Rowlings
Joshua
Will

In the name of God, Amen. I Joshua Rowlings of the County of Bourbon and State of Kentucky being weak in body, but in perfect mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of all men that were all born, once to die, do therefore devise and Ordain this my last will and Testament, and first of all I recommend my body to the dust from whence it came to be interred at the discretion of my Executors and my soul into the hands of the almighty who gave it, and as to the worldly estate I have placed the Lord to bestow on me, I do hereby bequeath it in the following manner, to wit, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved daughter, Susannah, my son Lorp, and daughter Anna the farm wherein I now dwell containing fifty acres with its appurtenances. It is also my desire that my widow should reside on this farm until the eldest child comes of age, if she chooses otherwise, or, to leave it, in that case I desire the farm to be sold by the Executors, and the money arising therefrom to be put to an Interest for the use of the of Susannah, Lorp and Anna. It is further my desire that my son Lorp should be put apprentice to the Saddle business under the direction of my Executors, and also if it should so happen that my widow should marry again, in that case I wish the plantation to be put into the hands of my Executors and at all times be subject to their care as to waste of Timber or other depredations. It is also my desire that each of the above children should be Educated out of a part of my estate hereafter to be mentioned.

I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Sophia One third part of a tract of Land lying on the waters of Shells creek, part of a preemption of John Canady's deceased, containing one hundred and thirty acres also one third part of a tract of land lying on the
