In the Name of God, Amen. I John Clarke of the County of Bourbon and State of Kentucky, being of perfect mind and memory, knowing the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time it may happen, have made this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following, (that is to say)
First, I give and bequeath to my loving Brother Robert Clarke, and to my two Sisters, Margaret Clarke, and Ann Clarke, all the lands left to me by my Father at his decease, to be equally divided between them, my said Bro. Mr Robert to have the privilege of laying off to my two Siter Margarets and I, their proportion in any manner he may think proper.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my said Brother Robert Clarke, all the rest of the property or profits which has accrued to me since we have worked the farm in partnership, except my mare and colt, which I give to Miss Ruth Wilcox.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my Brother in law, Abraham Langton, my farm which he now occupies, two years, from the information of my decease.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my loving Brother Robert Clarke Executor of this my last will and Testament, thereby revoking all others heretofore made.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, seal this fourteenth day of August 1812.

Signed, sealed, and deliv^d by John Clarke, dec^d in presence of John Hughes
Wm Ford

Bourbon County, February Court 1813
This last will and Testament of John Clarke deceased, was produced into Court, and the signing and publication thereof fully proved by William Ford one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto, who also proved that the said decedent signed and published the same as his last will and Testament in the presence of John Hughes and other subscribing witnesses thereto, and that the said Hughes subscribed the same in the presence of the Executor, and the witness, and that said John Hughes in Court dec^d, whereupon said will was admitted to Record. And thereupon Robert Clarke the Executor therein named came into Court, and made oath thereto, and together with William Markham
