

Will
of
E. Harley

I, Enoch Harley, of Boyle County, State of Kentucky, do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others and former Wills by me made.

1st I will and desire that all of my just debts of every kind be paid out of my personal estate.

2^d I will and desire that my beloved wife Emily shall have the mansion house in which I now reside, and one hundred acres of land immediately around the same; also two slaves, Dalton and Emily; two choice horses, three cows, my rockaway, so much of the household and kitchen furniture and farming utensils as she desires, and enough provision of all kinds to last her for one year.

3^d I will and desire that my daughter Sarah Harley, shall have a horse, saddle and bridle, and one cow; and my son Henry Harrison Harley shall have a new saddle and a cow - to make them equal with my other children.

4th I will and desire that the remainder of my land and negroes after my wife gets as above directed, shall be equally divided among my children, viz: Matilda Moore, Gordon Harley, Susan Pittman, Williamson Harley, Sarah Harley, and Henry Harrison Harley, - the above division to be made by commissioners appointed by the Boyle County Court, but in making said division of the land the commissioners will lay off the portions for Henry H. Harley next to his mother - said commissioners will take into consideration, quantity, quality, water and timber.

5th I will and desire that all the balance of my estate, undisposed of above, shall be sold at such time as my Executor shall think best, and the proceeds, together with any money that may be left, after paying the debts, shall be equally divided among my children above named, and at the death of my wife, I desire my exec to sell all the property she may have, and the land and negroes hereby willed to her, during her life, and divide the proceeds equally among my children above named. Should any of my children die, leaving children, such children shall have the portions herein willed to their parent - and the portions herein willed to Matilda Moore and Susan Pittman is willed them and their bodily heirs.

6. I nominate and appoint James S. Hopkins my Executor of this my last will and testament, and invest him with full power to carry out all its provisions.

Given under my hand, this the 28th day of August, 1857.

of
E. A. Smith

I, Ephraim A. Smith, of the County of Boyle and State of Kentucky, do make this my last Will and Testament.

1st It is my will that all the personal property of which I am possessed at my death, be sold, and all my debts paid, the residue thereof to be added to my other money, to be disposed of as hereinafter directed.

2^d I hereby will and devise to the children of my sister, Susan Warren, one hundred and sixty acres of land, lying in Sullivan County Missouri.

3^d I have in the hands of my brother, Silas Smith, of Texas, One Thousand Dollars, a loan I made to him some years ago, without interest, it is my will that he still have the use of the same without interest as long as he may choose to retain it; but should he die without lawful issue, and his estate at his death be worth as much, it is my will that the aforesaid, One Thousand Dollars, or as much as may be collected and added to the other funds of my estate; and my Executors are directed to obtain from him an acknowledgment of the debt, subject to the aforesaid provisions.

4th It is my will that the remainder of my estate, consisting of cash notes, together with any residue from the sale of my personal effects, and the one thousand dollars depending upon the contingencies mentioned in Section 3^d be collected, and with the money I have at my death loaned at lawful interest, which interest alone shall be appropriated for the benefit and support of my sister Mary M. Smith, until her death; and upon that event, it is my will that all that remains, both principal and interest, shall be divided and appropriated as follows: - One Hundred dollars to the Southern Baptist
