of our old friend, Alexander Cameron, long one of the most prominent citizens of this community and to attempt, on that occasion, an estimate of his life and character.

In that inadequate sketch, mention was made that he was one of the three very remarkable brothers, William, Alexander and George, who came to Virginia from Scotland some seventy-five years ago with their widowed mother and settled in Petersburg. William has long since been dead, Alexander died in February, 1915, and now George the youngest of the three has followed them to what is called in their beautiful old Scotch speech the "Land o' the Leal."

What the descendants of such a man as George Cameron will most wish to know in the coming time is not what were the special activities in which he engaged during his long and honorable career, but what manner of man, in his daily walk and conversation, was this ancestor, who, starting at the foot of the ladder and confronted by obstacles that would have shaken a less resolute spirit, yet climbed to the top, and achieved not merely a great financial success, but became through sheer force of character a potent factor in the moral and social life of the community in which he lived.

Such information we shall endeavor to set down here in simplest fashion, and with such impartiality as may be given one, who for over fifty years was honored by his close friendship. We may say at the outset that we make no pretence to that studied detachment and cold analysis, which numb alike the heart and the hand of the limner; holding firm to the conviction (regardless of what the disciples of Froude may urge) that no one is fitted to portray, justly and truthfully, the life and character of a contemporary unless he sincerely loved and admired the man he would depict.

The facts in his life are briefly these:

GEORGE CAMERON, youngest son of Alexander Cameron and Elizabeth Grant, his wife, was born on April 23rd, 1839, near Grantown, a small Highland village in Invernesshire. On the death of his father, when he was but two years old, he and his brothers came to Virginia with their mother, a woman of strong sense and of great decision of character, and settled in Petersburg. After brief schooling, the two older boys began their business career in the great tobacco factory of Mr. David Dunlop, a "brither Scot," to whom they were greatly attached to the end of his days.

George, meanwhile, was growing apace, and, when ten years old, was sent back to Scotland to his mother's brother, John Grant, who placed him at one of those admirable "Parish Schools," for which Scotland was so justly celebrated in the old days. There he remained until he was fifteen, when he returned to Petersburg, and, as his brothers had done, entered the "Dunlop factory" to learn the mysteries attending the "manipulation" of what Cowper (just as might be expected) calls the "pernicious weed." After a few years, the elder brothers determined to go into business for themselves, and George joined them in a short time, but not as yet as an equal partner. All three were masters of their craft, shrewd, energetic, enterprising, and their business from the start prospered greatly. William was reckoned a man of "vision" (as the phrase is just now) and, no doubt, was at first and, indeed, for some years afterwards, the directing genius of their enterprises, while Alexander and George were regarded as essentially "conservative." In the final outcome, "conservatism," as is usual, had the best of it. Some twenty years ago, when all of them had become rich men, William withdrew from the firm with a large fortune and for a time seemed to enjoy what is called "elegant leisure." But his restless temperament soon impelled him (this time alone) to enter upon new business ventures of alluring promise, and, when his money "vanished into thin air," men (as is the way of the world) no longer spoke of him as "a man of vision," but as "a visionary man." He was full of bright-eyed observations, had travelled all over the world and seen everybody and everything, "camps and courts," and the surviving few who recall his brilliant conversational powers and his gracious, warm-hearted hospitality, will ever remember him with genuine affection and regard.

But we are anticipating.

George Cameron, when not yet twenty-two, and possessed of only a slender stipend, fell in love, as young men will do, even the "canniest" of Scotchmen, and, taking his courage in both hands, resolved, like another romantic Scot, of famous memory, to put his fate "to the touch," and so proposed marriage to one of the loveliest girls in Petersburg. And the maid, with the courage of perfect love that casteth out fear, bravely said "Yes" to the ardent wooer, and so, on March 13th, 1861, he was married to Miss Helen Dunn, daughter of Thomas R. Dunn and of Helen Spooner, his wife.

Apart from all "romantic" considerations, it was, indeed, a lucky stroke for him, for she was a young woman of exceptionally fine sense, and her wise administration of household affairs in their early married life and her intuitive counsel in larger matters, as time went on, proved no mean factor in his successful career.

In little over a month after their marriage, the storm of war broke, and nowhere throughout the whole South did the "war fever" beat higher than in the gallant little "Cockade City," which, with a population of less than ten thousand whites, sent eighteen full companies—infantry, cavalry and artillery—to what is called to-day, "the firing line"—in those days, simply, "the front."

Though George Cameron remained a British subject all his life, never becoming "naturalized," his devotion to his adopted state was deep and strong, and he at once enrolled himself in Wolfe's company of the "Local Defense Battalion," commanded by gallant old Fletcher Archer of the Petersburg bar, who had years ago won his spurs on the fields of Mexico

It was as a simple private in this command that he took part in the glorious action of June 9th, 1864, at the "Rives House" near Petersburg, when one hundred and twenty-five of the old men and boys of Petersburg, behind hastily-constructed earth-works covering a front of above six hundred yards, repelled the assaults of Kautz and his thirteen hundred picked troopers, and so saved Petersburg. All of his comrades agree that Cameron fought as stubbornly as men of his race always fight when the "perfervidum jecur Scotorum" possesses them. One fourth of that devoted little band fell killed and wounded on that field, and there is a glamour of pathetic glory about that fierce combat, which shall cause it (like "Newmarket") to live in song and story when many of the world's great battles are forgot:

Unluckily, Cameron's company, on the left, was completely enveloped by the superior forces of the enemy, who, attacking flank and rear, captured nearly two score of the Confederates (Cameron among them), whom they succeeded in carrying off as prisoners.

Among others captured with Cameron at the time was Anthony M. Keiley, afterwards mayor of this city, nominated by Cleveland as U. S. Minister, first to Italy and then to Austria, long dean of the "International Court" at Cairo, whom many of us remember as one of the most brilliant men of his day—a sort of "admirable Crichton"—lawyer, editor, orator and man-of-letters. A veteran officer of Lee's army, Keiley happened to be at the time in Petersburg "on leave," and, of course, volunteered (like the gallant soul that he was) to serve that day as a private in Archer's command.

After his return from captivity, he wrote (within a few months) in his apparently careless, yet inimitable, style, an account of the fight and of the subsequent hardships and need-less cruelties, which he and Cameron experienced in the "prison-pen," first at Point Lookout, and, later on, at Elmira, New York.

This modest little volume, long since "out of print," is, no doubt, practically unknown to this generation, but it is one of those genuine "human documents" that can never altogether die—a fit companion volume, indeed, to the "Adventures of Captain Jack Kincaid of the Rifle Brigade," though far superior to the latter in literary distinction.

On November 18th, '64, after over five months of captivity, Cameron was safe back in Petersburg.

Within a few months the war was over, and, slowly at first, but surely, the industrial and commercial life of Virginia and of the whole South awoke and began to bestir itself again. It should be stated just here that, as early as 1862, the Camerons, in addition to their regular business, had made bold ventures in "blockade running," steadily reaping a golden harvest from that time on until Wilmington, N. C., and other Southern ports were "sealed" in '64. They were shrewd and sensible enough to deposit the enormous returns from these ventures in England, so that the end of the war found them with solid credit at home and abroad, which few, if any, Southern firms could boast.

These keen-witted young Scots, as you can readily imagine, were not slow to seize the chance thus offered to their enterprising spirit, and then began that wondrous expansion of their business, embracing two hemispheres—branch houses under varying Cameron titles, or subsidiary firms controlled by them, in Richmond, Louisville, Liverpool, London, Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Brisbane, the last four concerns supplying seventy-five per cent of the manufactured tobacco consumed in India and the Australian Colonies. This expansion, developed gradually and conducted with the traditional Scotch caution, required a good many years for its achievement, but, looking back now and viewing it as a whole, the story reads like some chapter out of "Monte Christo" or the "Arabian Nights."

In 1883, in the midst of these strenuous activities, he suffered a grievous blow in the death of his wife, who for some years had been an invalid. He bore the blow with characteristic fortitude and the incessant demands upon every waking moment of his time (for he was now sole manager of the great "home factories" in Petersburg) kept him from morbid brooding. He loved work for work's sake, was a man of powerful physique and his constitutioned industry had become through rigid training a habit, which remained immutable after he had passed his three score and ten. Sydney Smith once said of a friend of his that "he had an ungovernable passion for work." The whimsical exaggeration of the witty divine was almost the literal truth in Cameron's case.

His work heartened him, his friendships cheered him, and gradually Time brought healing in his wings. On July 19th, 1886, he married Miss Delia Pegram, daughter of Capt. Richard G. Pegram, long leader of the Petersburg bar (and later on, a successful practitioner here), who, like all men of his name and breed, was one of the most valorous soldiers that ever buckled on sabre. Cameron was then but forty-seven, strikingly handsome, as were all the brothers, and the kindly fates had decreed that he and his gracious young wife should enjoy many years of happiness and that the spacious halls of "Mount Erin Towers" should resound once more with merry childish laughter and re-echo the pattering of little feet. But, as is inevitable, the happiness was not without alloy, for he lost two sons (by his first marriage), who had grown to manhood, and his old age was greatly saddened by the death of his youngest boy, a winsome little lad of marvellous precociousness, to whom he was passionately attached.

Years followed of usefulness and honor and hard work, though they were by no means years of "all work and no play" and "Jack" never became "a dull boy." He went around the world twice, travelled extensively in England and on the Continent and made repeated visits to the old "home-nest" in the Highlands by the pleasant river Spey.

In 1904, he and his surviving brother, Alexander, sold out their various businesses here and in Australia to the "British-American Tobacco Company" and definitely retired.

But, as we have indicated above, it was impossible for a man of his habits and temperament ever to become idle. He had a great fortune to claim his constant attention, was owner of a fine estate on the Appomattox and became interested in "scientific" farming, was passionately devoted to flowers and never counted the hours lost which he spent in pottering about his extensive hot-houses or in making still more beautiful the spacious grounds that surrounded "Mt. Erin Towers."

He was intensely domestic in all his tastes and his "ain ingle neuk" was ever to him the dearest spot on earth. He belonged to the clubs, of course, but never went to them, and though, as we have seen, he wandered, from time to time, far afield, he was always anxious to get back to the one spot on earth sanctified to him by the name of "home." What delightful memories of brave cheer and cordial welcome, of bright talk and harmless laughter, the mere mention of "Mt. Erin Towers" stirs in the breasts of all who had the privilege of enjoying its profuse, yet elegant, hospitality!

He possessed a famous wine-cellar that contained a great variety of rare vintages, and he was always glad to have his friends test their excellence and give their verdict on their respective merits. He himself, mark you, was one of the most abstemious of men and, in the latter years of his life, because of heart-trouble, never touched even a single glass of wine. Like "Duke Vincentio," in "Measure for Measure," he was truly "a gentleman of all temperance, rather rejoicing to see another inerry." But he had a robust scorn, which he did not hesitate to express, for the Pecksniffian professional "reformers," who in these latter days are walking up and down the earth mouthing eternally their litanies of "Cant." In fact, he expressed his opinion on most subjects with a directness and vigor that left little to the imagination. But this was only at his own board, or when surrounded by a knot of very old friends. His judgment was sound, not only in business matters, but in delicate questions of personal conduct that often arise in private life. He was stubborn of opinion, when once he had made up his mind about people or things, and was by no means free from "prejudice," as who of us, indeed, is? But the honesty of the man was transparent in every utterance and action and he never resented in the least degree, an expression of opinion directly the opposite of the one he might be vigorously maintaining. Nay, more—once convince him that he was wrong and he was no more too proud to change his mind than he was "too proud to fight."

Like every man of original parts (as distinguished from mere acquisition), he had a keen sense of humor, and his mellow chuckle over a "shrewd thrust," whether at his own expense or another's, is remembered still with tender wistfulness. One of his most salient characteristics was his unobtrusiveness. He was always at his ease, but preferred, in any large company, to be a listener rather than a talker.

As we happen to know, his benefactions to charities, to the church, and to the less fortunate, were numerous and munificent, but he never spoke of them even to his intimates, and he was as loyal to his friends as any mortal that ever walked the earth.

Just before the dawn ushered in the New Year of 1916, the supreme stroke fell with tragic suddenness. At twelve o'clock at night he was reading in his library. At 2. A. M. he was dead.

But shall we call it "tragic," reflecting that, in thus being struck down while still in full possession of his mental and physical powers, he was mercifully spared the sufferings inseparable from long illness or lingering decline.

If, as the Wise Man says, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," then, in all soberness and truth, was George Cameron that noblest work of God, an HONEST MAN.

Scarcely more than a week after the death of George Cameron, his closest friend in Petersburg, the man whom, perhaps, he most loved and whom he had made executor of his estate, was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and, after lingering for three weeks, sunk quietly into the dreamless sleep that knows no waking here.

This was ALEXANDER HAMILTON, whose relations to Cameron were peculiarly close. Both were immensely busy men, engaged in large affairs, yet they managed to see each other almost daily—taking long walks or drives after office hours, and not seldom going off together, like two school boys on "a lark," for a fortnight's fishing in Florida or a brief spin overseas.

As we can testify of our own personal knowledge, Hamilton was terribly shaken by the death of his old friend, whom he loved with all the intensity of his ardent nature, and it may well be that that tragic event had much to do with the lethal stroke that carried him off in so brief a time. We ourselves, at any rate, have always thought so.

We shall only set down here so much of his "line of descent" as beseems so slight a sketch as this, for he was pure Scotch on both sides of his house and we all know how interminable are Scotch genealogies, if once we begin. This one, for instance, begins in 1292!

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, son of Robert Alston Hamilton and of Sarah Caroline Alexander, his wife, was born in Granville (now Vance) County, North Carolina, on March 18th, 1850. Though born in North Carolina, he was essentially a Virginian, having lived steadily in Petersburg since early boyhood, and it is doubtful whether, outside his own immediate family, a dozen people knew that he was not a native of this commonwealth.

His grandfather, Patrick Hamilton, was of the "Parkhead branch" of the Hamiltons of Lanarkshire, and did not come to America until the beginning of the nineteenth century, when he settled, with others of his family, near Williamsboro in Granville County. He was a man of education, accumulated a handsome fortune as a thrifty merchant, married Mary Eaton Baskervill of the well-known Virginia family of that ilk, and became a prosperous planter, as you may read in that delightful volume (privately printed) entitled "The Hamiltons of Burnside" by his grandson, Patrick Hamilton Baskervill, M. A.

It was his son, Robert Alston, college-bred, courtly of manner (some of us remember him well) and blessed with comfortable fortune, who moved to Petersburg, when his second boy, the subject of this sketch, was a lad of little over seven.

On the Alexander side, his great-grand-father, Moses Alexander, who had been "up and awa' wi' Prince Charlie," came over soon after "the 45" and settled in Mecklenburg, North Carolina. But his grandchildren drifted to Virginia, as, we are glad to say, is so often the case with natives of the gallant "Old North State," and intermarried with the best families of the commonwealth. One of these grandsons, Nathaniel Alexander, father of our Mr. Hamilton's mother, was an officer in the United States Navy, served under Perry in "1812," resigned the service, settled down as a planter and for several terms was a member of the Virginia Senate. Another grandson, Mark Alexander, born in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, became still more prominent in Virginia politics—was member of the Legislature, represented the "4th Virginia District" in Congress from 1819 to 1833, and took a leading part in the famous "Constitutional Convention" of 1829-30, the ablest body of men that ever sat in this state—perhaps, the ablest body of law-makers that ever sat in the western world. A little over seventy years after, his great-nephew, Alexander Hamilton, was destined to make a great name for himself in another celebrated "Virginia Constitutional Convention."

The lad, "Alexander," had his early schooling at "Belmont," an admirable boarding-school in Mecklenburg county, N. C., conducted by a sound scholar of the old-fashioned type, Mr. Ralph H. Graves, and, after a further course at "McCabe's University School," in Petersburg, Virginia, where he was "good at books" and the acknowledged leader in all athletic sports, entered the "Virginia Military Institute" in 1868 as "third-class man" and was graduated in 1871. He had a natural taste for "soldiering," had lived in Petersburg all through "the Siege" of that brave old town, when he had listened at his father's table to the talk of the most famous soldiers who were defending it, and it was the great regret of his life that he had not been old enough to serve in that heroic army. Had the fates so ordered it, what a glorious soldier he would have been!—doubtless, with his eager courage and instant readiness of resource, the peer of any of them!

During his last year at the "Institute" he was appointed Instructor in Latin (his strong point at school) and Adjutant of the Corps, and, immediately on his graduation, matriculated in the Law School of Washington and Lee University (situated within a stone's throw), where he had the good fortune to come under the personal instruction of that great Virginian, Honorable John Randolph Tucker, Professor of "Equity and Public Law," who, in his long and brilliant service in Congress, was regarded by Republicans and Democrats alike as the ablest Constitutional lawyer, whether in the lower or the upper house, whose inexorable logic and sober eloquence recalled the best traditions of Virginia statesmanship.

Despite the difference in their ages, pupil and instructor soon became intimate friends—a friendship which lasted until Mr. Tucker's death, and Hamilton has left grateful record under his own hand that of the salient influences which, in chief measure, shaped his career, the most potent of them all was this personal contact with his great master. To the end of his days, indeed, whenever he spoke of Mr. Tucker (and he spoke of him often) his friends used to say that, though he was little given to hero-worship, there was a distinct suggestion of incense in the air. But we all loved him the more for his boyish enthusiasm regarding his old mentor, for there were not a few of us who, in days gone by, had also fallen under the spell of that incomparable talker and inimitable raconteur, whose ready wit and whimsical quips, quite apart from his profound learning, must remain a great tradition both in his native state and in the national capital long after the fame of most of his contemporaries shall have become but a dim memory to all save the "curious."

Having graduated in law, young Hamilton came to Richmond in the autumn of 1873 and "offered for practice"—an offer which an unappreciative public apparently "politely but firmly" declined. But it was, notwithstanding this, a happy winter for him, for, young and well-born and as handsome as one of "Ouida's" dashing young guardsmen, he went out a good deal into society, and, above all, could enjoy endless talks every day with his devoted "crony," "Joe" Bryan, while they both waited for clients that never came. How little could either forecast the future, or dream that in little over a single decade both of them were to become men of commanding influence in their respective communities and be reckoned among the first citizens of the commonwealth.

In the following spring, he went back to Petersburg, became the law-partner of Mr. Alexander Donnan (who had an established practice), and in less than ten years was the recognized leader of the bar of that city.

From that time on, Fortune smiled upon all the varied activities that engaged that busy brain. At last, she had sent the ball rolling to his feet, and he had boldly picked it up and with unerring eye had sent it flying straight to goal.

These activities are too numerous for us to dwell on in detail. Paramount to all the rest was his connection with the "Legal Department" of the "Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Company" and its subsidiary lines. Starting simply as their "Attorney" for Petersburg, while still in active practice at that bar, he soon became their "General Counsel for Virginia," and, when, under the able constructive policy of that sagacious "captain of industry," Mr. Henry Walters, the present "Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Company" was formed by the consolidation of the various constituent companies, he became "General Counsel" for the whole of that great system. He was also elected, first, the Second Vice-President and, later on, the First Vice-President of the new company. Only a year or two ago, he received still further promotion by being made President of the "Atlantic Coast Line of Connecticut," the "holding company" (organized under the laws of Connecticut) that controls both the "A. C. L." and "L. & N." properties.

Of course, all this forced him to give up general practice.

No railroad in this country, or, indeed, in any country, ever had in its service a servant more utterly devoted to its interests and its high repute, and the official resolutions passed by the directors at his death (simple, direct, yet charged with deep feeling) constitute a testimonial to his efficiency, integrity, and personal charm that signally distinguishes them from the conventional expressions of condolence usual in such cases.

In addition to all this, he became some twenty years ago President of the largest and oldest bank in Petersburg ("The Petersburg Saving & Insurance Co."), whose affairs he managed with conspicuous financial ability up to the time of his death, besides being director in many public corporations and being much sought after as fiduciary in administering large private estates.

Apart from his legal training, he was otherwise admirably equipped for the successful conduct of these multifarious activities, for from the beginning of his young manhood he had been a persistent student of economics and of finance and was wont to read (what seems to us) the dreary volumes dealing with those subjects with as keen an interest as the average reader takes in the latest "best seller." Just here, it may be noted that he was all his life deeply interested in all matters pertaining to education. So genuine was this interest, that, despite the ever-increasing volume of his arduous duties, he managed to find time to serve on the "Board of Visitors" of his old school, the Virginia Military Institute, where, with the cordial co-operation of the Superintendent, he inaugurated many reforms of lasting value. Twenty years of such fruitful service did he give his Alma Mater, during ten of which he was President of the Board. Even after he felt obliged to decline reappointment, he unselfishly consented to become "President of the School Board" in Petersburg, and, in that position, rendered conspicuous service in establishing a higher degree of efficiency in the Public Schools of that city.

Had he elected to go into politics, as he was repeatedly urged to do, there is small doubt that with his industry and talents he would have attained eminence in that field. The same qualities that made him such an effective advocate at the bar—clear thinking, apt illustration in argument and a happy knack of never talking over the heads of his audience—must surely have compelled success.

But though, as might be expected in the case of a man of his prominence, he often presided at public meetings, both at home and elsewhere in the state, he never but once accepted public office, if, indeed, we may so term the service he felt called upon to render.

Without the remotest solicitation, he was elected a delegate from Petersburg to the "Virginia Constitutional Convention" of 1901-1902, where, as we have said above (deliberately weighing our words), he soon made "a great name" for himself. In that assemblage of really able men, the breadth of his views, the cogency of his arguments, his readiness and uniform courtesy in debate, all this in conjunction with his winning personality won for him the confidence and admiration of his colleagues and caused him to be regarded on all sides as one of the most sagacious among the acknowledged leaders of that body. So great, indeed, was the impression which he made, that, the year after the Convention adjourned, he was elected without opposition President of the "Virginia Bar Association," a position which he held as long as he was eligible.

So passed the strenuous years. Yet often were there unexpected compensations when most he was driven by the work imposed upon him as lawyer, banker, or rail-road official. His duties as "General Counsel" of a great system, of necessity, carried him constantly to various sections of the country and his figure was almost as familiar in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore or in Charleston, Savannah, and Mobile, as it was in Richmond or Petersburg. Everywhere he went, his intelligence and high-breeding and compelling charm of manner won him hosts of friends, who insisted on entertaining him in a purely social way after business matters had been ended. And when these new-made acquaintances (many of them destined in time to become "old friends") came to Petersburg to confer with him, as they often did, they were at once impulsively seized upon and carried off to be guests in his own beautiful home, where they found such warmth of welcome and sumptuous entertainment as recalled the best traditions of the "Old South."

"Small cheer and great welcome makes a merry feast," says Shakespeare in his immortal "Comedy," but here was great cheer and great welcome too, and the "merry feast," we may be sure, was made doubly charming to his guests by the bright and genial talk of their host.

But for all his engaging qualities in private life and his uniform observance of the amenities in his conduct of professional or business affairs, there was "a streak of Cato" in the man. Let him once be convinced that an opponent had mistaken his deferential courtesy for timidity or that any body of men, "by bias and indirection," were seeking to overreach the railroad company (which he served and whose interests he ever held higher than his own) and instantly (as some of us have witnessed) the mobile features hardened, a timbre of defiance rang in the usually softly-modulated voice, and his measured words of contemptuous indignation were such as few men could ever forget.

Those who did not know him well, seeing him in one of these masterful moods of "righteous wrath," would take away an utterly erroneous impression of the man, for if ever there was a human being saturated with the spirit of kindliness to his fellows and of tender sympathy for those "distressed in mind, body or estate," as the Prayer-book hath it, it was he.

At last, in the early morning of February 4th, 1916, came the "one clear call" to that intrepid spirit, and it was answered, we may be sure, with the same serene courage as had been answered every call made to him in a long and resolute life.

As we recall his noble rectitude, his nice sense of personal honor that did not "set life at a pin's fee" when that honor was at stake, his generous enthusiasm for all things exalted, his virile scorn for all things mean, his sweetness of disposition, his tender heart and open hand—as we remember all these stern and gentle virtues, there flashes through our mind (as peculiarly appropriate to this dear dead friend) that noble epitaph which the Duke of Buckingham wrote on his father-in-law, "the Great Lord Fairfax":

Both sexes virtues were in him combined;
He had the fierceness of the manliest mind,
And all the meekness too of womankind.

He never knew what envy was or hate;
His soul was filled with worth and honesty,
And with another thing besides, quite out of date,
Call'd modesty.

Over the rest of those whom we are called upon to mourn, we can only breathe a simple, but heartfelt, requiescant!

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. GORDON McCABE,
President.

At the conclusion of the report it was announced that the next business was the election of officers and members of the Executive Committee. On motion, a nominating committee composed of Col. W. Miles Cary and Messrs. Charles C.

Anderson and David C. Richardson. The Committee retired and on its return recommended that the following be elected:

President—W. Gordon McCabe, Richmond, Va.

Vice-Presidents—Archer Anderson, Richmond, Va., Edward V. Valentine, Richmond, Va., and Lyon G. Tyler, Williamsburg, Va.

Corresponding Secretary and Librarian—William G. Stanard, Richmond, Va.

Recording Secretary—D. C. Richardson, Richmond, Va.

Treasurer—Robert A. Lancaster, Jr., Richmond, Va.

Executive Committee—C. V. Meredith, Richmond, Va. Charles W. Kent, University of Virginia, J. Stewart Bryan, Richmond, Va., A. C. Gordon, Staunton, Va., S. S. P. Patterson, Richmond, Va., S. A. Yonge, Richmond, Va., William H. Palmer, Richmond, Va., Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph, Norfolk, Va., Daniel Grinnan, Richmond, Va., J. P. McGuire, Jr., Richmond, Va., Wm. A. Anderson, Lexington, Va., Morgan P. Richmond, Richmond, Va.

A resolution thanking the President for his services during the past year was adopted.

Mr. T. C. Bryan was called to the chair and on motion the officers and members were unanimously elected.

President McCabe then resumed the chair and stated that any other business would be in order. As there was none, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCHES IN ENGLAND AND IN EUROPE GENERALLY.

92, Piccadilly, London, England.

Original researches in all classes of records, State, Municipal, Manorial, Ecclesiastical Quaker, Probate, Collegiate, Military, Naval, Huguenot, East Indies, etc.

Wills & Chancery Suits have been aptly described as the backbone of Pedigrees.

Lists of testators of a particular surname, compiled from the Official Calendars in the various Probate Courts in London, also in the numerous provincial probate centres. Estimate of expense sent on request. Similar lists of Chancery Suits (plaintiff's names) compiled. From these lists or from lists already printed, selections can be made & abstracts of wills in the London Courts furnished at 65 cents each. Abstracts of Chancery suits at 75 cents each.

Mr. Culleton's Heraldic & Genealogical reference library of 3000 indexes includes the following unique manuscript indexes.

Early Chancery Proceedings: names of plaintiffs and defendants

Vol. I.—1385 to 1467; 32,000	Vol. V.—1515 to 1529; 32,000
Vol. II.—1467 to 1485; 34,000	Vol. VI.—1558 to 1579; 32,000
Vol. III.—1485 to 1500; 30,000	Vol. VII.—1579 to 1621; 30,000
Vol. IV.—1500 to 1515; 30,000	Vol. VIII.—1621 to 1660; 30,000

(later period searched by arrangement).

Court of Star Chamber

Vol. IX.—1485 to 1558; 30,000

Court of Requests

Vol. X.—1485 to 1585; 32,000

Index to pedigrees in the "Additional" MSS. at the British Museum; 46,000.

Index to pedigrees in the "Harleian" MSS. at the British Museum.

Index to every name in Rupps "Emigrants to Pennsylvania"; 30,000.

Irish Chancery Proceedings, &c., 1514 to 1575; 12,000.

Armorial Bearings in Cole's heraldic MSS. at the British Museum; 8,000.

For searches in above mentioned MSS. indexes, the charge is 50 cents each volume, plus 5 cents for each name found.

Among other manuscript indexes are:

Family mottoes; 12,000. Index of mottoes and index of families using them. Search $1.00 plus 50 cents for copying each motto with translation.

Additions to Marshall's Genealogist's Guide; many thousands.

Annotations to Burke's General Armory; many thousands.

Pedigrees in Mr. Culleton's private collection.

Abstracts of Wills; many thousands.

Wills proved in India.

MS. indexes to hitherto unindexed local histories, printed parish registers, &c.

Complete index of all families and arms in Siebmacher's grosses und allgemeines Wappenbuch (German Heraldry book), 60 Vols. Search for a particular surname, $2.50.

A most interesting collection of family data from earliest period to modern times usually results from a General Search through all the vols. of the Reference Library including the above mentioned special indexes. Cost from $26 depending upon name, if common or uncommon.

Searching by time, $1.00 per hour for short investigations; 75 cents per hour on lengthy searches.

Ancient records transcribed & translated. Foreign records translated.

Pedigrees engrossed & illuminated on vellum.

Armorial Bearings painted in correct heraldic colours.

Scarce heraldic, genealogical & other works searched for.

Remittances by dollar notes, P. O. Money Orders or Drafts payable in London.

DANIEL BOONE AT LIMESTONE, 1786—1787.

BY DAVID I. BUSHNELL, JR.

“Richmond, April 18.

A Gentleman who arrived the 9th of this month at Philadelphia, from Kentucky, has favoured us with the following intelligence, viz., That some prisoners having been taken by the inhabitants from the Indians in the month of October last, among which were a squaw and a Frenchman, the two latter were sent out with proposals for an exchange of prisoners; in consequence of which, Noamohouoh(1), a Chief of the Shawonnee nation, attended at the mouth of Limestone (2), on the 4th of March last, and delivered the following speech.

My Brothers,

I am very glad you are willing to exchange prisoners, and agreeable to your request by the squaw and Frenchman, have sent in three of yours, and hope that you will give up two for

(2) Limestone creek flows through the present Mason county, Kentucky, and enters the Ohio. Maysville, formerly known as Limestone, stands at the mouth of the creek.

Mr. Clark's (3) son, and one a-piece for the others, agreeable to your own proposals. I have been sent here by Captain Johnny (4), the Head Chief of the Shawonee nation, to represent him to you, as he could collect the whole of the prisoners; which he will do and be at Limestone within one month of the date hereof; and for fear your people should be uneasy, have sent me with the above-mentioned prisoners as a confirmation of our intentions.

He further says, that the Delawares, Mingoes, and Wiandots, have wanted them to go up the Big River to make peace with the white people, but we refused, and will not have any concern with them, as we think this is the place to exchange prisoners and settle our peace, and hope you will not pay any attention to other nations talk, for we mean to be at peace.(5)

Noamohouoh

Chief of the Shawonee nation.

The Indians from beyond the Ohio had been very active, and during the early autumn of 1786 Col. Benjamin Logan (6) was ordered by Gen. Clark to raise a force to penetrate the Indian country. Accordingly Logan gathered between four hundred and five hundred men, crossed the Ohio at Limestone, and went as far as the head of Mad river, in the present Logan Co. Ohio. Towns and fields were laid waste, and about seventy prisoners taken. (7)

It was, undoubtedly, to the prisoners taken by Col. Logan that the article in the Gazette referred, the same who were later to be supplied with provisions by Daniel Boone and John Crow.

(3) It is not known to whom this may refer.

(5) The treaty of Fort McIntosh was signed January 21, 1785 by Commissioners of the United States "and the Sachems and Warriors of the Wiandot, Delaware, Chippewa and Ottawa Nations." The Shawnee did not take part in this treaty, but one year later, at the mouth of the Great Miami, on January 31, 1786, they signed a separate treaty with representatives of the United States.

(6) Benjamin Logan was born in Augusta Co. Virginia, about 1742, and died in Kentucky, December 11, 1802. Was with the expedition commanded by Col. Henry Bouquet, and in 1775 joined Daniel Boone, then on his way to Kentucky. Soon he began the construction of the stockade known as Logan's Fort, one mile east of the present Stanford. He was actively engaged in public affairs, and often served in the legislature of the newly formed state.

(7) Collins, R. H. History of Kentucky. I. Covington, 1878.

Boone was at this time an Inn keeper and merchant at Limestone, having settled there a few months previous. His accounts made at this time, all in his own writing, have recently been discovered among the Vouchers of the Contingent Fund, in the Virginia State Library, and are now, for the first time printed. They are given in chronological order, the first probably indicating the date of the arrival of the captives.

Daniel Boone

During the autumn of 1787 Boone was a member of the Virginia legislature, and in this capacity remained in Richmond from October until the following January. The indorsements on the five vouchers bear the same date, August 22, and probably indicate the time of his departure from Kentucky. The papers were evidently carried by Boone to Richmond and presented for collection soon after his arrival, as indicated by the entry in the Journal of the Governor and Council (Executive), Ms. vol. in the Virginia State Library.

Monday October 22^d 1787

The Governor laid before the board a Claim of Daniel Boone for Supplies furnished the Indian Prisoners per order of Colo Logan—

Also a claim of Thomas Ball for twelve Days waggonage & forage found in carrying said prisoners to Limestone as certified by Colo Logan.

Whereupon it is advised

That the Auditor be directed to settle the said Claims and make a reasonable allowance therefor out of the Contingent fund to be charged to the United States.

The following paper was filed with the vouchers and shows Boone's claim to have been allowed, a warrant being issued two days later.

In Council October 22^d 1787

The Auditor is directed to settle the account of Daniel Boone for supplies furnished the Indian prisoners, as certified by Colo Logan & make him a reasonable allowance, out of the Contingent fund, for the supplies furnished as aforesaid, to be charged to the United States—

How to obtain the necessary supplies for the Indian prisoners appears to have been a very grave problem, and John Crow, who had been appointed commissary to the Indians, was often forced to make the purchases at his personal risk. His petition to the General Assembly of the State of Virginia is among the Executive Papers, October 1787, in the Virginia State Library, and is of the greatest interest, bearing as it does the signatures of many who were destined to become famous in the annals of Kentucky. The petition is given in full:

(8) John Crow settled near Danville before 1782.

To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of Virginia

The Petition of John Crow humbly Sheweth

That he was appointed by Colonel Logan Commissary of the Indian Prisoners who were taken by the troops under his command in the autumn of 1786, & was in consequence of this appointment ordered by Capⁿ Greenup to procure for the said Prisoners forty days provisions.

That after this had been expended, he was ordered to procure thirty days provisions more, & for want of any mode being adopted for the support of said Prisoners, your Petitioner, through humanity, saw himself obliged to supply the said prisoners from time to time with provisions & other necessities, which made it impossible to him to Supply them at as cheap a rate as if he had been beforehand apprized of the length of time and number of Rations which he was to furnish the said Prisoners; and as he continues to act as a Commissary for them & has been & is obliged to pay cash for their necessities, Your petitioner hopes that you will order his account to be paid out of the treasury; or if it does not seem to you expedient, that you would order that he should receive the amount of his accompt out of the monies that are now, or hereafter may be in the Custody of the Clerks of the several Courts of the District of Kentucky, as it is impossible for him to Support the said prisoners, without being enabled by your Honourable body to lay in more provisions, and Your Petitioner, as in duty bound, Shall

John Crow

We certify that the above Petitioner has supplied the Indian Prisoners with provisions & other necessities, at great expence & detriment of his own affairs; & that he has sundry times made application to the people of this District to Join him in the support of the said Prisoners, but without any effectual mode being adopted for helping him to furnish further supplies.

The several documents given on the preceding pages, relating as they do to the economic conditions on the frontier of Virginia some five years before the District of Kentucky was set apart as a separate state, are of the greatest interest. Others of a like or even greater value are undoubtedly hidden among the innumerable papers in the Virginia State Library, and eventually they may be brought to light and made available for the historian. I now desire to acknowledge my indebtedness to Mr. Earl G. Swem of the library, for having called my attention to the items once belonging to that most romantic and typical character of frontier life, Daniel Boone.

Mr. Hunter,

Mr. William Blackwell brought an Action against me, for Words spoken by me in great Heat and Passion. As I think an Acknowledgment to an injured Man very well becomes a Gentleman, I take this public Method to repair Mr. Blackwell's Character by desiring you to insert this in your Gazette, That I always considered Mr. Blackwell and all his Family, as persons of great Honesty and Integrity, and that what I said of him was occasioned by Passion and Misrepresentation only.

"We hear from Kittery, in the County of York, that about three weeks ago, a Negroe Fellow of that Town, having behaved ill to his Master, he had him corrected, which the Fellow resented so highly, that he resolved to take away his Master's Life, but judging him not fit to die, he got up in the Night, took a child about 6 or 7 years old out of its Bed, and threw it into the well, where it perished. After this, he went to York, and delivered himself up to the Sheriff, informing him what he had done, and being asked what moved him to commit the horrid Fact, he said he wanted to die, but not did think it lawful to lay violent hands on himself, that he was sure he would be hanged, but should have Time to repent before that Time came. He was committed to Goal.

"Virginia ss.

By the Honorable Robert Dinwiddie, Esq., His Majesty's Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia:

A PROCLAMATION FOR A FAST.

WHEREAS we have but too much Reason to fear, that our sins have justly provoked the Almighty to send down upon us his heavy judgements of War and Famine; and as national Repentence is the only Remedy for national Guilt, I have therefore thought fit to issue this Proclamation, appointing Wednesday the 24th of September to be religiously and devoutly observed as a General Fast, for the solemn and public Humiliation of ourselves before Almighty God, in Order to supplicate His devine Majesty for the Pardon of our Sins, for averting those heavy Judgments, and more particularly for the Preservation of us from the hands of our Enemies.

AND I hereby strictly charge and require, that in all churches, where the ministers can possibly attend, devine service be performed, and a sermon be preached suitable to the Occasion, and that on some preceding Sunday they give Notice of the said FAST and exhort their several Congregations to a devout and religious Observance of it.

GIVEN under my Hand, at Williamsburg, this 28th Day of August, in the 29th Year of His Majesty's Reign and in the year of our Lord 1755.

COL. FRANCIS MORYSON TO MADAM JEFFREYS. According to her desire he writes what he knows passed between Sir W. Berkeley and her husband concerning the commencement of his Salary—that Col. Jeffreys should have his hundred pounds a month from his first coming into the Country, but he would find the place so “expensefull” that it would not give him salt to his bread—That the bills for the same were sent back again by Col. Jeffreys for some expressions in Sir William’s letters that he did not relish—that he owed the money to Sir Wm’s kindness and not to any right Col. Jeffreys had to demand it—With Certificate by Sir John Berry of the truth of this letter, being present when the discourse passed.

(Colonial Papers. 2. pp.)

(2) The actual Auditor General in Virginia at this time was Nathaniel Bacon, Sr.

[Oct. 24, 1679]

PETITION OF BARTHOLOMEW PRICE ADMINISTRATOR TO COL. HERBERT JEFFREYS Lieut. Governor of Virginia, to the King. That by his Maj. Instructions of 11 Nov. 1676, said Jeffreys was allowed the duties formerly paid to Sir W. Berkeley for support of the Govern^t—That by his Maj. letters of 27 Dec. 1677 he was appointed the yearly salary of £1200 until 25 March 1678 after which time it was to be paid in England—That on said 25 March 1678 there remained three months salary due (being the sum now in dispute between Lady Berkeley & the relict of Col. Jeffreys) and £900 from said 25 March to 17 Dec. 1678 when the Colonel died—Prays in consideration of the premises and of the calamitous condition of said Col's wife and child, for speedy payment of said arrears.

Whitehall, Jan. 14, 1679-80

ORDER OF THE KING IN COUNCIL on a Motion made this day by the Lord Bishop of London concerning the state of the Church in his Maj. Plantations—that the Lords of Trade & Plantations signify his Maj. pleasure unto his respective Governors in America that every Minister within their Government be one of the Vestry in his respective parish and that no Vestry be held without him, except in case of sickness, or that after notice of a vestry summoned he absent himself.

(Col. Entry Bk. No. 97. p. 95.)

(4) In consequence of this order the minutes of Assembly were regularly sent to England, and a complete file, from 1680, is now in the Public Record Office. All of the Journals of the House of Burgesses from that date have been printed by the Va. State Library.

Virginia, March 15, 1679-80

NICHO. SPENCER TO ———

They cannot be sure in any Indian Treaty—Negotiations by Col. Wood, a person well skilled in all Indian affairs, who arranged that the chief men of the Indian Towns in hostility should meet at James Town on the 10th present, but they appeared not—Thinks they were prevented by the clandestine designs of some Indian traders, his reasons; The grounds of the late murder: revenge the motive for it. Conceives that rash act of Capt. Byrd's unwarrantable. Supposes by the next ships he may speak positively whether they must prepare for a defensive war or enjoy the happiness of peace.

MINUTES OF THE COUNCIL AND GENERAL COURT 1624-1629*.

From the Originals in the Library of Congress.

Y^t is ordered y^t John Geney in regarde of his Contempt against the Governor's express Comande and his Scandalous Speeches in Accusing Capt. Tucker wth murther, shalbe whipped and receave Sixtee Stripes, And also shall ask Capt. Tucker forgiveness in open Courte, as also in the publike congregation at Elizabeth Cytie, And to pay Capt. Tucker 200 li. weight of Tobacco, And to be ymprisoned heere untill he put in very sufficyent bond to his good behaviour

Arthur Avelinge Sworne and exam'd sayeth, That be beinge at Damarells Cove in Canada abourde the Swan, one who came abourde asked Mr Nevell wherefore his brother suffered death, Mr Cornish was put to death, Then Edward Nevell answered he was put to death through a scurvie boy's means, & no other case [?] against him. Then the other man replied I have ill luck my brother came to such an end

Y^t is ordered y^t Edward Nevell(1) for his offence shall stand one ye pillory wth a paper on his head shewing the cause of his offence in the markett place, and to loose both his Eares and to serve the Colony for 8 yeares, And forever to be incapable to be A freeman of the Country

(1) Edward Nevell, who received this horrible punishment seems to have been a man of some standing, as he is frequently referred to in connection with Weston's ships. He may have been Weston's agent or the purser of one of his ships.

Mr Abraham Peersie doth testifie y^t Wm Geney(2) refused to make Satisfaction to Capt. Tucker for Mr. Rastell's dept according to his covenant, except Capt. Tucker would Satisfie an Account w^{ch} then he did p^duce.

Y^t is ordered y^t Capt. Tucker shall pay Mr George Sandys fortie weight of tobacco for ye dept of Mr Rastell w^{ch} is dew for six bushell of corne dew to be paid by bill this last Summer Arthur Avelinge by the oath he hath formerly taken deposeth y^t Wm Barker red the warrant to him, where he by name was comanded to appear at James Cyttie and y^t after Robert Cave[?] caled ye said deponent to come upp wth him accordinge to ye warrant, But he beinge Rich'd Evans servant, his said m^r answered he would see the warrant before he should come upp. Y^t is ordered y^t Richard Evans for his offence in disobeying the Governor's Comande shall lie neck and heeles 3 howers in ye markt place and shall pay 200 weight of Tobacco, Towards the buildinge of the new Bridges(3) at Elizabeth Cyttie, And be putt ow^t of his place, Except upon his good behaviour Capt Tucker shall approve him hereafter.

Wm Carter(4) sworne and examined sayeth That he drest[?] a Cow for Mr Allnutt in May last was twelve month for w^{ch} demandinge Xs. Mr Allnutt did not pay him, And the last springe there was a Cow of Mr Buck's children wth a fistula uppon the Eye w^{ch} at first deponent offered Mr Allnutt to have cared for as when the said [had?] the first Cow in cure, and about Easter last he offers Mr Allnutt [words illegible] to cure ye

(2) William Geny or Gany was living at Elizabeth City, in Feb. 1623. In the Census of 1624-5, the "Muster" of "Mr. William Gany" then included himself, aged 33, who came in the George in 1616, Ann his wife, aged 24, who came in the Bona Nova in 1620, Ann Gany born in Virginia, and six servants. The will of Margaret Cheesman, of St. Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, widow, dated Jan. 15, 1679 (formerly of Virginia) left her kinswoman, Anne Gayney, 12 pence, evidently to cut her off from any further claim.

(3) These "bridges" may have been bridges in the modern sense or may have been wharves at Kecoughtan (Hampton). At that time the word had both meanings.

(4) William Carter, who appears to have been the expert cow-doctor, or veterinary of the Jamestown neighborhood, lived on James City Island in 1625.

cow w'th ye fistula for xxs. in money, as he might [be?] satisfied for the former cure w'ch Mr Allnutt refused sayinge he had rather give another man forty shillings than him xxs. and so put the cow to goodman Tree's man to Cure, who not beinge to Cure her Mr Allnut offered this deponent to give him content yf he would Cure her, but this deponent said that now he coulde not warrant her she was so far gone but thatt he would doe his best, and accordingly used his best skill, yett at length she dyed.

Abraham Porter(5) sworne and examined sayeth y^t he did see the cove y^t was myred in the morninge, and was well [?] and after did find her ruined. But gott her owte and brought her home, but dyed, And further sayeth y^t he hath complayned to Mr Kingswell that they have away to[o] much milke from the calves

Y^t is ordered that Mr Alnutt in regard of his Necklect in looking to the cattle of the orphan Peleg Buck the son of Mr. Richard Buck shall pay one hundred pownde weight of the best merchant-able Tobacco for the use of the said orphan and to be compeled to give Sufficient Securitie to the overseers of Mr Buck's will for Answeringe and makeinge good the orphants stock, And that Peeter Longman and the other gardians shalbe compelled to give the said overseers Sufficient securitie for the answeringe and making good of the other orphants whole estate and stocks.

Robert Edwardes(5) and John Parsons do testifie y^t two barells of sheld Corne belonginge to John Ervins was putt into the loft at the old fort of Mr George Sandys, and y^t he gave certain ————— for ye allowance of shrinkage, and was to give the two barrells forth againe when he should demand it

(5) Abraham Porter was 36 years old at the Census of 1624-5, and was a servant of Peter Longman of James City, with whom Benoni and Peleg Buck were living.

(5) Robert Edmunds and John Parsons, who came in the Marygold in 1619, lived on the Treasurers Plantation at James City 1624-5.

(6) Notes on Luke Boyse and Thomas Harris have already appeared. It is probable that Luke Boyse was the Luke Boyse of Herne, stated in Berry's Kentish Genealogies, to have been a son of Thomas Boys, of Eythorne, baptized May 29, 1579, and to have had an only daughter Ann. The Virginia Luke Boyse was aged 44 in 1724-5 (therefore born in 1581) and had an only daughter Alice. It is possible that his age given in the census may be incorrect.

and Thomas Harris to be heere one mondye come fortnight to testifie in the behalf of Henry Williams, w'ch day of appearance is the 23th of January 1625.

Wm English(7), gente., sworne and examined sayeth y^t Mr Rastell before his departure left order w'th this deponent and Capt. Tucker for to allow of such charges as Mr Geny should approve to have laide owt for apparell for Mr Rastell's servants wh. thee were [letters illegible] inge w'th Mr Geny and y^t in their discretion should finde Mr Geny's account to be reasonable.

Capt. Tucker doth acknowledge y^t there are Certen accompts dew from Mr Rastell to Mr Geney, But Mr Rastell told Capt. Tucker y^t he would nott allow of those accompts w'ch Mr Geny challenged from him.

(11) The very disgraceful dispute between Rev. Greville Pooley and Thomas Pawlett which was examined at this session of the Court seems to have created a great sensation and moved the councillors to profound indignation. It is the only instance on these records where the opinions of the members of the Court are given separately, and it is the first reference to any misconduct on the part of a minister in Virginia. Greville Pooley came to Virginia in the James in 1622 and became minister of the country now in Charles City and Prince George. At the Census of 1624, he was living at Pierseys Hundred, near the present Shirley. He had become noted by his unsuccessful courtship of the widow of Samuel Jordan of Jordan's Journey (now Jordan's Point) and had sued her for breach of contract. This matter has already been published among the Court notes. The only excuse for Pooley's behavior in the present instance is that his conduct towards Mrs. Jordan showed that he was a man of eccentricity—not a little unbalanced in mind. Thomas Pawlett, who was aged 40 in 1625 and who had come in the Neptune in 1618, lived at West and Shirley Hundred not far away. He was a son of Chidioc Pawlett and a grandson of William Pawlett, 1st Marquis of Winchester. From the fact that in 1625 he had but one servant and from a reference in one of the opinions it is evident that he was at this time a man of comparatively small means; but later he evidently acquired or morninge beinge Sct Stephens d'ye Mr Pooley and divers of the Congregation mett to Pray and there during wor[ship?] Mr Pawlett heering Mr Pooley use his name, came into the Congregation sayinge w't is y^t you say of Pawlett, To w'ch Mr Pooley replied, I say you will not pay me your Tithe Tobacco, and after some replyes past to and again between them, Mr Pooley gave Mr Pawlett the lye and Mr Pawlett said he was a proude priest and a periured man, and Taxt him with symonie and briberie, and swore by ye lords blude he would prove it against him, but whether Mr Pooley gave Mr Pawlett the lye before Mr Pawlett said the woords he knows not.

Ensign Francis Epps sworne and examined sayeth that uppon Sct Stephens d'ye in the morninge Mr Pooley and others of the p'she beinge together about the removinge of the Church, Mr Pooley affirmed y^t Mr Pawlett desired to have ye Church removed from Mr Briggs Howse to his howse, and Mr Pawlett said it was false wheruppon Mr Pooley said it was not false, Mr Pawlett said again it was false, Then Mr Pooley told Mr Pawlett y^t he lied, Then Mr Pawlett called him blockheaded parson, w'th some other ye like words y^t passed between them on both sides and taxed Mr Pooley with speaking false latten and teach-inherited property as on Jan. 15, 1637, he patented 2000 acres at Westover, and resided there until his death. He was a member of the House of Burgesses and the Council, and his in will, dated Jan. 12, 1643-4, left most of his estate to his brother Sir John Pawlett, but also gave 10 acres to Westover Church. Robert Partin's "Muster" at West and Shirley Hundred in the Census of 1621-5, includes himself, aged 36, who came in the Blessing in 1609, Margaret his wife, aged 36, who came in the George, 1617, Robert, aged 4 months, Avis, aged 5 years and Rebecca, aged 2 years, their children, and two servants.

Ensign Francis Eppes was the ancestor of the well-known Virginia family of that name, of which a genealogy has appeared in this Magazine.

In 1621-5, Samuel Sharpe who came in the Seaventure in 1609 with his wife Elizabeth, who came in the Margaret & John, 1621, and one servant were living at Pierseys Hundred. Like Thomas Pawlett, Samuel Sharpe had been a member of the House of Burgesses in 1619, and was again a member in October 1629.

Lieut. Thos. Osborn, also the ancestor of a well-known family of his name (of which some account has been given in this Magazine) then lived at the College Land on James River just above Dutch Gap. It is probable that the other church at which Pooley engaged to serve was at Henricopolis (Dutch Gap).

The name written Briggs should doubtless be Biggs. In 1624 Richard Biggs lived at West and Shirley Hundred. Later the church of that parish was removed to Westover, then the home of Thomas Pawlett.

ing false doctrines, and charged him with Symony and bribery. And Mr Pooly on the other side cal'd Mr Pawlett base basterd fellow and that he went up & downe ye countrey singinge baudie songes and many fowle tearmes passed between them, but all the p'ticulars and in w't order they passed between them he doth not p'r rightly remember.

Samuell Sharpe, gent., sworne and examined sayeth, That the occasion of the Speeches was trewly sett downe in the sworne oathes of Ensign Epps and Robert Partain, and ye many fowle woordes of p'vocation, as foole, dunce, base fellow and the like passed between them, & p'ticularly he remembreth that Mr Pooly gave Mr Pawlett ye lye firste, accordinge to his relation and the deposition of Ensign Epps, he remembreth also, that Mr Pawlett charged Mr Pooly w'th Symony & bribery and teachinge false doctrine, and y^t he was a periured man.

Lieut. Thomas Osborne sworne and examined Sayeth y^t wheras Mr Pooly was to Transporte him selfe to their Plantacon and to be theire every fowerth Sundye, for w'ch he was to have double meanes, after w'ch agreement Mr Pooly was absent xi weekes together, In regard wherof he was contented to take ordinary meanes, soe y^t they would undertake to feach [fetch] But after he came to feach his tythes he demanded to have double meanes according to his bill, w'ch the[y] refused to paye, wheruppon he came to this deponent and said that yf he would let the rest pay him, That then he would acquitt this deponent for his tyths, payinge the ordinary meanes.

The opinion of Mr Wm Cleybourne is y^t Concerninge the Contention and quarrell between Mr Poolie and Mr Pawlett, y^t neither of them should recover any Damages eyther from the other, for y^t the offence given one both partes were most vile and exorbitant both of them equally as he thinketh havinge Contended to debase and wronge ye p'son of the other, so y^t all through Mr Pawlett must be acknowledged to have exceeded[?] in the fowlest manner yett the offence of Mr Pooly is nevertheless the greatest, his Censure therefore was, That they shall equally both of them forfeit & paye 200 weight of Tobacco, and moreover in regarde as swilee[?] the fault of Mr Pawlett is greater Considered by itselfe, Therefore his opinion ys y^t he shall in the open Congregacon where the offence was Comitted Publicly acknowledge his fault & offence not so much respecting any wrong to Mr Poolies person, but that should be any Satisfaction done to him selfe as humbly to protest to the whole Congregacon his sorrow for his offence in regard his affronts y^t he Taxeth Mr Pooly wth his doctrine or wth symony, puriury, bribery and ye like, and likewise his opinion is y^t Mr Pooly should openly in like manner acknowledge his offence to the Congregacon then offended.

Y^t is the opinion of Abraham Peirse as he understandeth by the witnesses Sworne and Examined, that Mr Pooly and Mr Pawlett did equall one & other in base and Obrobious Speeches, but That Mr Pawlett did exceed in most Scandalous manner against Mr Pooly in taxing Mr Pooly that he was perjured man, and did teache Faulse doctrine & had Comitted bribery and simony, for so much as that Mr Pawlett hath not by wittnes proved any one of those foule Slanders against Mr Pooly I am of opinion that Mr Pawlett should according to the use [?] of the Generall Assembly Ask Mr Pooly forgiveness before the Congregacon of his owne p^{sh} and that Mr Pawlett shall give Mr Pooly five hundred pownd weight of Tobacco

My opinion is according and Consenting wth Mr William Cleybourne.

Samuell Mathewes

Capt. Hamor's opinion

My opinion is y^t both of them should acknowledge their offence in the Congregacon, and also ask each other forgiveness, & that Mr Pawlett doe first acknowledge his offence, That Mr Pawlett be fined 300 weight of Tobacco, and Mr Pooly two hundred weight.

Capt. Roger Smith his opinion is agreeable to and consenting with Mr Wm Cleybourne.

Capt. Fra. West his opinion is y^t ye grossest woordes Mr Pawlett gave to Mr Pooly cannot equall the lie, w^{ch} woorde toucheth his reputation in the highest nature, and a gentleman value-inge it as nere and deere unto him as his lief, now for reparacon of the offences one to the other, they shall acknowledge their offences in ye Congregacon where the offence was comitted and Mr Pawlett fined 200 weight and Mr Pooly 500 of Tobacco.

Y^t is the opinion of the Governor y^t Mr Pawlett shall in the said Congregacon where the said woordes were spoken ask the Congregacon forgiveness for the great scandal given them, and Mr Poolie for the obprobious wordes used against him, And that Mr Pooly shall doe the like ask forgiveness for same as well of ye Congregacon as of Mr Pawlett, Their offences both in regard of their p'sons, the one the minister, the other the Comander of the Plantacon, as also in regard p'vokinge Speeches, w'ch passed one both sides being in a manner equall, but that Mr Pawlett charged Mr Pooly with false doctrines, Symony and periury, w'ch are woordes of a higher nature and doe bear an Acc'on in law, that he shall pay Mr Pooly 300 weight of Tobacco, w'ch fine is made no greater, as well because p'voking speeches passinge one both sides Collier [choler?] is to have Transported Mr Pawlett in p'te through Mr Poolies owne faulte, as also y^t censure of fines must be made according to mens estates.

Thomas Marlett(12) sworne and examined Sayeth y^t the d'ye after Christmas in Ano 1624 Mr Binns hired John Smith for a yeeres service.

James Toake(13) sworne and examined sayeth y^t Mr Binns told this deponent he had hired John Smith for A yeeres service from Christmas in Ano 1624 to Christmas last past.

 of february next.

(12) Thomas Marlett lived at the College Land Feb. 1623, but does not appear in the Census of 1624-5. He was a member of the House of Burgesses, March 1623-4.

(13) James Toake or Tuke lived at Pashbehaigh's, James City in 1625, and was a Burgess for Isle of Wight Co., January 1639. His will was dated Feb. 1, 1659 and proved in Isle of Wight. His legatees were his daughter Dorothy, wife of John Harvey, and sons William and Thomas, to the last of whom he gave his signet seal ring.

HENRY CHURCHILL of Steeple Claydon, county Bucks, gent. Will 23 May 1651; proved 10 February 1653-4. I bequeath to my eldest son Tobias at his age of 24 my mansion house wherein I now dwell, with my close adjoining called Sand Furlong; a parcel called Peartree Hill abutting on the land of Richard Doggett, with the meadow adjoining called the lower part of Great Riffams; to remain, in default of issue to him, to my sons Henry, John, Thomas, Joseph, and William successively. And I charge whichever of my sons shall inherit the premises to pay to my third daughter Phillis Churchill £.10 yearly for her maintenance till her age of 21, and then a portion of £200.

I give £200 apiece in like manner to my eldest daughter Anne Churchill my second daughter Marie Churchill and my fourth and youngest daughter Frances Churchill. I give to my son Henry at his age of 24 my close in Steeple Cleydon called Gabrielle Ground. To my sons John and Thomas my pasture called Bushy Close and the meadow called Cowmeade. To my son Joseph, my moiety of the ground called Bournheades. To my son Tobias my freehold land in the common fields of Leighton Buzzard, county Bedford, called Midsomer Plott, and 11 acres of copyhold which I purchased, and my will is that my wife shall surrender to him and his heirs my messuage and land and one cottage wherein the Widow Doggett now dwelleth, all in Leighton Buzzard aforesaid, and I charge these premises with the payment of £300 to William Churchill, my youngest son, at his age of 21, with £10 yearly for his maintenance meanwhile. I bequeath to my godson Henry Churchill, son of my brother Thomas Churchill of Clifton in the parish of Deddington, county Oxon, yeoman, £5. To my godson Henry Churchill, son of John Churchill, late of Steeple Cleydon, deceased, 10s. To the poor of Leighton Buzzard, 40s. at the discretion of the minister, churchwardens, and overseers of the poor. To the poor of Steple Cleydon 40s., one half in bread, the other in money. All the rest of my goods to my wife Phillis Churchill, whom I make my executrix; and I appoint my said brother Thomas Churchill and his eldest son Thomas, my kinsman, Joseph Townesend, son of my brother in law William Townesend of Princes Risborow, county Bucks, and my eldest son Tobias, my overseers. (signed) Henry Churchill. Witnesses: William Fry, the mark of Henry Chamberlaine. Administration granted to the abovesaid Tobias Churchill, the executrix named being then also deceased. Brent, 367.

[The mention in this will of a brother living in Oxfordshire, makes it possible that the testator may have been of the same family as William Churchill of Va., who was born at North Aston, Oxfordshire.]

PROPOSALS IN REGARD TO VIRGINIA.

Virginia

In Pursuance of His Ma^{ties} Commands it is humbly offered,

1. That three Companys of soldiers may constantly remain there as also a Catch with thirty men. And that together with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Major General, Chaplane, Chirurgeon &c. they be placed upon the Establishment here in England in the same manner and proportion as in Jamaica.

