craft deceased was returned into Court and ordered

At

Jno. P. Smith D. C. R.

In Court of John McCoy of the County of Barton and State of Kentucky being aged weak and infirm, but being of sound mind and memory and knowing that I must shortly leave this world and go the way ~~the way~~ of all flesh do make and ordain this writing all others, my last will and testament.
I Item after the payment of all my just debts and funeral charges.
I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth McCoy my third part of all the money that may arise from the Sale of my personal Estate together with three hundred dollars which is to be considered as an equivalent for her dower in the land whereon I now live together with the use of my negro man Ben whose labour is to be applied to the mutual benefit of not only my wife, but also my three daughters Nancy McCoy and Sarah McCoy during their continuance together and so on after the only benefit of my ^{said} wife during her life time, and at her death to the exclusive right of my daughter Nancy and should she die without her then the said Negro Ben shall be the sole property of my son Martin McCoy
