At

Wm. B. Nichols, CLK,

I Henry Fields of the County of Moscor and State of Kentucky do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament -

First, My will and desire is that all my just debts be paid as soon as convenient after my decease -

Second, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Susan that portion of the tract of land whereon I now reside which was first given me by my father and conveyed to me by deed bearing date the 10th day of May 1827 containing two hundred and seventy six and three quarter acres during her natural life (except so much of said tract as lies on the East side of the Turnpike road as now located and constructed - I also give and bequeath to my said wife four slaves (to wit) my negro man Dick and boy Edmund, girl Isabella and a woman called Ann, also as much of my stock as she may think will be necessary for her use and comfort, together with all my household and Kitchen furniture during her natural life - and should in my lifetime dispose of any one or more of the above named slaves or should either of said slaves die before me, then my desire is that my said wife shall select from my remaining slaves other slaves to supply the place or places of such as may be thus disposed of or die, I also give her four hundred dollars in money -

Third, My will and desire is that my Executors hereinafter named shall as soon as convenient after my decease proceed to make sale of the balance of my Estate real personal and mixed to the highest bidder, the land to be sold on credits of one and two years and the balance of my Estate on credit of one year, and the proceeds of said sale to be equally divided among my children, and in making such distribution the following advancements which I have already made to some of my children is to be taken into the account. I have given to my daughter Sally C. Wright by way of advancement property and money to the amount of five hundred and eighty dollars. I have given to my daughter Mary M. Durham five hundred and fifty dollars. I have given to my son William the sum of one thousand and fifty dollars, which sums are to be taken into the account in a general distribution of my Estate and charged against them who have received it so as finally to make all my children equal, but the legacy hereby bequeathed to my daughter Sally C. Wright is to be retained in the hands of my Executors who are hereby constituted Trustees for that purpose to be loaned out at interest and the interest to be applied to the use and for the benefit of my said daughter Sally for and during her life and at her death to be equally divided among the then living children of her body. But if at any time my said daughter Sally shall desire that the money herein devised to her should be appropriated to the purchase of land for her to live upon my Executors are at liberty to make such purchase taking the conveyance to her during her life and at her death to go to the children of her body my intention and meaning is that her husband shall never have the control or management of any Estate given by me to said Sally, except what they have already received. My wish is that the money herein devised to such of my children as are under age should be retained in the hands of my Executors until they respectively arrive at full age at which time it is to be paid to them. Fourth, My father-in-law gave to my son Frederick a colt which I sold for fifty dollars I wish that amount given to him over and above his equal share as I conceive he is entitled to it.

Fifth, To my youngest son I wish I will and bequeath my gold watch as a specific legacy which I wish him to keep for my sake.

Sixth, At the death of my wife I wish the Estate herein devised to her to be sold and disposed of among my children in the same manner that is herein directed in relation to my other property.

Seventh & Lastly, I hereby nominate constitute and appoint Frederick Pickens, James Fields, Henry S. Cowan and James P. Mitchell the Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby vesting them with full power and authority to make conveyances to the purchasers of my lands. My desire is that all four of my Executors herein named shall act - but if one or more shall refuse then any two of them are vested with all the power of the whole.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 8th day of May 1837

I Thomas B. Nichols, Clerk of the Boyle County Court, do certify, that this instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry Fields deceased, was produced in Court at the November term 1844 and proved by the oaths of David A. Pussel and Charles Henderson subscribing witnesses thereto, to have been duly executed by the said Henry Fields and the same, thereupon, was ordered to be recorded which has been done, accordingly -

Attest: Tho B. Nichols, CLK.

I, John Grant of the County of Boyle and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory do make and constitute this instrument my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me -

After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses It is my will that my Estate be disposed of as follows -

1st, My will and desire is that my negro man slave Prillmore at my death be emancipated and forever set free.

2nd, I will and bequeath to Amelia Ann Grant who is now living with me and daughter of my brother William Grant one thousand dollars to be paid her by my Executors.

3rd, I will and bequeath to Lucretia Griffin daughter of my brother William Grant the sum of five hundred dollars to be enjoyed by her and her heirs children of her body after her but not to be subject to the control or command or liabilities of her husband.

4th, I will and bequeath to my friend William May senior brother of my late wife the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid to him by my Executors.

5th, I will and bequeath to John Grant Black son of Robert Black the sum of five hundred dollars to be paid to him by my Executors.

6th, I will and bequeath to my niece Susan Southland wife of Robert Southland the use of one thousand dollars during her life to remain in the hands of John Harlan who I hereby appoint a trustee for that purpose and by whom the said sum is to be loaned and the interest to be applied to the support of the said Susan Southland annually for and during her life and at her death the principal sum to be equally divided between her two children Clarissa and James Southland or their descendants in case of their death if any they have and if either should die without issue then the whole sum to go to the survivor or the descendants of such survivor.

And it is to be understood that Robert Southland the husband of said Susan is indebted to me in a considerable amount which amount is to compose and be a part of the one thousand dollars above mentioned.