[On the margin opposite section 1, is this comment].

Proposal rec^d from y^e Lord Culpeper 13th of Dec. 1678. and read the 14th following. Agreed only but two foot Companys instead of three.

2. That there be one sufficient Fort erected there in the most convenient place to secure Shipping whereby the King may be safe from Rebellion, His Customs more secure at home & the Country less liable to invasions and losses. And to this End that his Ma'ty be pleased to write a possitive Letter to the Assembly, And as our Encouragement to them to do the rest that his Ma'ty be pleased for such time as shall be necessary to apply the Quit Rents and Escheats &c. when the Patentees are agreed with, to that use as also His two third parts of all Fines and Forfeitures which by almost all past acts are granted to themselves and not to the Crown the residue to be made up there either by an Imposition on liquor imported or otherwise regard had to the poverty of the place by the late Rebellion and the present Constitution of affairs there.

3. That there be towns built there one on each great River if possible, And in order thereunto that after sufficient notice to provide Warehouses and other conveniences, no ships whatsoever be permitted to load or unload but at the said places where the towns are designed the chieftest whereof to be near the above-mentioned fort. And in case different Interests hinder y^e

Assembly there from agreeing the places His Ma'ty upon Report of the case, to direct them and to grant them all necessary privileges as to Trade and Markets but not to Incorporate any, or to give them any share in the Government and particularly not to choose Burgesses.

[On the margin opposite section 3, is this comment.]

Agreed.

4. That all the Laws of the Country be forthwith perused here and out of them a body compiled with such alterations as shall be thought fitting and sent by the Lord Culpeper under the Great Seal of England to be confirmed there wherein all defects in the stile may be amended and all forfeitures granted to the King only. And particularly wherein several clauses in the Act for raising the two shillings per hogshhead on Tobacco exported thence for support of the Government there may be explained and amended and several frauds hindered. As also to send a general Act for Naturalization and to repeal the Act of four pounds damages for defaming the Governor and Council and to send another in its place more suitable.

[On the margin opposite section 4, is this comment].

There is not time enough to peruse all ye Laws, neither are they all here: therefore those now in being are to remain in force, till that the Lord Culpeper after his arrival there, shall with the advice of Council, have sent a body of Laws, such as His Ma'ty shall approve of, to be enacted there. In the meantime let the Act of y^e Revenue be now next amended as is proposed also the Act of Naturalization and the Act about the Governor &c. As also such others as may be found to be absolutely necessary. See about their personal estates plundered & condemned by the Rebels.

5. That his Ma'ty be pleased to send a general Act of Indemnity for all persons and Estates (Bacons only excepted) and those who suffered on legal Trials by Jury, rendering two or three of the Ring leaders only, incapable of Employment. And for servants that no other advantage be taken against them, by their Masters under pretence of any law of the Country. But that the Year of Rebellion be not accounted as part of their time of service. And lastly that there be a clause in the nature of the Act for Judicial proceedings to confirm all Judgement and process of Law notwithstanding the misnaming any person for Governor that was not Governor and notwithstanding the Counsellors not having been as they ought appointed, or confirmed by the King without which all things will be loose, it having been as I am credily informed constantly omitted, by S^r William Berkley ever since his Mat^{ies} Restoration.

6. That there be care taken to discharge all Moneys remaining due to the soldiers remaining there now, and to the Country for Quartering them. And that they may be punctually paid, for the future as also that the old Powder, now there may be changed for new and the defects of the stores to be supplied.

[On the margin opposite section 6, is this comment].

Agreed. And the Lord Culpeper is Ordered to take y^e Accounts and see both Soldiers and the Country only paid.

7. That the Patentees of both grants especially the Latter to the Lords Culpeper and Arlington, be forthwith agreed with, and the Patents taken in to the intent that in pursuance of the Ingagement to the Country the Lord Culpeper may deliver it up vacated with his own hands.

[On the margin opposite section 7, is this comment].

Agreed. And the Lord Treasurer is forthwith to see it done.

8. That in case of War or great dangers no Ships be permitted to go to or return from Virginia but with sufficient Convoys or with Fleets.

[On the margin opposite section 8, is this comment].

Agreed.

9. These are the chief specific points applicable to Virginia only, and the present Conjuncture there, to which adding the General heads and Powers agreed on in my Lord Carlisle's Commission and Instructions as a pattern for the Rest, both as to the Government, and the comfortable subsistence of the Governor the affairs of that Colony will be put into a good method and the Lord Culpeper's dispatches quickly dispatched.

[On the margin opposite section 9, is this comment].

Agreed, and to be done forth with as is proposed.

These heads were delivered in January 1677 to M^r Sec'y Coventry and read at the Committee of Foreign affairs in May last but by reason of my lord Treasurers absence nothing done. But upon the 11th August upon a full debate upon every one, It was resolved as in the margin, and I conceive, so set down by M^r Secretary.

[On the margin opposite is this comment].

Agreed, taking care that the Estates of the persons pardoned, be liable to their debts. And that the loyal persons may have their Estates again.

The following lesser points were also agreed:

1. That an Order about the Impost of Tobacco demanded by M^r Sandys and M^r Brown to be allowed them in Virginia might be annulled.

2. That all Tobaccos shipped in Virginia should pay Virginia duties.

3. That the presents for the Indian princes be forthwith delivered to the Lord Culpeper.

4. That the King would send a Mace and Sword to the Country as he had done in other places and furniture for a Chapel destroyed by the Rebels as my Lord Carlisle had.

5. That the King would send furniture for two hundred dragoons and fifty horse, with some tents, the Country mounting theirs at their charge on occasion.

6. That the business of the Auditor be settled wherein the Country is exceedingly disturbed and as I conceive His Ma^{ties} concerns prejudiced.

7. That all writs may be issued out in the King's name only if it be practicable.

this Stone.

Recently I was shown this inscription on a slab covering a grave located near the site of old Ware church in Chesterfield county, near old Osborn landing and on or near the Howlett farm on the James River.

A broken slab covered another grave alongside of this one. Thinking this might be of some interest to you I copied it.

Trees nearly one hundred years old, I judge, have grown up around these graves and they seemingly have long since passed out of the care of any one.

ROBINSON—CUSTIS FAMILY—ACCAMAC COUNTY, VA.

On page 195 of the Magazine of April 1916, reference is made to John Custis as a grandson of Elizebeth Robinson; Anna Robinson as Executrix etc. etc. and "T. T. Upshur stated that Major General John Custis married Alicia, daughter of the testatrix (Elizebeth Robinson) etc. etc." We never knew that Mr. Upshur ever stated that Major General John Custis married Alicia Robinson—he did state that Major General John Custis of Arlington etc. married (first) Elizebeth Robinson, (second) Alicia —, widow of Peter Walker, etc. and (third) —, etc. etc. etc. Was Alicia a Robinson?

On page 308 of the Magazine of July 1916, reference is made to: "She (Mrs. Elizebeth Robinson) was the grandmother of Col. Tully Robinson, son of Wm. and Col. John Custis, only child of Major Heneral John Custis and her deceased daughter Elizebeth ("Robinson Custis.")

We do not understand the underscored part of the above quotation.

RICHARD B. GOOCH.

For about two years before his death, Richard Barnes Gooch was editor of the Southern Planter, at that time owned by Peter D. Bernard, son-in-law of T. W. White, founder of the Southern Literary Messenger, and first publisher of Ruffin's Farmer's Register. Mr. Gooch died in his thirty-first year, May 13th, 1851, at his home called "Airfield." He had been a student at the University of Virginia, and while there was, during 1839, one of the Board of Editors of the Collegian, conducted by a committee elected by the students. The editors of this publication were encouraged to believe they could make money by it, and it was their idea to invest the profits in a fund for the support of a Professorship of English Literature at the University. After leaving the University, young Gooch went abroad, and some of his letters written from Europe were published in the Richmond Enquirer. May 29, 1841, Mr. Gooch delivered the anniversary address of the Patrick Henry Society of Richmond, a pamphlet printed by Bernard. August 28, 1845, Gooch was chosen a member of the Standing Committee of the Richmond Education Meeting, to prepare an address on Education to the People of Virginia.

During 1845, doubtless in October, the Southern Review began to appear, a Richmond periodical which has been a good deal lost sight of. The undersigned has seen but one number of this Review, that for January 1846, Vol. 1, No. 4. The cover of this copy is gone, and there is nothing to show who was the editor, or who was the publisher. This number of the "Southern Review, devoted to Science, Literature and Philosophy," is full of matter on Education. The guess is offered that the magazine was an outcome of the Education Meeting and Convention of 1845, and that Richard B. Gooch was the editor. Ready access to files of Richmond newspapers might clear up the point at once.

GEOLOGY OF RICHMOND.
Department of the Interior
United States Geological Survey Washington.

Office of the Director.

November 20, 1916.

Editor,

Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Richmond, Va.

My dear Sir:

It occurs to me that your subscribers may be interested in the following statement regarding a report of this Survey of which we have a number of extra copies for free distribution. (I inclose a copy of the report). If you feel like publishing this statement I should very much appreciate receiving a marked copy.

REPORT ON GEOLOGY OF RICHMOND, VA.

The "Economic Geology of Richmond, Va., and vicinity" is the title of a report issued by the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, as Bulletin 483, a number of copies of which are available for free distribution. This bulletin will be of especial interest to all inhabitants of Richmond, for even the laymen who is not interested in geology may find it of interest and value to know just what kind of a foundation his house rests on, at what depth in digging a well he would strike certain rock formations, and the quality of the granite which may be found in his own back lot, information which is readily accessible in Bulletin 483.

An abundance of minerals is found in this region—including brick clay, molding sand, a great deposit of diatomaceous earth, ocher, concrete-making material, and granite. Granite is the most valuable mineral product of the area and is well suited for building stone of the highest grade. One of the most notable structures built partly of Richmond granite is the huge State, War, and Navy Department building in Washington. Several paragraphs of the report are devoted to each mineral resource discussed, embracing the locations of the different deposits, the quality, and the extent of development.

A copy of Bulletin 483 will be sent free on application to the Director, U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

Yours very truly,
Philip S. Smith,
Acting Director.

Inclosure.

BERRY FAMILY.

I read with a great deal of interest your article published in the XXIII Volume, page 97, of this magazine, concerning the family of Washingtons into which my great-great-grandfather, Thomas Berry, of "Berry Plains," King George County, Virginia, had married. His wife was Elizabeth, b. Dec. 1737.

Thomas¹ Berry, according to Bishop Mead, was for many years a Vestryman in St. Paul's and Hanover Parishes, King George County. In his will, probated in King George County, 1812, he names three sons, viz.: Washington, John and Lawrence, and a grandson, John Thornton Augustine Washington. This last named, I know to have been the son of Thomas Berry's only daughter and fourth child, Mildred², who was the first wife of Thornton Augustine Washington. (They were married in Charles County, Md., 26th of December, 1779). He was the son of Col. Samuel Washington, and his second wife, Mildred Thornton. At Mildred Berry's death, Thoinston Augustine Washington married in 1786, Frances Townshend Washington, first cousin of his first wife. Frances Townshend, being the daughter of Lawrence Washington, of King George County, to whom General Washington, referred in his will as "friend of my juvenile years."

Near the end of the eighteenth century, Washington and John Berry removed to Kentucky.

WASHINGTON² BERRY (Thomas¹) married Alice Taylor, daughter of Col. James Taylor, IV, of Caroline County, Va., and his wife, Anne Hubbard, daughter of Benjamin Hubbard, and settled at Dayton, near Newport, Ky. They had

1. Taylor³, married Frances Christy, daughter of Col. William Christy of St. Louis, Mo., issue: Martha⁴ and Mary⁴.
2. Hubbard³, married Agnes King; issue, Martha⁴ and Taylor⁴.
3. Mildred³ Washington, married Thomas Buckner; issue, Hubbard⁴, Alice⁴, Sophia⁴ and Thomas⁴.

4. Alice³, married Richard Taliaferro; issue, Alice⁴ and Anne⁴.
5. Lucy³, married Alexander Sandford; issue, Alice⁴, Pope⁴, Belle⁴, Lucy⁴, Thomas⁴ and Edmund⁴.
6. Sophia³, married Mr. Timberlake; issue, William⁴, Henry⁴ and Alice⁴.
7. James³ Thomas, married Elizabeth Wise; issue,
 1. Washington⁴, died unmarried.
 2. Judge⁴ Albert S., married Anne Shaler, sister of Prof. Nathaniel Shaler, of Harvard College. Judge⁴ Berry was an officer in the Confederate Navy. In later years was a member of Congress from Campbell and Kenton Counties, Kentucky; issue, Alice⁵, Dr. Shaler⁵, M. D., Albert⁵ S., Jr., Anne Elizabeth⁵ and Robert⁵ Lawrence, Lieut. Com., U. S. N.
 3. Virginia⁴, married Col. Philip Brent Spence; issue, Berry and Brent,
 4. James⁴ Thomas, married Mary Winston; issue, Mary, James Thomas, Jr., and Edmund.
 5. Jane⁴, married Taylor Williams; issue, Elizabeth⁵ and Sadie⁵.
 6. Mildred⁴, died young.
 7. Elizabeth⁴, died young.
 8. Edmund⁴, T., died young.
8. Edmund³ Taylor, born 9th of June, 1811, married 15th of May, 1833, Sarah Frances Taylor, born 5th of May, 1815, daughter of Major William Taylor and Susan Grayson Harrison Gibson, his wife;
 1. issue, Surgeon⁴ William, U. S. A., 1861, no marriage.
 2. Alice⁴ Elizabeth, married Stephen Fitzjames Trabue; issue, Edmund⁵ Francis, Stephen⁵ Fitzjames, Jr., Willett⁵ C., Robert⁵ Berry, Alice⁵ Elizabeth.
 3. John⁴ Washington, married Jane Holmes.
 4. Edmonia, married Thomas Shannon.
 5. Thomas Gibson, never married.
 6. Rear Admiral Robert Mallory, married Mary Augusta Brady.
 7. Frances, never married.
 8. Gibson G., never married.
 9. James, married Lillian Pearce.
9. John³, married Rebecca Finch; issue, Sophia⁴ and Lucy⁴.

JOHN² WASHINGTON BERRY (Thomas¹) married Anne Taylor, daughter of Licut. Jonathan Taylor of The Revolution, and his wife Anne Berry, of Caroline County, Ga. Issue:

Thomas³ Washington; Lawrence³ Washington; Samuel³ Taylor; Taylor³; Edward³ Taylor; Frank³ Taylor; Mildred³; Anne³ Taylor; Mary³ Washington; Jonathan³; John³ Washington; William³ Taylor; Washington³; George³.

Mary Washington³ Berry (John² Washington, Thomas¹) married Peter Berry, issue: Dr. James⁴ Thornley, M. D., married Auita

Anderson Gray, issue: Anita⁵ Anderson, Fannie⁵ Brent. Anita Anderson married Roby. Spottswood Brooke.

Peter⁴.

Gibson⁴ Taylor.

Mary⁴ Frances, married Jack Langhorne Brent, issue: Judge Georga⁵ A., Mary⁵ Berry and Fannie⁵ Langhorne.

William³ Taylor (John² Washington, Thomas¹) married his first cousin, Margaret Anne Taylor, issue:

(1) John⁴, removed to Texas and married; (2) Nanny⁴, married Micajah Fible; (3) Jonathan⁴ Taylor, married Courtenay Smith; (4) Mary⁴ Elizabeth, married John J. Harbison, issue: Rosa⁵; (5) Anderson⁴, died at Camp Douglas; (6) Thomas⁴ Brent, never married.

LAWRENCE² BERRY (Thomas¹) was a lawyer, also Clerk of King George County, Virginia, for thirty-four years, from 1788 to 1822, when he died. He married Katherine Hodge. In his will, probated in King George County, he names Elizabeth³, Katherine³, Mildred³ Washington, Maria³, Lawrence³, Henry³, John³, Thomas³, Charles³, Rev.³ Robert, Alexander³.

He also mentions a son-in-law, Robt. I. Taylor, of Alexandria, Va., who married Elizabeth³ Berry.

Their descendants are Henry Allen Taylor, Lawrence Berry Taylor, in Virginia and District of Columbia; Elizabeth Taylor, married Robert Scott, of Fauquier County, Virginia.

Mr. Archibald⁵ Taylor, attorney at law, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Julian⁵ Taylor, attorney at law, Alexandria, Va., are from this family. Also, Mr. John⁴ Berry, Clerk of the Court at Fredericksburg, Va., is a grandson of Lawrence Berry, Sr.

THE STATE OF THE COMMONWEALTH, 1824-1835.

It should be of interest to announce that a small fund is being raised for the purpose of reprinting a group of very valuable addresses made at Hampden-Sidney College between the years 1824 and 1835. These addresses are six in number, the authors being John Holt Rice, William Maxwell (editor of the first magazine of the Virginia Historical Society), J. Burton Harrison, Jonathan P. Cushing, James Mercer Garnett, and Lucian Minor. These men, all of high intelligence, seem almost to have spoken by programme, directing their remarks towards a constructive criticism of Virginia as the state was in those critical years. The result is a body of work, quite homogeneous, and of very great interest.

The material of these essays will run to about 130 pages; the cost of printing will be rather more than one dollar a page. Those interested will please communicate with the undersigned.

ROBINSON.

Referring to the will of Elizabeth Robinson on pp. 194-5, Vol. XXIV, No. 2, Mrs. Ljungstedt begs to say that this will is to be found recorded in Vol. 8, fol. 726, in the Clerk's Office at Eastville, Northampton Co., Va. The court may have been a Court for Accomack County, and the residence of Elizabeth in Accomack County, but the statement as to the location of the record is certainly misleading.

GENEALOGY.

Children of Thomas-Todd and his wife Anna⁴ (John³, Daniel², William¹) Gorsuch:

1. i. Thomas⁵ Todd. Born 1660. Died Jan. 16, 1724-5. Married Elizabeth Bernard. Had issue. (see post)
- ii. Robert⁵ Todd. Born prior to Aug. 17, 1664, when his father by deed of gift settled three dividends of land in Baltimore County on his sons Robert and John, with reversion to the survivor (see ante, 24; 428). Living Apr. 5, 1669 when he was brought into Maryland by his father. As this land was later in the possession of his brother Thomas⁵ Todd and there is no transfer on record, it seems likely that Robert died in childhood. Certainly his name does not reappear in the Maryland records.
- iii. John⁵ Todd. Born prior to Aug. 17, 1664, when his father settled land upon him and his brother Robert (see ante, 24; 428). Living Apr. 5, 1669 when he was brought into Maryland by his father. Like his brother Robert⁵ he does not reappear in the Maryland records. It is of course possible that they may both have returned to Virginia after their father's death. This John⁵ Todd is to be carefully distinguished from John Todd, who died 1677, and was the son of Thomas Todd of Anne Arundel County, Md., and of a different Todd family (Md. Hist. Mag. 9, 300).
2. iv. James⁵ Todd. Born about 1670. Died May 9, 1709. Married 1st Elizabeth —; 2nd, Penelope Scudamore. Had issue. (see post)
3. v. Anne⁵ Todd. Born about 1658-1661. Died between 1684-1694. Married Miles Gibson. Had issue. (see post)
- vi. Johanna⁵ Todd. Born prior to Apr. 5, 1669, when she was brought into Maryland by her father. Living Feb. 21, 1675-6, when she is mentioned in her father's will. Not

- traced further. She is not mentioned in the will of her step-father David Jones Feb. 3, 1686-7, as are her three sisters.
- vii. Frances⁵ Todd. Born prior to Apr. 5, 1669, when she was brought into Maryland by her father. Mentioned in her father's will 1675-6. Under the will of her step-father David Jones, dated Feb. 3, 1686-7, the tract Long Point, 250 acres, was left to her and her heirs, and a contingent interest with her sister Averilla in his dwelling plantation [Cole's Harbor]. Long Point, patented by David Jones under a survey dated June 16, 1682, lay on the west side of the main branch [Herring Run] of Back River. Although no transfer of this tract appears among the Baltimore County deeds prior to 1728, when it was sold by John Cromwell [son of Richard] to Thomas Sheredine (Balto. Deeds IS: I; 239), the Baltimore County Rent Roll for 1700 and a somewhat later Rent Roll, about 1706 (Md. Hist. Soc. MSS.), give the tract as in the possession at these dates of Richard Cromwell. It would therefore seem that Frances Todd may have become the wife of Richard Cromwell*, a wealthy planter and the founder of the Baltimore County family of Cromwell. It should be remembered however that prior to about the year 1715 property was sometimes conveyed without record by seisin. If so, Richard Cromwell had more than one wife, as at the time of his death in 1717 he refers in his will to his wife Elizabeth and his mother-in-law Besson. His wife Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas Besson, Jr., and his wife Margaret Saughier. There is no direct evidence however that Richard Cromwell had a former wife named Frances, nor has any mention of this Frances⁵ Todd been found in the Maryland records after 1686-7.
- viii. Averilla⁵ Todd, probably born after Apr. 5, 1669, as she is not given among her father's headrights. Mentioned in her father's will 1675-6. Under the will of her step-father David Jones Feb. 3, 1686-7 Abiell [Averilla] Todd was left Jones Fortin [Fortune] 130 acres. This is doubtless the same tract as Jones Chance, 130 acres, on Old Road Creek, patented by David Jones under a survey dated June 12, 1682. (Balto. Co. Rent Roll, Md. Hist. Soc. MSS.) No later reference to Averilla Todd has been found. Although it cannot be certainly identified from the Rent Roll, 30 acres of this tract in 1700 appears to have been in the possession of James Todd and 100 acres in the possession of Robert Johnson, to whom James Todd had sold it. It looks as if Averilla may have died unmarried and that her brother James had inherited from her.

1. Thomas Todd⁵ (Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch), son of Thomas and Anna⁴ (Gorsuch) Todd, is shown from his tombstone inscription at Toddsbury, Gloucester County, Virginia, to have been born in 1660 and to have died Jan. 16, 1724-5 (Wm. & Mary Col. Quart. III; 15-16). He was certainly the eldest son and was named by his father as executor. Although retaining possession of the estate in Maryland at North Point on the Patapsco, which he inherited as heir at law of his father, and where his son Thomas⁶ settled and lived, there is no reason to believe that Thomas⁵ Todd himself actually lived in Maryland after his father's death. His home was at Toddsbury on the North River, Mobjack Bay, Gloucester County, the Virginia estate which he inherited from his father. An interesting sketch of Toddsbury may be found in Lancaster's Historic Virginia Homes and Churches. The photograph accompanying it was reproduced in the last number of this Magazine.

*Col. William Bernard was a very prominent man in the early history of Virginia. He was born about 1598 and came to Virginia in the ship America in 1625. He was a son of Francis Bernard Esq. of Kingsthorpe Northamptonshire, and a brother of Sir Robert Bernard, Bart., of Brampton, Huntingdonshire. He settled in Isle of Wight County. He was a member of the Council of Virginia almost uninterruptedly between 1642 and 1660. Col. Bernard was greatly interested in introducing silk culture into the colony. He received a grant of 1200 acres of land Aug. 10, 1642 in Isle of Wight "due for his own adventure into the Colony four times and for the transportation of 20 persons." He is usually referred to in the records as Col. William Bernard. He married about 1652 or 1653, as her second husband, Lucy, the daughter of Capt. Robert Higginson and the widow of Major Lewis Burwell of Carter's Creek, Gloucester. There are several York County deeds proving this marriage, the earliest being one from William Bernard, Esq. and Lucy his wife, to George Reade of a tract which had been purchased by Capt. Robert Higginson Jan. 9, 1648. (Encyclopaedia of Virginia Biography; ed. Lyon Gardiner Tyler; 1915. I; 117-8). The will of Col. William Bernard's brother, Sir Robert Bernard, Bart., of Brampton Hall, Huntington, dated Dec. 5, 1665 and proved May 15, 1666, recites that his brother William Bernard of Virginia died Dec. 31, 1665, and shows that the latter's son was then with Sir Robert in England. (Va. Mag. 6; 408-9). A chart of the English descent of the Bernard family is also published. It is learned from the MSS pedigrees compiled in 1816 by T. R. Rootes of Gloucester County from "an ancient paper," which have been invariably found to be accurate, where susceptible of verification from independent sources, that "Col. William Bernard, son of the Knight of Huntington," had [in addition to Elizabeth Todd] another daughter Lucy by his wife, the daughter of Col. Hickerson [Higginson] and widow of Lewis Burwell Esq., and that this daughter Lucy married Edward Gwin [Edmund Gwynne]. It is further stated that Lucy, the daughter of Edward Gwin and Lucy Bernard, married Thomas, son of George Reade, the pedigree of this Thomas Reade of Gloucester being further elaborated. Corroboration of these statements in the Rootes MSS may be found in the Magazine which shows that Edmund Gwynne had a daughter Lucy who married Thomas Reade (Va. Mag. 4, 206). Edward Creffield of London married Lucy, the widow of Edward Gwin. The will of Edwd. Creffield, of London, merchant, dated Nov. 24, 1694 and proved Dec. 9, 1694, makes a bequest of a diamond ring to "my daughter in lawe, now or late wife of Mr. Thomas Reed of Glou-

Mr. Lancaster believes that the old house which is still standing was built by Thomas Todd, the elder. The place descended from Thomas⁵, the younger, to his youngest son Christopher⁶, who dying in 1743, was succeeded by Thomas⁷, who appears to have been the only son. He died in 1794 without issue, Toddsbury passing to Philip⁸ Tabb, his nephew, son of his sister Lucy⁷, who had married Edward Tabb of Gloucester. Owing to the destruction of the Gloucester County records comparatively little is known in regard to this Thomas⁵ Todd. His tombstone inscription refers to him as Capt. Thomas Todd. This was doubtless a military title. He was a Justice of the Peace of Gloucester from 1698 to 1702 (Va. Mag. 1; 235 and Wilson M. Cary MSS.)

chester in Virginia which my late wife, mother of the said Lucye, used to wear" (Va. Mag. 19; 289-290). Robert Higginson is described prior to his removal to Virginia in 1643 in an old chancery suit, as a citizen and painter-stainer. He was a son of Thomas and Anne Higginson of Berkeswell, Warwick, England. He married about 1625 Joanna Torquesy. Captain Robert Higginson commanded at Middle Plantation, Virginia in 1645. The tombstone of his daughter Lucy, died Nov. 6, 1675, and who is buried at Fairfield, the old Burwell homestead on Carter's Creek, Gloucester, stated that "she was ye only daughter of the valliant Capt. Robert Higginson. One of the first command'rs that subdued the county of Virginia from the power of the heathen," and that "she was descended from the Ancient family of the Higginsons" (Va. Mag. 4; 207). The English ancestry of the Higginsons is elaborated in Eben Putnam's "Higginsons of New England and Virginia." Lucy Higginson, as has been stated, married three times viz., (1) Lewis Burwell, (2) William Bernard and (3) Philip Ludwell. Lewis Burwell, her first husband, was baptized March 5, 1621 and died prior to Nov. 24, 1653, as it is learned from a York County deed (Wm. & Mary Col. Quart. XXIV; 40) that she was then the wife of William Bernard. The date of his death was probably Nov. 19, 1672, certainly not 1676 as usually given. Major Lewis Burwell, sergeant-major of militia, came to Virginia about 1640 and was the founder of the Virginia family of Burwell. The date of his marriage is not known. Lewis Burwell left issue by his wife Lucy. By her second husband, Col. William Bernard, she had two daughters, Elizabeth who married Thomas Todd⁶ and Lucy who married Edward Gwin [Edmund Gwynne], and was also probably the mother of the unnamed son of William Bernard referred to in the will of Sir Robert Bernard. The date of the death of William Bernard as given above was Dec. 31, 1665. The York County records show that his widow was the wife of Philip Ludwell Nov. 25, 1667. Col. Ludwell was a very prominent man in the affairs of Virginia. He was a member of the Virginia Council and was at one time governor of Carolina. By him she became the mother of Philip Ludwell, Jr., born at Carter's Creek, Gloucester County, Feb. 4, 1672, and of a daughter Jane, who married Col. Daniel Parke, an aide of Marlborough. Lucy Higginson's tombstone as well as a fragment of that of her father was at "Fairfield," Gloucester, but have now been removed to Abingdon Church. She died Nov. 26, 1675 (Meade's Old Churches & Families of Va. 1900; 1; 353). Ludwell married secondly Lady Frances Berkeley, shortly after the death of her husband, Governor Berkeley, which occurred in 1677. (Wm. & Mary Col. Quart. XIX; 199-214; 202-3; New Eng. Hist. & Gen. Reg. XXXIII);

Proof of this statement is to be found in an old family record made by Col. William Spotswood Fontaine June 7, 1833 at the dictation of Col. John Spotswood Stryken, fourth in direct descent from Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd. An account of the recent discovery of this family memorandum, valuable not only because the peculiar circumstances under which it was written make the accuracy of its statements inherently probable, but because all of the other statements contained in it have been checked up independently and found to be true. This record appeared in the William and Mary Quarterly (19; 177-184) and is especially valuable since it is the only direct evidence of the identity of the wife of Thomas⁵ Todd. It will hereafter be referred to as the Fontaine MSS. This record refers to "Thomas Todd of Toddsbury and his wife Elizabeth Bernard," and their children, and states that "Mrs. Todd was the daughter of Col. William Bernard and his wife Lucy, widow Burwell, a daughter of a Mr. Hickerson [Higginson]. Thomas Todd and his wife, Elizabeth Bernard, had a large family, namely, Thomas who went to Maryland; Richard, Philip, and Christopher were the sons; the daughters were Anne, who married a Cooke; Lucy, who married first a man named O'Brien; secondly, John Baylor, and became the mother of Col. John Baylor of Caroline; Elizabeth who first married a Scotchman named Seaton, and secondly my great grandfather Colonel Augustine Moore. Another daughter, whose name I do not remember just now, married a man named North." The writer then proceeds to carry down the Moore line. It is interesting to note that Bernard as a christian name has been carried down in the lines of at least three of the children of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd. It has been seen that the Fontaine MSS names as the children of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth Todd, viz.: sons, Thomas⁶, Richard⁶, Philip⁶, and Christopher⁶, and daughters, Anne⁶, Lucy⁶ and Elizabeth⁶ and a fourth unnamed daughter, Mrs. North⁶. It may be here stated that the will of his eldest son Thomas⁶ of Maryland, 1714-5, (see post) mentions no sisters, but refers to his brothers William⁶, Philip⁶, and Christopher⁶. It is to be noted that William⁶ is not mentioned in the Fontaine MSS, while Richard⁶ is not mentioned in the will of his brother Thomas⁶. The Toddsbury graveyard, in addition to the stone of Thomas Todd⁵ already referred to, contains the following tombstone inscriptions*, all of which certainly refer to the descendants of Thomas Todd⁶, viz., Captain Christopher Todd—Born April 2, 1690—Died March 26, 1743; Frances Todd—Born April 12, 1692—Died November 5, 1693; Lucy Tabb—Daughter of Christopher & Elizabeth Todd—Born November 20, 1721—Died February 18, 1791. See William and Mary College Quarterly, III; p. 14 et seq. for copies of these inscriptions in full. Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd, the wife of Thomas⁶ Todd was born between 1653 and 1665. The date of her death is unknown.

Unfortunately, there is no copy in existence, as far as is known, of the will of Thomas⁵ Todd, dated March 4, 1722-3, and recorded in Gloucester. In Henning's Statutes are to be found several acts of the Assembly breaking the entail of lands in Gloucester, King and Queen, and Orange counties, left by him to his sons or their heirs, the acts referring by name to his sons, Richard, William and Philip and Christopher, and also mentioning a will of the above date. From the above sources it is shown that Thomas⁵ Todd had five sons, Thomas⁶, Richard⁶, William⁶, Philip⁶ and Christopher⁶; from the Fontaine MSS and the Robert North Bible (see Frances⁶ Todd⁷ post), we learn the names of four daughters, Anne⁶, Lucy⁶, Elizabeth⁶ and Frances⁶; from the will of his son-in-law Jonathan Hide (see post) it is learned that there was a fifth daughter, unnamed, who became Hide's wife, while the Toddsbury tombstone inscriptions indicate that there was another Frances, a sixth daughter, who died in childhood.

Thomas Todd⁵ would appear from these Acts to have possessed in addition to Toddsbury, other large landed estates in Virginia. As his father Thomas Todd had died intestate as regards his lands in both Virginia and Maryland, Thomas⁵ as the eldest son inherited them as the heir at law and added further to his father's holdings. As regards the Maryland lands, Thomas⁵ Todd the younger, although a non-resident, maintained his title in them and turned the North Point plantations over to his eldest son Thomas⁶ about fifteen years before his own death, the son becoming a resident of Maryland. Rather curiously, the Virginia estate Toddsbury, passed to Thomas's⁵ youngest son Christopher⁶. Had the younger Thomas⁶ Todd not been sent to occupy the Patapsco plantation it seems probable that the laws of Maryland against the indefinite holding of land by non-resident heirs would have operated unfavorably as far as Thomas⁵ Todd and his descendants resident in Virginia were concerned. In fact James⁵ Todd, a younger brother of Thomas⁵, who remained with his mother in Maryland after his father's death, actually requested the Land Office to resurvey certain minor tracts which formerly belonged to his father, for him as his heir. Probably to strengthen his title, as well as to establish his survey lines, Thomas⁵ Todd describing himself as of Gloucester County, Virginia, March 21, 1697, petitioned the Land Office for a special survey to bring into one tract of 1082 acres four adjoining tracts owned by him in Baltimore County, viz.: Denton 190 acres; North Point 330 acres; and two separate parts of a larger tract, Old Road, of 287 acres and 275 acres respectively. This survey was executed July 11, 1700 (Annap. Warrants 6; 142), but a new patent does not appear to have been issued. Thomas⁵ Todd had previously disposed of a few of his scattered Baltimore County land holdings inherited from his father. Describing himself as of Ware Parish, Gloster, gent., Oct. 9, 1695, he executes a confirmatory deed to Stephen Johnson to 250 acres which he had previously given to his brother James Todd and which the latter had sold to Johnson in 1694, the land being part of a larger tract, Todd's Range, 400 acres [in Patapsco Neck] on Back River (Balto. Deeds IS: 1K, 501). Thomas⁵ Todd and [his uncle] Charles⁴ Gorsuch Dec. 12, 1683, recorded a deed of division by which Todd received an absolute title in 275 acres, one-fourth of a tract of 1100 acres [Old Road] which Todd's father Thomas Todd, decd., and Charles Gorsuch held jointly (Balto. Deeds RM, HS, 275). William Buckner of Gloucester County, Virginia, Sept. 3, 1722, was appointed under power of attorney by Thomas⁵ Todd to dispose of Todd's personal property in Maryland, after the death of his son Thomas⁶. (Balto. Deeds IS: T, 51).

Children of Thomas⁵ (Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch) and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd. (Order somewhat uncertain.)

(Sons):

4. i. Thomas⁶ Todd born about 1681. Died 1715. Married about 1705 Elizabeth —. Had issue. (see post)
5. ii. Richard⁶ Todd born 1681-1688. Apparently died prior to 1723. Married. Had issue. (see post)
6. iii. William⁶ Todd born 1681-1688. Died 1736-45. Married about 1709 Martha Vicaris. Had issue. (see post)
7. iv. Philip⁶ Todd born about 1681-1688. Died before 1761. Married? (see post)
8. v. Christopher⁶ Todd born Apr. 2, 1690. Died Mar. 26, 1743. Married 1718-1721 Elizabeth Mason. Had issue. (see post)

(Daughters):

9. vi. Anne⁶ Todd born Nov. 9, 1682. Died July 18, 1720. Married about 1700 Mordecai Cooke. Had issue. (see post)
10. vii. Lucy⁶ Todd born about 1681-1683. Died ? Married 1st before 1698 —O'Brien; 2nd 1698 John Baylor. Had issue. (see post)
11. viii. Elizabeth⁶ Todd born about ^{C. 1690} —. Died ? ¹⁷²³ Married 1st George Seaton; 2nd Augustine Moore. Had issue by both husbands. (see post)
- ix. Frances⁶ Todd born Apr. 12, 1692. Died Nov. 5, 1703 (Toddsbury tombstone inscription, see ante).
12. x. —⁶ Todd. Date of birth unknown. Died prior to Dec. 15, 1718. Married Jonathan Hide. Had issue. (see post)
13. xi. Frances Todd born 1709. Died July 25, 1745. Married July 2, 1729, Robert North. Had issue. (see post)

2. James⁵ Todd (Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch), one of the younger children of Thomas and Anna⁴ Todd, was probably born after his parents moved into Maryland. He remained in Baltimore County. He is interesting to students of early history of Baltimore because of his ownership of Todd's Range* [Cole's Harbor] upon which the city was afterwards laid out. He married twice. He married, prior to June 3, 1696, Elizabeth, who joins him that year in a deed to Henry King of The Plains, 187 acres, on Back River. (Balto. Deeds IS: IK; 8). His wife's family name is not known. There is absolutely no evidence to support the supposition of Griffith (Annals of Baltimore, 1833; p. 6), that James Todd may have married the daughter of Alexander Montenay, and thus inherited the latter's land, Montenay's Neck. He acquired this tract by purchase (see post). He married secondly between Aug. 31 and Oct. 26, 1698, Penelope, daughter of Thomas Scudamore† of Baltimore County and his wife Abigail daughter of John and Jane Dixon. The separate administration accounts upon the estate of Jane Dixon made on the two above mentioned dates make mention of a legacy paid in part to Penelope Skidmore, Aug. 31, and apparently the remainder to James Todd Oct. 26 (Balto. Adm. Accts.). Again June 12, 1699, James Todd is joined by his wife Penelope in a deed to John Harryman, she making her mark (Balto. Deeds TR: RA; 397).

Proof of this marriage of James Todd is to be found in the assignment Oct. 10, 1704, from James and Penelope Todd to John Hays of a tract, Scudamore's Last, 130 acres laid out for Thomas Scudamore Aug. 13, 1687 "by whose death the tract became the property of James Todd and his wife, the heiress at law of said Scudamore" (Annap. Patents C. D. 161-2). In an ejectment suit brought about 1745, it is also stated that Thomas Scudamore had by his wife Abigail, an only child Penelope who married James Todd, deceased, and that Penelope had died "without issue under 21 years of age" (Annap. Judgments E. J. no. 10; 743-50). Whether this means that at the time of her death, the date of which is unknown, Penelope Todd was survived by issue over 21 years of age is somewhat uncertain, but it would seem to the writer after reading this suit that Penelope left no issue. Penelope Todd was living as late as Oct. 10, 1704, when she joins her husband in the above assignment of Scudamore's Last. As far as is certainly known James Todd had only one child, a daughter Ann, apparently by his first wife Elizabeth. Capt. John Ferry of Back River, Baltimore County in his will dated March 1, and proved March 11, 1698-9 leaves certain personal property to Ann the daughter of James Todd, and also makes a bequest to Thomas Todd of Virginia of £30 and his personal property on Denton, alias North Point Plantation, on condition that Todd free a servant named John Shaw. (Annap. Wills; 6; 227). This may indicate that Capt. John Ferry managed the North Point plantations for Thomas⁵ Todd of Gloucester. Capt. John Ferry was one of the Commissioners of Baltimore County (Balto. Co. Court Proc. 1693-6; 85), and had married Ann the widow and executrix of John Boreing one of the Justices of Baltimore County. Whether there was any connection between these families and the Todds has not been determined.

†Thomas Scudamore of Back River, Baltimore County, practised as attorney before the Baltimore County Court (Balto. Co. Court Proc. 1682-6), and was probably at one time one of the County Justices. John Dixon appears as one of the justices of the Baltimore County Court as early as 1665. He also lived in Back River, Baltimore County. John Dixon's wife Jane, prior to her marriage to him was the widow Waites. After the death of John Dixon, which occurred about 1670 she married as her third husband Major Thomas Long, High Sheriff of Baltimore County. She had issue by all three of her husbands. Abigail Dixon the daughter of John and Jane Dixon after the death of her first husband Thomas Scudamore, about 1687-8, married as her second husband, John Hays [Hayes] of Back River. By her first husband, Thomas Scudamore, she had but one child, Penelope Scudamore, who became the wife of James Todd. By her second husband, John Hays, she became the mother of Jane Hays who married Thomas Stansbury. The writer is indebted to Mr. Wm. B. Marye for this very interesting pedigree of these early Baltimore County families to which very few clues may be found among the testamentary records and deeds, ordinarily consulted by the searcher. Mr. Marye has largely developed this pedigree in connection with his laborious researches in regard to the early Baltimore County tracts among the very imperfectly indexed Annapolis Land Warrants and Ejectments, and I am greatly indebted to him for allowing me to make use of his data. Lack of space makes it impossible to give here all the references upon which this pedigree is based.

James Todd and Richard Thompson appear bracketed together as taxables of Back River Hundred in 1692 (Balto. Co. Ct. Proc. G no. 1; 274). Between 1699 and 1703 James Todd appears as a taxable on the North Side Patapsco Hundred, while between 1704 and 1706 he appears as a taxable on North Side Gunpowder Hundred (Md. Hist. Soc. MSS.). It is rather interesting to note that down to 1704 numerous other taxables, probably servants, appear on his list, while after that date we find him moving to the Gunpowder and bracketed with but one other taxable, John Boon. This fact taken in connection with his frequent sales of land at this time and the administration of his estate later by his creditors indicate that he was in financial difficulties. In 1695 James Todd was a constable for the North Side Patapsco Hundred (Balto. Co. Ct. Proc. G no. 1; 524). He signed, as one of the civil officers of the county, Nov. 1696, an address congratulating William III upon his escape from assassination (Archiv. Md. 20; 544). James Todd's death is recorded in the St. George's register, "James Todd was drowned May 9, 1709." His estate was administered upon May 17, 1709 by Anthony Ball [Bale], a creditor (Test. Proc. 21; 192). The inventory and account showed an estate valued at only £27: 9: 9 (Annap. Inv. & Acct. 31; 2, 31, 65).

The Baltimore County land transactions in which James⁵ Todd figured apparently represent land acquired through his wife Penelope Scudamore, land presented him by his brother, Thomas⁵ Todd of Virginia, stray tracts which he claimed as the resident heir of his father, land left him under the will of his stepfather David Jones, and land which he apparently acquired through his mother from her second husband David Jones. Reference has already been made to a confirmatory deed by his brother Thomas⁵ Todd of Johnson's Dock, a part of Todd's Range, on Back River, previously presented to James by Thomas, and sold in 1694 to Stephen Johnson (Balto. Deeds RM: HS; 299). Other portions of this Todd's Range were sold by James Todd Aug. 6, 1698 to John Wells, and June 12, 1699 to John Harryman (idem TR; RA 288, 397). This tract Todd's Range, 400 acres, on Back River originally surveyed for his father Capt.

Thomas Todd must be carefully distinguished from the tract Cole's Harbor, 550 acres, formerly owned by Thomas Cole, lying on the northwest branch of the Patapsco, upon which the town of Baltimore was afterwards laid out and for which a warrant of resurvey dated Feb. 7, 1698-9 and a patent June 1, 1700 for 510 acres under the name Todd's Range, was issued to James Todd. The previous history of this latter tract has been fully discussed in connection with David Jones, the second husband of Anna⁴ Gorsuch (see ante; 24; 433-434). How this tract Cole's Harbor or Todd's Range actually came into the possession of James Todd will probably never be known. In 1788 the Maryland Court of Appeals tackled the problem in the well-known case of Helms versus Howard (Md. Reports, ed. Harris & McHenry; 2; 33 63), which involved the title of property in the heart of Baltimore, and while deciding that James Todd had a good title to the land by virtue of his resurvey of 1698-9 and patent of 1700, refused to decide how he acquired his original interest. It will be recalled that under the will of David Jones, 1686-7, his dwelling plantation, which apparently included not only Cole's Harbor 550 acres, but Montenev's Neck, 200 acres adjoining on the east, was left to his wife Anna⁴ for her life with the proviso that it should go to his sister Elizabeth if she outlived his wife, and in case of the death of his sister Elizabeth before that of his wife, it was to pass to Frances and Abiell [Averilla] Todd, who were daughters of his wife by her first husband. This much is certain; James Todd was in actual possession of Cole's Harbor in Feb. 7, 1698-9, when a warrant of resurvey of the tract was issued to him by the Land Office. As has been shown before, his mother had probably died a year or two before this time. It seems possible that James Todd may have originally acquired the site of Baltimore in one of four ways. He may have married Elizabeth, the sister of David Jones, his first wife's name being known to have been Elizabeth, and to have acquired the property through her. This seems improbable. Or he may have inherited it from his sisters, Frances and Averilla Todd, although this also seems improbable. He may have acquired legal title to it during his mother's lifetime by some sort of an unrecorded conveyance from his mother, as by seisin. There is still another explanation however, which seems the most probable. In the suit, Helms vs. Howard, just referred to, the plaintiff offered to prove by a witness "that it was the general reputation that James Todd entered into possession of Cole's Harbor under authority of his mother under some contract and not under any other title," but no such testimony was actually offered or at least was not admitted. The suit hinged upon a variation in one of the bounds as shown by the original survey, 1667, of Cole's Harbor for 550 acres and the bounds of the resurvey, 1698 9, establishing the lines of Todd's Range, as containing 510 acres, the suit involving land included in the former survey of Cole's Harbor, but not included in the bounds of Todd's Range. The Court ruled that no evidence had been produced to prove that James Todd derived his title to the tract called Cole's Harbor either by descent or by purchase from Thomas Cole himself or anyone deriving a title from Cole [as of course Charles Gorsuch and David Jones had done], and refused to go back of the title to the land and the bounds established by the resurvey, March 18, 1698-9 and the patent of June 1, 1700, by which the property under the name Todd's Range became vested in James Todd and his title thereto established. It was probably almost as difficult for the court in 1788, nearly a hundred years after the land had come into James⁵ Todd's possession, to determine the exact facts in the case in the absence of actual recorded data, as it is for us to do so today. The court prudently sidestepped the question and refused to "go back of the returns," and limited the ownership of Todd and his successors to Todd's Range^{as} determined by the resurvey of 1698-9 and the patent of 1700. This matter has been gone into in detail because for some curious reason the existence of a will of David Jones has been entirely overlooked by those who have discussed the question, not even being referred to in the suit. This may be due to the fact that the will, although probated in Annapolis, was not copied into the local Will Books kept for convenience in the Baltimore County Court House, and its existence possibly thus overlooked. Moreover the deed from Richard Blunt, of Talbot County, Oct. 4, 1695, who describes himself as a son and heir of Robert Blunt, late of Kent County, conveying to James Todd, Montines Land [Monteney's Neck], 200 acres, adjoining Cole's Harbor, also requires some explanation, as David Jones apparently also died possessed of this same tract, which he had purchased from Samuel Wheeler and wife in 1685 (Balto. Deeds T. R.: R. A., 339). It should also be noted that by a later survey the acreage of Monteney's Neck was reduced from 200 to 164 acres (Balto. Co. Rent Roll, Md. Hist. Soc. MSS). In the light of these facts it would seem that Anna⁴, the widow of David Jones, may have outlived her sister-in-law Elizabeth Jones as well as her own daughters Frances⁶ and Averilla⁵ Todd, who had contingent interests in the dwelling plantation Cole's Harbor should they outlive Anna⁴ (see David Jones's will ante 24; 436). Upon the death of Anna⁴, probably about the year 1695, her son James⁵ Todd, her only male heir in the Province, probably without opposition from his eldest brother Thomas⁵ of Virginia, and with the consent of Anna's⁴ third husband Capt. John Oldton, who was himself an extensive landholder and without children, and also probably fortified by the "authority of his mother under some contract," took possession of Cole's Harbor and Monteney's Neck. To establish his titles to both tracts, James⁵ Todd then secured a confirmatory deed to Monteney's Neck Oct. 4, 1695 apparently from the successor of the former owner who had sold to David Jones, and also had Cole's Harbor resurveyed for himself Feb. 7, 1698-9, and a patent to it under the name Todd's Range issued to him by the Land Office, June 1, 1700. (Annap. Warrants; 6, 175; Patents D. D. no. 5; 2). James Todd did not remain very long in possession of these two tracts. By a deed recorded the High Sheriff of Baltimore County, and referred to as one of the "substantial Protestant gentlemen" of the Province. It was not an uncommon practice for parents of position in sending a son to the colonies to seek his fortune, to "bind him over" to a relation or friend in order to insure his better protection. Miles Gibson married three times, and on each occasion into a prominent family. His first wife was Anne, the daughter of Thomas Thurston* of Baltimore County. This is learned from a deed May 19, 1676 from Thomas Thurston to Miles Gibson, "in consideration of a marriage solemnized between Ann my daughter and Miles Gibson of Baltimore County," he deeds to Gibson two tracts, Cole's Banks and Moorfields in Talbot County, both containing 600 acres (Balto. Deeds TR: RA; 262-3). Thomas Thurston May 2, 1676 assigned to Miles Gibson his rights for twenty servants transported "twelve years since," and on this date also assigns to Gibson his rights for transporting himself, Bridget his wife and his daughters Anne and Elizabeth (Annap. Patents: 19; 258). As has already been shown, Miles Gibson married secondly, a very short time before May 30, 1677, Anne⁵ Todd. He married thirdly Elizabeth the widow of Henry Hazelwood.

Miles Gibson lived at one time on Back River, as is learned from a power of attorney given him Apr. 9, 1679 by Nicholas Gassoway (Balto. Deeds 1R: P. P.; 34). He also owned on Romney or Rumley Creek, emptying into the Bay between the Susquehanna and Bush River, the tracts Persimmon Point, Port Royal, Delph Island, and Gibson's Marsh, where he later appears to have lived. He also owned Gibson's Park lying on the east side of Winter's Run. Miles Gibson was appointed Justice of Baltimore County June 4, 1679, and again Dec. 13, 1680 (Archiv. Md. 15; 253; 326). He represented Baltimore County in the Lower House of the Assembly, 1682-3, resigning to become High Sheriff of the county, which position he held until 1687. (Archiv. Md., 7; 349; idem. 17, 142), when he again became Justice in 1686-7. (idem; 5: 470, 525, 541). Nov. 28, 1689 Gibson signed a petition to the King, and Sept. 17, 1690 is referred to as one of the "most substantial Protestant Inhabitants" of the Province

*Thomas Thurston was a prominent Quaker (Archiv. Md. 8; 63). He represented Baltimore County in the General Assembly in [1686 and 1688] (Archiv. Md. 13; 163). There is a deed, Oct. 27, 1676, from Thomas Thurston, to Elizabeth, the daughter of George Skipwith of West River [Maryland], conveying to her all of his personal property wherever located. (Balto. Deeds, TR: RA; 263). The will of Thomas Thurston of Baltimore County, dated Dec. 21, 1692, and proved Apr. 13, 1693, mentions his son Thomas, his daughter Elizabeth, wife of Charles Rumsey, and his daughter Sarah. He also leaves 1 shilling to his daughter Elizabeth the wife of George Skipwith. He makes bequests to his wife Mary and states that should his three children by his last wife die without issue his entire estate is to go to his brother Samuel Thurston of Thernberry in Gloucestershire (Annap. Wills 6; 21). This will indicates that his daughter Anne, wife of Miles Gibson, and the elder of his two daughters bearing the name Elizabeth, who married George Skipwith, were children of a former wife.

and as one of the "gentlemen supposed to be of my Lord's [i. e. Baltimore's]partie" (Archiv. Md.; 8; 136, 213, 285). Under the will of Francis Lovelace of Baltimore County, a cousin of Anne⁵ (Todd) Gibson, dated Mar. 3, 1683-4 and proved May 19, 1684 his "cozen Miles Gibson" was appointed executor and bequests made to Robert, Sarah and Anna, the children of Miles Gibson, with reversions to their father and mother, the residue of the estate to pass directly to Miles Gibson. It seems almost certain that these all were the children of Miles Gibson by his second wife Anne⁵ Todd, and not by his first wife Anne Thurston, as they are not mentioned in the will of Thomas Thurston, father of the first wife, while they all received legacies under the will of Frances Lovelace, a "cosen" of the second wife Anne⁵ Todd, and Robert was also a legatee under the will of Capt. David Jones, the stepfather of Anne⁵ Todd (see ante 24; 436). The date of Anne⁵ Todd's death is not known. Miles Gibson married thirdly Elizabeth Gibson formerly Hazelwood" executrix of John Collett. Henry Hazelwood had been appointed executor under Colletts will, 1673. Elizabeth Gibson also appears as executrix of Francis Lovelace, succeeding her husband (Balto. Co. Court Proc. 1693-6; 165). That Elizabeth Gibson had issue by Henry Hazelwood is learned from a deed of gift to her son John Hazelwood (Balto. County Court Proc. 1693-6; 550). Miles Gibson died shortly before May 26, 1692, when his widow Elizabeth filed his inventory showing personal property valued at £516:2:1, and debts due him valued at 28,458 pounds of tobacco (Balto. Invent. 1; 26). Whether or not the widow married again is not known. The list of Baltimore County Taxables, Spesutia Hundred, for 1695, shows "at Mrs. Gibson's" 10 taxables, viz.: Daniel Palmer, William Palmer, William Hazelwood, Robert Gibson, Miles —, John Hazelwood and 5 slaves. This shows that William and John Hazelwood, who were unquestionably her sons, at this time were 16 years of age or over. The Register of St. George's records the burial of William Hazelwood at Rumley [Romney] Creek June 15, 1693; of John Hazelwood of the head of Musketa [Mosquito] Creek at the mouth of Rumley Creek Apr. 2, 1699; and of Henry Haslewood of the head of Musketa Creek buried upon his own plantation June 9, 1699.

Children of Miles Gibson and Anne⁵ Todd (Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch):

15. i. Robert⁶ Gibson. Born about 1678-1681. Died June 1704. Married Dec. 15, 1702, Mary Goldsmith. Apparently had no issue. (see post)
16. ii. Sarah⁶ Gibson. Born 1678-1683. Date death unknown. Married Thomas Bale, by whom she apparently had no issue. (see post)
- iii. Anne⁶ Gibson. Born 1679-1683. Living Mar. 3, 1683-4, when she is referred to in Francis Lovelace's will. Not traced further. (To be continued.)

THE WEBB FAMILY OF NEW KENT COUNTY.

The first of this family in Virginia was (2) "George Webb, son of (1) Conrade Webb, late of the City of London, merchant" (Family Bible), who settled in New Kent County. He married (1st) "Lucy Jones widow of Josias Jones and Daughter of Col. Joseph Foster, late of the County of New Kent in Virginia, July 21, 1728, by the Rev. Wm. Mossom, in the presence of her brother Joseph Foster, Anne his wife, Eliza Thompson." (F. B.).

"After a lingering sickness of several years, Lucy Webb departed this Life and was interred in the Family burying place. Her Husband, in commemoration of her Virtues, composed the Following Epitaph, being her true character, viz.:

'Here lies the Body of Lucy late Wife of George Webb of the County of New Kent, Gent., to whom during a happy marriage of 22 years, she bore 6 children, of whom Four sons George, Lewis, Foster and John survived her. She departed December 30, 1750, in the 54th year of her age.

She was
An affectionate Faithful prudent Wife
Deservedly esteemed and sincerely beloved
A tender Mother
A careful mistress
A kind charitable neighbor
Pious, chaste, just and good.
An Ornament and Pattern to her sex
A bright example of Conjugal Fidelity
And all domestic virtues

George Webb was married "to his second Wife, Anne daughter of John Bickerton of the County of Hanover, Gentlemen, June 4, 1752, by the Revd. Mr. Patrick Henry in presence of her Father, Mr. & Mrs. Hubbard, Mr. & Mrs. Booth, Elizabeth Bickerton and others." (F. B.).

It is curious that while the Bible record which has been referred to contains the births of all of his children, and even of those of some of his descendants, it has no record of his own death. The destruction of the records of New Kent prevent any knowledge being gained from that source; but it is possible that some family record not known to the compiler of this may furnish the information. It will be published later, if received.

Issue (1st marriage):

- (3) "George, a son, born July 4, 1729; baptized by Mr. Mossom the 11th. William Dandridge, Esqr. and Charles Lewis, Gent., Godfathers; Mrs. Mary Lewis, Godmother."
- (4) "Lewis, a son, born April 19, 1731, baptized by Mr. Mossom, May 14. Phil. Whitehead and Cornelius Lyde, Gent., Godfathers; Elis. Thompson, Godmother."

- (5) "Foster, a son, born Jan. 3, 1732-3; baptized by Mr. Mossom. Roger Thompson, Wm. Comrie and Elis. Thompson, Sponsors. He died Dec. 5, 1734."
- (6) "Sara, a Daughter, born Nov. 9, 1734; baptized by Mr. Brooke. Died Dec. 4, 1734."
- (7) "Foster, a son, born Oct. 16, 1735, baptized by Mr. Mossom the 24th. Joseph Foster and John Bacon, Gent., and Mrs. Eliz. Thompson, Sponsors."
- (8) "John, a son, born June 5, 1740, baptized by Mr. Mossom, July 6. Joseph Foster and Roger Thompson, Gent., and Mrs. Fanny Parke Winch, Sponsors."

Issue (2d marriage):

- (9) "Sara, a Daughter, born June 3, 1754; baptized Mar. 11 following by the Reverend Mr. Mossom. John Robinson and Richard Corbin, Esqrs., Col. Bernard Moore, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Seaton and Mrs. Elis. Robertson, Sponsors."
- (10) "Mary, a Daughter, born Sept. 25, 1756; baptized by Mr. Mossom Nov. 9. James Pride, Esqr., John Sinclair, Gent. and Dr. Geo. Gilmer, Godfathers. Mrs. Ann Winston, and Miss Anne Meux and Miss Fanny Henry, Godmothers."

GEORGE³ WEBB, born July 4, 1729. He was a member of the New Kent Committee of Safety 1775; a Naval Commander in the same year, Treasurer of the State 1778, etc., and held other offices of prominence. He married April 1756 (marriage bond in Goochland) Hannah, daughter of Tarleton Fleming, of "Rock Castle," Goochland, and died after 1786.

Issue (known):

- (11) George⁴ Webb, Jr.

(4) LEWIS³ WEBB, of New Kent, born April 9, 1731, died ——. He was educated at William & Mary College, and was a member of the House of Burgesses for New Kent at the sessions of September and November, 1758, Feb. 1759, Nov. 1759, March, May and October 1760, and March 1761. He married (according to the account preserved by his descendants in the south, Elizabeth —, probably Bickerton.).

Issue (known):

- (12) Foster⁴ Webb, Jr.

(5) FOSTER³ WEBB, of New Kent, born Jan. 3, 1732-3. He was educated at William & Mary College. It is believed by the compiler, though not asserted positively, that this Foster Webb was the same person who appears in another Bible record. "Foster Webb of the County of New Kent was married to Sarah Shore the 17th June 1775, Daughter of John Shore of the County of Hanover. On Thursday the 26th of October 1795, departed this Life Mr. Foster Webb. On Monday the 26th of April 1802, about 4 o'clock P. M., closed her earthly existence, Mrs. Sarah Webb."

Chancery Proceedings. Charles I. Y. 7. No. 34.

[Undated]

The replication of Ralphe Yardley complainant to the answer of Francis West esq., defendant.

