George Richardson of sound mind and memory, but weak in body and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and being desirous to make such a distribution of my worldly estate as I think just and right between them who may survive me and to put a little trouble in those who may have to manage my business do make this my last will and testament revoking all former will made by deed or otherwise - First I wish after my decease that all my just debts should be punctually paid to soon as they can and that all my personal property should be sold and any money and debt due me be collected to do the same as soon as possible. And if that should not be sufficient to pay my debts that some of my land be sold to do the same all on a credit of ten months. Secondly, I give to my beloved wife after my just debts are paid the whole of my estate to live on until my youngest son becomes of age, then it is my wish that an equal distribution of my estate should be made with all my children, charging my son Thomas Jefferson Richardson, America Ann Cox, Virginia Cox, Eliza Jane Scott each thirty dollars as having paid them that much in kind. I give to my youngest son Dudley Dally Richardson my old gun without charge - and I hereby appoint my wife Elizabeth Richardson administratrix to this my last will and that the County Court may take her bond without requiring any security given under my hand and seal the first day of November 1846
