In the name of God Amen, I Caroline L. Ball of the County of Boyle and State of Kentucky, being weak in Body but of a sound and disposing mind and memory, make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others made by me heretofore

1st I will and desire that after my death that any debt I may owed may be paid, and my funeral expenses discharged out of my estate 2nd My will and desire is that all my property of every kind and description whether in cash notes, or cash or money now in the hands of my Guardian or that may come into his hands, also all the money or property that may be owing or coming to me out of the property lately sold by James Barbour, Esq, as Commissioner in the case of Peter Depauw for me and others shall pass into the hands of my Mother Paulina Meigs late Paulina Ball, to have and control the same as she may think proper during her life and at her death to dispose of the same as she may deem proper

3rd My meaning in the above clause is that ~~that she also~~ my mother is to have all of my estate of every kind and description, or whatever may be coming to me from any person or persons whatever 4th My will and desire is that my Mother Paulina Meigs shall be the executor of this my last will and Testament and reposing confidence in her. I desire that she shall not be required to give security for the discharging of her duties. Given under my hand and seal this the 3rd day of August 1852