[Abstract]

The repliant denies that Dame Temperance Yardley, the defendant's late wife, ever sent any tobacco out of Virginia to this repliant in England besides the seaven thousand weight mentioned in the answer. But he says that about the same time she sent into England 100 hogsheads of tobacco which were not sent to him but to one Thomas Wolfrey of Southampton who has not yet given any account of it to this repliant. This repliant further says that the defendant, since the death of the said Dame Temperance, has secretly conveyed away great quantities of tobacco and other the personal estate of Sir George Yardley, and has converted the same to his own use. The defendant ought to restore the same to this repliant for the use of the children & orphans of Sir George Yardley, to whom in equity the same belongs.

Chancery Proceedings Charles I. W. 63 No. 42.

Francis West of the city of Winchester, co. Southants, esquire, comp.
v.

Ralph Yardley of London, an apothecary, defendant.

[A. D. 1628]

The complainant shows that about the last day of March, 3 Charles I, he married Dame Temperance Yardley, late wife of Sir George Yardely, knight, and by means thereof and of the last will of the said Sir George was to have had a full third part of all the estate of the said Sir George in Virginia or elsewhere, over & above all household stuff being in Sir George's house in James City at the time of his death, which third part so belonging to the complainant amounted to at least £3000, the said Sir George's estate, of which he bequeathed a full third part to his wife, Dame Temperance, being worth £10,000 at least. The said Dame Temperance proved the said will, of which she was executrix, and within one year after her marriage with the complainant she died in Virginia without having made any will, by means whereof her said third part of right belonged to the complainant. The said third part mainly consisted of tobacco growing in Virginia or transported into England, as also of servants, negroes, &c., and of a plantation of 1000 acres of land with tobacco at Stanley in Warwick River in Virginia, and being all appointed by Sir George's will to be sold for tobacco money or other commodities of that country and to be transported into England to be sold there, a third part thereof was to be delivered to the said Dame Temperance for her own use. This was done partly in Dame Temperance's life time & partly since her death. But Ralph Yardely, the defendant, having knowledge of this & of Dame Temperance's death, and knowing by Sir George's will that a third part belonged to his said wife, and by her death to the complainant, and the other two parts to Sir George's three children, (the complainant being then in Virginia where Dame Temperance died) the said Ralph obtained letters of administration of the goods of the said Sir George and by colour thereof possessed himself of all the personal estate of the said Sir George Yardley. About last Easter the complainant arrived in England, and hearing that the said Ralph had possessed himself not only of Sir George Yardley's estate, but also of the complainant's third part thereof, he repaired to the said Ralph Yardley & asked him to tell him what the said estate amounted to, and to pay him a full third part of the same. All which the said Ralph Yardely utterly refused to do.

The demurrer of Ralph Yearldy, defendant, to the bill of Francis West esq. complainant.

The defendant says that by the complainant's own shewing letters of administration of the goods of Sir George Yeardley, knight, have been granted to this defendant. It does not appear by any thing set forth in the bill that the complainant has any purparty in the personal estate of Sir George. This defendant is advised by his counsel that neither in law or in equity is he bound to give the complainant any account of the said estate, as is required by his bill.

Will of Francis West of Winchester, co. Southants, esquire dated 17 December 5 Charles I. [A. D. 1629.]

[Full abstract]

I desire to make provision for Jane my now wife, one of the daughters of Sir Henry Davye, knight, in case she survives me.

I desire that my wife, as soon as she may after my death, shall sell all my lands, goods, plantations, servants, &c., either in England or Virginia (except jewels, plate, linen and household stuff) and shall have the whole disposing, profits and ordering thereof until such time as my son Francis West shall accomplish his full age of one and twenty, my said wife in the meantime bringing up my said son in learning and in the fear of God. When my said son shall come of age my wife shall deliver to him one half of my said estate to be sold as aforesaid. If my said son shall die under age my said wife shall have all my said estate of lands, plantations, servants and goods aforesaid to her own use forever, that is to say, such lands & things as I shall be then seised of in fee simple to her & her heirs forever, and all my said personal estate whatsoever to her own use forever, if she happens to have no issue by me. And if she happens to have any issue by me, then I devise the said whole estate, or money to be made upon the sale of the lands, plantations, servants & goods aforesaid (if my said son Francis happen to die during his minority) and the whole benefit thereof to my said wife for her life. But if my said son Francis shall live to be twenty one, and I shall have no issue by my wife Jane, then I devise only one half thereof to her for her life. After the death of my said wife, I devise one full moiety of the whole estate aforesaid (if my son Francis shall die during his minority) unto such children as I shall have by my said wife to be equally divided between them, saving that such eldest son as I shall have by my said wife Jane shall have a double portion. If my said wife shall take a second husband after my death, then the moiety of such estate as shall come to her by virtue of this my last will shall be divided equally between such children as I shall have by her, saving a double portion to the eldest son.

I bequeath to my said wife Jane all such jewels, linen, plate, money & household stuff as I shall be possessed of at the time of my death to her own use forever.

Executrix. My wife Jane.

Overseer. Sir Henry Davye, knight, to whom I bequeath £5.

Provided that if the said Francis West and Jane do die without issue of their bodies between them begotten, that then the one half of all the estate aforesaid shall be in the power of the said Francis West to bestow and give to whomsoever he pleaseth.

Witness. Tho. South, Tho. Hill.

Proved on the 28th April 1634 by Jane West, relict & executrix.

BOOK REVIEWS.

MT. VERNON, WASHINGTON'S HOME AND THE NATION'S SHRINE. By Paul Wilshatch, Author of "Richard Mansfield, the Man and the Actor," &c., Garden City, New York, Doubleday, Page & Company, 1916, pp. 301, with 52 illustrations.

There has been much written about the most famous dwelling in America; but nothing like this book. There have been dry collections of facts about part of the history of Mt. Vernon, and readable, but inaccurate accounts of other portions; but in no one volume, complete and handsome, has the whole story been told with most careful accuracy and yet in an agreeable and attractive style. The author has studied most thoroughly all sources of information in regard to Mt. Vernon and its occupants and has combined in his work, much never before included in any one volume. The story begins with the first settlement of the Potomac country and continues down with great wealth of detail, to the present time. It is by far the best work of its kind which has ever appeared.

In the multiplicity of sources he had to study the author was bound to make a few slips. Bryan Fairfax (p. 18) did not ordinarily assume his title; but did go to England and have it confirmed by the House of Lords. The weapons illustrated opposite page 26 are hardly "battle-axes," but seem to be halberds. On page 43, Wm. Byrd, 3d of the name, has been mistaken for his father, and the Raleigh Tavern (p. 61) does not "still stand." It was burnt years ago. But there are trivial matters which do not offset the great volume and interest of the book.

THE HAMILTONS OF BURNSIDE, NORTH CAROLINA, AND THEIR ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS. By Patrick Hamilton Baskervill, A. M. (U. of Va.), Richmond, Va. Richmond, Va., Wm. Ellis Jones' Sons, Incorporated, 1916, pp. 158, with several illustrations, maps and charts.

Mr. Baskervill, who has done such good genealogical work on his paternal ancestry, studies in this book, another ancestral line, that of Patrick Hamilton, who was born at Burnside, Scotland, in 1789, and emigrated to North Carolina in 1807. The emigrant was descended from James Hamilton, of East Quarter, who lived about 1655, and seems to have been a cadet of Hamilton, of Parkhead. This family in turn branches from the Hamiltons of Orkston, who began with a young son of the Hamiltons of Cadzow, ancestors of the ducal house. Mr. Baskervill has, as he says, not attempted a history of the Hamiltons, but has made a most thorough study of the various lines from which the Hamiltons of Burnside, N. C., were certainly or probably descended. As in his former work Mr. Baskerville makes no unfounded claims; but states frankly all difficulties. The book is a valuable addition to Scottish-American genealogy.

VIRGINIA COUNTIES: THOSE RESULTING FROM VIRGINIA LEGISLATION. By Morgan Poitiaux Robinson, Archivist. Bulletin of the Virginia State Library, January-July 1916. Richmond, Davis Bottom, Superintendent of Public Printing, 1916, pp. 283, with twelve maps.

When it is said of a book that it completely and finally accomplishes the object for which it was written, there need be but little more said of it than to describe its subject. It can be stated with confidence that Mr. Robinson's book has told all that there is to tell about the origin and growth of Virginia counties, and has done it in a most thorough and scholarly way. A preface which explains the plan of the work and which contains an admirably compact history of the settlement, is followed by a table of counties arranged in alphabetical order, which also gives the dates of formation, "the land formed from," and reference to the authorities. Next come the counties in chronological arrangement, then the geographical arrangement, with a very valuable series of maps showing the growth of population. This is followed by a series of charts showing the "genealogies" of the counties—how one was formed from another and became the parent of a third,—and finally the texts of acts of Assembly concerning counties which do not appear in Hening's Statutes at Large (recently obtained from London) and a bibliography.

It is difficult to speak too highly of the way in which Mr. Robinson has done this work. On almost every page is evidence of intense labor; and this tireless labor has been accompanied by scholarly judgement. To the historian of Virginia and her counties, the lawyer and the genealogist, this work is indispensable.

THE BALKAN WARS, 1912-1913. By Jacob Gould Schurman. Third Edition. Princeton University Press, Princeton (&c.), 1916, pp. 140, with maps.

The value of this work is shown by the fact that this is the third edition. At the present time it is even more interesting than when it was first published, for the authors statement made Nov. 26, 1914, in the preface to third edition, that "It is not inconceivable that some or all of those states may be drawn into the present colossal conflict," has been most fully realized.

INDEX OF THE ROLLS OF HONOR (ANCESTORS INDEX) TO THE LINEAGE BOOKS OF THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMER-ICAN REVOLUTION. Volumes 1 to 40. 1916, Press of Pierpont, Sunter & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. (Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, Pittsburgh, Pa., Editor), pp. 424.

A book indispensable to searchers for Revolutionary ancestors.

THE NEW PURCHASE OR SEVEN AND A HALF YEARS IN THE FAR WEST. By Robert Carlton, Esq. (Baynard Rush Hall), Indiana. Centennial Edition. Edited by James Albert Woodburn, Professor of American History, Indiana University. Princeton University Press, Princeton (&c.), 1916, pp. 522.

Princeton University has done a good work in republishing "The New Purchase," a book long out of print, which has been pronounced as one of the best works ever written concerning life in the West. The "New Purchase" was part of Indiana. Hall went to Indiana about 1823, travelled widely, met and observed many new and various social conditions and wrote a most vivid account of his experiences. The present edition has been well edited and a key given to the characters and places presented under fictitious names in the original publication. Any one who wishes to get a very real insight into life in the West (north of the Ohio) at that period must read this book.

ANDREW JOHNSON, MILITARY GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE. By Clifton R. Hall, Ph. D., Assistant Professor in History and Politics in Princeton University. Princeton University Press, Princeton (&c.), 1916, pp. 234.

A valuable study of the life of Andrew Johnson in 1862-1865. The author states that he has particularly desired to show how the lessons learned by Johnson in reconstructing his own state, constituted a training for the work to which he was called in a national capacity.

THE RYERSON GENEALOGY. Genealogy and History of the Knickerbocker Families of Ryerson, Ryerse, Ryerss; also of Adnance and Martense Families; all descendants of Martin and Adrian Ryeroz (Ryerozen) of Amsterdam, Holland. By Albert Winslow Ryerson. Edited by Alfred L. Holman, probably printed for Edward L. Ryerson, Chicago, 1916, pp. 433.

This is one of the handsomest and most carefully prepared genealogies which has ever been issued. It is a worthy memorial to an ancient Dutch family which settled in New Amsterdam.

SOCIAL LIFE IN ENGLAND, 1750-1850. By F. J. Foakes Jackson. New York, The Macmillan Company, 1916, pp. 338.

This volume contains a course of Lowell Lectures delivered in Boston in March, 1916. Mr. Foakes has lifted his subject from cut and dry statistics and quotations so often found in books of this sort, and illustrates social life in England by telling of examples of the lives of the people. He begins with the Wesley family for life in the eighteenth century, and follows with Crabbe, the life of Margaret Catchpole, Gunning's "Reminiscences of Cambridge," the Creevy Papers of the time of the Regency following with England as shown in the writings of Dickens and Thackeray, and concluding with a striking chapter on sport and rural England. The book gives a new and very interesting view of English life.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. By Matthew Page Andrews, M. A., 151 illustrations and 25 black-and-white maps in the text; also frontispiece and two maps in full color. Philadelphia and London, pp. 368, XXVIII, II, and index.

This is a scholarly and very "readable" book for students of the seventh and eighth grades. "No better book can be found by the man or woman who desires in a single volume a complete survey of our country's history," is the verdict of one who is thoroughly acquainted with this very useful and attractive volume.

A POLITICAL AND SOCIAL HISTORY OF MODERN EUROPE. By Carlton J. H. Hayes, Associate Professor of History in Columbia University, 2 volumes. New York, The Macmillan Company, 1916, pp. xxv, 581; vii, 767, with 38 maps.

"A timely, accurate and brilliantly written history of modern Europe from 1500 to the present war, in which the emphasis is placed on recent happenings or at least those events of the past which have had a direct bearing on the present.

At his point of departure the author has chosen the world discoveries, the mighty commercial expansion, and the religious turmoil of Europe in the sixteenth century, for with that date modern world politics and the steady growth of nationalism may be said to begin, and the great central theme of modern history emerges—the rise of the bourgeoisie. Not only has the author devoted several admirable chapters to social and economic developments, but he has utilized every part of the narrative in injecting some social or economic explanation of the chief political facts. He has welded political and social history into a real synthesis. The "critical bibliographies are unusually suggestive."

No more valuable book of its kind has been published during the year.

(5) John Coombs or Comes who came in the Marygold in 1619, lived at The Treasurer's Plantation in 1625.

(6) William Constable was evidently a member of the Virginia Company. On Feb. 15, 1622 "on motion of Mr. Wm. Constable and Mr. Arthur Swaine," Mr. Reynolds master of the ship William & John was authorized to go on a fishing trip solely for the benefit of the colony. In Feb. 1623, the William & John, of 50 tons, was commissioned to go to Virginia via Flushing with victuals of the value of £500 for trade. This and other provision ships did not reach Virginia until after the harvest and as this had been good there was not so much demand for their supplies which caused the loss stated by Constable. The Flying Hart of Flushing had been in Virginia as early as 1619 and had carried back the first Virginia tobacco recorded to have been sent to England; but there is no doubt that some had been sent before. Later, in 1621, the same ship brought to the colony Capt. Thos. Newce, Sir William Newce and Mr. Daniel Gookin from Ireland. On this voyage for which Constable asks a commission, she arrived in Virginia in Dec. 1625; but (probably on account of the confused state of the Company's affairs) without a commission. The Governor and Council seemed to think this irregularity was somewhat compensated for by the good news she brought, viz., the accession of Charles I.

James Hickmote(12) sworne and Examined sayeth y^t one Saturday nyght beinge the fowerth of ffebruary 1625 beinge at (12) James Hickmote or Hickmot, and his wife, who came in the Bonaventure lived at James City 1624-5. Thomas Hatch, aged 17, who came in the Duty, 1619, was one of Sir George Yeardley's servants at James City 1624-5. The "precedent" referred to was the cutting off of the ears of Edward Nevell for the same offence of criticising the government for Cornishe's death. The "Duty boys" were fifty "dissolute" persons from London sent to Virginia by order of the King in the Duty, which arrived in Virginia in May 1620. Most of these "dissolute persons" seem to have been boys probably gathered up in the streets of London. They were placed as servants. It is evident from this order that little Jamestown had the regular outfit of each ancient town in England, a gallows outside the gate and stocks and pillory in some public place inside. One of the most remarkable things about the early colonies is the absolute obedience to law. Laws were broken, of course, but there was no resistance when the authorities inflicted the punishments for such breaches. It is rendered more remarkable by the fact that the government had no force at its disposal except the posse. There would be some grumbling and defiant talk; but never any resistance to the government's orders.

the howse of Edward ffisher in James Cyttie, one Peter Masten beinge in company and fallinge on talke concerninge Richard Williams als Cornish that was executed for [unnatural crime], The said Masten then comendinge the said Cornish for an excellent manne and shillfull Artist.

Thomas Hatch beinge also in company, said that in his conscience he thought the said Cornishe was put to death wrongfully, wheruppon this deponent said you were best take heede w't you saye, you have a presedent [precedent] before your eyes the other d'ye, And it will cost you your eares y^t you use such woordes, To w'ch the said Tho. Hatch replied, I care not for my eares, lett them hange me yf they will.

Sara ffisher, ye wife of Edward ffisher sworne and examined Affirmeth as much as Mr James Hickmote hath uppon his oath formerly delivered.

Anthony Jonnes sworne and Examined sayeth that he heard Thomas Hatch say that Richard Cornish was putt to death wrongfully, and that he did not care for his eares

Y^t is ordered y^t, Thomas Hatch for his offence shalbe whipt from the forte to the gallows and from thence whipt back againe, and be sett uppon the Pillory and there to loose one of his eares, And that his service to Sir George Yardley for seaven yeeres Shalbegain from the present d'ye, Accordinge to the condicion of the dewtie boyes he beinge one of them.

Mr John Burrows at this Courte desireth to have one hundred and flyftie acres of land, for three servants (vid'lt) Nicholas Goldsmith, Wm Burfoote and Sara Bowman According to Certificates p'duced in Courte, To w'ch his request the Court doth willingly assent and do order Mr Cleybourne to register the same in reccorde.

Y^t is ordered according to the voluntarie agreement of Sir francis Wyatt in behalfe of the Adventurers of ye magazine and

Capt Francis West in behalfe of Mrs Margarett West(13) administratrix to her late husbände Edward Blayney, Merchant, deceased, That the said Capt. Francis West shall make present payment of five thowsande pownde weight of the best merchantable Tobaccho in leafe unto the saide S'r Francis Wyatt to the use of the said Adventurers. And further it is ordered that the said Capt Francis West shall not sell, inpparte?, alyenate nor otherwyse by any meanes or wayste make or dim'she any of the goods and chattles movable immovable Real or p'sonal wherof Mr Edward Blany was actually Seased & possessed of w't or before such tyme as there shall com advise owt of England from the adventures in answe're of Mr Blaynys Accompts and demandes[?] made by letters to the said Adventurers and y^t such further order shalbe taken hereafter by this Courte as Justice and equitie shall require

Capt. Wm Epps sworne before the right worp'll S'r Francis Wyatt, knight, Governor Etc., deposeth that uppon Tewsdaye the xxviith of december 1625, This deponent heeringe that Lewke Eaden was very sick went to see him, And cominge unto him findinge him very ill and weake this deponent wished him to sett his estate to rygths, Soe the said Luke Eaden Thanked this deponent and wysshed him to come againe the next morninge, But before this deponent came unto him he was deceased. And further this deponent affirmeth y^t the said Tewsdaye before he went away from the said Luke Eaden, he demanded of him w't depts were owinge him in this countrey, the said Luke Eaden answered and saide, That since the last reckoning made between him and Wm Geny, the said Wm Geny was seaventeen hundred weight of Tobaccho indepted unto him, And further said That Zacharie Cupps and Edward White did owe him six hundred weight of Tobaccho, further sayinge that divers others we e in his dept, but for that tyme he desired this deponent to forbear him untill the next morninge, before w^{ch} morninge he deceased.

John How, gent., likewise sworne, deposeth, y^t before the said Luke Eaden deceased, This deponent requested him to be good to his servant Alexander To w^{ch} the said Luke Eaden answered, when I make my will in the morninge I will remember him, furthermore this said deponent sayeth y^t the said Luke Eaden told him that he had a boye y^t was left by Thomas Spillman at Chaplens Choyce contrary to his appoyntment And that the said Spillman had borrowed a Barrell of corne and left the said boye as sattisfaction for the said Corne untill it was repaid, furthermore the said Luke told this deponent y^t he had a chest at Henry Gerreyes where were certen wrightings and Accompts & powlder[?] & spices of divers sortes, & two payres of sheets, As also one chest of Tobacco and one chest of Tobacco and one bulke of Tobacco, both conteyning eight hundred weight or more therabouts. The key of w^{ch} chest of wrightings, spices, powder & other things the said Luke Eaden delivered to this deponent before he departed lief, And Capt. Epps & this deponent cominge to Henry Genys to see w^t was in the said chest they fownd it broken open & all things taken owt.

A Courte held the xxth of february 1625 beinge present S^r Francis Wyatt, Knight, Governor &c., Capt. Francis West, Capt. Roger Smith, Mr. Will^m Cleybourne & Martin Towner sworne and examined sayeth, That he this deponent was in place when Mr Thomas Swyfte and Thomas Delamajor(14) did p^rfect upp a reckoning Betweene them, At w^{ch} tyme the saide Thomas Delamajor did allow Mr Swyfte thirtie pownde weight of Tobacco for a dept dew to Vincentia Castillion and tenn pownde of Tobacco for Capt. Nortone And ye saide Mr Swyfte did Acknowledge there remayned due to the said Thomas Delamajor ffortie weight of Tobacco and one barrell of corne w^{ch} Mr Swyfte did p^rmise to pay unto him

(14) On March 4, 1628, Thomas Delamajor, joiner, had a lease of three acres at Goose Hill on James City Island.

Thomas Pricharde(15) sworne and Examined sayeth y^t one Sondye nyght the xixth of february 1625, Tho Leicester cominge in about one hower w^{thin} night, fallinge in question aboute Tobacco that Mr Docter Pott should owe to Roger Stanley, Leyster said y^t Mr Docter did nott owe the said Stanley so much Tobacco as he said he did, Stanley said he lyed & theruppon Stanley drew owt his hanger, and then Leyster took Another swoorde, but neither of them did then strike, after y^t Leyster laid downe his swoorde, And then Stanley struck at him wth his hanger at his head, and Leyster defended it wth a Jugg he had in his hande, And after did sett downe ye Jugg And close wth Stanley to wrench his hanger owt of his hand, And in striving wth him Leyster tooke hold of his hanger and broke it off wth a handfull of the hilde, Ande wth ye blade of ye hanger w^{ch} he kept in his hand, cutt the said Stanley one the arme, w^{ch} hanger was a back swoorde.

Elias Gale aged 25 years or therabouts beinge examined affirmeth as much in effect as Tho. Prichard hath formerly said uppon his oath

Y^t is ordered y^t Mr Thomas Weston shall presently give Sufficient securitie to Mr Thomas Crispe to pay him at his howse at Kickotan w^{thin} this xx days five hundred and Three-score weight of ye best m^rchantable Tobacco in leafe, And to deliver to ye said Mr Crispe heere at James Cyttie xxx s. in money and the Gynger w^{ch} by a former order of Courte he was ordered to do, And to cary Mr Crispe his Byskett wth his caske and chest down to Kickotan gratis.

Y^t is ordered y^t Mr Edward Nevell shall enter into bonde to Mr Westone for the payment of ye three hundred and thirtie weight of Tobacco as by an order of Courte dated ye xixth of December 1625 it was ordered y^t he should pay to the said Mr Weston concerninge Mr Crispe his damages for his Tobacco spoyled at Canada.

(15) Thomas Pritchard, aged 28, Thomas Lester aged 33, and Roger Stanley, aged 27, all of whom came in the Abigail in 1620, were among "Dr. Pott's men" at the Main near Jamestown 1624-5.

John Webb sworne and examined sayeth that he herd George Medcalfe(16) saye y^t Mr Hays offered to lett him have the man Ashore with him, w^{ch} the said George Medcalfe then refused, Then a weeke after this George Medcalfe came againe to Mr Hays to demand the man, and Mr Hays told him he had inquired further of it And now I am otherwise minded, Yet at the last Mr Hays told George Medcalfe sayinge well so I may have my Tobacco w^{thin} this six d[']yes I will deliver the man unto you ashore.

Roger Sanders sworne and examined sayeth y^t on mond[']ye the xvith of January he came to James Towne and told Mr Hayes that [he] had brought his Tobacco from George Medcalfe his m^r. Mr Hayes answered this deponent that no matter you are come to late your m^r is not like to have the man, And w^{thin} two d[']yes after this deponent went wth Mr Waters abourde Mr Hayes and did tender the Tobacco, but Mr Hayes would not receive it

William Douglas Sworne and examined sayeth the boatswain of ye shipt x x x [illegible] did tell this deponent y^t he had 100 of ffyshe of his own in the store besides the cargo some p^t wherof ye said boatswaine said he bought of one Mr Maurice Thompson and that the other p[']te was given him by one Mr Lee a country-man of his

Further he sayeth y^t the boatswaine being sent ashore wth the shippes boate by tempest & weather drove ashore so that they could not gett abourde againe, But by whose neglect this deponent knoweth nott, And about two dayes after when the boatswaine came abourde againe Mr Reyner m^r of the shipp chided him and said he should nott go home in the shipp, So ye boatswaine the next day went owt of the shipp and packt upp his Cloathes and went ashore.

John Daw [or Dare] sworne and examined sayeth y^t cominge ashore wth the boatswaine goinge for some liquor The rundletts were filed and brought to the boate so as they might have gone abourde yf the boatswaine had been there, but his stayinge half an hower or therabouts the ebb beinge farr spent and the yce [ice] cominge so stronge drove the boat agrounde and by that meanes they could nott gett abourde in two d'yes after John Burstock and Andrew Snelling sworne and examined depose to the same effect

THOS. LORD CULPEPER, GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA TO [W. BLATHWAYT?] After a most tedious passage of eleven weeks and two days, full of death, scurvy and calentures they have arrived within soundings of Virginia. Complains of the unwarrantable supine remisness of Capt. Young in the Hired James and the inconveniencies if he be not come; thought he had sailed before the Oxford Frigate. Perceives he has but few friends at the Council board, by the late extraordinary way of proceeding which he will never acquiesce in. Left the greatest part of his servants in the James. Has reason to apprehend, and fears too not for the true interest of the Country, that the Building and Cantonizing Act exploded last year on the first hearing—The Bearer Capt. Jeffryes of the Golden Fortune assures him all is well in the Country both as to Indians and every thing else. Does not hear any one is dead there—Begs the James, but with another Commander, may be dispatched, if not gone already—Is told no Assembly hath sat which he looks upon as a good omen.

LETTER FROM COL. SPENCER TO M^r SEC. COVENTRY.

(Full Copy)

Right Hon'ble

It is near six months since I gave Your Honor the trouble of a Letter, I then informed y^r honor an Assembly was suddenly to sit summoned by His Excel'cie the Lord Culpeper the Results of whose consultations as it is my duty I herewith send Your Honor being several Acts and Orders together with an Address to His Most Sacred Ma'ty imploring his grant for a Cessation from planting Tobacco in the Year 1681 a request which seems to bear such a dimunition in His Ma'ties Customs in that Year, that it may be feared it carrys with it its own denial, tho' for its immoderateness We are so unhappy to have to plead our most important necessities. Tobacco our sole Manufacture, and by which hitherto this Country only subsisted, but now by its excessive quantities made, is so under foot that it will be impossible for the Inhabitants longer to support themselves thereby, unless his Ma'ty will be graciously pleased to injoin a Cessation and thereby lessen the quantity and consequently advance, the price, by which we may not only hope for that good, but by that Years employment in other affairs our people may be futurely encouraged to direct part of their labors in the carrying on some other Manufactures and not solely depend upon that uncertain Commodity Tobacco which at present is so low that a Whole Year's crop will not advance to any ordinary Price whereby meanly to clothe themselves, and it is to be feared another year will bring Us to a more deplorable condition, there being now upon the ground the greatest crops that have been known which when furnished together with what now remains in the Country will be as much if not more than the Ships will carry off in two succeeding Years from which it doth consequently follow if a Cessation be not, the next years labor will be totally spent in vain. We are now grown sensible that our present necessities and too much to be doubted future miseries are much heightened by our wild and Rambling way of living therefore are desirous of cohabitation, in Order whereunto in the late Assembly an Act was made appointing a Town in every County where all goods imported are to be landed and all goods exported to be ship't off. And if this takes effect as its hoped it may Virginia will then go forward which of late years hath made a retrograde motion, especially if His Ma'ty would be graciously pleased to grant immunities thereunto. The which we might have hoped would be granted if our request were modest for he that begs more than is fit to be granted must expect to be denied the whole.

Our Indians are, and this Summer have been, of peaceable and quiet demeanour to which I am inclinable to believe our Garrisons at the heads of the River conduced much, being a continual check upon them; the constant keeping of three score men and horse in each Garrison was found too heavy a charge for this Country to bear especially in time of peace the Garrisons are therefore reduced to twenty Men and horse to be kept in constant pay in each garrison to be as a standing guard to the frontiers which upon any pressing occasion may be speedily reinforced by the adjacent counties, though I hope may remain unmolested having made as firm a peace with the Northern Indians as with Indians can be concluded.

Your Honor will receive the State of the Country from the Grand Assembly and therefore I shall not give you the trouble of more particularities than to tell you, in all respects that His Ex'cie hath with so great prudence settled all the affairs of the Country that our late differences, Interests, are perfectly united to the General Satisfaction of all His Ma'ties subjects in this Colony. His Ma'ties soldiers paid off their Quarters discharged and all concerns made easy, our only care now being how to advance our low and mean Commodity Tobacco.

His Excellency with the advice of the Council the seventh of this month adjourned the Assembly to the fifteenth of February their to meet if any commands of His Ma'ty shall require.

I am so straightened in point of time, this Ship giving me but two days liberty after the adjournment of the Assembly for all dispatches, I must humbly beg Your Honors pardon for omissions which by the next ship shall be perfected and all matters fully transmitted to Your Honor from Right Hon'ble.

Your most humble and devoted servant.

LETTER FROM M^r SPENCER TO M^r SEC'Y.

(Full Copy)

May it please Your Honor

This is a Copy of my last dispatch which went accompanied with the Acts and Orders of the late Assembly which I now again transmit to Your Honor lest the former should miscarry.

As to any new Occurrents I have only this to offer that His Excel^cie the Lord Culpeper is lately sailed from hence towards New England and from thence intends for England whose happy arrival thither will bring His Ma'ty a most ample and satisfactory Information of the State of this Country. I shall not presume to say more in that particular lest I should seem to add or Drop to the Ocean or in some sort detract from a Relation proceeding from His Lo'ps most exact and accurate spection.

His Ma'ties Bills sent hither by his Lo'p are passed into Acts in the late Assembly with some Provisers added to one of them, to which it humbly prays the Royal Frit.

Our Indians are yet peaceable and I hope may so continue they knowing the Guards at the heads of the Rivers in the observation of their motions and ready to repress their insolencies when soever they are offered.

We have now no fears or disquiets, God be praised for it impending over Us, unless we may suspect the mutinous humours of one of His Ma'tys foot Companys of which S^r H'y Chicheley is Captain should disturb our peace. Whence those turbulent humors do proceed I cannot certainly resolve, perhaps they are grown resty, for want of imployment, or else the known jarrs and discontents between the Lieutenant and the Ensigne may be the cause. I suspect the last and doubt if that Company or Lieutenant be not changed the peace of this country may be endangered for the present prevention thereof, his Ex^e hath removed and disperst 32 of the most mutinous among the Garrisons, at the heads of the rivers by which prudent Order they will probably less be capable to do mischief.

The despicable and low price of Tobacco inclines the Inhabitants of this Country to think of Cohabitation as a principal mean to abate the quantity of the commodity and amend the quality and the late Assembly hath made an Act to that purpose but I much doubt it may miss its wished Effect if not totally miscarry by the multiplicity of places appointed for Towns viz^t one in each County. But if all things were by His Ma'ties Command to ride at one place in every great River and in every of those places one town only to be erected the design would have the better prospect.

Right Hon'ble
Your most humble and devoted Servant.

ROBERT FERGUSON.

On this 22nd day of August 1832 Personally appeared before the court of Pitts. now sitting, Robert Ferguson, a resident of said county & State aforesaid, aged Seventy Two years, and made the following declaration on his oath—that he entered the Service of the U. S. some time in year 1779 as a Substitute for Bazabiel Wier & marched from the County of Pitts. in a Company of Militia commanded by Capt. Witcher to Salisbury in the state of N. C. & joined the N. C. Militia in that place under Colo. Mason, he was stationed there two or three months, then marched to Charlotte in said state N. C. & remained at that place a few days, they were marched from there, for some time in various directions untill they arrived at Stone Inlet on coast of S. C. & were stationed near that place until their term of service ended, being Six months. that his discharge is lost and cannot be found, He does not know any person living that was with him on that tour but the Service rendered is Proved by Bazabiel Wier who employed him as his Substitute. In the Spring 1780 he was employed by Joseph Terry to assist him in driving a Parcel of Cattle into the State of N. C., when they arrived at Wilks Court House about the 15th day of May 1780. He again entered the Service of the U. S. as a Volunteer soldier and marched from the said County of Wilks in state aforesaid in a Company commanded by Capt. Wm. Cleveland & joined the Regiment commanded by Colo. John Cleveland, that they continued marching in various directions Sometimes down the Catawba River, not being stationed long at any One Place, they were Principally engaged in Searching for, and taking Torys untill about the first of October, they returned to said Wilks C.

H. & were there discharged by Colo. Cleveland. The whole of the time rendered on this tour was at least 4 months & 15 days. His discharge is lost and cannot be found.

About the first of December 1780 he again entered the Service of the united States as a substitute for Wm. Bennett and marched from the County of Pitts. State of Va. in a company of drafted Militia commanded by Capt. John Winn to the Island Ford on Dan River, from there to the great falls on the said Dan River where Danville is now situated, from there they marched to the state of N. C. & joined the Main Army under Gen'l Stephens and Gen'l Lawson. He was then transferred to a company commanded by Capt. Wm. Dix and marched with him in the Army as aforesaid in various directions, not being stationed long at any one place, but sometimes marched nearly all night, untill they met with Lord Cornwallis in the county of Guilford, when a severe Battle was fought, the Americans were defeated in that engagement & retreated to Troublesome Iron Works near Haw River, where they were again organized and marched from that place under Gen'l Green in Pursuit of the British untill they arrived at Ramseys Mill on Deep River in state of N. C. He was discharged at that Place by Capt. William Dix in month of April 1781—the whole tour of service rendered on this tour is at least four months. His discharge is lost but his service can be proved by James M. Williams, who was a soldier with him at same time & place.

About last of Ap. 1781 he was drafted as a soldier and marched from Co. of Pitts. in a Company of Militia commanded by Capt. Henry Burnett, thro Halifax Co. to Charlotte C. H. & joined the army at that place under Gen'l Lawson, was transferred to a comp'y commanded by Capt. John Buckly, attached to the Regiment commanded by Maj'r Purnell; from there was marched to Prince Edward C. H. and from there through Cumberland Co. & crossed James River at Carter's Ferry & continued to march until they came to Dandridges Old field in Hanover County when he was again transferred to a company commanded by Capt. Wm. Clark. He marched with him under Maj. Purnell in said Army to a place called Morben Hill about 17 miles below Rich.; was stationed there several weeks, then marched the whole Army under Baron Steuben, Gen'l Green, Stephens and Lawson to Jamestown. A Battle was fought at that place, after which they went back to Morben Hill where they were stationed until he was discharged by Capt. Wm. Clark about last of July 1781. the whole service rendered on this tour was three months his discharge is lost and cannot be found but the service Rendered is proved by Leroy Shelton, who was a soldier with him in same Companies & at same time.

That as soon as he returned home from Serving the above tour, which was in the month of August 1781 he enlisted with Wm. McCraw, who was a Deputy Quarter Master for the Southern Army at Peytonsburg, Pittsylvania Co., Va., during the war & remained in the service of the U. S., engaged as a waggoner driving the public teams under the command of the said Wm. McCraw untill after the end of the War. The whole time service rendered under this enlistment was at least one year. His discharge is lost, but his service can be proved by Jas. M. Williams, who was in same service with McCraw.— Was born in Co. of Halifax, state of Va., year 1761.

Lived in Pitts. Co. when entered the service of U. S. & has lived in said Co. ever since.

Sworn to & subscribed the day & year aforesaid.

ABRAHAM CHANEY.

On this 22nd day of August, 1832, Personally appeared in open court before Dan'l Coleman, Jas. Logan, David H. Clark & Wm. D. Pannill, the court of Pitts. now sitting, Abraham Chaney a resident of said county, aged 72 yrs. and made following declaration on his oath—

That he entered the service of the U. S. as a Volunteer Soldier in a company of Militia commanded by Capt. Donaldson, jr., Lieut. Moses Hutchings & Ensign Joseph Williams, & marched from the County of Pittsylvania on the 9th day of April 1776 and went thro Franklin Co., crossed the Blue Ridge at Magotty Gap, New River at Englishes Ferry and continued on to the Islands of Holston River & was stationed on that river in a fort; from that Place, Capt. Donaldson with 15 men of whom he was one, went out to search for the Cherokee Indians, ranging Principally thro' the woods in Various directions for about two weeks when they returned to the same fort where they remained until their tour of duty being for three months expired. When he was discharged by Capt. Donalson at that place in the month of July 1776, about 300 miles from home making in all the time rendered on this tour including the time to travel home at least $3\frac{1}{2}$ months.

His discharge is lost or mislaid so that it cannot be found but the service rendered is proved by Joshua Dodson who was a soldier with him all the time.

He again entered the Service of the U. S. as a soldier in a company of Militia commanded by the same Capt. John Donalson, jr., Lieut. John Gwinn, and marched from the said Pittsylvania Co. on 7th day of April 1778, went thro' the county of Franklin to Colo. Preston in Montgomery, remained near his House a few days and marched from there to Hatfield Fort on Stoney Creek near New River in said Co. Montgomery, & was stationed at that place under the said Officers (no other troops being there) until the 12th of Aug. 1778, when he was discharged by Capt. Donalson, the time of this tour being four months & 8 days. His discharge is lost, but proved by John Neal & John Farthing, who were soldiers with him at that place.

In the winter of 1781 he was drafted as a Militia soldier & marched from the Co. of Pitts. in a company under the command of Capt. Clements, thro the County of Halifax into N. C. to Hillsborough and was there taken sick Placed in a Hospital near that Place & was confined there two months & 15 days, when he hired his Brother Joseph Chaney to take his place—Joseph was received as a Substitute for him & he was discharged from the service being still sick. His discharge is lost & cannot be found.

DANIEL BRADLEY.

On 22 day of August 1832, personally appeared in open court before David Clark, Wm. L. Pannill, &c., county court of Pitts. now sitting, Daniel Bradley, a resident of the Co. of Pitts. & made following declaration—

That he first enlisted and entered the service of the U. S.—as a regular soldier in the 1st Va. Regt. of Southern Army, was enlisted by Ensign Belew in Cumberland County, Va., where he then resided, on the 1st of July 1780, engaged to serve for 18 mo^s and was marched by Capt. Alexander Grothemey from Cumberland Co. to Chesterfield C. H., the place of rendezvous where he was put under command of Capt. White, whose command was attached to the armed force commanded by Col. Campbell, Mulenburg—the commanding general, from there he marched under the command of Col. Campbell and Capt. Morton to Guilford C. H. or its neighborhood & was engaged in the Battle of Guilford commanded by Maj. General Greene. From thence after that Battle he marched under Colo. Campbell & Maj. Gen'l Greene and Capt. Morgan, who fell in on the way to ninety-six, where he remained 31 days, the whole month of May 1781. From thence he marched under the same General officers, Campbell and Greene, skirmishing & taking by the way Scotch lake Fort, Friday's Fort, Thompsons Fort, Augusta Fort, the Blockhouse to Camden, where they were stationed for 10 days. From thence he was marched under the same officers, Capt. Morgan, Colo. Campbell & General Greene to the Eutaw Springs, where on the 8th of Sept. 1781 he was engaged in that Battle. From there they reconnoitered about that Section of the country, checking the enemy, during which time they remained several weeks on the High hills of Santee, the Place of Rendezvous. From there they were marched under Lieut. Greene, Capt. Morgan being wounded at Eutaw Springs, to Stone; from thence to Salisbury in N. C. where he was discharged by Lieut. Greene. That his discharge is mislaid or lost, that he has no documentary evidence to prove the facts required.

There was no place designated, in the event of a defeat, at which we should rendezvous, we had lost all our baggage, and were destitute of any Clothing, except what little we had on. Separated from our officers and no means of Subsistence, under these appalling circumstances, although Our term of service was nearly expired, a Considerable number of the Company to which I belonged, determined to make the best of their way home. After our return to Amherst County, a Court of inquiry Convened and made an Order that we should all be sent back and serve a tour of eight months under regular Officers. We were accordingly mustered and put under the Command of Cap't Pamlin who marched us back to Hillsborough, where Gen'l Green's army then lay, and we were transferred to the Command of a Cap't Graves of Co. of Culpeper who was assigned to take Command of the men sent back from a few Other Counties for the same offence. In a short time the Army was ordered to march to the South, we passed thro' Sallisbury, Charlotte, &c., and about the 1st of Jan. 1781, we took up winter quarters on North Side of Peedee river, near the Cheraw hills, S. Carolina.

Sometime in the month of Feb., if my memory is correct, there was a general order issued for all married men belonging to the eight months' Company as they were called, to be discharged, and the young men to be retained, till their term of service expired, this reduced the Company very Considerably. Capt. Graves was permitted to return home with those men that were discharged, and the balance retained in service were placed under the command of a Cap't Webb and Lieut. Webb, who I understood came from about Richmond in Virginia. Shortly after this Gen'l Morgan defeated Col. Tarlton at a place called Cowpens, and took a number of prisoners, and had to make a rapid retreat to save them from being retaken by the enemy. As soon as Gen. Greene received the information, he immediately marched off the Army to Cover Morgan's retreat, and left this small Company of eight months' men, some of whom were stationed at mills to guard them and keep them employed in grinding meal and flower for the use of the Army, and some to guard the encampment. Finally Capt. Webb received Orders to take charge of eight or ten waggons, loaded with meal and flower, and about four hundred head of Hogs, and to follow on after the Army, and we were in fact, in rear of both armies.

When we reached Deep river in N. Carolina intending to go to Guilford C. H., we there received intelligence that Cornwallis was at the place, we then had to change our rout, turned to the right, went thro' Hillsborough & Granville County, and crossed the Roanoke river at Taylor's Ferry, near which place in the County of Mecklenburg, in State of Va., was a Commissaries Store, where the Cap^t delivered the meal, flower Hogs &c., which we protected and brought safe through a part of our Country that at that time was literally speaking in the hands of the British and tories. By this time our term of service was nearly expired, we were permitted to draw up a Petition, & send it on by express to Gen. Greene, stating our situation, that we were almost naked, almost worn out with fatigue, & praying him to send orders to the Cap^t to discharge us, which he did and we met the express in the county of Halifax, near Banister river in State of Va., where the Company were accordingly discharged, which was about the 1st of March 1781. This discharge has long since been destroyed, he has no documentary evidence to prove his service; he claims to have served in the whole nine months.

He hereby relinquishes every Claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the Agency of any State.

JAMES NANCE.

James Nance, age 70 yrs., on 17 day of Sept. 1832 made following declaration before open court of Pitts. Co., Va—

That he was born on 2^d day of Feb. 1762 in the County of Amelia (now Nottoway) Va., according to his Father's Register, which is not in his possession; that he entered the service of the U. S. as a drafted Soldier on the 9th day of February 1779 under Capt. Wm. Fitzggerald, Lieut. Charles Irby, Ensign Bowling Hall, and marched to Halifaxtown, N. C., where he joined Col. David Mason of Va. & marched from thence to Hillsborough & Salisbury, N. C. and joined General Lincoln at Stone Camp, S. C., and fought a hard Battle with the British on the 20th of June 1779, in which he was engaged from the commencement to the end, after which he marched back to camp where he remained some time. That he knew Count Pulaskie and General Parsons, &c., from thence was marched to Camden, S. C. and discharged in August 1779. After serving a tower of 6 months, that he acted as fifer and was disbanded by Col. Mason, and returned to Amelia, Va. on 10th Aug. 1779.

In the year 1780 he served a tower of Duty under Capt. Gray, belonging to the United States Army, commanded by Col. White. The fall of same year, he was called on to render service agreeably to draughted numbers and served a tower of 3 months under Capt. Irby, Lieut's name not recollected, was marched to Petersburg, Va., from there to Cabbin point, thence to Markeys mills thence to Nancemond, thence to a place not recollected, and returned to Nancymun, he then interted (can't make this word out) in the calvary under Chas. Irby, for during (can't make this word out) the War, upon condition that he could procure a horse, was priviledged to go home & get a horse & return to camp, & in the event he could not get a horse, his absence was to be counted as on furlow; when he got home it being inconvenient to procure a horse and a young man in the neighborhood by the name of Elisha Gunn being called on to join Genl. Greene in opposition to Lord Cornwallice, the said Gunn and himself changed towers, and being organized he marched under Capt. Overstreet and joined headquarters on troublesome Creak, N. C. After various marches they met the British and had a severe Battle at Gilford Courthouse, after marching to deep river, at ramsey's mills, Chatham County, N. C., he was honourably discharged, by Brigadier General Lawson of the Va. troops, after which he returned to Amelia county, Va. There he remained until the 5th day of Jan. 1801 at which time he removed to Wake Co. N. C., where he has remained ever since, & being on a visit to friends in Pitts. Co. Va., avails himself of the opportunity to make his declaration, having it more in his power to establish his services here than in N. C., serving as a Militiaman there was no written discharge given to such.

WILLIAM DEWS.

On this 20th day of August 1832 personally appeared before the Court of the County of Pittsylvania now sitting, Wm. Dewes, a resident of said Co., aged 80 yrs. who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make following declaration—

That he enlisted in the Army of the U. S. in the month of Feb. 1776 for two yrs. with Lieut. Henderson in Cap^t Walkers Company, then stationed at Charlottesville in the County of Albemarle, Va. On the 15th day of that month this company left Charlottesville & marched direct to Gloucester Court House, Va. & from there they marched to Chesapeake Bay, and went across to the County of Northampton & was there attached to the 9th Reg't of the Va. line under the Command of Col. George Matthews and Major Ivins. That they were stationed in said Co. of Northampton untill about the 19th or 20th of Dec. 1776, when they were marched from there to Morristown in New Jersey and joined the army under Gen'l George Washington at that place in January 1777, where he had taken up Winter Quarters.

Early in the Spring following a picked Company was made up from the different regiments and Placed under the command of Lieut. Henderson who acted as Capt. of which he said Wm. Dews was one. This Company was put under Col. Daniel Morgan, who commanded a Rifle choir and was with him in three engagements. On one day, first at Brunswick where the British had wintered, the 2^d and third near the same place, that he continued with Col. Morgan Several months until he was ordered to Albany. That he left Col. Morgan near Summerset C. H., New Jersey, and returned under the command of Lieut. Martin to the said 9th Reg't under Col. Matthews and was stationed at the Cross Roads near Philadelphia when the British arrived at the head of Elk River. He was placed under the Command of Col. Richard Parker and was with him in the Battle of Brandywine on the 11th of September 1777. Soon after that he was again transferred to the 9th Regiment with Colo. Matthews and was with him in the Battle of Germantown when his Regiment was defeated by the British and he, said Dews, was taken Prisoner on the 4th of October 1777 and carried to Philadelphia and put in Jail, kept there about eight months and was then carried by the British to New York and kept under guard 18 days. Then exchanged at Elizabeth River about the 17th

July 1778, then marched to the White plains in the State of New York and there discharged about the last of the same month. The whole of the service rendered under this enlistment including the time of his being a prisoner with the British is two yrs. and about 6 months. His discharge was destroyed by the British in the town of Petersburg, Va., soon after he obtained it, but the service rendered is proved by the affidavits of David Street and Dudley Calloway, who were regular soldiers with him in the revolutionary War. That he resided in the county of Albemarle when he entered the service of the U. S. in the yr. 1776. After his discharge from said service in yr. 1778, he resided for some time in the town of Petersburg, Va. He now resides and has lived in the Co. of Pittsylvania for about 50 years. Thereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension except the present and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency of any State.

I, Dudley Calloway of the Town of Lynchburg in the Co. of Campbell and State of Va., do hereby certify and do Solemnly Swear that I enlisted a Soldier in the Army of the Revolution in the year 1776 and Served in the 5th Regiment of the Va. line for about 16 mo. when he was detached from said 5th Reg't & put under the command of Col. Daniel Morgan, who commanded a Rifle Choir and Served with said Morgan, that he then became acquainted with Wm. Dews of Pitts. Co., Va., who was a regular Soldier in the 9th Reg't under Col. Matthews, that he the said Wm. Dews was also detached from 9th Reg't and was put under Col. Morgan and served with me under said Morgan several months, when he was put back with said Col. Matthews of the said 9th Regiment, and I was informed that said Dews was in Battle of Germantown and taken prisoner by the British and kept several months. That I believe the said Wm. Dews enlisted for two years and served faithfully as soldier in the Army of the Revolution. Given under my hand & seal this 14th day of August 1832.

Brother Steven Hunt, now or late of Reculver, co. Kent, yeoman the onelie Overseer of trust.

Thomas Boreman, Roe? Noe Taylor, Witnesses.

Proved 14 July 1608 by Elizabeth the Relict and Executrix named.

[It seems almost certain that this is the will of Robert Hunt, the minister of the first settlement of Virginia. From 1594 to 1602, when he resigned, he was vicar of Reculver, Kent, a noble church torn down by a vandal Archbishop of Canterbury, early in the Nineteenth Century. From that date to 1606 we know nothing of his history; but, if this is his will, he became in 1602, vicar of Heathfield. John Smith says that while the Virginia fleet was lying in the Downs, Master Hunt was not more than 10 or 12 miles from his habitation. Heathfield is about that distance from the coast. It would be desirable to ascertain how long Robert Hunt was Vicar of Heathfield; but the only work accessible at this time, Dallaway's Sussex, does not cover the whole county nor include Heathfield. The will was dated Nov. 20, 1606, and the expedition for Virginia sailed from Blackwall exactly a month later. Mr. Hunt of Va. died sometime in 1608. The dates agree well; but the copy of the probate (which may not be a full one) does not say, as would be expected "died beyond seas." A year or two ago Mr. H. Dwelly of Herne Bay, Kent, kindly traced the signature of Robt. Hunt from the Reculver parish books. It is intended to compare this signature with that to the original of the will printed above. All the writers of all the factions in Virginia agree in praising Robert Hunt as a most godly and exemplary minister and man, and no doubt he was influenced by the highest motives in coming to the colony; but motives are often mixed. If this is the will of the Virginia minister we have again the old cherchez la femme. An unhappy home life made it easier for him to undertake the hardships of the settlement. The reference to a brother living at Reculver makes another point in favor of identification. It is hoped that this may ultimately be made positive, for no better man came to America than Robert Hunt.]

JOHN BEAUCHAMP of London, Gentleman.

Dated 15 June 1654.

Proved 9 Sept. 1654.

And whereas by an obligation bearing date 4 Aprill 1653 I stand bound unto John Harvey Cittizen and Merchant Taylor of London in £1600 for the true performance of severall promises and agreements I doe now confirme and ratify the same and charge my Executors to perform the said Obligation.

To my freinde Master John Harvey aforesaid £5.

Residuary Legatee and Sole Executor. my said Sonne John Beauchamp.

For as much as my said sonne John Beauchamp is now remaining in Partes beyond the Seas I will that all my goods etc. which I shall leave at the time of my decease, if my said sonne shall not then be returned into England, shall remain in the Custodie of my said wife.

Proved 9 Sept. 1654 by the Sole Executor named.

[The mention by the testator of a son John "now beyond the seas," would seem to make it certain that he was father of John Beauchamp, merchant, of London and Virginia, who died in 1668, and whose will was printed in this Magazine XVI, 192. But the latter had three brothers, William, Abel, and Richard, and a sister Mrs. Mary Sampson, and these names do not agree at all with those in the will above. Possibly John, the son of the testator was the father of John, who died in 1668.]

Proved 9 June 1654 by the Sole Executor named.

[Col. Peter Ashton emigrated to Virginia about the middle of the Seventeenth Century and was a Burgess for Charles City in 1656, and for Northumberland 1659 and 1660. In addition to other lands he owned an estate on the Potomac in the present King George County, which he named "Challerton." By will dated 1669 and proved 1671 he left his estate to his brothers James Ashton of Kirby-Underwood, and John Ashton of Louth, both in Lincolnshire, England. Both of these came to Virginia, where they died in Stafford County without issue, John in 1682, and James in 1686. A pedigree of the Lincolnshire Ashtons who descended from the Ashtons of Chaderton or Chatterton Lancashire (hence the name of Peter Ashton's Va. estate) shows that the testator above was of Long Sutton and Grantham, that he married Elizabeth daughter of Sir Thos. Ellis of Grantham and had four sons Thomas, James, John and Samuel. No Peter Ashton appears among his children, though the name was common in the family. The testator had a brother Walter Ashton, Vicar of Sutterton, Lincolnshire, who had a son Peter, living in 1629. This last named may have been the Virginian.]

EXPENSES OF VIRGINIA BOYS AT ETON IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.

(From the original account presented by the late Dr.
A. G. Grinnon.)

In 1760 Alexander and John Spotswood, sons of Col. John Spotswood, of "Newpost," Spotsylvania, Va., were sent to Eton by their guardian Bernard Moore, of "Cheslea," King William County. Their father was dead and their mother married again to a Mr. Campbell. For two years their expenses were promptly paid; but after that no remittances were sent, and the boys were left penniless. Various sums were paid for them by Mrs. Campbell of London, mother of their step-father; but her means were limited. A great aunt, Mrs. Brayne, and an uncle, Francis Dandridge, lived in London; but declined to aid them. It is probable that the Spotswood estate in Virginia had become involved. Finally in 1764, the boys were sent back to Virginia. Soon after their return Alexander Spotswood remitted the amount due to Wm. Hunter, a merchant, of London; but about the time it was received Hunter became bankrupt, and the generous Mrs. Young, with whom they boarded at Eton received nothing. Mrs. Young's heirs made earnest attempts to collect the debt, and sent to Va. the itemized bills printed below; but when Alexander Spotswood, was called on in 1788 for payment, he refused, claiming he had already remitted the amount. The bill was never paid. It was a shabby business unworthy of the stock to which the boys belonged. Alexander Spotswood became a brigadier-general in the Revolution and John a captain. For a more detailed account see the William and Mary Quarterly II, 113-120. It is curious that one of the few remaining accounts of a boy's expense at Eton in the Eighteenth Century should have been found in Virginia.

NOTES & QUERIES.

INDEX TO VIRGINIA WILLS.

Mr. William Clayton Torrence, Curator of the Valentine Museum, Richmond, Va., has almost ready for the press, an index to all the wills in Virginia, and the older West Virginia counties from the earliest dates to 1800. Mr. Torrence compiled the "Spotsylvania County Records" for the series published by the late W. A. Crozier, is one of the editors of the "William and Mary Quarterly," and is otherwise well-known for his very wide and accurate knowledge of Virginia Records. This work (which may be truly styled a gigantic task) will be indispensable to all interested in Virginia history and genealogy. The price is $5.00, though it is understood that Mr. Torrence does not wish any money to be remitted until the book is ready. There should be a demand which should exhaust the edition soon after it appears.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM SIR PEYTON SKIPWITH OF PRESTWOULD, MECKLENBURG CO., VA. TO JEAN MILLER—7th September 1788.

Prestwould 7th Sepr 1788

My dearest Jean

I inclose with infinite satisfaction a letter from the Revd. Mr. Jno Cameron to Mr. Scot. Mr. Cameron is a Man of great caution, good understanding, and as favorably thought of as any Clergyman in the State of Virginia. I therefore hope his opinion will have the weight with You, I wish it to have, and determine you immediately to compleat a Union on which my future happiness so much, & so immediately depends. I have letters to show you from the most eminent Characters in the Law equally favourable to our purpose.

Mr. Scot in consequence of information from various persons, will not I believe hesitate one moment to join our hands. Very soon it will be in my power to take my departure for Corotoman, & if my dearest Girl, I can prevail I will be accompanied by Lady Skipwith and not Miss Miller. I send Juba over immediately, with [will?] my dearest Miss Miller, allow me to mention to my dear Daughter, the probability of my being accompanied by her Mother & not her Aunt. I pray tell me what I shall say to her upon the subject, it will have the effect of producing a letter from her, to you of va ery agreable nature. Consider my dear Jean, we are loosing time and if you have any regard for my happiness, such a union must take place, and the sooner the better.

I am truly and affectionately yours

Peyton Skipwith

I missed my Fever last night and shall accompany his Reverence to Church.

(The letter is addressed)

Miss Miller

by Harry

[Sir Peyton Skipwith, Bart., of Prestwoud, Mecklenburg Co., married 1st Ann, daughter of Hugh Miller, and secondly her sister Jean Miller. Evidently the question of marriage with a "deceased wife's sister" had been raised by the clergyman. Sir Peyton's eldest son, Sir Grey, was born Sept. 17, 1771, and was devised a considerable estate in England by a distant kinsman. He removed to that country; but all of his brothers and sisters remained in Virginia. Sir Peyton Skipwith's daughter, Lelia, married George Carter of "Corotoman"—hence the reference to the visit to that place.]

JOHN TAYLOR II AND HIS CHILDREN.

July 11th, 1747, Hon. John Taylor II married Rebecca Plater of "Sottenberg," Md., Daughter of Hon. George Plater II of "Sotterley" (who was Secretary and Deputy-Governor of Maryland). They had eight daughters and only one son:

1. Elizabeth Taylor, b. March 6th, 1750; m. Nov. 19th, 1767, Hon. Col. Edward Lloyd IV of "Wye House," Md.

2. Rebecca Taylor, born 1752; m. Francis Lightfoot Lee (brother of Richard Henry Lee), Va.

3. Anne Corbin Taylor, b. 1753; m. Maj. Thomas Lomax of Port Tobacco, Va.

4. Eleanor Taylor, b. 1756; m. her cousin, Hon. Ralph Wormeley of "Rosegill," Va.

5. Mary Taylor, b. 1759; m. her cousin Hon. Mann Page of "Mannsfield," Va.

6. Catherine Taylor, b. 1761; m. Col. Landon Carter, of "Sabine Hall," Va.

7. Sarah (Sally) Taylor, b. 1765; m. Col. Wm. Augustine Washington of "Hayfield," Va.

8. Jane Taylor, b. 1774; m. Col. Robert Beverley, of "Blandfield," Va.

Hon. John Taylor III, only son and heir of "Mt. Airy." Born. Sept. 1771; m. Anne Ogle, daughter of Gov. Samuel Ogle, of Maryland and Anne Tasker, his wife. He had a number of sons but left "Mt. Airy", his family estate to his second son:

William Taylor II of "Mt. Airy" who married his cousin Henrietta Ogle, the daughter of the Hon. Benjamin Tasker Ogle, son of Gov. Samuel Ogle and Anne Tasker his wife.

Henry Augustine Taylor, only son and heir of "Mt. Airy," married 1860, Courtenay Chinn of Va., and his family are now the occupants of this celebrated and beautiful "Old Homestead."

X

MORRIS, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY.

Nicholas Morris was a Justice of Northumberland County as early as 1652. The list of Justices for the county in attendance at their regular meeting, January 20, 1653, includes the names of Col. John Mottrom, Lt. Col. Geo. Fletcher, Mr. Thomas Speke, Mr. John Trussell, Mr. William Presly, Mr. Nicholas Morris, Mr. Sam. Smyth, Mr. Walter Brodhurst, Mr. John Hallowes.

Nicholas Morris was born in 1605, as a deposition made November 21, 1653, gives his age as 48 years. His wife, Martha Morris, stated in September 1655, that she was 46 years of age. Their children were Anthony and Jane and to the former, Mr. Nicholas Morris assigned 500 acres of land on January 20, 1655. Jane Morris became the wife of John Haynie.

