

Fourthly. I will and bequeath order and direct that my negro man Solomon and negro woman Patsy shall be free and emancipated from all bondage and slavery to any person whatever from and after the first day of January 1830. And that my negro boy Anderson shall in like manner be free and emancipated from and after the first day of January 1830. and that my Executors see that my said slaves are regularly emancipated at the times they shall be entitled to their freedom as aforesaid, until the arrival of which times my said slaves are to be under the direction and control of my Executors and no other person whatever.

Fifthly. I hereby will and bequeath to my two brothers Charles Chambers and Joseph Chambers all the real and residue of my Estate real and personal in possession reversion or remainder to them and their heirs forever. But I most solemnly enjoin them the following duties and responsibilities, and their acceptance of the provision herein made for them shall bind them to see that our father Robert Chambers is at all times protected for himself, that he be permitted to use and occupy the room he now resides in, that they furnish him with such necessary board & clothing as his age and condition may require and permit under their direction and management one or more of my slaves to serve and wait on my father until the time appointed for their freedom, and should my father survive beyond the time appointed for the liberation of my slaves then I wish my Executors to procure the services of said slaves or some other persons for my father so long as he shall live. This provision is made for my father to last so long as he shall remain single and reside with my brothers.

Lastly. I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my brothers Charles Chambers and Joseph Chambers Executors of this my last will, and authorize and empower them to make execute and deliver conveyances in any and all cases which shall be in pursuance of any contract entered into by me and I hereby request and direct that my said brothers Charles & Joseph be permitted to qualify as Executors and to execute the trust of this will without being required by any Court or other authority to give bond or security for the same and also without being required to make out or return any inventory appraisement or other account of my estate.

It is also my negro man Solomon & negro woman Patsy shall live to obtain their freedom under the provision herein before made respecting them I wish my Executors to furnish them with necessary articles for housekeeping &c. to an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars which amount is to be laid out by my Executors for such things as they may deem most necessary for said slaves, but should they not live to the time appointed for their freedom, no other person is to have a charge against my Executors for said sum of one hundred dollars.

In Testimony whereof I do hereunto set my name & seal to this my last will written on three pages at my room in Burlington this twentieth day of March 1824.
