I Edward Faulder of the County of Boone State of Kentucky being in full possession of sound memory, thinking that my days not to be long or many to come, and that Death is certain to all living, I having presence of mind now at this time to make a will to give and bequeath my property away in such a manner as may suit me best, do constitute and make this my last Will and Testament revoking all former bequests or wills gifts &c. After my lawful debts shall be paid, funeral expenses &c. that then I give and bequeath to my loving Wife Rachel Faulder, all and singular my estate both real & personal, the plantation where I now live including of one hundred acres of land, during her life, and all my other property to be vested in her to her own use to dispose of as she may think best for her own support, during her life, and at her decease, shall have full power & authority to dispose of the same as she may see cause, amongst my children, In Testimony whereunto I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 22nd day of July 1811 I do hereby appoint my Edward Faulder Executor of all my estate