The name of Nicholas Morris appears many times in the early records of the County and he is shown to have been one of the able men who so quickly made an orderly community of the "swarming settlers" from England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and Holland. Not the least of their troubles in Northumberland County was to keep peace with the several small tribes of Indians already living there when the settlers found this land of so much promise.

An instance of this is found in a record of January 20, 1657, when the Court appointed Mr. Geo. Colelough, Mr. Nicholas Morris, Capt. Richard Budd and Capt. John Rogers to make inquiry of the complaint of the Machoatick Indians concerning Mr. Isaac Allerton's seating upon their land.

Nov. 20, 1658. Geo. Colelough who married Ursula, the widow of Col. John Mottrom delivered from this estate "unto Nicholas Morris 1 mare for the sole use and benefit of Jane Haynie, daughter of said Morris and now wife of John Haynie of said parish (Wicomico), Northumberland Co., Va." Witness: Peter Ashton, Richard Flynt.

Many records associating the family of Nicholas Morris and that of Col. Mottrom would indicate some sort of relationship, but of this the writer has no direct proof.

The will of Mr. Nicholas Morris was dated November 21, 1660, and was proved January 20, 1664. He gave to his son, Anthony, 550 acres of land on which he lived. To wife, Martha, among other bequests "ye Island," containing 506 acres, at the head of the river. He also mentioned daughter, Jane Haynie, his grandchildren, Martha, Elizabeth and Richard Haynie.

The witnesses were Samuel and Jeffrey Gouche.

In 1665, Martha Morris married Thomas Lane, a large landowner of Northumberland County.

Before her marriage, she made a deed of gift to her son Anthony as follows:

1665, July 15. Deed of gift from Martha Morris of Northumberland County, widow of Nicholas Morris, lately deceased, to her son Anthony Morris. (A list of stock and household goods follows.) The record further recites "likewise at his, the said Anthony's, day of marriage or the decease of the said Martha, I bed covering with Queen Elizabeth's Armes thereon," etc. Witness: Nicholas Parrish, John Haynie.

On the same day, Thomas Lane bound himself "that by reason or cause of marriage with the said Martha Morris within mentioned—I will not at any time either by myself or my heyres—clayme or demand any of the premises, goods or chattels within given to her son, Anthony Morris.

There are many records of sale of large tracts of land by Thomas Lane for several years and in 1670, January 18, the following interesting abstract connecting him with Scotland.

"Deed from Thomas Lane and Martha, his wife of Great Wicomoco parish to David Whitford, merchant of Edinburg, Scotland, for half of water mill on the branch of a creek issuing out of Great Wicomoco river, called Mrs. Dameron's Creek."

The children of (1) Nicholas Morris and Morris, his wife were: (2) Anthony; (3) Jane.

Anthony was evidently not married on July 15, 1665, according to his mother's deed of gift, but probably married soon after this, a daughter of Mr. Robert Kinge and Hanna, his wife. He married secondly Dorothy, possibly Sanford. Anthony Morris died in 1682. Dorothy Morris, the widow, was granted administration of his estate on January 3, 1683, and she married Cuthbert Span, in the same year.

A record of November 1 states "At the last Court it was ordered that Mr. Richard Harrington, Mr. John Wornum, Dennis Eyse and Clement Latimore should divide the estate of Anthony Morris, deceased, between Dorothy the relict and Jane, the Heyre of said Morris.... and possess Cuthbert Spann in the behalf of the said Dorothy, his wife, with such part or parts which she shall chuse according to law.... and that they forthwith deliver unto Capt. Haynie the said Jane her part."

On December 20, 1683, it is stated the last Court ordered the estate of Anthony Morris should be divided between Jane, the daughter and Dorothy, the relict of said Morris. An account thereof being brought by Capt. John Haynie.... his wife, being sister to the said Anthony Morris..

Eventually William King, uncle of Jane, the daughter of Anthony, was appointed her guardian.

(3) Jane Morris, the second child of Nicholas and Martha Morris, as has been said, married John Haynie. On October 29, 1670, John Haynie and Jane, his wife, made a deed to James Nipper, and Jane was evidently living at the time of her brother Anthony's death.

John Haynie was active in the public life of the County for nearly forty years, holding the offices of Burgess, King's Attorney, County Surveyor and Justice. He was also a commander in the Susquehannah war of 1678, and from that time was known as Capt. John Haynie.

The known issue of Capt. Haynie and Jane Morris Haynie were: Martha Elizabeth, Richard, Anthony, John, Jr., and Ann.

Mrs. O. A. Keach,

CONFEDERATE STATES DEBT.

"Upon the suppression of the rebellion, the Federal Government declared the entire debts and liabilities of the Confederate Government cancelled. These very very considerable, the funded debt on the 1st October, 1864, amounting to £107,870,000, and the unfunded liabilities to £120,000,000 more, nominal value.

The only portion of this debt held in this country was the 7 per cent. Cotton Loan, the prospectus of which stated:

The Bonds to bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, in sterling, from March 1st, 1863, payable half yearly in London, Paris, Amsterdam, or Frankfort.

The Bonds exchangeable for cotton on application, at the option of the holder, or redeemable at par in sterling in twenty years, by half-yearly drawings, commencing March 1st, 1864.

Agents for the Contractors in London,

145 Leadenhall Street.

This loan has been contracted with Messrs. Emile Erlanger and Co., bankers, of Paris, by the Government of the Confederate States of America, and is specially secured by an undertaking of the Government to deliver cotton to the holders of the Bonds, on application after sixty days' notice, on the footing after mentioned.

The nature of the arrangement is fully set forth in Article IV. of the contract made with Messrs. E. Erlanger and Co., which is as follows:

"Each bond shall at the option of the holder be convertible at its nominal amount into cotton at the rate of 6d. sterling for each pound of cotton, say 4000 lbs. of cotton for each bond of £100, or 2500 francs, and this at any time not later than six months after the ratification of a treaty of peace between the present belligerents."

It is at the same time provided, that holders who do not convert their bonds into cotton shall be entitled to retain their bonds, and receive interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum in sterling, payable half yearly in London, Paris, Amsterdam, or Frankfort, at the option of the holder, until repayment of the principal at par.

An annual sinking fund of 5 per cent. is provided for, whereby $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the bonds unredemmed by cotton shall be drawn by lot half yearly; the first drawing to take effect on the 1st of March, 1864, and to be continued on the 1st of September following, and on the 1st of March and 1st of September in every succeeding year, so as finally to extinguish the loan in twenty years from the date of the first drawing.

The Bonds to be issued at 90 per cent.

No interest has been paid on these bonds since March, 1865, and a committee of the holders was formed in 1866, which reported that bonds to the full amount of £3,000,000 had been issued, of which £376,600 had been exchanged for cotton certificates, and £204,600 cancelled by the operation of the sinking fund, leaving in circulation bonds to the amount of £2,418,000. It was argued that the separate States forming the Confederacy were liable for this loan; and an endeavour was made to have it included as one of the claims to be settled under the Treaty of Washington, along with the Alabama claims; but the Government refused so to include it, and nothing further has since been heard of Confederate Cotton Loan Bonds."—Fenn on the English and Foreign Funds, 12th. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GOVERNOR BERKELEY AND THE LUDWELLS.

I chanced the other day to discover the Gov. Wm. Berkeley's grandfather's sister Jane, married Philip Cottington of Bruton, and that her daughter Jane married Thos. Ludwell, the father of Thos. and Philip Ludwell of Va. I do not think it is known that Gov. Berkeley and the Ludwell's were second cousins, and thought that the discovery, if it is one, would interest you.

[Governor Sir William Berkeley's grandfather was not Maurice; but Henry. Sir Maurice Berkeley, of Bruton, who died in 1581, was his great grandfather. This Sir Maurice Berkeley, in his will, names four daughters, neither of them named Jane. Jane, who married Philip Cottington, must have been a daughter of Sir Richard Berkeley of Stoke Gifford, who died in 1514. Thos. Ludwell who emigrated to Virginia was born in 1628. This was 114 years after the death of Sir Richard Berkeley, making a very long period for the two intervening generations. It is to be hoped that our valued correspondent may be able to clear up any doubtful points in this interesting descent.]

OFFUTT.

I would be very grateful for the insertion of the following query in some early issue of the Magazine:

Wanted to know anything definite concerning the parentage and ancestry of Elizabeth Offutt. Her first marriage about 1746, was to Stephen Lewis and both are said to have been of Fairfax Co. Va. Her second marriage was to Colonel William Douglas of "Garrallan" Loudoun Co., Va. She had five Lewis children and five Douglas children.

NOTE ON THE CAREER OF COLONEL WILLIAM TATHAM.

In the October 1916 issue of the William and Mary College Quarterly, appears the very interesting obituary notice of William Tatham (d. 1819), drawn from the Richmond Enquirer. The meagre information in Appleton's Cyclopaedia of American Biography might have been long since supplemented by the extended article in the Dictionary of National Biography which is based on the same materials as those used by the Enquirer.

William Tatham's history supplies another item in the voluminous documents falling under the head of Calamities of Pioneers. Tatham was actively identified with three of our states, besides his native England. Coming out to Virginia in 1769 he was employed as clerk by Carter and Trent, "merchants on James River." Thence he removed about 1775 to the Watauga Settlement, Tennessee, where John Carter was from the first an important figure. Was John Carter of Watauga the Carter of Carter and Trent? In 1776 the petition of the Watauga settlement to be annexed to North Carolina was signed by John Carter as Chairman and William Tatham as Clerk. [North Carolina Colonial Records X, 703-710; Ramsey, History of Tennessee, 133-138]. Having served in the Revolution, William Tatham found himself in North Carolina. In 1787 he was a member of the North Carolina House of Commons, from Robeson County, being nominated during his term for election to the Continental Congress. In 1788 he was named Trustee of Lumberton, in Robeson County, of which he is reckoned the founder. In Spain and England for ten years after 1795, Tatham was during 1806 engaged in a survey of the North Carolina Coast. April 1, 1806, Representative J. Clay presented in Congress propositions "for the purchase by the government of William Tatham's collection of books, manuscripts, maps, &c., relating to the topography and public economy of the United States, to form the basis of a department of works and public economy," submitting a letter from Tatham to explain the objects of his investigations, with a descriptive schedule of his collection and a view of the benefits which government might derive from the establishment of an institution of works and public economy. Also submitted a letter from James Monroe certifying to Tatham's scientific reputation. Again in 1817 Tatham offered to sell his collection of topographical documents to the United States government, mentioning his services in laying the foundation of a topographical establishment, and emphasizing the importance of the data furnished in the collection to the adjustment of boundaries with Great Britain. [Ninth Congress, 1st session; Fourteenth Congress, 2nd session, of Poore's Index.]

Tatham had early begun to form plans for a general topographical survey. In 1791 the General Assembly of Virginia passed an act authorizing him to raise by way of lottery a sum of money, not exceeding four thousand pounds, to enable him to complete the geographical work in which he was then engaged. [Hening, XIII, 318.] After the refusal by Congress to appropriate $5000 in 1817 for the purchase of Colonel Tatham's topographical documents, an act passed the general assembly of Virginia, under which additional managers were appointed to carry into effect the act of 1791, regarding the Tatham lottery. February 9th, 1819, was the date of this act. February 22nd, Colonel Tatham was killed (possibly a suicide) in the Capitol Square at Richmond. March 11th following, it was resolved by the General Assembly that the Board of Public Works be empowered to purchase such of the books, maps, charts and mathematical instruments belonging to the late Colonel William Tatham, as they might deem proper—sum not to exceed five hundred dollars.

It would probably be difficult now to find a complete set of Colonel Tatham's published works, regarding Tennessee and the West; Virginia; the Commerce and Agriculture of the United States; English canals and internal navigations, &c. To the lists given in the Dictionary of National Biography and in Appleton's Cyclopaedia should be added an "Address to the Shareholders and others interested in the Canals of Virginia. Pamphlet 8vo. Richmond 1794." (see, Allibone, and Library of Congress Printed Catalogue, 1840, p. 549). This item is of especial interest as showing that Colonel Tatham's mind was occupied with Canals before his return to England in 1796.

THE WILSON FAMILY OF PRINCESS ANNE, NORFOLK, &c.

Thomas Wilson, the Emigrant from the Island of Great Britain, intermarried with a Miss Willis [There is no record evidence for Thos. Wilson or his wife] and settled in Princess Ann Co., at or near the Poplar Grove, where he raised a numerous family of sons and daughters. John the elder is understood to have early moved up the Chesapeake bay and most likely, settled on the waters of the Potomac. Solomon and Willis intermarried in the Neighbourhood of their birth and raised large families of children. Samuel the third son, intermarried with a Miss Mason and died in Norfolk, about the year 1710, leaving his wife pregnant, who bore him a son named Willis, who came into the care of his Uncle Solomon Wilson. He was a clerk to one of the County Courts of that Section of the Country.

Willis having been instructed in the art of navigation which was a favorite pursuit of the family made himself what was at that day termed a sea captain. In his voyage up James River he became acquainted with a Miss Goodrich, with whom he intermarried about the year 1732 and had or left an only son by the name of Benjamin, born 26th Dec. 1733 at or near the mouth of the Chickahominy River, the patrimonial estate of his grandfather Benjamin Goodrich who left two daughters Elizabeth the wife of Willis Wilson and the wife of Samuel Boush of Norfolk. Willis Wilson died in the year 1740, a member of the House of Burgesses, his son Benjamin being disappointed in the enjoyment of his patrimonial estate from his father and mother, she having married a second husband transferred his interest, with her own to him, and his great uncle Solomon Wilson, who raised his father, had dissipated what belonged to him, so that Benjamin had very slender means with which he moved at an early age and settled on the Willis River in the County of Cumberland, about the year 1750.

He intermarried with Anne Seay daughter of James Seay a Hugeunot family from the waters of York River and had issue seven sons and six daughters, Mary, Elizabeth, Willis, Benjamin, Anne, James, Mason, Samuel, Mathew, Alexander, Goodrich, Mantua and Unity.

Benjamin Wilson died the 27th Oct. 1811, and Anne his wife on the 26th of April 1814, having lived together man and wife sixty years, the wife being one year the youngest.

This record was made by Willis Wilson in his family Bible. He died at Bonbrook, his residence in Cumberland Co. Feb. 10th 1822.

Mary, oldest daughter of Benjamin Wilson and Anne Seay married Thomas Munford of Cumberland Co., their only child Mary Thomas Munford married Joseph Hobson of Cumberland and they lived at the Blenheim Estate in Powhatan Co. and had the following children: Phoebe Anne, Joseph Virginus, Thomas Ludwell, Maria, Mary, John Caleb, Lavinia, Sarah Booker, and Willis Wilson.

Phoebe Anne married Hilary Harris of Buck Hill, Louisa County. They lived at Mill Quarter, Powhatan Co. and had the following children: Mary Maria, Joseph, Anne Lavinia, John Wilson, Hilary Valentine, Christiana, Abner, Sarah Octavia, Willis Overton, Martha Pryor and Fanny Morton.

1st Report

In Brown's Genesis of the United States is the following statement: Ralph Yardley citizen & merchant taylor of Bionshaw Lane, London, married first, on May the 15th 1575, Agnes Abbot; she died on Dec. 18th, 1576, & he married secondly Rhoda —.

In Hallen's London City Registers, Vol. I St. Mary Woolchurch Haw. London

Burials

18 Dec. 1576. Agnes wife of Rafe Yearlie of St. Olave's in Southwark. With reference to the above, a prolonged search in Stow's Survey of London has failed to locate Bionshaw Lane, neither is any mention made of it in "An Alphabetical Index of the Streets, Squares, Lanes, &c.," contained in the Plan of the Cities of London & Westminster & Borough of Southwark engraved by John Pine Bluemantle Pursuivant at Arms. Printed 1747.

The information derived from Hallen's Registers is chiefly that at the time of his first wife's death, Ralf Yardley was living in the parish of St. Olave's Southwark, and also the fact that his marriage to Rhoda — must have taken place between 1577 and 1582, as doubtless Raphe Yardley his son was of full age by Feb. 1601.

Unfortunately the registers of St. Olave's Southwark do not begin till 1685. A search in the Exchequer Lay Subsidies for Southwark does not shew Raphe Yardley living in S. Olave's, but in A. D. 1593 he is paying taxes in S. Saviour's [see notes enclosed.]

Even if he were living in Southwark at the time of his second marriage, quite probably Rhoda — was living in some different part altogether, & the marriage would probably have been celebrated in her parish.

[Enclosed is a list of printed Registers searched in the hope of finding the marriage.]

2nd Report

In the 1st report the efforts which have been made to ascertain the surname of Raphe Yardley's second wife, Rhoda —, were set out in detail.

With reference to the surname of Temperance, Lady Yardley, the chance of finding what family she belonged to seems very small. As her marriage took place in Virginia there is no hope of accidentally finding that recorded here. It is probable that she was a child in 1608 when according to Hotten she went to Virginia in the Faulcon. A careful search through the whole of his Lists of Emigrants (index) failed to shew any Temperance with a surname which might have been hers before her marriage. It does not seem possible to connect her with Sir Samuel Argall. If she had been closely related to him, his will (an abstract of which is enclosed) would surely have made some reference to her. In an article in Notes & Queries on the Yardley Families, written in March 1883 by C. H. E. Carmichael, is the following sentence: "Sir George Yeardeley, the husband of the fair lady from beautiful English Sussex, pictured in the Christmas number of Our Continent for 1882, is recorded as chosen to be Governor of Virginia 1618," &c., &c.

Notes & Queries, 6th Series, Vol. VII, p. 174.

John Pory, in a letter to Sir Dudley Carleton says: "This Sir George Yeardeley hath married my cousin German, and infinitely desires my company."

S. P. Dom. Jas. I. Vol. 103, No. 111.

With regard to Sir George Yardley's ancestry, in the extracts sent by the Merchant Taylors' Company, it is stated that on the 6th Sept. 1583, "Raffe Yearly made free Arthur Yearly." It seemed probable that Arthur might be Raffe's brother, but although Arthur's will has been found in the Commissary Court of London [abstract enclosed] it contains no family information.

Alexander Hiekes' will was also looked at [note enclosed] in the hope that he might make some mention of Rauf Yardley as he made him free of the Company.

A certain John Yardley paid a yearly rent of £4 to the Merchant Taylors' Company for a messuage in Ludgate from 1554 to 1557. A search in the Lay Subsidies shews John Yardley in 1544 being taxed in the parish of St. Martin, Ludgate [note enclosed.]

In Stow's Survey of London, edited by John Strype, Book III. p. 176, is the following—

Farringdon Ward within
S. Martin's, Ludgate Hill.

A monumental inscription to the memory of William Yeardley, gentleman, and Elizabeth his wife, sometime of this parish. He died on the 28th of October 1523. She died the 20th July 1593.

This is quoted in Notes & Queries, 6th Series Vol. V. p. 377, which gives the date of Elizabeth's death as 1533. The other date, 1593, is probably a misprint.

It seems possible that a thorough search in the registers of St. Martin's Ludgate Hill, (they begin 1539) might connect Raphe, the father of Sir George, with the John Yardley who paid rent to the Merchant Taylors' Company. Unfortunately time did not permit of this clue being followed up.

Certificates of residence have been searched but have produced no information.

An abstract of the will of Richard Hinde husband of Anne Yardlye is enclosed, but gives no information.

Report.

The question as to the parentage of Temperance, wife of Sir George Yardley, is at last settled by the enclosed papers. The only clue that offered itself was the statement made by Edmund Rossingham to the Privy Council that Sir George Yardley was his uncle. Fortunately his litigation with Ralph Yardley disclosed the fact that Lady Yardley was his aunt. A further search in Chancery Proceedings produced the suit Rossingham v. Knevett & this gave the maiden name of Mrs. Rossingham & Lady Yardley. However the matter would not have been absolutely certain if Edmund Rossingham's grandmother Martha, who by the time she made her will had changed her name by a second marriage from Flowerdew to Garret, had not bequeathed her signet ring to her daughter Temperance Yardley, otherwise Flowerdew. A rough pedigree & the papers necessary to prove this are enclosed.

No success has attended the search for the parents of Ralph Yardley, merchant taylor. A pedigree copied from Harl. M. S. 1167 is enclosed. At first sight this seemed hopeful, as Ralph certainly had a brother Thomas & probably a brother Arthur. But if the pedigree is correct in stating that he married Amicia Harman that ends the matter. Also an article on the Yardley family in Notes & Queries 6th Series VII p. 212 says that the Ralph in this pedigree had a daughter named Sibella, who married in 1598 Rowland Greisbrooke. It also states that this Ralph Yardley's will was proved at Lichfield in June 1615. Harman, Fulwood, & Greisbrooke wills at Somerset House have been examined with no result. The difficulty lies in the fact that practically all the wills of the Yardleys of Staffordshire, Warwickshire & Cheshire were proved at Lichfield. A list of 37 Yardley wills proved there is enclosed. It seems quite probable that amongst these might be the wills of some near relatives of the Ralph Yardley who is being sought for.

It should have been noted that George Webb, the emigrant, was author of "The Office and Authority of a Justice of the Peace," published in Williamsburg in 1736 commonly known as Webb's Justice. The author states in his "Address to the Reader" that it is "the first of its kind produced in these parts of the world." On page 100 George³ Webb should be Naval Commissioner, not Commander.

Issue of Foster³ and Sarah (Shore) Webb:

- (13) Conrad⁴, a son born on Sunday the 15th Feb'y 1778 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, baptized the 9th day of May 1778 by Rev. Mr. Semple.

- (22) ...⁴, son, born 24 December 1794.

(These entries are copied from a somewhat worn record in another Family Bible).

(8) JOHN³ WEBB, born 1740, may have married and left descendants; but if so we have no account of them.

(11) GEORGE⁴ WEBB JR., of "Rock Castle," Goochland County, married in 1785, Judith, daughter of Tarleton Fleming of Goochland County. "Mr. George Webb died on the 9th day of April 1803 in the City of Richmond after a lingering illness which he bore with much fortitude, and firmness, much lamented by all who had the pleasure of an acquaintance and more particularly by his affectionate wife, three sons and four daughters."

An obituary (without date however) copied in the Family Bible states that Mrs. Judith Webb died at the age of 83 years.

Issue (known):

- (23) Thomas Tarlton⁵.

(12) FOSTER⁴ WEBB JR., born Jan. 13, 1756, died Dec. 9, 1812 (Family Bible). The Foster Webb who was Paymaster General of the Va. State Line 1781, was no doubt the elder man of the name, the uncle of Foster Webb, Jr.; but the latter may have been the member of the House of Delegates in 1781 and 1787. He married Sept. 22 1785, Theodosia, daughter of William Fleming Cocke. She was born Feb. 19, 1765 and died Oct. 28, 1831.

Issue (known):

- (24) Pleasant Fleming⁵.

(14) CONRAD⁴ WEBB of "Hampstead," New Kent County, a very handsome house he built about 1820. He married (1st) Lucy Osborne, of Chesterfield County and had an only child, Osborne Webb, who died May 4, 1820, aged 16. Conrad Webb married (2d) Georgiana Braxton, granddaughter of the Signer of the Declaration of Independence; but had no issue.

(15) HENRY⁴ WEBB, married Susan, daughter of Dr. Thomas Gordan, of Tappahannock, Va.

Issue:

- (25) Gordon⁵, of "Hampstead," who married Mary, daughter of Col. Randolph Harrison, of Williamsburg, Va., and had two daughter; (26) Alexander⁵, and others.

(14) Major JOHN SHORE⁴ WEBB, married —, and died at "Hampstead" May 4, 1820.

Issue:

- (27) John⁵, removed to Alabama; (28) Conrad⁵, removed to Alabama, married Mrs. Eliza Read, a widow, and had issue: (a) John⁶, (b) Tenny⁶, (c) Mrs. George Judkins⁶, of Wetumpka, Ala., (d) Mrs. J. W. Preston⁶, of Johnstown, Pa., (e) Daughter.

One of the other sons of Foster and Sarah (Shore) Webb, whose name (from the partly illegible record in the Bible) was not given, was Dr. Samuel Webb, who died unmarried.

ANNA⁴ GORSUCH AND THE TODD FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND.*

3. Thomas⁶ Todd. (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). He was the eldest son of Thomas⁵ Todd and Elizabeth Bernard, and the third of the name. The exact date of his birth is not known but appears to have been about 1680. He was old enough to witness a Baltimore Co. deed executed by his father October 9, 1695. (Balto. Co. Deeds R M.: H. S.; 479). He was probably sent by his father to occupy the Maryland plantations on the Patapsco somewhere about the year 1710. As his name does not appear among the taxables in the lists from 1699 to 1707, the only lists of this period which have been preserved, he doubtless came into Maryland after that date. He appears as a vestryman of St. Paul's parish Baltimore County in 1714. The destruction of the vestry records of this parish in the Baltimore fire a few years ago, makes it impossible to determine when he first became a member of the vestry. The transcripts of the Fulham Palace records in the Library of Congress relating to the church in the colonies (Fulham Palace MSS-Maryland Box No. 133) show that Thomas⁶ Todd took the leading part in prosecuting the charges against the notorious William Tibbs, for many years rector of St. Paul's, who in numerous ways disgraced the church with which he was connected. Mr. Thomas Todd, September 7, 1714, brought nine charges against Tibbs before the vestry and November

*Corrections—Two important errors were made in the last number of the Magazine (Vol. XXV; p. 91). Anne⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵) is stated to have married Mordecai Cooke; she really married John Cooke. Elizabeth⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵) is stated to have married George Seaton; she really married Henry Seaton. In each case through a clerical error the name of the eldest son was substituted for that of the husband.

16th was joined by John Downe, another vestryman, in making additional charges. The vestry, February 15th 1714-15 petitioned the governor to have Tibbs removed. This petition was signed by the following vestrymen: John Downe, Jno. Willmott, Junr., Thos. Todd, Junr., Peter Bond, Jno. Hillen and Jno. Gill. A commission composed of Henry Hall of St. James, Anne Arundel, Thomas Cockshutt of All Saints, Calvert, Joseph Colbatch, of All Hallows, Anne Arundel and Jacob Henderson of St. Paul's, Prince George's, four clergymen of the province, was appointed to investigate the charges. This commission, while finding Tibbs guilty of most of the charges, recommended that he be retained after being admonished to mend his ways, and severely censured the members of the vestry, especially Thomas Todd for "contempt of sacred and civil authority," on the ground that the vestry had no authority to criticise or attempt to eject their spiritual head. As a matter of fact Tibbs remained rector of St. Paul's for several years. Doubtless as a result of this episode we find Thomas⁶ Todd immediately afterwards taking an active part in welcoming a Presbyterian minister to the Patapsco. The Proceedings of the Baltimore County Court (Liber I S No. B: 608-609) contain the petition of Thomas⁶ Todd at the March 1714-15 term which—"humbly prays that his house may be licenced for a Presbyterian minister to preach in, which petition the Justices—granted, provided said minister qualifies himself by taking the oaths by (?) act of assembly." Thomas⁶ Todd died almost immediately afterwards, his will dated January 11th 1714-15 and presented in court June 3rd 1715, indicates that he probably died late in May. As will be shown later his widow, Elizabeth, married Hugh Conn,* the Presbyterian minister who

*The Rev. Hugh Conn, the Presbyterian minister, who married Elizabeth, the widow of Thomas⁶ Todd, was probably asked to come to Baltimore County, largely on account of the general disgust of the more respectable residents with the performances of the Rev. William Tibbs, rector of St. Paul's Parish, Patapsco River, who for many years disgraced the established church which he represented here. It is learned from Webster's History of the Presbyterian Church in America (p. 351) that Hugh Conn was born in Ireland about 1685 and graduated at the University of Glasgow. The trade from the Patapsco to Great Britain gave rise to a Presbyterian congregation in Baltimore County, who applied to the London merchants for a minister. In response to this call Hugh Conn came over. In September 1715 Mr. James Gordon presented a call for him from the people of Baltimore County. The Presbytery approved this call and he was ordained in October, and installed Pastor of the congregation of Patapsco by the Rev. James Anderson, of New Castle, George Gillespie of White Clay Creek, and Daniel McGill of Bladensburg, three Scotchmen. In September 1719, he was dismissed from his charge on account of "the paucity of his flock." He immediately accepted a call to the Bladensburg Church, and remained there, until his death in 1752. We have already shown the first Presbyterian services in Baltimore County were probably held early in 1715 on the north side of the Patapsco at the house of Thomas⁶ Todd, one of the vestymen of St. Paul's Parish, who took an active part in trying to secure the recall of the discredited rector, William Tibbs. Through the researches of was called to Baltimore County at this time, and who will be referred to more fully later. It is of interest to note that Thomas⁶ Todd's son Thomas⁷, 4th, was a member of the established church.

It seems certain that Thomas⁶ Todd received the Patapsco plantations by gift from his father Thomas⁵, as he wills it before the death of his father, although there is no deed on record conveying them to him or to his son Thomas⁷, who afterwards possessed them. This Thomas⁶ Todd died about May 1715, ten years previous to the death of his father Thomas⁵ Todd of Toddsbury, who died January 16, 1728-5. What little we know of Thomas⁶ Todd, the subject of this sketch, is learned largely from his will which was probated not only in Maryland but also in Essex Co. Virginia where he also owned lands. Thomas⁶ Todd married about 1706 his wife Elizabeth, as his eldest child Thomas was born in that year. Her family name is not known. There seems no question that he married her in Virginia. The fact that their son Thomas⁷ Todd sold June 18, 1734, a tract of 650 acres in Essex which "came to him as heir at law of his father" for the nominal sum of 5 shillings to William Roane of Essex, planter, suggests a possible connection with the purchaser. (Essex Deed Book; 20; fol. 127). In this deed the grantor is described as of Baltimore County, Maryland, gentleman, and the land as part of a tract of 5100 acres, patented Oct. 4, 1625 and again Mar. 19, 1627 by Mr. Henry Aubery and as bounding on Hoskins Creek and the lands of Gouldman, the widow Gordon and others. The land conveyed was not only the 650 acres but an "equal moiety of all other lands included in the aforementioned patent."

The following abstract is from the will of "Thomas Todd, the younger, of Baltimore County, gentleman," dated January 11, 1714-15, presented in court June 3rd, 1715 and probated June 11, 1715 (Annapolis, Md. Wills 14; fol. 152; and Essex Co. Va. D. Bk. fol. 392). To my son Thomas Todd and his heirs ail my lands in the Neck [Patapsco Neck] where I now live below the head of Bare Creek and the heads of Back River, but in default of heirs then to my son Robert, then to my brother William, then to my brother Philip, then to my brother Christopher, but if any of the above have refused to live on it within three years, except he be under 21 years, then to the next male heir who will live on it. To my son Robert Todd and his heirs the tract Shawan Hunting Ground, 1500 acres, on the Mr. William B. Marye the actual location of what was certainly the first Presbyterian church building in Baltimore County is learned. August Court, 1715: "upon the petition of Hugh Conn a presbyterian minister that a house lately built on the land of John Frizell on the south side of Patapsco river at the head of Curtis Creek may be recorded for a Presbyterian Meeting House * * * * it is ordered accordingly." (Balto. Co. Court Proc. Liber G. M. folio 55). The obituary notice of Hugh Conn in the Maryland Gazette July 9, 1752 states that he fell dead in his pulpit on Sunday the 28th, while preaching to his congregation in Bladensburg, Prince George's County. The will of Hugh Conn recorded at Annapolis shows that he left a large family. The writer has made no effort to learn the name of his second wife or to trace his descendants.

draughts of the Gunpowder River. My lands in Virginia, except the tract I lived on, to be sold within ten years of my decease and the produce given to my wife and children. The tract that I lived on in Virginia, to be held of him that my father shall give his dwelling plantation in the same right, on condition that my father gives what personal estate he hath in Maryland over and above an equal part of his estate that he possesses elsewhere, to me or my heirs, but if he refuse, the tract to be sold and the produce applied as above. To my son Thomas all my rings, sword, plate, books and surveying instruments. To Richard Colgate and James Phillips and Jonathan Hide each £10 as executors. To my brother William Todd and his wife Martha each a ring at 25 shillings. Refers to a joint account with Henry Offley on a cargo. Mentions servants and slaves. To my wife and children the remainder of my estate. My father at any time he wills to take my two sons Thomas and Robert and do with them as he wills. Executors for my estate in Maryland, Richard Colgate, James Phillips, and my wife; for my estate in Virginia and the settlement of my accounts in England "my bror's William Todd and Jonathan Hide." Witnesses Richard Ruppe, Paul Philpotts and Jacob Bull.

His "living plantation" on Patapasco Neck, which Thomas⁶ Todd left to his son Thomas⁷, meant the tracts, North Point, Denton and Old Road later apparently together known as "North Point." Shawan Hunting Grounds afterwards known simply as Shawan, located about 15 miles north of Baltimore on the Shawan Cabin Branch of the Gunpowder and left to his son Robert⁷, also passed into the hands of Thomas⁷ as the heir of Robert⁷, who died in childhood. The name Shawan was a not uncommon contraction of Shawanee. As there is no known copy of Thomas⁵ Todd's will in existence, nor any Virginia deed, whether the father took advantage of the offer of exchange provided for his son's will or if he did, to which of his several sons, the plantation of the younger Thomas⁶ in Virginia passed, is not certainly known. Whether the land in Essex sold 1734 by Thomas⁷ Todd 4th, of Baltimore County to William Roane of Essex for 5 shillings, was the plantation referred to in Thomas⁶ Todd's will is not known. (see Thomas⁷, post). It would also be interesting to know with certainty whether Thomas⁵ took his two grandsons Thomas⁷ and Robert⁷ to live with him in Virginia as he was empowered to do under their father's will. As their mother Elizabeth remarried almost immediately after her husband's death, and died herself shortly afterwards, it seems quite probable that he did take the two grandsons and their sister Frances⁷ to Toddsbury, especially as Thomas⁷, the elder of the two boys, married a Virginia girl as his first wife. Jonathan Hide, appointed one of Thomas⁶ Todd's Virginia executors and referred to as his "brother," lived in Middlesex County, Va. His will dated Dec. 15, 1718 and proved Mar. 3, 1718-19 shows that he had married a sister, unnamed, of Thomas⁶ Todd, and that she was then dead (see — (Todd) Hide, post).

A prolonged dispute arose in connection with the settlement of Thomas⁶ Todd's estate as a result of the widow's remarriage to the Rev. Hugh Conn. Richard Colegate and James Phillips, the Maryland executors at the time of filing the will June 3, 1715, by direction of the widow, entered her renunciation of the personal estate left her and made demand for her thirds. (Test. Proc. 22; 464). Phillips and Colegate resigned Nov. 5, 1715 as executors, but the latter July 21, 1716 consented to be present at the appraisal and to make an inventory "for the sake of the children." (Balto. Wills; 1, 230). The widow remarried a few months after her husband's death, probably before the end of the year 1715. The Essex County Virginia Order Book shown that Sep. 23, 1715, Elizabeth Todd, the executrix, presented the will of Thomas Todd which was ordered recorded, and that she filed a bond with William Todd of King and Queen, and Jonathan Hide of Gloucester her sureties. The Essex Order Book also shows that soon afterwards a suit of Elizabeth the widow and administratrix of Thomas Todd against William Compton was discontinued (O. Bk. 5. fol. 6). Elizabeth Conn, the executrix of Thomas Todd jur, July 9, 1716 filed her administration bond for £2000 with Doct. Patt. Hepburn and Doct. Jn. Rattenbury her sureties; and Nov. 13, 1716 she filed an inventory of her husband's estate. (Md. Test. Proc. 23; 61 & 76). June 3, 1718 Hugh Conn "who married the executrix of Thomas Todd" filed an account (idem 194). It is known that his wife was then dead. William Todd Oct. 12, 1719 files his testamentary bond as executor of Thomas Todd with James Phillips and John Cromwell his sureties and an inventory Sept. 6, 1720 (idem 24; 92 & 245). Again March 1720-1, appraisers of the estate of Thomas Todd were appointed, and Dec. 10, 1722 another inventory totaling £792; 10; 3 was filed (idem 24; 321. 26; 82). Hugh Conn of Baltimore County Feb. 2, 1722-3 in the Prerogative Court prayed a citation against William Todd, administrator de bonis non of Thomas Todd, Jr. and April 1723 William Bucknall [Buckner] was entered as attorney for William Todd. A commission was issued June 11 to Major George Brackston, Messes Joseph Smith, John Madison and James Woddall of King and Queen County, Virginia to take William Todd's oath to his answer (idem 26. 102, 130, 154). In reply William Todd under date of June 9, 1721 states that he is a resident of Virginia, that after his brother's death the care of the estate was committed to James Phillips and Richard Colegate both now deceased, and since their death to William Buckner, and that Conn and his wife Elizabeth, who died soon after her marriage, had mismanaged the estate. He further states that Thomas Todd had by his wife Elizabeth three children, Frances, Thomas, and Robert, and that Robert died an infant at seven years. Hugh Conn filed a very voluminous complaint May 17, 1727 against William Todd, executor, in which he demanded an accounting of the one third portion of the estate to which his wife Elizabeth, widow of Thomas Todd was entitled. He states that his wife is now dead and that as one of her heirs he is entitled to an accounting, as he believes that Todd's personal estate is in excess of £792 shown by the inventory. The Court decided that William Todd must make a small settlement with Conn, but in 1730 we find Conn again petitioning the Court to enforce a settlement. (idem 28; 2-10). There is on file in Essex County, Virginia, a power of attorney executed July 25, 1718 by Thomas Todd of Gloucester, appointing Robert Beverley to act on his behalf as administrator of the estate of his son, Thomas Todd of Baltimore County, deceased, in any of the courts of Virginia or Maryland.

By her second husband, Hugh Conn*, Elizabeth the widow of Thomas⁶ Todd, appears to have had but one child, a daughter, died in infancy in 1717, the mother dying about the same time. The old Todd grave-yard at North Point, Patapsco Neck, contains a tombstone bearing the inscription: Here lyeth the Body of Elizabeth Conn late wife of Hugh Conn who departed this life—1717 in ye 27th year of her Age—Daughter E—Conn—this life—22—1 year and 12 days. There is a tradition that taking her infant with her to visit her parents in England, they both died on the return passage when almost in sight of home, and that their bodies were landed and buried in the Todd graveyard (Ridgeley's Historic Graves of Maryland, etc., 1908; 114-5). If there is any basis for the story at all, it seems much more probable that she had been on a visit to her Virginia home.

Children of Thomas⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵) and his wife Elizabeth.

- i. Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Born 1706*. He was the fourth of the name. He inherited the North Point plantations under the will of his father, and lived there. He was a justice of Baltimore County, 1733-1738, and when appointed is referred to as "Capt. Thomas Todd" (Commission Book; Md. Hist. Soc. MSS.) He was one of the commissioners, together with Capt. Thomas Sheredine, Capt. Robert North [who married his aunt Frances⁶ Todd], Mr. John Cockey and Capt. John Boreing, appointed by the Assembly July 1732, to lay out Jones's Town or Old Town as it is commonly called, afterwards incorporated with Baltimore Town. (First Records of Baltimore Town and Jones's Town 1729-1797; Balto. 1095; 10-11). He was appointed Aug. 27, 1735, Captain of the Foot, Lower Patapsco Hundred, Baltimore County (Balto. Deeds. H W S no. M, 313). Mention has already been made of the fact that June 18, 1734 this Thomas⁷ Todd conveyed 650 acres in Essex County Virginia to William Roane of Essex which had come to him as the heir at law of his father (see Thomas⁶ Todd ante). He married twice. His first wife was Lettice Thacker, the daughter of Henry Thacker of Middlesex County, Virginia. Their marriage June 7, 1728, is recorded in the register of Christ Church, Middlesex (Parish Register of Christ Church, Middlesex Co. Va.; 1897;

p. 166). The same register records the birth February 26th 1704-5 of Lettice Thacker, daughter of Henry Thacker of Middlesex County and his wife Elizabeth (idem p. 73). Henry Thacker was High Sheriff of Middlesex, 1703, and Justice 1706. (Hayden's Virginia Genealogies: p. 236). There is on record in King George County, Virginia a deed dated 1728 from Thomas Todd of Baltimore County and Lettice his wife, conveying to Col. Nicholas Smith, of King George County, 112 acres which said Lettice had inherited from her father (W. M. Cary MSS: Va. Hist. Soc.). The register of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore contains this entry: "Lettes wife of Thos. Todd at North Point departed this this life June 10, 1730." By his first wife Thomas⁷ Todd appears to have had only one child, Lettice⁸, whose birth June 4th 1730 is recorded at St. Paul's. As she is not mentioned in her father's will (1738) and as her mother died a few days after her birth, she doubtless died in infancy. Capt. Thomas⁷ Todd, 3d, married secondly Eleanor, daughter of Caleb Dorsey of Baltimore County.

*The date 1706 of Thomas Todd's birth is taken from the notes of the late Dr. Christopher Johnson. As he married 1728, this date is probably correct.

Thomas⁷ Todd died between December 9, 1738, the date of his will and April 2, 1739, the date of probate (Balto. Wills 1; 304). He divided his personal estate between his only son Thomas and his four daughters, Elizabeth, Eleanor, Frances and Mary. To his youngest daughter Mary he left the four tracts, Todd's Industry, Thirles [Thurrell's] Neck, Cucold's Point and Todd's [Hooper's or Hart] Island, while he divided his tract Shawan Hunting Ground on the headwaters of Gunpowder Falls among his other three daughters. His executors were his wife Eleanor, Bazell Dorsey and Caleb Dorsey, Jr. His principal plantations North Point, Denton and Old Road on Patapsco Neck, together known as North Point* in regard to which he died intestate, of course passed to his son Thomas⁸. His estate appraised June 23, 1739 was valued at £1874: 14: 0; and the executors state that "they know no other relations the deceased hath in the Province except Robert North who signed the inventory" (Balto. Inv.; 5; 313). Another inventory dated Aug. 4, 1741 was signed "Elenor Linch [Lynch] late Elenor Todd" (idem; 6; 300). His widow Eleanor married secondly Sept. 6, 1740 William Lynch of Baltimore County (St. Paul's Balto. Register) by whom she also left issue (idem q. v.) By his second wife Eleanor Dorsey, he had issue, as shown by his will, one son Thomas Todd⁸ and four daughters, Elizabeth⁸, Eleanor⁸, Frances⁸ and Mary⁸, although the St. Paul's Register gives only the birth record of Thomas⁸ and Elizabeth⁸. It is of interest to note that the descendants of Thomas⁷ Todd and his wife Eleanor Dorsey bearing the name Todd, still (1917) own and occupy the Patapsco Neck plantation, North Point, making a continuous occupancy of over two hundred and fifty years. The will of Elinor Lynch dated July 23, 1760 and proved Oct. 16, 1760 mentions her son Thomas Todd, and her daughters Elizabeth Cromwell, Elinor Ensor, Frances Risteau and Mary Worthington, as well as her sons William and James Lynch and her daughters Sarah, Deborah, Nelly, Sinah, and Anne Lynch (Balto. Wills). There are on record deeds of partition of Shawan Hunting Ground between the daughters Elizabeth, Eleanor and Francis, dated 1757, showing that they had married respectively John Cromwell, John Ensor and George Risteau (Balto. Deeds; B. no. G., 93-4).

Issue of Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵) and his 1st wife Lettice Thacker.

- (1) Lettice⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Born Feb. 26th 1704-5. Apparently died in infancy.

Issue of Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵) and his 2nd wife Eleanor Dorsey.

- (2) Thomas⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). The fifth of the name. Born Nov. 27, 1738 (St. Paul's Reg.). Died Sept. 1, 1798. Married Sarah daughter of Robert Wilkin-son of Baltimore County. Lived at North Point. Left several children. The present owner of the North Point plantation, Thomas Todd, is a direct descendant.
 - (3) Elizabeth⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Born Dec. 13, 1732 (St. Paul's Balto. Reg.). Married John Cromwell of Anne Arundel County. Left issue.
 - (4) Elinor⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Married Mar. 6, 1753 John Ensor, Jr. of Baltimore County (St. Paul's Reg.). Left issue.
 - (5) Frances⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Married Aug. 17, 1759 George Risteau of Baltimore County. Left issue.
 - (6) Mary⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Married John Worthington son of William and Hannah (Cromwell) Worthington. Left issue.
- ii. Robert⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Died aged 7 years, sometime prior to 1724. (Test. Proc. 23; 2-10).

- iii. Frances⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Probably born about 1710. Living 1724 (Test. Proc. 28; 2-10). Subsequent history unknown.

*Philip Jones and John Rattenbury, who had been appointed to look into the condition of the North Point Plantation, reported to the March, 1743, Court that the buildings were then in bad condition, and a similar report was made by Henry Saytor and Nicholas Haile in regard to Shawan Hunting Grounds to the June, 1744, Court (Balto. Co. Court Proc. 1743; fols. 167 & 231.)

5. Richard⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹, Gorsuch). He was apparently the second son of Thomas⁵ Todd and Elizabeth Bernard, if the order given in the Fontaine MSS is correct. Richard Todd married. The name of his wife has not been learned. Richard Todd and Christ. Todd appear as witnesses of a power of attorney recorded in Essex from [their father] Thomas Todd to Robert Beverley, dated July 25, 1718 in Gloucester, appointing Beverley to act as administrator of Todd's son Thomas Todd's estate in Maryland or Virginia. The following reference to his father's will, 1722-3, from Henning's Statutes may indicate that he was survived by his father. This is found in an act of February 1745 of the Virginia Assembly, breaking the entail of certain lands, lying near the North River Bridge containing 600 acres, left under the will of Thomas Todd late of the County of Gloucester, gentleman, dated March 4, 1722-3 to his grandson Bernard, the son of Richard Todd, with a contingent reversion to his grandson William, son of Richard, and then to the next son of Richard's right line; in default of heirs of his son Richard, the lands to pass to the male heirs of his son William, then to the male heirs of his son Philip, and then to the male heirs of his son Christopher. The Act goes on to recite that sometime after the testator, Thomas Todd, died, his grandsons Bernard and William died without issue, and that the land then passed under the terms of the will to Thomas Todd, the eldest son and heir at law of the testator's [i. e. Thomas⁵] son of William. (Henning's Va. Stat. 5; 395). This Act to which further reference will be made later (see William⁶ post) would rather indicate that Richard⁶ Todd, the subject of this sketch was probably dead when his father Thomas⁵ made his will in 1722-3 and definitely proves that all of Richard's male descendants had died prior to 1745 the date of the Act, but leaves us in doubt as to whether Richard may not have left one or more daughters.

Children of Richard⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵).

- i. Bernard⁷ (Richard⁶, Thomas⁵) Todd died prior to 1742 apparently without issue, certainly without male issue. A petition to the House of Burgesses, May 28, 1762 shows that Bernard⁷ Todd was then dead (Jour. House Burgesses-Va. 7, 41).

- ii. William⁷ (Richard⁶, Thomas⁵) Todd died prior to 1742 apparently without issue, certainly without male issue. (see Bernard⁷ Todd, ante).

6. William⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). He was apparently the third son of Thomas⁵ Todd and Elizabeth Bernard from the order in which he is named in an act breaking the entail of lands left to the heirs of his father, Thomas⁵ Todd, is correct. He was probably born about the year 1685. He lived in King and Queen County, apparently at Falmouth on the north side of the Rappahannock. William Todd, June 9th, 1730, protested against a bill introduced in the Virginia House of Burgesses to establish a town on his land at Falmouth and appears to have been successful in preventing its passage (Jour. House Burgesses-Va.; 6; 72). From a casual mention of him February 6th 1727 it is known that he was then a Justice of King and Queen County (idem 6; 9). He is described in a Spotsylvania County deed, 1743 (Crozier's Va. County Rec.-Spotsylvania Co.; 162), and in the will of his son in law, Thomas Edmundson, 1757, as "Col. William Todd" (see post). Frequent references have already been made to William⁶ Todd in connection with the settlement of his brother Thomas⁶ Todd's estate (see Thomas⁶ ante). He married apparently in 1709, Martha the daughter of the Rev. Thomas Vicaris of Gloucester County. He died between September 10th 1736, the date of a petition by him to the House of Burgesses in regard to his Falmouth warehouses, and June 7th 1740 when [his widow] Martha Todd is referred to as the proprietor of these warehouses (Jour. House of Burg.-Va. 6; 295, 421, 425). No copy of his will, which we learn from an Act of the Virginia Assembly, October, 1764 (see post), was dated January 12th 1736, is in existence. His widow was living January 23rd 1748, when as Martha Todd, widow, of King and Queen County, she conveys land in King George County, patented April 10, 1678 by her father, the Rev. Thomas Vicaris of Gloucester, and devised to her when an infant by her father. The names of certain of the children of Col. William⁵ Todd and his wife, Martha, are learned from several acts passed by the Virginia Assembly breaking the entail of various tracts of land in his descendants, to permit of the purchase of additional slaves to work various other entailed estates. The possibility of there being other children than those mentioned in these several acts, will be discussed later.

So much confusion exists as to the descendants of Col. William⁶ Todd, and so much which is probably incorrect has been written in regard to them, it seems desirable to present here all the established evidence which has any bearing upon his line and then to mention certain family traditions of descent, which bear the earmarks of truth. One source of error and confusion is due to the fact that there was another individual bearing the name of William Todd*, apparently unrelated to the Todd family which here concerns us, living in King and Queen County at the end of the seventeenth century, who also left descendants, which have apparently in some instances been confused with the descendants of the subject of this sketch.

*Reference has already been made by the writer (ante 24; 427) to a William Todd, apparently of Gloucester County, living May 7, 1666, who died prior to September 1, 1674 leaving at least one son, Robert, and who does not appear to be related to the Todd family with which we are concerned. It is learned from the King and Queen County land patents that a William Todd who patented lands there in 1691 and 1693, died prior to 1695 leaving issue. Although this William Todd cannot be identified with certainty, it seems more than possible that he was the son of William and the brother of the Robert Todd just mentioned. The King and Queen land patents are as follows: (1) Mr. William Todd, patented October 20, 1691, 1278 acres in King and Queen County, land formerly granted to Stephen Berbridge, April 23, 1688, and by him deserted and now granted to William Todd. (2) William Todd patented April 29, 1693, 400 acres in Stratton Major Parish, King and Queen, adjoining Davis Brain's old line on the Pianketank Swamp, formerly granted to George Berge and by him deserted, then granted to Henry Waring and by him deserted and now granted to William Todd. (3) Margaret and Frances Todd orphans of Mr. William Todd, deceased, patented October 25, 1695, 500 acres in Stratton Major Parish, adjoining Davis Brain's old line granted to William Todd, April 29, 1693. (4) Thomas Todd, October 29, 1696, 333 acres in Stratton Major Parish granted to John Everitt October 25, 1694, and now assigned by him to Thomas Todd and now patented by the latter October 29, 1696. It would appear from these patents that this William Todd of King and Queen County, died about 1694 or 1695 and left at least two daughters, Margaret and Frances. Possibly, Thomas Todd, 1695, just mentioned was also a child. There may have been other children. There were several individuals bearing the name Todd living in Gloucester and in King and Queen during the early part of the eighteenth century who cannot be certainly placed among the descendants of Thomas⁵ Todd and his wife Elizabeth Bernard, who perhaps should be placed here. There is in Orange County the tomb of Mrs. Jane Scott, born 1699 died 1731. She married John Scott of Orange County and her descendants state that she was a daughter of William Todd. She certainly was not the daughter of Maj. William Todd, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Bernard Todd, as Maj. William Todd was certainly not born until 1685 and did not marry until about 1709. It is at least possible that Mrs. Scott was the granddaughter of that William Todd, died about 1694-1695 who belongs somewhere in this other line.

BOOK REVIEWS.

HISTORY OF WESTERN OHIO AND AUGLAIZE COUNTY WITH ILLUSTRATIONS AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF PIONEERS AND PROMINENT PUBLIC MEN. BY C. W. WILLIAMSON, Columbus, Ohio. Press of W. M. Linn & Sons, 1905, pp. 860.

A valuable account of the Indian and Pioneer history of Western Ohio precedes a model county history. This book is evidently the result of long and thorough investigation.

SALLY CARY, A LONG HIDDEN ROMANCE OF WASHINGTON'S LIFE. BY WILSON MILES CARY. WITH NOTES BY ANOTHER HAND. Privately Printed. The DeVinne Press, New York, 1916, pp. 101, with a portrait of Sally (Cary) Fairfax.

The book collector or library receiving a copy of this handsome little volume is lucky. Mr. Cary, unfortunately, led too busy a life to preserve in permanent form his vast mass of information in regard to Virginia's past. It is therefore very fitting that this charming account of an episode in the life of one of his kinsfolk, should have been printed as a memorial of the lamented author. Washington has always been said to have been the disappointed lover of Mary Cary; but the author gives a new view and says the object of Washington's love was Sarah Cary, the wife of George William Fairfax. Except in words the affair was, of course, merely platonic. There is ample evidence that Washington always retained a warm affection for Mrs. Fairfax; but sometimes men make flattering speeches to pretty married women without being actually at all in love. It is presumptuous however, to question Mr. Cary's opinion about matters in regard to which he, far better than any one else, was capable of forming an accurate judgment, and the true state of the case must be left to the opinion of those who are fortunate enough to be able to read the book.

HISTORY OF THE HUME, KENNEDY AND BROCKMAN FAMILIES. IN THREE PARTS. BY WILLIAM EVERETT BROCKMAN, Washington, D. C. 1916, pp. 272, with 40 illustrations.

This book is a work of immense industry and will be of interest to all persons of the families named. The account of the Humes, descended from George Hume or Home, of Wedderburn, who came to Va. in 1721 is very full. The author states that John Hume, ancestor, of many persons named in the account is only "thought to be" the son of William Hume, son of the emigrant. The Kennedy family included, begins with several brothers living in Louisa Co., Va., about the time of the Revolution. The Brockman line in America is begun with a Henry Brockman of Maryland (1674 &c.), though no proof is given for the identification with Henry Brockman of Kent, England. Nor is there the slightest proof to connect this Henry Brockman of Md., with his alleged children whose names are found in records in Williamsburg (1696), Spotsylvania Co. (1741) and King and Queen (1732). The descendants of Samuel Brockman are well worked out.

THE TEACHING OF GOVERNMENT. REPORT TO THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION BY THE COMMITTEE ON INSTRUCTION. New York, The MacMillan Company, 1916, pp. 284.

The Committee, composed of some of the most distinguished American teachers, was appointed in 1911 "to consider the methods of teaching and studying government now pursued in American schools, colleges and universities, and to suggest means for enlarging and improving such instructions." The result of this work makes a book which should be in the hands of all teachers of the subject, indeed, makes a far wider appeal.

EUROPE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. AN OUTLINE HISTORY. By E. Lipson, M. A., Trinity College, Cambridge. Author of "An Introduction to the Economic History of England, Middle Ages." With eight portraits and four maps. A. & C. Black, Ltd., 4, 5 and 6 Soho Square, London W. 1916. (The MacMillan Company, American Agents), pp. 298.

The author has discarded the traditional method of writing European History from the standpoint of international politics in favor of a method of treatment which gives a concise and connected account—analytical rather than narrative—of the internal development of the chief European states after the fall of Napoleon. This method treated in the scholarly way it is here, makes a book of unusual value.

THE EARLY HISTORY OF CUBA, 1492-1586. WRITTEN FROM ORIGINAL SOURCES. By L. A. Wright. New York, The MacMillan Company, 1916, pp. 390.

"This book is the history of Cuba from its discovery by Columbus in 1492 through the year 1586 when Sir Francis Drake in sailing along the north shore of the island after his successful raid on other Spanish settlements of the West Indies closed the first era of the Colony's history. The author has drawn her material largely from documents in the Archive of the Indies at Seville, Spain, where she has found well preserved manuscripts of the letters and reports of the island's governors, of her royal officials, of her Bishops and lesser clergy, of her municipal and ecclesiastical councils, of her distinguished and even her humbler citizens. These important papers have rarely been consulted by either student or historian; Miss Wright's work, going back then as it does to these Sources, is possessed of a very special value and significance."

[The same witness quotes another statement by Joan Vincent charging Thos. Harris with an offence of similar kind.]

(2) John Tyus or Tyos, who came in the Bona Nova in 1620, lived at the Treasurer's Plantation, James City, in 1624-5. Richard Binks and his wife Ann, who came together in the George, then lived at the Main, which was the territory on the mainland immediately behind Jamestown Island. Thomas Chambers, age 24, who came in the Southampton, 1621, was one of Abraham Perseys servants at Persey's Hundred in 1624-5.

(3) Richard Taylor, age 50, who came in the Mary Margaret in September 1603, Dorothy his wife, age 21, who came in the London Merchant, 1620, Mary their child, age three months, and a servant, Christopher Browne, age 18, who came in the Duty in May 1620, lived at the Neck of Land in Charles City 1624-5. The place was the present Jones' Neck not far from Henricopolis (Dutch Gap). William Vincent, age 39, who came in the Mary and James, and Joanna his wife, age 42, also lived there. Thomas Harris, who was then or soon afterwards commander of the plantation there, was aged 38, and had come in the Prosperous in 1611 and his wife Adria, aged 23, who had come in the Marmaduke in Nov. 1621, were also a neighbor of the above. He was long a man of prominence and was a Burgess in 1623, 1639 and 1647. See this Magazine IV, 248, 249. Joan Vincent was one of the foul-mouthed viragos, of whom other examples have occurred in these minutes. The Church was that at Henrico or Henricopolis, now Dutch Gap.

A Courte heald the XIIIth of March 1625, beinge present S'r francis Wyat, Knyght, Govenor &c, Capt. francis West, Capt. Smith Mr. William Cleybourne.

[235.]

A Courte held the XXth day of March 1625, beinge present S^rr francis Wyatt Knight, Governor &c, Capt francis West, Capt Roger Smith.

John Chew, merchant, sworne and examined says the y^t the account p^rduced by him in Courte between him and Mr. Bolton(11) is a trewe Accompt, and no more.

(9) Leonard Moore, who came in the Bona Nova, lived at the College Land (Henrico), 1624-5. John Watson, who came in the William & Thomas, also lived here. Edward Blayney was appointed to the Council 1626.

(10) Lieut. Thomas Osborne came to Virginia in November 1619, and settled at Coxendale on James River in the present Chesterfield County, (close to Henricopolis) about 1625. He was Commander of the College Land plantation 1624-5, and afterwards for several years a member of the House of Burgesses. He has many descendants. See this Magazine IV, 247, 248. Harihattox or Harrihattocks was on the north side of the river extending upwards from a point opposite Henricopolis.

(11) Rev. Francis Bolton came to Virginia with Governor Wyatt, and was first in charge of the church at Elizabeth City; but in 1623, was minister of the Eastern Shore. Later (Neill says) he appears to have succeeded Hawte Wyatt at Jamestown; but as the record shows he was also minister for Warrosquoicoke, where Edward Bennett's plantation was situated.

It is ordered y^t Mr Lodowick Pearle shall paye thirtene boushells of Indyan corne beinge a remainder for those Tithes dew to Mr. Bolton for Mr Bennett's, Plantacone at Waris Coke two years past.

It is ordered y^t James Larimore havinge referred his peticone to this Courte shall have his pass to goe for his countree. The rather for that he is an old man and at this tyme diseased. And his labor decreased whereby he may rather be a charge to your country than otherwise.

It is ordered y^t Randall Holte(12) upon his peticone p^rferred in Courte shall serve and remain with Doctor Pott his m^r until Christmas next—com twelve moneths. And the Doctor Pott his m^r to deliver up his Indentures and make him free, and to give him one suit of aparell from head to foote and three barrells of corne.

