Attest

Thos Smith 1836

In the name of God, Amen, I John Champ, being sick of body but perfect in mind, do think proper to make this my last will and testament, in such manner as to do justice to myself and every just creditor I have. As to my body I consign it to its mother earth, my soul I commend to the benificent and merciful God of heaven, and earth in whom I trust; with regard to my property I would have it disposed of in the following manner, to wit. The estate left me by my father to be sold and that together with what I already have owing to me I wish to have appropriated to the use of paying my just debts and should there be any left which I presume there will, I wish it to be added to the mass of my estate the whole residue of my Estate after making the above
