J. Pullen
Wife
3
I Jedediah Pullen of Bourbon County and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory but in a weak aged and infirm condition and for the purpose of laying lastest future Contest, about my worldly Estate, among my children, do make and Ordain the following as my last will and Testament, and do devise and dispose of my Estate as follows, to wit.

First I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Betsey Pullen the following household furniture, to wit, One white mare a Natural pacer called Grey, about nine years old, also a gray mare called Silver, the Coll of the mare ^{first} ~~where~~ described, about six years old, also a gray horse called Buck three years old, in July last, (the Coll of the white mare first described,) Also the two Colls of the said mare Silver, to wit, A young sorrel mare rising three years old and a dark bay mare Coll one year old not spring, rather inclining to a roan called Chubbs Coll all being the same horses and their increase, which belonged to my said wife before marriage and which I now return.

I also give and bequeath to my said wife two feather beds, her choice of all I may possess at my death and their furniture also two bowls and basins the choice of all my Stock of meat Cattle, also the Bureau now in my house - Also the one equal third part of all my Stock of sheep and hogs - and the whole number of geese, which may be on my plantation at my death - Also a sorrel horse now in my possession called Dragon about six years old - and declare the whole of the foregoing bequests to be absolute and unconditional to my said wife to belong to her her heirs or assigns forever.

Secondly I give, bequeath and devise to my said wife Betsey Pullen, fifty acres of land, to be laid off in a convenient form including the house and plantation where on I now live with all the appurtenances and the crop growing thereon till my decease, for and during her natural life, and also to bequeath and devise to her four of my Negroes, to wit, Ned, Meshack, Wenny and Buckey for and during her natural life - The foregoing fifty acres of land to be divided equally between my two sons John and James Pullen, (the devise to James to be subject to the following lien and Conditions,) to them their heirs and assigns forever - And the four Negroes devised above to my wife for life is to be disposed of at death in manner herein after directed.

Thirdly I give and bequeath to my said wife all the remainder and residue of my personal estate to be kept together by her with ordinary care and diligence, but without impeachment of ordinary waste for and during her natural life and at her decease it is to be equally divided between my four daughters Sarah Clinchbeard wife of Isaac Clinchbeard, Betsey Smart wife of Richard Smart Polly Foster wife of Asa Foster and Sarah Fegan wife of Zachariah Fegan to them their heirs and assigns forever.

Fourthly, At the decease of my wife I devise and bequeath my negroe girl Bechy in whom I have first given my wife a life estate and all her future increase to Sarah Fegan my daughter to her and her heirs and assigns forever. I further will and devise my negroe man Ned at the decease of my said wife to be forever ^{free} and emancipated from the claim of all my heirs. And I give and bequeath to my son James Pullin my negroe girl Minny and my negroe slave Meshack (in whom I have given my wife a life estate) at my wife's decease to belong to him his heirs and assigns forever, subject nevertheless to the devise herein after made to my Executors.

Fifthly my son Thomas Pullin not having behaved himself towards me, as the duty of a son requires towards a father, and now pretending to set up a claim by gift to my negroe girl Minny and is now endeavouring to wrest her from me, when he has no ground or Colour of claim (and all his pretences I declare unfounded) I now devise to him only the sum of one dollar, to be paid by my Executors out of my personal estate and that to be in full of all demands.

Sixthly, I devise and bequeath to my two sons James and John all my lands to be equally divided, between them according to quantity and quality, to them their heirs and assigns forever, not to have the possession or enjoyment of the fifty acres belonging to my wife till after her decease, and the devise to my son James to be subject first to the following devise to my Executors and no part of my estate hereafter devised to my said son James to be enjoyed by him till the following devise to my Executors of his share of the estate has had its full and complete operation and effect.

Seventhly, Whereas I have become security for my said son James Pullin to John Todd and Rebeck Hill and perhaps some other - And by said securityship my Estate may hereafter suffer or be in danger. I therefore hereby devise and bequeath to my Executors, or to my Administrators with their will annexed as the case may be or to the Sheriff of the County, if he shall become my administrator by order of the County Court, all the land and Negroes herein before devised to my son James to wit, the one half of all my land and the Negroes Minny and Meshack to be kept in the hands of said Executors or Administrators, or Sheriff as the case may be as a fund to discharge the securityship wherein I may be bound for my said son James Pullen, to be sold & conveyed by them at private sale to discharge any judgment which may be obtained against my representatives as security for my said son James, or to be given up for execution if it cannot be otherwise disposed of to greater advantage, to discharge said demands - First if judgment is obtained against my Estate for any ~~debt~~ ^{demand} due from my said son James, for which I am now legally bound an Order of the County Court appointing commissioners to divide said land agreeably to their rule, between my said two sons shall be obtained, and the division when made by said Commissioners and is returned and recorded shall be valid and binding between my said ~~two~~ sons to sever the title of said land, and then the Executors or as many of them as shall act, or the administrator or Administrators with the will annexed, or the Sheriff of the County as the case may be, shall proceed to sell his (my said son James) share of the land and shall apply the proceeds of said sales to satisfy said securityship debts - provided however that no sale made by my Executors or administrators or Sheriff shall disturb the possession & enjoyment of my wife of the said fifty acres herein devised to her, during her natural life, nor shall said fifty acres be subject to be given up for execution as herein directed, nor shall any sale made of the said Negroes Meshack and Minny prevent my wife enjoying their service during her life, nor shall they be subject to execution as above directed, unless my said wife shall choose to give up the one half of said land or the whole or any part of said two slaves for that purpose, Otherwise

