

names Sarah, and the future increase of said Sarah if any, also a good riding horse and saddle and bridle, and two good feather beds, &c. &c. and furniture, and such other articles of household furniture or personal property as she may choose to take, which are to be delivered by herself, and also two hundred dollars in cash, all of which I leave to her, and she is to have use and enjoy during her natural life and then all that remains of it is to be equally divided between my children Nancy Latimer and Richard J. Latimer.

Thirdly, I will and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Latimer & Pansell Latimer her husband the negro girl Harriet and the negro boy Moses, who are now in their possession, also my negro man Edmund and give him two hundred dollars in cash to be paid them within three years after my decease, and no charge is to be made against them by my Executors or in any division of my Estate for the negroes. But and these I have hitherto given them and by them sold and for the horses or other personal property and a money heretofore given them.

Fourthly, I will and bequeath to my son Richard J. Latimer the farm and tract of land whereon I now live containing about two hundred and sixty three acres be the same more or less, with its appurtenances, also my negro slaves, Evaline, Samford & Robinson and two good horses and two good beds, bedsteads and furniture.

Fifthly, In case my negro boy Alfred is obtained in the law suit about him with Wm. H. Marshall, it is my will that my son Richard shall have said boy Alfred, but he is to have said boy by paying to my daughter Nancy and her said husband one hundred dollars.

Sixthly, It is my will and desire that all the balance or remainder of my Estate be it real personal or mixed & be it more or less, be it in possession or remainder, shall be equally divided and descend equally to my daughter Nancy & my son Richard J. Latimer.

Lastly, I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my son Richard J. Latimer, Executor to this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this sixth day of December in the year eighteen hundred and thirty three.

Jacob Latimer

Testament in our presence.

Amanda Chambers.

Richard White.

Boone County Court. January Term 1834.

This writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Jacob Latimer was this day produced in Court & proven by the oath of Rich^d White a subscribing witness who also made oath that the Testator called on Amanda Chambers the other subscribing witness to witness said will, who deposed it was a will in presence of him said White in presence of the Testator, whereupon it is ordered that said will be recorded which is accordingly done.

Attest: Miles Graves clk.

Memorandum. That on the 31st day of January in the year 1834 John Ryon of the County of Boone and State of Kentucky being sick of the body being when he died on the same day at his dwelling house in said County, &c. &c. made and declared his last will and testament, the substance and effect of which was in these or words of like substance: That is to say, I give and bequeath unto my wife Margaret Ryon all of my property that I do possess of consisting of my land personal property &c. It is my desire that she should take charge of it, settle and arrange my business, and after paying my debts the remainder to be hers, these words or to the like effect the said John Ryon declared in the presence of the subscribers with intention that the same should be his last will & testament whereof he desired them to bear testimony which was reduced to writing this 30th day of January 1834.

Matthew Adams

Hugh Steers

Boone County. July Court 1834.

This writing purporting to be a Memorandum of the will of John Ryon was this day produced in Court examined and proven by the oaths of Matthew Adams and Hugh Steers two subscribing witnesses who proved the same as the law directs, which is ordered to be recorded as the proven Memorandum of the will of John Ryon &c. whereupon the same is duly recorded.

Attest: Miles Graves clk.

In the name of God amen I Robert S. Chambers of the Town of Burlington County of Boone and State of Kentucky being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing mind and memory do make declare and publish this instrument of writing as my only and last will and testament hereby revoking any will or testament by me hitherto made or attempted to be made. And first I will and direct that my debts which are now inconsiderable shall be paid as soon after my decease as my Executors may find convenient.

Secondly, I will and bequeath to my brother Alfred S. Chambers the sum of twenty three hundred dollars to him and his heirs forever to be paid to him as soon as my Executors can raise the amount out of the debts due me.

Thirdly, I will and bequeath to my sister Ann Riddle three children to wit: Charles J. Riddle Lafayette Riddle and Mary J. Riddle jointly and to the survivors or survivor of them should either or any of them die without issue and under lawful age, the sum of twenty three hundred dollars to them and the heirs of each of their bodies former an equal portion of said sum of twenty three hundred dollars to be paid to each of said three children as he or she shall arrive at lawful age or marry, until which time said sum of twenty three hundred dollars is to remain in the hands and under the direction and control of my Executors herein after named, and in the event of the death of all three of my sister Ann's said children without leaving issue of their bodies I will and direct that said sum of twenty three hundred dollars shall go to my three brothers Charles Joseph & Alfred & their heirs forever.