A Courte held the XXVIIth of March 1626 beinge pr^sent S^r francis Wyatt, Knyht, Governor, Capt. francis West, Capt. Rojer Smith, Capt. Ralph Hanor.

Thomas Bunn(13) sworne and examined sayeth that about the moneth of July last past Mr William Atkin beinge sick at his howse and this deponent findinge him to be very weake and sick, did ask him how he meant to dispose of his Estate, To w^{ch} Mr Atkins replied, That he wold leave all that he had heere in Virginia to the disposing of his Cozen Mr Luke Boyse to pay all such debts as he did owe heere in Virginia and to send home the remainder to his wife and children in England.

Thomas Marlott(14) sworne and examined sayeth y^t about (12) Randall Holt, aged 18, who came in the George in 1620, was one of Dr. Pott's servants at The Main 1624-5. After the expiration of his indentures he married Mary, daughter and heiress of John Bayly and acquired with her a large and valuable tract of land on Hog Island. He has many descendants. (13) Thomas Bunn was a physican and surgeon.

(14) Thomas Marlott, Marlett or Marloe, Gent., lived at the College Land 1623, and at the time of the Census of 1624-5, lived at The Main, Jersey City. Thomas Bunn and his family lived near. Thomas Swinhow, who came in the Diana, his servant Lawrence Smallpage, aged 20, who came in the Abigail; John Carter who came in the Prosperous, and David Ellis and Margaret his wife, who came in the Margaret & John, also lived at the Main.

two d'yes before Mr Atkins died he was desirous to make his will, w'ch was begunne but not finished. And further this deponent sayeth y^t Mr Atkins used the same speeches in effect w'ch Mr. Bunn hath formerly deposed.

Nathaniel Jeffereys sworne and examined sayeth y^t Mr Atkins used the same woordes as Mr Bunn and Mr Marlott formerly delivered or to the same effect.

John Carter sworne and examined sayeth y^t one Saturday last past was sennight beinge the XVIIIth of March 1623 Mr. Thomas Swinhow beinge sick said to this deponent y^t if he should die before he came home into England, That then he would give to this deponent and to David Ellis and his wife to and child each of them being of  peace, And y^t he would give this deponent his suite of aparell and small Trunke two blanketts one pillow, 1 pare of hose and shews & two shirtes, And further he sayeth y^t Mr. Swinhow said that if he should die before he receaved payment for his man Lawrence that then he should be made free.

And further this deponent sayeth y^t Mr. Swynhowe did saye y^t he would give Mr. Gill a hundred gilders w'ch was ten pounds sterling for to make the most of his Tobacco, And this deponent and his brother David Ellis to see y^t the most should be made of his Tobacco, And that after his legacies were paide, That then the remainder of his goodes should be delivered to his brother in London and that yf his brother in London were dead That then it should be sent to his two brothers in the Countrey. Margarette Ellis sworne and Examined sayeth y^t she did heere Mr. Swinhow saye y^t he would give Mr. Gill a hundred gilders to make the most of his Tobacco, And that John Carter and this deponents husband should also se y^t the most should be made of his Tobacco.

Y^t is ordered y^t Randall Smallwood shall have the charge of all such goodes of Mr. Thomas Swinhow as are yett nott disposed of and to send a true Accompt therof unto his brother in London. And that Mr. Swinhow's man Lawrence may dispose of himselfe untill fourther order com from Mr. Swinhow from London for and concerninge any fourther service to be demanded of him.

Whereas Mr. Michaell Marshatt doth confess himselfe indepted to Mr. Gill in the sune of two thousand weight of Tobacco & upwards and for default of payment his goodes movable and immovable have been already forfeited, and Mr. Gill is contented to respitt him untill the eight of Aprill now next ensuinge. The Courte doth order y^t Yf default be made in payment in & uppon that daye, That then Mr. Gill shall have present Execution of all his goodes and servants by vertue of this order of Courte.

The Courte uppon the Peticione of Mr. Michaell Marshatt is contented to give him leave to trade with w^{ch} those consines, That Lieut. Peppett(15) or some other y^t shalbe approved by the Governor and Councell wth 14 sufficyent shott armed complete And that he sell to Such in the countrey as shalbe in want of corne two hundred and sixtie boushell of corne not exceeding the rate of seaven pound of Tobacco the bushel. And that he deliver besides into the publique store sixtie boushell of Corne extra to be employed uppon Publique uses by the Governor and Councell.

W^{ch} the said Michaell Marshatt hath beene present in Courte engage himselfe to p^rforme.

March the XXIXth 1626.

William Spencer sworne and examined before the Governor sayeth y^t in the yeare Ano Dono 1620 he did oversee the labours of six or seaven men belonginge to Capt. William Peerce

(15) Lieut. Gilbert Peppett lived at Flowerdew Hundred in 1623['] was a member of the Assembly of 1625, and in 1627 patented 250 acres on the south side of Warwick River; but is not named in the Census of 1624-5. His wife Alice came in the Jonathan in 1619.

(16) who planted in the maine, And that thear cropp for y^t yeere Amounted to the sume or quantitie of three or fower thousand pound weights of Tobacco, And that Mr. John Rolfe receaved all the said sume of Tobacco from the hands of this Examinee, And disposed of But for ye p'ticulars this deponent doth not now precisely remember, But sayeth y^t at that tyme y^t is to say at that cropp he this deponent delivered a p'ticular note and accompt of the said Tobaccos to Mr. John Rolfe written by Edward Britt one of Capt. Pearces servants, And y^t after uppon the cominge in of Capt. Peerce this deponent delivered another note to the same effect unto Capt. Peerce.

And further this deponent sayeth y^t there were two of Mr. francks men w'ch after Mr. francks decease were put into ye mayne to woorke w'th them, And farther he sayeth y^t is [word illegible] up the chiefe of theire worke, The men were comanded away to woorke over the water by Mr. John Rolfe, some tymes more some tymes fewer, so much as Amounted to one hundred dayes woorke for a single man And further this deponent sayeth y^t in March 1622 There planted over the water at Mr. Rolfes Plantation XXX persons, whereof some belonged to Mr. Rolfe, some to Capt. Peirce, some to Mr. Ewyns and some to this deponent, each of w'ch men had to theire single share one hundred weiht of Tobacco and one barrell of Corne, of w'ch number of men before menconed, two only belonged to Mr. Rolfe (Vidlt) Robert Davis and William Rolnett.

Thomas Min [?] sworne and examined before the Governor and Mr. Abraham Persye Esquire Counsellor of estate for Virginia, sayeth, That he was at the makinge of a smalle Shallop at James Cytie by ye direction of Capt. Thomas Barwick (17) for the Company and Adventurers of the Shipwrights, And afterwards this boate was sold to Capt. Wm. Eppes for 200 pound weight of good merchantable Tobacco, And as yett to this deponents memory the aforesaid debt of 200 li. weight of Tobacco is not Satisfied unto any man, And further this deponent sayeth That upon the death of ye saide Tho Barwick he delivered up to Mr. George Sandys, There'on, a liste of the depts y^t were owinge by divers planters in this Colony, whereof Capt. Wm. Eppes his dept is as beforesaide was one, And further this deponent sayeth y^t he knoweth thiat Mr. George Sandys being then Therea'r had order from the Company to receave upp all the accounts and estate y^t Capt. Barwick was possesst of beinge dew and Accomtable to the Company aforesaid.

(16) Capt. William Pierce, member of the Council 1631, was father of the third wife of John Rolfe. At the time referred to Pierce was evidently in England and Rolfe was managing his affairs in Virginia. "Over the Water" was the country on the south side of the river opposite Jamestown and near the present Scotland Wharf. In this neighborhood, later, John Rolfe's son Thomas owned "Smith's Fort," and other land "given to him by the Indian King."

A Courte held the Thirde daye of Aprill 1626, beinge present S'r francis Wyatt, Knight, Governor &c, Capt. francis West, Capt. Ralphe Hamor, Mr. Abraham Persye.

Randall Smallwood Provost Marshall sworne and examined sayeth that he, this deponent and Nathaniell Reynolds beinge chosen for the praysinge of the movable goodes of Mr. Richard Buck, minister, deceased, they prayed all the said movable goodes at the rate of three shillings p. pounds in Tobacco Mr. Bucks library of Books (18) only excepted, w'ch library of bookes were prayed afterwards by Mr. John Prentis and this deponent and Nathaniell Reynolds at the rate of three shillings the pounce in Tobacco.

Uppon the deposition of Randall Smallwood before taken the Courte conceiveth it reasonable, That whereas the Gardians have putt in securitie for ye payment of three hundred and twentie pounce, meaninge in Tobacco at three shillings p. pounce, Consideringe y^t is not felt y^t the stock of the Children should rest so longe in their hands to be paid in Tobacco wth then we know not of w^t value it may be The Courte conceaves it reason y^t the Gardians doe putt in securitie for the true payment of halfe the value of their severall bondes to be paid in lawfull money of England w^{ch} is agreeable and accordinge the praylinge of the goods.

Whereas at the request of Mr. John Gill who hath been employed hither into this Country divers tymes in necessary supplies for ye Countrey & doth heere in Courte p^{mise} to plant heere and to bringe in servants for y^t purpose, The Courte for his better Encouragement doth graunte him he shall have his freedom granted granted him.

Whereas by reason of the casualties happening to the Orphants of Mr. Richard Buck, Theire doth and often may fall owt divers varyances between the overseers and the Gardians of ye said Mr. Buck, and dangers of loss of the stock to ye orphants, The overseers have moved the Courte that both for theire case and the gardians and the good of the orphants That they make agreement wth the Gardians for a certen number of cattle to be dewe to the orphants at the severall ages of twentie one yeers according as may be probably supposed might arise uppon the increase. And because that agreement doth nott seeme principallie to agree wth the Lore of the will, They desire that their Acts may receive strength by the approbation of this Courte. To w^{ch} the Courte doth willinglie Consent as finding it the best and most convenient for both p^{ties} being made in y^t manner as is proposed in courte the said Overseers or Gardians.

A Courte held the XXth daye of Aperell 1626 beinge present S^r ffancis Wyatt, Knight, Governor, &c Capt. ffancis West, Capt. Roger Smith.

Whereas Richard Biggs(19) of West & Shirley hundred in Virginia late deceased did give and bequeath all his goodes and chattells to Sara Biggs his wiefe and Richard Biggs his sone w'ch goodes beinge solde to the best valew heere in Virginia, Amounteth all charges being deducted, To five thousande five hundred and eighteen pounce of Tobacco, besides two heifers left here in the countrey w'ch said Tobacco is now shipt abourde the good shipp caled the Temperence now bound for England, And the full p'ceeds of the saide goodes as by the oath of the saide Sara Biggs taken in Court appeareth.

In regard the full and entire moyetie of the said Tobacco accordinge to the trewe interest and meaninge of the said Richard Biggs his will may come and Accrew to the said orphan Richard Biggs, The Courte doth order that the said Sara Biggs and Samuel Sharpe wh'm the said Testator by word of mouth appointed overseer of his will and Testament, shall enter into bonde of three hundred pounce lawfull money of England, that w'thin two moneths next after it shall please god they shall arrive in Englande They shall Take out of the Prerogative Courte of Canterbury in England A letter of Administration, And within such a reasonable Tyme after they may make sale of the Tobacco to bringe in a trew accompt of the p'ceedes thereof in money into the saide prerogative Courte, To ye ende the one moyetie thereof may redounde to the orphan Richard Biggs sone of ye said Richard Biggs deceased.

Yt is ordered that whereas Richard Biggs left a howse and nyne Acres of land w'ch by his last will & Testament he gave and bequeathed to Sara Biggs his wiefe and Richard his sone.

(19) The will of Richard Biggs was printed in this Magazine XI, 360, 361. He was a yeoman, probably of moderate means when he came to Virginia, and the estate he left shows what an industrious man could do even in those early and disturbed days. In addition to the amount left his wife he gave his sister Rebecca Rose six acres of land and Samuel Sharpe 300 lbs tobacco. The amount the wife's share realized, 5518 lbs tobacco, would be worth at the usual rate at this time of three shillings a pound, about £800. It is not likely that the value was as much; but still it was a good result for the work of a small farmer.

Y^t is ordered that the said Sara Biggs shall have the Gardian-ship of the body and landes of the saide Richard Biggs. To be accomptable for the moyetie of the yeerely rent and p'ffit thereof to the said Orphant Richard Biggs when either he shall come to adge of twenty one yeeres or otherwise of yeers of discretion to Chouse his Gardian.

Y^t is ordered y^t such wearing Clooths as Mr. John Bates(20) died seased of shallbe solde to the best advantage w'th A Trunk marked with his owne marke Towards the payment of his depts and whereas John Southern p'senteth in Courte one bill of dept under the hand and scale of Mr. John Bates for 70 pound of Tobacco, and one bill of dept of Michael Graves [?] for 25 pound of Tobacco y^t is ordered y^t John Southern shall have Mr. Bates his trunk and those things y^t are therein (videt) a Coate, a canvas doublett and one old Ruff bande in satisfacione of the said two debts.

A Courte held The XXVth of Aprill 1626 being present S'r Francis Wyatt, Knight, Governor &c Capt. Francis West, Capt. Roger Smith, Capt. Samuel Mathewes, Mr. William Clebourne.

Y^t is ordered y^t George ffyer(21) ffaylinge in the fullfilling of his conventents w'th Robert Wright shall pay the charge of his Imprisonment and one hundred and fyftie pound weiht of good merchantable Tobacco for damages. And one hundred weihte of Tobacco and & [?] for three weekes woorke & y^t Robert Wright and his man did woorke w'th George ffyer.

Mr. Thomas Bun sworne and examined sayeth y^t the bill he p'duced in Courte for physick and surgerie for Andrew Waters Mr. Richard Stephens man is a trew bill and due bept unto him.

Y^t is ordered y^t John Southern shall pay the said bill to Mr. Bunn out of Mr. Stephens goodes.

(20) John Bates, aged 24, who came in the Southampton, 1621, was in 1624-5 a "servant" to Archibald Persey at Persey's Hundred; but he was evidently a hired employee as soon afterwards he was styled "merchant."

(21) George Fyes was probably the George Fries of the Census, who came in the William & Thomas, and who with his wife Ursula, who came in the London Merchant, was living at Pashbihayes on the Main in 1624-5. Robert Wright aged 45, who came in the Swan, 1608, was one of Anthony Bonall's "Muster", at Elizabeth City, 1624-5.

[It is evident that these Dangerfields were prosperous clothiers and merchants, probably coming originally from Gloucestershire. The Londoner evidently did business with Lubeck and other continental cities. The emigrant ancestor of the family of this name which has been of prominence from the first settlement, was William Dangerfield who patented land on the Rappahannock in 1667 and died before 1671. His son John was born in 1631 so the emigrant might well have been the son William named in the will of Thomas Dangerfield of London. Of course this would have to be proved by farther research. For an account of the Virginia family, see Wm & Mary Quarterly, VIII, and IX. Whatever the English descent of the Virginia family it can disclaim any connection with the notorious scoundrel, Thomas Dangerfield, the informer, of the time of Charles II. He was born at Waltham, Essex, about 1650, and was a considerably younger man than John Dangerfield, son of the emigrant to Virginia.]

[In an old paper preserved by descendants of the Virginia Downman family it is stated "My father's great grand father Gave Great assistance to the building up of a Cathedral Church in plemouth (Plymouth) his name is set in the wall. William Downeman a Great rememberer of the poor * * my grandfather went to perbodus (Barbadoes) and lived at a place called Spiheres my father was left his Estate a youth," and is added in another part "Raleigh Downeman the young son * * * moved to Bermuda, thence to Lancaster County Va, 1653." This is a vague, crude tradition. The name Raleigh certainly does not appear in the family until after its arrival in Virginia, but the tradition may contain a clue as to the true line of descent. John Downeman was born in 1592 and came to Virginia in the John & Frances, 1614. His wife Elizabeth who was born in 1519, came in the Warwick, 1621. At the time of the census of 1624-5 they lived at Elizabeth City. John Downeman was appointed a Commissioner (justice) for that county March 1628-9, and was a Burgess October 1629. Another emigrant was "William Downeman, gent," who came in 1608. The first of the present Virginia family of the name was William Downman who lived in Lancaster County in 1652, and who died in 1659, leaving a widow Dorothy. They were no doubt parents of William Downman who married about 1679, Million, daughter of Raleigh Travers of Lancaster County, and died in 1712. See Wm & Mary Quarterly, XVIII, 138-141, and Hayden's Virginia Genealogies. Wm. Downman, who died in 1765, or his brother Raleigh who died, a very old man, in 1781, may have been the writer of the old paper referred to. They were grandsons of William and Million Downeman. It will be noted that the family tradition, as given in this paper, traces to a resident of Plymouth.]

[These wills are of the family of Duke, of Benhall, Suffolk, ancestors of Elizabeth, wife of Nathaniel Bacon, "the Rebel." The pedigree begins with Richard Duke who was sheriff of London in the reign of Richard I. His descendants for a number of generations were people of position in Suffolk. Edward Duke, Esq., of Brampton and Shadingfield, Suffolk, purchased Benhall, married Dorothy, daughter of Sir Ambrose Jennings, of Rushbrook, Suffolk, and died 1598. His widow's will is printed above. As Dorothy Duke makes no bequest to any Duke children, it would seem that in this, as in other cases, the will corrects the printed pedigree, and that she was step-mother to Ambrose Duke, her husband's successor. Edward Duke was succeeded by his son, Ambrose Duke, Esq., of Benhall, who married Elizabeth, daughter and co-heiress of Bartholomew Calthrop, of Suffolk, and died in 1610. His will and that of his wife are printed. It will be noted that he calls Dorothy Duke "my mother." Ambrose Duke was succeeded by his son Edward Duke of Benhall, who was first knighted and was created a Baronet in 1661. He married Ellen, daughter of John Panton, of Brunslip, Derby, and among his numerous children was Elizabeth, wife of Nathaniel Bacon.]

He left his wife his sole legatee, and made her father Warham Horsmanden and her uncle Anthony Horsmanden "overseers" of his estate. Probably the difficulty between Byrd and Anthony Horsmanden was about some matter relating to Filmer's estate. See this Magazine XV, 181.

(3) The brother was Abel Gower, who was a justice of Henrico County, Va., 1677-85, Sheriff 1681, and a member of the House of Burgesses 1679. His will was dated Dec. 25, 1688, and proved June 1689. He gave his wife Jane his plantation for life, and then to his daughter Tabitha, and if she died without issue, to Priscilla and Obedience Branch. Mrs. Jane Gower had been a widow Branch. On Oct. 20, 1700, license was issued for the marriage of Richard Grigg and Tabitha, orphan of Abel Gower. Tabitha possibly died without issue, as in March 1711, Richard Dennis and Mary his wife petitioned as heirs at law of Abel Gower. These Gowers were probably of an old Worcestershire family of the name in which Abel frequently appears as a Christian name.

(4) Jacob Bobart was keeper of the botanical gardens at Oxford 1680, &c., and Sherardian professor of botany from 1684 until his death in 1719. William Byrd seems to have had some knowledge of botany, and his interest in trees and plants was no doubt heightened by his friendship with his not distant neighbor, John Banister, the naturalist, who is stated in the postscript to have just married a young widow. Evidently Byrd had been at Oxford during his visit to England.

It might be supposed that the English children with whom Byrd was comparing his own were those of Daniel Horsmanden, but the latter did not marry until May 29, 1690, when he married Mrs. Susanna Bowyer, of Woolwich, Kent, widow. See this Magazine XV, 314, &c. LETTER FROM THE PRIVY COUNCIL TO THE LORD CULPEPER.
(Copy.)

After our very hearty Commendations unto Your Lordships we have received two Letters from Your Lordship to Mr Coventry dated the 2nd May and the 8th July last, together with divers Laws which have been lately Enacted in Virginia and we are well pleased to find Your Lordship has been so successful in passing the Three Laws (1) transmitted by His Ma^{ty} under the Great Seal of England, and upon consideration thereof, we have only disapproved of the last proviso in the Act for raising a public Revenue; whereby the Virginia Owners are freed from paying the Dutys imposed by the Act which We esteem very irregular and unfit to be allowed of, not only in as much as it derogates from the Act transmitted by His Ma^{ty} which ought to have passed, in terminis, but because it is very unequal that greater Encouragement should be given to Ships belonging to Inhabitants of Virginia than to ships that are belonging to other of His Ma^{ties} subjects, there being no such difference put upon the Ships of Virginia Owners here in England and which in time may frustrate the End of this Act in case they should possess themselves of so many Ships as to export the whole product of Virginia or a considerable part thereof. And therefore upon a Report made by Us in Council His Ma^{ty} has thought fit to express his disallowance of that Proviso and hath commanded us to transmit the signification of his pleasure therein to you as we do by the enclosed Order in Council to the End that Your Lordship or the Commander in Chief of Virginia for the time being do forthwith make publication thereof, and take care that no such exemption or privilege be admitted or allowed by the Collector's and Officers appointed to receive the Duties imposed by the Act transmitted by His Ma^{ty} wherewith His Ma^{ty} expects a punctual compliance without any reservation or exemption whatsoever.

(1) These acts were: An act of free and generall pardon, indemnitie and oblivion; an act for naturalization, and an act for raising a publique revenue for the better support of the government of this his majesties colony. (Hening II, §158-169.) These bills had been sent over with Lord Culpeper, with instructions that they be passed by the Va. Assembly. It is believed they are the only ones ever so sent to Virginia. The first two acts passed unanimously; but the revenue act the Burgesses rejected in its original form, and added two provisos, with which the act was adopted by the General Assembly. As is shown in the text the English government agreed to the first proviso; but rejected the last. From 1691 onward, however, there were many acts exempting Virginia owned ships from duties.

We are daily expecting Your Lordships Letters by the Stephen and Edward together with a narrative of all your transactions and State of the Country which we find so necessary to be transmitted to Us from time to time for Our better information that His Ma^{ty} has thought fit to Order. That Each Governor jointly and in one body with their respective Council do keep a Journal of all important occurrences to be transmitted quarterly with their observations and opinions how each Colony may be improved from time to time as Your Lordship will have more fully understood by a particular Letter from Us (a duplicate whereof is here inclosed) in pursuance of His Ma^{ties} express Commands in this behalf. And whereas each Council hath a Secretary appointed by His Ma^{ties} Letters Patents through whose Office the Public Orders and Papers of importance do pass which are necessary to be registered there and are fit to come under our knowledge It is further Ordered by His Ma^{ty} that each of them do communicate the same unto Us. And that the Clerk of every Assembly do in like manner transmit unto Us a Journal of their proceedings, Votes, & Bills according to the directions given them by especial Letters from Us. And it is withal His Ma^{ties} pleasure that notwithstanding these Informations which we are to receive from other hands each Governor do remain under their former obligation of correspondency and do not hold themselves excused from transmitting unto Us by all conveyances the same Information and Public matter as if these particular Orders had not been given.

And whereas we have represented unto His Ma^{ty} the inconvenience which the Government of the Plantations hath suffered in the matter of Public Offices which have been sometimes unduly obtained and possessed by persons not fitly qualified to exercise the same His Ma^{ty} has therefore empowered us to make a full inspection into all places of trust which are under His Ma^{ty's} immediate Government in America, to the End we may thereupon distinguish which of them ought to be left to the disposal of the Governor from such as may be more proper for His Ma^{ty} to grant by His especial Order. We do therefore desire Your Lordship to send us with all speed a particular account (2) of all public Offices and places of trust within Your Government by whom the same are possessed, by what Authority, for what term and Estate and how necessary and expedient it may be that the same be disposed of by His Ma^{ty} or His Government together with copies of all Establishments and grants of such Offices as Your Lordship is likewise directed by Your Commission. And we are further to signify unto Your Lordship his Ma^{ties} Commands that no Office or place within Your Government be disposed of, for the consideration of gain, but that the same be given to persons fitly qualified.

Lastly, We have Received His Ma^{ties} Command to signify His pleasure that as it is our especial Duty incumbent on Your Lordship to take care of the Church, so Y^r Lordship do forthwith (if the same be not already done) give Order that every Minister within Your Government be one of the Vestry in his respective Parish and that no Vestry be held without him, except in case of sickness, or that after notice of a Vestry summoned he absent himself. And so not doubting of Your Lordship's performance hereof We bid you very heartily Farewell from the Council Chamber in Whitehall this 14th day of October 1680.

Your Lordships very loving friends.

(2) This list of public officers in Virginia was published in this Magazine I, 225-252, though through a blunder in the make-up, it is mixed with another for 1699. Pages 225, and nearly all of 226, 242-244, and from "Isle of Wight County," p. 246 to the end relate to 1680. The report for 1699 begins at the bottom of p. 226 and continues to and includes p. 241, begins again, with "Board of Trade" on p. 244 and ends at "Isle of Wight County," p. 246.

CUSTOM HOUSE, LONDON, JAN. 10, 1680-81.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF CUSTOMS TO LORDS OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS on the Order of Council touching a Cessation from planting Tobacco in Virginia in the year 1681. That in former years when there have been like reports of great crops of tobacco they have found sufficient vent for the same. Most parts of Christendom are furnished from hence with tobacco of the growth of Virginia—if there be a cessation it may occasion the increase of planting tobacco in the Spanish French & Dutch Plantations whereby the markets from Europe may be supplied & so the trade from Virginia be irrecoverably lost—that his Maj. revenue from a medium of 3 years of tobacco from Virginia amounts to about £100.000 per ann: & if there be a cessation the greatest part of the same may be lost, besides the loss of the navigation of this kingdom there being so great a number of shipping employed in this trade.

VIRGINIA, MAY 13, 1681.

NICHOLAS SPENCER, SECRETARY OF VIRGINIA TO SECRETARY SIR LEOLINE JENKINS.—Affairs peaceable and the Indians quiet, the garrisons at the heads of the rivers keeping a constant awe upon them—Their greatest enemy to be feared is their Poverty thro' the small or no value of their tobacco, unless the King give his assent to a cessation—a check to all other manufactories—their greatest hope in flax, in which they are still very unskilful.

EXTRACTS OF TWO LETTERS FROM VIRGINIA received from Lord Culpeper the 12th Oct 1681 and read in Council the same day. In reference to the fears of the inhabitants of the extreme parts of the Country caused by the late injuries done by the Senecas in passing and re-passing from the Northward to the Southward—their houses being robbed and their hogs and cattle maliciously and wantonly killed—and the depredations of the several tribes of Indians in those parts. 3 pp. indorsed as above.

WHITEHALL, JUNE 30, 1681.

THE KING TO THE LORD CULPEPER GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA—That it is a matter of the greatest importance and highly necessary for the good of his Maj. subjects that all rents revenues and profits belonging to the King should be more closely inspected and brought into a more certain method and direct way of account; the King has therefore constituted Wm. Blathwayt Esq. Our Surveyor and Auditor General of all our Revenues in America. The Governor of Virginia is strictly commanded to add it as a principal instruction to those he has already received that he give the said Wm. Blathwayt and those employed by him all such assistance as may tend to the more easy execution of his duty; and that the Gov. issue out his warrants from time to time for payment of the salary assigned to said Blathwayt out of the public monies raised or to be raised within "our said island." 3 pp.

WHITEHALL, JULY 5, 1681.

MINUTES OF A COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS.—Several laws passed in Virginia by Lord Culpeper read, viz. An Act for continuation of fortifications—Their Lordships observe that the stile of the laws, viz. By the Kings most excellent Majesty by and with the consent of the General Assembly is not agreeable to Lord Culpeper's first Commission dated 8 July 1675 but to be altered for the future to Governor Council & Assembly. An Act for cohabitation & encouragement of trade and manufacture read & referred to Commiss^{rs} of Customs for their report. Orders of Assembly of 8 July 1680 read wherein the Assembly declare & appoint the power of sheriffs upon the water & direct the settling of a parish, their Lordp^s think these proceedings not proper for the Assembly who have only power to make Laws with the consent of the Governor & Council, and have not power to dispose of any money raised by the late Act of Revenue of 8 June 1680—though they have disposed of divers sums out of the revenue of 2^s per hogshead. 2 pp.

PETITION OF WILLIAM FISHER, MERCHANT, TO THE KING AND PRIVY COUNCIL—Setting forth his having shipped in July 1675 a cargo of merchandize value £12000 sterlg on board the Phoenix, Leonard Hayes, Master, through whose wicked designs combined with one John Bellamy and Peter Delling the ship was cast away in Cherry Stone Creek in Virginia for the purpose of embezzling the goods which fell into their hands and into the hands of Col. Stringer, Col. Kendal, Col. Waters, Major Spencer, Capt. Foxcraft, Col. Thos. Ballard & several others. That altho' Sir Wm. Berkeley recovered about £4000 of said goods, when petitioner's Agent arrived in Virginia said goods were so dispersed & gotten into such powerful hands that with four years law & continued solicitations he has not been able to obtain one penny satisfaction. Prays that Lord Culpeper may be directed to examine into the matter and report his opinion thereon to his Maj. for petitioners' relief. 2 pp.

PAPERS FROM THE VIRGINIA STATE AUDITOR'S
OFFICE, NOW IN THE STATE LIBRARY.

[In 1913 a great mass of papers, which had been inaccessible to the public, was removed to the State Library. There are between 600,000 and 700,000 pieces, including 10,000 records in book form. The vast majority of these papers are not of earlier date than about the beginning of the Revolution, though some of earlier date are also to be found. Mr. Earl G. Swem, who has done so much valuable work in the Library, made a report on them in 1914, and has sorted them into packages. Arrangement and cataloguing are progressing, but much time will be needed to complete the work. The following papers are taken from two or three packages.]

WILLIAM AYLETT (1) TO WILLIAM LEE.

WILLIAM LEE, ESQ.,

Dear Sir.

Since I wrote you by this opportunity I have laid your letter before the Governor and Council, who have appointed you Agent for this State in France, his Excellency has wrote to you on the occasion to which refer.

The Brigg Greyhound is addressed to Mess^{rs} J. Gruil & Company, for reasons mentioned in my last tho subject to your contract, there will some other vessels shortly follow her.

I have desir'd Mess^{rs} J. Gruil & Company to pay you a sum of money to purchase a Great Seal for the use of this State, but one has been since procur'd therefore the necessity for troubling you ceases. I remain with great respect and esteem

Your mo Ob Servt William Aylett.

N. B.—I shall this day resign my office of Agent to Mr. Thos Smith who will write you by this opportunity.

(File "Aud. 116.")

(1) William Aylett, was son of Philip and Martha (Dandridge) Aylett, of "Fairfield," King William County. He was appointed Deputy Commissary General of Stores for Virginia April 27, 1776, and Deputy Commissary General of Purchases June 18, 1777. Heitman says he served to July 24, 1782, but a genealogical account of the family which has been published states that he died in service at Yorktown 1781.

PATRICK HENRY(2) TO WILLIAM LEE.

Virginia, December 13th, 1777.

Sirs

The several methods we have hitherto taken for supplying the army and navy of this State with necessaries have proved ineffectual for that purpose, so we are at present without a probability of being more effectually supplied in future. I have therefore in behalf of this State with the advice of the Council adopted the following plan to be pursued in future. We propose to send all the vessels we are able to fit out proper for the European Trade to Nantz loaded with Tobacco where we shall direct both vessels and cargoes to be sold, & the produce after purchasing and fitting out one swift sailing armed vessel to be laid out in the necessaries we want to be shipped in French vessels and as French property to Cape Francoise & there reshiped in swift sailing pilot Boats which we shall provide to some of the safest ports to the Southward of our Capes but as from the scarcity of vessels and seamen here it will be impracticable by this method to export commodities sufficient to purchase all we may want we propose to endeavor to procure a credit with some merchants in France for what may be further necessary to be shipped in the same place for which we propose to pay by shipping Tobo on our own account in any French vessels they may charter for that purpose. We propose to have such charter'd vessels Loaded with salt at Nantes on our account also, and expect to pay a generous freight, both for the salt delivered here, & for conveying the Tobo to Nantz and to have them both ensured if it can be done at a reasonable premium.

We further propose to export what produce we can in our small vessels to Cape Francois, and to direct our Agent there to charter such vessels as he can to bring Salt here & convey Tobacco from hence either to Cape Francoise, or to Nantes as he can agree which will be added to our remittances after purchasing the few necessaries we may want in the West Indies but as tis necessary for rendering this method effectual that we should have a proper agent at Nantz to act for us I being lately informed of your residence there I have with the advice of the Council thought proper to appoint you Agent for this State to superintend and direct all our affairs in France, and on our behalf to enter into any contract or agreement necessary for effecting our purposes, not doubting but your zeal for the cause of Freedom, and regard for this your native Country, will be sufficient inducements for you to exert those abilities you are so well known to possess and all your endeavors for our service. I make no doubt but you may readily procure any assistance in the power of Mess^{rs} Franklin & Deans and hope you will avail yourself of it as far as it is necessary, I should hope the trade of this State thus confined to certain Ports would be an object worthy the attention of the French Ministry who might easily afford it some extraordinary protection; our mercantile transactions at Nantz have hitherto been confined to the house of Mess^{rs} J. Gruil & Co. who I wish still to have the preference in that way provided we can certainly be supply'd by them in the terms we propose, or in as good as any other offer to them We shall continue to address our vessels until we hear from you, and shall give them notice of your appointment as our Agent & the terms on which we expect to be supplied in future, and direct them to apply to you for instructions on whatever they may be at a loss & to follow such directions as you may think necessary to give them respecting any of our affairs. I must beg the favor of you to make the necessary engagements for supplying us with them, or any other person you think proper as soon as possible, and give me the earliest notice of it & attend to their execution.

(2) Patrick Henry was then Governor. With the important exception that lives were lost only in actual combat the English naval vessels and privateers made the carrying of supplies across the Atlantic almost as difficult as the U-boats do now. Another difference was that the enemy had an immense merchant fleet at sea, at which the Americans and French could strike effectively. Other letters and papers on the subject of the importation of supplies during the Revolution have been printed in this Magazine XV, 156, 157, 288, 289, 291, 292; XVI, 163-170; XVIII, 63-70; XIX, 365-369.

I am Sir your Hble Servant P. Henry.

P. S. Since writing the within it has been reported to the Council that the Brigg Greyhound is a very swift sailing vessel upon which they have determined that she had better return here with a load of salt, than be sold. It also appears that Mess^{rs} J. Gruil & Co. have agreed with Mr. John King (who had power from this State to make the contract) to furnish them with a quantity of goods to be shipped on their account, and that another House have agreed to send a vessel loaded with Salt for the use of this State, which shows that contracts of the nature we wished, may be made at Nantz, these contracts we hope to comply punctually with and that it will always be in your power to make such others as are necessary for us. Mess^{rs} J. Gruil & Co. have without any directions from us, fitted out the Brigg Liberty as an armed vessel & altho she may be improper for it, yet it makes it unnecessary for us to have another, you will therefore be pleased to disregard our request for having one fitted out.

P. Henry.

Archibald Ritchie. (3)

(3) Archibald Ritchie, a Scotch merchant of Tappahannock. He seems to have gotten into trouble with one of the associations in 1766, and was charged with disloyalty during the Revolution, but this was denied by his noted son Thomas Ritchie, editor of the Richmond Enquirer. Archibald Ritchie was long one of the principal merchants of Virginia. He married in 1753, Mary daughter of Wm. Roane, of Essex Co., and died in 1784. Another one of his sons was Captain John Ritchie, U. S. A., who was killed at the battle of Lundy's Lane.

RALEIGH COLSTON (4) TO BENJAMIN DAY.

Cape Francois, Sep^r 27th 1781

Benjamin Day, Esq:

Sir,

I wrote you from Curacoa advising you that your bill of Exchange on Mess^{rs} Brassier & Co. had been issued.

(4) The first of the Colston family was William Colston, said to have been a native of Bristol, who came to Virginia in the latter part of the 17th century and settled in that part of the old county of Rappahannock County, now Richmond County. He was clerk of Rappahannock 1685-1692, and of Richmond 1692-1701, and was a member of House of Burgesses 1692 and 1699. Among the records of Rappahannock is the following entry: "At a Court held for Rappahannock County August 7, 1689, upon the humble petition of William Colston who married and for and on the behalf of Mrs. Ann Beale, relict of Mr. Thomas Beale, deceased, &c." She was a daughter of Major William Gooch of the Council. The will of William Colston, was dated Oct. 27, 1701, and proved Dec. 1701. His legatees were, his daughter Susanna £150, son William all his silver plate, son Charles 640 acres of land and son William all rest of estate. Mr. Rawleigh Travers and son-in-law (step-son) Mr. Thomas Beale, executors. The inventory of William Colston was recorded in 1701. It included, "In the closet by ye chimney in ye Hall one hundred books of all sorts," and among other items "money & rings, 29 shillings in old clipt money; in Spanish, English and Gold £37,16.9, twelve plain gold rings, 3 single stone rings, one picture of Mother of Pearle, 1 Load Stone, plate, in the dwelling house," &c.

Issue: 2. William; 3. Charles; 4. Susanna, born Dec. 8, 1686.

2. WILLIAM² COLSTON, was born ———, and died 1722. He married Mary ———. His will, dated May 10, 1721, and proved in Richmond Co., Jan. 3, 1721-2. He made bequests to each of his daughters (not naming them) and to his wife Mary. There is a deed dated, Richmond Co., April 21, 1757 from John Smith, gent, of Richmond county and Mary his wife, to his son John Smith, of Northumberland Co.; conveying 1000 acres in Northumberland, granted to John Robinson July 24, 1665, and which, by several conveyances vested in William Colston, father of the said Mary Smith. An act passed 1762 (Hening VII, 636), gave the names of Wm. Colston's two children.

Issue: 5. Mary married John Smith, of Richmond County; 6. Frances married Joseph Morton, of James City County.

3. CAPTAIN CHARLES² COLSTON, of Richmond County, born March 9, 1691, died Oct. 1724. He married in May 1713, Rebecca, widow of John Tavenor, of Richmond Co., and daughter of Capt. Samuel Travers. Her uncle Raleigh Travers in his will, dated Nov. 24, 1700, left "Exeter Lodge," Northumberland County, after the death of his wife to his "Cousin" (niece) Rebecca Travers, and this estate remained for several generations in the Colston family. Chas. Colston, died intestate, but his inventory was recorded in Richmond Co., Nov. 25, 1724. His personal estate was valued at £899.17.9¾. It included books valued at £37.1.10¾, a silver hilted sword, a writing desk, silver spoons, &c. Rebecca Colston in her will dated 1726 and proved 1727 leaves her land in Northumberland called The Lodge to her son Charles, with reversion to son Travers.

Sometime after my arrival here I prevailed on them to pay the money & accordingly wrote you on the subject in May last—Having received no answer, I determined to remit you the amount by the first favorable opportunity—With respect to Produce it is not only Excessive high but freight cannot be obtained for it, for less than $\frac{1}{3}$ & $\frac{1}{2}$ in Good bottoms—I therefore concluded to vest the money in such articles as were most Issue: 7. Travers³; 8. Charles³, died Jan. 25, 1727; 9. Susanna; 10. Elizabeth, died Jan. 12, 1727; 11. Winifred, died Jan. 20, 1727.

7. TRAVERS³ COLSTON, of "Exeter Lodge," Northumberland Co., born Jan. 14, 1714, died 1751. He was appointed a justice of Northumberland 1739, and was sheriff of that county 1745. He married 1st Alice Corbin, daughter of Col. Thomas Griffin of Richmond Co., and 2nd Susanna, widow of Col. Rodham Kenner, and daughter of John Opie. His will was dated March 4, 1749 and proved Nov. 12, 1751. He left his son William all the plate that had the coat of arms on it, &c.; legacy to daughter Elizabeth Griffin Colston; to son Rawleigh, to son Samuel T.; to son Rawleigh a plantation at the head of Farnham Creek, "which I had by my first wife," &c., eldest son William was heir to the estate of Daniel Hornby, deceased; to son Charles; Lindsey son of Mr. Lindsey Opie, to be educated and suitably maintained during four years; to son Charles "my now dwelling plantation," with the Forest Quarter. Daniel Hornby, merchant, of "Hornby Manor," Richmond Co., who had married Winifred, sister of Mrs. Rebecca (Travers) Colston, but had no children, made his will, dated Oct. 13, 1749, and proved April 2, 1750. He left his whole estate real and personal (besides certain bequests) to Travers Colston, Jr., with reversion successively to William and Rawleigh Colston, and William Beale, Jr. Estate to be under care of Capt. Wm. Beale and Mr. Travers Colston, during the minority of Travers Colston, Jr. Expresses earnest desire that Wm. Nash be principally employed to carry on his merchandizing. To Mr. Travers Beale a diamond ring. Capt. Travers Tarpley £40. To his son Travers Tarpley, Jr., £20. Robert Tomlin, Jr., £20. Winifred Beale £50. A Latin master to be employed for Travers Colston, Jr., who shall be obliged to teach ten scholars for £20 a year (names some of the boys who are to be taught). Charles Colston a ring. Capt. Wm. Beale his chair and horses. Mr. Travers Colston his wearing apparel. William Beale, son of Capt. William Beale, £500.

Issue of Travers Colston: (1st marriage): 12. Charles⁴; 13. Elizabeth Griffin; 14. Travers, born Nov. 10, 1740, died young; (2nd marriage) 15. William⁴; 16. Rawleigh⁴; 17. Samuel⁴, born Nov. 21, 1749.

12. CHARLES⁴ COLSTON born May 31, 1736, died———. (Probably the records of Northumberland could give the date). There is on record in Northumberland, Feb. 9, 1759, the marriage contract of Charles Colston, and Ann, daughter of Griffin Fauntleroy, deceased. A bond dated Dec. 19, 1759, shows that they had then been married. There is a Northumberland County deed dated April 13, 1785, from William Graham and Judith Swan his wife, conveying land called Exeter Lodge, which Travers Colston, by his will March 4, 1749-50, gave to his son Charles and by the death of the son Charles descended to his (Charles') daughter and co-heirs, Judith Swan (now Graham) and Alice Griffin.

Issue: 18. Judith married 1st —— Swan, 2nd William Graham, of Northumberland Co.; 19. Alice, married —— Griffin.

15. WILLIAM¹ COLSTON, of "Hornby Manor," Richmond Co.; born Oct. 10, 1744, died 1781. He married Nov. 10, 1775, Lucy, daughter of Col. Landon Carter, of "Sabine Hall," Richmond Co. His will was dated Oct. 5, 1780, and proved in Richmond Co., Jan. 1781, naming son William Travers and daughters Susanna and Lucy.

Issue: 20. William Travers²; married Sept. 10, 1802, Elizabeth B., daughter of Henry Armistead—no information as to issue, if any. He was a Justice of Richmond Co., 1799, &c.; 21. Susanna, 22. Elizabeth.

16. RAWLEIGH or RALEIGH¹ COLSTON was born at "Exeter Lodge," May 11, 1747, and died at "Honeywood," July 26, 1823. When quite young he entered into business in Williamsburg as a merchant, and later studied law. During the Revolution he was appointed a commercial agent for the State of Virginia at Cape Francois, San Domingo. Here he rendered good service to his country and engaging in private business made a considerable fortune for himself. He returned to Virginia in 1784, and settled first in Frederick County; but in 1801 removed to "Honeywood," Berkeley Co. He married Oct. 15, 1785, Elizabeth, sister of Chief Justice John Marshall. She was born in 1756, and died in 1842.

Issue: 23. Edward⁵; 24. Mary Isham, born June 23, 1789, died Dec.

11, 1814, married Oct. 5, 1809, J. Hanson Thomas, of Maryland.

25. Susanna, born Nov. 27, 1792, married Benj. Watkins Leigh, eminent lawyer and U. S. Senator from Virginia; 26. Thomas Marshall; 27. Raleigh⁶; 28. Lucy Ann, born Sept. 15, 1798, died unmarried; 29. John Marshall⁵, born July 15, 1802, died at sea 1825, while on his return from a trip to Europe.

23. EDWARD⁵ COLSTON, of "Honeywood," Berkeley Co., born Dec. 25, 1783, died April 23, 1851. He was a member of the Va. House of Delegates 1816, 1821, 1823, 1825, 1826, 1827, 1834, and probably other years, and M. C. 1817-19. In the War of 1812 he served as a lieutenant at Norfolk and elsewhere. He married 1st on May 1, 1814, Jane Marshall (who died without issue), and secondly May 2, 1825, Sarah Jane, daughter of Judge William Brockenborough.

Issue: 30. Elizabeth M., born Oct. 24, 1827, married in May 1849,

Robert A. Williams, of Richmond, Va., afterwards Major C. S. A.;

31. Jane; 32. Mary W., born Feb. 1832, married Oct. 24, 1854, Lieut. William Leigh, U. S. N.; 33. Raleigh Thomas⁶, born Feb. 13, 1831, Lieut. Col. C. S. A. (2nd Va. Infantry), died Dec. 23, 1853, from a wound received at Mine Run; 54. William Brockenborough⁶; 55. Anne; 56. Lucy, born March 9, 1842, married June 19, 1866, Col. Bennett Taylor, of Albemarle Co.; 57. Edward⁶, of Cincinnati, born April 22, 1844, married (1st) Oct. 19, 1875, Sally Coles, daughter of Hon. J. W. Stevenson, (U. S. Senator and Governor of Kentucky), and (2nd) Mary White Stevenson, sister of his first wife, and had issue (by 1st marriage), a. Judith Braxton; b. Mrs. Sally Coles Stevenson [Mitchell].

am an Entire stranger to your internal affairs—I addressed a letter to Gouverneur Jefferson in April last making a tender of a quantity of coarse woolens & Linnens I have on consignment fit for the use of the army—I have not been favoured with an answer but have lately heard that that gen'mn is no longer in the Government—If the State is in want it is in my Power to furnish it pretty extensively, of which I shall thank you to advise the proper department—Either Flower (Super fine) or Tobacco would make a good remittance—or if French navy bills were sent out I would receive them for the woolens, as they would answer the purpose of my correspondent in that branch. I have on hand about 1000 joes. worth of that article, consisting of cloth fit for clothing & making blankets also a large quantity of Linnens fit for the tents and light sales—which I should suppose would be much in demand—As I have no doubt from the account we have received, that your lay is again open I flatter myself I shall again have the pleasure of hearing from my

Winchester July 15th 1786

Sir,

I had the honor of receiving your Excellencys letter by Mr. Wright and forwarded the inclosures to Mr. Parsons a few days after—You were pleased to refer me to Mr. Wright for the decision of the Council in respect to my claim on the State which appears to be involved in some mystery that I cannot comprehend—He says the Council was of opinion the sum was so very large that it was presumable that if the demand had been just it could have been called for long before—I have transacted business for the State whilst agent to very considerable extent & I trust with as much attention to its interest as any person in its service and so far from having my accounts disputed was rewarded over and above my commissions on a final settlement made in 1779 when I resigned my appointment—Being about to depart for the West Indies again in the beginning of 1780 Mr. Day delivered me a bill of exchange drawn on a house at the Cape for the nett proceeds of a prize captured by Cap^a Stratton—which bill I remitted from Curacoa for payment and had it returned under protest, under the false pretext of their having made themselves liable to the prize master alone—Many months after, happening to go to the Cape I demanded a sight of their books, detected the falsehood of their assertion, & threatened to complain to the Gouvernement if the money was not paid—as soon as it was received and an opportunity offered I vested it in such goods as I conceived were wanting for the use of the State & remitted them to Mr. Day—for further particulars I refer your Excellency to the Invoice & account cur. inclosed on which you will find there is a bal. due me of 1180 lbs. 8s. 6d——Some short time after my return in '84 I was informed by a member of the house that there was a claim of mine enumerated in the list of debts from the commercial agents books which he expected would be provided for—indeed I afterward conceived it was placed on the footing of foreign debts, to be discharged by the sales of the Gosport land. When the money was received—indeed in the depreciated state of publick securities—I scarcely thought it an object worth attention—Mr. Wright informs me that the bal. on the agents books appears to be very considerable—how this can happen I know not—all my accounts with the public were closed in '79, and this is the only transaction I have had with it since in which I could not suppose there could be any disagreement as the accounts must have been growing on my acct. cur. transmitted Mr. Day—copy of which is sent for the satisfaction of the Council who I hope will make provision for the payment with interest.

I have the Hon. to be

I have rec^d your favour of the 25th of August by the Sloop Congress, and am sorry to find the memo I sent you for some Family goods to be ship'd on my acco^t had not got to your hands. I lodged three copies at Mr. Aylets office one of which I was told went by the Brig Liberty but it seems it did not—One I know was delivered to Cap. Cooke of the Speedwell who did not get out—her voyage has been since altered. I still depend on your sending the goods as soon as you receive an Invoice and in the manner they were directed to be ship'd.

If there is no war between France and England goods ship'd by you to Cape Francois in French Bottoms and as French Property will be safe and will be insured at a low premium—When the goods arrive at Cape Francois and are delivered to our Agent there Rawleigh Colston Esq^r he will send them in our fast sailing Boats into the waters of North Carolina at very little risk and they will be safely conveyed inland to Virginia.

The payments recorded here were doubtless under these acts. This is evidently only an imperfect list, as no officers or soldiers of the land forces are named. Four hundred men formed the Virginia quota, and Governor Gooch, who had been in the army, commanded all the Colonial forces. It was the unsuccessful Carthagenia expedition.

NOTES AND QUERIES.

THE WAR.

At a recent meeting the Executive Committee of this Society invested all the available portion of its endowment in Liberty Bonds. It is not probably known to many of the present members of the Society that the Executive Committee of 1861-65, invested the whole of the then existing endowment, about $8,000.00, in Confederate bonds. If there should be, during the present war, a sufficiently pressing need of money there is no doubt that the Committee will lend the whole of our present endowment to the Government.—Ed.

GEORGE THORNTON.

We are indebted to Mr. Leo Culleton, of London, for the following copy of the epitaph of a young Virginian who died in England, whither he had probably gone for an education. He was son of William Thornton (born Dec. 14, 1680, died 1742 or 1743), who was a Burgess from King George Co. 1723, and 1726.

Parish of Almondsbury, Co. Gloucester (England).

George Thornton, a native of Virginia, the beloved Son of William Thornton, of Rhapahanock River, in the County of King George, was born 19th Dec. 1724.

He came to this place November last and died the 19th day Dec. 1740, having that Day fully completed the 16th year of his age

HERODOTUS.—I have an old copy of Herodotus that I picked up in a second-hand book shop, that has pencilled in it on the fly-leaf the following:.

Herodotus Class
 Walton Styles, Georgia,
 J. T. Brown, Virginia,
 R. Bolling, Virginia,
 J. M. Bolling, Virginia.
 J. M. Bolling,
 Oct. 28th.

The first name on the list has become dim; it may be either Walton, or Wallace, or Waller. No indication of year is given, but the book was printed in 1828.

If you will kindly publish the above, will you please say that if this is seen by any descendant of one of the above, who would like to have the book, he is quite welcome to it.

Yours very truly,

ANNA⁴ GORSUCH AND THE TODD AND BAYLOR FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND.

6. William⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch)—Continued. There are four Acts in Hening's Virginia Statutes which contain valuable data in regard to the descendants of Maj. William⁶ Todd. (A) Act of February 1745 breaking the entail of lands now vested in Thomas, the eldest son of William Todd. This Act recites that Thomas Todd of Gloucester County, gentleman, by his will dated March 4, 1723 left a tract of 600 acres near the North River Bridge to his grandson Bernard Todd, son of Richard Todd, then to William Todd son of Richard, then to Richard's other male issue if any, then to the heirs of the testator's son William Todd, then to the male heirs of testator's son Philip and then to male heirs of testator's son Christopher. It is further recited that Bernard Todd and his brother Richard Todd, dying without issue, the said land has now passed to Thomas Todd the eldest son and heir at law of William Todd, son of the testator. (Hening Va. Stat. 5; 395). (B) Act of November 1761 breaking the entail of lands now in possession of William Todd. The Act recites that Thomas Todd of Gloucester County, gentleman, by will dated March 4, 1723 left a large tract on the Mattapony River, Drysdale Parish, King and Queen County to his sons William and Phillip Todd to be divided equally between them, with moiety to their male heirs and with cross remainders to the survivor. The Act further recites that Phillip died without male issue, that William then became seized of the whole tract, leaving issue Thomas Todd, his eldest son and heir, who is also now dead, and that the lands have descended to and are now in the possession of William the eldest son and male heir of the last mentioned Thomas. (idem 7; 483-485). (C) Act of October 1764 breaking the entail of lands now vested in Richard Todd. The Act recites that William Todd of King and Queen County gentleman, was seized of a large tract in St. Thomas Parish, Orange County and by his will dated January 12, 1736, devised part of said tract to his daughters Dorothy and Betty and to his grandson William Gordon and Richard Barber, and all the residue, 1835 acres, to his son, Richard Todd and his heirs and for want of heirs to his son Thomas Todd. The Act further recites that William Todd died soon afterwards and that his son Richard then entered into and is now in possession of said residue. Richard Todd is allowed to sell his portion of the Orange tract in order to purchase slaves for an entailed tract of 400 acres in King and Queen. (idem 8; 59). (D) Act of February 1772, breaking the entail of lands in the possession of William Todd, etc. The Act recites that Thomas Todd of Gloucester County, gentleman, deceased, possessed among other large holdings two tracts: (a) a large and valuable tract on the Mattapony River in King and Queen; (b) another tract of 1000 acres on Dragon Swamp, St. Stephens parish, King and Queen County. The Act recites that Thomas Todd by deed poll dated March 16, 1709 gave to his son, William Todd and the heirs of his body begotten of Martha Vicaris his intended wife, 500 acres of the first mentioned tract (a) on Mattapony River laid out convenient to the said William Todd's plantations. The Act further recites that Thomas Todd by his will dated March 4, 1723 gave [the remaining] part of this said tract (a) on the Mattapony River to his two sons William and Phillip Todd as tenants in common in tail male with cross remainders between them. The Act further recites that by the same will Thomas Todd gave the second mentioned tract (b) on Dragon Swamp unto his son Richard and heirs male and in default to his son William and heirs male. It is further recited that by the death of both Phillip and Richard without male heirs the whole of the two tracts (a) and (b) became vested in William, the son of Thomas and have now descended to William Todd of King and Queen County, gentleman, the grandson and heir of William Todd the elder and Martha Vicaris. The Act further recites that it will be to the advantage of William Todd, grandson of William Todd, the elder, to sell the above mentioned tract (b) on Dragon Swamp to which Harry Todd the next brother and male heir presumptive of said William Todd consents. It is further recited that as the bounds are uncertain of the 500 acres portion of the tract (a) on Mattapony, which is the only part of the above mentioned lands which will pass to William Todd's heirs who are now only daughters, it not being likely that he will now have sons, the said William and his brother Harry, the next remaining man, have agreed upon certain bounds to avoid future disputes (idem 8; 631-635).

It appears from an examination of the above four acts that Col. William⁶ Todd had at least two sons, Thomas⁷ and Richard⁷, and that Thomas⁷, who was the elder inherited the entailed lands. From the following it seems possible that there may have been a third son William. In the Essex County Court records is to be found an order, May 1752, under which Thomas Todd, orphan of William Todd, of Essex County, deceased, aged eleven years, was bound over to William Edmundson of Essex. It will be shown later that Dorothy⁷ Todd, a daughter of Col. William⁶ Todd, married Thomas Edmundson of Essex. It would therefor seem not improbable that the orphan, Thomas Todd, who was bound over to William Edmundson, was a connection of the latter. We only have positive proof that Col. William⁶ Todd had two daughters, although there were probably others. The Act of October 1764 refers to a tract in St. Thomas Parish, Orange County left under the will of William Todd, 1736, "to his daughters Dorothy and Betty and to his grandson William Gordon and Richard Barber." It is uncertain from the wording of the act, whether this is intended to mean that William Gordon was a son of Dorothy and that Richard Barber was a son of Betty. It will be shown presently (see Elizabeth⁷ and Dorothy⁷ post) that if this is the correct interpretation, Dorothy⁷ married twice, as she is known to have been the wife of Thomas Edmundson. There is independent evidence however that Elizabeth⁷ (Betty) Todd married James Barbour, and had a son Richard Barbour. The possibility of this Elizabeth Todd having made still another marriage to Benjamin Hubbard will also be discussed. There is also a possibility that Col. William⁶ Todd had a third daughter, Sarah, as it is stated in a sketch of the Barbour family in Green's History of Culpeper County (Vol. II, p. 135) that James Barbour after the death of his first wife, Elizabeth Todd, "married secondly Sarah Todd of a most respectable family, probably a sister of the first wife." In addition a Lucy Todd who cannot be placed elsewhere, appears as the witness of a deed executed May 28, 1730, by Col. William Todd for land in Spotsylvania (Croziers Va. Rec.-Spotsylvania Co.; 113). This Lucy Todd may have been still another daughter of Col. William Todd. The whole question is most involved. The writer prefers to number definitely as the daughters of Col. William⁶ Todd however only Dorothy⁷ and Elizabeth⁷, considering it most probable that Dorothy married first a man named Gordon and secondly Thomas Edmundson, although it is quite possible that it was still another daughter of unknown name who married a Gordon and became the mother of William Gordon. The reader is referred to Green's History of Culpeper for detailed information in regard to the children of James Barbour and his wives Elizabeth and Sarah Todd, where a copy of the will of the latter dated May 19, 1781 and proved May 18, 1788 in Culpeper, is given. It is interesting to note that among her grandchildren, Sarah Barbour mentions a Lucy Todd. It seems possible that Sarah Todd may have been a widow Todd when she married James Barbour.

Children of William⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵) and his wife Martha Vicaris.

- i. Thomas⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵). He is referred to as the eldest son in several of the acts just cited. He was probably born about 1710. He lived in St. Stephens Parish, King and Queen County. It is known that he married Elizabeth Waring daughter of Thomas Waring of Essex, probably about the year 1744. This may have been a second marriage however as there is some evidence that his eldest son, William⁸ was of age in 1761. The writer is indebted to the editor of the Magazine for the following Waring notes from the Essex records. There is an Essex deed, dated 1742, which recites that Col. Thomas Gouldman by will left to Mollie and Betty Waring, daughters of Thomas Waring and Elizabeth his wife, certain slaves, and that Mollie was then the wife of Henry Robinson. From this and other evidence it appears that Elizabeth, the wife of Thomas Waring was a daughter of Thomas Gouldman. There is another deed dated 1744 from Thomas Waring the elder, on the first part, and Thomas Todd of King and Queen, Francis Waring and Thomas Waring, the younger, of Essex on the second part, to secure certain obligations [possibly Betty's wedding portion]. It therefore seems probable that Thomas⁷ Todd, married Elizabeth Waring between 1742 and 1744. The will of Thomas Waring of Essex, dated June 9, 1748 and proved January 1751, names his sons, Francis and Thomas, and daughters, Anna Waring, Betty Todd and Mollie Robinson, and makes his two sons [sons-in-law] Thomas Todd and Henry Robinson executors.

