Will

In the name of God, Amen, James H. Dunkin of the County of Warren and State of Kentucky, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament as follows viz. Item 1st It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid. 2nd I will and devise to my five children Missouri and Edwards Alexander my tract of land in the County of Rush and State of Indiana containing five hundred acres more or less; the said land lying about five miles north of Rushville and about one mile north of the State road leading from Rushville to Indianapolis and most of a stream called Mud Creek, said stream running part of the boundary. The said land to be equally divided between my said children Missouri and Edwards Alexander subject, however, to my wishes down therein. 3rd It is my will and desire that the tract of land on which I now live in Warren County containing 27 1/2 acres be the same more or less be sold by my executor, or the person or persons who may be appointed to execute this will on the following Credit, viz. one third of the purchase money to be paid one year after the sale, one third two years after the sale and the other third three years after the sale. The sale to be made absolutely of the entire estate in said land, provided my wife will consent thereto and be willing to receive compensation for her dower in said land in money; if she should not be content, then her dower in said land is to be laid off and allotted to her, and the land sold as hereinbefore directed. 4th It is my will that the crop left at my decease shall be sold as a credit of twelve months. The hay, oats, rye and wheat to be sold in the stack, and the corn by the acre as it stands in the field, provided it shall not be gathered at the time of my decease. 5th I will and devise that my stock of horses, mules & other personal property, with the exception of what my wife owned at our marriage, be sold on a credit of twelve months. The personal property owned by my wife at the time of our marriage as aforesaid is reserved for and hereby bequeathed to my wife. 6th After my wife's dower in my slaves shall be allotted to her, it is my will that my executor (or administrators) sell the others at private sale, either for cash in hand or on a reasonable credit as he may judge most advantageous for my estate. 7th It is my desire that my executor, or whoever shall be appointed to execute this will, shall take my eldest children Missouri and Edwards Alexander under his care and protection on the
