Robinson
Sept 1888
I Emma Robinson of the County of Albemarle and State of Virginia do hereby declare and ordain this my last will and testament in manner & form following

I give the whole of my estate both real & personal to my wife Emily Robinson to be possessed & disposed of by her for her own use and the use of our children during her natural life and further I hereby empower her previous to her decease to make any alteration in the following disposition of my estate among my children which at that time she may think equity requires according to the circumstances of the children and of the estate at that time provided that alteration be made by her will legally executed but if no such will shall be made by her then

And I give the whole of my land of which I shall die possessed to my son James but as this is a large portion than I can give to my other children, and as my daughter Betty is so afflicted that she will probably never marry and as justice seems to require in consequence of her afflicted state that some provision should be made for her maintenance my other daughters in consideration of JAMES inheriting the whole of my land he is to find her a home free of expense either with himself or if she prefer living with one of her sisters if married then JAMES is to pay such sum annually as he shall see fit as my executor shall determine. I also will that JAMES shall support my wife & child John. But John, JAMES is to pay such price and at such times as my executor shall determine.

Both the real & my money to go to the wife the price of John are to be equally divided among my three daughters Betty, Eliza & Sally.

4th As JAMES had a will & a wife given him when a child by his mother of age and as I have had the use of them I will

JAMES to have out of my stock his share of one horse & one cow before any division of the stock takes place & then that the remaining part of my stock of money land together with my household furniture plantation interests be equally divided between my children James Betty Eliza & Sally. It is my wish that the division should not take place until the children shall be of age or until one of the girls shall marry, but as to that I leave it to the discretion of my executor (before I hereby appoint joint guardians of my children) and I hereby authorize them to appoint that they shall make the division among my children exactly to the preceding disposition. I leave to my children no power to interfere or to object to the division so made by my executor. It is my wish however that my last my negro woman should have her share of the girls who will belong to and also if it can be done consistent