This Thomas⁷ Todd, May 28th 1742, petitioned the House of Burgesses to dock the entail of 600 acres of land left by [his grandfather] Thomas Todd, to the latter's grandson, Bernard Todd [son of Richard⁶ Todd] but now vested in the petitioner by the death of [his cousin] Bernard without male heirs (Jour. House of Burg.-Va.; 7; 41). It was not until February 1745 that an act to this effect was passed (see William⁶ Todd ante). Thomas⁷ Todd died sometime prior to 1761, when the act of November 1761 shows that he was then dead, and that certain entailed lands were then in the possession of his eldest son, William⁸ Todd. Betty, the widow of Thomas⁷ Todd was living December 10, 1762 when she and William⁸ Todd petitioned the House of Burgesses against laying out a town at Todd's Warehouses on the Mattaponi (Jour. House Burg.-Va.; 10; 143, 148). That this Thomas⁷ Todd had at least two sons, William⁸ the eldest, and Henry⁸ (Harry) the next eldest, living February 1772, is learned from the act of that date (see William⁶ Todd ante), while the wording of the act indicates that there were other sons. There was at least one other son Bernard⁸ Todd, who lived in Charlotte County. The editor of the Magazine informs the writer that he has seen conclusive proof of this, although at the moment he is unable to place his hand upon it. Indirect evidence also supports this statement. Thus the name Bernard points to his descent from Thomas⁵ Todd and Elizabeth Bernard, and by exclusion the only place that can be found for him is here. His daughter Betty is said to have had Waring as her middle name, pointing to the fact that she was named for her father's mother Betty Waring. As will be shown later this Bernard⁸ Todd in 1789 conveyed land to William Meriwether, and it appears that [his brother] Harry⁸ Todd married Aphia Meriwether (see post). Whether Thomas⁷ Todd and Betty Waring had other sons or any daughters is not known. There was a Dr. George Todd living in Caroline, December 17, 1770 (Va. Mag. 20; 319) who has not been identified and who may possibly be another son of Thomas⁷. There was also an unidentified Richard Todd and his wife Margaret, living in Spotsylvania who deeded land there in 1791 and 1794, who may possibly belong here. (Crozier's Va. Rec.-Spotsylvania Co.; 468, 488).

Issue of Thomas⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵) and his wife Elizabeth Waring.

- (1) William⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). He is known from the acts of November 1761 and February 1772 to have been the eldest son, although there is some uncertainty as to whether his mother was Elizabeth Waring or a former wife. He was apparently of age prior to 1761. The only facts known in regard to him are learned from the act of February 1772 in which it is recited that his only children, then living, were daughters and that it was unlikely that he would have a son. The reader is referred to this act which has already been fully discussed (see William⁶ Todd ante). The name of William⁸ Todd's wife has not been learned nor have any of his children been traced. He appears to have been living in King and Queen County in 1772. It is doubtless this William Todd who was a member of the Committee of Safety of King and Queen Co. Dec. 12, 1774.
- (2) Harry⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). The act of February 1772 shows that Harry⁸ Todd was then the second living son. Whether he was the child of his father's wife, Elizabeth Waring or the son of a prior marriage is uncertain. The only facts known in regard to him are learned from a petition dated May 24th 1774 presented by Harry Todd and his wife Aphia to the House of Burgesses requesting that they be authorized to sell certain entailed lands to Walker Tomlin. It is here recited that Harry Todd in the right of his wife Aphia, is seized of certain lands under the will of Nicholas Meriwether, gentleman, deceased, 335 acres lying in St. David's parish King William County, he and his wife having agreed to sell the same to Walker Tomlin, who married the sister of the said Aphia Todd (Jour. House Burg.-Va. 13; 124). He was a member of the Committee of Safety of King and Queen Co. Dec. 12, 1774, and was a member of the House of Delegates from the same county in 1784.

- (3) Bernard⁸ Todd (Thomas⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). The evidence that he was one of the younger sons of Thomas⁷ and Elizabeth (Waring) Todd has already been presented. There is a Charlotte County deed dated March 1, 1783, under which Bernard Todd of King and Queen County purchased land in Charlotte. There is a Hanover County deed, December 22, 1789, by which Bernard Todd of Charlotte conveys to William Meriwether of Louisa County a warrant for land in Hanover (William & Mary C. Q., 23; 117). There is another Charlotte deed, dated Oct. 1, 1792, from Bernard Todd and his wife Elizabeth. Bernard Todd⁸ was a member of the House of Delegates from Charlotte 1789-1791. It is stated that he married Elizabeth, the daughter of William Pollard of Hanover. The will of Bernard Todd dated June 20, 1810, was proved Nov. 7, 1814 in Charlotte County. He names his children Thomas, Mary, William, Christopher, Bartlett, Joseph, Betty and Philip. Certain provisions of the will were not to go into effect until his youngest son was of age and his youngest daughter married, showing that in 1810 some of his children were still minors. The late Dr. B. H. Walker of King and Queen is the authority for the statement that the daughter Betty's full name was Betty Waring Todd. It is said of the children of Bernard⁸ and Elizabeth (Pollard) Todd that: (a) Thomas⁹ Todd married Eliza, daughter of Col. Henry Pendleton; (b) Mary⁹ married a man named Buster; (c) William⁹ married and had one son and two daughters. He was a clergyman; (d) Christopher⁹ married and had a large family. He removed to Tennessee and lived to be over ninety; (e) Bartlett⁹; (f) Joseph⁹; (g) Betty Waring⁹ married Temple Walker of King and Queen; (h) Philip⁹.
- ii. Richard⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵). He is referred to as the younger brother of Thomas⁷ Todd in several of the acts just cited. Very little is known with certainty in regard to this Richard⁷ Todd. What we know is derived largely from tradition and from family papers belonging to the late Dr. Charles H.¹⁰ Todd of Owensboro, Kentucky, a grandson of Justice Thomas⁸ Todd of the United State Supreme Court, the youngest son of Richard⁷ Todd. These family notes and the published biographies of Justice Todd state that Richard⁷ Todd married Elizabeth Richards of Virginia. This marriage must have taken place prior to 1750. It is said that Richard⁷ Todd died when his son Thomas, who was born in 1765, was only eighteen months old. Richard Todd, June 7, 1743, purchased from Thomas Todd of St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen, a lot in Fredericksburg, devised to Thomas Todd by his father Col. William Todd (Crozier's Va. Rec.—Spotsylvania Co.; 1627.) There is an act of the assembly dated October 1764, which has been already referred to, permitting Richard⁷ Todd to sell the portion of the tract in St. Thomas Parish in Orange County left to him and his heirs under the will of his father, William Todd, dated January 12th 1736, and to purchase in its place slaves to work upon his King and Queen County tract of 464 acres of which he is seized in fee simple, these slaves to be entailed in his children. The family must have suffered financial reverses, as we find the widow of Richard⁷ Todd owning a tavern in Chesterfield County, Virginia, a few years after his death. The editor of the Magazine has called the writer's attention to the will of Betty Todd, the widow, 1777, and to a deed executed by her in 1772, recorded in Chesterfield. The deed dated July 11, 1772, from Betty Todd of Manchester, mother of Richard Todd, to secure a debt to James Lyle, conveys the tavern in Manchester known as Todd's Tenement, purchased by her from Johnson and Wood, together with four half acre lots and twelve negroes. It would appear from this that the mother had been called upon to pay her son Richard's⁸ debts. The will of Mrs. Betty Todd of Chesterfield County, dated October 30th, 1777, and proved the same year, names as her legatees her son William Todd, her granddaughter Betty Todd, her son Thomas Todd, her daughter Milly Todd and her son Richard Todd. William Dandridge of Henrico County and Dr. William McKenzie of Chesterfield County are named as executors. The inventory dated November 5th, 1777, showed a personal estate valued at £1519 : 8 : 1½, and included in addition to various household belongings a mare at William Todd's in Pittsylvania County. From this point we are entirely dependent upon the family papers of Dr. Charles H Todd, Collins' Historical Sketches of Kentucky, and Marshall's Historic Families of Kentucky, 1889, for information. According to these statements Richard⁷ Todd's eldest son was William⁸ Todd, afterwards High Sheriff of Pittsylvania, and his youngest son was Thomas⁸

Todd who became justice. The names of other sons are not given in these published biographies, but there is a marginal note by Dr. Charles H. Todd in his copy of Collins which refers to the second son Richard⁸ Todd: "Richard Todd was a brother of Justice Thomas Todd—Thomas Lankford was the brother of Mary Lankford, wife of Richard Todd, of King and Queen County, who [i. e. Lankford] was killed by a fall from his horse—Judge Todd brought the widow and her four children to Woodford County, Kentucky, about 1786—the brother Thomas Lankford was coming to Kentucky to see his sister when he was killed." The account in Marshall's History of Kentucky, as a matter of fact, in interpreting the act of February 1772, confuses William⁶ Todd, the son of Thomas⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵) with William⁸ Todd, the sheriff of Pittsylvania in 1783 and the son of Richard⁷, the subject of this sketch. The will of Betty Todd just cited shows that there was a daughter Milly.

Issue of Richard⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵) and his wife Elizabeth Richards.

- (1) William⁸ Todd. (Richard⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). He is said by Dr. Charles H.¹⁰ Todd to have been Sheriff of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, 1786. The inventory of his mother's estate indicates that he was living there in 1777, and her will that he had a daughter Betty⁹ (Elizabeth). Could she have been the Elizabeth Todd who married Benjamin Hubbard? (See Elizabeth⁷ Todd post). This William Todd has not been traced. There was a William Todd, clerk of the Board of Trustees of the Transylvania Seminary in 1787 (Wm. & Mary C.; 22; 263-265). The editor of the Magazine writes me that a William Todd appears in 1767 as an appraiser in Pittsylvania Co.
- (2) Richard⁸ Todd. (Richard⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). Reference has already been made to a memorandum by Dr. Charles H.¹⁰ Todd that this Richard⁸ Todd married Mary Lankford, the brother of Thomas Lankford, and that after the death of Richard Todd, the widow and her four children, about 1786, were brought to Kentucky by her brother in law, Justice Thomas⁸ Todd. The deed executed by his mother in 1772 suggests that Richard⁸ was living with her in Manchester, Chesterfield County, in 1772, and that she had become financially involved through him.
- (3) Thomas⁸ Todd. (Richard⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). Family papers state that he was born in 1765 in King and Queen County. During the closing days of the Revolution he served in the army. He went to Kentucky with the family of Harry Innes about 1784-1786. He took an active part in politics, and held various political and judicial positions. He was appointed by Jefferson, a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, holding this position until his death in 1826. He married twice. His first wife was Elizabeth Harris. He married secondly, Lucy Payne, the widow of Major Steptoe Washington. Justice Todd left issue by both wives.

- (4) Milly⁸ Todd (Richard⁷, William⁶, Thomas⁵). The will of her mother shows that there was a daughter Milly, living and apparently unmarried in 1777.

- iii. Dorothy⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵). She was apparently the eldest daughter of Col. William⁶ Todd and his wife Martha Vicaris. She is known to have married Thomas Edmundson, of Essex, as his first wife. The will of Thomas Edmundson, dated December 26th, 1757, and proved December 19th, 1759, is a very lengthy one. He mentions his sons, James, William and John and his daughters, Judith, Sarah and Dorothy, and refers to his wife Hannah and his sister Elizabeth Hays. The wording of the will indicates that most of his children were under age. Thomas Edmundson married as his second wife Hannah Philips. There is on record in Essex County a marriage contract dated 1749 between Thomas Edmundson, Jr., and Hannah Philips. In this contract provision was made for his four sons, John, William, Thomas and James. He leaves to his son William all the land in Orange County left to his former wife Dorothy by her father Col. William Todd. In his will he provided that his wife Hannah maintain his daughter, Sarah, until she was fourteen years old. Dorothy was almost certainly a child by Dorothy Todd. Of his seven children Judith is the only one whose mother is not certainly known, although it is probable that she was also a child of his first wife, Dorothy⁷. It seems probable from the following evidence that Dorothy⁷ Todd was the widow of a man named Gordon when she married Thomas Edmundson. It will be recalled that the act of October, 1764 (see William⁶ Todd ante), recites that Col. William Todd, under his will dated March 12th, 1736, left a certain tract in Orange County to "his daughters Dorothy and Betty, and to his grandson William Gordon and Richard Barber." As Elizabeth⁷ Todd had a son Richard Barbour, it would seem from the wording of the act that William Gordon was the son of Dorothy⁷. It is interesting to note that Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵), of Maryland, June 18th, 1734, sold land in Essex bounding "on the widow Gordon," which he had inherited from his father (see Thomas ⁶ Todd ante).

- iv. Elizabeth⁷ Todd (William⁶, Thomas⁵). It is stated in Green's History of Culpepper County (Vol. II, p. 135), that James Barbour, 2nd, of Culpepper, married as his first wife, Elizabeth Todd, and had by her one child, a son, Richard, who died without issue, and that he married secondly Sarah Todd, supposed to be a sister of his first wife, leaving by his wife Sarah several children. The phraseology of the act of October, 1764, cited in the last paragraph (see Dorothy⁷ Todd ante) indicates that Betty Todd had married prior to 1736 a man named Barber (Barbour) and had then living at least one child, a son, Richard. There would therefore seem to be little room for doubt that this Elizabeth⁷ Todd married James Barbour, 2nd, and was outlived by her husband. It is therefore difficult to explain the following definite statement by Dr. Charles H. Todd in the William and Mary Quarterly (Vol. XXI, p. 203); "Benjamin Hubbard married Elizabeth Todd, daughter of Major William Todd and Martha Vicaris, of King and Queen * * * their daughter, Ann Hubbard, married Col. James Taylor, and was the mother of General James Taylor, of Newport, Kentucky." Dr. Todd goes on to say that Mrs. Elizabeth (Todd) Hubbard was the sister of Richard⁷ Todd, father of Justice Thomas⁸ Todd, and gives other family details. While it is possible that Elizabeth⁷ Todd married as her first husband Benjamin Hubbard, and as her second James Barbour, it seems more probable to the writer that Dr. Todd may have confused the generations, and that Mrs. Hubbard was the granddaughter of Col. William⁶ Todd, and the daughter of Thomas⁷ (William⁶) or the daughter of William⁸ (Richard⁷, William⁶)—see ante.

7. Philip⁶ Todd. (Thomas⁵ Todd, Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). He was apparently the fourth son of Thomas⁵ Todd and Elizabeth Bernard. He is mentioned in his brother Thomas⁶ Todd's will, 1714. In Spotsylvania County there is a deed dated Sept. 30, 1727, from Philip Todd, of St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen County, for 500 acres patented by him June 30, 1726. No wife joins in this deed (Crozier's Va. Rec. Spotsylvania Co., 100). Again October 7, 1729, William and Martha Todd, of Drysdale Parish, King and Queen County, deed 2000 acres in Spotsylvania to Philip Todd, of St. Stephen's Parish, King and Queen County. (idem. 109). The act of the Virginia Assembly, Nov. 1761, (see ante) breaking the entail of land on Mattaponty River, Drysdale Parish, King and Queen County, recites that Thomas Todd, of Gloucester, by his will dated Mar. 4, 1723, left the above tract to his sons William and Philip equally, with a moiety to their male heirs and cross remainders should either die without heirs. It further recites that Philip Todd died without male issue; the entire tract passed to his brother William, descending to William's oldest son Thomas, and finally to the latter's oldest son, William, the entail in whom the act docks. (Hening's Va. Stat. 7; 483-5). As to whether Philip⁶ Todd married and left female heirs or not, we are left in the dark. That he died before his brother William⁶ is certain.

3. Christopher⁶ Todd. (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorusch). The inscription on his tombstone at Toddsbury states that he was born April 2nd, 1690, and died March 26th, 1743 (Win. & Mary C. Q. 3; 119). From the order in which he is mentioned in the Fontaine MSS he would appear to have been the fifth and youngest son (ante; 25; 89). Christopher⁶ Todd lived at Toddsbury. That the family seat should have passed into the hands of the youngest son seems at first sight rather strange. Sometime prior to his father's death, however, two of Christopher's elder brothers, Thomas⁶ and William⁶, had established themselves elsewhere, the former taking the valuable Maryland estates, and the latter acquiring large property interests in King and Queen, where he became a man of prominence. Of his two other elder brothers, it is known that Philip⁶ died without male issue, and that Richard's⁶ two sons died young. It does not, therefore, seem unnatural that Christopher⁶, who apparently remained at Toddsbury with his father, should have finally come into possession of the place, probably under the terms of his father's will.

Very little is known in regard to Christopher⁶ Todd. His tombstone refers to him as "Capt. Christopher Todd." He married between January 20th, 1718, and September 13th, 1721, Elizabeth, the daughter of Lemuel Mason. The writer is indebted to Mr. W. C. Torrence, of Richmond, for an abstract of a Princess Anne County deed from which this information has been obtained. In this deed, dated September 13, 1721, Christopher Todd, of Gloucester Co., and Elizabeth his wife, one of the daughters of Lemuel Mason, merchant, late of the county of Norfolk, deceased, convey to Lemuel Mason [her brother] all her share of a tract Great Plantation on the west side of Lynnhaven River, late the property of Lemuel Mason, and also her share of an adjoining tract, patented Jan. 20th, 1718 by the said Elizabeth and her sister Tabitha, under the names of Elizabeth and Tabitha Mason. It is thus learned that Elizabeth, the wife of Christopher⁶ Todd, was the daughter of Col. Lemuel Mason, a prominent man in lower Norfolk County. That Lemuel Mason, the younger, was his son, is well known. Owing to the destruction of the Gloucester records we do not know with certainty how many children Christopher⁶ Todd had. From chance sources it is known that he had at least three, viz: Thomas⁷, Lucy⁷ and Mary⁷. The tombstone of Thomas⁷ Todd (1724-1794) at Toddsbury, gives his parentage (see this Thomas⁷ Todd, post). Lucy⁷ Todd married Edward Tabb, we learn from the family records of the Tabbs of Toddsbury (see Lucy⁷ Todd, post). That Elizabeth⁷ Todd married John Wyatt, is learned from Wyatt family records (see Mary⁷ Todd post). There were other individuals bearing the name Todd living in Gloucester County in the latter part of the eighteenth century, who were probably descendants of Christopher⁶ and Elizabeth Todd. If the tradition in the Tabb family is true, that Thomas⁷ Todd, son of Christopher⁶, died without heirs, it seems quite probable that Christopher⁶ and Elizabeth had another son or sons. There was a Christopher Todd*, of Gloucester, who was a student at William and Mary College between 1770 and 1773, probably identical with the Virginia clergyman of the same name, who may well have been a grandson of Christopher⁶ Todd. It also seems possible that Dr. James Todd, whose daughter Catherine, born February 9th, 1750, married 1764 Dr. James Ware, of Gloucester, Va., was a son of Christopher⁶ Todd. (Hayden's Va. Geneal. p. 41). There were also one or two other unidentified individuals in Gloucester County at this date bearing the name Todd, who may possibly belong to this line. When it is remembered that of the five sons of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd, the male descendants of Thomas⁶, Richard⁶ and Philip⁶ are known with absolute certainty, and that the descendants of William⁶, about which there is somewhat less certainty, are largely identified with King and Queen, for the reasons given above the possibility of descent of unidentified individuals in Gloucester bearing names common in the Todd family, from Christopher⁶ must always be kept in mind.

Issue of Christopher⁶ and Elizabeth (Mason) Todd.

- i. Thomas⁷ Todd (Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). His tombstone inscription at Toddsbury reads: Thomas Todd, son of Elizabeth and Christopher Todd. Born November, 1724. Departed this life 18th February, 1794 (Va. Mag. 3; 82). Tradition in the Tabb family states that he died without leaving issue. This may be true, but we really know nothing about him. The tradition that he owned Toddsbury and lived there, does not seem to be open to question. The assumption, however, that because after his death Toddsbury was in the possession of the descendants of his sister Lucy⁷ Tabb, necessarily means that he died without issue, is entirely unjustifiable because of our ignorance of the terms of the will of his father and grandfather disposing of Toddsbury and the abolition of the laws of primogeniture and entail before his death. He may very well have sold Toddsbury to his sister or some of her Tabb descendants prior to his death. Certainly it is entirely unwarranted to assume because Toddsbury passed to the Tabbs, that Thomas⁷ Todd left no heirs, or that he may not have had brothers, who left heirs.

*The Journal of the Meetings of the President and Masters of William and Mary College shows that Mr. Christ'r Todd was admitted as a student January 23rd 1770 and remained enrolled until June 24th 1773 (Wm. & Mary Col. Quart. Vols. xiii-xiv). Dr. Lyon G. Tyler informs the writer that he was enrolled from Gloucester Co. In Fothergill's A List of Emigrant Ministers to America—1690-1811 (p. 59), appears: "Christopher Todd, Virginia, May 9, 1775; Money Book 53-172." It seems highly probable that Christopher Todd after leaving William and Mary, went to England and took orders, returning to Virginia just before the outbreak of the Revolution.

- ii. Lucy⁷ Todd (Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). Her tombstone at Toddsbury reads: Lucy Tabb daughter of Christopher and Elizabeth Todd. Born November 20th 1771. Died February 18th 1791 (Wm. & Mary C. Q. 3; 119). In a sketch of the Tabb family it is stated that Edward Tabb of Gloucester County (son of John Tabb), who was born February 3rd 1719, and died January 29th 1782, married November 11th 1749 Lucy, the daughter of Christopher Todd of Toddsbury. Edward Tabb is buried at Toddsbury, the date of his birth and death being found on his tombstone there. Although buried at Toddsbury, it is not certainly known whether this place, which later belonged to his eldest son Philip⁸ Tabb, was ever actually in the possession of Edward Tabb. The reader is referred to this account of the Tabb family for detailed information in regard to the descendants of Edward and Lucy⁷ (Todd) Tabb. (Wm. & Mary C. Q. 13; 169 et seq.)

Issue of Edward Tabb and his wife Lucy⁷ Todd, (Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵).

- (1) Philip⁸ Tabb (Lucy⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). His tombstone inscription at Toddsbury states that he was born November 6th 1750 and died February 25th, 1822. He lived at Toddsbury, and became the ancestor of the Tabbs of Toddsbury. He married December 7th 1780 Mary Mason Booth, the daughter of Nathaniel Wythe Booth and Elizabeth his wife. They left five children:
- (2) Lucy⁸ Tabb (Lucy⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). Born March 25th 1753. Married Mr. Cary who went to Georgia and left numerous descendants.
- (3) Thomas⁸ Tabb (Lucy⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). Born September 26th 1755.
- (4) Martha⁸ Tabb. (Lucy⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). Born October 21st 1757. Died September 16, 1821. Married Rev. Armistead Smith. They left six children.

Born July 31st 1760. Married John Patterson of "Poplar Grove," Matthews Co. They left descendants.
- (6) Pauline⁸ Tabb (Lucy⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵).
Born 1766. Died April 6th 1794. Married George Wythe Booth, and died without issue.
- iii. Mary⁷ Todd (Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵). In an account of the Wyatt family (Wm. & Mary C. Q. 10; 60) it is stated that there is a Bible record that John Wyatt, born May 15, 1732 and died January 5th 1805 married Mary, the daughter of Capt. Christopher Todd of Toddsbury, and left issue:
 - (1) William E.⁸ Wyatt (Mary⁷ Todd, Christopher⁶, Thomas⁵).
Born 1762. Died September 26th 1802. He was a physician. He married Mary, daughter of John and Elizabeth Graham, February 8th, 1781 and left issue (Wm. & Mary C. Q.; 3; 37, 74.)

9. Anne⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). She is the first daughter of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd enumerated in the Fontaine MSS, (ante p. 39), indicating that she was the eldest daughter, the reference to her merely being: "Anne, who married a Cooke." Her tombstone states specifically that she was the eldest daughter. In Stubb's Descendants of Mordecai Cooke, 1895, and in the William and Mary Quarterly is given the inscription upon her tombstone at Wareham, the old Cooke family seat in Gloucester, which shows that she was born Nov. 9, 1682 and died July 18, 1720. The inscription reads as follows: "Here lieth the body of Mrs. Ann Cooke wife of Mr. John Cooke and eldest daughter of Capt. Thomas and Elizabeth Todd. Born in the Parish of Ware 9th day Nov. 1682. Died July 18, 1720." (See also Wm. & Mary C. Q., 2, 224;.) The following statements are derived entirely from the Stubb's genealogy to which the reader is referred for further information in regard to Anne⁶ (Todd) Cooke's descendants. John Cooke, the son of Mordecai Cooke the founder of the distinguished Cooke family of Virginia, married twice. His first wife was Anne⁶ Todd. He married secondly Mary Smith. Her tombstone, also at Wareham, shows that she was born in Ware Parish Apr. 11, 1691, and died Mar. 15, 1724 and that she was the eldest daughter of John and Elizabeth Smith. Stubbs states by that Anne⁶ Todd, his first wife, John Cooke of Wareham left but one child Mordecai⁷, although no evidence is given to prove that there may not have been other children.

Issue of John Cooke and his wife Anne⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd.)

- i. Mordecai⁷ Cooke (Anne⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born 1708. Died 1751. Married Elizabeth Whiting (born 1713; died 1762). Mordecai⁷ and Elizabeth (Whiting) Cooke left issue. (See Stubb's descendants of Mordecai Cooke.)

10. Lucy⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch.) In enumerating the daughters of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth

(Bernard) Todd, the Fontaine MSS (ante, p. 89) follows the name of Anne⁶ Todd) Cooke immediately with that of: "Lucy, who married first a man named O'Brien; secondly, John Baylor, and became the mother of Col. John Baylor of Caroline." To the writer it seems quite possible, however, if the date of her marriage as given below is correct, that Lucy⁶ was older than Anne⁶. Before the discovery of the Fontaine MSS, it was stated in an account of the Baylor family, written by Dr. John Roy Baylor, of Newmarket, first published in 1857 in Meade's Old Churches and Families in Virginia (see edition 1900; II; 464 et seq.), that it appears from an old paper at Newmarket, the family seat of the Bayers' in Caroline County, that John Baylor of Gloucester County was married to Lucy Tod O'Brien of New Kent in 1698. Apart from the conclusive evidence afforded by these two entirely independent and apparently authentic sources of information based upon old family records, the writer has been unable to secure further corroborative evidence from the public records of this Baylor-Todd marriage. The sketch of the Baylor family in Meade above referred to, gives the issue of John and Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor as two children, Col. John Baylor of Newmarket, born May 12, 1705, "and another whose fortunes we have no means of following. The Essex family of the same name originate here."

The writer has recently had the opportunity of examining a manuscript history of the Baylor family now (1917) in the possession of a Baltimore descendant of Col. John⁷ Baylor of Newmarket, Caroline County, based upon additional notes dictated by Dr. John Roy¹⁰ Baylor, who was fourth in descent from John and Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor. This manuscript reads: "To John Baylor ---- and Lucy his wife, were born three children, John born May 12, 1705, at Walkerton in King William County, another son whose fortunes we have no means of following, and a daughter Frances who tradition says died on her wedding day at the age of seventeen." This family record also states that "John Baylor in 1698 married a widow named O'Brien of New Kent County, whose maiden name was Lucy Tod." (See also the Virginia Magazine VI.; 198, 307, et seq.) It is learned from this source that John Baylor who married Lucy⁶ Todd was the third of that name in Virginia, his father and grandfather having both emigrated to this colony.

John Baylor, 3d, who married Lucy⁶ Todd, was a prominent planter, ship owner and merchant, and amassed a large fortune for that day. He lived first in Gloucester which he represented in the House of Burgesses in 1692, and afterwards in King and Queen which he represented in 1718. (Va. Mag. VI; 198.). The destruction of the records of those counties makes us largely dependent upon family records for information in regard to him and his descendants. There is complete and authentic information in regard to the line of his son Col. John⁷ Baylor, 4th, from whom the Bayers of Newmarket, Caroline County, are descended. (Va. Mag. VI; 197 & 317). Nothing certain is known in regard to the daughter Frances, who is said to have died on her wedding day. There is a record in an old family Bible belonging to the Walker family that John Walker of King and Queen County, married a Miss Baylor of Essex Nov. 1735, and had issue three children, Baylor, Susannah and Elizabeth Walker. (Va. Mag. 4; 358). It is possible she was a daughter of John and Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor. Dr. John Roy Baylor's statement that there was another son who became the founder of what he calls the Essex family of Baylor, brings up a question as to the ancestry of Col. Robert Baylor who was prominent in King and Queen County about the middle of the eighteenth century and whose descendants (i. e., the descendants of his son Gregory) later attained prominence in Essex. Dr. John Roy Baylor while stating that the Essex family was descended from a son of John and Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor, also refers to a tradition that this family descended from another Robert Baylor, an uncle of John Baylor 3d, although this tradition is not credited by him. From a study of the available evidence it appears to the writer most probable that the Robert Baylor of King and Queen from whom the Essex family is descended was the younger son of John Baylor 3d, and his wife Lucy Todd.

JOHN BAYLOR

In addition to tradition, reference in the public records indicate a close connection between the family of Col. John Baylor, 3d, of Newmarket, and that of Col. Robert⁷ Baylor. Col. John⁷ Baylor, 4th, under his will dated February 19, 1770, appoints together with several other "friends," Gregory Baylor [son of Col. Robert Baylor] his executor and the guardian of his younger children (Va. Mag. 24, 237). This Gregory Baylor was also one of the trustees appointed under an act of the Assembly, 1772, to sell certain lands entailed in the heirs of Col. William⁶ Todd, [a brother of Mrs. Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor] (Henning's Va. Stat. 8, 631-5). Robert Baylor and [his wife] Frances were witnesses of a deed, February 5, 1727, under which a tract of land in Spotsylvania County was conveyed to the heirs of Mrs. Elizabeth⁶ (Todd) Moore [who was the sister of Mrs. Lucy⁶ (Todd) Baylor.] (Crozier's Va. Rec.—Spotsylvania Co. 101).

In addition to their son John⁷ and their daughter Frances⁷, upon the above evidence it would seem justifiable to include tentatively among the children of John Baylor and his wife Lucy⁶ Todd, Robert⁷ Baylor of King and Queen County. There does not seem to be sufficient evidence, however, to include as another daughter the "Miss Baylor" who married John Walker in 1735, although it is quite possible that she should come in here. So much has been written in regard to John⁷ Baylor, 4th, of Newmarket and his descendants, that it seems unnecessary to the writer to give more than a brief survey of his line; the reader is referred to an excellent account which has already appeared in this Magazine for further details. (Vol. 6, page 198, et seq.; p. 307 et seq.) As but little has appeared in regard to Robert⁷ Baylor and his descendants, it has seemed advisable, however, to include all the data obtainable in regard to his line, although it must be kept in mind that absolute proof of this Robert's descent is lacking.

Issue of John Baylor and his wife Lucy⁶ (Todd) O'Brien (Thomas⁵ Todd.) (Order uncertain.)

- i. John⁷ Baylor (Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd.) According to the manuscript history of the Baylor family already referred to he was born May 12, 1705 at Walkerton in King William County. He was educated in England at Putney Grammar School and at Caius College, Cambridge, and married at Yorktown, Va., January 2nd 1744, Frances Walker, the daughter of Jacob Walker of Elizabeth City County. In 1726 he moved to "Newmarket" then in King and Queen County, occupying a tract patented by him. In the following year, 1727, Caroline County, was formed, "Newmarket" lying within the bounds of the new county. This John⁷ Baylor, commonly known as Colonel John Baylor was with Washington at Winchester. He represented Caroline County in the House of Burgesses from 1740 to 1765. He is said to have spent his winters in Caroline and his summers in Orange County where he owned a tract of over 30,000 acres. In 1752 he was commissioned Lieutenant of Orange. A portrait painted, when he was a boy of sixteen or seventeen while at school in England, is still in existence. The writer is fortunate in being able to reproduce a photograph of this portrait. Col. Baylor was greatly interested in thoroughbred horses, importing many from England. He died April 6th 1772. His will dated February 19th 1770, proved May 16th, 1772, has been recently published in full in this Magazine (24; 367-373). In this will, which is a lengthy one, the testator, who refers to himself as John Baylor of New Market, disposes of a large estate.

Issue of John⁷ Baylor (Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd) and his wife Frances Walker.

- (1) Courtney⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). She was educated in England at Croyden, Kent. Married Jasper Clayton and had four children viz: (a) Arthur⁹ Clayton who married his cousin Jane Hatley Baylor. (b) Baylor⁹ Clayton. (c) Caroline⁹ Clayton. (d) Courtney⁹ Baylor who married ——— Harris of Nelson Co. Va.
- (2) Lucy⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). She was educated in England. Married John Armistead. Col. George¹⁰ Armistead who distinguished himself in the defense of Fort McHenry when Baltimore was attacked during the War of 1812, was a grandson.
- (3) Frances⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). She was educated in England. Married ——— Nicholson. They are said to have left no issue.

JOHN BAYLOR
1750-1808

- (4) Elizabeth⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). She was educated in England. Unmarried. Is said to have lived to an advanced age.
 - (5) John⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born at Newmarket September 4th 1750. Educated at Putney Grammar School and at Caius College, Cambridge. There is a portrait of him in cap and gown taken while at Cambridge, which is supposed to have been painted by Benjamin West. He inherited "Newmarket." He married while in England, at St. Olave's, London, Frances Norton of London. She was a daughter of Courtney Walker, his mother's sister, and her husband, John Norton. He died Feb. 5, 1808. He left issue (a) John⁹ Baylor who married Maria Roy, daughter of Mongo Roy of Caroline Co. Va. Their descendants own Newmarket. (b) George⁹ Baylor who married Miss Lewis of Warner Hall. From this marriage the Baylors of Petersburg are descended. (c) Lucy⁹ Baylor who married Horace Upshaw. (d) Louisa⁹ Baylor, who married John H. Upshaw. (e) Courtney⁹ Baylor, who married a Miss Fox. (f) Susanna⁹ Baylor who married John Sutton, an Englishman, and had only one son, who died young.
 - (6) George⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born at Newmarket January 12th 1752. He was first aid to Washington at the battle of Trenton. Col. Baylor served throughout the Revolution and commanded a Virginia cavalry regiment bearing his name at the battle of Yorktown. He married May 30, 1778, Lucy, the daughter of Mann Page of Mannsfield near Fredericksburg. They left but one child, John Walker⁹ Baylor who had several daughters. Col. George⁸ Baylor died in the Barbadoes 1784.
 - (7) Walker⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). He was a captain in the Revolution and was wounded at Germantown or Brandywine. He married Jane, the daughter of Joseph Bledsoe and left several descendants.
 - (8) Robert⁸ Baylor (John⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). He married Miss Gwynne of Gwynne's Island.
- ii. Robert Baylor⁷. (Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd.) On the above evidence (see Lucy⁶ Todd, ante) he is believed to be the son of John and Lucy (Todd) Baylor. He appears first Sept. 10, 1727, when a tract of land in Spotsylvania County is described as adjoining the land of Robert Baylor and Richard Gregory, and again October 5, 1731, describing himself as of King and Queen County, as the purchaser with William Lea of land in Spotsylvania County. (Crozier's Va. Rec.—Spotsylvania Co. 100, 120). Robert⁸ Baylor was a Justice of King and Queen County 1727 (Wm. & Mary C. Q. 22; 54). It would seem from the following evidence that he married twice and had at least five children. He is generally referred to as Col. Robert Baylor. It is stated in an account of the Morton family that George Morton, a Justice of King and Queen, who was born August 17, 1717, and whose will was dated July 8th, 1765, married October 23rd 1742, Lucy, the daughter of Robert and Frances Baylor (see Lucy⁸ Baylor post; also Va. Mag. 11; 340; 17; 313). In an account of the Brooke family, based on family documents, are traced the descendants of a Dr. Robert Baylor, who is stated to have been the son of Col. Robert Baylor and his wife Hannah Gregory, the daughter of Richard Gregory, an Englishman, and it is also stated here that this Dr. Robert Baylor married "Mary or Ann Whiting" (Va. Mag. 16; 103.) It would also appear from this same sketch of the Brooke family, that this Dr. Robert Baylor was probably born some time prior to 1728, as one of his children, Frances, is said to have been born in 1749. It is also stated in this same account that Col. Robert Baylor had a daughter Frances, who married Col. Humphrey Hill. The Spotsylvania County records show that [Dr.] Robert Baylor [the son of Col. Robert⁷] at the time of his death [which occurred about 1761] was possessed of two tracts of land which had descended to him from his brother Richard Baylor (Crozier's Va. Rec.—Spotsylvania Co.; 221, 226, 267). Gregory Baylor is generally stated to have been another son of Col. Robert Baylor, nor is this to be questioned. He was of course named for his mother Hannah Gregory. Gregory Baylor and his wife Mary of King and Queen County and [his brother Dr.] Robert Baylor and his wife Molly of King and Queen, June 2nd 1760, jointly convey 1000 acres, in Spotsylvania Co. to Henry Chiles (idem. 215), [which they had apparently inherited jointly]. Gregory Baylor and George Brooke were executors under the will of [Dr.] Robert Baylor, died about 1761, as shown by a Spotsylvania deed, April 13, 1769 (idem 267.).

The above evidence seems to show that Col. Robert⁷ Baylor had two wives: (1) Frances ———. Could this have been the Frances Baylor who witnessed a Spotsylvania deed February 5, 1727? (idem 101): (2) Hannah Gregory, the daughter of Richard Gregory. Of Col. Robert⁷ Baylor's children, Lucy⁸, probably named for his mother Lucy⁶ Todd, is definitely stated to be a child of his wife Frances. It also seems probable that his other daughter Frances⁸ was a child of his wife by the same name. His son Robert⁸ is stated to have been a child of Hannah Gregory. His son Gregory⁸ was almost certainly a child of Hannah, and it also seems most probable that Richard⁸ was a child of Hannah and named for his grandfather Richard Gregory. Col. Robert⁷ Baylor may also have had other children.

Issue of Robert⁷ Baylor (Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd) and his 1st wife Frances (order uncertain).

- (1) Lucy⁸ Baylor (Robert⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Probably born before 1725. Married October 23 1742. George Morton, a Justice of the peace of King George County, Virginia. His will was dated July 8th 1765. Issue (a) John⁹ (b) George⁹ (c) Robert⁹ (d) Joseph⁹ (e) Frances⁹ married ——— Hedgeman (Va. Mag. 17, 313).
- (2) Frances⁸ Baylor (Robert⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Married Col. Humphrey Hill. Had issue at least one child, Col. Edward⁹ Hill, who married his first cousin, Frances⁹ Baylor, the daughter of Dr. Robert⁸ Baylor and Molly Brooke, his wife. (Va. Mag. 16, 103).

Issue of Robert⁷ Baylor (Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd) and his 2nd wife Hannah Gregory (order uncertain).

- (3) Robert⁸ Baylor (Robert⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born about 1728. Died between July 29, 1760, when he purchased land in Spotsylvania County (Crozier's Va. Rec.; Spotsylvania Co.; 221), and April 6th, 1762, when John Semple refers to himself in a deed as the surviving partner of Robert Baylor, gentleman, deceased (idem 226). He is also referred to as Dr. Robert Baylor. In both these deeds he is referred to as of King and Queen County. There is a reference in the Spotsylvania records in a deed, April 13, 1769, to a decree in a King and Queen County suit against John Baylor, son and heir of Robert Baylor, deceased, Gregory Baylor, and George Brooke, executors of the said Robert Baylor, late of King and Queen County, gentleman, deceased, defendants, which recites that Robert Baylor was in his life time possessed of two tracts in Spotsylvania which had descended to him from his brother Richard Baylor, deceased, and that Robert Baylor in his will had directed this land to be sold by his executors, viz: his wife Molly (who had renounced), Gregory Baylor and George Brooke. It is recited that the plaintiffs are Molly Baylor, wife of Robert, and Frances Baylor, Molly Baylor, Elizabeth Baylor, Hannah Baylor and Ann Baylor, the younger children of Robert Baylor deceased (idem. 267).

The writer on the Brooke family states that Dr. Robert⁸ Baylor married Mollie Brooke, a daughter of Humphrey Brooke, Sr. of King William County, and his wife Elizabeth Braxton, and had issue John, Mollie, Ann and Frances in regard to whom the details found below are given. This writer states that the daughter Mollie was born in 1748, placing the date of Dr. Robert Baylor's marriage some time prior to this. (Va. Mag. 16; 103). From the Spotsylvania deed and the Brooke family data, we have the following in regard to the issue of Robert⁸ and Mollie (Brooke) Baylor; (a) John⁹ Baylor. Captain in Col. George⁸ Baylor's (John⁷ Baylor) Regiment of Horse, 1780. Apparently unmarried. Tradition says that he was killed in action. (b) Frances⁹ Baylor. Born 1748; died April 10th, 1802; married her first cousin Col. Edward⁹ Hill, son of Col. Humphrey Hill and her aunt Frances⁸ (Baylor) Hill.—(See Courtney's Hill Family of Virginia.) (c) Mary⁹ ("Mollie") Baylor. Born about 1747, died August 7th, 1820; married Col. Benjamin Temple, son of Joseph and Ann (Arnold) Temple and left descendants (Va. Mag. 18; 89). (d) Elizabeth⁹ Baylor. (e) Hannah⁹ Baylor (f) Ann⁹ Baylor married Sep. 30, 1774, Temple Gwathney of King and Queen County, son of Owen and Hannah Gwathney, and left numerous descendants (idem. 16; 213).

- (4) Gregory⁸ Baylor. (Robert⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd.) Lived in King and Queen County. Married before 1760 Mary (or Maria) Whiting. Gregory Baylor and his wife Mary, June 2nd 1760, jointly with Robert Baylor and his wife Molly, executed a Spotsylvania Co. deed (See Robert⁷ Baylor ante). In a genealogy of the Robinson family it is stated that Lucy⁹ the daughter of Gregory Baylor and his wife Mary Whiting, married May 10th 1788 John Robinson of King William Co. Va., the son of Henry Robinson, and left numerous children. (Va. Mag. 18; 419.) In addition to (a) Lucy⁹, there appears to have been at least four other children of Gregory Baylor viz: (b) William⁹, (c) Richard⁹, (d) Elizabeth⁹ and (e) Robert⁹ Baylor. The names of the first three were learned from a letter, seen by the writer, dated September 14th 1894, from the late William L. Wilson of Virginia to Dr. John Roy Baylor. Mr. Wilson writes that he is a grandson of Elizabeth Baylor, the daughter of Gregory Baylor, who married William Lyne, Jr. of King and Queen. He also states that his grandmother had two brothers, William Baylor who married a (Lowry?), and Col. Richard Baylor who married (Mrs.?) Garnett, and that they both lived in Jefferson. The manuscript history of the "Newmarket" Baylors states that Gregory⁸ Baylor had a son Robert⁹ Baylor who married twice and that it was from this Robert Baylor that the Baylors of Kinloch, Essex Co. Va. sprung.

- (5) Richard⁸ Baylor. (Robert⁷ Baylor; Lucy⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Living November 1st, 1748, when Robert Stubbsfield and Ann his wife conveyed to Richard Baylor of King and Queen County merchant, four hundred acres in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County. (Crozier's Va. Rec.—Spotsylvania Co.; 179). This may be one of the tracts which the heirs of his brother Robert Baylor conveyed April 13th 1769, the deed reciting that the land had descended to Robert Baylor from his brother, Richard Baylor (idem; 267 & see Robert⁸ Baylor ante). It would appear from this that Richard Baylor⁸ probably died unmarried. Nothing further is known in regard to him.

Edmund Rossingham of London, gentleman, plaintiff,

v.

[Abstract.] Bill dated 1 March 1629-30.

The plaintiff shews that he was persuaded by Sir George Yardley to adventure with him into Virginia, when the said Sir George was governor of that plantation. He went the more willingly because the said Sir George was then married to the sister of the plaintiff's mother. He made many journeys into England, Holland & elsewhere on Sir George's behalf, and also left with Sir George in Virginia a stock of cattle which were of the proper goods of the plaintiff, for all of which he ought to have received £400 at least. Nothing was paid during the lifetime of Sir George Yardley, & after his death about three years ago in Virginia, administration of his estate was granted to his brother, the defendant. He utterly declines to make any payment to the plaintiff for the said debt. The plaintiff thereupon applied to the Privy Council and was awarded £200 out of Sir George's estate, which sum the defendant utterly refuses to pay. He prays that a writ of subpoena may be directed to the said Ralph Yardley.

Answer dated 10 March 1629-30.

The defendant believes that Sir George Yardley married the sister of the plaintiff's mother, but he does not think that he was persuaded by Sir George to go to Virginia to assist him in his affairs, but that he went there in the hope of advancing himself by his own endeavours. He believes that Sir George employed the plaintiff to sell his tobacco in Holland, but he has often heard Sir George complain that he had very much prejudiced him in that employment. The plaintiff told this defendant that Sir George had paid him £100 for his pains. He does not know that the plaintiff ever left any stock of cattle in Virginia with Sir George, but about Christmas 1625, Sir George being then in this defendant's house in London he heard the pltf. superficially ask Sir George how his stock did in Virginia, who said that he had been informed that his cow had a calf. Whereupon, the plaintiff being then indebted to this defendant seven pounds for lodging & physic, & estimating that the calf might be worth so much, he entreated Sir George to pay this defendant the said debt in lieu thereof, which he did, though he then affirmed that he would by no means have meddled therewith had it not been that this defendant was his brother. The defendant knows of the order made by the Privy Council, but before the said order was entered he petitioned to inform the Council of the equity of the cause on behalf of Sir George's children—Argoll, Francis & Elizabeth Yardley, and it was agreed between him & the plaintiff that the plaintiff should prefer his bill into this Court. If the plaintiff can prove that the money is really owing to him, the defendant will pay it to his uttermost ability.

Edmond Rossingham of the Inner Temple, London, gentleman, plaintiff,

v.

Thomas Knevelt of Ashfield Thorpe co. Norfolk, esquire, defendant.

[Abstract.] Bill dated————— 1640.

The plaintiff shows that in or about the year 1580 Anthony Flowerdewe late of Hethersett, co. Norfolk esq, and Martha his wife were seized in their demense as of freehold for the term only of their natural lives, and the life of the longer liver of them, the reversion or remainder expectant to the first son of the said Anthony and to the heirs male of such first son, and for want of such issue to the heirs of the body of the said Anthony and for want of such issue then to the right heirs of the said Anthony, of or in one capital messuage called Thickethorne and divers other lands, woods, etc., containing about 400 acres being in the town & parish of Hethersett aforesaid. The aforesaid Anthony & Martha his wife are both dead, and Stanley Flowerdewe the only son of the said Anthony is dead also without direct heirs, so that the aforesaid messuage & lands ought to descend to the plaintiff by virtue of the said entail in remainder upon the aforesaid Anthiny Flowerdewe and the heirs of his body, he being son & heir of Marie Rossingham the wife of Dyonis Rossingham, gentleman, and daughter & heir of the said Anthony Flowerdewe. The plaintiff further shows that Edward Flowerdewe of Stanfield co. Norfolk, formerly one of the Barons of the Exchequer, being a near kinsman of the said Anthony was entrusted by him with all the deeds, court rolls & evidences concerning the premises and concerning other lands belonging to the said Anthony, for want of which deeds the plaintiff although heir in tail to the said messuage & premises, being now out of possession, is entirely prevented from recovering the same. All the said deeds & evidences have come into the hands of the defendant, whose grandfather Sir Thomas Knevet was executor to the said Edward Flowerdewe to whom they had been entrusted by the said Anthony.

Answer dated the 27th November 1640.

The defendant says that he does not know of what lands the plaintiff was seised, or whether he is heir to the said messuage & lands. Neither does he know whether his grandfather was executor to Baron Flowerdewe, or if the said Baron was entrusted by Anthony Flowerdewe with his deeds. But this defendant has in his custody divers evidences & deeds which were in the custody of his grandfather Sir Thomas Knevet concerning the premises named in the bill, and he believes they formerly belonged to the Flowerdews. He is quite willing to deliver the said deeds to the plaintiff, as he thinks they may be of much advantage to him in clearing his title to the premises in case he shall prove to be the heir as is alleged in the bill.

Will of Richard Hynde, of St. Saviour's, Southwark, citizen & salter of London, dated 26 November 1625.

[Abstract]

I bequeath to my sons John, Richard & William Hynde £40 each. I give the residue of my goods to my wife Anne.

Executrix. My wife Anne.

Overseers. My friends, Stephen Streete of London, grocer, and Ralph Yardley, of London, apothecary.

Witnesses. Nicholas Kinge, Peter Newsam, scrivener.

Part IV. P. 3048.

Claimant on the Estate of Francis Yardley. 22 Sept. 1652. Ralph Yardley, citizen of London, begs the benefit of the Act of Pardon. In 1614, had £560 belonging to Francis Yardley of Virginia, which he paid him at Christmas 1614 and got his discharge. The late Commissioners at Camden House, on false information of delinquency against Yardley, sent for petitioner to stop the said money in his hands; on answering that it was paid, he was dismissed, but lately the present Commissioners of London sitting at the Wardrobe have required him to pay it, alleging that it was stopped in his hands, as appears by an entry in the late Committee's books. Well remembers that he was not summoned before the said Committee till after the money was paid. Begs relief, no delinquency being proved against the said Francis Yardley.

22 Sept. Discharged accordingly.

WILL OF SAMUEL ARGALL, OF LONDON, KNIGHT, Dated 23 May 1625.

"Being now prest to serve his Majesty in a voyage intended by sea," I bequeath to my three sisters, Lady Filmer, my sister Batherst & Lady Fleetwood, £20 each. I bequeath to Anne wife of Samuel Percivall of London, chandler, £100. To my niece Sara Filmer, my nephews Samuel Batherst & Sir Robert Filmer's son, & my niece Katherine Barham's son, £10 each. To my friend Richard Fowler, £100. To the master & Fraternity of Trinity House, whereof I am a brother, a piece of plate with my name & arms upon it. To my friend Nicholas Hawes £100 & my sword. To Judeth Buckhurst widow of Thomas Buckhurst, late of Stapelherst co. Kent, gent., £40 a year to be paid out of my capital messuage & lands called Lowhall in Walthamstowe co. Essex, with other bequests. As I am to pay my sister Lady Argall £45 yearly out of my manor of Lowhall, I will that it shall be paid out of the lands leased to John Benfielder. I bequeath to Dorothy Buckhurst, one of the daughters of Judeth Buckhurst, & to her direct heirs, certain of my lands & tenements parcel of the demense lands of the said manor of Lowhall; and to Anne Buckhurst another daughter of the said Judeth, other lands & tenements parcel of the said manor. I bequeath to my nephew & godson Samuel Argall, son of my brother John Argall esq, & to his heirs, the manor of Lawehall & the rest of the demense thereof, & all other my lands & tenements whatsoever & wheresoever; the said Samuel is under the age of 21. I am bound to pay my brother John Argall £500, at the death of my sister the Lady Argall. I give to the aforesaid Anne Percivall all my lands, tenements & goods in Virginia. I bequeath £10 to the poor of East Sutton co. Kent to be distributed by my brother in law Sir Edward Filmer; & £10 to the poor of Walthamstowe. To my servant John Carter £20. To Josias Wroth who now attends upon me £30. To my brother in law Edmond Randolph esq. £20.

Executors. My brother John Argall & my friend Nicholas Hawes. If they shall not perform my will within one year, after my death, then I appoint the said Edmonde Randolph & Edward Batherst brother to Judith Buckhurst aforesaid, to be my executors.

. Proved on the 21st of March 1625-6 by Nicholas Hawes. Power reserved to John Argall. P. C. C. 69 Hale.

JOHNSON OF KING AND QUEEN, LOUISA, &c.

The first of this family in Virginia was

1. Col. Richard¹ Johnson, of Bilsby, Lincolnshire, England, who came to Virginia and settled in what is now King and Queen County. The exact year of his arrival in Virginia is unknown; but in 1679, as "Capt. Richard Johnson" he was living in New Kent (from which King and Queen was formed). In 1680 he was J. P. for New Kent and Captain of horse in the militia (Va. Mag. I, 248). He was appointed to the Council in 1696 and died in 1698. As the records of New Kent and King and Queen have been destroyed, but few details can be learned in regard to him. He evidently bought land from private owners as he owned much more than that embraced in his one patent. This, dated, Oct. 25, 1695, and, for some reason unknown, surrendered Oct. 15, 1696, granted to Col. Richard Johnson 3285 acres in King and Queen Co.; in Pamunkey Neck (now King William Co.) The head-rights were: Richard Johnson, Jane Johnson, Richard Johnson, Susanne Johnson, &c. These evidently included Col. Johnson and his children and probably his wife.

In the absence of contemporary records it is difficult to speak positively as to his marriages. Richard Chapman, also a Lincolnshire man, who came to Virginia and married Col. Johnson's grand daughter, says, in a letter and memorandum book still extant, that Richard Johnson married a lady in England and by her had a daughter Judith, who was educated at a boarding school in Lincoln, and who, about 1700, married Sir Hardoff Wastneys. This is confirmed by Burke's "Extinct & Dormant Baronetage," which says that Sir Hardoff Wastneys married Judith, daughter and heir of Col. Richard Johnson of Bilsby.

Richard Chapman farther says that Col. Johnson came to Virginia, and by a later marriage had several sons and daughters. He intimates that there was some irregularity about this marriage. What was its nature does not appear and probably will never be known. At Old Church, King and Queen County, is a tomb with the following epitaph:

"Here
 Lyeth Interred ye Body Of Susana
 Daughter Of Wm. Duncomb Of Holbeach In Ye County of Lincoln. Esq. and Wife Of Collo. Richard Johnson
 Esq. Who Departed This Life Much Lamented The 8th of August Anno Domini 1686, Aged Twenty-Two Years and Three Months."

Susanna Duncomb could not well have been the mother of Col. Johnson's three sons. That there was some irregularity in the marriage with the mother of one of them is indicated by an act of Assembly (Hening V, 114, &c), which recites that Richard Johnson Esq., late of King and Queen Co, by his will dated April 8, 1698, left to "one Thomas Johnson" a tract of land, 750 acres in the parish of St. John, King William Co., describing it as all his land in Pamunkey Neck, and also left divers lands and hereditaments to Richard and William Johnson, brothers of the said Thos. Johnson. In those days of strict adherence to legal technicalities it was no doubt deemed best not to leave any weak point in an act docking an entail.

BOOK REVIEWS.

THE LIFE OF JOHN MARSHALL. VOLUME ONE, 1755-1788; VOLUME TWO, 1789-1801. BY ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE. Houghton, Mifflin Co, Boston and New York. 1917.

Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge's Life of John Marshall deserves much more than the average comment passed on historical works, for it is a book of singular importance. Many accounts have been given of the formative period of American history—that is from 1787 to 1833—but it is safe to say that Mr. Beveridge's volumes will compel a re-treatment of the whole subject.

American history has been more written about than written. Until a short time ago the underlying meaning of our history was little apprehended; this is so true that even such a scholarly and admirable work as James Ford Rhodes' "History of the United States," finished recently, too, seems already almost out of date. Now that the fog of war, the battle smoke of the Confederate conflict, has finally dispersed, we are beginning to find our historical bearings. We are on scientific ground at last.

This fact is evident from the rapidly dwindling importance of the slavery issue in the narrative of American life; we see now, as we could not see before, that slavery was but a surface phenomenon instead of a deeply moving cause. The figures that strut and fret their hour on every stage are fast falling into oblivion; the vital few are at last emerging in their true proportions. Thus we see that Thomas Jefferson is incomparably the greatest figure in American history. Nay more—he is the founder of Americanism as we understand it. That Jefferson was right in his main dogmas almost the whole world now acknowledges; his philosophy is held up as the force that moves the Allies in the present war. Where are the opponents of Jefferson—those who maintained that the people are not to be trusted with power, that government is the function of a specially prepared class?

But it should be remembered that Jefferson taught two great doctrines, which came to have somewhat divergent tendencies—Democracy and States' Rights. In Jefferson's own South, after the dwindling of his immediate influence, Democracy steadily lessened as States' Rights grew, until finally the Southern nation came into existence. Our so-called Civil War was in reality a struggle of two nations joined in a dual republic, and it ended in the defeat of the smaller nation and its incorporation in the larger. States' Rights, the means by which the smaller nation had conserved its position in the Confederacy, ended in utter ruin, but Democracy, which Jefferson exemplified with matchless power, continues profoundly to influence the world in which we live today.

John Marshall was Jefferson's great antagonist. This was realized to a certain extent before the publication of Senator Beveridge's book, but the book has clearly and powerfully presented the fact to the world. The rivalry of Jefferson and Marshall is the main theme in American history; the two men are the Ormuzd and Ahriman of our politics; their duel is our drama. When Story wrote his Constitutional Law, when Webster spoke in thundering tones for the "Union, one and inseparable," when Lincoln used armed force against the seceded States, they one and all aided in carrying to its logical conclusion the life-work of John Marshall.

Marshall's early career and political associations bred in him a hatred of Jefferson's easy-going democracy and a liking for strong government. He was anti-states' rights, a nationalist, a centralizer, an opponent of political localism in any form. When he became Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in 1801, he had already formed certain political conceptions which were at variance with the terms of the Constitution and the spirit of the American people. His position as a mere interpreter of the law might have seemed powerless, but Marshall possessed one of the most masterful wills in history. By imagination, by initiative, by audacity almost unequalled, by crystalline and forceful reasoning, Marshall altered the Constitution and the destinies of the American people. If Adams had not made him Chief Justice in the closing period of his reign—if Jefferson could have appointed Spencer Roane instead—American history must have been greatly different from what it is. In almost all of the great stresses of history the Bench has bowed to the executive will or to popular opinion, but it was all otherwise with Marshall. Wholly out of sympathy with executive and legislature, he nevertheless molded the law as he saw fit; Jefferson and Jefferson's Congress were unable to prevail over him.

It thus happened that Marshall transformed the whole scheme of our Union as a Confederation of States having certain definite powers of sovereignty; and when the break came in 1861, it was evident that his ideas had become the ideas of a great majority of the American people. The Southerners, in spite of their far stronger historical case, saw the right of secession denied as "treason" by the millions who had come under Marshall's sway.

It is not too much to say that Mr. Beveridge has made Marshall a great historical personage—has put him in his proper niche in history. And besides he has performed the much more difficult task of transforming the legal oracle into a human being. With rare skill he turns the lining of Marshall's life and shows us the backwoods boy, the soldier, the poetic lover, the man of the world, the politician, and, finally, the statesman. The two volumes which are yet to come will depict the judge, whose decisions have had a greater effect on the life of mankind than those of any other justiciar. The work is done with a rigidity and depth of research never surpassed in our history-writing. Indeed Mr. Beveridge deserves great credit for his mastery of the tools of historical research; it is not often that a man who has passed years in active public life is able to enter so difficult a field as history-writing and beat the professors at their own game.

There can be no doubt that Mr. Beveridge ranks with the first American historians. This is true not only as regards research, but also in the equally important matter of expression. He understands the art as well as the science of history writing. The whole school of American historians might profitably learn from him. We have done a good deal in this country to advance historical research, but American historians know little of the art of history-writing. Our university monographs invite yawns for their prosiness as much as they compel admiration for their learning. But we read Senator Beveridge's pleasant pages with enjoyment as well as increase of knowledge.

American biography is most particularly afflicted with tiresomeness. Our biographies are frequently monumental in their learning, but they commonly err either in overwhelming the hero with the scenery and stage accessories, or else in dwarfing the world by expanding the dressing-room details of the hero's life. The latter is much the method of Nicolay and Hay's Life of Lincoln, which is sometimes referred to as the great American biography. It is in size.

As a matter of fact there are only two American biographies in which exhaustive research is combined with genuine literary art. One is Mr. Villard's remarkable book on John Brown, and the other is Mr. Beveridge's Marshall. But Mr. Villard labors under the extreme disadvantage of having selected an unworthy object for his labors. After the long lapse of years John Brown has shrunk in popular interest as Rider Haggard's occult character of She shrinks in the fire of eternal life. John Brown is seen today as but one of those small and accidental personages which derive their whole importance from a brief connection with mighty events.

