J. Jones

All the late residence of James Jones dec<sup>d</sup> in Barren County Ky on the 17th day of June 1842 the said James Jones being sick and a few hours before his death made the following statement in the way in which he wished his property disposed of and managed. He called on J. Davis and said he (Jones) was going to die and that very soon and that as he (J. Davis) had been living with him for some time he wished him to continue with the family and help his (Jones) wife to take care of the property and children, and that he wished me (Davis) to be had of his property but for him (Jones) to consult his wife, father and his (Jones) father and to manage according to their advice, and that he wished his wife to take care of what property they had - at the time that Mr Jones made the above statement he was in his right reason and sound mind in ear and mind and died in a few hours afterwards, this 20th day of June 1842
