

GRADUATING EXERCISES BANKS STEPHENS COLLEGE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

FORSYTH, Ga., June 13.—The graduating exercises of Banks Stephens Institute on Tuesday were very enjoyable. The stage was wreathed in evergreen and draped in the class colors and was a thing of beauty. The graduating class was composed of four young ladies and two young men—Misses Ethel Hill, Mattie Sue Huddleston, Florence Phinazee and Hattie McMullen and Messrs. Howell Newton and Eugene Scott.

The medals for excellence in geography, arithmetic and spelling went, respectively, to Mr. Oliver Bloodworth, Mr. Eugene Scott and Miss Claude Chambliss. The medal for elocution, presented by the Scott society was tied for by Misses Hattie Thrash and Ethel Hill. A second medal was ordered. The medal for oratory, given by the Browning society, was won by Mr.

Rockwell Smith.

The full program was as follows:

Piano duet, "After the Charge"—Misses Jackson and Bramblett.

Awarding medal from Browning Society—Miss Phinazee.

Awarding medal from Scott Society—Mr. A. E. Scott.

Chorus, "Estudiantina"—Graduating class.

Class prophecy—Miss Ethel Hill.

Solo, "Ora Pro Nobis"—Miss Florence Phinazee.

Introduction of speaker—Miss Mattie Sue Huddleston.

Literary address—Hon. T. J. Shackelford, Athens, Ga.

Piano duet, "Attaque des Uhlans"—Misses Bramblett and Jackson.

Delivery of diplomas.

Violin solo, "Mazourka"—Mr. Karl Bramblett.

Class song.

Benediction.