Mr. Beveridge, on the other hand, has selected a cause instead of an occasion. He has taken as a theme the man who is responsible, more than any one else, for the consolidated nation of our times. And he has drawn his portrait in the grand style. The whole life of the American people in those fateful last years of the eighteenth century is thrown on the canvas with a wealth of detail and a splendor of color which no other American historian has quite managed to equal. Professor McMaster has worked in the same field, but no great character dominates McMaster's narrative as Marshall dominates the present work. In fact Mr. Beveridge has performed a rare literary feat—he has presented the history of a period without overshadowing the man. If anything, Marshall stands out the clearer for the vast and vivid background behind him. The effect is that of one of Henry Irving's great productions of Shakespearian masterpieces, when the actor moved amidst splendid stage settings but nevertheless was always the center of the scene.

There can be no doubt that the Life of John Marshall will speedily take its place as one of the finest classics in our historical literature. Mr. Beveridge has succeeded in writing a great book.

CONFEDERATE LITERATURE.—A LIST OF BOOKS AND NEWSPAPERS, MAPS, MUSIC, AND MISCELLANEOUS MATTER PRINTED IN THE SOUTH DURING THE CONFEDERACY, NOW IN THE BOSTON ATHENAEUM. Prepared by Charles N. Baxter and James M. Dearborn, with an introduction by James Ford Rhodes. Printed from the income of the Robert Charles Billings Fund. The Boston Athenaeum. 1917. 213 pp.

At the close of the War Between the States, the trustees of the Boston Athenaeum authorized their Committee on Library to make a special effort to collect Confederate literature. Through representatives of this committee who came to Richmond soon after its capture, and through correspondents in different parts of the South, a large collection was brought together, containing not only the official documents of the Confederate Government, and of the several States, but also tracts, music, maps, broadsides, newspapers and periodicals, and books of a miscellaneous character printed in Southern cities during the period of the war. The collection is representative of the politics, the religion and the education of the South in the four years of war, and is well worthy such a volume as this, printed in a superior manner on excellent paper, with large type and with a generous spacing of titles. The transcription and proofreading of titles have been done with unusual accuracy. In the arrangement adopted there is some room for difference of opinion. It would have been more in keeping with historical bibliography of this nature to have placed the titles of the provisional congress of the Confederate States before, instead of after the titles of the permanent congress. The use of the two terms Department of Justice, and Judiciary Department for the same bureau is confusing (pp. 16, 17). In the list of Virginia publications on page 71 appears "Documents Called Session, 1864," and on page 72 "Documents, Session of 1864-65." A note to the effect that these documents belong to one and the same session would have prevented some misunderstanding; one group is a list of House documents, and the other of Senate documents of the same session. In this connection, it is well to observe that there is in the Boston Athenaeum, the largest collection of documents of the session of 1864-65, of which the reviewer knows; this session adjourned a short time before the capture of the city, and some of the documents may never have been printed, or if printed, the supply burned in the general destruction of the city below Main street. No laws of this session are known to be extant, either in printed or manuscript form; nor is any Senate Journal known, and the only fragment of the House Journal known is that listed on p. 75, containing 96 pages.

The index has been prepared with care and adds much of value to the book. It is to be regretted, however, in so comprehensive a bibliography as this, printed in such permanent and serviceable form, that the titles were not numbered consecutively, and the references in the index made to such numbers, instead of pages. This would have been in keeping with the best modern bibliographical practice. Few readers will disagree with the writer of the introduction, Mr. James Ford Rhodes, in his unsympathetic attitude toward those historical students who struggle with manuscript sources, when the identical material is in accessible printed form. There would perhaps be fewer of such misguided students, if libraries having special collections of books, would follow the example of the Boston Athenaeum, and print their titles in as attractive and useful a form as the volume under review.

SIX ADDRESSES ON THE STATE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE IN VIRGINIA.

EDITED BY A. J. MERRIMAN. The Stone Printing and Manufacturing Co., Roanoke, Va. 1917.

The addresses were in most instances delivered before the Literary and Philosophical Society of Hampden-Sidney College between the dates 1824 and 1835. They were made by Jonathan P. Cushing, John Holt Rice, William Maxwell, Jesse Burton Harrison, James Mercer Garnett and Lucian Minor. All of them throw interesting light on the state of education in Virginia in the second quarter of the nineteenth century, and that of John Holt Rice is particularly important and should be read by every person interested in Virginia history. Dr. Rice was among the ablest men that have lived in Virginia—a spiritual and intellectual leader of great force. What he has to say by way of observation carries the weight of a singularly strong and ardent mind.

The editor, Dr. Morrison, has left nothing to be wished in his presentation of the addresses; he is indeed an inspired editor. Within the compass of a comparatively few pages, a deal of information about Hampden-Sidney College and the personalities of the speakers is given. The trustees of Union Theological Seminary should commission Dr. Morrison to write a life of John Holt Rice. No man is better fitted for the task than Dr. Morrison, and few Virginians are more deserving of a really authoritative biography than Dr. Rice.

(6) Here as elsewhere in the early records the name of this place is written "Newport's News." The conjectures as to the name being "Newport Ness" are without foundation. Maurice Thompson, an eminent London merchant, lived for some time in Virginia. See this Magazine, I, 188 &c.

Y't is ordered y't James Parker for y't he hath been heertofore a well wisher to this colony in bringinge in necessarie comodities and servants into this country as also that he hath p'mised to continew the like his love and affection to this colony shall have his freedome granted him.

Y't is ordered y't John Southern shall have for ye Transportation of a man servant in the George ano domini 1622 named William Soane shall have fyftie acres of lande to be taken upp in any place not already taken upp, Provided y't he plant uppon the same w'thin this seaven yeeres next ensueinge the date heerof w'ch land tenm acres therof is to be taken up in James Cyttie Island & 40 acres at Blunt poynte. Abraham Porter(7) sworne and examined sayeth y't he cam to serve Mr. Buck in December ano d'moni 1622 and sayeth after this defendants cominge to Mr Buck's service John Dyers did drench Mr Bucks cattle, Mr Buck beinge then livinge

Y't is ordered y't Mr Richard Kingsmill(18) overseer to Mr Buck's will, shall pay to S'r francis Wyatt, knight, governor, fortie shillings lawfull english money for a dept dewe to John Dyers from Mr Buck, deceased

[247—duplicated no.]

A Courte held the VIIIth day of May 1626, beinge present S'r francis Wyatt, knight, governor, Capt. francis West, Capt. Roger Smith, Capt Samuel Matthews, Mr William Cleybourne.

(7) Abraham Porter, aged 36, a servant of Peter Langman, lived at James City 1624-5.

(8) For note on Richard Kingsmill see this Magazine, XIX, 233, 234.

Whereas Mr Henry Southey(9) arrived in this countrey on the good shipp caled the Southampton Ano domini 1622 w'th his wiefe and six children and tenn servants y't is ordered y't his heyre Henry Southey shall have nyne hundred acres of lande and to be taken in any place (not already chosen and taken up) w'th the aprobaton of the Governor and Counsell. Whereas Thomas Carter(10) an old Planter hath assigned one hundred & fiftie acres of land to Mr Richard Kingswell and his heyres, y't is ordered y't the hundred acres of land dewe to the said Carter for his p'sonall adventure beinge and old planter shall remain to the said Mr Richard Kingsmill & his heyres, as also one hundred acres of land more made over unto him by Capt. Ralph Hamor by an order of Courte dated the xxiiith of January 1624 w'ch said two hundred acres of lande ye said Richard Kingsmill & his heyres shall have added to his f'former Pattent of three hundred acres laide owt and begin to be planted by him at Archers Hope Provided that he seate and plant uppon the same betwixt this and the yeere of our Lorde God 1630, or also y't it may be free for any other to take upp the said two hundred acres

(9) At a meeting of the Virginia Company, Jan. 16, 1621, it was stated that one Mr. Henry Southey, a Somersetshire gentleman, desired a patent for a plantation in Virginia, to him and his associates, undertaking to transport one hundred persons thither (having sent some already.) On Jan. 21, the patent was granted to "Henry Southey of Rompton, Somersetshire." The Virginia diseases almost extinguished his family. In Feb., 1623, "Mrs. Sothey" and "Ann Sothey" lived at James City. And at the same time it was stated that Henry, Thomas, Mary, and Elizabeth Sothey had died since April, 1622-3. At the Census of 1624-5 Mrs. Elizabeth Sothey and her daughter Ann were living at James City. The daughter Ann married first Charles Harmer and secondly Nathaniel Littleton. See this Magazine, XVIII, 20, 21.

(10) This is another instance of omission from the Census of 1624-5. An "old planter," he must have come in or before the time of Sir Thomas Dale." Thos. Carter living in Virginia before and after the Census does not appear in it.

Y't is ordered y't Sara Maycock(11) for fower servants brought over in the Abigaill 1622 uppon the accompt of Mr Samuell Maycock shall have two hundred acres of lande to be taken upp by her in any place not formerly taken upp.

John Southern sworne and examined sayeth y't John Dyers now deceased came unto him for to make him this deponent and requested him for to make him a bill for fortie six shillings eight pence w'ch Mr Richard Buck, minister, deceased, did owe him, at whose request this deponent did wright the said bill for him, And further this deponent sayeth y't John Dyers when he had the Bill went w'th it to Mr Bucks to have his hande unto it, & presently after the said John Dyers came backe again to this dep'ts howse and then requested him to keepe the said bill untill he cam to Towne againe, sayinge y't he had come at Mr Buck's howse but could not speake w'th him

John Jacksone beinge one of the Gardians of Mr Buck's children affirmeth y't he hath seen the said John Tyers about Mr Bucks cattle pown [pound] but what worke he did unto them he knoweth not, but he well knoweth y't he was one that did drench and looke to cattle about the Towne, & further he sayeth y't he herde Mary Landrum saye y't she herde John Dyers say y't Mr Buck did owe him some money.

Y't is ordered y't seeinge Mr Thomas Swinhoe is dead and Mr Smallwood in no way prepared to pallizado Doctor Pott his howse according to Mr Swinhoe his covenant y't the Smallwood shall pay to Doctor Pott towards the pallizadoinge of the said howse one hundred pounce weight of good merchantable Tobacco

(11) Samuel Macock or Maycox, settled near Flowerdew Hundred at what was called "Master Maicoek's Divident." In a letter dated March 20, 1617, from the Governor of Virginia to the Company he asked, on account of the scarcity of ministers, orders for Mr. Maycock, a Cambridge scholar. Samuel Maycock was appointed to the Council in 1619, and killed in the Indian Massacre, March 22, 1622. In 1624-5 Sara Maycock, aged 2 years, born in Virginia, was living in the family of Capt. Roger Smith at James City. She was the daughter of Samuel Maycock.

Y't is ordered y't Adam Dixsone shall have for y't transportation of him selfe, Agnes his wiefe, Elizabeth his daughter & John Martin his servant as appeareth in the list of passengers in The Margarett and John two hundred aeres of lande in any place not allreadie taken upp, Provided y't he seate and plant uppou the same w'thin seaven yeeres or eells it shalbe free for any other to take upp ye same

[248—duplicate No.]

A Courte held the 4th of June 1626 beinge present S'r George Yardley, knight, Governor and Capt. generall &c, Capt Francis West, Docter Pott, Capt Smith.

At this courte Thomas Hayle(12) aged 21 yeeres being ye sone of Symon Hayle of the p'sh of Set. Mary, Somersett, in London, Porter, was indieted and aranger uppou ye severall indietments for ye rape and ravishment of fower Mayden children for w'ch his offence he was found guilty by the judge and had Judgment of death pronounced against him accordinge to the lawe. The examinacons and proceedings wherof remaine in record at large

Also at this Courte Charles Maxey for an offence by him comitted unto Dorotheie Harris the daughter of John Harris aged seaven yeeres or therabouts, as by the examinacon of Dorothea Harris mother to the said Dorotheie and herself appeareth

Y't is at this Courte ordered y't the said Charles Maxey for y't his offence shall do execution uppou the bodye of Thomas Hayle, now condemned at this Courte, after w'ch execution To be whipt heere at James Cyttie And after that to be whipped at Shirley Hundred where he committed the offence (for example to others)

(12) Thomas Hale or Hayle, aged 20, who came on the George, October, 1623, was a servant of Robert Partin at West & Shirley Hundred 1624-5. In 1626 John Harris owned 100 acres in the Corporation of Charles City. In 1623, he with his wife Dorothy and two children lived at West & Shirley Hundred; but their names do not appear in the Census of 1624-5.

At this Courte John Shelley(13) and Nathaniell ffloyde for stealinge away a maide servant from Capt. ffancis West were censured to sitt two howers in the stocks and each of them to paye 200 weight of Tobaceo to be ymployed to publicke uses and to restore and deliver back the saide maide servant again to Capt. West w'th all convenient speede at their further p'ill [peril] from whence they stole her away.

Y't is also ordered y't wheras Dorotheie Harris ye daughter of John Harris hath formerly been corected by her mother for y't her fault and for y't there appeareth in her a signe of more grace and grieve for her offence, y't is ordered y't her mother shall corect her once more for such her fault.

And y't Ann Usher and Avis Partin shalbe openly whipped in the forte at James Cyttie for their offence not exceedinge fortie stripes.

Y't is ordered y't Mr Will'm Ferrar shall take the examinations of the wiefe of Robert Partin at the howse of John Collins and her maide and goodwife Blackman and y't Mr Ferrar send those examinations down to the Governor and Councell at James Cyttie with the first convenience

A Courte held the 7th & 8th dayes of Auguste 1626 being present S'r George Yardley, knight, Governor &c, Doctor Pott, Capt. Smith, Capt Mathewes, Mr Abraham Persie, Capt. Tucker, Mr Wm Ferrar

1. Y't is ordered y't no planter shall remove from ye plantatiōne wheron he is seated, To seat him selfe uppon any other w'thout speeyall consent from the Governor and some p'te of the Councell uppon penaltie and forfecture of 300 li. weight of Tobacco to be paide unto the publique Treasury, and to returne and seat himselfe uppon his former Plantatiōne yf the Governor & Councell shall thinke it fitt.

And that no p'sone uppon any pretext or couler of his privat ocasionēs shall absent him self from his plantatiōne w'thout consent and approbatiōne of the comander of the Plantatiōne uppon paine and forfecture of 25 li. of Tobacco for every 24 howers absence

2. Wheras John Joyse servant to Ensign ffrauncis Epps havinge lately runne away from his m'r who caried away w'th him two snapchance pieces w'th powder and shott, together w'th a canow w'ch in like manner he stole away from Symon Sturgis, was heere attached at James Cyttie, and beinge brought before the Governor and Councell after two examinations of the cause of his runnange awaye [,] y't apereth by the Testimony of Grevell Pooly, minister, and Symon Sturgis, The saide John Joyse had no other cause eyther for corectione, want of victualls or any other cause wherof he hath complayned but that this acte of his hath p'ceeded from a stubborne and ill despositione of him selfe, and not by any iust ocasiene offered by his m'r.

2. Y't is theruppon ordered y't saide John Joyse for this his offence shalbe severly whipt, and to receave thirty stripes, and shalbe retourned upp againe into the hands of his m'r, and shall serve out his tyme w'th him, and halfe a yeere more. At the expiratione wherof his m'r shall deliver him to the Governor and Councell to serve the Colonye at the disposinge of the Governor and Councell for five yeers or as they shall otherwyse determine therof.

3. Y't is further ordered that shalbe inserted into the Proclamatione to be sent downe to Kickotan againste breakinge bulke, That no p'sone whatsoever shall putt awaye any servants that shalbe Transported over before the Governor and Councell are first made acquainted therewith.

4. Y't is ordered that a commissione be granted by the Governor to Capt. Tucker, That uppon the ar'vall of any shipp or shippes, he fourth w'th man out a light shallopp fitted with maste sayle and oares w'th a sufficient number of good shott, and so to goe fourth as farr as poynt Comfort or fourther, so that he do not engage himself & his company but allways to keepe the winde of them till he hath made a full discovery of them, and yf they prove Enemyes Then he shall retourne w'th all speede, and give the alarm to the Plantatione that they may p'vide for their owne safety, & yf ffrinds, Then to go abourde and publish such proclamations & instructions as he shall receeve from the Governor and Councell.

5. Y't is ordered that the Governor w'th his best conveniency shall give commission to some Sufficyent man in every Plantatione for the comand and Government therof

6. Y't is ordered y't the Proclamation againste drunkenness and swearing shalbe in force accordinge to the act of assembly(14) w'th an adition of givinge bonde to their good behaviour.

7. Y't is ordered y't wheras the Governor is to take a generall muster(15) throwout the Colony, accordinge to the Lords of his Ma'ties most Hon'ble privie Councell, That y^e Governør shall supplie him selfe in all places goinge upp and downe w'th a suffeyent number of men and boats.

8. Y't is ordered that an order be sent to the comander of every Plantatione y't accordinge to the acte of ye late Generall Assembly, some decent house or fittinge roome be erected and builte for the service of God in their severall Plantationes and y't it be sequestered for that purpose only and not for any other use or purpose w'tsoever, Likewise y't a place be stronglie paled or fenced for the buriall of the dead and these things to be carefully accomplished in all places by our Lady day now next ensuinge, and for default therof every Plantatione to paye five hundred pound weight of Tobacco to the publike Treasurer.

9. Y't is ordered y't accordinge to another act of ye late generall assembly, There be an uniformitie in our church kept as neae as may be to the Canons of England both in substance and circumstance, and y't all p'sones yield dew obedience to them uppon paine of censure

10. Y't is ordered accordinge to another acte of ye late generall assembly, That the XXIIth day of March(16) be yeerly Solemnized as holyday and all hollidays except when there fall two together betwixt the ffeast of the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary and Sct Michaell the Archangell then but one to be kept in regard of our necessities.

(14) The Assembly referred to was that of March, 1623-4. [Hening, I, 121-129.]

(15) So far as is known the returns of the census to be taken under this order have not been preserved. It was stated in 1628 that there were 3,000 people in the Colony (Va. Mag. Hist. & Biol., XVII, 3), and in 1630 Governor Harvey estimated there were upwards of 2,500 (ib. VII, 381).

11. Y't is ordered y't yeerly after every harvest when the minister is to receave his meanes(17) of his p'rishioners that all men do bringe such payments as the[y] are to make unto him, to the comandars howse of the Plantatione who shall see y't ye same shalbe of the best sorte, or otherwise to be burnte before theire faces and the p'tie forced to paye of the very best.

12. Y't is ordered accordinge to an act of ye late generall assembly y't there shalbe courtes kept monthly at Charles hundred and Elizabeth Cyttie for the determininge of pettie controversies not exceevinge the valene of 200 li. of Tobacco and for punishinge of pettie offences w'th reservation of appeals after sentence. To the Governor & Councell and whosoever shall appeale and shalbe there caste in suite, shall pay double damages Sentence to be given in those counties by the maior [major] p'ties.

Commissioners nominated for Elizabeth Cyttie Courtes Capt. Tucker(18) Capt. Martin, Mr Jonas Stogden, Lieut. Purfrey, Mr Edward Waters, Mr John Baynum, Mr Salford, Commissioners for the upper p'ties, Mr William Ferrar(19), (17) This shows that during the early colonial period, ministers, like those of the Church of England, were entitled to tithes. In 1633 an act requiring tithes of calves, kids and pigs, was repealed. After this their salaries, glebe, fees, etc., were in lieu of all tithes.

(18) Notes on Capt. Wm. Tucker, Capt. John Martin, Rev. Jonas Stogden, or Stockden, Thomas Purfrey, or Purefoy, and Edward Waters have been published in this Magazine. "Mr. John Baynum," or Baynum, aged 54 years, who came in the Susan in 1616, and Elizabeth Banum, aged 43, who came in the Bona Nova 1620, were living, together with several of their servants, in Elizabeth City 1624-5. "Mr. Robert Salford," aged 56, who came in the John and Francis 1611, John Salford, aged 24, who came in the George, 1616, and Mary Salford, aged 24, who came in the Bona Nora, 1620, together with their two men-servants, lived at Elizabeth City 1624-5.

(19) Notes on Ferrar, or Farrar, Pawlett, Eppes and Harris, have been printed in this Magazine. Nathaniel Cawsey, who came in the Phoenix, 1607, and his wife Thomasine, who came in the Lyon, 1609, with their five servants lived at Jordan's Journey 1624-5. His plantation was named Causey's Care, or Cave. He was a member of the House of Burgesses March 1623-4. In 1635 Governor Harvey granted to Thomas Causey 150 in the neighborhood where Nathaniel Causey, or Causy, had lived. He was probably a son. Ensign Isaac Chaplain, who came in the Starr, 1610; Mary his wife, who came in the James, 1622, and John Chaplain, "his kin-man," aged 15 years, who came in the James, lived in 1624-5, at Chaplain's Choice, in the present Prince George County. Isaac Chaplain was a member of the House of Burgesses March, 1623-24.

Mr. Thomas Pawlett, Ensign Epps, Ensign Chaplen, Mr Cawsey, Thomas Harris.

14. Y't is ordered y't accordinge to the act of the late generall assembly, That no man goe or send abroad eithr upon fflowlinge, ffishinge or otherwise w'tosoever w'thout suffieyent p'tie of men well armed and provided of munitione, uppon penaltie of undergoinge severe censure of punishment by the Governor and Councell.

15. Y't is ordered accordinge to the saide assembly that noe man in the Colony goe out to his worke & labor w'thout theire armes & a certinell uppon them

16. Y't is ordered accordinge to the said generall assembly that the comandrs of every Plantatione, take care that there be suffieyent of powder and munitione w'thin ye Plantatione under his comande and theire peeces fixt and theire armes complete.

17. Y't is ordered y't there be dewe watch kept by nyght in all places and Plantations throw out the Colonye, The neglect wherof to be punished at the discretione of the Comander

18. That no Comander of any Plantatione do either himselfe or suffer others to expend powder unnecessarily in drinkinge Entertaynments or the like, uppon paine of undergoinge such censure as by the Governor and Councell shalbe inflicted, and the comander to give informatione to ye Governor and Councell of all such as shall therin ofende, uppon penaltie of beinge censured by the Governor and Councell him selfe

19. Y't is ordered y't the whole Bodie of the Councell shall meete together at James Cyttie for the managing of the Publique service of the Colony, quarterly as followeth (vidlet) The Monday sennight next after the ffeast of Set Michaell, The Mondaye sennight next after the feast of the nativitie of Christ, The Monday sennight next after the Assumption of the Virgin Mary, And ye Monday sennight after ye feast of St John Baptist.

[Order 20 omitted in record.]

21. Y't is further ordered y't there be a Proclamatione published throwout the Colony That noe persone w'tsoever unles those chosen p'sones shall go abourde any shipp or shippes arivinge in this Colonie w'thout leave of the Governor or any two of the Councell uppon paine of censure, nor to bring any comodities w'tsoever either abourde or ashore uppon penaltie to forfeit the goodes so brought and to pay 500 li. weight of Tobacco into the Publique Treasury.

22. Y't is also ordered y't uppon every holiday y't is to be kept and solemnized as holiday. The Comander of every Plantation do drawe his men together in armes and to exereyse and drill them, wherby they may be made more fitt for service uppon any occasione.

By the Kings most Excellent Ma'ty in Council

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Report from the Right Hon'ble the Lords of the Committee for Trade and Foreign Plantations concerning the Report of the Petitioner in the words following.

May it Please Your Ma'ty

Upon Consideration of several papers concerning Virginia presented to Us, by the Lord Culpeper and particularly in Relation to Your Ma'ties Revenues there, We humbly offer that the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury may consider of the best means for bringing the Quit Rents of that Plantation into Your Ma'ties hands according to Your gracious promise made to the Assembly, And Whereas for the prevention of the like abuses which have been formerly practised in the management and disposal of the several parts of Your Ma'ties Revenue arising in that Colony Your Ma'ty was pleased by Your Royal Letters dated the 30th June 1680 to signify Your especial Commands and directions in that behalf unto Your Governor and Officers of the Revenue which have not been yet obeyed. We are humbly of opinion that by the Ships now bound thither Your Ma'ty do renew Your former Order strictly charging and requiring all persons concerned therein to pursue your Ma'ties pleasure in the execution of their duty and in rendering true and regular accompt under the Commissioners of Your Ma'ties Treasury of all Moneys raised and expended for Your Ma'ties service in the support of the Government.

REPORT TOUCHING COMPANIES OF FOOT IN VIRGINIA
(Copy)

May it please Yo^r Ma[']ty

We have taken into our consideration the present state of Virginia and, having been attended by Merchants and others well acquainted with that Plantation, wee are informed that the Country is in great danger of disturbance as well out of an apprehension of the Indians, as by reason of the extreme poverty of the People occasioned by the low price of Tobacco which, tis fear'd may induce the servants to plunder the Stores of the Planters and the Ships arriving there and to commit other outrages and disorders as in the late Rebellion. And therefore we are humbly of opinion That the two foot Companies at present maintained by Your Ma[']ty there ought to be continued and well paid in order to prevent or suppress any Insurrection that may otherwise happen during the necessitous unsettled condition of the Colonie.

All w[']ch is most humbly submitted

MINUTES OF A COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS—The Committee being met to consider of the state of Virginia and whether it be necessary to continue the two Companies of Foot, Lord Culpeper, Col. Ludwell, Alderman Jeffries and Capt. Morris, Lieut of one of the Companies are called in—Ald. Jeffries says that Virginia is at present poorer, tho' more populous than ever—That there is great apprehension of an insurrection of the servants by reason of their great necessities and want of clothes and that they may be apt to plunder the storehouses and ships, wherefore he thinks it more necessary than ever to maintain one or two Companies in Virginia, besides that they are in continual fear of the Indians: That he knows not any means to raise the price of Tobacco except the making a less quantity—Capt. Morris says the servants are very poor and ready to plunder their Masters; that he believes there are 80 or 100.000 souls in Virginia—The Committee agree to report that the two Companies may be continued & well paid—Lord Culpeper ordered to present account in writing of his proceedings in Virginia & the present condition of the Country also of all monies received by him. 2 pp.

MINUTES OF A COMMITTEE OF TRADE AND PLANTATIONS—Lord Culpeper attending, petition of the Owners of the ship Planters Adventure is read for exemption from the Impost of 2s. per hogshead but their Lordships taking notice of an Order in Council of 14 Oct. 1680 confirming the late Act of Virginia for levying that duty & disallowing the proviso exempting Virginia owners from payment of it and of an Act of Assembly of 1677 which takes away this privilege, their Lordships are of opinion petitioners cannot pretend to the exemption desired by them; but that the Assembly may present Draught of an Act to the King to exempt such ships as are built in Virginia and do really belong to Virginia owners—Lord Culpeper represents the great abuses committed in Virginia on that score by Masters of ships that make false entries to avoid the duty: he is to state the matter to the Lords of the Treasury in order to an effectual remedy—His Lordship proposes that the King send the value of £200 or £300 worth of Flax seed to Virginia to encourage the planting of that commodity; agreed to report to his Maj.—New Commission to be prepared for Lord Culpeper—Councillors to be named in the Instructions. 2 pp.

Jn'o Lightfoot, Esqrs.

His Excellency Laying before y'e Councill a Letter from y'e Right Hon'ble y'e Lords of y'e Councill of Trade of y'e 27th of August Last commanding a proclamation Issued by their Excellencies y'e Lords Justices of England for apprehending one Henry Every als. the Bridge man and divers other privateers to be published together with a Copy of y'e said Proclamation ordered that copies of the said Proclamation be Sent to y'e respective Sherrifs of the Several Counties and by them published as usual.

His Excellency Laid before y'e Councill a Letter from y'e R't Hon'ble y'e Lords of Councill of y'e 24th of September 1696 relating to the State of Virginia and a letter from y'e said Lords of y'e first of Feb'y 1696-7 relating to other matters in Virginia, as also a Letter from y'e Lords of y'e Admiralty of y'e 26th of Jan'y last Concerning the Impress of men for furnishing his Maj.'s Ship which were read at a Councill board.

His Excellency acquainting this board that not withstanding former ord's of Councill to the Contrary the Pilots at y'e mouth of James River (as he is informed in these times of warr and danger) upon arrivall of any Ships upon y'e Coast So off to bring in y'e said Ships without Ever acquainting any of the King's Magistrates therewith ordered that before any Pilot or other persons go off to any Ship upon her arrivall he give notice thereof to the next Magistrate, and of the report of the boats Crew Sent on Shoar from the Said Ship

His Excellency was pleased to call for the List of Coroners in this Country and with the advice of the Councill Supplied the Vacant names thereof

Mr. George Williamson(1) Survey'r of Surry and Isle of Wight Counties according to order of Councill of the * * * of Aprill last having Shewed a Comission under the hand and

(1) Robert Williamson, "Doctor in Physick," was a member of the House of Burgesses for Isle of Wight County at the sessions of September, 1663, and October, 1666. On June 6, 1666 he patented 3,850 acres on Blackwater Swamp and had other grants. His will was dated Feb. 16, 1669. Legatees: Wife Jane or Joan, eldest son Robert, sons George, Arthur and Francis. Before 1672 his widow married Mr. Robert Burnett. Robert Williamson, the eldest son, probably died without issue. There is in Isle of Wight a deed, Aug. 4, 1672, from Richard [Robert] Williamson of Surry County, son and heir of Robert Williamson, of Isle of Wight County; deceased; and in the same county (Isle of Wight), in October, 1688, in inventory of the estate of Robert Williamson, a deed was presented by his brother George. George Williamson of Isle of Wight and his wife Hester, made a deed March 29, 1703, conveying land which he had inherited. The will of George Williamson of Isle of Wight (son of Dr. Robert) was dated July 31, 1723, approved October 29, 1723. His legatees were his sons George, Robert, John and Thomas, grandson John Darden and daughters Mary, Patience, Elizabeth and Juliana. A deed, about 1736, shows that Patience had married Robert Exum, Elizabeth,—Joyner, and that Juliana (unmarried) John, Thomas and George were then living. In 1736 George Williamson of Henrico (evidently the son of George who died 1723) conveyed to Arthur Crocker, 200 acres in Isle of Wight, part of 500 acres patented by Robert Williamson October 30, 1686, and on July 8, 1737, George Williamson, of Henrico, conveyed to Lewis Burwell 250 acres in Isle of Wight, part of 500 acres patented October, 1662, by Robert Williamson, uncle of the said George. One portion of this land had been sold in 1691 by George Williamson, brother of said Robert, and father of George of Henrico. It is uncertain whether George Williamson left descendants, as the later Williamsons of Henrico are stated to be descended from John Williamson, an emigrant, who was vestryman of Henrico parish from 1735 to his death in 1757. No doubt the Williamson of Isle of Wight, Southampton and adjoining counties trace to Dr. Robert Williamson.

Seal of John Smith(2) Survey'r Gen'tt and not having any wages cleared himself for taking Entries of Land in the Blackwater Contrary to instructions and orders of Councill from time to time and also taking double Entries of one and the Same parcell of Land to the great disturbance of the Inhabitants of the Said Counties and appearing otherwise a person insufficient and unqualified for Such an office and trust it is the opinion of the Councill that he be Suspended from the Said office of Survey'r and that the Trustees of y'e Colledge(3) have notice thereof.

Upon petition of John Carroll Setting fourth that Maj'r Lewis Burwell and Maj'r Arthur Allen without any Survey'r or patent to direct them Came forceably upon the pet'er Land which he hath long and peaceably enjoyed and markt the trees thereupon and took y'e Same into the Said Burwelle possession disissuing(?) y'e pet'r being a poor man ordered that they the Said Burwell and Allen appear before y'e next Councill to Answer y'e Same

Cap:t Andrew Douglas Comand'r of his Maj's Ship the Harwich having represented unto his Excellency that on his voyage to Virg'a in y'e Said Ship he took a fly boat Called y'e St. Ignace belonging to y't port of Bayone in France bound thence to Newfoundland y'e master and all the Company the French King Subjects and her clearing from y'e admirall of France & brought her into James River and prayed a Spedy proceeding for condemnation accordingly and his Excellency Laying the Same before this Councill is the opinion and advise of the Councill that there being no Court of Admiralty Erected in this Government his Excellency may and ought to give Comissions under y'e Seal of the Colony appointing a Judge-Registar Marshall and other officers necessary for the tryall of the Said Prize—

(2) John Smith, of Gloucester County, son of Col. Lawrence Smith, was appointed to the Council 1704, Surveyor General (under appointment by William and Mary College), and died 1719-20. See Wm. & Mary Quarterly, IX, 42, &c.

(3) William and Mary College was given authority to appoint all surveyors in Virginia, who had, in return, to pay certain fees to the College.

(4) Peter Heyman, is stated in his epitaph, formerly of Hampton, Va., to have been a grandson of Sir Peter Heyman of Summerfield in Kent. On April 18, 1692, he was appointed one of the depot postmaster-generals for the Colonies. He was killed April 29, 1700, on board the ship Shoreham in an action with a pirate in Lynnhaven Bay. See this Magazine, XI, 158, 159.

(5) Peter Jennings may have been a son of Col. Peter Jenings, born about 1631, who is stated to have "faithfully served" Charles I, was Attorney General of Virginia 1662, again appointed to that office Sept. 16, 1670, and the Council Oct. 12, 1670. He married Catherine, daughter of Sir Thomas Lunsford (she married, secondly, Ralph Wormley) and died in 1671. The following children of Peter and Sarah Jenings are recorded in the Register of Abingdon parish, Gloucester County; viz.: Philip baptized April, 1678, Elizabeth born Feb. 23, 1684, Thomas baptized Feb. 20, 1686, and Rebecca baptized May 18, 1690. The father of these children may have been the person named in the text, and may have been a son of Col. Robert Jenings; but if so, he, together with all his children must have died before 1710, as the will of Wm. Jenings of London dates that year, states that he was sole heir to Col. Peter Jenings, "Years ago deceased." See this Magazine, XIX, 188, 189.

timent of America or Islands thereunto belonging. ordered that the Said Comission be Entered upon y'e Councill Books, and incouragement and assistance upon all ocasions Given him the Said Peter Jenings in y'e Execution and performance thereof Accordingly—

River took y'e oaths according to law for y'e due Execution and performance of y'e Same—

His Excellency upon receipt of a letter yesterday of y'e fourth of June Instant from the Gov. of Maryland—with proceedings of a Committee of the Councill & Burgesses conformed there relating to the Piscatonay and Accokeek Indians was pleased to lay the Same then before this board—which being duly Considered. the Councill doth not understand the meaning thereof but if any miscarriage hath been by any Indians in this Government are of opinion that it ought to have been first signified to the Gov'r for orders therein before any proceedings against any Indians in this Government

His Excellency by advise in Councill was pleased to pass under his hand and the Seal of the Colony a Comission appointing Edward Hill Esq'r Judge of y'e Court of Admiralty for Tryall of the Prize St. Ignace of Bayone in France brought in by Comodor Douglas and all other matters that should be brought before him terminate y'e 18'th instant and also a Com'on to Robert Beverley Gent. appointing him Register of y'e Said Court and another to Edward Rose Gent Marshall who were all three Sworn accordingly after having taken y'e oaths to his Maj's proscribed by law and the Test

(6) William Trevethan may have been a kinsman of Sampson Trevethan who lived for some years (1699 &c.) in Lower Norfolk County (which Elizabeth River flows through); but who in 1715 had returned to England and was living at Laragen, Penzance, Cornwall.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAWS ON TOBACCO(7)

Nov. the 14'th 1713

Att a Committee appointed to inspect & Collect all the Laws in force relating to Tobacco & to Report the Same with their Opinion therein And also to Report what Proposals they think may be for the Improvement & advantage of the Tobacco Trade

Present Mr. Holloway Mr. William Robinson Mr. Chris: Robinson Mr. Buckner

The Committee did Inspect the Act of Assembly made at a Gen'l Assembly begun at James Citty the 24'th day of September in the year 1696 Intitled an Act for the better

(7) The tobacco act passed at the session of Assembly of November, 1713, appears in Henric (IV, 37) only by its title. On the margin is a statement that it was repealed by proclamation November 12, 1717. In this instalment is printed a summary of former laws on the subject, and in the next will be given the bill proposed by the Committee. The Journal shows that the Committee was composed of John Holloway, William Robinson, Christopher Robinson and William Buckner. On Nov. 23d a bill was reported, and on the 26th the bill with several amendments, was passed. On the last day of the session it was approved by the Governor. All tobacco legislation is an important part of our history, and this act is preserved nowhere in this country.

Support and Maintenance of the Clergy in which Sd. Act amongst other things it is Enacted in the words or to the effect following

That all & Every Minister & Ministers in all & Every parish & parishes in this Dominion incumbent in Sd. Parish or Parishes & therein officiating as Minister or Ministers Shall have & receive for his or their maintenance the Summ of Sixteen thousand pounce of Tobacco besides their lawfull perquisites and that it Shall and may be lawfull for the vestry or vestrys of any Parish or Parishes & they are by virtue of this Act authorized & impowered to raise & Levy the Same in their respective parish or parishes as also to Levy five per cent for the collecting and paying the Sd. Tobacco convenient And that it Shall and may be lawfull for the vestry or vestrys of all and Every parish or parishes to appoint the Church Wardens or whom they think fitt to collect & receive the Ministers or other Parish dues & the Sd. person or persons So qualified as aforesd Shall be & are impowered in case of non payment to make Distress for the Same

And also an Act made at a Generall Assembly begun at the Capitoll the twenty third day of October in the year 1705 Intituled an Act concerning the Collection of the publick & County Levys & for the better payment of the Same to the Respective Creditors therein concerned in which Sd Act amongst other things it is Enacted in the words or to the Effect following That the Court of Each County Shall admitt the Sherriff before any other person to collect the publick and County Levys provided he will give bond with Security in double the Summ the Levys amount to honestly to collect & pay the Same to the respective Creditors & on failure to give Such bond the Sd Court may committ the collection of the Sd Levys to any other person who will give Such bond

That the Sherriff or other Collector Shall allow Eight per cent for Cash of all Levys & Secretarys Clerks, & Sherriffs Fees received in Cash under the penalty of One hundred pounds of Tobacco for Every Eight pounds of Tobacco due for Cask which he Shall refuse to allow

That no Sherrieff or Collector Shall Seize any hogshead of Tobacco paid away & marked if other good Tobacco Sufficient to pay the Levys or fees be offerd him. That if any Sherrieff or Collector shall seize a hogshead of Tobacco in which there shall be more than will satisfie the debt distrained for he shall let the debtor take out the overplus or make him immediate satisfaction for the same That if any Sherrieff or Collector hath a demand for Levys of any Publick or County Creditor he Shall discount that Credit in the first place without any allowance for the Same

That Every Sherrieff or Collector Shall pay the publick & County Levys to the respective Creditors before the Court day held in March next after the Collection put into his hands or on failure thereof upon complaint to the Court Such Creditor Shall have Judgment with Costs against Such Sherrieff or Collector & his Surety for what Shall be due But if the Complaint be made to any Court Succeeding March Court & the Sherrieff be absent he Shall be ordered to answer this complaint at the then next Court wherein if he fail Judgment Shall be granted as aforesd That if the Sherrieff or Collector Shall give ten days notice to any publick or County Creditor that the Tobacco to him due is ready & Such Creditor Shall neglect or refuse to receive the Same the Sherrieff or Collector Shall then have liberty to make a tender of Such Tobacco to Such Creditor according to Law

And also one other Act made at the Same Assembly at the Capitol Intituled an Act for improving the Staple of Tobacco & for Regulateing the Size & Tare of Tobacco Hogsheads in which Sd Act amounghst other things it is Enacted in the words or to the effect following

That if any person tends any Seconds for Tobacco he Shall forfeit 500^l of Tobacco for every Tithable upon the Plantation where Such Seconds are tended And if the Plantation be under the care of an Overseer who is free he Shall pay the penalty That all Tobacco Shall be fairly packed of equal goodness in every part without trash and if any person Shall pay away or put to Sale or offer to pay away or put to Sale any hogshead of Tobacco otherwise packed he Shall forfeit for every hogshead 1000^L of Tobacco

That when a Suit Shall be brought for false packeing of Tobacco the Court Shall appoint two or three Skillfull men to view the Sd tobacco & their report upon oath Shall be good Evidence in the Tryall That five pounds weight & no more be allowed in one hogshead for Sand dust & mean Tobacco

That if any Creditor Shall omitt to demand or receive a Tobacco Debt by the last of January the Debtor may at any time in February apply himself, or two Justices to make a tender of the Tobacco he owes which Justice Shall appoint three Neighbours on their oaths to view the Tobacco who if they find it merchantable & fairly packed Shall weigh & mark the Same for the use of the Creditor at whose hazard it Shall afterward lye & upon producing a Certificate from the Sd Justice of the Sd tender to the next Court the Debtor Shall be discharged from the Sd Debt Provided the tender was made according to Specialty & that the Debtor Endeavour to preserve the Tobacco as if it were Still his own That the Debtor Shall pay the charge of the Tender And that Each viewer Shall be paid twenty pounds of Tobacco for Every day that the Buyer or Receiver of Tobacco in Cask Shall take the Same at the Tare thereon Sett & allow thirty pounds of Tobacco for Each hogshead notwithstanding any bill bond or contract Expressing the Same to be paid with cask on penalty of 150^L of tobacco

That Lessees paying rent in Tobacco may be obliged by agreement to pay Cask That the Sherriffs & Collectors of publick dues Shall allow for all publick Tobacco paid in hogsheads to the person paying the same Eight per cent for Cask instead of the thirty pounds of Tobacco per hogshead

And on due consideration of the Sd Acts are of opinion That the Laws now in force relating to Tobacco are not Sufficient for the improvement & Advantage of the Tobacco Trade And that the method now Established by Law for discharging Debts is Subject to many frauds & Abuses not provided against by any Law

And the Com'tee haveing duly Considered the Low State of the Staple Comodity of this Colony occasioned by the carelessness & deceipt of the Planters & by the negligence & fraud of the Reeceiver thereof by which the reputation of the Virginia Tobacco both at home & abroad is allmost lost And the credit of the Country in Generall ruined for this raiseing & retreiveing whereof & for the better preventing the frauds & Regulateing the Abuses in the Tobacco Trade Do in obedience to the Order of this House humbly Propose [Edward Bennett, merchant, of London, was a member of the Virginia Company and was for a time Deputy Governor of the English merchants at Delft, Holland. On Nov. 21, 1621, the Virginia Company granted to Edward, Richard and Robert Bennett and others a large tract of land in Virginia. This settlement was made within the present Isle of Wight County, and Edward Bennett for some years continued to carry on an extensive trade with the Colony. The date of his death is unknown nor has his will yet been found in England. The Council and General Court minutes show that he had a son Richard, who died in Virginia about 1625, while his father's agent in the Colony. In 1664, 1500 acres of land in Virginia was divided between Silvester, wife of Nicholas Hill of Isle of Wight County, and Mary, wife of Thomas Bland, heirs (probably daughters) of Edward Bennett. Stith says, doubtless quoting, as usual, old records, that Richard Bennett, Governor of Virginia, was a nephew of Edward Bennett. Thomas Ludwell, Secretary of State of Virginia, writing to Henry Bennett, Lord Arlington, in 1666, says that he believes Governor Richard Bennett "is of your lordship's family," and that his arms are the same. This, and other circumstances, make it almost certain that Edward Bennett was a member of the family of the name, several of whose members were eminent London merchants and from which came several families of baronets, the Earl of Arlington and the Earls of Tankerville. Other Bennetts in Virginia were Robert Bennett, said to be a brother of Edward Bennett, and his agent in 1623-4; Philip Bennett who in 1648 was administrator of Robert Bennett; Ambrose Bennett, who was a "head-right" in a patent to Richard Bennett, in 1635, and who, himself, patented land in Isle of Wight in 1638, and Thomas Bennett, aged 38 in 1624-5, who came to Virginia in 1618 and later lived near Edward Bennett's plantation.

The wills printed above will be of service in beginning an investigation of the family. Collins (under "Earl of Tankerville") has an account of the Bennetts of London, which is far from complete or correct. Thomas¹ Bennett, Esq., of Clapcot, Berkshire, had several sons, among them, Richard², the eldest, and Thomas², 3d son. Richard² Bennett was the father of Ralph³ (who left male issue); Sir John³, who died in 1627 and was the ancestor of the Earl of Arlington and of the Earls of Tankerville, and Thomas³, Alderman of London, who is said by Collins to have had two sons, Richard⁴ and Thomas⁴, who was created a baronet in 1662. The will of Alderman Thomas³ Bennett, proved 1620 (printed in J. H. Lea's Abstracts) names the two sons, Richard and Thomas, and also brothers Ralph and Edward (a son of Richard² Bennett not named by Collins, and who may have been the Edward Bennett of the Virginia Company). The will also names Sir Thomas Bennett (uncle of the testator), Ambrose, John, Richard and Symon, sons of Sir Thomas, and "cousin" David Bennett and his wife.

Thomas² Bennett, 3d son of Thomas¹, of Clapcot, was sheriff of London, 1594, Lord Mayor, 1603, and knighted in that year. He married Mary, daughter of Robert Taylor, sheriff of London, and had issue (according to Collins) 1. Symon³, created a baronet, 1627; 2. Richard³, an eminent merchant of London, who married Elizabeth Craddock and had at least one son Simon⁴, of Beechampton, Bucks, Esq.; 3. John³ (said by Collins to have died without issue—a statement which his will, printed above, shows to be incorrect); 4. Ann, married William Duncomb, of Brickhill, Bucks; 5. Margaret married Sir George Croke, Justice of the Common Pleas. Collins omits a fourth son, Ambrose³, whose will is printed above

John³ Bennett (will above) had, in 1631, two sons, John⁴ and Ambrose⁴, both minors. This last named Ambrose Bennett may have been the person of the name, who settled in Virginia. If so, he returned to England, as in 1649 Ambrose, son of John Bennett, Esq., of London, was appointed by the Parliamentary visitors a fellow of University College, Oxford, was A. M. 1652, and a barrister-at-law of Grays Inn 1661 (Poster's Alumni Oxonienses). Richard Bennett, of London, gent., son and heir of Richard Bennett, of London, gent., matriculated at Menton College, June 3, 1603, aged 16, and was a student at the Temple 1606. This Richard (born 1587) could not have been Richard² Bennett, as the latter's son Sir John was a student at Oxford 1573. Perhaps he was a son of Richard² Bennett, who like Edward, is not named by Collins.]

Sir ANTHONY EVERARD, Knight.

27 Jan. 1614-15.

Sentence, promulgated in a suit between Lady ANNE EVERARD, widow, relict of deceased, of one part, and ANNE EVERARD, daughter of deceased, testatrix of the Will of Sir ANTHONY EVERARD, late of Waltham Holy Cross, County Essex, Knight, deceased, pronouncing for the Will produced by the said Executrix and for the sanity of deceased. 6 Rudd

[The family of Everard is traced, by Burke, to Ralph Everard, living in the reign of Henry III. Richard Everard, whose will is printed above, was of Langleys, Much Waltham, Essex. His grandfather, Richard Everard, Esq., of Langleys, Much Waltham, married first Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Stephens, gent. (and had Richard, father of the testator), and secondly Agnes Upsher or Upsbur (Arthur Upsbur, emigrant ancestor of the Virginia family of that name, was a native of Essex). Richard Everard died Dec. 29, 1561, and was succeeded by his grandson, Richard (the testator). The last named Richard married Clementia, daughter of John Wiseman, Esq., of Great Canfield. He and his wife lived together fifty-three years. She died September, 1611, and he July 25, 1617. They had issue: 1. Sir Anthony, knighted 1603, who left an only daughter and heiress, Anne, who married Sir Henry Maynard, afterwards Lord Maynard; 2. Mathew, a s. p.; 3. Hugh, who succeeded his brother Sir Anthony; 4. John; 5. Mary married John Wiseman, Esq. Hugh Everard died in 1637, and was succeeded by his son Richard, who was created a baronet in 1629, and who married Joan, daughter of Sir Francis Barrington, and a descendant of George, Duke of Clarence. Sir Richard's great-grand-son, Sir Richard Everard, Bart., was Governor of North Carolina and was the father of Susanna Everard, who married David Meade, of Virginia.]

NOTES AND QUERIES.

VIRGINIA STATE LIBRARY, ARCHIVES DEPARTMENT

The past twelve months have most probably been the most auspicious similar period that the Archives have ever known. During that period, the old wooden shelving and its contents of bound volumes of magazines has been entirely removed from three sides of the Archives Room; and in its place, we now have the metal shelving and furnishings provided for by an appropriation by the General Assembly of 1916. This equipment makes it possible to now locate any desired classification of material instantly, and we are gradually working into the Archive Room as much of the material as possible, with the ultimate object of assembling all archival material in one room, which will be a real "workshop" and into which all users of manuscript will be required to come for the examination of such documents. A decided step toward this ultimate is the fact that the old wooden "counter" with its contents of bound newspapers will be removed from the room as soon as we can secure carpenters, after which tables and chairs will be installed, in order that the user of the archives may have the material right at his elbow, as well as the assistance of the Archivist in the matter of explaining, or of the location of additional material.

During the collegiate session just closed, the senior history students of Richmond and Westhampton Colleges had the privilege of working without compensation, as "archival apprentices," in return for the practical experience gained. This experiment was most satisfactory, and we are expecting a development of this class of assistance during the coming session, at which time the same privilege will also be available to the senior history students of Randolph-Macon College.

The Archivist has just completed the chronological arrangement of the Legislative Petitions from 1776 to 1865, so far as they were assembled in that file. He is now assembling other petitions of this classification which have strayed into the other files of papers. Once this is done, these petitions will be checked against the Journals of the House, after which they will be indexed in such a manner that it will be possible to at once hand the investigator every petition in regard to any subject, county, or locality.

As a result of an appropriation for binding by the Assembly of 1916, there are now available in bound form the personal property books of the Counties from Accomac through Craig in alphabetical order,—these being a part of the documents deposited in the Library by the Auditor and listed in our BULLETIN of January, 1913. They are now bound and lettered in alphabetical and serial order, in addition to being chronologically lettered under each county, so that the desired volume is instantly available, whether for the genealogical purpose of locating an individual in a county in a certain year, or for forming a proper estimate of the economic and financial standing of the county under consideration.

Mary was born the twenty second day of July 1719

Peter was born the twentieth day of October 1717

William was born the 22d day of November 1723

Elizabeth Randolph mother of the aforementioned seven children & a dear wife to the unfortunate William Randolph dyed the 26th of December 1723 at twelve a Clocke in the night, and was buried the 3d of January following. She was born the first day of January 1691."

This account, which may well be of value, has been copied off from the fly leaf of the first volume, small folio, "Works of the Most Reverend Dr. John Tillotson, late Lord Archbishop of Canterbury" &c &c. London. 1712. This excellent edition of Tillotson was presented to the library of Hampden Sidney College, (where the books now are), by the Rev. Dr. Benjamin Mosby Smith (1811-1893), of Powhatan County, for many years Professor in the Theological Seminary at Hampden Sidney.

It had been thought that Dr. Smith secured these books in Germany, where he was a student in his youth. But a closer examination led to the finding of the Record given above which was certainly the work of no German; and besides, written beneath Dr. Smith's bookplate, appear the words "Presented by my aunt Nicholas." And within the same volume are pencilled the names "R. C. Nicholas" and "John Nicholas." Everything proves the descent of this rather extraordinary Tillotson.

The writing of the record, on the fine paper of 1712 and good ink of the period used, is about as clear now as then. In pencil after the account ending in 1723 are the hardly decipherable words: "William Randolph, father of the above seven children and Husband of Elizabeth Randolph died about the 19th—1742 in the sixty-first year of his age."

WILKINS

John Wilkins died 1649 aged about 57 years leaving his wife whose true name seems to have been Anne and several children. The widow married a man named Voss who soon left her a widow. In a deed bearing date April 30, 1660 Anne Voss "late wife of John Wilkins of Northampton county deceased" states that her husband John Wilkins in his last will and testament bearing date Dec. 3, 1649 did give me and his children his estate etc. now therefore for the natural love and affection I bear for them do give my two sons two plantations, granted unto my said deceased husband by patents, one bearing date 1640 being 600 acres ————— which I give to my son John Wilkins. Ye other patent bearing date of March 10, 1637 being 500 acres of land on Kings creek, I give to my son Nathaniel Wilkins.

Deeds and Wills 1657-66, page 66 Northampton Co. Va. Records.

The above deed was supplemented by a deed dated Oct. 5, 1665 as follows. John Wilkins son and heir of John Wilkins late of Northampton Co. Va. deceased.

Whereas my mother Anne Voss widow has given my brother Nathaniel Wilkins one dividend of land containing 500 acres on Kings creek etc.——

CLAYPOOLE

Can any one tell us if the Virginia records show whether James Claypoole or his son John or his grandson John fought in the American Revolution?

This James Claypoole moved from Sussex county, Delaware, to Rockingham county, Virginia, between the years 1745 and 1753, and afterwards located in Hardy county, Virginia (now West Virginia) where he died in 1789. Hence he and presumably his children lived in Virginia during the Revolution.

V. B.

[The Claypoles took an active part in a Tory insurrection in Hampshire county in 1781, which was subdued by General Morgan. Peter Hog, writing to the Governor in support of John Claypole's petition for pardon, says that there were in Hampshire John, the father, five sons, and many grandchildren, "who by intermarriage were connected with the most considerable families on those waters." See Calendar of Virginia State Papers II, 284, 682, 683.]

WILL OF FRANCIS AND JOHN EPES, AMELIA COUNTY

Will of Francis Epes of Nottoway parish, Amelia county, to son John Epes the plantation where I live, 400 acres, given me by my father, and also 200 acres adjoining which I bought of Henry Boston, also 104 acres called Gamblins, I purchased of W'm Gamblin; but patented in my own name, also 397 acres adjoining, I purchased of Mr Thomas Bowery, also 357 acres in Amelia to wife Mary. Brother Peter Epes, Stephen Cocke and Richard Jones Jr son of Col Richard Jones executors. £10 annually to mother. Dated Jan 29, 1772, proved in Amelia
 Co. April 24, 1789

Will of John Epes of Nottoway County, To wife Frances H. Epes & to children (whom he does not name) Dated Jan'y 26, 1816, proved in Nottoway Nov 7, 1816

[This Francis Epes, the testator, was the Francis, brother of Col.
 Peter Epes named in this Magazine III, 400. Other documents show that the mother to whom he bequeathed an annuity was named Sarah. This, together with the will of Martha Edwards (III, 399) proves that Peter & Francis were sons of Frances Epes & Sarah his wife, of Prince George, who made a deed in 1740.]

President, Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, 1014 West Franklin street; recording secretary, Mrs. Beverley T. Crump, 1401 Hanover avenue; corresponding secretary, Gaston Lichtenstein, 2527 Stuart avenue; treasurer, Mrs.
 Herbert W. Jackson, 1014 West Franklin street.

Advisory Board—Hon. Henry C. Stuart, Governor of Virginia; W.
 Gordon McCabe, president Virginia Historical Society; Edward V.
 Valentine, sculptor; John Hart.

Honorary president, Miss Maria Blair, The Chesterfield; vice-presidents: Miss Jane Rutherford, The Chesterfield; Mrs. Decatur Axtell, 912 West Franklin street; Mrs. John H. Southall, 114 East Franklin street; Mrs. Thomas Catesby Jones, 6 North Second street; Mrs. Mann S. Valentine, 918 West Franklin street.

This Association was organized May 11, 1915, for the purpose of honoring Maury in his own country.

Its first effort was to have his name placed in the Hall of Fame in New York, among those of other great Americans. The election to this place occurs only every five years and this Association believes that its efforts have not been in vain, and that his name will be enrolled in 1920.

The next undertaking was to induce the State Board of Education to appoint the 14th of January (Maury's birthday) as Maury Day in the schools; this was done on June 27, 1916, and put into the form of an amendment to section 5, page 13, of the school law of Virginia.

The next undertaking is for the erection of a bronze statue in the city of Richmond, to which it is desirable that every citizen of Virginia contribute in a general appreciation of the many inestimable benefits which Maury conferred upon mankind, benefits which lay upon the citizens of the Commonwealth the sacred duty of voicing for America that gratitude which thus far has found no adequate expression.

Those to whom the above statement of facts may appeal, and who may desire to help the objects of the Association, should send in at once their application for membership. The application should be accompanied with a check for one dollar, made payable to the Treasurer, the membership dues for one year, or for ten dollars, to cover the dues of life membership.

McCLANAHAN—If we only knew all of the facts as well as all the foot-prints relating to, and made by, the person we are tracing, the errors in family histories would be but few.

In Va. Mag. Vol. XIX, No. 3, pp. 308-309, is, "Paxton's 'Marshall Family'—McClanahan Correction," by Mr. J. Adger Stewart.

In History of Linn County, Missouri, at p. 541, is biographical sketch of William S. McClanahan, and I give below my brief notes taken from same:

William S. McClanahan, great nephew of Col. Thomas Marshall, b. Bourbon, Co. Ky., 5 miles from Paris, Dec. 18, 1800. His father, Thomas McClanahan, was early settler of Ky. & had been a soldier in Rev. War, under Col. Thomas Marshall, his uncle. The mother of Wm. S. McClanahan, was Nancy Green, whose father came from England. She married Thomas McClanahan and was with him in Boone's Fort.

Issue:— eleven children, three sons and six daughters were raised to maturity, and lost one son and one dau. in their youth. William S. McClanahan was next to last child. When William was two years old, (1802) his father moved to Logan Co. and settled in what is now Simpson Co. Ky. William was educated there and in Sept. 1822, he went to W. Va. and settled on farm in Nicholas, (now Braxton) County, where he married, Mch. 18, 1823, Elizabeth M. Triplett, dau. of Hedgeman Triplett, of Nicholas Co. He sold out in May 1836 and moved to Boone Co. Mo., where he lived till 1848; purchased land in Linn Co., Mo. in 1849, and moved to it in Feb. 1850, was County surveyor and served as County Clerk 9 years, 1862-71. Issue—nine children.

PARHAM

Mrs. Louise T. Hodges, of Decatur, DeKalb county, Ga., desires to communicate with any of the descendants of Capt. William Parham of Virginia, who died about 1758. Capt. Parham married Ann Stith.

Mrs. Hodges would be glad to correspond also with any one who can give information regarding the genealogy of James Thereatt [Thweatt] who married Sarah Studevant, John Thereatt [Thweatt] who married Rebecca Peterson or of any of the Thereatt [Thweatt] family. Also with any one who can give information bearing on the lineage of John Ingram who married Frances Collier.

Mrs. Hodges is herself a descendant from the persons mentioned above and desires to complete a record of their families which she is compiling.

LILBURNE—RANDOLPH—JEFFERSON

[The will of Isham Randolph, of "Dungeness," Goochland County, dated April 6, 1741 (Abstract in this Magazine XIV, 226), contained this clause: "Wheras I have in possession (in right of my wife) certain leasehold estate of yearly value and a certain sum of money, jointly with her, by a decree in Chancery chargeable on Kenton, the estate of William Lilburn, Esq., deceased, in the Bishoprick of Durham, and also another sum of money the legacy of Elizabeth Lilburn, to be paid by her exccutors when the estate of Kenton is sold, which money my wife, I apprehend, has a right to without my bequest." Isham Randolph married Jane Rogers, of Shadwell, England. She was probably the daughter of Charles Rogers and his wife Jane, daughter of William Lilburn, named in the paper printed below. The famous radical "Free-born" John Lilburn was a native of the county of Durham, and it was remarked, when Isham Randolph's will was printed that it would be an interesting fact in heredity if a relationship between John Lilburn and Thomas Jefferson (grandson of Isham & Jane Randolph) could be shown. We are indebted to Mr. Leo Calleton 92 Piccadilly, London, W., for the interesting document printed below.]

