On the motion of Rachel Robinette to prove the noncupa-tive will of John Robinette p. Mary Turley and Joseph Robinette of lawful age came into court and being sworn deposed that on the 28th day of September last when the said John Robinette was in his last illness and a few hours before his death but when he was of sound disposing mind and memory he called his brother Joseph Robinette to his bed ^{side} specially, and declared in the presence of both that he believed he should die - That he wished his brother Joseph Robinette to settle all his business for him and that he left and depend of all his Estate to Rachel Robinette his mother, during her life. and what was left after her death should go to his niece Rebecca Robinette and that the substance of said will was committed to writing in their presence within five days after it was so spoken. And thereupon the Court being satisfied that the foregoing is within the provisions of the act of assembly relative to noncupative wills, do order the foregoing to be recorded as the last will and testament of the said John Robinette p. deceased.

Bourbon County, February Court 1811. The noncupative will of John Robinette p. deceased was produced to Court and proved by the Oaths of Joseph Robinette
