McEgan & Co. do hereby certify that on the 27th day of Sept. 1820. Samuel Hagan Junr. called on us to take notice in what manner he wished the business of his Estate managed after his decease. Concerning his disposition here too much for his wife to maintain to be sold and the money arising thereupon together together with the debts due to be put out on interest.

 For his wife to have the use of the farm & the balance of his property during her life or widowhood & to keep the children and bring them interest of the money loaned out for that purpose, and if that should not be sufficient to make use of the principle for that purpose, &
