

28. Barrer County Court. Worcester County Court 1829 his will and foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Knapp decd. was produced in Court and proved in due form by the Oaths of John Crosby and James G. Hensley subscribing witnesses and thereupon the aforesaid writing was ordered to be recorded as the true last will of the said William Knapp deceased. Date 11th Jan 1829

I, Thomas Coleman of the county of Warren and State of Kentucky being of sound and disposing mind and memory last Will Calling to mind the inevitability of death do make constitute and ordain this instrument of writing signed with my hand to be my last Will and testament. I desire that my dear and dear wife that my executors hereinafter named should have a sum of my personal property as may be deemed sufficient for the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I am now owing and my late wife Mary Coleman the whole of the balance of my State real and personal of every description for and during her life to be divided and at her death to be equally divided among all my children and their heirs in case she should marry I desire that her as aforesaid one third of my State real and personal; the balance then to be equally divided as aforesaid amongst all my children and their heirs. That if my children or any of them shall marry or arrive to the age of twenty One years during the life time of my wife it is my wish and desire that she should give them such property of a fair valuation as in her judgment she can conveniently spare not exceeding their proportion of the Estate I do hereby appoint my wife Mary Coleman Executrix of this my last Will and testament Given for and under my hand this 28 day of August 1829

Agreed to in presence of Harden Davis
Andrew Windsor
J. M. Tucker

[illegible]

29 I in the name of C. S. James James Rufel of the county of Howard and State of Kentucky concerning the estate of ~~James Rufel~~ his late wife and heirs of James Rufel deceased do hereby certify to the Editor of the same the within said White This my last Will and Testament as unimpaired from a following that is to say first I leave and bequeath unto my beloved Wife Mary Ann Rufel the Tract of Land I now live on containing 155 Acres and all my Personal Estate to have during her natural life or Widowhood And at her Death to Go to my son James Rufel and also I give unto my son James Rufel the tract of Land I now live on containing 147 Acres Saying a portion of the tract of Land I now live on containing 147 Acres I do request my son James Rufel to take care of my Daughter Elizabeth and her son ~~James Rufel~~ ^{John Rufel} as well as he can I hereby appoint my beloved Wife Mary Ann Rufel and my son James Rufel my Executors and overseers to this my last Will and Testament to be my last will and Testament made in Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day 18 April 1830

Signed sealed, Published and delivered by the Auditor in the presence of us who have been called out to examine the Writings in the presence of the Auditor William K. Vassar
 John B. Hunt
 March 12

Barren county, 10th July 1851, Court 1851
The within and foregoing writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Rufus H. Reed was produced in Court and proved and formally the Oath of William K. Weaver, and John Hunt, subscribing Witneses, and thereupon the aforesaid Will was ordered to be recorded in the last last Will of the said James Rufus H. Reed and the same has been duly recorded accordingly. Attest my hand &c J. H. [Signature]

The the name of God. Whereby George Williams being work in body & Minus but of sound disposing mind and memory do make out Certain This Well my last Will and testament which is to say I Give and bequeath to my son Joseph Williams and my Daughter Susanna my back of Fur which I now live Out Containing ffe. Dues what I have to hand and due to my family and such and dated this 1st day of November in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred thirty one Geo. Williams
 John Williams
 Surgeon

28) Barrer County Court, Worcester County Court 1829 the within and foregoing writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Knapp, dec'd. was produced in Court, sworn for and in due form by the Oaths of John Grogby and Saml. C.
G. Monday Subscribing Witnesses and thereupon the aforesaid Writing was ordered to be recorded as the true last Will of the said William Knapp. Brevard Vale 18th Jan 1830

I Frances Coleman of the county of Thuron and State of New York being of sound and disposing mind and memory last Will Calling to mind the instability of man do make constitute and ordain this instrument of writing signed with my hand to be my last Will and testament - I Stand St My dearest and only that my executors hereinafter named should receive of my personal property as may be deemed sufficient for the payment of all my just debts and toward pecuniary I have I do devise my late wife Mary having to demand the whole of the balance of my estate real and personal of every description for and receiving her the said estate and at her death to be equally divided among all my children and their heirs in case she should marry I have I do give as aforesaid one third of my estate real and personal; the balance then to be equally divided as aforesaid amongst all my children and their heirs And of my children I say of them I shall that my dear son to the age of twenty One years during the life time of my wife it is my wish and desire that she shall and them such property at a fair valuation as in her partment she can conveniently I have not exceeding her proportion of the Estate I do I do hereby appoint my wife Mary Coleman Executrix of this my last Will and testament Given and made under my hand this 18 day of August 1829

Signed in presence of Harden Hard
Nathan Winslow
J. M. Butler

Was read & sent. Spri. County Court 1831
It is without a writing purporting to be the last Will of Francis Coleman.
He was produced in Court, and proved by the Oaths of Hoskins, Hays, and Joseph Kinman and Mr. Kinsley, a handwriting that was the said writing, as admitted to be genuine by the Court and signed and thereupon, Judgment of the Court Francis Coleman's last Will was given.

