

MISS MARY
BARBARA LUNDAUF

MISS MARY SHORTER ALDREDGE

MISS
CHARLOTTE LOWESS GREEVE

MISS RUTH JOHNSTON

MISS LAURIE
WARD BURT

MISS FLORENCE
HENDRICKS HOBBS

MISS LEL MAY
ETHEL ARCHER

MISS MARY DEAS
TIPPER

MISS LEONINE
EZEARD SMITH

MISS EUNICE FEARS

MISS ELIZABETH VERNO

MISS LYNETTE POSTER SMITH

MISS MARY MAE
HENDERSON

MISS LAURA WITHAM

MISS MARY DORIS SPENCER

MISS EVELYN WYNNE

The young ladies of the Prather Home school will graduate at the Grand on Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The class is the largest ever graduated by this school for girls.

The full course graduates are Miss Mary Deas Tupper, Miss Florence Hendricks Hobbs, Miss Laura Haygood Witham, Miss Nena May Henderson, Miss Meta Barbara Leinhauf, Miss Lynnette Foster Smith, Miss Leone Ezzard Smith, Miss Laura Ward Burt, Miss Mary Shorter Aldredge, Miss Ethel May Archer, Miss Mary Pansy Spencer, Miss Ruth Johnston, Miss Eunice Irene Fears, Miss Evelyn Wynne, Miss Jane Elizabeth Vernoy, Miss Charlotte Louise Greene.

Miss Tupper, daughter of Hon. S. Y. Tupper, is particularly gifted as a musician. She has been a student of the Prather school for the past six years.

Miss Hobbs is the daughter of Dr. Arthur G. Hobbs. She has the distinction

For the convenience of my south side customers I have arranged with Brown & Allen, druggists, corner Whitehall and Alabama streets, to receive orders for developing and printing, films, etc. All work finished on Dixie—the home-made paper—non-trust. K. M. TURNER, Photo. Supplies, 102 N. Pryor St.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

It twins do your work

Floral Company,
STREET, BELL PHONE 4.
Stic Floral Work.

of having led her class 'in the Prather Home school for the past nine years. She is the youngest student in her class and is regarded as a very brilliant student.

Miss Witham, daughter of Hop. W. S. Witham, has been a student of the Prather Home school for the past six years, and is especially noted for her artistic skill, having always won first place in the art classes. She is a young girl of great loveliness of character and marked social charm, and is beloved by both her teachers and her classmates.

Miss Henderson, the young niece of Mr. John L. Tye, has been a student of the Prather Home school for the past six years. She is accomplished in vocal music, elocution and French.

Miss Leinkauff, the young daughter of Mr. S. M. Leinkauff, is also a charming young musician both on the piano and in voice. She has been a student of the school for the past six years.

Miss Lynnette Smith graduates in all of the subjects offered by the school. Her standing in Latin, French, German and English has reached distinction throughout her whole college course.

Miss Leone Ezzard Smith, her sister, has reached distinction in German, Latin, and English composition, and has shown great ability in mathematical studies as well. Her original poems and sketches in the "Shamrock" have attracted much attention.

Miss Burt, editor in chief of the Shamrock, has been a leading spirit for good in every department she has entered since her enrollment three years ago into the school. She is the daughter of Dr. W. P. Burt.

Miss Aldredge, class chairman, is regarded as the most popular girl in her class. She is talented with both brush and pen and has endeared herself to her teachers by her efforts to secure uniformity of action in her class.

Miss Archer entered the school in her freshman year and has taken special work in vocal and instrumental music. She is much admired for her lovely mezzo voice and her cordial sweetness of disposition.

Miss Spencer is probably the finest student in mathematics studies in the school and has done good work also in English and is an accomplished pianist already.

Miss Johnston is a favorite in her class, always fresh and sweet with well-prepared lessons and a general air of perfect composure in her work. She has been the best of business managers of the Shamrock this year.

Miss Fears has been especially well prepared in psychology and astronomy and is the best science pupil in her class.

Miss Wynne, the genial advertising editor of the Shamrock, has kept the paper busily buzzing all the year. She is a friend of every pupil in the school.

Miss Vernoy has been in the school but a short time, but during that time has proven a hard and devoted student and a quiet, orderly and obedient little woman.

Miss Charlotte Louise Greene is one of the great favorites of the class, a bright student, and a sweet, lovable girl.

TODD-WEIR.

A marriage of interest to a large number of friends in Atlanta is that of Miss David Todd and Mr. Griffith Weir, both of Owensboro, Ky., which was solemnized at the Fourth Street Presbyterian church in that city on the evening of May 14th at half-past 8 o'clock.

The bride, as Miss Todd, is well known in Atlanta having been greatly admired as the guest of Miss Lillian Smith and Mrs. C. G. Lippold. She was also a very popular visitor in Rome.

Mr. Weir is one of the most prominent young bankers in Owensboro and a man of fine capabilities, well worthy of the beautiful young woman he has won.

Their wedding was one of the most elaborate events that has ever taken place in Owensboro.

The bride wore a lovely gown of real lace over mousseline with underdress of silk, and she carried lilies of the valley. There were six bridesmaids and six groomsmen.

Mr. Weir and his bride left for St. Louis on their bridal tour.

LAWN FETE AND MUSICAL FOR GEORGIA AVENUE CHURCH

The Ladies' Aid society of the Georgia Avenue Presbyterian church will give a lawn fete and musicale this afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. James Stanley Moore, 532 Glenn street, corner Perry, just at the rear of the church.

The lawn will be decorated and in the evening hundreds of Japanese lanterns will be used to illuminate.

Besides delicious refreshments, there will be a musical treat in store for the guests, all for the small charge of 10 cents.