M. B. Hamilton C. C. C.
 1837

J. Williamson Price of the County of Boone and State of Kentucky being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing himself to make and ordain this to be my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills or codicils by me heretofore made.

First of all it is my will and desire that after my death my debts shoud be in number be paid as soon as they conveniently can be paid.

2nd I will unto my dear wife Nancy Price my homestead farm whereon I now reside during her natural life together with all my slaves stock of all kinds household and kitchen furniture debts dues and demands of every kind except such as may be hereafter excepted.

3rd It is my will that should my son Andrew marry or arrive at full age before the death of my wife Nancy Price then and in that case it is my will that my son Andrew Price shall have portion of so much of the tract of land as is called the Cherry farm and should my wife live until my son Albert should arrive at full age or marry then and in that case he shall be entitled to a portion of the farm equal to that called the Cherry farm.

And it is my will and desire that should the death of my dear wife take place any time anterior to the aforesaid periods or whenever thereafter the said homestead farm to be equally divided between my two sons Andrew Price & Albert Price. And it is my will and desire that my son Andrew L.
 Price remain with his mother and that my wife Nancy have full power to sell and dispose of any of the crop or stock of any kind at any time she may deem it prudent & to the interest of the estate.

4th It is my will and desire that my wife Nancy Price at all times during her natural life have the privilege of hiring out any of the slaves if she should think it to the interest of the estate and if at any time she should think the interest of my estate requires it for the benefit of any of my slaves to make sale of them whenever fair prices could be had.

5th I will unto my daughter Ann Price my tract of land near Burlington to her and her heirs forever and at the time of a division between my children it is my will that what the Burlington tract of land may be deficient in value shall be made up to her in money by my two sons who are to receive my homestead farm. It being my true meaning that each should be equal in all things.

6th It is my will that should either or all of my said children arrive at age before my wife Nancy Price death then and in that case it is my will that they should be equal in all things.
