And Fth 11 as my executor hereafter named may think fit, and as in a 258 for my temporal estate and what else God hath been pleased to bless me with I give and bequeath as follows:

first, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Eleanor Tucker seventy acres of land including the plantation I now live on, so long as she remains my widow, but it is to devolve on my youngest son, Granbury Tucker when he arrives to the age of twenty one years, Nevertheless it is to be understood that my said wife is to keep possessions of the above mentioned plantation during her widowhood, I likewise give and bequeath to my said wife the old brown horse Sally and the black mare flimnap and her colt three bed with furniture to be worth thirty dollars each, likewise a pattern of curtains now in the house, the cupboards and furniture, as well the silver tea spoons and fifty four dollars worth of property in sheep and cattle at their appraisement a bureau and China table and sugar dish and
