W. Beckman
Will

In the name of God amen I William Beckman being of the County of Tarrant and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory & in good health but viewing the shortness and uncertainty of life and wishing to make a proper disposition of my property and estate among my children do hereby declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others - After all my just debts are paid to which I am indebted my executor here-named to strictly attend I give to the following persons the last money of my estate to wit - I give one share equally to my son Peter Beckman one share to William to be paid him by my executor out of my estate herewith and likewise to my son John Beckman one share to wit - I give to my son John Beckman fully dollar in money in season of my not making at this time a better provision for him so that he is not deprived of bright sunlight and not capable of managing property - but should my condition ever arrive at my right mind and be thought capable and able of managing for himself then and in that case in
