W. M. Clark
Will

I William M. Clark do make & publish this as my Last Will & Testament,
1st I desire all my property both real and personal to be sold for cash and hands, or on such terms - able credit as my Executor may think best. And I do hereby authorize and empower my Executor to make said sale, and to make legal conveyance - all to the purchaser or purchasers.
2nd After the payment of my just debts, funeral expenses & expenses of Administration, I give unto my beloved wife Caroline Clark one third of my estate, and unto my children Melisa S. Sarah C. and Cordelia A. Clark the other two thirds.
3rd I desire the estate given to my children to be vested in the stock of the Bank of Louisville or other good stock, and paid over to each as he arrives at the age of 21 years or married. The interest on the amount given to my children, I give to my wife to be used in educating and raising my children & supporting herself & my children.
4th I hereby constitute and appoint John S. Rogers Executor of this my last Will and Testament. If he should fail to accept the executorship then all the power given by this Will, I hereby confer upon the Administrator of my estate, that may be appointed by the Warren County Court.
5th If my wife desired any portion of my property not exceeding the amount given her by this Will, it is my Will and desire is that she may have it at its appraised value.

In testimony of all which I have hereunto set my hand, this 16th day of January 1850
