Intest^{ed} I William Jones of Bourbon County and State of Kentucky, being weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say. First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth, the lower end of my land to include my dwelling house and one half of the land with my too work mares, a bay with a snip, the other a gray, together with the farming utensils and household furniture, to have the same during her life, and at her death I do bequeath the same to be my youngest son Aaron, but at my death the above mentioned mares and household furniture is to be appraised and of the same should amount to more than Aaron's equal share he is to pay back to the rest. Likewise my wife is to have a sufficiency of $\frac{1}{2}$ of my stock for her next years provision and one breeding steer with one third of my cattle and sheep with my team, rails and, Hens.

I do give and bequeath to my son Jacob my boy Nathan Likewise it is my desire that the rest of my stock should be sold and the money equally divided among all my Children.

Likewise I do bequeath to my son Isaac the upper end of my land which is to be equally divided between him and my wife.

Likewise it is my desire that my baggage should stay on my farm for the use of all my Children and they are to be equal shares in keeping her in repair. And I do hereby appoint my son Isaac Executor of this my last will and testament. Verily touching all former wills by me made In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal.
