

In the name of God - I Elijah Harlan being at this time weak in body and conscious of the uncertainty of human life, but being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others. First it is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid out of the debts which may be due to me - Secondly. It is my will and desire that my wife Sally Harlan and all my unmarried children namely Emaline Isabella James John & Sophia and also my daughter Elizabeth Gray so long as she may live separate from her husband shall all live on and enjoy in common the farm and its proceeds on which I now reside and for this purpose I will that there shall be no sale of my Negroes neither of my other personal property but will that all shall remain as at present those above named enjoying the proceeds so far as may be necessary for their comfort and should there be more money made than will support them then the surplus to be loaned out at interest for the benefit of all my children. I also will that in case there should be at any time more servants than shall be needed for the use of the farm or any that are not desired to remain on the farm by my wife such or more shall be hired out for the use of my family and in the event of the marriage of my wife she shall then take her thirds of my estate and the remainder of my land to be rented out for the use and support of my unmarried children and also the remaining Negroes to be hired out and all the remaining personal property to be sold for their benefit. And should any of my children now unmarried marry previous to the death of my wife such child or children so marrying to receive as near one thousand dollars as may be should the condition of my estate permits at the time of such portion to be in Negroes money or other personal property as may be most conveniently appeared. My children that are now young and have not completed their education to be educated equal with the sons and the expense paid out of the proceeds of the farm and at the death of my wife it is my will that my farm Negroes and all other property be sold on such terms and such time within a reasonable time as my Executor may think best and the whole then to be equally divided among all my children who may then be alive but my daughter who married is to be excepted as follows Sally Ann who married John B. Hughes has received ^{from} ~~her~~ ^{from} is to be charged with twelve hundred dollars and Martha C. who married Andrew Grafton has received and is to be charged with the sum of nine hundred dollars and in the event of the death of either of the above named married daughters Sally Ann or Martha C. neither of their husbands or their children of the one who may have died are to receive any thing more of my estate. But should they be living at the distribution of my estate after the death of my wife they will receive an equal portion after being charged as above. My daughter Elizabeth who has married J. Gray & with whom she cannot live shall be supported so long as she remains in her present condition as my unmarried children and not be changed and I do hereby will that my friend J. Westlake shall receive an equal portion of my estate with my other children in trust for my said daughter Elizabeth and her child to be held in trust by him so long as she shall remain in her present relation to Gray said Gray never to receive one cent of my estate I also will that at any time Elizabeth shall desire it the trustees above named shall take notice of my Negroes to be appraised by three disinterested men her portion to be charged with the amount in the equal division and for the purpose of carrying into effect all the provisions of this my last will I do hereby appoint my friends Andrew W. Kyle and Thomas Pittman my Executors. Given under my hand and seal this 17th day of November 1843