179. the title only which would have reverted to my son James at her decease shall be subject to sale for said securityship debt, leaving her the proprietor till her decease - Provided Also if my said son James shall in any manner satisfy said demands for which I am bound and shall produce to my executor a clear release of my Estate from said securityships and each of them then he shall come into the benefit of this will and enjoy his estate as if this devise had not been made.

Eighthly if it should so happen that I should survive my said wife, then the estate herein devised to her absolutely, shall go to her heirs, and that part devised to her for life only shall go to those persons, to whom the reversion is herein appointed at my wife's decease.

Ninthly My funeral expences and any little debts which I may owe, shall be discharged out of that part of my personal estate exclusive of land and negroes, devised to my wife, the reversion of which is herein before appointed by equal division to my four daughters and enough thereof is to be disposed of by my executor for that purpose.

Lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Betsey Pullen the executrix and my son-in-law Zechariah Tegan the executor of this my last will and Testament, with power to one to act, if the other refuses to be qualified - And I do declare this to be my last will and Testament, and do hereby revoke & disannul all former wills by me heretofore made. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and nine.

I Josediah Pullen of Bourbon County and State of Kentucky being still of sound mind, but weak in body - owing to some recent change in my circumstances, have thought it prudent to make the following alterations in my last will and Testament dated in November one thousand eight hundred and nine, and do desire ^{that} the following be annexed as a Codicil thereto.

First, the several have called, I have mentioned in my will and devised, to my wife I have since sold, of course the devise to her is to be curtailed in that part. Secondly, The Negro Girl Minny devised to my wife during ~~her~~ life and after her death to James Pullen has since the making of said will been recovered by my son Thomas - Of course the devise to my wife ^{must} in that respect be curtailed.

Thirdly, I have since given my negro man Ned (in my will devised) to James Pullen. I do hereby revoke all devise in my will concerning my said Negro man Ned, and do confirm the gift of him which I have made to the said ^{James} Pullen his heirs and assigns forever. And I further declare what my wife is to receive in said will is to bar all claims to dower which she may have.

Fourthly, Whereas I have since the making of my will sold the whole of the lands in the will mentioned to my son in law Zachariah Tegan - and therefore the said Tegan has paid some money in discharge of my indebtedness for James Pullen - And as a part consideration has given his bond to see myself and wife supported during life. As by said bond of record will appear. Now I do hereby forever revoke all the devises of my lands contained in my said last will, and Testament whether to son or daughter or wife and do confirm the conveyance thereof to my said son in law with enjoining it upon him to fulfill his bond punctually. And I do ratify all other devises contained in my said will to my wife and other devises herein not expressly revoked, and do desire my will in all things to remain as here before except wherein it is ^{hereby} expressly changed. And in Testimony that this is a Codicil to my last will & Testament I here set my hand and seal this 4th day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred & 11.

ton's Will

In the name of God, Amen. I William Congleton of Bourbon County and State of Kentucky, calling to mind the mortality of my body, being in perfect mind and memory this twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and four, do make constitute and Ordain this as my last will and Testament, desiring and recommending my body to be decently interred in the earth and spirit to the hands of God who gave it, first.

First I do allow all my lawful debts to be paid, then I do leave and bequeath to my well beloved wife Jean Congleton, all my estate real and personal to be at her disposal to whom she pleases at her decease, except the Legacies hereafter written. Next I leave and bequeath to the heirs of my well beloved son John Congleton the sum of five shillings, next I do leave and bequeath to my well beloved son James Congleton the sum of five shillings, and next I leave and bequeath to my well beloved son William Congleton the sum of five shillings, and unto my well beloved daughter Agnes, wife to Bennet Roberts, the sum of five shillings. Next I leave and bequeath unto my well beloved daughter Jean wife to James Brown the sum of five shillings, and unto my well beloved daughter Mary wife to John Holt I leave and bequeath the sum of five shillings. And thus I do constitute and appoint my well beloved wife Jean Congleton my whole and sole Executor and Administrator of this my last will and Testament, desiring she may leave at her decease what remains of this my Estate to my well beloved daughter Elizabeth Congleton.
