Know all men by these presents that I David Crisler Sr. of Boone County Kentucky, hath this day bargained and sold unto my daughters Nancy Gunrod, Phile Crisler, Rebecca Crisler, Fanny Crisler, Anna Feather Rhoda Crisler & Katy Crisler two hundred and forty acres of land lying & being in the County of Boone on the waters of Gunpowder being the same tract upon which said David now lives and which he holds by deed from H. Marshall, which deed calls for 300 acres, the other 100 acres having been previously sold unto David Crisler & John Crisler, the aforesaid 340 acres to be equally divided between my said seven daughters, making about 34 2/3 acres each.

The part that Nancy Gunrod is to have to be laid off in a convenient form so as to include the improvements upon which she and her husband John Gunrod now live and to assign the line of Marshall.

The part that Anna Feather is to have to be laid off in a convenient form so as to include the improvements upon which she and her husband William Feather now live and to assign the line of Michael Doyle.

This undivided five parts to be equally laid off so as for each to have an equal part. This aforesaid land is sold to my daughters for four dollars per acre, which sums I do not exact of them. But is to be considered as so much money then as mine to my estate after my death — my said children are to pay taxes for said land from this time. But not to interrupt me, the said David Crisler nor my wife in the peaceable possession of the same and every part of it during our lives, the title to which I bind myself to make by deed to each of my said daughters to their heirs or assigns respectively, agreeably, and pursuant to the division aforesaid.

In Testimony whereof the said David Crisler doth hereunto set his hand and seal this 1st day of July 1820.
