Hogg R

Will

The nuncupative will of Reuben Hogg made when on his death bed when in his last illness the existence of which was taken in writing within ten days after his death. The said Reuben said in the presence of the Under signed that if it should please God he should not live he desired that in the first place that out of his estate all his just debts should be paid and after that all the estate both personal and real that remained he left to his wife Eliza her life time to be carefully managed and taken care of by his two sons, Joseph & Jesse Hogg and at her death whatever may be left of the property to be equally divided amongst all his children except Benjamin Roswell whom he said should not have one dollar as he had already given him more than an equal share even the rest. This he said only a few days previous to his death which was on the 27th day of July 1839. Given under our hands the 30th day of July 1839

will

I Obadiah W. Wade of Barren County and State of Kentucky do hereby make and ordains this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking every will by me at any time heretofore made. First it is my will & desire that all the estate of every kind of which I may be possessed be held and enjoyed forever by my son William J. Wade to him and his heirs forever. Secondly It is my will that my Executor herein after named in case the said I have given depending in the Barren Circuit Court against the executor of my son Thomas W. Wade shall not be decided before my death, survive said last testament it to a final termination, and in case the Court be successfully determined it is my will that the property now in controversy in that suit be equally divided amongst my surviving children and their descendants as it would pass by the statute of distributions of the State, and the first claim is to be construed in that case to apply to the other property I have, not named in said deed of gift to Thomas W. Wade, in which I have accumulated since the date of said deed of gift now in contest. Thirdly it is my will that the negro woman Nancy now in my possession, if she survives me be free at my decease, and that my executor give her one hundred dollars out of my stock, two cowbirds (blue) and ten dollars in money and be taken care of as long as she lives, by my son William J. Wade or some one that he may appoint for that purpose. I appoint William J. Wade my only surviving son & child executor to this my last will & testament and request that he be permitted to qualify as such without giving any security in the Court. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 27th day of July 1839

In the name of God Amen I Thomas Feland of the County of Barren State of Kentucky do make publish & declare my last will and testament as follows. In the first place I desire that all my just debts shall be paid by my executor herein after named. I leave it as my will and desire that my wife Sarah M. Feland shall have and enjoy all my estate real and personal (except that which is already Secured to my son William for and during her widowhood for her own support & maintenance & for the support and maintenance and education of my three daughters born of my said wife Sarah the support maintenance & education of my son William being already provided for by the property secured to him as aforesaid.

Now in case my said Sarah should marry in that case she is to be entitled to the one third part of my estate in the manner provided for by law - I am subject to the interest and estate of my said wife in my property whether under the aforesaid devise or the laws of the Country, it is my will and desire that all my estate both real & personal shall be equally divided among my three daughters Anne Elizabeth Sarah Legans & Mary Ellen and if such division shall make the property of such of my said daughters of greater value than that which has been already secured to my son William, in which case the deficiency is to be made up out of my estate so that his share including the property derived through his mother or from his grandfathers William Edmund & secured to him as aforesaid may be equal to that of such of his sisters - Now I do hereby revoke and annul all former wills which may heretofore have been made by me.

And finally I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my said Sarah & John as executors & my friends Benjamin H. Crump Benjamin H. Crumshaw & George W. Tralud Executors of this my last will & testament; and it is not my desire that my said executors and executors should be required to give security for the performance of their duties as such.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 17th day of February 1840
