

Know all men by these presents that I Cyrus Craig of the County of Boone and State of Kentucky being indisposed in body although of sound mind memory and understanding, and considering the Certainty of Death and having a desire to dispose of all my worldly Estate myself. I hereby bequeath and dispose of the same in the following manner

Item 1st It is my will and desire that my horse my Oxen, thirty head of Hogs, my bed & bedding now in the possession of my father Benjamin Craig be sold at a reasonable credit for the purpose of raising money to pay my just debts -

I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my father Benjamin Craig as trustee and do convey to him as such in trust all my negro namely Patience a negro woman aged about thirty two years - Abijah a boy aged fourteen years and Urie a boy aged about three months together with all their increase for the benefit of my sister Sally Radcliff children and to be equally between all the children of my said sister at the death of my said father - or said negroes may be given up or sold if my said father may think proper

But it is to be distinctly understood that the negroes bequeathed as aforesaid to the children of my sister Sally Radcliff and to be placed in the hands of my father as their trustee are not to be removed by my said father as trustee as aforesaid out of Boone County. Except the negro boy Abijah who is not to be removed out of the State of Kentucky. And if my said father should move or attempt to remove said Abijah to parts beyond the limits of Kentucky, or either of the other negroes to parts beyond the limits of Boone County - that then and forever after that time his power as trustee over said negroes thus removed is to cease and determine to all intents and purposes. And that that portion of my said sister Sally Radcliff's share to have the full possession and benefit of said negroes Lastly

I do in furtherance of this my last will nominate constitute and appoint ~~my~~ my said father Benjamin Craig as sole executor to this my last will and Testament, and as such to carry the same into effect. hereby revoking all former wills or parts of wills by me made or pretended to be made