The accompanying Chancery suits shew how W'm. Lilburne became possessed of the Kenton property and I presume Jane Rogers the wife of Isham Randolph was the daughter of Charles Rogers and Jane Lilburne, and granddaughter of W'm. Lilburne.

I have made out a chart to illustrate how the families of Isham, Randolph, Lilburne and Rogers were connected. The particulars of the two former families are from sources which you will recognize. They are not of my compiling.

The George Lilburne suit has reference to the uncle of Robert Lilburne the Bagleide. There is no indication as yet of a connection between the two families.

Complait by GEORGE LILBURNE, of Sunderland by the sea, co. Durham, gent., that he was drawn in by one GEORGE HASWELL, of Chester in the street, in the said county in a bond bearing date 7 Nov. 16 Chas. II., of £100 under condition to pay £200 to one PETER SEDGWICK, of Washington, co. Durham, gent., before 10 May next ensuing, which was the proper debt of the said GEORGE HASWELL. The said GEORGE HASWELL has since died leaving the debt unpaid and left MARY HASWELL, his relict, a very considerable estate, sufficient to discharge all her husband's debts. But now the said PETER SEDGWICK has combined with MARY HASWELL and one WILLIAM HALL to lay the whole burden on complainant and have commenced a suit against him at common law. Being void of all remedy at common law, to his great prejudice he desires that writs of subpoena may be issued to the said PETER SEDGWICK, MARY HASWELL & WILLIAM HALL, causing them to appear to answer the premises.

Complaint by WILLIAM LILBURNE, of Newcastle upon Tyne, gent., eldest son and heir of WILLIAM LILBURNE, late of the same place, Esq'r., deceased, that the latter in his lifetime being seised in fee of the moiety of the manor, lordship or township of Kenton, co. Northumberland and the coalmines there, by his last WILL dated 7 January 1681-2 after certain legacies bequeathed, left the residue including the said real estate to his three sons, the complainant, ROBERT LILBURNE, one of the defendants and BENJAMIN LILBURNE, since deceased, to be equally divided amongst them. The said WILLIAM died very soon after making his WILL, leaving complainant very young in the guardianship of his mother ELIZABETH LILBURNE, who managed the estate and educated complainant until his full age. After complainant came of age, one WILLIAM CARR, of Newcastle on Tyne, Esq'r., one of the defendants requested to have a lease of the collieries and coalmines at a rental of £210 a year and entered into the same on 1 May 1691 and an Indenture was made 1st August, 3 William and Mary between the said Complainant, ELIZABETH LILBURNE, widow and relict of WILLIAM LILBURNE, ELEANOR LILBURNE, JANE LILBURNE, ELIZABETH LILBURNE, daughters of the said WILLIAM, deceased, of the one part and the said WILLIAM CARR, Alderman of Newcastle upon Tyne, leasing their moiety of the said coalmines and collieries to the said WILLIAM CARR for 21 years at the said yearly rental. Shortly after WILLIAM CARR demised the said premises to Sir WILLIAM BLACKETT, of Newcastle, Bart. Soon after executing the said lease to the said CARR several suits at law in this court arose between the said ELIZABETH LILBURNE complainants' mother, the complainant and ROBERT, ELEANOR, JANE, ELIZABETH MARY & ANN LILBURNE, daughters of deceased, touching an account of the profits of the Kenton lands and colliery Touching the daughters portions. The said CARR and one Mr. JOHN DOUGLAS advised complainant and his brother ROBERT to go into the Army to avoid and delay the said suits and in the interim CARR & DOUGLAS would receive the rents etc. Complainant not being willing to go into the Army alleged he had not the money to take him from Newcastle to London, whereupon WILLIAM CARR offered that if complainant would put him in possession of the Kenton lands, which are worth about £200 a year, he would advance him £100 and help him to some good preferment in the Army. Complainant being very young, accepted and was persuaded to enter into a bond together with his brother to repay the same with interest conveying the said lands, in default of payment, and entered into a counter bond with his said brother. He went into the Army and remained in the West Indies several years. Now the said WILLIAM CARR combining with ROBERT LILBURNE and JOHN DOUGLAS and other unknown persons is endeavoring to defraud complainant of the sums due to him from the said lands and colliery and the said ROBERT is suing him for £400 the penalty of the counter bond and they pretend that only small sums are due to him. Complainant affixes a schedule of the sums he considers due to him (amounting to £731:0:1½) and desires the said WILLIAM CARR, ROBERT LILBURNE and JOHN DOUGLAS may be called upon to appear to answer the premises.

Complaint by ELIZABETH LILBURNE, widow and executrix of WILLIAM LILBURNE, late of Newcastle upon Tyne, deceased, WILLIAM LILBURNE, ROBERT LILBURNE, ELEANOR LILBURNE, CHARLES ROGERS & JANE his wife, ALICE, ISABEL, MARY & ANNE LILBURNE (ELEANOR, JANE, ALICE, ISABEL, MARY & ANNE being daughters of WILLIAM, deceased) that one TRISTRAM FENWICK, late of Kenton, co. Northumberland, gent., deceased, being seised of certain lands and a colliery in Gunnerton, co. Northumberland, having occasion for £4,500 did in 1678 apply to the said WILLIAM LILBURNE, who lent it to him who by Indentures dated 27 August 1678 conveyed the lands and colliery in Kenton and Gunnerton to the said WILLIAM and his heirs with the proviso that on repayment of the said £4,500 with interest the said conveyance should be void. So being entitled, the said WILLIAM LILBURNE died in 1681 having made his WILL on 17 January 1681 appointing his wife ELIZABETH executrix and bequeathing his colliery lands to his sons, WILLIAM & ROBERT LILBURNE & BENJAMIN (now deceased), subject to the payment of various sums to his daughters. The said ELIZABETH brought ejectments against the said TRISTRAM FENWICK and got possession of the premises, whereupon the latter in Michaelmas Term, 1684 brought a suit in this court against complainants to show accounts of the rents and profits of the said mortgaged lands and colliery to which they put in their answer and the cause was heard on 7 July 36 Chas. II., and was referred to a Master to take an account of what was due. On 17 Dec. 1686 the Master made his report whereby £5,008.19.6. was due to complainants for money lent to TRISTRAM FENWICK on various accounts and TRISTRAM was ordered to pay the same and failing, his bill was dismissed out of Court. They claim they are entitled to the said premises, having been in possession thereof above 20 years, but now ELIZABETH FENWICK, widow, TRISTRAM & LANCELOT FENWICK with other unknown persons, allege they are entitled to a rent charge of £40 a year out of the said mortgaged lands, which they deny and therefore desire the said ELIZABETH, TRISTRAM & LANCELOT may be directed to appear to answer the premises 22 June, 8 Anne. Answers of ELIZABETH, TRISTRAM & LANCELOT FENWICK, affirming their right to the said £40 a year, which had been granted to the father and grandfather of the said TRISTRAM FENWICK, deceased, in a former mortgage. Complaint by ELIZABETH LILBURNE of Newcastle upon Tyne, Widow, Relict and Executrix of WILLIAM LILBURNE Esqr., deceased. That she exhibited her Bill of Complaint into this Court against WILLIAM & ROBERT LILBURNE, ELINOR LILBURNE, JANE, ALICE, & ROBERT LILBURNE, ELINOR LILBURNE, JANE, ALICE, ISABELL, MARY & ANNE LILBURNE and likewise against WILLIAM CARR Esq., Sir WILLIAM BLACKETT, Bart. deceased, GEORGE CUTHBERTSON & JANE his wife to be relieved touching the several matters therein contained and the said defendants being duly served with process appeared and put in their Answers to the said Bill. And that soon after the said WILLIAM, ROBERT, JANE, ALICE, ISABEL, MARY & ANNE did exhibit their cross Bill against complainant to which she put in her Answer. 17 Nov. 1699 the causes were heard and it was ordered that the said Sir WILLIAM BLACKETT should come to an account before Sir LAON WILLIAM CHILD and subsequently transferred to Sir JOHN FRANKLIN, Knt. Before the said Account was settled, the said WILLIAM BLACKETT died whereby the said suits abated having first made his will and appointed WILLIAM DAVISON Esq., JOHN WILKINSON, Gent., Joint executors who have proved the same in the P. C. C. and stand in the place of the said Sir WILLIAM BLACKETT.

Complainant therefore desires a Writ of subpoena may be directed to the said WILLIAM DAVISON & JOHN WILKINSON, Commanding them to appear in this Court and to shew Cause why the said Bills should not stand revived.

ROBERT HUNT

(Contributed by Leo Culleton, 92 Piccadilly, London, W., England)

The Dictionary of National Biography, drawing its information from "Athenae Cantabrigenses" makes Robert Hunt of Reculver father of Robert Hunt of Heathfield. The former was aged 28 or thereabouts in 1597 when he married Elizabeth Edwards, of St. Margarets, Canterbury. If the vicar of Heathfield was the eldest child by the marriage he would have been aged 8 when he made his will in 1606. These two are undoubtedly the same person.

Robert Hunt was instituted to the Vicarage of Reculver (and Hoath) co Kent 18 January 1594. I have not found when his successor was instituted at Reculver.

He was instituted to the Vicarage of Heathfield, co Sussex 5 Oct. 45 (sic) Eliz. according Bishops Certificates First Fruits. I imagine this must mean the 44th year of Elizabeth, 1602, for the 45th year of her reign was from 17th Nov. 1602 to 24th March 1603 when she died. You will note the bracketed "anno reg nuper Regin Eliz. quadregesimo quinto". He had a daughter baptized at Heathfield 6 Feb. 1602-3. His successor at Heathfield, Robert Say, was instituted and admitted 14 Sept. 6 Jas. (1609).

Robert Hunt signed every page of Heathfield Register from 1602 to 1605, in that year his last entry is 23 June 1605. The cessation of his signature at that date would suggest that his connection with Heathfield came to an end in June 1605, but in his will drawn up in Nov. 1606 he still styles himself Vicar of Heathfield. The probate Act, 14 July 1608, has no mention about his dying abroad, but there is no entry of his burial at Heathfield, neither is there any monumental inscription. I have obtained tracings of his signature from the Heathfield register, also from his (original) will. These I send attached to a working pedigree of two generations. You will be able to compare these signatures with the one you have from the Reculver or Heath register.

From Will

From Heathfield Register

He may be identical with Robert Hunt of Hampshire born circa 1569, who matriculated at Magdalen Hall, Oxford, 14 Feb. 1588-9, then aged 20, B. A. 1592, M. A. 1595, but I have made no efforts to prove this.

The Bishops Registers should contain something about him, perhaps his ordination papers; his transfer from one diocese to another. The Archbishop of Canterbury's records might mention him in connection with the Reculver as that place was under the "Peculiar" Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

[The readers of this Magazine are greatly obliged to Mr. Culleton for his researches in regard to Robert Hunt. The information now furnished, together with what was given with his will (this Magazine XXV, 161, 162) makes it almost certain that he was the devoted minister at Jamestown. Unfortunately the tracings of Robert Hunt's signature for the register at Reculver, which were sent to the Society by Mr. Dwelly, have been misplaced. Other tracings will be obtained if possible and fac-similes printed. Would not Robert Hunt have needed the permission of his bishop before leaving his English vicarage to come to Virginia? If so there should be some entry in the records of the Diocese of Chichester. Wingfield, in his "Discourse of Virginia," says that he consulted the Archbishop of Canterbury about the right choice of a spiritual pastor to take to Virginia.—Ed.]

GENEALOGY.

JOHNSON OF KING WILLIAM, LOUISA, &C.

(N. B. In spite of the most strenuous efforts of the compiler and editor, the printer turned the "hen, heu" in the Latin epitaph on page 329, into "hen, hen.")

1. COL. RICHARD¹ JOHNSON had issue: 2. Thomas²; 3. Richard²; 4. William².

2. THOMAS² JOHNSON was a member of the House of Burgesses for King and Queen County at the sessions of April 1718, and for King William at the sessions of November 1720, and May 1722. He lived in Hanover County at the time of his death which occurred about 1734. In the only remaining old record book of Hanover are the following: (1) Bond, February 1734, from Ann Johnson, widow of Thomas Johnson, as guardian of Richard, Jane, Ann and Thomas Johnson, orphans of Thomas Johnson, deceased; (2) Deed, December 1734, from Ann Johnson to her son Nicholas Johnson; (3) Deed, January 1734, from Nicholas Johnson of King William County, to his sisters Jane and Ann Johnson

Thomas² Johnson married Ann, daughter of Nicholas Meriwether and had issue:

5. Nicholas³; 6. Richard³; 7. Jane³, married in 1740, Richard Chapman, of King William County; 8. Ann³, married John Boswell; 9. Thomas³; 10. William³

3. RICHARD² JOHNSON, was a member of the House of Burgesses for King and Queen County at the sessions of May 1723, and May 1726. He died without issue, and probably unmarried. By his will, dated Dec. 13, 1733, he left 2765 acres in Caroline County to his nephew Thomas Johnson, and 1000 acres in King and Queen to his nephew Richard Johnson (Hening VII, 159, VIII, 455)

4. WILLIAM² JOHNSON is mentioned in an act in Hening V, 114, and on May 2, 1705, received a re-grant of 4900 acres on Godwin or Monlewen Swamp, which had been given him by the will of Col. Richard¹ Johnson. He probably lived in King and Queen County, and may have been ancestor of Philip Johnson of King and Queen who removed to James City County and became a member of the House of Burgesses for that County. The records of King & Queen County have been destroyed and there is no trace of this William Johnson in the records of Louisa, unless it is in a suit there, May 27, 1746, to have the estate of Will Johnson divided, and also another against Sarah, widow of William Johnson.

Issue: (Probably): 11. David³

5. NICHOLAS³ JOHNSON is named in two deeds in Hanover County, 1734, which have been referred to. In an act of Assembly, May 1740 (which has been referred to) the entail is docketed on 750 acres in King William County, which belonged to Nicholas Johnson, eldest son of Thomas Johnson, deceased, and in its stead 600 acres in the parish of St. Martin's, Hanover County, (400 acres of which had been given said Nicholas and his brother Richard by their grandfather Nicholas Meriwether) and 14 negroes were entailed. It is probable that at this time Nicholas Johnson removed from King William to that part of Hanover which is now Louisa. There is a deed June 23, 1757 from John Cosby and Ann his wife of Louisa, to Nicholas Johnson of Louisa and Thomas Johnson of Caroline County, conveying land patented by Ann Cosby (by the name of Ann Johnson) in 1739. In 1734 Nicholas made a deed to his sisters and therefore was of age at that time. On June 9, 1761, by deed recorded in Louisa, Nicholas Johnson conveyed to John Boswell land in Louisa which said Nicholas and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Charles Hudson, had received from said Hudson's estate. The inventory of the estate of Nicholas Johnson, deceased, was recorded in Louisa in 1764. Thomas Johnson Jr. came into Court and made oath that he believed Nicholas Johnson died intestate, and was appointed administrator. Nicholas Johnson married Elizabeth daughter of Charles Hudson. Issue: 12. Thomas'; 13. Mary married Richard Anderson (and possibly others)
6. RICHARD³ JOHNSON received 1000 acres in King and Queen under the will of his uncle Richard Johnson. By an act in 1760 (Hening VIII, 455) the entail in this land was docketed and 400 acres in Louisa and 14 negroes entailed in its stead. In the act the dower rights of his wife Dorothy are protected. It is stated in an account by a member of the family that her surname was Powers—probably Power. There is on record in Louisa a suit, begun Aug. 12, 1766, between Richard Anderson, Richard Johnson and John Boswell, Pets. vs. Thomas Johnson, administrator of Nicholas Johnson. Nicholas Johnson was J. P. for Louisa 1742, and qualified as Colonel of Militia of the County Jan. 1742. Whether he had issue is unknown to the compiler. He removed to Hanover and was the Col. Richard Johnson of New Castle, Hanover, who died in 1771 (Virginia Gazette). There is a deed in Louisa, 1772, from Dorothy Johnson of Hanover, widow of Col Richard Johnson, deceased

YEARDLEY—FLOWERDEWE—WEST

Notes from English Records in Reference to the Yeardley, Flowerdewe and West Families. Furnished from England at the instance of Mr. Griffin (Callahan, Philadelphia, Pa.)

REPORT

The possible clue to Ralph Yardley's parentage through the will of Humphrey Yardley of Lillington has proven a failure. The result of a visit paid to Lillington is enclosed. The baptisms of the five sons and three daughters mentioned in his will are all recorded in the parish register there, but unfortunately with the exception of Anne, the names fail to agree with the family of Ralph Yardley the merchant tailor. In his will he mentions a brother Thomas and sister Anne, and most probably the Arthur Yardley whom he made free of the Merchant Taylors Company was also his brother.

Previous to the actual search at Lillington, a search with regard to that clue had been made in London, the result of which is also enclosed. The Lay Subsidies for the Knightflow Hundred of Warwickshire show a considerable number of Yardleys living there at that time. The family at Radford Semele seem to have been long established at that place, and the Lillington Yardleys were probably a branch of it.

Chancery Proceedings Series II have been examined & a list is enclosed. They do not throw much light on the subject.

If Ralph Yardley came to London from the midlands he must have done so at an early age. Neither his will, nor his sister Ann Palmer's, make any reference to an old home, as was often done at that time.

If the connection between the Yardleys and Yerwoods could be discovered it would be of great assistance.

[A. D. 1558-1579]

Bulkeley v. Yardeley

Bill [undated]

[Short Abstract] The plaintiff, Thomas Bulkeley of London, yeoman, shews that his late father, Thomas Bulkeley of Farndon co. Chester yeoman, was seised in his lifetime of messuages & lands in Farndon & Churton co. Chester. And being seised, about twenty years before, he mortgaged the said premises to one John Yardeley of Farndon, father of the defendant. The plaintiff states that he has often offered to redeem the mortgage, but the defendant has always refused to accept the money.

Answer [undated]

The defendant John Yardeley denies that the premises in question were mortgaged to his father, but asserts that they were sold to him. By his deed of feoffment dated the 16th of December [A. D. 1547] 1 Edw. VI., Thos. Bulkeley, the father, remised all claim to the said premises to John Yardeley the father. After the death of his said father, the premises descended to the defendant as of right they ought.

THE GORSUCH AND LOVELACE FAMILIES.

ANNA⁴ GORSUCH AND THE TODD, SEATON, MOORE, HIDE AND NORTH

11. Elizabeth⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). The Fontaine MSS. (ante, 89) places her as the third daughter of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd, and refers to her as: "Elizabeth who first married a Scotchman, named Seaton and secondly my [i. e. Col. John Spotswood Skyrn's] great-grandfather Col. Augustine Moore." (See ante 25; 89; Wm. & Mary C. Q. 19; 177-184).

Elizabeth⁶ Todd married first Henry Seaton probably about 1710. Confirmatory proof of this marriage is to be found in a Spotsylvania County deed, dated February 5, 1727, from James Taylor of King and Queen, and his wife Martha, conveying 1280 acres on both sides of East North East River in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, for the use of George Seaton, son and heir of Henry Seaton and his wife Elizabeth, now the wife of Augustine Moore of King and Queen, gentleman, and in the fault of heirs to Lucy Moore and her heirs, then to Bernard Moore and heirs, the daughter and son of Augustine and Elizabeth Moore, and in the fault of heirs to the other heirs of Augustine Moore. Witnesses Robert Baylor, George Moore, Frances Baylor and Thomas Griffith (Crozier's Va. Rec.-Spotsylvania Co.; 101). The will of Col. Augustine Moore, the husband of Elizabeth⁶ Todd, dated January 20, 1712-3, mentions his son-in-law [stepson] George Seaton. (See post).

The following statements in regard to Henry Seaton and his descendants, unless other references are given, have been taken from a life of William Winston Seaton, editor and owner of the National Intelligencer, and a great-grandson of Henry Seaton and Elizabeth⁶ Todd (William Winston Seaton; A Biographical Sketch; Boston, 1871; pp. 5-14): Henry, the eldest son of John Seaton* of Gairmiltoun, East Lothian, who emigrated to Gloucester County,

*While the writer rather hesitates to question the tradition that Henry Seaton was the son of John Seaton of Scotland, and the first immigrant to Virginia in 1690, it seems possible that this Henry Seaton may really have been the son of a George Seaton, who died in Virginia prior to 1679, and that the Scotch connection, if true, came in at an earlier date. The will of Hugh Nevett, dated July 27, 1673, appoints Mr. George Seaton and Mr. John Throckmorton, executors, but an affidavit filed at the time of probate, October 5th, 1680, shows that both executors were then dead, Seaton having died prior to February, 1678-9. (Va. Mag. 14; 208). Nevett, Seaton and Throckmorton lived in Gloucester.

Virginia, had been forced to leave Scotland on account of his active support of the cause of the Stuarts. He married Elizabeth Todd. He was a vestryman of Petsworth parish. He settled first on the Piank-tank, later moving to the Mattapony, where his only child George was born in 1711.

Issue of Henry Seaton and his wife Elizabeth⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd):

i. George⁷ Seaton (Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born 1711.

Died 1750. Married 1734, Elizabeth Hill, daughter of Leonard Hill, gentleman, of King William County. He lived in King and Queen County. The inventory of his personal property has been preserved by his descendants. While the biography of William Winston Seaton refers to only two children of this George Seaton viz: Augustine and Elizabeth, whose descendants are there traced, it seems possible that a "George Seaton, gent" appointed in 1776 to sign the Virginia paper currency notes may be another son. Elizabeth, the widow of George Seaton, was living September 23rd, 1760, when as Betty Seaton, widow, she and her son Augustine of King and Queen County for £135, convey 600 acres on East North East River to Edward Casson (Crozier's Va. Rec.-Spotsylvania Co. 218).

Issue of George⁷ Seaton (Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵), and his wife Elizabeth Hill:

(1) Augustine⁸ Seaton (George⁷ Seaton; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). He inherited his father's estates in King and Queen. He married in 1776, Mary, the youngest daughter of Samuel Winston, of Louisa County. William Winston Seaton, born January 11, 1785, was a child of this marriage. Reference has already been made (see Elizabeth⁶ Todd, ante) to an account of his life said to have been written by his daughter, although published anonymously: William Winston Seaton; A Biographical Sketch: Boston; 1871.

(2) Elizabeth⁸ Seaton (George⁷ Seaton; Elizabeth⁶ Todd Thomas⁵). The biography of William Winston Seaton and the Encyclopaedia of Virginia Biography both state that Elizabeth, the daughter of George Seaton, married Col. John West of West Point, York River, Virginia. The Encyclopaedia states that this Thomas West died in 1743, and that he was a son of Capt. Thomas West of King William County. The Seaton biography states that the marriage took place 1741. There is obviously an error here, either in dates or as regards the identity of the Elizabeth Seaton who married Col. John West, as George Seaton, the father, did not marry until 1734.

AUGUSTINE MOORE

From portrait in possession of Mrs. I. N. Jones

Mrs. Elizabeth⁶ (Todd) Seaton married secondly about 1714, Col. Augustine Moore of "Chelsea", King William County, Virginia. The Journal of John Fontaine is said to show that this marriage had taken place some time prior to November 9th, 1715, which was soon after the death of Col. Moore's first wife Mary, whose tombstone at "Chelsea", shows that she died in 1713 (Wm. & Mary 14; 267). According to the family records, Col. Augustine Moore was born in England about 1685, and emigrated to Virginia about 1705. He is said to have been, on his paternal side, of the same family of Moore as the Lord Mayor of London of this name in the time of Charles II. The Moore coat of arms is still at Chelsea. His mother's maiden name was Grace Cresacre More and she is said to have been a lineal descendant of Sir Thomas More, the author of "Utopia". Col. Augustine Moore was a very rich planter. He married while on a trip to England about 1710, Mary Gage, who died at the birth of her first child, she and her infant being both buried at Chelsea. (Wm. & Mary 14; 266 and 19; 177 et seq.) Col. Augustine Moore died September 28, 1734. A copy of his will, found among the family papers of Col. William Aylett (Wm. & Mary 14; 266) has been published in Charles Campbell's Genealogy of the Spotswood Family, Albany; 1868. This will is dated January 20th, 1742-3, and was proved August 18, 1743, in King William County. It is very lengthy and disposes of a large estate of personal property and lands lying in King William, Gloucester, Caroline and Spotsylvania Counties. He mentions by name his wife Elizabeth Moore, his three sons, Bernard, Thomas and Augustine, his two daughters Elizabeth Macon and Lucy Robinson, his son-in-law John Robinson and his son-in-law [step-son] George Seaton, his daughter-in-law Ann Moore, wife of his son Bernard, and his three grandchildren, Elizabeth Macon, Lucy Robinson and John Robinson. The witnesses are, Mary Bramble, Betty Todd, Robt. Tapscott and John Woolfolk. The Fontaine MSS. (ante 89) names the issue of Col. Augustine Moore and his wife Elizabeth Todd in the order given below.

Issue of Augustine Moore and Elizabeth⁶ (Todd) Seaton (Thomas⁵ Todd), his wife:

- i. Elizabeth⁷ Moore, (Elizabeth⁶ Todd. Thomas⁵), born about 1716; died after September 10th, 1779. She is referred to as the eldest daughter and was probably the eldest child. The family papers of Col. William Aylett, her son-in-law, of Fairfield, King William County, state that she married first Lynn Lloyd, gentleman, who was living 1737, although there is no mention of issue by her first husband. The editor of the Magazine writes that he thinks this is an error and that he believes Elizabeth⁷ Moore really married Lyonell Lyde, son of Cornelius Lyde of King William County, who died January 20, 1737. She married secondly, between 1737 and 1742, Col. James Macon, as her father's will, dated 1742-3, mentions his granddaughter Elizabeth Macon. Col. Macon was born October 28, 1721, and died between July 22 and December 15, 1768. In a copy of Mrs. Elizabeth Macon's will, found among the Aylett papers, dated September 10, 1779, although the date of probate is not given, published in the William and Mary College Quarterly, she describes herself as Elizabeth Macon of St. John's Parish, King William County. She mentions her daughter Mary Aylett, her grandchildren Philip and Elizabeth Aylett, and her son-in-law William Aylett; her granddaughter Anne Claiborne and "her present husband," and Anne Claiborne's father Bartholomew Dandridge. She appoints her sons-in-law Bartholomew Dandridge and William Aylett, executors. The Aylett family papers further show that Bartholomew Dandridge married first Elizabeth Macon, the eldest daughter of Col. James Macon, and secondly, Mary Burbidge, the daughter of Julius King Burbidge (Wm. & Mary 14; 235-267). It would therefore appear that Col. James Macon and his wife Elizabeth⁷ Moore, had only two children, Elizabeth⁸ and Mary⁸.

Issue of James Macon and his wife, Elizabeth⁷ Moore, (Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵):

- (1) Elizabeth⁸ Macon (Elizabeth⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born before 1742-3. Died before 1779. Married Bartholomew Dandridge and had at least one daughter Anne Dandridge, who married William Dandridge Claiborne. (Wm. & Mary 13; 266-267).
 - (2) Mary⁸ Macon (Elizabeth⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Married Col. William Aylett of Fairfield, King William County, Virginia. He was a son of Philip Aylett who died April 1780. She was living 1779. They left descendants.
- ii. Augustine⁷ Moore (Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Apparently did not marry. Certainly left no descendants, as a Spotsylvania deed dated September 29, 1760, from his brother Thomas⁷ Moore of King William County, gentleman, and wife Joanna to his brother Bernard⁷ Moore, gentleman, of the same county, recites that certain land left to Augustine Moore, Jr., under the will of his father Augustine Moore, dated January 6, 1742, with reversion to his brothers Bernard and Thomas, had become vested before the making of this deed in Bernard and Thomas, by the death of their brother Augustine without issue (Crozier's, Va. Rec.-Spotsylvania Co.; 218).

- iii. Lucy⁷ Moore (Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Probably born about 1720. Married at least as early as 1740, John Robinson, as her father's will, dated January 20, 1742-3, refers to his daughter Lucy Robinson, her children Lucy Robinson and John Robinson, and her husband John Robinson. Her husband was John Robinson (1704-1766), of King and Queen County, Speaker of the House of Burgesses, and Treasurer of Virginia from 1738 to 1765. Speaker Robinson married three times. His first wife, whom he married November 8, 1723, was Mary Storey, by whom he had one child, died in infancy. Lucy⁷ Moore was his second wife. She died sometime previous to December 21, 1759, when he married his third wife Susan Chiswell. A writer on the Robinson family (Va. Mag. 17; 318 et seq. 429 et seq.) states that nothing certain is known in regard to the children of John and Lucy (Moore) Robinson, nor whether there were more than these two children, John and Mary, mentioned in Augustine Moore's will. Tradition says one of Speaker Robinson's daughters, unnamed, married a Col. Boyd and that their descendants moved to the South, but does not state of which of the last two wives she was the daughter. It seems certain that John⁸, the son of Lucy⁷ Moore, died young, for the Virginia Gazette, January 27, 1774, records the death of "Master John Robinson, only son of the late Speaker," who was certainly a younger son of the same name by his third wife Susan Chiswell. Speaker Robinson had by his third wife, a daughter Susan, who married Robert Nelson of Henrico County and left descendants.

Issue of John Robinson and his second wife Lucy⁷ Moore:

- (1) John⁸ Robinson (Lucy Moore⁷; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Born before 1742-3. Apparently died young.
 - (2) Lucy⁸ Robinson (Lucy Moore⁷; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Born before 1742-3. It may have been she who married a Col. Boyd and whose descendants moved to the South.
- iv. Bernard⁷ Moore (Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Born about 1720. Married Anne Catherine Spotswood, the eldest daughter of Major General Alexander Spotswood, governor of Virginia, between April 19, 1740, the date of Gov. Spotswood's will, and January 20, 1742-3. Col. Bernard⁷ Moore lived at "Chelsea", King William County, which he had inherited from his father. He was a justice of King William County and a colonel of militia. He represented this county in the House of Burgesses from 1744-1753 and again from 1761-1772, when his eldest son, Augustine⁸ Moore, succeeded him as Burgess. Bernard⁷ Moore's name also appears frequently in the records of Spotsylvania County, where he owned large tracts of land. The exact date of his death has not been learned. His wife, who was born, 1725, died March, 1802. The writer is indebted to the published accounts of the Spotswood family for the following data in regard to the descendants of Col. Bernard Moore, as he has been unable to verify this data from the public records. (See Wm. & Mary C. Q. 19; 177-184; Charles Campbell's Genealogy of the Spotswood family; Albany: 1868. Browning's Americans of Royal Descent.)

Issue of Bernard⁷ Moore (Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵), and his wife Anne Katherine Spotswood:

- (1) Augustine⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Married Sarah Rind. His will dated January 20, 1777, was proved in Essex County, March, 1777. He was a Burgess from King and Queen County in 1772-1774 and in 1775-1776. He left descendants.
- (2) Thomas⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). He died unmarried.
- (3) Bernard⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). He married Lucy Ann Hebbard Leiper, the daughter of Dr. James Hamilton Leiper of Chester County, Pennsylvania, and his wife Elizabeth Smallwood, sister of Gen. William Smallwood, Governor of Maryland. In another account of the Leiper family, however, it is stated that this Dr. James Hamilton Leiper settled in Prince George's County, Maryland, before 1763, and in his will dated November 15, 1771, and proved December 2, 1771, styles himself "surgeon and resident of London", and mentions his daughter Lucy Ann Hebbard Leiper. (The Thomas Book. By L. B. Thomas, New York. 1896. pp. 435-436). Bernard Moore and his wife Elizabeth left several children.
- (4) Elizabeth⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Married about 1764, Dr. John Walker of Belvoir, Albemarle County, Va. Both died in 1809. They left descendants.
- (5) Anne Butler⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Married prior to 1771 Charles Carter of Shirley. They had several children, among others Ann Hill⁹ Carter, born 1771, who married July 18, 1793, as his second wife, Major-General Henry Lee, and became the mother of Gen. Robert E. Lee¹⁰.
- (6) John⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Married his cousin Anna Dandridge. They left descendants.

BERNARD MOORE AND A SISTER.

From portrait in possession of Mrs. L. N. Jones

- (7) Alexander Spotswood⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Married July 19, 1787, Elizabeth the daughter of Col. William Aylett of Fairfield, King William County, Va. They left descendants.
- (8) Lucy⁸ Moore (Bernard⁷ Moore; Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Married the Rev. Henry Skyren. They left descendants. (Wm. & Mary C. Q. 19, 179.)
- v. Thomas Moore (Elizabeth⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). He lived in King William County. Very little has been learned in regard to him. He married prior to November 29, 1760, Joanna -----, but what descendants, if any, they had, has not been learned. There is a Spotsylvania deed dated November 19, 1760; from Thomas Moore of King William County, gentleman, and his wife Joanna, conveying to his brother Bernard Moore of the same county, gentleman, land which they had acquired through the death of their brother Augustine (see Augustine⁷ Moore ante).

12. ———⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). Thomas⁵ Todd and his wife, Elizabeth Bernard, had a daughter whose Christian name has not been learned, who married Jonathan Hide of Middlesex County, Virginia. This is learned from the will of her brother Thomas⁶ Todd of Baltimore County, Maryland, 1715, and from the will of Jonathan Hide, 1718. As has previously been shown (ante p. 215) Thomas⁶ Todd of Maryland appointed under his will dated January 11, 1714-15, and proved June 11, 1715, as the executors "for my estate in Virginia and the settlement of my accounts in England my bror's William Todd and Jonathan Hide". The will of Jonathan Hide, dated December 15, 1718, and proved March 3, 1718-19 (Middlesex Co. Va. Wills, Book B. F. 110), an abstract of which follows, shows conclusively that the testator had married the daughter of Thomas⁵ Todd. I, Jonathan Hide, in Christ Church Parish in the county of Middlesex, being sick and weak, etc., do make my last will, etc. I give unto Eliza Davis, my housekeeper, £30 towards the maintenance of herself and her daughter, Eliza Davis. I give to my executors and executrix 20 shillings each to buy them rings. I give to my loving daughter, Ann Hide and her heirs all the remainder of my real and personal property, at marriage or at eighteen years of age; if she die, my estate to be divided equally between George Seaton and Lucy Moore, the son and daughter of Eliza Moore, and the eldest son of William Todd. His loving brothers-in-law, William Todd and Augustine Moore, his sister-in-law, Eliza Moore, and his daughter Ann Hyde, are appointed executors. The will was witnessed by Matt ^{his} X Bowden, _{mark}

Mary ^{her} X Saunders and Elizabeth ^{her} X Bulliard. _{mark} Will Stanard, clerk.

The will was proved by Mr. Augustine Moore, March 3d, 1718-19.

From the above evidence there would appear to be no question that Jonathan Hide married a daughter of Thomas⁵ Todd, as Mrs. Elizabeth⁶ Moore, Thomas⁶ Todd and William⁶ Todd were the children of Thomas⁵ Todd. A search of the Middlesex County deeds would probably show the name of his wife, who had died prior to the date of the will, and would also probably show what became of his only child Ann Hide. Nothing further is known by the writer in regard to Jonathan Hide except that causal references to him in connection with the settlement of the estate of James Phillips of Baltimore County, Maryland, one of the executors of Thomas⁶ Todd of Baltimore County for the latter's estate in Maryland, indicates that Hide was a merchant.

Issue of Jonathan Hide and his wife -----⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd):

- i. Ann⁷ Hide (-----⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Unmarried and under eighteen years of age, 1718. when she inherited her father's estate. Nothing further is known in regard to her.

13. Frances⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵ Todd; Anna⁴, John³, Daniel², William¹ Gorsuch). The Fontaine MSS. refer to her last in enumerating the children of Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth (Bernard) Todd as: "Another daughter, whose name I do not remember just now, married a man named North." Confirmation of the marriage of Frances⁶ Todd and Robert North is to be found in the Robert North Family Bible. This contains the entry: "Robert North, son of Thomas & Ellin North of the Parrish of Whittington in the County of Lancashire in Great Britain was married to Frances Todd, Daughter of Thomas & Elizabeth Todd of the Colony of Virginia, the second day of July Anno Domini 1729 & had Issue." The enumeration of their issue which then follows will be considered later. This Bible, the first entries of which are in the handwriting of Robert North was in the possession of his great-grandson, George North Moale of Baltimore County, at the time of the latter's death a few years ago. Still another confirmatory reference, and this from the public records, is to be found in the inventory of Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵) of Baltimore County, filed by Bazill Dorsey and Caleb Dorsey, Jr. [brothers-in-law of the testator], two of the executors, who make oath in regard to the appraisement August 13, 1739, that "they know no other relations the deceased hath in the Province except Robert North who signed the inventory". Of course this statement as to "no other relations" was not intended to apply to the testator's young children. Robert North had married the testator's aunt Frances⁶ Todd. The inscription upon the tombstone of Frances⁶ (Todd) North, in the churchyard of old St. Thomas's or Garrison Forest Church, Green Spring Valley, Baltimore County, reads: "Frances North wife of Robert North died July 25, 1745 in her 36th year." This would place her birth about 1709. The North Bible also gives the date of her death as July 25, 1745, although it does not state her age. She is not to be confused with an elder sister of the same name who died in childhood, and whose tombstone at Toddsbury records: Frances Todd born Apr. 12, 1692; died Nov. 5, 1703.

Family tradition asserts that Frances⁶ (Todd) North was quick witted and the possessor not only of a large suit of brilliant red hair, but of a very high temper. The story is told that one Christmas morning as she rode into St. Paul's churchyard on horseback wearing a green bonnet, she overheard the taunting remark of another prominent young matron to a group of bystanders: "Whoever saw carrots with green tops at Christmas?", a remark which was promptly rebuked with a blow of her riding whip and the routing of the enemy. What would seem to be confirmation of this old story has recently been found by the writer in the Baltimore County Court Proceedings (Lib. 1733; fol. 13), for in 1731, Frances the wife of Robert North was haled before the justices of the county court and fined 100 pounds of tobacco because "she did then and there with force of arms, assault, beat, wound and bully Jane Partridge, wife of Buckler Partridge, 'chirurgian'". No clue to the cause of the attack is found in the record, but if the old story of the cause of the fracas be true, the court evidently took the view that the punishment inflicted to avenge offended vanity was a trifle too severe. Capt. Robert North probably married Frances⁶ Todd in Virginia. Family tradition asserts that as a young man he was a sea captain. He may therefore have met her on some of his trips through the Chesapeake.

The North family is identified with the parish of Whittington, Lancashire, where they have been lords of the manor since the fourteenth century, and is still (1915) represented there by Col. Bordrigge North North, the present lord of the manor of Newton, Whittington.* Lack of

*The Norths were a typical Lancashire County family of the minor gentry. There is no known connection between the Norths of Whittington and the family to which the celebrated Lord North of Kirtling belonged. A progenitor of Robert North, Richard, as head of the family furnished his quota of men and served at Flodden Field, 1531, under his overlord, Edward Stanley, later Lord Monteagle, made immortal by Scott in Marmion, in the lines:

"Charge, Chester, charge! On, Stanley on!"
 Were the last words of Marmion.

John North, head of the family two generations later, was fined in 1631-1632 for refusing the honors of knighthood, although like the great majority of the old Lancashire gentry, a stanch royalist and apparently a Catholic. He appears to have died in Lancaster Castle while imprisoned there for espousing the cause of Charles I. His son Richard, a Catholic, later had to compound with the Parliamentary Commission for his confiscated estates. After his death, however, the successive heads of the North family of Whittington appear as members of the Established Church. The Norths of Whittington intermarried with the families of Tunstall, Carus, Eskridge, Brabin and others. The arms of the Norths of Whittington are: Arms—1st and 4th, per pale, azure and sable, a lion passant between the chief two flier-de-llys and in base a quatrefoil or. Crest—a dragon's head erased sable guttee d'or and collared and chained or, in front three mascles interlaced fessways (See Victorian History of Lancashire; Vol. VIII. Burke's Landed Gentry, 8th edit., 1891; Vol. II, pp. 1492-5.)

space prevents an extended notice of the genealogy of the North family in the present connection. Complete verification of the Robert North Bible entry as to his parentage has been obtained by the writer from the Whittington Register, Lancashire wills, and other public records, as well as from old family deeds and papers now belonging to Col. Bordrigge North North, which he has been allowed to examine. Robert North, the immigrant, was the son of Thomas North of Newton in Whittington, gentleman, and his wife, Ellin Lonsdale. The Whittington Register shows that he was baptized Oct. 29, 1698, (Lancashire Parish Register Society vol. 3). The wills of both his father and mother are in existence and refer to "Robert North of Maryland" and his children. The connections of this Thomas North with the main North line have also been clearly established.

Robert North, the immigrant, made his first purchase of land in Baltimore County in 1721, acquiring Coxe's Fancy, 100 acres, from Edward Cox (Balto. Deeds 18: G, 263). He became a very extensive land owner in this county, and was a man of wealth and prominence. He was a justice of the Baltimore County Court 1734-1735. He was one of the commissioners appointed by the Assembly in 1732 to lay out Jones's Town, or "Old Town," united in 1745 with Baltimore Town. Robert North was living on Bear Creek, Patapsco Neck, March, 1732. At the March, 1731-2, session of the county court he presents a petition that he is now an inhabitant of Patapsco Neck on Bear Creek and complains that the road leading to his plantation and the plantation of Patrick Lynch and the widow Bowen's through that of John Eaglestone has been unlawfully closed. (Balto. Co. Court Proc. 1730-2, fol. 229). He took up several lots in both Baltimore Town and Jones's Town. He appears to have lived at one time in Jones's Town. The records show that January 19, 1729, he took up in Baltimore Town among others, the lot now bounded by Baltimore, Calvert and Fayette Streets and now occupied in part by the Hotel Emerson and the Equitable Building, but forfeited his right to it by his failure to erect thereon within the eighteen months prescribed by law, a house which should cover at least 400 square feet. (Records of Baltimore Town; 1729-1797; Balto. 1905.) Among his land holdings was a magnificent tract of 1000 acres at the head of the Green Spring Valley, bought by him from Christopher and Nathaniel Gist. Much of this land is still owned and occupied by the descendants of his daughter Ellin⁷ (North) Moale. He also owned 500 acres of the 1500-acre tract Shawan Hunting Grounds, purchased from his nephew Thomas⁷ Todd (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵). Other tracts owned by him were: The Plains, 300 acres; Hooker's Chance, 150 acres; Sheridan's Grove, 200 acres; Low's Range, 100 acres; Brown's Chance, 150 acres; Chevy Chase, 200 acres.

The North Bible gives the date of the death of his wife Frances as July 25, 1745, but does not mention Robert North's second marriage. He remarried however soon after his wife Frances's death. Under his will, dated March 20, 1748, his wife Catherine is left the tract Phillip's Addition in Patapsco Neck for life, but received none of his personal estate, explained by the existence of a marriage settlement, disclosed in the administration account of his estate filed by Alexander Lawson, July 13, 1751, in the entry: "sundries paid by this accountant to Madam North of ye^e dec'd, agreeable to the contract of marriage, £555 8-0." (Balto. Adm. Accts. 5; 225). The family name of his second wife has not been learned. He evidently left no issue by her. Katherine North appears as a witness of the will of Robert North's son-in-law, Christopher Carnan, dated Dec. 8, 1769 (Balto. Wills 3; 133). The inventory of the estate of Catherine North of Baltimore County was filed by Mary Stansbury, her administratrix, Feb. 7, 1773 (Balto. Inv. 11; 145). There was a "Benjamin North, late of Baltimore County, marriner," whose estate was administered upon Jan. 31, 1761, by Robert North's sons-in-law Christopher Carnan and John Moale, who sign as "next of kin" (Balto. Inv. 7; 193). The Whittington Register shows that Benjamin North was a younger brother of Robert and that he was christened July 9, 1713. Robert North died March 24, 1748-9, and his tombstone describing him as "Capt. Robert North", is at St. Thomas's. (Bible and tombstone inscription.) The Norths were originally buried in old St. Paul's church yard, Baltimore, but the remains were removed about a century ago to St. Thomas's. Robert North's will, dated March 20, 1748, was proved April 5, 1749. He leaves to his daughter Elizabeth North, 500 acres of the Guist [Gist] tract at the head of Jones Falls in Green Spring Valley, his lot No. 16 in Jonestown with the houses thereon, and certain slaves. To his daughter Ellin North he leaves 500 acres of the Green Spring tract, being "that portion upon which Nathaniel Guist lived," two lots No. 8 and No. 9 in Jonestown with the houses thereon, £25 sterling left her as a legacy by her grandmother Ellen North in my hands, and £100 sterling to be laid out and expended upon her education. To his son Thomas he leaves a number of his tracts of land which he mentions by name, as well as £200 sterling. He directs that the remainder of his lands be sold and the proceeds equally divided between his three children Thomas, Elizabeth and Ellen. He leaves to St. Paul's Parish £12-10-0 to purchase silver plate for the communion table. Alexander Lawson and his son Thomas North were appointed executors. One of the witnesses was [his brother] Benjamin North. (Balto. Wills 1; 411). Thomas North, the son, dying Feb. 27, 1750-1, aged 18 years (North Bible), his share of the estate passed to his two sisters.

Issue of Robert North and his wife Frances⁶ Todd (Thomas⁵):

- i. Elizabeth⁷ North (Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born June 7, 1731. (St. Paul's Reg. and North Bible). She married 1st, June 13, 1751, Christopher Carnan (idem) and 2nd, Samuel Johnston (North Bible). Christopher Carnan was the son of Charles and Prudence Carnan of Reading, Berks, England and afterwards of London (see tombstone inscription of his sister Cecil (Carnan) Gist, St. Thomas's, Baltimore County (Ridgely's Historic Graves of Maryland). Christopher Carnan appears as one of the managers of the Philadelphia "Assembly Balls", 1749 (Watson's Annals of Philadelphia 1854: I; 284). Says an old family record: "He was well known in Baltimore where he married Elizabeth North, the eldest daughter of Capt. Robert North, who preferred him poor and handsome to the richest man in the Province. They received 1500 guineas on their wedding day and went on a trip to England where Mrs. Carnan was received by her family. Their eldest son Charles was born on the voyage home." Christopher Carnan is buried at St. Thomas's. His tombstone bears the quaint inscription: "Christopher Carnan—Who Lived and Died an Honest Man,—On the 30th of December 1769—Aged 39 years" (Ridgely's Historic Graves of Maryland). His will, dated Dec. 8, 1769, and proved Jan. 12, 1770, makes a small bequest to his sister Cecil, wife of Mordecai Gist, and gives the remainder of his estate to his wife Elizabeth, who is appointed executrix. Witnesses Ran. Hulse, Katherine North and E. Dorsey. (Balto. Wills 3, 133). His widow Elizabeth married secondly Samuel Johnston of York, Pennsylvania. By her first husband Christopher Carnan, she had two children, both sons, viz: Charles North⁸ Carnan and Robert North⁸ Carnan. By her second husband Samuel Johnston she appears to have had no issue. Her tombstone is at St. Thomas's: Elizabeth Johnston, wife of Samuel Johnston, died Dec. 3, 1805. (Ridgeley's Historic Graves of Maryland). A portrait of her is now in the possession of Dr. Samuel Johnston of Baltimore.

Issue of Christopher Carnan and his wife Elizabeth⁷ North (Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵):

- (1) Charles North⁸ Carnan (Elizabeth⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd; Thomas⁵). Born June 23, 1752. Died January 19, 1809. Married first, Mary Boyce (1756-1776). Second, Sarah Johnston. Issue by his second wife, three daughters.
 - (2) Robert North⁸ Carnan (Elizabeth⁷ North; Frances⁶, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born Aug. 8, 1756. (St Thomas's Reg.) Died May 12, 1837. Married first Katherine Risteau. Second, Mrs. Ennals, née Goldsborough. Issue by his first wife seven children. He named his eldest daughter Frances Todd Carnan.
- ii. Thomas⁷ North (Francis⁶ Todd Thomas⁵). Born Feb. 16, 1732-3. (St. Paul's Reg. and North Bible). Died Feb. 27, Mrs. JOHN MOALE (Ellen North, 1741-1826), Daughter of Capt. Robert North and His Wife Frances Todd.

From portrait in possession of Mrs. Jarvis Spencer, Baltimore

1751. (North Bible.) Under the will of his father he received a large amount of land in Baltimore County. He died intestate, when eighteen years old, his entire estate passing to his sisters Elizabeth⁷ and Ellin⁷.

- iii. Ellin⁷ North (Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born April 29, 1740. (St. Paul's Reg.), or according to another record, April 29, 1741 (North Bible). Married, May 25, 1758, John Moale, "at Mr. Christo. Carnan's in Baltimore Town by the Rev.d Mr. Thomas Chase" (St. Thomas's Reg. and North Bible). Col. John Moale, who married Ellen North, was born in Baltimore County Jan. 1, 1730-1, and was the son of John Moale, Sr.* and his wife Rachael Hammond. He was a man of prominence. He was for many years the presiding justice of the County Court, and also represented Baltimore Town in the Assembly 1761-1771. He took an active part in the Revolution, being an influential member of the Committee of Correspondence. He was appointed Sept. 12, 1777, colonel of the Baltimore Town Battalion of Militia, the writer having his original commission signed by Governor Thomas Johnson. He was selected to deliver the address of welcome to Washington,

*John Moale, Sr., according to his tombstone, was the son of Richard and Elizabeth Moale and was born in Kenton Parish, Devonshire, England, Nov. 30, 1697, emigrating to Baltimore County about 1719. (See also Ridgely's Historic Graves of Maryland). He represented this county in the Assembly 1734, '36, '37, '39, and '40. The story repeated by Griffith, Scharf, and other local historians that he opposed the selection in 1728 of his plantation at Moale's Point, on the south side of Spring Gardens, just opposite what is now South Baltimore, as the site of the proposed Baltimore Town, on account of the presence of iron ore upon the property, which he thought would prove of more value than town lots, may or may not be true, but it certainly is not true, as stated by them, that he hurried to Annapolis and taking his seat in the Assembly, used his influence to defeat the measure. The simple fact is that he did not become a member of the Assembly until 1734, or six years later, retaining his seat until his death. He was a merchant, a very extensive land owner and a man of wealth. He lived at Moale's Point, where he was buried, his remains being removed Sept. 2, 1826, from the family burial ground there to St. Thomas's. He died May 10, 1740. He married Apr. 17, 1723, Rachel, daughter of John and Anna (Greenberry) Hammond. This John Hammond was the son of John Hammond, Sr. (1643-1707) of Anne Arundel County, major (1694), colonel (1699) and later (1707) major-general of the militia of the Western Shore; member of the Assembly (1692-1697) and of the Council of Maryland (1697-1707); judge of the Provincial Court (1694) and judge of the Vice Admiralty (1702-1707). Anna Greenberry was a daughter of Col. Nicholas Greenberry (1627-1697) of Anne Arundel. Col. Greenberry was captain of the foot of Anne Arundel, 1689, and colonel, 1694. He was a justice and a member of the Assembly from Anne Arundel. He was a member of the Council, 1692-1697, and chancellor and keeper of the Great Seal, 1694. He was president of the Council and acting governor 1693-4.

when he visited Baltimore in 1781. Col. Moale died July 6, 1798. His wife Ellin⁷ (North) Moale was a woman of forcible personality and occupied a very prominent position in the social life of the community. There are in existence five portraits of her painted at various periods of her life. The one reproduced here by the English painter, John Wollaston, while in America, said to have been painted when she was only fourteen years old, still hangs in the old Green Spring Valley house, once owned by her father Robert North, and now by her descendant Mrs. Jervis Spencer. Mrs. Moale died March 23, 1825, in her eighty-fifth year. Col. Moale and his wife made their home in Baltimore, but spent their summers at their Green Spring Valley plantation, inherited from Robert North. They had fifteen children, twelve sons and three daughters, the majority reaching adult life and marrying. There are very numerous descendants.

Issue of John Moale and his wife Ellin⁷ North (Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵):

- (1) Elizabeth⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born September 8, 1759. Died November 26, 1822. Married March 14, 1794, Richard Curson, Jr., of Baltimore, the son of Richard Curson and his wife Elizabeth Becker. They had issue: (a) Samuel⁹ Curson, born Jan. 9, 1795, died Aug. 12, 1800; (b) Elizabeth Rebecca Becker⁹ Curson, born May 5, 1796, died Mar. 15, 1880, married May 7, 1824, Samuel Hoffman of Baltimore, by whom she had six children; (c) Anna Maria⁹ Curson, born Sept. 1, 1797, died Sept. 4, 1798; (d) Ellin Moale⁹ Curson, born Oct. 26, 1799, died Dec. 5, 1880; married Sept. 30, 1828, Samuel Poultney of Baltimore, by whom she had six children.
- (2) John⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born May 17, 1761. Died Nov. 6th 1809. Married Oct. 2, 1790, Lucy Morton. They left one daughter, Ellin⁹ Moale who married John B. Bernabue, the eldest son of Chevalier Bernabue. She died without issue.
- (3) Rebecca⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵ Todd). Born March 15th, 1763. Died Oct. 4th, 1840. Married Oct. 19th, 1780, Thomas Russell.
- (4) Richard⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan. 25th, 1765. Died June 22nd, 1802. Married Apr. 16th, 1797, Judith Carter Armistead. She was a daughter of William Armistead of "Hesse", Gloucester (now Mathews) County, Virginia, and his wife Maria, daughter of Charles Carter of "Cleve," King George County, Virginia.

She was born Dec. 29th, 1774, and died Jan. 13th, 1863. She left issue John Carter⁹ Moale, William Armistead⁹ Moale and Richard Henry⁹ Moale. She married secondly, Robert Riddell, and thirdly, Richard Carroll.

- (5) Thomas⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Sept. 22nd, 1766. Died Nov. 25th, 1822. Married March 24th, 1793, Eleanor Owings, leaving issue by him.
 - (6) William⁸ North Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Nov. 1st, 1758. Died Feb. 2nd, 1769.
 - (7) Robert⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Oct. 10, 1769, and died the same day.
 - (8) Robert North⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan. 22nd, 1771. Died Oct. 31st, 1852. Married July 2nd, 1801, Frances Owings, leaving issue, one daughter, Ellin North⁹ Moale, who married George Howard Elder of Baltimore County.
 - (9) Samuel⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan. 4th, 1773. Died Feb. 21st, 1857. Married first, Ann M. Howard, the daughter of Samuel H. Howard of Annapolis. Married second, Anne G. White the daughter of Abraham White of Baltimore. He left issue by both wives.
 - (10) Rachel⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Feb. 5th, 1775. Died Feb. 17th 1776.
 - (11) Frances⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Feb. 10th, 1777. Died Feb. 19th, 1781.
 - (12) William⁸ Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan. 14th, 1779, and died the following day.
 - (13) George⁸ Washington Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan 19th, 1780. Died March 19th, 1799.
 - (14) Randle⁸ Hulse Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Jan. 26th, 1782. Died July 11th, 1864. Married Elizabeth Smith Peck, the daughter of Nicholas Peck of Bristol, R. I. They left several children.
 - (15) Mary⁸ North Moale (Ellin⁷ North; Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Sept. 5th, 1783. Died Aug. 2nd, 1787.
- iv. Frances⁷ North (Frances⁶ Todd, Thomas⁵). Born Nov. 1st, 1743. Died Sept. 24th, 1743.

BOOK REVIEWS.

CHRONICLES OF THE CAPE FEAR RIVER 1660-1916. JAMES SPRUNT, SECOND EDITION, RALEIGH. Edwards & Broughton Printing Company, 1916, pp. XI, 732, with portrait and several maps.

The first edition of this valuable book met with such a gratifying reception that Mr. Sprunt has been induced to issue another with many additions and such corrections as were needed. The work gives in great detail and in a most interesting manner the history of the Cape Fear region, including the early explorations, the Indians, the settlements and their growth, pre-Revolutionary agitation, the Revolution, and the later history down to the present day. The narrative history is throughout enlivened by biographical notices, studies of social conditions and other information necessary to a full and vivid picture of the history of the section and of its people. The book has an interest extending far beyond the Cape Fear Section or the State of North Carolina.

A HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. BY EDWARD CHANNING, VOL. IV, 1789-1815. New York. The Macmillan Company, 1917, pp. 575, with five maps.

The merits of Dr. Channing's history are by this time so well known that it is only necessary to note the appearance of this volume. The period it covers—from the inauguration of Washington to the Treaty of Ghent—was the most critical in our history, and its story, told as Dr. Channing tells it, can never fail of absorbing interest. The last pages, treating of the Hartford Convention, are of especial interest at this time. With even the mildest statement of its action, it does not seem to the man-in-the-street that the members were much less enemies to their country than the crowd of Socialists and Anarchists which recently met in Chicago.

ADDRESSES ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS. BY JAMES KEITH FAUQUIER. Privately printed, 1917, Richmond, Va., pp. 87, with portrait.

State more honorably in peace and war. As a soldier in the famous Black Horse Troop, as a legislator, a lawyer at the bar, and as President of the Court of Appeals of Virginia (a position from which he has recently retired), Judge Keith has lived a long life full of honor and usefulness. His friends knowing the value of the addresses he has from time to time made have begged for their publication.

NARRATIVE OF PRISON LIFE AT BALTIMORE AND JOHNSON'S ISLAND, OHIO. BY HENRY E. SHEPHERD, M. A., LL. D., Author of "The Life of Robert E. Lee" [&c.], 1917. Commercial Printing and Stationery Co., Baltimore, pp. 22, with a portrait, and a view of Johnson's Island prison.

Dr. Shepherd, who was captured at Gettysburg, gives an interesting account of his experiences in prison.

FRONTIER ADVANCES ON THE UPPER OHIO, 1778-1779. Edited with Introduction and Notes by Louise Phelps Kellogg, Wisconsin Historical Society. Publications of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Collections, Vol. XXIII. Draper Series, Vol. IV. Published by the Society, Madison, 1916, illustrated, pp. 509.

The Wisconsin Historical Society again draws on that great treasury of Western history, the Draper Papers, for documents illustrating history along the Upper Ohio about the middle of the Revolution. With its predecessors this book is indispensable to students of our history.

ADDITIONAL BASKERVILLE GENEALOGY. A SUPPLEMENT TO THE AUTHOR'S GENEALOGY OF THE BASKERVILLE FAMILY OF 1812. Being a Miscellany of Additional Notes and Sketches from Later Information, including a Study of the Family History in Normandy. By P. Hamilton Baskervill, A. M. (U. of Va.), Richmond, Va. of the Twenty-first Generation in Direct Male Line. Richmond, Va., Wm. Ellis Jones' Sons, Inc., 1917, pp. 179, with 19 illustrations.

Pursuing further his researches into the history of the Baskerville family the author not only makes considerable additions to the account of the American family and its connections, but goes far into the past, beginning with a study of the life of the Norsemen in their original homes, and following this with several carefully prepared chapters on the Baskervilles of Normandy, and of English Baskervilles prior to 1266. Like all of the author's genealogical work this book shows thorough research.

HISTORY OF THE JEWS OF RICHMOND FROM 1769 TO 1917. By Herbert T. Ezekiel and Geston Lichtenstein. Richmond, Va., Herbert T. Ezekiel, Printer and Publisher, 1917, pp. 374.

In Richmond as in practically every other city in this country, the Jews have for generations held a prominent place in business and public life. Here, as was too often the case everywhere, the history of this ancient people has been so greatly neglected that even its members did not in the least know what a considerable part their race really had taken in the life of our city. This neglect (which is one of which gentile historians of Richmond as well as the Jews themselves deserve censure for) has now been corrected through the long and most thorough researches of the authors of this book. It is hard to imagine any possible sources for history of the Jews of Richmond they have not examined. The result is a work of great value, not only as a history of the Jews, but as a large contribution to the history of Richmond.