[illegible]

Signed sealed Published and delivered by the Justices in the presence of us who have hereunto set our names at Wilkesbarre in the presence of a Justice William Karashen,
 John A. Hunt
 March 12

Barren county, Lewis July second 1783
The within and foregoing writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Dupee deceased was produced in Court and produced and formally the Oath of Notaries Deceased, and John Hunt subscribing Whom and themselves the of said writing was read to be recorded as the true last Will of the said James Dupee deceased and the same both have duly recorded accordingly Attest Myself Clerk

In the name of God Amen W^m George Williams being now his body & mind full of heavenly disposing mind and memory do make out & certify this will my last will and testament which is to say I Give and bequeath to my son Joseph Williams and my daughter Trussell my tract of Land which I now live on containing 500 Acres what I have there and also trees growing and sowed and sowed this 1st day of November in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred thirty one

Witness my hand this 1st day of November 1831

Wm George Williams

James Williams

Barren County, Tenn. December County Court 1831 The within and foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of George Williams deceased was produced in court and proved as one form by the oath of Jacob Wright and Hotty Williams, subscribing witnesses and thereupon the aforesaid writing was ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said George Williams deceased. This same has been duly recorded accordingly Teste Morgan clk

In the name of God Amen. I James Williams of Barren County and State of Kentucky being sick and weak in body and of sound mind and disposing of my estate and knowing the uncertainty of life the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time it may happen to make certain and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit I give and bequeath all my personal property and good will to be paid to my wife Martha Williams all my stock of horses cattle sheep and hogs of every kind and my personal life after disposing of some to the use of value sufficient to what debts I may owe at the time of my decease also I give to my father James Williams the plantation whereon I now live, together with all appurtenances thereto belonging with all my land and all the household furniture and the furniture of every kind also the following negroes (said) James Williams I give to my father James Williams and to be sold and divided among my four sons Matthew Williams John Williams Robert Williams and Allen Williams and my two daughters Betty Sanders and Talbot Williams in the following manner to wit from what would be the equal proportion to Matthew Williams two hundred dollars to be divided and divided among the rest what is to my younger son Talbot Williams I give and bequeath a negro boy named Jackson of which said negro she is now in possession and it is my intention that she receive the property and without control or molestation during her lifetime and for during this my last will and testament in the presence of witnesses and I have appointed my two sons for and for Henry and James Williams Executors thereof and I have and directed my all will and testament by me made made in the presence of the said witnesses

Given and signed my seal this 11th day of July 1831 Signed and acknowledged James Williams Thomas of James H. Hays
 James L. Hays

Barren County Tenn July County Court 1831
 The within and foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James Williams deceased was produced in court and proved in and form by the oath of James Hays and James L. Hays, subscribing witnesses and thereupon the aforesaid writing was ordered to be recorded as the true last will of the said James Williams deceased and the same hath been duly recorded accordingly by Teste Morgan clk

Matthew Williams of Barren County of the State of Kentucky being of legal age and of sound mind and disposing of my estate and knowing the uncertainty of life the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time it may happen to make certain and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit I give and bequeath all my personal property and good will to be paid to my wife Martha Williams all my stock of horses cattle sheep and hogs of every kind and my personal life after disposing of some to the use of value sufficient to what debts I may owe at the time of my decease also I give to my father James Williams the plantation whereon I now live, together with all appurtenances thereto belonging with all my land and all the household furniture and the furniture of every kind also the following negroes (said) James Williams I give to my father James Williams and to be sold and divided among my four sons Matthew Williams John Williams Robert Williams and Allen Williams and my two daughters Betty Sanders and Talbot Williams in the following manner to wit from what would be the equal proportion to Matthew Williams two hundred dollars to be divided and divided among the rest what is to my younger son Talbot Williams I give and bequeath a negro boy named Jackson of which said negro she is now in possession and it is my intention that she receive the property and without control or molestation during her lifetime and for during this my last will and testament in the presence of witnesses and I have appointed my two sons for and for Henry and James Williams Executors thereof and I have and directed my all will and testament by me made in the presence of the said witnesses