In the name of God, amen. I John Farmer of the county of Boone and State of Kentucky: Farmer. Being in perfect mind and sound understanding, this testifying the true faintly of this transitory life. do make constitute and publish this my last will & Testament, hereby revoking and making completely void all wills former of wills, heretofore by me made and declaring this and only this to be my last will and Testament -

Item 1st I leave all my Estate of every description to my beloved wife, Nancy, Farmer during the widowhood. To wit: eight six acres of land whereon I now live with all the privileges and appurtenances therunto belonging, also my stock of every kind, we have held and had in families to wit: 200 lbs. and a domestic my just debts being first paid for her use, and for the use and maintenance of my children 123 Item 2nd It is my wish and desire that at such times as any of my children shall marry or become of age, that my wife give unto them and each of them such property as she may think proper and can conveniently spare giving unto each as near as can be an equal proportion, and at the death of my wife, or at the final distribution of my said property, I desire that the same may be equally divided among my children by my Executors hereafter named -

Item 3rd I give & bequeath unto my son William Farmer a horse when he comes of age to him to his heirs forever -

Lastly, I do hereby appoint James M. Whitlock & Jeremiah Lane executors of this my last will and Testament authorizing and requesting them at such times as a distribution of my said Estate may take place, that they make an equal distribution of my said Estate among my children -

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this tenth day of November eighteen hundred & thirteen

Signed, sealed, published & delivered declared to be his last will & Testament in presence of John Farmer
