In the name of our Lord - this tenth first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen - I, J. B. Gordon living in my natural sense and sound in memory, calling in mind the mortal state of man and rather infinite and I bear this to be my last will and testament living and being in a better health and state of mind and mind of all I do distribute my just and lawful debts to be paid and not payable, all my real and personal estate to be retained in the hands of my well beloved wife Polly Gordon during her widowhood and here I do leave and bequeath unto my well beloved son J. B. Gordon a young man now named Jesse and also six years schooling to be paid out of my personal estate and above his share of my real and personal estate - which I do ever bequeath and assign to be justly and equally divided to each one of my heirs, each one to get and enjoy their share at the close of life.

of the same, we find a balance in favor of a dms of $12.46 after making him an ance of six pounds for his services as dms from June 1806 untill this day. Given under our hands this 21st day of Oct^r 1811.
